NO. 50

MATERIAL HAS ARRIVED FOR LIME KILN

Several days ago the material for the lime kiln arrived, that is, the grates, and they are being put in this week, preparatory to the first run, and all are anxiously awaiting the results of this test.

Mr. John A. Dumas who has the work of the matter in charge seems to be even more enthused over the matter than at any time, for the specimen that are being taken out two or three feet and deeper under the surface are much better than the samples on top the ground, some of them being in the crystallized state.

We hope that the lime industry is to be one of the future industrial supports of one of the liveliest little cities on the plains, and every reader knows what place we allude to.

ONLY SURVIVOR OF ALAMO DIED RECENTLY

The only survivor of the Alamo, Lewis P. Shilling, who was a child of four years when he was found under some bushes after the massacre, died last month. His long life was full of adventure. Kit Carson, the famous scout, adopted him, and he, himself lived with the Indians seventeen years and learned the language and customs of several tribes. Going to California as a member of Fremont's expedition, he helped to build the first wooden house in San Francisco. He served with the 23rd Ohio Infantry during the Civil war, and he is buried in the National Soldiers Cemetery near Los Angeles, where a squad of old men, themselves heroes, fired a parting salute over his grave.

LOCKET ADAIR AN PARTY ARE HERE

Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, the people of Brownfield were assembled for the first time in the big tabernacle that the town built, and to hear the first sermon that the great evangelist, Locket Adair was to preach in Brownfield. It was a great day, and it appears that Terry County is going to be swept by a religious cyclone directed by Evangelist Adair.

Sunday morning Adair very highly complimented Brownfield for her fine school and churches, and for the erection of the big tabernacle. He said, "this tabernacle would be a credit to a town five times as large as Brownfield. I have been preaching in tabernacles for years, and I don't believe I was ever in one that was constructed as well as this one. It shows what kind of people live in Brownfield; it shows that you are the kind that 'puts things over,' and from the great spirit you have already shown, I am sure we are going to have a great meeting." After paying the compliments to the people, Evangelist Adair began to preach and he is still going every night.

Locket Adair is the type of man, and his preaching is that type that reaches all classes of people. He is held up by the leading ministers of the country as the greatest evangelist of the South. He is absolutely original in speech and in action, and the only way to describe him is to say that he preaches like Locket Adair, because his sermons are his own, his speech his own and his actions his own. At times he has his audience in roars of laughter by his humor, and at other times he has their eyes filled with tears by his pathos.

Locket Adair is assisted by his corps of workers; Mr. R. M. Hickman, director of the music; Miss Willie Adair, solist and director of young people's work, and Mr. E. B. King, advance man and director of young people's meeting.

Mr. Hickman, a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute at Chicago, has his choir rendering wonderful music; also, his xylophone solos are highly appreciated by everyone. He is at work now organizing a junior choir.

Miss Willie Adair has deeply impressed the people of Brownfield by her solos. She has a wonderful voice and her messages are carried home by the expression she puts into her solos. Miss Adair is also a splendid worker with young people.

Mr. E. B. King, A. B. graduate of Trinity University, is working with Miss Adair in the young people's meetings, and big things are expected from the young people of Brownfield.

Brownfield has been layed off into three districts in which the ladies have their afternoon prayer meeting circles.

Remember services every night at eight o'clock at the tabernacle and at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian church for the young people.

Tuesday of this week one of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holgate's little girls stepped on an old telephone insulator and came near severing the ball of the heel. Her parents, who live in the Harris community, hurried with her to town, and a local physician sewed it back, and it is now believed that it will heal immediately.

AS EDITOR SMITH SEES IT

It is pretty hard at this stage to tell positively about the crops but we do not believe that they will prove as badly damaged as it thought now. We may be hoping not so much that we do not see it as it is, but the cotton does not seem to be damaged more than 20 or 25 per cent now. Feed will nearly all come out where it is not buried. The rain and hail has beaten the dirt down and buried some feed, but there is plenty of time to plant this over and make a bumper crop. If we have plenty of feed and it does not bring a good price, it is always a profitable crop. Picking the cotton another season is going to be a greater problem than last season. Help is scarcer. Hundreds of farmers and farm help's have found paying employment in towns and cities and they will not return to the farms this fall, and if the school teachers are allowed to do it, they will open the schools early and take away the help that might be used on the farms. Schools could be opened a month or six weeks later and run that much longer in the spring and the only loss would be that the teachers would not get their vacations so early.—Lamesa Reporter.

Only the eastern part of Terry was hit so hard by the recent hail, and as suggested by brother Smith, that is not so bad as was first thought. Even in the worst era, some of the crops will come out. Arch Fowler, one of the farmers that was probably hit the hardest informed us one day this week that about 60 per cent of his crop would come out, and that he was already done replanting. We are truly glad that the damage was no worse than it was.

DALLAS MAN INVENTED FUEL MAKING MACHINE

What would you think of a machine that would take a gallon of gasoline and turn out 1,500 cubic feet of gas? Gas that would burn and that could be used for cooking, lighting and power purposes and at the same time made no smoke or soot, and was not poisonous and had no that will manufacture gas from gasoline, naphtha, coal oil or similar odor?

Will R. Harris, of Dallas, former candidate for Congressman-at-large, claims to have invented a machine products. According to Harris, a machine 18x34 inches at its base and weighing 250 pounds is used when the manufacture of it is started it will sell for about $100. As explained by Harris, the gasoline or other fuel is vaporized by carburetion, vacuum treated, pressed into cylinders and comes out gas. The fuel is pre-mixed with a certain chemical which causes it to produce the desired results. The gas is a dry, colorless gas which makes a brilliant light, says Harris, is hotter than natural gas and also cheaper. He claims that it has no odor, will not smoke or cause soot to form and is nonpoisonous. He estimates the cost of production at 20c per thousand cubic feet. Once the machine produces gas it is stored in a tank, which the machine automatically keep full.

Harris has his machine protected with patents pending. A company known as the National Gas Machine Company, Inc., has been formed in Dallas to manufacture and sell the invention.

The machines are for individual homes or buildings, such as factories, schools or churches. It can be used in both cities and rural communities. Harris declares it will revolutionize the fuel situation in this short of fuel, wood, coal, gas," he says, "and my machine, which can operate cheaply on oil products, will supply the absence of these."

To Keep American Ships on the Seas
For the first time since the Civil War we have a real merchant marine. It cost us $3,000,000,000 to get it.
The farmer, manufacturer, laborer—every American is interested in holding our position on the seas.
As a first step in this direction it is necessary to modify those articles of existing commercial treaties which have operated to thwart the upbuilding of our merchant marine—
By giving the notice of termination for which the several treaties provide.
This action is directed in the constructive Shipping Bill now before Congress;
Which declares it to be the policy of the United States "to do whatever may be necessary to develop and encourage" a merchant marine.
This policy deserves the support of every American.
Lacking this support the present effort to maintain our merchant marine may suffer the fate of many ineffective attempts of the past.
Send for a copy of "For an American Merchant Marine."

All our big coal dealers are storing ton after ton of coal for the winter, but they are advising everybody to get their coal this summer, as coal will not only be scarce, but it is a question whether or not freight cars can be secured to bring it in with.

K. W. Howell renewed one day recently, for another year.

FOR SALE: Good residence property, close in, bargain if taken at once. Jackson Brothers.

We have been authorized to say that W. A. Woolley has withdrawn from the race for Sheriff and Tax-Collector, thus leaving five in the race for that office. His many friends over the county regret that he saw proper to take this action.

An organizer for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was here last week, and the ball is now rolling for old Brown to be lined up with the rest of the live towns in West Texas to put this country before the whole U. S. as the best stopping place on earth.

This town has been as iceless as the Sahara this week and a warm revival in progress to boot, and us coke fellows have almost been on the war path. Mr. Burgess has been depending on Lubbock for ice all the year, and they have been broke down more or less—usually more—all the blessed year, and working over their machinery which by rights should have been done last winter. He has had two cars loaded at Amarillo, but the plant there seems to be located on the Denver road, and they are too contrary to transfer it to the Santa Fe. Snyder has promised him a little ice—maybe—and I. C. has just about decided to put in a plant here and stop the worry. Get behind the move people, and make it a go.

HOGVILLE LOCAL NEWS

By Dunk Botts.

The popping noise in the old shed at the edge of town where Silo Sims has his old auto, has ceased and it is believed it has given up, or Silo is dead from exertion trying to get it to run. Nobody has been to see about it as no one cares.

It is believed there is a moonshine still being operated somewhere in the hills near Bear Ford, as Bill Hellwanger is seen going and coming from that section very often lately. Bill is not a strong character and is easily led astray.

A new thing happened in Hogville and the postmaster is considerably upset over it. A woman postoffice inspector has called on the post office here and the Postmaster became so excited that he sat down on her hat which she had layed on a chair while looking after her work. He claims the hat had six hat pins in it and all took effect.

Dag Smith believes it must be an awful thing to be a dead man when one doesn't want to be dead.

Zero Peck found an old paper in the bottom of a trunk at his home yesterday, and in looking over it he noticed sugar advertised 20 pounds for a dollar, eggs 15 cents per dozen, GOOD RYE WHISKEY at one dollar a quart—here is where he fainted and is now coming from under the spell, and the first thing he called for was the paper to see for sure that there was no mistake about the date of it.

Gape Allsop says next thing you hear of will be some fellow trying to swim the Atlantic Ocean.

Zero Peck says the reason the Bear Ford preacher always speaks of the beautiful sunsets in his sermons and never refers to the sunrise is that he never gets up in time to see it.

Alexander Mosley says he might never have known he was a fool if his wife had not told him so.

Gape Allsop, a few days ago made some remarks about Bill Hellwanger. When Bill heard of it he seemed to regard the remarks as a re-fection on his character. As soon as Gape heard how he felt about the matter and fearing the outcome, he went to Bill and apologized. Bill accepted his apology but punched him in the face one time good and hard just to give him a sample of what he would have gotten had he not apologized.

Rev. Lindley, pastor of the Baptist church at Tulia, who had been given a vacation by his church, came down last week to visit his brother, J. R. and family.

R. B. Collier left Saturday for the home of his parents in Vernon, where he has business. He is one of the proprietors of the Collier & Williams Furniture and Racket Store.

Rev. L. W. Williamson association missionary for the Brownfield Baptist Association, was here this week attending the big Locket Adair revival that is being held under the new tabernacle.

Mrs. Almon and son, Bill, left last Saturday for their home in Floyd Co. after a short visit here with her two daughters, Mesdames, Walter Gracey and Curtis Huckabee. The latter returned home with her for a visit.

Judge W. R. Spencer, of Lubbock, was here this week looking after his candidacy for the office of District Judge to succeed himself.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs. in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theford's Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-131

My First Trip Without Mother, Father, Sister or Brother

Hello, People: I, only a country girl from Brownfield, going to take a trip. I will tell you all I learned. Breakfast was over, and I was too excited to eat much. I dressed and was waiting rather impatiently, and went up stairs to see if Gladys Fleming was ready; she was also waiting. She and her father were going as far as Weatherford with me.

When we boarded the train for Lubbock, of course I cried and Gladys laughed at me, but I knew I would get it back on her in Lubbock where she had to part from her mother and little brother who were to stop there.

At Lubbock, I was sorely disappointed for Gladys did not cry, but I must admit she was very near it.

In our company were Misses Flora Gaston, Maggie Coffee and Annie Martin, all the way from Brownfield to Sweetwater, but Miss Hulsey left us at Lubbock for her home at Tulia. These teachers ate their dinner at Slaton, but we were afraid of getting left and deferred that pleasure until we arrived in Sweetwater about four in the afternoon. After lunch we went to the movies to while away the time and then took a walk over the city, and they stared at us country tacks.

We slept in the chair car that night—that is we tried to—what to do with my purse was one reason, and here is the other; a young couple just across the aisle, just like two cooing doves, and such popping of lips. I'd be dead sure every person on the train was sound asleep, wouldn't you? But here I stayed awake and showed my country curiosity.

Next morning I got off at Weatherford, and if ever a person was lonesome, I was. I stopped at the Terminal hotel, and had been told it was such a fine hotel, and when I got there, there was no one up, all the chairs on the porch full of water for it was raining, and the breakfast they served was not worth two cents. My! but I wished I was back at the Hill Hotel. I then went to the depot and waited about three hours more for the train. Arrived at Mineral Wells at 10:30 a. m., but stayed there only three days as my grandmother was already there, and she, Miss Julia McAlister and myself started for Marshall. That day at noon we unched in the dining car, and the first thing presented was a bill of fare that I could not read as it was in French, and I thought I would take something I knew about, and you may imagine how shocked I was when the waiter brought it in; it looked like samples to me. He then brought some bowls with little paper bowls inside, and poured water in them and this country girl politely waited to see what was the next, and I saw my companions dip their fingers in them; I was taught to use a fork, but I dipped 'em too.

We arrived in Marshall the same day, and I have been here since. My grandmother gets a pint of milk from the dairy every day, and when she divides it between her self, Jack Winifred and myself, she almost has to use the eye dropper. How I long for the grand old West where there is plenty of milk and butter.

I did not know the world was so large until I started; why I thought I could plow right through it, but I soon knew better. I found I had to use my thinking cap very much at times, getting my tickets and trunks checked, etc. But I think, however, that I can make my trip back alright.

The Campaign Is On

Brownfield is seriously handicapped in growth and development because of a shortage of Homes.

Many families are living in camped quarters or hunting a place to live.

Every patriotic citizen should lend his efforts to this campaign to build more homes. If you are a renter build a home of your own. If you own a vacant lot improve it with a house for rent or for sale.

We cannot hope to attract additional families to Brownfield unless we can provide comfortable housing.

Our modern home plans will help you to decide.
