District Judge A. S. Mauzey To Preside At Meeting To Honor Citizen

In that members of the bar of the 32nd judicial district and Lions of the area may have opportunity to express their esteem of George Mahon, who within a few weeks is to leave for Washington to assume office as a member of congress from the 19th Texas district, the two organizations have united in plans for a "George Mahon Night" program to be given in Colorado on Tuesday evening, November 20.

Announcement that such a program would be observed was made Friday by Dr. Dave Bridgford, president of the Lions Club after receiving information that Jake Smythe, president of the Snyder Lions Club and group chairman for this area, that quarterly meeting of Lions Clubs in his territory would be convened on the date noted.

"The suggestion has come to me that it would be fitting for this Lions Club, together with the 32nd judicial bar, to sponsor a program at which proper tribute might be paid to George Mahon before his departure for Washington," Bridgford said. Motion that such a meeting be sponsored was immediately offered and adopted unanimously. Bridgford appointed C. C. Thompson, John E. Watson and W. S. Cooper, on committee to arrange details for the affair. It was announced that Judge A. S. Mauzey of the 32nd district court be invited to preside.

The committee has not concluded details for the program but tentative program calls for brief addresses by representatives of the Colorado, Sweetwater, Snyder and Big Spring Bar associations, the latter in district served by Mahon as State's attorney until a few months ago.

MRS. DORN SAID TO IMPROVING SLOWLY

Mrs. J. W. Dorn, who suffered painful bruises and wounds when she fell from a car early Friday, is said to be improving slowly at her home here. She is said to be very uncomfortable and restless, but it is thought that results of her injuries will not be serious as was at first feared.

Fushing by mistake against the opening lever of a car door, Mrs. Dorn fell and was dragged along the pavement for several feet. She was riding in a car following the ambulance which was bringing Mr. Dorn home from Wichita Falls.

T. W. Stonerod went to Abilene Thursday afternoon to attend sessions of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference.

Mrs. Webb Named Chairman Of Home Demonstration Council During 1935

Naming Mrs. M. A. Webb its chairman for 1935 the County Home Demonstration Council elected officers at its meeting in the office of Mrs. Emma Gunter, county home demonstration agent, last Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Vanzandt of Hyman was named vice-chairman, Mrs. T. P. Smallwood of Hyman secretary, and Mrs. Lee M. Jones of Plainview assistant secretary and treasurer.

Program features were team demonstrations given by women from Looney, Hyman, and Plainview. Looney's demonstration was on the making of hooked rugs with Mrs. Webb as leader. The Hyman team, composed of Mrs. W. C. McAlpine, Mrs. Carl Lowry, and Mrs. Vanzandt, made salad dressing and used it on three kinds of salad. Cookies for the school lunch were made in the Plainview demonstration, given by Mrs. E. B. Howell and Mrs. Tom Daugherty.

Twenty-five women from Rogers, Fairview, Seven Wells, Bauman, Looney, Hyman, Plainview, and Colorado were present for the demonstrations.

Next regular meeting of the council will be December 8, and all officers, both old and new, are expected to attend. Club secretaries will give their reports on work done this year in bedroom improvement, clothing, and canning, and a special program will be presented.

The dog population of London is estimated at approximately 500,000.

Boys and Girls Of 4-H Clubs Look Ahead To Annual Meeting In National Capitol

Since Mitchell county is devoting considerable attention to programs of her boys and girls as members of the 4-H Clubs, the following article written by James Starling Ayars and published in a recent edition of "The Haversack" should be of interest:

Their eyes are on the teeming earth. But their ears hear the silence of sleeping fields. Their hands are on the hoe. But in their minds they see the wealth of the year's harvest.

Nearly a million boys and girls of the farm lands, laboring in the hot fields, in the feed lot, in the canning kitchen, raise their eyes and look to December, still a month ahead. For it is in the first week of the year's last month that eleven hundred or more of the most fortunate members of the National 4-H Club will meet at their Thirteenth Annual Congress in Chicago.

Here the champions of county and state contests will compete against one another in cattle and grain judging contests. Here the sheep or the cattle, the corn or potatoes they have raised will meet in the show ring or on the judging table. Here also the jars of bright fruit they have canned or the colorful, neat dresses their fingers have painstakingly created will be judged in competition with the fruit or the dresses of 4-H Club members from other parts of the country.

But there is more to the Thirteenth 4-H Club Congress than mere competition among champions. There is a new world to be seen, a great city at work, and the best of the city's treasure houses. The National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, of which Thomas E. Wilson is chairman, has prepared a full program for each day the Congress is in session. The schedules vary from day to day, but most of them are similar to this one that was enjoyed by delegates to the Twelfth Annual Congress.

The awarding of prizes is an exciting event to any 4-H Club boy or girl. Living for a few days among a great city's tall buildings is an experience most of these boys and girls enjoy even though they have no desire to leave their farm homes. Longest to be remembered, however, is meeting young people from other parts of the country, young people with many of the same ideals, the same enthusiasm, but who speak with an accent that strikes the ears as something foreign and entrancing.

There is the meeting, too, of old acquaintances, boys or girls one has met in previous competitions, or who have worked on the same programs at state and county round-ups. And at the immense annual banquet and rally there is the whole-hearted and very satisfying singing, with hundreds of others, of the 4-H songs everybody knows.

It is good to know some of the young people one meets at the Congress. It is good to know the Johnson boys of western Illinois, Merle, eleven, Rollin, fourteen, and Donald, sixteen years old. Pink-cheeked, bespectacled, and all looking alike except for size, they attended the Congress held last December, bringing their sheep to enter them in the contest for sheep raised by boys or girls. The sheep took no prizes, but the boys made the show an experience in resourcefulness. In one of the corner sheep pens, they prepared a room of blankets and feed bags hung from wires. Straw on the floor and blankets on the straw added comfort to the room. And there they lived during the show, knowing their experience to be a great adventure. It was.

It is good to know fifteen-year-old Homer Graber of Wisconsin, who, with his father and young brother Robert, brought a number of red, white-faced young Herefords to the Junior Feeding Contest held at the time of last year's Congress. The year before, a young beef exhibited by Homer had failed to win a prize, but the boy had gone home, remembered what he had learned at the show, and determined to be more successful in the 1933 contest.

Impressive Talk On Armistice Given By Lions Club Speaker

Rev. Cal C. Wright, pastor of First Methodist church, was presented on program of the Lions Club Friday as speaker to deliver an address on Armistice. J. B. Pritchett, member of the program committee, was in charge.

"We who are Bible students, recall that Isaiah had a vision of peace 3,000 years ago, in which he depicted a time when the lion and the lamb should lie down together," the minister said as he launched into strong appeal that every consideration be given to encouraging national and world peace.

Rev. Mr. Wright paid tribute to the "Unknown Soldier," and vividly described how that the American people were made to rejoice in news that the World War had ended on that first Armistice Day.

PLAINVIEW WOMEN MEET WITH MRS. B. B. HOWELL

Filling out clothing and canning reports and giving out its 1935 budget, the Plainview Home Demonstration Club met Wednesday, November 7, with Mrs. B. B. Howell. After the business meeting a demonstration on the use of peanut butter in making sandwiches was given by Miss Emma Gunter, county home demonstration agent.

Club members present were the hostess, Mrs. L. M. Jones, Mrs. Bruce Aycock, Mrs. J. C. Franklin, and Mrs. Tom Daughtrey. Mrs. T. H. Shurtleff and Miss Joan Shurtleff were guests. Mrs. W. D. Howell will be hostess on November 21.

Buildings Standing On Postoffice Site Being Pulled Down

Three buildings that for several years have stood on property at West Third and Walnut streets are being torn down this week to give place for Colorado's projected new federal postoffice building.

One of the buildings, the former A. J. Cox residence, was erected thirty years ago and through many years was among the best homes in town. Material in this building has been purchased by G. B. Slaton.

The other structures, located on lots sold the government by John Brown, have been known as the Cobblestone Service Station and Garage. The service station was built during Colorado's boom period of a few years ago of brick and stone. The garage adjoining is of frame construction.

Materials from the three buildings are to be used in construction of new and repairs to other buildings.

WINTER WHEAT ACREAGE BEING SEEDED AFTER RAINS

SOLUTION TO SHORT GRAIN AND FORAGE YIELDS SEEN IN FIELD PASTURE CROPS

Considerable Part of County Covered By Moisture; One Inch Is Reported Here

Taking advantage of rain that covered a considerable part of the county Tuesday night, putting out good seasons in some localities, scores of farmers are to seed acreage to winter wheat in belief that through production of field pasturage they will solve a grain and feed shortage that is facing this section.

Rain Tuesday night was typically "spotted," ranging from over five inches in the Lorraine vicinity to light showers in other localities. At Colorado one inch of rain was reported North and south from town the precipitation grew heavier, ranging upward to three inches.

Lorraine reported one of the heaviest downpours in months. Some damage resulted to fields from overflow water and streams in that area were swelled to flood stage Wednesday morning.

Valley View community was between two heavy rains, Col. W. A. Dulin of that community announced here Wednesday afternoon: "North of my place the rain was several inches, and to the south of my farm it grew heavier." Dulin stated that bundle feed in his field was carried away and damaged by flood waters.

A. E. Maddin reported that only a light sprinkle fell on his place southeast from Colorado. Champion Creek, running through that community, however, was said by Maddin to have been higher Wednesday morning than any previous time during the past ten years.

Farmers living three and four miles south from Colorado, not far distant from the Maddin place, received good rains, ranging from two to three inches. Toward Westbrook the precipitation was lighter.

Judging from expressions heard by farmers from various parts of the territory covered by the rainfall, it is evident that a considerable acreage will be seeded to winter wheat. R. H. Towery who lives a few miles south, stated to The Record Wednesday: "The ground is still warm and indications point to favorable conditions for getting the grain up to a good stand before damaging cold weather arrives."

Mitchell cattlemen in path of the rain were uniting with their farmer neighbors in rejoicing. Surface tanks that in many instances were dry now contain stock water and outlook for the winter is much improved.

NEW NEON SIGN PLACED AT BROADWAY ENTRANCE

An attractive neon sign has been hung over entrance to the Broadway Cafe, on West Second street. The sign, among the largest of such illuminated advertising devices in town, adds to attractiveness of the place.

Colorado Suspends Business As Attention Turned To Observance Of Armistice Day

Colorado business and professional concerns closed Monday to commemorate 16th anniversary of Armistice Day, pact accepted November 11, 1918, that brought an end to hostilities in the World War. Practically every place of business in town was closed.

There were two programs given here in keeping with traditions of the occasion. Friday evening 200 people attended annual Armistice banquet and dance at the American Legion building. A program written and staged under personal supervision of Bill Scott was given at First Christian Church Sunday evening.

Several score Coloradans motored to San Angelo, Abilene and other points in the area to witness football games. Others were in Sweetwater to attend rodeo staged under direction of ex-service men there.

MITCHELL FARMER BURNS TO DEATH IN HOME NEAR LORRAINE SATURDAY NIGHT

Family of H. A. Tidwell Find Man Dying Upon Returning Home From Colorado

H. A. Tidwell, 56, residing with his family on the Lucas farm six miles east of Colorado, burned to death Saturday night at 8:30 after his clothing became ignited in a manner yet to be determined by Coroner Ben Smith of Lorraine and others investigating the affair. The verdict, while said to be subject to change, found that Tidwell met his death accidentally.

Members of the victim's family were enroute home from Colorado when the tragedy was enacted. Tidwell, who himself had been here Saturday afternoon, arrived home ahead of the others. As they drove up to the place flickering flames were noticed inside the home, lending to belief the building was on fire.

When they went inside to investigate the body of Tidwell, burned badly about his head and body, was found lying on the floor. With exception of the lower part of his trousers, the clothing had been burned away. The man breathed a few times after his family arrived.

Funeral rites were conducted from the family residence Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. A. C. Hardin of the Lorraine Baptist church officiating. Burial was in the Roscoe cemetery.

Surviving are the widow and the following children: Norman Tidwell of Boab, Utah; Mrs. C. R. Raifsnider of Glenrose; Mrs. C. F. Walker of Colorado; Miss Georgia Lillie Tidwell of Colorado; Ernest Tidwell and Claud Tidwell, also of Colorado. Three brothers, one of whom is Jim, Tidwell of Lorraine, and two sisters, also survive.

Funeral plans were under the direction of Kiker & Son of Colorado.

Buildings Standing On Postoffice Site Being Pulled Down

Three buildings that for several years have stood on property at West Third and Walnut streets are being torn down this week to give place for Colorado's projected new federal postoffice building.

One of the buildings, the former A. J. Coe residence, was erected thirty years ago and through many years was among the best homes in town. Material in this building has been purchased by G. B. Slaton.

The other structures, located on lots sold the government by John Brown, have been known as the Cobblestone Service Station and Garage. The service station was built during Colorado's boom period of a few years ago of brick and stone. The garage adjoining is of frame construction.

Materials from the three buildings are to be used in construction of new and repairs to other buildings.

COLORADO FAMILY LOSES IN RACE WITH DEATH TO BRING MAN HOME TO DIE

J. W. Dorn Dies On Road While Being Brought Back Here From Hospital

Members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dorn lost in a race with death early Friday morning in desperate attempt to bring Mr. Dorn, seriously ill in a Wichita, Falls hospital, back home to die. He was placed in an ambulance at the hospital at 3 o'clock and started back to Colorado but succumbed before the party had proceeded about twenty miles distant.

Mr. Dorn had been in the hospital several months. Late Thursday afternoon members of his family here received a wire stating that he had been seriously stricken and that the end was only a matter of hours. It was the hope of his wife and children that he be brought back home before his life passed away.

Mrs. Dorn, accompanied by her children, Huron and B. W. Dorn, Mrs. Dick Carter and Miss Maxine Dorn and Marvin Dorn, the latter a brother of the stricken man, left within a short time for Wichita Falls. They were joined at Abilene by Landon Dorn, another son. A. D. Kiker accompanied the party with a Kiker & Son ambulance.

They arrived at the hospital at 2:30 Friday morning and thirty minutes later had started the drive back to Colorado. The ambulance proceeded ahead with members of the family following in two automobiles.

Mr. Kiker, noticing that Mr. Dorn was dying, halted the ambulance to await arrival of the family. Just as the man was breathing his last Mrs. Dorn accidentally fell from one of the cars and was painfully hurt. She was riding in front seat of the machine being driven by Huron Dorn and became chilled by the night air. She raised up in her seat to get a sweater from back of the seat and in some manner opened the car door. Force of the wind against the door flung it open and she was dragged clear of the car while it ran under a speed of 15 miles per hour. The injured woman was given medical treatment at Seymour and returned home Friday morning.

Mr. Dorn was a son of J. M. Dorn, pioneer citizen of Mitchell county. He had resided in Mitchell county during the past 46 years, engaging in farming until he retired a few years ago. The family had resided on North Chestnut street several years.

Funeral rites were conducted from the family residence Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Cal C. Wright of First Methodist church and the Rev. W. M. Elliott of First Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was in the Colorado cemetery.

Pall bearers were George Slaton, J. C. Etheridge, J. C. Hooker, C. P. Gary, J. B. Holt, J. A. Sadler, R. E. Gregory, and R. O. Pearson. Kiker & Son were in charge of funeral plans.

Surviving are his widow and the following children: Huron Dorn, B. W. Dorn, Brooks Dorn, Miss Maxine Dorn and Mrs. Dick Carter, and Mrs. Charles Mann of Colorado, Landon Dorn of Abilene and Miss Gladys Dorn of Houston, all of whom were present for the funeral services.

Other relatives include his father; two brothers, Marvin Dorn of Westbrook and Pierce Dorn of Dorn Chapel and seven sisters, Mmes. Rube Hart, and T. C. Richardson of Colorado; Tom Coffee of Lorraine; W. J. Chesney of Dorn Chapel; J. L. Dow of Lubbock; B. A. Donaldson of Stratford and Earnest Thraikill of Stanton. These, excepting Mrs. Donaldson and Mrs. Dow were here for the services.

Miss Askey and Paul Knieff Were Married Sunday

The marriage of Miss Mildred Askey of San Angelo and Paul Knieff of Colorado took place Sunday morning at the Baptist parsonage in Sterling City, former home of Miss Askey. The ceremony was said by the Rev. Mr. Thigpen.

The bride wore an ensemble of brown with gold accents and matching accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Knieff are now at home in Colorado, where Mr. Knieff is an employee of the J. C. Penney store.

Mrs. Knieff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Askey of San Angelo, is a sister of Mrs. James H. Logan of Colorado. She attended Colorado High School last year. Throughout high school she was active in debating and writing and received special training in speech and voice. She recently completed a course in natural dancing and aerobic work at Lubbock.

Mr. Knieff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Knieff of Colorado. He attended Colorado High School, starting on the Wolves football squad, and has been a student of military training at Camp Bullis near San Antonio four summers, earning promotions and receiving medals in marksmanship each summer. Harper's Magazine Is Mrs. Stonerod's Choice

"Harper's," a magazine published both in New York and in London since 1850, was the periodical chosen for discussion by Mrs. T. W. Stonerod, Jr., when she was magazine leader and hostess to the Shakespeare Club Friday.

In her history of the magazine Mrs. Stonerod told that some of its distinguished contributors have been Dickens, Thackeray, Twain, James Fenimore Cooper, Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt, and others. Until 1925 it featured engravings. At that time a canvass of its readers showed that most of them wanted more writing and fewer engravings. Since September of that year it has come out in its present all-literary form.

Mrs. Thos. R. Smith read a recent article from Harper's by William Harlan Hale on "The Grandeur That is Washington." A piece of fiction, "Awwfully Heavy," by Dorothy Thomas, was given by Mrs. Frank Lippman.

Mrs. J. Riordan led the Shakespeare lesson from "Cymbeline," following which a luncheon plate was served with individual pies and tea. Mrs. D. H. Snyder is hostess this week with Mrs. J. H. Greene as leader.

Mexican Conquest Is Self Culture Topic

"Conquest of the City of Mexico" was studied further by members of the Self Culture Club in their meeting with Mrs. C. P. Gary Friday.

Prior to the lesson various business items were given attention, with Mrs. John Brown and Mrs. C. P. Gary reporting their presence at the County Federation last week and Mrs. G. Whitmore announcing a demonstration of rural clubwomen's work on Saturday. Mrs. Whitmore also reminded members of the beginning of the Red Cross Roll Call. A report on the Child Welfare meeting held recently at Sweetwater was given by Mrs. John Howell.

With Mrs. J. B. Pritchett as leader, the roll call was answered with Texan's birthplaces and the following topics were discussed: "Cortez' Expulsion From the Capitol," Mrs. W. A. Pelfry; "The Seige and Surrender of Mexico," Mrs. J. E. Pond; "Subsequent Career of Cortez," Mrs. Dell Barber.

A luncheon course consisting of fish, potatoes, stuffed tomato salad, wafers, peach pickles, hot rolls, jelly, and iced tea was served to the fourteen members present. Mrs. J. M. Herrington has the club this week.

Hesperian Program Observes Armistice

A program foreshadowing Armistice was given when the Hesperian Club met with Mrs. Doyle Williams Friday.

Roll call was answered with items on law observance. Topics announced by Mrs. A. L. Whiskey, began with a discussion of "Armistice and Americanism" by Mrs. J. G. Merritt and continued as follows: "How Far Is Kipling Responsible for the German Attitude Toward England?" Mrs. J. Ralph Lee; "Poets as Advocates of World Peace," Mrs. Nat Thomas.

Mrs. E. J. Backin and Mrs. J. W. Randall reported visiting the Seven Wells School and taking with them thirty magazines. A letter was read from Mrs. Jas. T. Johnson, who is wintering in San Antonio, thanking the club for the life membership recently voted her. Mrs. Merritt talked on highway beautification and announced the Red Cross Roll Call.

Guests were Mrs. Ralph Deak and Mrs. Dean Headstream. Refreshments were a salad with hot rolls, rutabaga and tea. Mrs. E. L. Latham is hostess Friday.

Seventeen At T. E. L. Meeting On Thursday

Seventeen were present at the regular business and social session of the T. E. L. Class Thursday afternoon at the church. Mrs. J. A. Sadler was a guest.

After the devotional led by Mrs. J. L. Bowen, Mrs. W. W. Hatcher led in prayer. During the business meeting Mrs. W. H. Derrick was elected second vice-president to fill a vacancy.

A box of 100 quilts made by the class was packed for Buckner Orphan's Home. It was valued at $25. The Christmas party will be held the second Thursday in December at the home of Mrs. Bowen.

Nearby Ranchwomen Are In Sweetwater Society

Names of several women who live on ranches near Colorado or who call Colorado home appear frequently in society notes of the Sweetwater papers.

Mrs. Jimmie Maddox, Mrs. Bob Scott, and Mrs. T. J. Richards are members of a recently organized club made up of women whose husbands ranch in a 40-mile radius of Sweetwater. Mrs. Price Maddox, whose home recently burned, was honored with a shower in Sweetwater Tuesday of last week.

1921 Study Club Studies Wyoming

Turning attention to Wyoming in their study of the Middle West, members of the 1921 Study Club met with Mrs. W. C. Hooks at the home of Mrs. J. A. Buchanan Friday. Roll call was answered with a Wyoming industry.

Before the lesson Mrs. U. G. Hardison reported on the County Federation, which she attended as delegate from the club. After her report the following program was heard with Mrs. Van Boston as leader:

"Wyoming Comes of Age," Mrs. Ray Womack; "The Yellowstone National Park," Mrs. Van Boston; "Custer, a Famous Historical Figure," Mrs. C. C. Thompson; "Kit Carson and Buffalo Bill," Mrs. J. M. Doss; "Our Wild West as a Literary Field," Mrs. J. T. Pritchett.

Their business consisted of setting their meeting date for the last Friday evening in each month and voting on six new members.

Rogers Ramblings

NEW CURTAIN
The Rogers school is very proud of the new stage curtain, which was installed Friday afternoon by the Dallas Scenic Studio. The Rogers people are very grateful to the businessmen of Colorado who paid for advertising on the new curtain. This serves as permanent and economical advertising. We are very glad to say that the following merchants, who have advertisements on our new curtain have an interest in our school and have helped us in this manner:

Burton-Lingo - C. O., Herrington Auto Parts, Williams & Miller Gin Co., Templeton and Ballard, Lambeth Gins, Farmers Gin Co., J. Riordan Co., Berry-Fee Lumber Co., J. C. Penney Co. Inc., Colorado Motor Co., G. D. Foster, Insurance and Bonds, Dr. Ella E. Barrett (Snyder), Conoco-Gin, Sunbeam Grocery, Mitchell County Times, Pond & Merritt, Seibohling Tires, R. E. Gregory, Tucker Grocery, Kiker & Son, Klasing Cleaners, Farmers Co-Operative Gin, Magnolia Filling Station, Hammond Hardware, Price Bros., Logan & Saff, Gulf Refining Co. We sincerely thank you for these advertisements.

"ONE MINUTE OF TWELVE"
A large crowd saw "One Minute of Twelve" Friday night. This play was presented by the tenth grade class. Entertainment between acts was furnished by the Wilson-Carpenter Orchestra and the Choral Club. Everyone enjoyed the entertainment. The proceeds of the play will be used to purchase new suits for the basketball team.

CHORAL CLUB NEWS
How is a reporter to write news without any news to write? Newspaper reporters usually make up news, if there isn't any, but I'm honest so I'll write only facts—believe it or not. This what happened at the club last week. "Nothing in particular and singing in general." "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," (and the choral club) had lots of fun singing. "Over somebody's elses shoulder" all the week.
This was too much for the Club, so they forgot their songs Friday night, and did not sing very well.

Annual American Legion Social Affair Friday Attended By Two Hundred Guests

Annual social gathering of the American Legion given Friday evening at the Legion building, corner East Third and Chestnut streets, was attended by over 200 guests, according to John Howell, post commander. Howell estimates that 125 ex-service men of the county were present. At an executive session of the post convened at 7:30 it was voted to attend religious services Sunday morning in a body. The men agreed to visit First Methodist church. It was also accepted to attend an Armistice Day program to be given at First Christian church Sunday evening.

Baked beans, barbecue, pickles, onions, bread and coffee were served army style at 8 o'clock, after which John E. Watson, superintendent of the Colorado schools, delivered an address on the merit awards being offered to students in the Colorado, Loraine, Westbrook and Lattan schools.

"You Legionnaires and Ladies of the Auxiliary are doing a splendid work in authorizing these popular contests among the students in our public schools," he said. "I know of no prize being offered the students that is commanding the interest given this one."

Dancing, bridge, "42" and other diversions commanded attention of the visitors until a late hour. "Soldiers On Parade," with Capt. John Watson commanding a typical gun drill with several ex-service men participating, elicited much laughter. The program was concluded with the singing of popular war-time songs with Mrs. Bill Martin of Loraine directing.

Be loyal, trade in Colorado.

The Reading and Study Lamp, in our estimation, is the finest reading lamp ever devised. Designed primarily for the desk or study table, it is also most acceptable for in-bed reading.

when you read in bed!

A comfortable bed, a good book and there you have a certain luxuriousness not easily equalled. But—most of us feel guilty about it because we have an idea that it is hard on the eyes. However, rest assured that you can read to your heart's content if you watch two things—your posture and the light you are reading by.

Posture's easy. Just prop yourself up enough so that you are not lying entirely on the small of your back.

Lighting is easy, too, if you'll provide the right lamp. The best we know of is the Reading and Study Lamp with a good-sized bulb, preferably 150 watts. This lamp throws an even, shadowless light all over your book and spreads enough light out into the room so that there are no sharp contrasts. Or you may use a floor lamp, placed slightly behind you. Either one will make reading in bed a real pleasure indeed with no chance of harmful effects.

EDUCATION WEEK

This is written at the opening of the fourteenth annual American Education Week, under sponsorship of the National Education Association, the United States Office of Education, the American Legion, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and other powerful and patriotic bodies.

The American school. The next time you pass a school, pause for a moment to think what that school means to humanity. Recall the long dark centuries when the masses were kept in ignorance, when greed and oppression ruled the world with an iron hand.

From the very beginning of man's struggle for knowledge, self-respect, and the recognition of his inalienable rights, the school has been his greatest ally.

It belongs to us all, it is our lives working together in the education of our children. It is democracy's greatest gift to civilization.

Throughout the world, among upward struggling people, where even parents share in the aspirations of their children, the American common school is copied.

Good schools in bad times: If schools are a blessing in good times, they are an imperative necessity in bad times. They safeguard the health of the child, they fortify the home, they give hope and encouragement to citizens who are the victims of misfortune but who can take satisfaction that their children are cared for.

Times which suggest retrenchment call for increased safeguards for schools. Next to food, clothing and shelter, they stand between us and chaos.

THE BANKHEAD BILL A Mr. Perkey over in East Texas writes on the Bankhead bill, or law, and says:

I have charge of a farm with five tenant houses on it. All of them could be occupied by tenants, making a living if it were not for the restriction of said farm to twelve bales of cotton tax free.

The result, three families are farming about 100 acres, with seventy-five acres growing up weeds and sprouts, while two families on direct relief, are occupying two of the houses rent free.

Under such conditions I will not be able to keep these buildings in repair, but intend tearing down one-house-to-use in repairing the others, and allow a portion of the land to continue in weeds and sprouts.

Three families should not be required to exist on twelve bales of cotton, as the only money crop, and five families can not exist on such an allotment.

During this time, the Government is advising more people to go on the farm, and is putting money into sustenance farms, one of which is reported to be 1,500 acres of land, upon which 100 houses have been built at a cost of $2,200 each.

It is proposed to place 100 families on this property, giving each three acres individually, and a twelve-acre undivided interest in the remaining 1,200

Interesting Side-Lights On Meeting Of Methodist Conference Given By Minister

Hamilton Wright, pastor of the Coahoma Methodist church and popularly known in Colorado, gives some interesting side-lights on annual meeting of the Northwest Texas Conference, convening in Abilene this week, in the following article:

Approximately 500 Methodist congregations of the Northwest Texas conference will be represented at the twenty-fifth annual session of that body which convened in Abilene Nov. 14 for a four-day meeting it will bring together approximately 250 itinerant ministers, 100 elected delegates, 40 supernumerary preachers, and innumerable clerical and lay visitors.

Sessions will be held in the auditorium of the First Methodist church, presided over by Bishop Hiram Abiff Boaz of Houston, Texas.

The sessions will be featured with addresses, reports from the past of every charge, voting on constitutional amendments, and the assignment of itinerant ministers to posts for the ensuing year.

Numerous shifts among preachers are forecast from advance information received, including the appointment of five new presiding elders.

Eldest scheduled to be superseded by reason of the fulfillment of quadrennium comprise Rev. L. N. Lipscomb, Amarillo district; and Rev. R. A. Stewart, Vernon district.

It is intimated, numerous changes will be made in the larger pulpits, while a general movement is forecast for many circuits.

Since appointments are made by the bishop and his cabinet of nine presiding elders, the prospective new presiding elders and shifts in conference line-up are withheld until actual official notice is given.

Pre-conference reports rendered at preachers' meetings held in most districts indicate that a better financial report will be made at this session despite the exigencies of the year by reason of worldwide drought.

Last year preachers in this conference received approximately 80 percent of their salaries. The benevolences are expected to reach as high figures as last year. Increase in membership is expected to surpass that reported at the annual session last year at Clarendon, both in regard to those received by baptism, on profession of faith and by certificate.

Outstanding revivals in many areas of the territory had something to do with this. The Northwest Texas Conference—the baby conference of Texas—

So live that the preacher who officiates at your funeral will not be unduly embarrassed.

A FAIR QUESTION Some of our business men have a growing tendency to use this newspaper for everything but advertising. To these we would like to ask a few pertinent questions:

If a member of your family died, would you send out the obituary in a circular letter?

If your wife entertained would you run a slide on the screen of the movie show?

If you were to enlarge your store, would you tell folks in a hotel register?

If you were to have a wedding at your house, would you tack the news on a telephone post?

Then why in the wide world don't you put your ad in the Colorado Record where it will be seen by all men.

WHAT IS LIFE? It were well if more of us would bring ourselves to an occasional recognition of the higher altitudes of this rugged terrain which we call life.

At birth we are cast upon a shore which no man has explored and no man knows the end of. It is called the future, and the future can be made a pain by those disposed to pessimism.

Sweetwater Ponies Win Over Colorado In One-Sided Bout

SWEETWATER, Nov. 9.—The Sweetwater Mustangs ran wild against the last-place Colorado Wolves here today to take a district 3 game by 46 to 0.

Using his second string more than half the game, Coach Ed Hennig discovered a pair of neat ball carriers on his sophomore eleven, Coleman Sullivan, substitute halfback, made three touchdowns, and A. J. Roy, 175 pound sophomore, picked up two more tallies.

Josh Billings, Mustangs first string quarterback, made the other two touchdowns, while the other two touchdowns, made the game successful in four points from placement.

The Wolves were unable to do much ground gaining against the more powerful Sweetwater fads, making only one penetration of the Mustangs' 20 yard zone. Colorado soon resorted to the air but completed only one pass out of twelve attempts while Sweetwater was successful on three, out of five attempts.

The crankcase is flushed and filled with quick flowing winter Mobiloil. The chassis is lubricated with Mobilgrease for winter performance. The differential and transmission are cleaned out and freshly lubricated with Mobilgear lubricants that do not harden in cold weather. The radiator is cleaned and flushed and if necessary the correct amount of anti-freeze put in. The battery is examined and re-filled for the heavier load it must pull in cold weather. The tank is filled with winter grade Mobilgas. Autoists in the Southwest are rapidly being educated to Mobilize for Winter."

Interesting Information Relative First Baptist Church Recalled By Judge Crane

Brief historical sketch of First Baptist church as published in The Record last week has influenced Judge R. C. Crane of Sweetwater, president of the West Texas Historical Association, to devote in musty records and bring into light additional information relative to do with early day affairs of the congregation.

In a communication addressed to the Rev. Dick O'Brien, pastor, Judge Crane quotes from Baptist convention minutes of more than a half century ago to show that parishioners at Colorado were active then, as now, in local, area and state objectives of the church.

From minutes of the State Baptist Convention held at Bolton September 30 to October 3, 1882, it notes that Rev. Peter Turner began labor at Colorado, Sweetwater and Big Springs February 17, Judge Crane notes, "A house of worship costing over $2,000 has been built at Colorado and the congregation there will soon be self-sustaining," he further quotes from that aged minute.

In the same State convention minute it is shown, Judge Crane notes, that the First Baptist church at Galveston contributed $20.50 and Governor Joseph E. Brown of Georgia $50.00 to building fund of the church here fifty-two years ago.

A. W. Dunn, pioneer capitalist and merchant, was "delegated" attending the Bolton convention from Colorado. "Any historical commemoration of the Colorado church that does not depict his name," Judge Crane declared, "is wrong for several years the best known member of the Baptist church in Texas was listed in the contribution of both the time and money toward schools and other objectives of the convention. In 1884 he and Col. C. C. Slaughter of Fort Worth were listed as the only non-residents among Baptists in Texas."

Skipping the years 1882 and 1881, Judge Crane continues his official reference to early day progress of Colorado Baptists. Quoting from minutes of the State convention in 1885 he says:

"The W. A. Wilkins, pastor from the Seminary and began work at Colorado June 1. This house of worship had been blown down by a storm and the congregation had been without a pastor for almost a year. They now have a temporary house and contemplate building a good brick building. The members of this church in the last three years have given more to the objects of this convention than the members of any other church in the State." This is quoted from the 1885 convention held at Lammans, and it is noted that Mr. Dunn, again the official delegate, took a leading part in the convention.

After recalling that A. W. Dunn was probably the first merchant to locate at Colorado, opening a "small store" on the river some two miles south of town, before general settlement of the Texas & Pacific, later removing to become Colorado's first postmaster in January, 1881, Judge Crane offers strong tribute to initiative of the early day leader in having been instrumental in organizing the West National Bank, Burns, Wakefield & Company and other concerns identified with this city in the early days.

The school the service honor was given to the church's earliest members, prominent among them being Mrs. M. B. Smoot, Mrs. G. W. Webb, Robert M. Webb, and J. Q. Webb, none of whom are living now. The service opened with a talk by the pastor, Rev. Dick O'Brien, who read a letter expressing from a letter written by Judge R. C. Crane, president of the West Texas Historical Society, recounting some facts in the church's earliest history.

Short eulogies were given by the following: Mrs. W. F. Robinson, member 47 years; Mrs. R. B. Terrell, member 41 years; Mrs. N. J. Phelps, who lived first 44 years ago, but who has not belonged continuously; Mrs. John Vaughan, who was a Methodist but who joined the Baptist church 47 years ago; Mrs. New Miller, member of 28 years; W. S. Stoneham, another member who joined the Baptist church in 1886; Mrs. Anna Simon, member 30 years; Mrs. C. H. Eason, an abolitionist who is usually well-informed on early Baptist history; Mrs. T. L. Whippley, member 24 years; Dr. T. J. Staffiff, member 28 years; J. M. Greene, who joined in 1891.

W. L. Doss, Sr., U. D. Wulffjen, and J. Riordan, none of whom are Baptists, gave their early memories of the church. Lee Jones recalled his forty years of membership, and Mrs. Jones recounted some early incidents. J. H. Greene, who has held several offices in the church longer than anyone else and who was superintendent of the Sunday school for fourteen years prior to 1927, remembered that Mrs. Anna Simon, who taught for twelve years under his superintendency, later promoted an "unhappy" person, that Mrs. Oscar Price, then pianist, was "never" forty nor absent for eight years during that time; that Mrs. R. B. Terrell, Mrs. A. L. Whippley, and Mrs. O. B. Price are present officers who were also officers under him.

At the end of the reminiscences Mrs. Smoot was led to the front of the church by Mrs. J. H. Greene and seated in the place of honor. Mrs. Terrell and Greene then expressed appreciation of her years of service and faithful membership. Following that a group of those whom she had taught during Sunday school years, filed past her, making a floral offering which was presented by Miss Madeline Smith. Closing the service Mrs. C. A. Wilkins sang, "Weaving."

At the morning hour the Rev. M. C. Bishop of Post, former pastor, preached. Special music was furnished by a quartet from Floydia. The Rev. W. C. Ashford of Abilene preached at the evening service, which was in charge of the church's young people. Mrs. Charles Moser sang at both the morning and evening hours.

Reminiscences And Eulogies To Mrs. Smoot Features Of Baptist Service

Looking back across the years to recall long-forgotten incidents of a half-century of church growth, members of the West Baptist Church, and their friends made the Sunday afternoon reminiscence service the highlight of the church's fifty-third anniversary celebration Sunday.

The reminiscences led up to the church's tribute to its oldest continuous member Mrs. H. B. Smoot, who was eulogized especially by J. H. Greene and Mrs. R. B. Terrell, respectively the men and women of the church.

The school the service honor was given to the church's earliest members, prominent among them being Mrs. M. B. Smoot, Mrs. G. W. Webb, Robert M. Webb, and J. Q. Webb, none of whom are living now. The service opened with a talk by the pastor, Rev. Dick O'Brien, who read a letter expressing from a letter written by Judge R. C. Crane, president of the West Texas Historical Society, recounting some facts in the church's earliest history.

Short eulogies were given by the following: Mrs. W. F. Robinson, member 47 years; Mrs. R. B. Terrell, member 41 years; Mrs. N. J. Phelps, who lived first 44 years ago, but who has not belonged continuously; Mrs. John Vaughan, who was a Methodist but who joined the Baptist church 47 years ago; Mrs. New Miller, member of 28 years; W. S. Stoneham, another member who joined the Baptist church in 1886; Mrs. Anna Simon, member 30 years; Mrs. C. H. Eason, an abolitionist who is usually well-informed on early Baptist history; Mrs. T. L. Whippley, member 24 years; Dr. T. J. Staffiff, member 28 years; J. M. Greene, who joined in 1891.

W. L. Doss, Sr., U. D. Wulffjen, and J. Riordan, none of whom are Baptists, gave their early memories of the church. Lee Jones recalled his forty years of membership, and Mrs. Jones recounted some early incidents. J. H. Greene, who has held several offices in the church longer than anyone else and who was superintendent of the Sunday school for fourteen years prior to 1927, remembered that Mrs. Anna Simon, who taught for twelve years under his superintendency, later promoted an "unhappy" person, that Mrs. Oscar Price, then pianist, was "never" forty nor absent for eight years during that time; that Mrs. R. B. Terrell, Mrs. A. L. Whippley, and Mrs. O. B. Price are present officers who were also officers under him.

At the morning hour the Rev. M. C. Bishop of Post, former pastor, preached. Special music was furnished by a quartet from Floydia. The Rev. W. C. Ashford of Abilene preached at the evening service, which was in charge of the church's young people. Mrs. Charles Moser sang at both the morning and evening hours.
