Smith-Powell Nuptials Sunday Morning Among Easter Weddings Of Wide Interest

Ranking high among Easter weddings which were of wide interest in this section was the marriage of Miss Virginia Powell of Colorado to Mr. Ben Smith of Pecos Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The ceremony was held in the church at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lay Powell.

The wedding closed a series of pre-nuptial affairs which had been high-lying of Colorado's social calendar for more than a week. Last of the series was the dinner party with Mrs. Lay Powell entertained at the Colorado hotel Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

At the ceremony the Powell home was filled with greenery and spring flowers among which Easter lilies predominated. Other flowers used were white and red tulips, snapdragons, hydrangeas, and sweet peas.

The altar was arranged at the fireplace in a central room, the fireplace mantel extending at angles across the room on either side. The center-piece of the mantle was flanked by ferns in which easter lilies and white lilies were intermingled. At the end of the mantle stood potted easter lilies. In the center of the table twelve white wax tapers burned in an arched wrought-iron candleholder, their light being reflected by a mirror behind them. White candles also burned in tall thin containers on either side of the fireplace.

A white fur was placed in front of the altar.

Wedding music was by The Harmonies. The bridal couple was introduced and the ring ceremony was performed. The bride wore a navy blue gown, the dress being made of sheer navy blue crepe with white organza lace yoke and organza collar. The coat, princess-cut and flaring at the hem, was made of navy blue crepe with white organza lace yoke and organza collar. The coat, princess-cut and flaring at the hem, was made of navy blue crepe with white organza lace yoke and organza collar.

The two-tiered wedding cake, laid in white with decorations of pink and orchid sweet peas, was cut by the bride and served with coffee. The cake centered the dining table, which was covered with cream lace over white satin. Pleated white tulle encircled the cake and from it pink satin ribbons radiated to the edges of the table, the ribbon ends being tied with sweet peas. White candles flanked a bowl of snapdragons on the buffet.

For travel the bride wore a mannish suit of deep brown gabardine with aquamarine blouse and hat of aquamarine felt. Her accessories were beige and she wore red fox furs.

Mr. Smith is a member of one of the leading ranch families of this section. Her father, Lay Powell, owns ranches near Colorado and near Stanton. She was reared in Colorado and after graduation from Colorado High school she attended T. C. U. at Fort Worth, S. M. U. at Dallas, and Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene. For the past several years she had been in charge of the ladies' auxiliary department of Colorado's largest department store.

Mr. Smith has been secretary of the Pecos Chamber of Commerce since April 1, 1936. Before going to Pecos he was advertising manager of the Colorado Record. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. N. J. Smith, prominent Anson residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are to be at home in Pecos following a short wedding trip to "sports west."

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. N. J. Smith of Anson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith and son of Pecos, Mr. and Mrs. Doss Harris of Pecos, A. R. Blanks of Pecos, Chuck Jones and Miss Warren Collins of Pecos, Dr. and Mrs. Brooks, Bell of Dallas, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cunningham of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wood of Midland, Rod Merritt of Abilene, Mrs. C. H. Tippett of Durant, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Taylor of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Swell of Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Lay Powell of Stanton, and a brother and sister of the bride from Abilene.

Roy Dozier and Mrs. Taylor Wed Sunday Morning

Of considerable interest here was the Easter morning marriage of Mrs. Mayme Taylor, county treasurer, and Mr. Roy Dozier, prominent Colorado business man.

The ceremony was said at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. C. E. Jameson, Methodist pastor, shortly after 9 o'clock Sunday morning. The bride's daughter, Elizabeth Taylor, and Mrs. H. G. Whitmore witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Dozier left immediately after the ceremony for a short wedding trip. They took Miss Taylor to Denton to resume her studies in C.I.A. after spending the Easter holidays here. They visited in Fort Worth and also went to Wichita Falls to visit Mrs. Dozier's son, Don Taylor, before returning to Colorado late Tuesday night.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dozier are widely known in Mitchell county. Mr. Dozier owns the barber shop bearing his name and has been in business here for years. Mrs. Dozier has been county treasurer for the past eight years.

They will make their home here.

Informality marked the affair. Sweet-williams were house decorations, the flowers being chosen because of the bride's maiden name. As guests arrived they registered at the dining table, which was covered with lace over pink and centered with sweet-williams. Each guest presented over the hostess' book.

Refreshments were served by Miss Iglehart and served with music. A program followed.

The program included piano selection by Hazel Grubbs, violin solo by Wilma Barnett with Hazel Grubbs as accompanist, a ten-dance by Mary Ann Kelley, and an original poem by Mrs. L. B. Elliott. As the poem was read the many gifts were brought in and opened.

COLORADO PIONEERS HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Two persons who were among Colorado's earliest pioneers recently celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary, according to the Dallas Morning News.

The Captain and Mrs. Ayers of the following article lived here when the T & P was just beginning. Capt. Ayers worked for the railroad. He was a Federal soldier in the Civil War. We are indebted to the family of Mrs. C. H. Earnest for this clipping:

"Captain and Mrs. John W. Ayers celebrated their seventy-second wedding anniversary Friday. Mrs. Ayers' ninety-third birthday was on Jan. 27, and Captain Ayers will reach his ninety-fourth year, April 29. They were married in Shipman, Ill., March 26, 1865, after the Captain, as he has been known here for many years, received honorable discharge from the Union Army on account of various wounds. After spending a few years in Illinois and in Iowa, they decided that a milder climate would be more agreeable, so came to Texas in 1878. Captain Ayers preceded his family by a few weeks and, at first, felt that he had made a grievous mistake since the train from which he had alighted in Forney was robbed by Sam Bass and his men when it reached Eagle Ford. The family saw real pioneer days around Arlington, Weatherford, Gordon, Colorado City, and Big Spring before they finally settled in Dallas in 1888. They have lived in their present home, 617 Exposition, for forty-seven years.

"The couple spent the day quietly enjoying many messages and flowers sent by friends. The only visitor was the Rev. Dillon Morgan, Church of the Incarnation, who administered Holy Communion to the family, it being Good Friday. Two daughters, Mrs. J. Finley and Mrs. Emma J. Kingsbury; a granddaughter, Mrs. Edith K. Chaffield, and a great-grandson, John K. Chaffield, were present. Another granddaughter, Mrs. A. T. Smith and a great-grandson, Jack Finley Smith reside in Fort Myers, Fla."

Five Hundred Mitchell Countians Will Attend Loan Ass'n Barbecue Saturday

Five hundred citizens of Mitchell county are expected to attend barbecue and entertainment program to be given at Ruddick Park Saturday in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Federal Land Bank of Houston. Plans for the local fête are being mapped under direction of C. C. Thompson, secretary-treasurer of the Colorado National Farm Loan association.

Invitations to all members of the county association to attend the affair with members of the families have gone out from offices of the organization here. Thompson stated Wednesday that there are 524 members of the land bank in Mitchell county, carrying outstanding loans aggregating $1,444,983. In addition there are 310 commissioner loan members being serviced by the local association. These have loans outstanding in the sum of $426,000, placing total loans at $1,870,983.

The program is to open at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with a round of special entertainment features included. At noon an old fashioned barbecue is to be served. All members and members of their families, making reservation, are to be guests of Thompson.

Program commemorating anniversary of the Houston bank is to be broadcast over the Texas Quality Network from 10:30 to 11 a.m.

The Federal Land Bank system was authorized by act of congress on July 17, 1916. The Houston Land Bank was organized on April 3, 1917, and the Colorado National Farm Loan association was chartered on August 15, 1917. The late Ben S. Van Tuij served as first secretary-treasurer of the association. W. H. Butler served as organization president and W. A. Dulin was the first elected president. At the death of Van Tuij, A. A. Dorn was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer and filled the position until January, 1931, when Thompson was inducted into the office.

Following is the program:
10:00 to 10:30—Band concert, Colorado High school band directed by R. P. Rose.
10:31 to 11:00—Radio broadcast, Texas Quality Network.
Address, Rev. Dick O'Brien.

EL PASO LIONS TO SUPPORT JOE POND

DEL HERRINGTON

The El Paso Lions Club, among the larger and most influential units in district 2-T, Texas, is withdrawing its candidate for district governor in favor of Joe Pond of the Colorado club. Along with taking their candidate out of the race, Lions of the border city are going to attend the district convention in Big Spring next month as enthusiastic supporters of the Colorado man.

That was the message brought to Colorado Lions Friday by Del Herrington, prominent El Paso attorney and a former governor of the Lions district. He was sent to Colorado by his club to personally make announcement that Lions in his home city would not oppose Colorado, "in the election of a district governor or anything else that the splendid gentlemen of this club elect to do."

Herrington arrived in Colorado on an early train and spent the morning conferring with President Whipkey and other officials of the local organization. At 11 o'clock he and representatives of Colorado Lions held conference in his room at the Colorado hotel when the visitor made announcement of his plans.

"The Lions of El Paso see in Joe Pond that kind of timber from which our district leaders should be fashioned and I have journeyed from my home city to personally give endorsement of the candidacy of our deputy district governor, Joe Pond, and pledge the active and sincere support of every Lion in El Paso," Mr. Herrington declared during address at the service organization meeting Friday noon. The visitor was introduced by Joe B. Mills, a former president of the local club and warm personal friend of Mr. Herrington through several years.

Bill Endter, prominent El Paso business man and identified with Lionism in his home city and the district for several years, was the candidate proposed by the club there. Endter was placed in nomination Friday noon, March 19, and Pond was nominated that evening. Neither club realized that the other was planning to offer a man for the district governor's office at the annual convention.

"El Paso has, in Bill Endter, one of the greatest Lions that this district has produced and a gentleman possessing every requisite for carrying honor and distinction into the district governor's office," Herrington continued. "Colorado, too, has such a candidate, and out of consideration of the most cordial relationship, depicting that spirit of brotherhood for which Lionism stands, that has ever existed between Colorado and El Paso, I am constrained, as authorized representative of my club, to take this action," he concluded.

Joe Pond was recognized by the chair and spoke feelingly as he expressed his appreciation, both to the Lions of his home club and those of El Paso, for the consideration expressed in him.

Other guests attending the meeting included Ben Smith of Pecos, John Tom Merritt, student at Texas Tech, who read invitation from Robert Houston, chief of the engineering department in that school, inviting Lions to attend ninth annual engineering show there on April 16 and 17, J. M. New of Colorado and Clarence Cook of Colorado, and Dr. Guy B. Duff of LaGrange.

Dairy First Aids

"Cold weather brings with it many discomforts to the dairy herd," says D. H. Van Pelt, prominent dairy authority at Purina Mills. "Every dairyman should keep on hand the aids he needs in caring for his cows."

"To thoroughly heat chafed or cracked teats, wash with a dilute chlorine solution. Apply to the raw surfaces a solution made up of one ounce of collodion, glycerine, and iodine. The application should be made every milking until healed. Chlorine has a definite place in every dairyman's medicine kit. It has a thousand uses as a disinfectant in the dairy herd."

Cuts and Scratches Need Care
"Cuts and scratches should be taken care of promptly," Van Pelt points out, "and unless they are, costly infections are likely to result. In case an animal steps on or cuts her teats, disinfest thoroughly with chlorine solution. Allow to dry and apply collodion to affected parts. Should it be the end of the teat, insert teat dilator tapers to hold dirt open. The greatest trouble from cuts on teats is the dirt and foreign matter that lodge in the open sore."

IS NEAR DEATH

Word comes to F. B. Whipkey from El Reno, Oklahoma, that Mrs. Holmes Nichols, wife of a former pastor of the First Baptist church here, is near death from pneumonia. The card was written on Tuesday by a friend of the Nichols family and stated that "all hope has been abandoned for her recovery." The Rev. Holmes Nichols was pastor of the church here about 30 years ago.

FIFTEEN EMPLOYERS IN COUNTY PAY INTO FUND

Contributions under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act are being paid by 15 employers in Mitchell county, Chairman-Director Orville S. Carpenter announced Saturday at Austin.

Contributions from these employers will set up unemployment benefit accounts for 120 workers in Mitchell county.

The Commission's activities in Mitchell county are under the direction of District Fieldman E. E. Merriman, who has headquarters in the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. All employers who have problems arising under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act are requested to call on Merriman for assistance, Carpenter declared.

The Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission was established by an Act of the Texas Legislature, which was signed by Governor James V. Allred on October 27, 1936. In five months of operation the Commission has collected approximately $7,000,000 from 11,707 Texas employers. All money collected from employers will be used to establish benefit accounts for more than 600,000 workers, while all operating expenses of the Texas Commission are paid by the Federal Social Security Board, Carpenter pointed out.

The next payment to the Texas Commission will be due April 25th when Texas employers who are subject to the Act must pay a tax of one and eight-tenths per cent on their total payrolls for the months of February and March, 1937.

Bright Spring Outlook Sensed By Ranch Operators Here As Report Is Received

Optimism continues to attend ranchers of the Colorado territory as they are emerging from another Winter season into Spring with fair range conditions and herds of cattle and sheep described as being in good physical state. Behind, they have gone through a season in which small feed costs were entailed and looking ahead they sense an even improved condition for the industry.

At Washington Monday bright Spring outlook for the marketing of Texas beef cattle was seen by the Bureau of Agriculture Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. Its predictions for the coming season and the entire year were higher prices for cattle.

Results of the detailed study, which the bureau has given the situation, disclosed that in its view prices of nearly all grades of slaughter cattle are expected to average higher in 1937 than in 1936, and probably higher than in 1935.

One factor in the advance of the price of better grade cattle is the reaction of the consumer to increases above current levels in price. This grade of cattle has shown a continual advance in price since last June and in mid-March this year, was nearly as high as in the Spring of 1935.

The bureau expects the price of lower grade cattle to advance until May or June when it usually drops. However, with further improvement in the consumer demand for meats and the relatively strong demand for replacement cattle the decline this year may be less than last year.

Further predictions by the bureau are that slaughter supplies of cattle and calves will continue to be relatively large until pastures become an important factor in the feed situation in late May or June. For the year as a whole, the inspected slaughter of cattle and calves probably will be somewhat smaller than that of 1936, but considerably larger than the average for the 10 years, 1924-33.

The bureau pointed out that Texas is the only State in which there is any great amount of range feed for the cattle. It said that it expected the supply of grass fat cattle for the Spring market to be rather large from the Lone Star State.

The bureau buttressed its bright prediction on the national and non-agricultural incomes in the United States. It pointed out that during 1935-36 both the national and non-agricultural incomes increased approximately 12 per cent. The direct result of this, the bureau said, was increased consumer expenditures for meats and increased payments by packers for cattle and calves. In January, 1937, the most recent months for which such data is available, non-agricultural income was estimated to be 11 per cent higher even than in the preceding January.

As a result of this packers paid some $64,000,000 in January 1937 for cattle and calves as compared with only $61,000,000 in January, 1936.

ROBERT LEE GIRL TAKES FLYING WITH INTEREST

A tyro in aviation is Louise Roe of Robert Lee. The Roe family, it would seem, is adventure minded since Louise's father, Fred Roe, is polo-minded and she comes along in the air-minded vein.

A student of Bill Gieber, Miss Roe has had all her ground work and several flight lessons, "doing all right on take-offs and landings," her instructor said. She seems to be relaxed while flying and that, if a person isn't acquainted with flying qualifications, is very essential.

This 22-year-old Robert Lee girl is working at this flying game for pleasure and is planning to get her own plane, leaving the business of raising and training polo ponies to her father.

GIRLS GIVEN PATROL POSITIONS
Mackye Loving has recently been elected chief of the patrol officers, the first girl to hold this high position. Since the patrol system was started the girls have wanted to serve as officers, but they have never been given the opportunity. Last year the question was put before the entire school for a vote, and it was decided that only boys could be patrolmen. This year the question arose again and the girls were finally successful.

The three seventh grade sections have elected girls for all patrol positions. Orabel Forbes, Novellene Naylor, and Marian Britton were elected from 7A; Mackye Loving, Oatherine Reese, and Imogene Hamer were elected from 7B; and Mary Price, Joyce Levens, and Edna Davidson were elected from 7C.

Last week the girls observed the boys on patrol duty and Mr. Glover explained the traffic rules. Thursday, March 25, the girls began their new work. Many pupils have been watching the girls closely to see if they do the work as well as the boys did.

MR. COOPER SPEAKS TO SEVENTH GRADE PUPILS
Betty Whipkey introduced Mr. W. S. Cooper, an American Legion representative, who talked to the seventh grade last Wednesday, March 24. He explained the value of service, one of the points of citizenship used in judging the Legion award. Mr. Cooper said that service not only included serving in big things, but also serving in the little things in life. This talk inspired every pupil to work harder to win the medals which will be given at the close of school.

TENNIS GAMES
Junior High played several practice tennis games Monday afternoon. Johnnie Grubbs and Nat Mann defeated the High school Juniors 6-4. Billy Wade and Johnnie Grubbs then defeated the Roscoe Juniors 6-4. Imogene Hamer was defeated by Bobbie Lou Cooper, Junior High representative last year, 6-4.

A PROFITABLE START
As April draws nearer, April showers, sunshine, and spring like-wise draw nearer. A good way to begin April is to have your conscience clear of all things. Have your school work ready when it is due, and you will have a profitable start. Listen carefully in class and you can talk after school.

The glue says, "When you find a good thing, stick to it." This will prove helpful to you if, after you make a good start, you "stick" and continue having your school work ready on time.

New Tricks In Corn Flake Cookery

Rolled corn flakes mixed with melted butter and a sprinkling of sugar provide the crunchy crust and topping for this delicious refrigerator cheese cake.

By Barbara B. Brooks

The housewife's interest in corn flakes does not stop at the breakfast table for she has found that this popular cereal can be used in many interesting ways in devising new and novel dishes.

Corn flake crumbs, for example, have taken the place of bread crumbs as a coating for fish fillets, croquettes and sweet potato balls. Mixed with melted butter and sugar, corn flake crumbs can be pressed into a pie tin to form a delicious unbaked pastry for cream or chiffon fillings. Distinctive among the new corn flake recipes is this refrigerator cheese cake which uses corn flake pastry as a base and corn flake crumbs as a topping. The triple tested recipe follows:

Refrigerator Cheese Cake

2 tablespoons gelatin 1 lb. cottage cheese
1/2 cup cold water (put through sieve)
1 egg yolk (slightly 1 lemon (grated rind and juice)
1 tsp. vanilla extract

1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
2 egg whites (stiffly beaten)
1 cup whipping cream

Soften gelatin in cold water. Put egg yolks in top of double boiler. Beat slightly and add salt, milk and sugar. Cook, stirring until mixture thickens. Remove from fire. Add softened gelatin, mix thoroughly; cool. Add cheese which has been put through a sieve, lemon juice, rind and vanilla. Fold in beaten egg whites and whipped cream. Press two-thirds of the Corn Flake pastry into the bottom of a large spring form mold. Pour in cheese mixture. Sprinkle remaining Corn Flake pastry crumbs over the top. Chill until firm.

Corn Flake Pastry

1 cup corn flakes Roll or grind 4 cups
1/3 cup melted corn flakes to yield
1/2 cup butter 1 cup fine crumbs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon (may be omitted)

Mix crumbs with butter, sugar and cinnamon. Use as directed above.

Projected Highway Cut-Off Extending From Midland West Not To Be Built

Visions of a 200-mile cut-off highway through West Texas, leaving the Bankhead highway somewhere near Midland and connecting up with the Carlsbad cavern highway at the Culberson-El Paso county line, have been dashed by engineers and officials of the Texas highway department, so far as the next two to four years are concerned.

A Kermit group has been told, in effect, if they want a highway from Kermit back to a connection with the Bankhead, they can have it if they will pay for it, or rustle federal money to build it as a works progress job.

From Kermit west, there is no promise or indication anywhere soon, even of this meagre encouragement. State Highway Engr. Gibb Gilchrist has said that so far as he knows, no steps are contemplated toward trying to complete the long gap from Kermit west. It is shown there would be strong opposition from Odessa, if it should be short-circuited on the location, and from Pecos and other points on the existing highway.

The proposal would involve building 200 miles of highway in an extremely sparsely settled section to take about 75 miles off the present highway distance to El Paso.

Highway Commr. John Wood said that on a proposal to build a road as far as Kermit, there is a controversy whether the line should take off from a works progress lateral road that has been built out northwest from Midland, or from a point at or near Odessa.

The highway commission has informed the small Odessa delegation recently at Austin that the extension to Odessa cannot be built by the state, and cannot be put on the federal highway system for regular aid. If the counties work out some plan to get lateral road money and build a suitable highway to Kermit, he said, there was indication that the highway commission then would extend designation to it and take it over for maintenance. He withheld any suggestion or comment as to the take-off point. Midland was not represented at the last hearing on the proposal. In effect, the highway commission has said that Kermit would be recognized as a control point, that is, for the present, the destination of the proposed extension.

Either the take-off near Midland or the Odessa route, would involve the construction of 180 miles of highway, ever to complete the cut-off. Engineers estimate that a road in that section could be graded, and a little gravel put on it, at a cost of $5,000 a mile, if the right of way were furnished by the counties. That would mean $900,000 minimum expenditure to build the road, paralleling an existing highway. If maintained by the state, the cost would be between $18,000 and $36,000 a year.

Commr. Wood said that owing to extreme need for highway funds in heavily traveled highways in many sections, it is not likely an alternative route, he will not vote to put any of the so-called cut-offs on the state designated system, except such as may be built without recourse to funds of the highway department.

A check of the highway department failed to indicate favorable attitude on the part of the commission toward trying to build this long western gap.

It was reiterated that the construction from El Paso east into the edge of Culberson county was to provide a highway link between El Paso and Carlsbad caverns, and that El Paso county contributed heavily to the cost of the road.

Easy To Teach New House Dog Proper Manners

"You may not be able to teach an old dog new tricks, but you can teach a new puppy proper manners," says A. H. Leonard, dog authority of the Purina Mills, who believes that a complete understanding between master and animal may be worked out if a little care and time is taken in "breaking in the new pup."

"A strange child coming into one's home wouldn't feel particularly familiar with his surroundings for a day or two, so how can a puppy, who has far less powers of reason be expected to settle right down?" Leonard points out. "Treat your puppy as you would a person—give him some quiet and peace and some time to get himself adjusted."

Watch Feed Carefully

"And don't," Leonard cautions, "stuff the little newcomer with greasy table scraps, meats, sweets and other feed that his system is unable to care for. Feeding has a lot to do with a satisfactory start of a pup. Give him a food suited to his needs. For young puppies compressed dog food in small checker-tins is ideal. These checkers fed with water will give a puppy just what he needs for growth and health."

Feeding plays a big part in helping the new puppy get adjusted to his surroundings.

Housebreaking

"Housebreaking is easy if puppies are taught from the very beginning the meaning of cleanliness. Fresh newspapers should be spread out and the puppy taught that they are to be used at all times. Sometimes at first it may be necessary to cover the entire floor with newspapers, gradually reducing the covered area to one newspaper pad. Dogs are intelligent animals and are quick to understand what is expected if some member of the family will take time to deal with them sympathetically," Leonard says.

Iowa is known as the Hawkeye state.

Jewell Young, Purdue forward and a Big Ten scoring leader, committed only 18 personal fouls in his first 12 games this season.

GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD AT MINERAL WELLS

MINERAL WELLS, Texas.—The annual invitation Tournament of the Mineral Wells Golf and Country Club will be opened with qualifying rounds Thursday, April 29 and match play through Sunday, May 2, according to announcement made by Frank Mahurin, chairman of the tournament committee of the club.

This annual tournament has proven extremely popular throughout West Texas in past years and has, more or less, inaugurated the West Texas tournament season each year. Local committees in charge of the various events claim they are going to make the 1937 invitation the best met ever held and that indications point to a record aggregation of golfers even at this early date.

Recent rains and work on the course, a thorough grooming, the planting of additional shrubbery, special attention to the greens, is putting the course in fine shape and making it very attractive—a month later should find the layout in wonderful shape for the Invitation Tournament.

An invitation is extended to clubs and individual players and a program will be mailed out in the near future. Mr. Mahurin stated, "We are planning an elaborate program that will attract the best talent in West Texas to Mineral Wells at this time," he stated.

County Championship Pennant Is Taken By Valley View In League Finals Here

The Valley View school, that on March 19 during first round of the Interscholastic League meet took first place over other rural schools of Mitchell county, Saturday swept all competition aside to capture the all-round county championship banner. The events started on the former date were postponed due to prevalence of a sandstorm.

Looney, the school taking up second position in the list of awards during the first day, was shunted to third place Saturday by Lone Star. Lone Star received a total of 78 points to 62 credited to Looney. Carr was given fourth place in the all-county championship roster with 57 points.

Valley View won first in playground ball, junior boys division, Buford second, Carr third and Conway fourth. Bauman was first in junior girls playball, Valley View second, Lone Star third and Hyman fourth.

NEPHEW OF MRS. BASKIN HURT IN CAR ACCIDENT

Leaving her nephew, C. L. Fain, 27, somewhat improved, Mrs. B. J. Baskin returned Tuesday afternoon from Hobbs, New Mexico, where she had been at Fain's bedside since Saturday.

Fain, son of the Mrs. Lola Fain who was a guest in the Baskin home until early last week, received a serious concussion when his car overturned near Monument, where he is employed, at an early hour last Friday morning. It was about 3 1/2 hours before he was discovered and taken to the hospital in Hobbs. Pneumonia was feared for a time as a result of the exposure.

He had visited his mother and the Baskins here on the previous weekend, March 21, and when he left Mrs. Fain went to visit a sister in Kingfisher, Oklahoma. She went to his bedside from there.

Physicians now believe that Fain will recover, although his recovery will be slow. Mrs. Fain is still in Hobbs with him. The Baskins plan to bring the two of them here when he is able to be moved.

PICKED UP ALONG THE NEWS PATH

My notebook listed at least seven weddings that were being talked late last week as probable Easter events in Colorado. . . . Only three of those seven took place—unless somebody is fooling me. . . .

It's usually conceded that to be very, very "cute" a little girl must have curly hair. . . . But that little Joan Herring is, to my mind, one of Colorado's cutest youngsters and a very straight bob is one of her outstanding charms. . . . Joan's father works here with the Merchants' truck line and her mother is an attractive blonde who works at the Broadway cafe. . . .

After news of Dr. R. E. Lee's death spread Monday you could hear people on every hand praising the generosity with which he practiced medicine for nearly 50 years. . . . It is said that if he had collected only the bills for those calls which he knew meant no money when he answered them he might have been a rich man. . . . Colorado and Mitchell county will miss him. . . .

I call it unusual to hear men praise such things as the beauty and impressiveness of an Easter sunrise service, but such has been done this week. . . . They say that the Calvary picture which the Rev. A. L. Haley had painted and arranged in the arch-

Special Sale For Moving Pears Is Announced Here

Divisional Safeway Head Is Interested In Sale To Be Held During April

Announcement of a national canned fruit sale in April was received here yesterday by M. V. Witbeck of Safeway Stores. Pacific Coast Bartlett pears will be the headline feature.

"A bulletin from the Pacific Coast Canning Pear Stabilization Committee," said Witbeck, "reports large shipments of canned pears into the retail markets of the country. Owing to a large surplus of stocks carried over the 1936 crop pears have been the weakest spot on the canned fruit list. This has made them comparatively attractive in price and the carry-over is now being moved into consumers' hands to make way for the 1937 crop.

While Safeway Stores are lending a hand in the movement of this surplus of pears, for the benefit of growers and customers alike they will also offer special inducements in all the popular canned fruits in advance of the summer season of fresh fruits. Improvements in the packing and grading of canned fruits have made them a luxury ready for the table without further preparation."

Facts in regard to the canned pear situation, submitted by the stabilization committee included the following statements: There was a carry-over of one million cases on June 1 last; the 1936 pack was in excess of five million cases, nearly a million cases above the average for a five-year period; export sales last fall fell off about 300,000 cases; all shipments were seriously affected by the maritime strike; present canned pear stocks are estimated at over 3,000,000 cases, fifty per cent above normal. The agricultural committee of the National Association of Food Chains, of which Safeway is a member, recently approved a national sales campaign on canned pears. John A. Logan, executive vice president of the organization, promised the cooperation of 37,000 retail stores, located in all of the 48 states. They hope to sell at least one extra can of pears to 48,000,000 families during the coming month.

SLEET AND RAIN FALLS IN COLORADO AREA ON HEELS OF NEAR BLIZZARD BLAST

Mercury Toboggans To Ten Below Freezing Sunday; Fruit Crop Believed Wiped Out In This Section

Sleet and rain, mingled with snow flurries, fell at Colorado and over this section of the West Monday morning, adding further to unusual phenomena of the elements as directed by the weather man. The precipitation came on heels of one of the most severe cold blasts of record at Colorado for late March in several years.

Saturday morning the mercury tobogganed downward to touch 25 degrees. At 6 Easter morning the temperature reading was listed at 22, ten degrees below freezing. The day was clear and calm but the biting cold prevailed through the night.

Orchardists in this section were advancing the opinion here Monday that their fruit had been wiped out by the severe cold. Hopes entertained in remote quarters that a part of the crop might have escaped effects of the freeze were gradually being dispelled as reports continued to silt into town.

The weather was not as severe in the Abilene section, newspapers there reported. Belief that a part of the fruit crop in that part of the State had been saved was expressed.

From Weatherford came the report Monday afternoon that Parker county's "million dollar" fruit crop had been completely wiped out. Growers there supported the report the Sunday near-blizzard was one of the most severe to ever swoop down there as late as March 28.

EASTER SERVICES FEATURE RELIGIOUS RITES HELD AT COLORADO DURING SUNDAY

Solemnity Attends Sunrise Memorial; Ministers Talk Of Risen Lord At Morning and Evening Hours

Representatives of Colorado churches assembled at First Christian church early Sunday morning to again have part in the solemn and impressive rites commemorating Easter. The program, arranged under direction of the pastors, opened at 5:15.

Auditorium of the building was dimly lighted as the early worshippers arrived. They were received into the building by W. A. Crowder and quietly went to their seats. The rites were made even more impressive by a large painting depicting Golgotha, with its three crosses, the winding road leading up to them and the light of the risen Lord beyond. The picture was from the pen of the pastor, Rev. A. L. Haley.

The services were opened with a piano prelude by Miss Louise Hardison. Dr. C. L. Root, with members of his family playing the accompaniment, sang "He Arose." The Scripture lesson, describing the travail and victory of Christ, was read by the Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church. Rev. Mr. Haley offered the invocation.

Rev. Dick O'Brien of First Baptist church delivered the memorial address. He led his hearers through succeeding stages of Christ's persecution, conviction, death and victory over the grave. A chorus of young ladies with Rev. Mr. Haley directing, sang. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Jameson.

STONE FENCE BUILT IN 1885 STILL STANDS AT PIONEER'S FIRST HOME

Most of the stone fence built in 1885 by J. D. Wulfjen, pioneer Mitchell county rancher, as he established his first home in this section, stands to day, it was noticed Sunday by a representative of The Record who visited the spot some fifteen miles south of Colorado.

Wulfjen came to Mitchell from Williamson. He built his home, a one-room, frame affair 12 by 14 feet, in center of a small knoll near a spring. Some of the stone foundation on which the house stood are still seen about the site.

A few years later Wulfjen established his home northwest of the original home and this location has since been known as ranch headquarters.

One dollar was voted to the cancer control fund being sponsored by Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins of Eastland. Mrs. A. F. King will be hostess this week.

Because many of its members are Episcopalians and therefore observe Lent and Good Friday, the Shakespeare club had no meeting Friday afternoon.

The club will meet this week with Mrs. Frank Lupton.

SILENCE

"Silence is golden." So it has been said, and true it is. Silence is a wisp of nothingness, caught for a moment, but soon shattered by the clamor and clangor of this rushing world. Silence is the breeding place of dreams, airy castles which are tumbled into ruins at the sound of hoarse shouting or crude laughter. The time for meditation is when silence encompasses one, turning one's soul to wonder in awe at the huge old earth on which infimistimal man is privileged to live, and work, and play. Silence is a wave of remembrance rushing up to overwhelm one with the remorse of having acted in such a way as to hurt another, or lay him bare to the ridicule of the world. Silence is versatile—slave, friend, or master. Golden, golden silence.

MAKING THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITIES

According to Mr. C. H. Morris, Field Secretary of T. C. U., who spoke to Colorado High school students Tuesday, March 23, the moments which are wasted are gone forever. One can not call back these moments. Neither can one call back an opportunity which has passed. In order to get the most of opportunities, a student should apply himself every minute of his time. Mr. Morris further stated that a student forms a habit of wasting time, thus wasting an opportunity.

The student body thoroughly enjoyed the lecture for the personality of the speaker held their utmost attention.

After assembly Mr. Morris met with the Senior class for the purpose of acquainting them with T. C. U.

ONE-ACT PLAYS PRESENTED
Monday night, March 29, Loraine and Westbrook presented their one-act tournament plays in the High school auditorium. Loraine presented the winning play, "The Kettle Singing" over Westbrook, who presented the losing play, "The Telegram."

Tuesday night, March 30, Roscoe and Colorado presented their one-act plays. The Colorado High school band played several numbers before the plays began. Roscoe's play was entitled "The Floral Shop," directed by Miss Laura Fae Wilson. Colorado's play was entitled "Moonshine," directed by Miss Gladys Miller. All four plays were reported very entertaining.

COGDILL SPEAKS IN ASSEMBLY

Last Thursday, March 25, the students of C. H. S. enjoyed a talk delivered by Mr. Roy Cogdill of Dallas, who held a meeting last week in Colorado at the Church of Christ.

Beginning the program, the student body sang a hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," led by Miss Gladys Miller.

Following this, Mr. Harvey Childress of the Church of Christ introduced the speaker. The theme of Mr. Cogdill's talk was success. Some people measure success by wealth and some by popularity, but true success is measured by character.

The address was very forceful and interesting and the students showed their interest by their close attention.

SPANISH CLASSES ENJOY STORIES

The Spanish III class is now in the midst of some very exciting events in the novel and play which they are studying. In the novel "El Capitan Veneno," the captain is still very stubborn but now they know his history and why he is so stubborn and quarrelsome. He had never known any women in his life, as his mother was dead. Ah! Just watch the three women who rescued him from the street fight!

In the play, "Zaragneta" which the class studies on Monday is "La Tertulia," the villain, Don Hermogines Zaragneta has just appeared on the scene. He has come to collect the money which the hero owes him.

"El Tertulia" is planning to give a Spanish banquet in the near future, but the members have not paid their dues. Please "pay up" or you won't get any hot tamales.

DR. DUFF DELIVERS MESSAGE

March 25, Wednesday afternoon, at the regular assembly period, Dr. Guy B. Duff talked to the students of Colorado High school.

The students joined in a song led by Miss Gladys Miller. After a prayer Mr. Elliott, Presbyterian church introduced the speaker. Dr. Duff's subject was "Being Prepared." Dr. Duff is the Presbyterian minister at LaGrange, Texas. The students and faculty were cordially invited to attend a revival meeting which he held here this past week at the Presbyterian church.

WOLVES AND JACKRABBITS SEE "FOOTBALL PARADE"

Wednesday evening, March 24, the manager of the R and R Theatres of Colorado honored the Wolves and Jackrabbits of the '36 football season by presenting each one a pass to "The Figskin Parade." Some of the boys liked it so well that they saw both showings of the picture.

The Wolves and Jackrabbits of the '36 season wish to extend their heartfelt appreciation and thanks to the manager of the R and R Theater of Colorado for this most entertaining evening at the Palace Theater.

DEBATE

Last Thursday night the debate team motored to Big Spring to debate the Big Spring High school teams. The girls were unable to debate but seemed to enjoy the two debates in which the boys participated. They debated the Big Spring negative side against the A team they debated the B team taking the affirmative side of the question. This debate was quite different from the other. After debating the negative, the team debated the affirmative. The Big Spring teams will return the debate by coming to Colorado on Thursday, April 2.

On Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the County Interscholastic League debates were held at the Colorado High school. The teams entered were Roscoe, Loraine, and Colorado. (The winners will be announced in the next week's issue of the Howl.)

WE'LL WIN

Sweetwater will be the destination of about fifty home economics girls Saturday, April 3rd. The program at this district meeting will include a show and shopping tour and each girl anticipates a good time.

More fun and good times are expected April 29 when the H. E. girls will go with their delegates to Fort Worth to the annual state meeting. They are entering several events and plan to win them all.

With much dignity and despite the undesirable weather, some of the third year girls wore their Easter frocks Sunday. A certain member of the class sewed until 9:30 one night so she could wear her new evening dress that night.

Another usual clatter of pots and pans and the commonly heard "Girls, Girls!" arose in the first year lab as they prepared soup. Although one of the teachers (Mr. Wilkins) had to call for volunteers to eat his soup, it was pronounced a successful lab.

Very delicious desserts were prepared by the second year girls Thursday and served to the different teachers.

LAW MERCHANT

The sons and daughters of Law Merchant are wading deeper and deeper into the stream of Negotiable Instruments. We are now battling with Holder in Due Course. Last six weeks we rode on the horns of Contracts. We are wondering what we will get into the next term. If it is any harder to see the "point" the next term than it has been this term some of us are afraid that we will go down. But after all, we are learning some practical things that we can use in every day business. Why shouldn't we know what our liabilities are if we endorse a friend's note or check. Why shouldn't we know our position if the bank pays off a check that has been forged or has been altered? What if we take a note that is past due or what if we take a check that has been lost? These are questions that might come before us sometime.

C.H.S. ORCHESTRA GIVES PROGRAM

Monday at 2:20 the Colorado High school orchestra gave its first program. The program consisted of three numbers, "Would You," "When Did You Leave Heaven?" and "Bugle Call Rag." The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Rose and consists of the following members: Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, piano, Hunter Brannon and Charles Carter, alto saxophones; Mary Frances Mackey, tenor saxophone; Virgil Easterwood, baritone saxophone; Joe Lee, bass; Robert Stell, drum; J. T. Williamson, trombone; and James D. Wulfjen, trumpet.

THE CAMPUS CAMERA

Friday night Hazel Brookover and Louise Pritchett gave an Easter party for a group of their friends out at the Country Club. The group was entertained during the evening playing bingo and dancing. The club was decorated with Easter lilies and other Easter decorations. Brick ice cream and cake with an Easter rabbit on it completed the evening.

Appeal For Library Books Issued By Mitchell County Federated Clubwomen

An appeal for books to be used in the fiction library which is sponsored by the Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs at the city hall has been issued by Mrs. J. A. Sadler, president of the federation, and her library committee, composed of Mrs. Jewel Barrett, Mrs. P. K. Mackey, and Mrs. Randolph McEntire.

The appeal follows: "If you started snooping around the house for old books which you used again by any of your family you would probably be surprised at how many would turn up. Try it; then consider the results if a similar check up were made in the homes of your friends. How easy it would be to curial a hundred volumes in no time!

"Have lies a grand opportunity to perform an important service in your county.

"The volumes gathered in a short campaign would bring many hours of enjoyment to those who love to read. It isn't every family who can afford a library in their home but most any family can afford to spend $1.00 per year for the privilege of reading from our county library.

"The Mitchell County Federation of Women's clubs is sponsoring a project to arouse enthusiasm and teamwork in collecting books for our library.

"No one knows how many hundreds of books are lying unused in homes all over Mitchell county.

"Here is buried treasure just waiting to be dug up and redistributed among our people. Many perhaps whose lives are monotonous for lack of entertainment.

"Won't you cooperate in this campaign by donating one or more books to the library?

"If convenient bring your books to the library. If not, call one of the committee and we will call for them."

What Easy Work These New GAS Kitchens Make!

Trade Your Obsolete Range for a sparkling AUTOMATIC

You don't have to be rich to help yourself to a kitchen like those you see in the attractive magazine pictures. You can buy a fine automatic Gas Range, for instance, at a moderate price and on very low terms, and these Ranges can do much of the cooking with you out of the kitchen. Won't you come in and see these new Ranges in action? Here are some of the improvements that will save you time, effort and money:

- New-type rust-proof burners have a simmer unit in the center—mere beads of heat to handle vegetables, fruits and stews.
- New-type broiler that moves on ball-bearings, with a smokeless, rustless grill. Sausage, asparagus, potatoes and other small foods can cook on the grill without falling through.
- Thermostat control in insulated oven.
- Automatic lighting.
- Chrome-and-Porcelain throughout, good looking and cleanable.
- Reminder-bell that bongs when cooking time is up.
- And on top of everything else, gas cooks for much less cost than any other method, of course.
- Trade-in Allowance . . . Rock-bottom down-payment . . . Small monthly terms.

Gas Ovens Are Insulated But They Use Fresh Air For Baking

This circulating air is what puts a good brittle crust on biscuits, a rich browned finish to meats, and a velvety texture in cakes. No steamy baking, no left-over odors. The enamel-lined walls are packed thick with rock-wool to save gas, and to hold the heat inside a long time so the kitchen is much cooler.

Mitchell Ginners To Attend Annual Parley In Dallas

Conditions Affecting Cotton Industry To Be Discussed By Convention Speakers

Two of the most important cotton problems facing Texas today—declining foreign markets and low-grade staple—will be discussed by Texas authorities at the twenty-eighth annual convention of the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association in Dallas April 7, 8 and 9.

Several citizens identified with the gin industry at Colorado and other points in Mitchell county plan attending the convention. Included in the delegation attending from Colorado will be one or more cotton buyers.

Dr. A. B. Cox, nationally known University of Texas cotton statistician, will talk on a "Cotton Policy for Texas" Thursday, April 8, at 11 o'clock in the morning. He will tell of the serious competition developing by foreign countries, who this season will plant nearly 18,000,000 bales compared with the 12,500,000 for the United States. The South formerly supplied the world with 60 per cent of its crop, but now only furnishes 40 per cent. This problem has peculiar bearing on Texas, which exports nine out of ten bales produced.

"What Can Be Done to Improve the Quality of Texas Cotton" will be discussed by W. F. Pendleton, president, National Cottonseed Products Association, Friday morning at 11:15 o'clock, April 9.

Registration begins at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning in the new Agricultural Building, Pan-American Exposition. The convention opens formally that afternoon at 2 o'clock. Leading entertainment feature comes Thursday night at 8 o'clock when a twenty-seven-act "Pan-American Revue" will be staged.

Thursday afternoon a Ginners' Forum will be conducted by Charles Bennett, engineer in charge of the United States ginning investigations, Stoneville, Miss., and F. L. Gerdes, Department of Agriculture cotton technologist from Washington. Texas ginners are invited to ask these men any questions about their business. To facilitate the answers, ginners are requested to forward their questions immediately to the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE
Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place. In such cases, Gardol has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

STANTON NEWSPAPER PRAISES WORK OF MR. AND MRS. SHEPPERD

Praise for the work which Riggs Shepperd, superintendent of the Courtney school in Martin county, and his wife, the former Geraldine Baze of Colorado, have done in securing high school affiliation for the Courtney school was voiced in the Stanton Reporter's column, "Snooty Knows," last week.

Excerpts from the column, which is written by Jim Kelly, Reporter editor, follow:
"Congratulations to you Courtney High School, or may we say, soon-to-be high school. News is printed in the columns of The Reporter this week that the Deputy State Superintendent made her final rounds of the work and equipment of the Courtney school this week, and revealed the glad tidings that she would recommend to the State Board of Education that the school be awarded sixteen units and received into the fold of accredited high schools."

The superintendent of the school, Riggs Shepperd, pounded persistently on the job, day and night, and would have loosened gallus buttons from their moorings had he been wearing galluses, in striving to achieve this ambitious task. . . . So we stay a basket full of bouquets goes to Mr. Shepperd.

"It would be almost to commit the unpardonable sin" if we failed to acknowledge the part played by Mrs. Riggs Shepperd in elevating the Courtney school from the rural class to the high school plane. With deft fingers and a fertile mind, she watched all movements of the school and when that moment arrived offering the opportunity to spread the news about the school, she provided The Reporter with it that it might carry the glad tidings to the "four corners of the earth." And too, Mrs. Shepperd, though not a teacher in the school, assisted in many ways to further the advancement of the school."

ARE MAIL ORDER HOUSES CITY BUILDERS?

This is the third article on Buy-at-Home. The mail order house builds the city in which it is located only, and it helps the upkeep of the large eastern cities. Every dime spent by mail stays there and doesn't circulate back to its origin. If you spend a dime at home the home merchant in turn spends it here and it continues until it winds back to you.

When there is anything to be done for the town's benefit the merchants are the first to be asked to contribute. Naturally they do business here and should contribute, but does the mail order house contribute? No, it never has and never will. If someone has hard luck and loses his hard-earned savings a petition is carried around asking the merchants to contribute. Now, if this person is a home-town customer, he should be helped on his feet again, but if he orders his merchandise from mail order houses do you think that the home town merchant should sympathize with him and help him start over again? No, let him ask the mail order house for help and see what he gets. He will get nothing, absolutely nothing. They don't care a bit about you, who you are, or what you do, just enough to get the money that rightfully belongs to the home town. Friends, you who fit into the picture at this point, think about it. Don't you think that's right?

Study the problem for a minute. Don't let 89c turn you to the mail order house because the home town merchant's price is $1.00. The first thing you see is a 11c saving. Now let's analyze the saving. It costs you 3c to send for it, which leaves you a saving of 8c. If this priced article was a pair of shoes you would pay at least 8c postage to get it here, leaving the transaction even. Here is where the catch comes in. You are even and you have paid $1.00 for the article. Now what if this article doesn't suit, fit or live up to expectation. You have to send it back, spending a few more cents, running the cost higher than it was at home and at the same time you have to wait for all this to take place. When all this trading is over you say, "I can order it cheaper." Here at home you see what you buy, you can try it on, and you can get it at a moment's notice.

Do you know why the mail order house affords to sell its merchandise a few cents cheaper? No, you think that it's natural and that the home town merchant is trying to rob you. They don't have to be bothered with you. No one tells them, "Can you make it cheaper?" or "I'll give you so and so for it." If they ask 50c they mean just that, and unless you pay it you don't get the goods. Another thing, if you tell them, "I'll pay you Saturday, next week or in a few days, you're just wasting your breath. They don't care when your pay check comes in. Their policy is to wait until you have the money to turn loose their merchandise. You think that the home town merchant ought to do you a favor not by selling it to you on credit by having it in stock for you.

MORE ABOUT TENANT FARMERS

The Government's plan of buying farms and reselling them to worthy tenants on long-time easy payment will probably meet with the approval of just about all the farmers in this country except those it is supposed to help—the worthy tenants.

In this plan landlords will see an opportunity to sell out and move to town and a lot of tenants will see in it what they think is a chance to buy a good, well-equipped farm from the Government and hold it a lifetime without paying for it. But those ideal tenants who are to be selected as buyers of these farms will see in this plan nothing new. Good tenants have never had any trouble finding farms they could buy on easy terms. The trouble has always been, as it is now, in finding ways to pay for them.

It seems rather strange that the farmers' friends in Congress would bring out a plan like this as a choice piece of farm legislation when it is so well known that trying to pay for farms bought on easy terms has caused hard-working, industrious farmers more trouble than almost any other thing.

Taking the country as a whole, it may be true that we would be better off if every farmer owned his own farm, but it hardly seems right to encourage people to buy land on these so-called easy terms while farm profits, if any, are so small. Buying a farm on time and trying to pay for it out of farm profits is now as it has always been, a long, hard job that is, in entirely too many cases, given up before finished. It is a job, it may be found, that not many smart tenants will care to tackle so long as conditions remain as they are, and so long as the future of farming promises so little.

All tenant farmers prefer to be free to move to a better location. It may be equally true of the farm tenant. He moves because he likes to move, if he is a good tenant. If a bad tenant, he moves because his landlord moves him. It is precisely the same with a bad house tenant, a bad store tenant. No amount of Government nursing can make a successful storekeeper out of a bad businessman. Nor can any amount of lawmaking make a good farmer out of an indolent or an incompetent one.

MORE CONGRESSMEN

It is comforting to know that our country has grown in population to the extent that we will have several more members of Congress. But it seems to me that the country needs a great many things that ought to be provided before we indulge in the luxury and expense of additional Congressmen. If I were asked to make a list of the things for which we have greater need than for additional Congressmen, I would mention such things as five legs for a dog, three hip-pockets in trousers, raincoats for submarine divers and long tails for goats. When these needs are supplied we can turn our attention to getting more Congressmen.

SMILE

No man liveth unto himself, neither does any man labor alone. If you grow a beautiful flower, build a pretty house or keep a pretty lawn, you build within others a love for the beautiful and inspire others to higher and nobler efforts. If you live a beautiful life, your life will give the touch of inspiration that will beautify and ennoble other lives. If you smile, a neighbor rejoices and loses his frown.

Dr. G. L. Root sitting in his office received a phone call from one of his patients. The caller said, "Say Doctor I can't sleep. Can you do anything for me?" The doctor answered, "Hold the phone and I'll sing you a lullaby." And he sang "Way Down Deep in My Heart."

BAD WHISKEY

An ingenious fellow up in Ohio has applied for a patent on an electrically-lighted keyhole. I look upon this as another move of the whiskey interest. Sober men do not electrically-lighted keyholes, but the whiskey ring know that if something is not done to help drunk men find keyholes, they will quit getting drunk and turn to buttermilk. After a fellow has spent an hour or two trying to find the keyhole of his front door in the flower pot or on the off side of a porch column, is a fine time to solicit him to sign the pledge and join the Buttermilk Club.

GOING FISHING

One day this week we were talking to Ed Jones and planning on going fishing. I went home and got my fishing paraphernalia out and began visioning how a big fish would act on this line and that one, when I looks to the north and there hung a heavy blue cloud.

As the cold wind whistled round the corners of the house that night, I was kinder dozin' by the fire and thinking at random. The redbird, the almost perfect day, the fishin' tackle, then the chilling north wind bringing to a close the pleasure of a lovely day and the anticipations for the next day entirely changed.

Try as we may with all our puny might, we are never prepared for the morrow. As life goes the things that are a great sorrow to some are mere matters to others. So we go on, developing a surface hardness to shed the woes we contract daily, to protect our inner emotions which are the real part of us after all.

Baseball has shot up to needing five-eighths of a morning page already, tho they're only lobbing the ball over, so far.

It is good news that religious freedom is coming back to Mexico. A free people do not need a Government to tell them to stay away from church.

According to an explorer, a tiger will not harm you if you carry a white walking cane. That might depend, we should think, on how fast you carry it.

It seems cruelty to innocent sheep to keep them jumping over a fence all night just because one man can't go to sleep.

A few years ago a resident of the Fiji Islands visited in this country. At Pittsburg he was robbed of all his money and valuables. His money and valuables gone, he watched the police take the robbers to jail and then talked as follows: "We don't send thieves to jail. We cut their hands off so they can't steal any more. A thief doesn't produce anything, so why pay a guard to watch a thief and thus add another man to the non-productive class? And if you send a man to prison you must pay taxes to support him. We give a thief a chance to be good, after his hands are cut off. If he isn't good we kill him."

Unhappy the man whose imagination runs riot and leads him to construe everything as a slur at himself. Not long since a man who was earning a good living and having a fairly good time reached the conclusion that the pictures in the funny papers were drawn to ridicule him, and he straightway committed suicide. It's well to take a hint when it comes, but disastrous to go on dress parade in search of a hint.

Chewing gum did not advance in price a penny during the great price inflation occasioned by the World war. Other commodities advanced and advanced, but chewing gum sat as steadily as the rock of ages on her old price of five blocks for a nickel. And now, while other commodities must drop and drop, flounder and flounder in the sea of doubt and depression, old chewing gum continues to sit on her old price, and the whole financial world can't budge her. From chewing gum we all may learn a lesson of great value. It didn't soar, and it didn't have to fall.

PATRIOTIC

I have seen the glories of art and architecture and of river and mountain! I have seen the sunset on the Jungfrau and the moonrise over Mont Blanc. But the fairest vision on which these eyes ever rested was the flag of my country in a foreign port. Beautiful as a flower to those who love it, terrible as a meteor to those who hate it, it is the symbol of the power and the glory and the honor of fifty millions of Americans.—Senator George H. Hoar

EVANGELICAL

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
"This is my own, my native land?"
Whose heart hath ne'er within him burned,
As home his footsteps he hath turned
From wandering on a foreign strand?

When Freedom, from her mountain height,
Unfurled her standard to the air,
She tore the azure robe of night,
And set the stars of glory there!
She mingled with its gorgeous dyes
The milky baldric of the skies,
And stripped its pure, celestial white
With streakings of the morning light;
Then, from his mansion in the sun,
She called her eagle-bearer down,
And gave into his mighty hand
The symbol of her chosen land!

—Drake.

The only regret I have is that I have only one-life to give to my country.—Nathan Hale

THE COLORADO THAT USED TO BE 25 Years Ago 15 Years Ago

25 YEARS AGO

Citizens of Colorado had gone "down in their jeans" to keep schools open for a full term 25 years ago, and the action was praised in a paragraph in the Record for April 5, 1912.

Joe Sims, J. B. Enderly, H. Cook, Wm. Moeser, D. M. Logan and Ward Gross of Snyder had been to Big Spring.

Fire had destroyed the office of the oil mill and compress on Friday morning at 3:30. The alarm had been sounded as follows: "The bel-lowing of the whistle that accom-panies the steam shovel, the firing of pistols, ringing of the fire bell, whistling of a freight engine that was passing through."

15 YEARS AGO

Five thousand people had attended Westbrook's barbecue celebration of the first shipment of Mitchell county oil fifteen years ago, according to the Record for April 7, 1922. Dr. P. C. Coleman had been in charge of activities.

Music was by the Colorado Booster band under direction of J. Lee Jones. Alvin Bell had supervised the barbecue preparations.

T. A. Hickman had been reelected as city marshal. Other candidates were Lloyd White, J. A. Thompson, W. C. Bush, J. T. Fulkerson, W.

C. Hargis, and Alex Free. Joe H. Smoot and R. L. Spalding had been retained a aldermen.

In a high school contest Lula Helton had been elected the prettiest girl, Eloise Pond the cleverest girl, Edgar Holt the handsomest boy, Blandford Harness the brightest boy, J. T. Gist the best athlete, and Nora Lydia Reese the most popular girl.

The Hart-Costin addition to Colorado was being promoted. The Standard club had met with Mrs. John Prude, the 1921 Study club with Mrs. Charles Reems Earnest, the Civic League with Mrs. P. C. Coleman. Mrs. Maude Scott had been given a shower for her new home. CHS sophs had had an April Fool party at the home of Mary Lee Tidwell.

Any Green had gone to New Orleans to take a special course in child care. Louis, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, had been injured in a drag wagon accident. J. M. Doss was visiting here from Mingus.

10 YEARS AGO

Ten years ago in Colorado Judge R. H. Looney was running for reelection as mayor. Opposing him was Harry Ratliff. L. A. Costin was the only candidate for city secretary. C. E. Way, D. H. Snyder, R. O. Pearson, and J. E. Chase were on

Science Of Raising Easter Lillies Has Developed Rapidly

Beautiful Flowers Seen In City Sunday Result Long Hours Special Care

The beautiful Easter lilies that were to be seen in homes, churches and probably other places of Colorado Sunday required a lot of work and long hours of "gliding the lily" to perfect them, and to assure that the timing was so accurately fixed as to find them in full bloom on the religious holiday morning.

Hot houses all over the county had been nursing row after row of tables containing thousands of plants, all about the same size, all under the same care and all set to blossom out at the same time.

This timing system represents years of effort, hundreds of dollars in the past and infinite care and patience during the brief space immediately preceding Easter. Gas bills may skyrocket as the horticulturists make their daily rounds. Each plant is allowed so much sunshine, so much darkness and its share of water.

The gardeners know just when to remove the pollen from each bud, thus keeping the yellow dust from spoiling the pure white of the delicate flower. If Easter arrives late or if the bulbs have been planted too early, the plants are placed in cold storage to hold them back.

CLOTHING STUDIED AT IATAN CLUB MEETING

By Club Reporter

When the Iatan Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Clyde McCreary on March 18 requirements of clothing for housework were discussed. Each woman wore a house dress which she liked. These were made of easily laundered materials and designed to iron easily. Those for summer had loose sleeves and cape sleeves.

Materials long enough to protect the dress and made with long loose sleeves, big pockets and collars that fasten high at the neck.

Aprons were made of sturdy materials with a center panel and side panel wide enough to protect the dress at front and sides. Some were made of sacks, others of seersucker.

Guests who attended were Mesdames Fox W. Castleman of Westbrook, J. M. Perkins and C. T. Bot-vidson of Iatan. Members present were Mesdames Ollie Harris, Bud Hall, E. Lee Coleman, Clyde McCreary, E. B. Gregson, Connor Sutherland, Ivan Puett.

The next meeting will be held on April 1.
