Announcement Of Janis Wilkes' Marriage
On Christmas Eve Surprises Friends Here

Friends of the former Miss Janis Wilkes were surprised late last week to receive announcements of her marriage on December 24 to Mr. Wayne Charles Rauch of Coffeyville, Kansas. The following story on the announcement appeared in Sunday's Abilene Reporter-News: "Announcement has been made by Mrs. Harriett Virginia Wilkes of Colorado of the marriage of her daughter, Janis, and Wayne Charles Rauch of Coffeyville, Kansas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rauch, of Coffeyville. "The marriage took place in the evening on last December 24, in Seguin, where the couple drove from San Antonio where they were visiting. "Member of a pioneer West Texas family, Mrs. Rauch is a primary teacher in the Midland public schools and plans to continue her work until the close of the spring term. She is to be joined in Midland on May 28, by Mr. Rauch, and they will have a honeymoon trip to points in New Mexico and Colorado before going to Coffeyville, June 15, to live. "For this trip Mrs. Rauch has selected a trousseau suit of gray, a Schiaparelli model, with red accessories. "Educated in Southern Methodist University at Dallas, and Texas State College for Women at Denton, Mrs. Rauch formerly taught in the Abilene Travis school. "Graduate of the University of Kansas, at Lawrence, Mr. Rauch is an independent geologist. "Concurrently with the mailing of the marriage announcement cards, there went into the mail, invitations for a party to be given May 7 at the Colorado Country club, to honor the bride. "Two of her sisters, Mrs. J. E. Stowe of Abilene and Mrs. Harry P. Ragan of Colorado are to be hosts for the party, entertaining friends from a number of points.

Grace Callan Honored At Shower Given By Mesdames Jones and Cox Saturday

Complimenting Miss Grace Callan, who will become the bride of Horace (Chesty) White on Saturday, Mrs. Ed Jones, Sr., and Mrs. Jack Cox entertained with a reception and shower at the Jones home Saturday afternoon. Masses of roses were arranged in every prominent place in the entertaining suite. Mrs. Cox greeted guests at the door. Mrs. Jones headed the receiving line, which included Miss Callan and her mother, Mrs. George Callan of Spade. Miss Cleo Shepherd presided at the bride's book. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. John Shropshire, Mrs. Ed Jones, Jr., and Mrs. Willis Jones; Misses Jayne Daniel, Jane Axtell, Jo Axtell, Zilpha Thomas, Hilma Joyce, Wanna Wade, and Julia Mae Root. Mrs. Cox introduced a program which included readings by Mrs. Austin Bush and Ed Jones III and a song and dance by Mary Ellen Jones, who was accompanied by Mrs. W. R. Martin. Carrying out a May Day idea, the honoree was crowned "Queen of the May" by Little Mary Ellen Jones. Then she was led to the dining room, where the gifts were piled around a white maypole from which blue and white ribbons led to each package. A toast to the bride-elect was read by Mrs. John Shropshire just before the gifts were opened. Canapes, potato chips, olives, fudge cookies, and iced tea were served at the close of the entertainment. Try the new Remington Portable typewriter at Record office.

FISHING NOT GOOD

Several Coloradans were at Lake Sweetwater Saturday and Sunday as fishing season opened. As a rule the anglers report poor luck. The fish were not biting—at least for Colorado people.

Hospital Drive

an average of six patients could be operated for $1,000 per month. For an outlay of $250 additional per month, the same institution could care for an average of twelve patients during the same time, he said.
Successful operation of a hospital, whether a private institution as that owned by Dr. Root or a general hospital, to which all doctors had equal access, could only be assured through efficient management, Dr. Root continued. "In our plans to acquire an open hospital at Colorado, either through the purchase of my plant or the building of a new one, it is most essential that a capable business executive be placed at the helm, and he should not be a doctor," he stated. Dr. Root detailed that his hospital plant represented an investment of over $50,000 and that he had agreed to sell to proposed joint-stock company for $30,000.
Jim Greene, until recently manager of the chamber and who Monday became that executive for the Big Spring CC, was another speaker to address the meeting. He urged that Coloradans subscribe to a joint-stock company to acquire and operate the proposed hospital. Taking the matter to the ballot box was discouraged.

U. D. Wulfjen, Seven Wells rancher and prominent in civic affairs of the county, spoke briefly, pledging his financial and moral support to the drive. He recalled that during the past several years he had patronized some of Texas' largest hospitals, along with the one operated here, "and the most efficient and pleasing service of all was accorded me in Dr. Root's little hospital."
"We are at the place where something must be done to stimulate business conditions at Colorado and in this respect the proposed hospital stands high," declared J. W. Randle, business man and member of the CC executive board.
"This project is the best thing that could happen to Colorado and may be easily carried through to realization," was statement by Dr. H. G. Whitmore. "I know through observation that such an institution would retain much money here that is now finding its way into business channels of other communities."

B. May, and Dale Warren, were others to address the meeting, all of whom expressed enthusiasm over outlook for bringing the project into being.

Dr. T. J. Ratliff took the chair after Thompson had called the meeting to order, introducing several of the speakers heard. Greene, who several days ago launched campaign to acquire the hospital, returned here from Big Spring to have part on the program.

Jim Greene

from his office in Big Spring to have part in launching campaign for general hospital here.
That Greene had undertaken a number of worthwhile projects for this city and county, only to see them defeated due to failure of the public to extend cooperation was charged. President Thompson of the CC, U. D. Wulfjen and others spoke on the subject.
"Jim Greene has not been given the cooperation that he merited and there have been times when he steered through to success progressive programs through attacks from those whom he sought to benefit. We are going to miss him here," was charge to come from the lips of Wulfjen.
"I am beginning to realize the fact that Greene worked through long hours every day in the sincere effort to meet the responsibilities that his position carried," Thompson said. "Since he has gone, I am having to do some of the work that fell upon his shoulders. But we are going to borrow him occasionally. In informed president of the Big Spring chamber of commerce Monday that our organization would insist upon such cooperation."

Pond Elected

office last year at the Childrens convention and withdrew in favor of Elmer Elliott of Dalhart, whom Pond succeeded.
"The Colorado Lions Club has won an outstanding victory due to fact we were successful in putting Joe Pond into the district governor's chair," Helton declared after returning to Colorado. "That is true in consideration of the fact we defeated one of the outstanding Lions and progressive Lions Clubs within the district."
That the campaign was clean from its inception until the final vote was announced was asserted by leaders in both the Burleton and Pond camps. Both groups went to Big Spring with strong support for their candidate and both maintained an aggressive campaign, night and day, through the three days. Phacards and other printed matter, heralding claims of the men were conspicuous in hotel lobbies, show windows and other places of vantage. Hardly one of the more than 600 delegates attending could be found who did not have campaign literature in his coat pocket or dangling from a lapel or his back.

Whipkey, who put his all into campaign to bring about election of Pond, returned to Colorado late Tuesday tired out but wearing a smile that could be detected for a block away. He was profuse in his praise of the fidelity demonstrated by Lions of his organization, giving individual effort credit for the victory achieved.
Coloradans were given conspicuous place in events of the convention from the opening program Sunday until the final gavel. Sunday night exercises at First Baptist church featured musical numbers by local artists and the meeting was presided over by Jim Greene. Attorney General William McCraw delivered the principal address.

During programs at convention hall Monday and Tuesday, at special luncheons and other high spots, musicians, dancers and speakers taken to the convention under sponsorship of Colorado Lions were presented.
The 1938 district convention was awarded Lubbock Lions, only contenders for that distinction.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Celebrated
By Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Welch On Monday

Fifty colorful years of marriage were rounded out by Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Welch Monday. The occasion was marked with a family dinner at the Welch home in North Colorado Monday noon and an open house at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. P. Gory, in the afternoon from 4 until 6.

Around 60 friends called at the Gary home in the afternoon. They were received at the door by Mrs. Gary and Mrs. R. H. Bennett of Roscoe. Mrs. Harold Bennett, a granddaughter, presided at the registry. Misses Erdine Morgan and Elizabeth Grantland served a gold fruit drink with cake.

The honored couple was seated on a divan in front of the fireplace. Vases filled with golden California poppies stood on either side of the mantle above them. Spring flowers, including poppies, harkspur, and honeysuckle were arranged throughout the house.

The three-tiered wedding cake, iced in white with gold embossing and the dates "1887-1937", also in gold, centered a table covered with lace over yellow. Yellow tapers burned in gold holders on either side of the cake. Two crystal bowls held yellow tea roses and honeysuckle. The gold fruit drink was in crystal bowls on the table.

Children of Mr. and Mrs. Welch, who were here for the reunion and celebration included Mrs. Gary of Colorado, Mrs. Bennett of Roscoe, Horace and Clarence Welch of near Colorado, Olin Welch of Plainview, a daughter, Mrs. James K. Averca of Sullivan, Indiana, was not able to be here.

The story of Mr. and Mrs. Welch's married life appeared in Sunday's Abilene Reporter-News. It was written by Mrs. Bennett of Roscoe and is reprinted in part, below:

"At sunrise May 3, 1887, in Del Rio, Stella E. Browne became the bride of Lynton Lee Welch.

"Fifty years will have passed Monday morning since the young couple, native Texans, met in the early days of their courtship. The bride had been brought two weeks earlier in a wagon by her father from his ranch in Los Arbelos canyon, Coahuila, Mexico, that she might join for her trousseau and have access to a dressmaker. She was the guest of a friend, Mrs. George Tims, in whose home the wedding ceremony was read.

"Lynton Lee Welch's family also had gone from Texas to run a ranch below the Rio Grande. It was in Los Arbelos canyon that the Browne and Welch families became acquainted and where the two young Texans fell in love.

"Mr. Welch was born July 13, 1867, near Kerrville, the youngest in a family of 13 that was reared on the frontier. Two older brothers, Joe Welch of Los Angeles, and the late Wiley Welch of Camp Wood were Texas rangers for many years.

"Living all his early life on the frontier of Edwards and Kerr counties, he had little opportunity to attend school and obtain education in the sense an education now is measured. The new frontier schools had terms for three months in one-room log cabins. Each pupil had a slate and pencil, but few books. His experience became his teacher. His earliest recollections are his fears of the Indians, who made raids on his community regularly every full moon.

"Mrs. Stella E. Browne Welch was born February 1, 1869, near Leesville in Gonzales county. She was the oldest of eleven children. Her father, the late N. P. Browne, of this (Mitchell) county was a veteran of the war between the states. He once was a pupil in Burleson college at Old Independence, Texas—now Baylor university. Her parents were from Missouri and Arkansas.

"Mrs. Welch tells many interesting stories of the old negro mammy and son who remained faithful servants to her grandparents, along with 17 other slaves, long after they had been freed from slavery. She attended school at Grahamville in Gillespie county—in a brick building, which was an unusual opportunity for that day. While in school there

(This offer expires July 15, 1937)

"Upon coming to Mitchell county 35 years ago Mr. Welch settled in the Charlie May ranch. He purchased a large white-topped hack and for two years ran a star mail route from Colorado to Sterling City. Three teams of horses were used on this route. One team was cared for at the J. W. Nunn wagon yard in Colorado, another at the Spade home and the third at Iolanthe. Many passengers as well as mail made the trip which took the entire day from Colorado to Sterling City. Since 1904 Mr. Welch has engaged in farming."

MRS. MILLER HERE
Mrs. W. J. Miller of El Paso, one of Colorado's earliest pioneers, is here for an extended visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Y. D. McMurry. Mrs. Miller seems to be entirely recovered from her recent serious illness. Mrs. McMurry has spent the winter in El Paso with her. Another daughter, Mrs. V. Van Gieson of Big Spring, was here for awhile last week.

VISITS MISS GUNTER
H. H. Rumph, district field representative of the Texas Unemployment Compensation commission, was in Colorado Monday and visited his aunt, Miss Emma Gunter, county home demonstration agent. Rumph's headquarters are in Abilene.

BIRTHDAY OF McCALL MISSION CELEBRATED

The ninth anniversary of the opening of the McCall mission in East Colorado was observed recently by the mission's teaching staff in cooperation with the Daughters of the King class of the Methodist church.

A program was arranged by the mission teachers, including Mrs. W. H. Garrett, as superintendent, Mrs. L. A. Costin as assistant superintendent, Mrs. Ed Womack, Mrs. Tom Glover, and Mr. Charles Crocker. The children sang and gave birthday readings.

Mrs. Jeff Dobbs told the story of the beginning of the mission, stating that Mrs. M. P. McCall had the first inspiration to build the church, therefore it was named for her. Mrs. H. P. Allmond made the first donation when the drive for funds was begun by the Daughters of the King.

The mission has not missed a meeting in 9 years. Christmas trees and Easter programs are held each year. Over 100 Bibles have been given to children in the mission.

MRS. W. L. COPE By a Friend

On Sunday, May 2, about 9:30 p.m., Mrs. W. L. Cope passed from this earthly life and her physical suffering to the Heavenly home. She had been for about 23 years a citizen of Westbrook and for approximately 65 years a member of the Baptist church. She loved her Christ and His church and lived a faithful and exemplary Christian life unto the end. She was firm in her conviction, and at all times frank and earnest in her religious beliefs. She was always anxious about the lost and did her part in trying to win them by praying for them and talking to them. No one was more loyal to her pastor than was she. She was not slow in the acceptance of any task that might aid the pastor in the promotion of the cause of Christ.

The funeral service was in charge of her pastor who read Proverbs 31: 10-31. Mrs. Lee Brown sang "Does Jesus Care?" after which Bro. A. D. Leach, a long time friend and former pastor of three different churches to which she belonged, brought the message.

She leaves to mourn her passing a great host of friends and the following children: three daughters, Mrs. Rulf Adams of Mount Vernon, Mrs. C. C. Bracken of Abilene, and Mrs. Mark Young of Carbon. One son, Mr. M. L. Cope of Westbrook. Several grandchildren and cousins were present for the funeral services.

She, like Dorcas, went about doing good and the memory of her life is sweet and blessed.

MELBA SLATON HERE

Melba Slaton, student in C.I.A. at Denton, was here to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Slaton, for a few hours Saturday. She came over from Abilene Friday night after an appearance there with the C.I.A. choir, which was on a tour. Mr. and Mrs. Slaton, Mrs. Fielding Lee, Miss Roselle McKinney, and Lawton Callison went over to Abilene to hear the choir and Miss Slaton returned with them. She had as her guest Miss Jeanette Bear of Farmer City, Ill. Mrs. Slaton and Miss Violet Mooser took the two to San Angelo to rejoin the choir Saturday afternoon. The choir returned to Denton Sunday.

Mrs. Chester Jones and Mrs. R. J. Wallace spent Wednesday with their sons, Jere Jones and Mumpsy Wallace, at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

COLORADO WILL REGRET LOSING JIMMIE GREENE REFINERY CHIEF AVERS

"Colorado will regret losing Jimmie Greene as manager of the chamber of commerce and otherwise recognized leader in the objectives about which the general public should be concerned," Earl Gunn, superintendent of Col-Tex refinery and member of the CC executive board, told this newspaper Wednesday afternoon.

"I'm disappointed in the news that this man is severing his important place in the affairs of this community," Gunn said. "What ought to be done here is for the varied interests to get together under the banner of community brotherhood and put their cash and their cooperation into such a civic organization as to bring progress, in keeping with the opportunities that stand out ahead.

"I sincerely hope that the chamber of commerce will be able to contract the leadership and services of another manager as capable as Jim Greene. This is two-time talk with me and I stand ready to cooperate in such an undertaking."

Miss Agnes Williams of the Modern Beauty shop spent the week-end in Trent.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. W. P. Bassham was readmitted to Root hospital last Thursday as a medical patient and is now showing considerable improvement.

Minor surgery was administered to J. B. Vest, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Vest of Seven Wells, last Thursday. He went home Tuesday.

Tonsils of Mrs. Maude Allison of Colorado were removed Thursday.

Skin was grafted on the leg burns of Mrs. Gus Banos Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. C. Beakley, 76, who came from Dunn Tuesday night as a heart patient, died early Wednesday morning only 12 hours after being admitted.

Porter Richardson of Odessa had his tonsils removed Tuesday morning.

Tonsils of Floyd Wallace of Seven Wells were removed Wednesday.

Joe Bynum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bynum, continues to improve. He underwent a serious major operation three weeks ago.

Mrs. Frances Newson was in the hospital from late Sunday until Wednesday afternoon suffering from a throat infection.

FUNERAL FOR SMITH INFANT ON THURSDAY

Funeral services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith are being held this afternoon (Thursday) at 4 o'clock to the cemetery by the Rev. A. D. Leach.

The infant, a little boy who was named Thomas Earl, lived only a short while after birth Wednesday night. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Jack, 15, and Royce, 11. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. D. Smith of Colorado are paternal grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Huffman of California maternal grandparents.

Kiker & Son had charge of funeral arrangements.

POULTRY AND EGGS WILL BE SCARCE IN THE AREA

That this territory is facing a shortage of poultry and eggs is being asserted by buyers here and other sections of West Texas. A depleted laying stock during this season is given as basis for that conclusion.

The Giddens Hatchery announces that their last hatch will be off May 9th. Orders for chicks should be placed without delay. The hatchery is specializing in four standard breeds—white and brown leghorns, Rhode Island reds and barred Plymouth rocks.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME OF THE JIM WILLIAMS

Fire of undetermined origin practically destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams on Walnut street Sunday evening about 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and their children were away from home at the time, having been gone since Saturday. They returned just as the fire was over. Most of the contents of the house were also destroyed.

The loss of the house was estimated at about $1,000, covered by insurance.

ANNUAL QUILT, BLANKET WEEK IS SLATED BY LEE

Annual "Quilt and Blanket Week," occasion during which special prices are offered on laundrying those bed covers, is to open at the Colorado Laundry Monday and run through the week. J. Ralph Lee, owner, announced Wednesday. Reduced prices will apply on this type of work during the period. The usual prompt delivery service will be offered.

DEAN OF McMURRY TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

R. G. Boger, dean of McMurry college at Abilene, will be a guest speaker at First Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, according to the Rev. C. E. Jameson, pastor.

Mr. Boger will also speak to T. W. Stonerond's class at 10 o'clock.

TWO COUPLES MARRIED

Two out-of-town couples were married by the Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church Saturday night. J. L. Lubfried and Miss Louise Schluetter, both of Roby, were married at 9:15. David Collier and Miss Frances Cheek, both of Loraine, were married at 10:15.

SAFETY OFFICIAL HERE

M. V. Witbeck of Abilene, district manager for Safeway Stores, Inc., was looking after business affairs in Colorado Wednesday. The official expressed optimism as to business conditions for his company in this area.

MOTHER'S DAY

Next Sunday all America will pay tribute to those women who have worked devotedly at the most difficult job in the world....the making of men and women.

How beautifully Mother did it, and how ingeniously! She "knighted" us in the wood shed with a peach tree switch when we had been a bit too saucy, only to brush away the hurt with a kiss. She met us at the door with smiles and a bite to eat when we rushed in from school or play. To us she was home itself, and such a haven of comfort that pain and heart aches eased when her arms went around us.

And now that we are grown the years and miles that have separated us have not lessened her loyalty or her love. She knows that no matter how splendid our attainments may be, we shall never grow too wise to need her care.

God save the Queen of America! We love her!

HUNDREDS ATTEND ANNUAL GATHERING OF SONG ASS'N HELD IN COLORADO SUNDAY

W. L. Doss, Veteran Musical Chief, Though Ill, Attends and Directs Singing of His Favorite Hymn

Several hundred West Texans the most of whom came from within the borders of Mitchell county, gathered at Colorado Sunday for annual song convention, held at the old Union Tabernacle building, W. W. Porter, president of the organization, presided.

Among high spots on the day's program was appearance of W. L. Doss, veteran leader in the association, who through illness had not been active for several weeks. Mr. Doss assisted in organization of the association forty years ago and has never missed an annual meeting through the intervening years. A round of applause greeted him as he was presented. He directed the singing of his favorite hymn, "On Jordan's Stormy Banks."

All officers of the association were re-elected at business session held Saturday night at First Baptist church, excepting Rev. Albert Mason, chaplain, who during the past year moved to Stanton. The Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church was named to that position. Other officers include W. W. Porter, president; W. L. Doss, Sr., vice-president, and Mrs. W. K. Miles, secretary-treasurer.

Special numbers were heard during the day by visiting quartets. A Negro chorus under direction of Rev. S. Y. Nixon was well received. A basket dinner at Ruddick Park at noon was included in the features for the day.

Porter stated Tuesday morning that he estimated not less than 2,000 people were here for the program. The convention program was first large gathering in the tabernacle this year.

Mrs. Kirschbaum Will Lead Business Women's Club As Its New President

By Elizabeth Kirkpatrick, Reporter

Affairs of the Business & Professional Women's club during the coming year will be directed by Mrs. M. L. Kirschbaum, who was elected president of the club Monday evening. Other new officers are: Vice-president, Mrs. Rees Jones; second vice-president, Miss Sallie Miller; treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Berman; recording secretary, Miss Elizabeth Kirkpatrick; corresponding secretary, Mrs. M. J. Dawson.

After the election of officers plans were discussed and made for the State convention which meets in El Paso June 3rd, 4th, and 5th. Mrs. Kirschbaum was elected delegate to the convention and Miss Lillian Pond, alternate.

BILLINGSLEY HEADS THE LIONS CLUB DELEGATION

Dick Billingsley was chairman of the "On to Big Spring Committee," that Monday morning rounded up Colorado Lions and started them west to attend sessions of the annual convocation in Big Spring. Other members of the committee were C. C. Thompson, A. C. Connell, E. L. Templeton, J. W. Randle and Nat Thomas.

PLANS FOR ANNUAL DRUG GATHERING BE OUTLINED

Plans for annual convention of the West Texas Pharmaceutical association are to be mapped at meeting of executive officials in Sweetwater Sunday. Location for the meeting, to be held in August, and program to be followed, are among the details pending. Colorado is a member unit in the association.

FINLEYS ON VACATION

I. O. Finley of the postoffice staff and his wife left early this week for a two-weeks vacation which is being spent with Cleburne as headquarters.

Funeral Services For Mr. Clyde Hines Held At Westbrook Sunday

Funeral services were held at the Westbrook Baptist church Sunday afternoon for Mr. Clyde Hines, about 55, former Mitchell county who died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. R. W. Tucker (formerly Scottie Mae Hines) in Floydada Saturday morning.

Mr. Hines had ranched in Colonia, Chihuahua, Mexico, for the past 18 or 20 years. Falling ill there, he was brought out of Mexico two weeks before his death by Dell Barber and Pete Barber of Colorado and Witt Hines of Stanton, the last named being a brother. Mrs. Tucker came to Stanton for him and he was at her home when he died.

The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hines, Mitchell county pioneers, Mr. Hines was born at Cleburne, Texas, on Nov. 11, 1877. He came to Mitchell county with his parents in 1892. He attended school at Rogers and Colorado and also went to Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene.

Survivors include his wife, who moved from Colorado to San Angelo last year; a daughter, Mrs. Tucker of Floydada; and a son, Martin Hines of San Angelo.

Among other survivors are three brothers, Witt Hines of Stanton, Burton and Herman Hines of Westbrook.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Clyde Childers of the Westbrook Baptist church. Pallbearers were Sam Bullock, John Costin, W. H. Gregory, Ward Jenkins, John Thompson, and Dell Barber.

Jones, Russell & Co. assisted in handling local funeral arrangements.

BORDEN COUNTY SHERIFF DIES; BURIAL SATURDAY

D. R. Covey, sheriff of Borden county, died at a Snyder hospital Friday morning following a week's illness from pneumonia. Burial rites were conducted from the Snyder Church of Christ Saturday afternoon with burial in a cemetery there. The late peace officer was the brother of R. S. Covey, superintendent of the Sweetwater schools.

Mothers Day Will Be Celebrated In Churches Of City

Tribute To Her Scheduled At Various Houses Of Worship Sunday Morning, Evening

Sunday, Mother's Day, is to be observed by practically all churches in Colorado, either in special sermon addresses or special programs dedicated to mother. A mothers day service will be the only service scheduled at First Baptist church during the day, excepting Sunday school. Ladies of the congregation will sponsor the offering, to be given at 11 o'clock.

The conventional flower, a red one if mother is still among the living and a white one if she is numbered among those who have passed away, will be worn by the average citizen as he attends religious services of the day.

Members of the Colorado Ministerial Alliance are urging Coloradans to attend the church of their choice Sunday out of respect to mother, depicted as the influence that has done more than any other factor in stabilizing the cause of righteousness.

JULY 20TH IS DATE FOR OPENING ANNUAL SCOUTS OUTING IN SOUTH TEXAS

Annual Boy Scouts camp for the Buffalo Trail Council is to open at Camp Fawcett, Barksdale, on July 20 and close August 3. M. L. Kirschbaum, member of the area camp group, announced Sunday. Leaders in troops at Colorado and other points of the county are mapping plans for sending several Scouts to the camp during Mitchell county week.

Just how many boys are to be registered from troops at Colorado remains to be seen, Kirschbaum stated Tuesday. W. W. Porter, district committee chairman, is urging cooperation upon part of parents and Scout leaders in drive to boost this delegation.

LIONS PRESIDENT NOTES APPRECIATION FOR CLUB COOPERATION AT PARLEY

President Walter Whipkey of the Colorado Lions Club, called the fifty Coloradans, attending sessions of annual district convention in Big Spring together in the Settles hotel Monday afternoon to personally thank them for their sincere cooperation in keeping Lionism here in the forefront.

"I want to personally thank every one of you Lions for your presence here today," he stated. "I realize that many of you have come to Big Spring when your business in Colorado demanded your attention. You have again reflected your loyalty to your club and its objectives, a fact that makes me feel proud."

SEVERAL LIONESSES ARE REGISTERED AT MEETING

Several Colorado Lionesses were registered at annual district Lions convention in Big Spring Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Some of the ladies were presented on entertainment programs arranged for the three days. Presence of these delegates assisted materially in boosting attendance from Colorado to the high point attained.

SFADE SHIPS 9 CARS STEERS TO LUBBOCK

Nine cars of steer yearlings were shipped to the Spade ranch near Lubbock by the Spade ranch of Mitchell county Monday.

The shipment was for grazing purposes, according to Otto Jones, manager of the Mitchell county ranch.

CHURCH PIETY ON DECLINE IN AREA, SPEAKERS HEARD AT M. E. SESSION CHARGE

Appeal For Return To House Of Worship Given In Key Note Addresses Heard At District Conference

By Hamilton Wright

Charge that a low spiritual state obtains in churches of the country and echoes of urgent appeal that the people turn their faces once again to the house of worship were heard by speakers addressing annual conference of the Sweetwater district, M. E. Church, South, in session at First Methodist church Tuesday and Wednesday.

Such a condition, depicted as one to challenge every Methodist to renewed consecration in meeting the responsibilities that he assumed in uniting with the church, came from the lips of more than one of the speakers heard. The lax state of religion was pictured in the parade of figures showing that new converts and new recruits for the church roster had been below those of other times. Net gain in membership for the district during the past six months was given at 257, 214 of whom were received by certificate and 106 by vows.

The delegates elected ten lay delegates to Northwest Texas Conference to be held at Quanah, probably in November. They are D. P. Yoder, Snyder; A. E. Crowder, Sweetwater; Mrs. R. H. Odom, Snyder; Mrs. J. W. Stepper, Colorado; Jim Bodine, Buford; J. Carroll, Snyder; Mrs. C. A. Bickley, Big Spring; Mrs. D. B. Wharton, Roscoe; Mrs. D. Dorwood, Gall, and Judge A. S. Mauzey, Sweetwater.

At 11 o'clock Wednesday the McMurry Chanters under direction of Mrs. Gypsy Ted Wylie rendered a musical program. This was followed by an inspirational sermon by Rev. Tom Brabham, president of McMurry College.

During the sessions the conference was visited by presiding elders from other districts in this conference, including Abilene District, by Dr. C. A. Long; Stamford district, by C. A. Bowen; Lubbock District, by Dr. W. M. Pearce.

The conference authorized the presiding elder to appoint a committee to arrange for the 1938 meeting place.

Deficit of the district for the Wesley Bible Chair at Texas University was rubbed out when a collection was taken at the morning session Wednesday.

Resolutions adopted by the conference highly praised the Texas & Pacific railroad company for interest which it has shown in work of the church in this area. Last Fall when many of the circuit rider preachers were badly in need of funds to provide for transportation to Houston, where the annual conference was to be held, the Texas & Pacific through the generosity of Ollie B. Webb, assistant to president of the system, furnished all the circuit riders with free transportation to and from Dallas. Again when the All-State Methodist Conference recently was held at Fort Worth the road presented free passes to circuit riders on difficult works.

The conference opened Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a devotional led by Rev. Sam H. Young, presiding elder. Rev. Hamilton Wright, Lovaine, was re-elected secretary. Roll call disclosed only about one-half of ministers and lay delegates present.

The following were presented to the conference: O. P. Thrane, business manager of McMurry College, Abilene; Rev. Mark M. Beavers, pastor of First Church, Lamesa; Rev. J. A. Wheeler, pastor of Lamesa Circuit; and Rev. C. N. Morton, member of the Central Texas Conference.

A report of the Bishops' Crusade throughout annual conference was brought by Rev. C. A. Bickley, Big Spring, member of the general conference board of missions. It disclosed that eight of the nine districts of the Northwest Texas Conference had reported $8,889.81 raised, with still other monies to come in. The connection generally had reported $370,000 raised which would be brought to around $400,000 when all reports had been received. The denomination's missionary debt of $385,000 incurred during the depression is to be absolutely wiped out with the funds.

When pastors made their reports J. L. Carrell, member of Union church on the Fluvanna Circuit, offered appropriate comments. He had been previously appointed by the presiding elder for the purpose of commenting.

Rev. Wayne Cook, pastor at Sparenberg and Ackerly, gave a bird's eye analysis of benevolences raised by each charge for each of the past five years. He is district secretary of missions, a newly created office. Lack of applicants for the ministry, both "local" and itinerant, was a matter for serious study and consideration, according to Rev. C. A. Bickley, pastor at Big Spring. Others who engaged in this discussion were Rev. Mark M. Beavers, Lamesa; Rev. M. W. Clark, Fluvanna Circuit, and Rev. Sam H. Young, presiding elder. See M. E. CONFERENCE, Page 3

"SERVICE"

That word! These days, you find it everywhere, and sometimes in places where it doesn't belong. But motorists agree that it does belong in "Humble Service Stations". Humble service they say, is more than a phrase: it stands for clean restrooms, for ice water when you're hot and thirsty, for trained men, for first aid kits, for fire extinguishers, and for a friendly helpfulness which is typically Texan. Discover this for yourself: Stop, some day soon, for service where you see the Humble sign.

WOMEN IN THE STUDY CLUBS

Standard

In its final meeting of this club year Friday afternoon the Standard club studied the state of Utah. Mrs. Y. D. McMurry, home after a long visit in El Paso, was hostess. Mrs. L. W. Sandusky was leader. "Exploring in the Canyon of Death" was Mrs. Sandusky's topic. Mrs. J. A. Buchanan gave "Thumb Nail Sketches of Utah". It was noted that Mrs. C. M. Adams, club president during this year, has not missed a meeting during the entire club year. After refreshments the club adjourned until the first meeting in October.

Self Culture

Numbers by Mrs. Bill Coffey's kindergarten rhythm band and discussions of local poets featured the program of the Self Culture club Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Dell Barber was hostess at the home of Mrs. C. P. Gary. After the appearance of the Rhythm band the young members were served chocolate popovers. The program on "Desert Poets" followed. Mrs. E. B. Whitbanks being leader. Mrs. Dell Barber discussed the

SCHOOL WITHOUT THE SENIORS

School without the Seniors will be both happy and unhappy. Some will be glad to see them go and others will be sad. Each year the school loses a class of Seniors, and each year the school thinks that that class has been the best, but of course we think that the class of '37 is the best. They have cooperated in every way, and they have given a friendly inspiration to their fellow classmen in setting a good example for the future Seniors to follow.

We shall miss them and yet we shall be glad for them to go on to a higher goal.

MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN

Monday, May 3, the C. H. S. assembly was entertained with a musical program celebrating music week. The first number on the program was a saxophone solo, "Moonlight Sonata," by Hunter Brannon, accompanied by Miss Gladys Miller at the piano. Next on the program was a vocal solo by Miss Gladys Miller, accompanied by Miss Hazel Grubbs at the piano. She sang several songs, as follows: "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Mighty Like a Rose," "Sweet Mystery of Life," and "Old Man River."

Following this different students gave accounts of the trips that the C. H. S. Band and the Home Economic girls took last week.

MUSIC DURING NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK

Tuesday afternoon and Thursday afternoon the Choral Club sang some numbers in assembly. This week being National Music Week, the High school has had several music programs and the Choral Club has done its part.

Tuesday afternoon they sang "Picksiny Sundman" and "The Little Green Valley." Thursday the club sang two numbers, "Neapolitan Nights" and "Senorita." Then the Choral Club sang "The Toymaker's Dream" and "The Garden of Tomorrow."

SENIOR DAY

Those happy, go lucky Seniors will bless the high school Friday when they go to Big Spring for their Senior Day. They decided to give 75c each to the eats committee to buy the food. June Cox is chairman of the committee, and from a list of a page and a half, the Seniors will certainly have plenty to eat. The place committee suggested Sweetwater Lake or Big Spring, and a great majority voted Betty Hodge formed a duet to sing "In the Heart of the Hills" by Ker-Lee.

Hesperian

The optimistic poetry of Robert Browning was studied at the meeting of the Hesperian club with Mrs. J. G. Merritt on Friday.

Mrs. S. H. Millwee led while the following program parts were presented:

"Saul," Mrs. Nat Thomas; "Rabbit Ben Ezra," Mrs. Millwee; "Pippa Passes," Mrs. E. H. Winn; "Prospect," Mrs. Farris Bass; "Browning's Optimism in an Age of Doubt," Mrs. J. A. Sadler; "Browning's Optimism is a Need of the Present Day," Mrs. A. L. Whipple.

The year book as reported by Mrs. Bass was accepted. Mrs. Rees Jones and Mrs. Bass had visited Longfellow school. The club was invited to the Friday meeting of Miss Emma Gunter's home demonstration clubs. Members were also invited to attend open house at Headquarters Permanent in Dallas on May 14, 40th anniversary of federated clubs in Texas.

Mrs. Merritt served chicken salad, cake, and a fruit drink. The meeting this Friday will be with Mrs. E. H. Winn.

Zetaganian

A called meeting of the Zetaganian club Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Joe Pond, was substituted for the Friday afternoon meeting.

The club voted to attend Mother's day services at some church in a body. This will count for both its Mother's day and Bible day observance.

Members of the 1921 Study club are honoring the Zetaganians with a tea at the home of Mrs. P. K. Mackey this Friday.

for Big Spring. They are expected to arrive about 10 o'clock, and after working up an appetite (as if they needed one) they will eat lunch. After lunch, they will take pictures, swing, go swimming or do anything their hearts desire. Friday night, they will probably go to a show.

MY HOME TOWN CONTEST

Last Thursday, April 29, the try-outs for the "My Home Town" contest were held in assembly. The participants were Beeman Dockrey, J. T. Williamson, and J. W. Dunlap. The speeches were all very good and the student body and faculty learned of things about their town that they had not known before. Mr. Jim Greene was present to make corrections on the speeches. The contest was won by J. W. Dunlap, who will represent Colorado at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Brownwood on May 10, 11, and 12. Martha Jane Majors will also go to Brownwood on that same date as "Miss Colorado."

THE ANTICS OF ANDREW

By Jay Tobias

When a giddy college youth persuades a trusting millionaire uncle in New Zealand to make him an allowance for the support of a purely imaginary wife and a fictitious mother-in-law, anything can happen. And when the unknown uncle suddenly pays a nephew an unexpected visit, with a view to meeting wifely and mother-in-law, everything may happen—and does. Finding himself in this identical fix, the resourceful Andrew induces his college pals, Willie and Harold, to masquerade as his wife and mother-in-law respectively, and introduces them at a dinner he is giving in honor of his birthday. The sweets are devastating; Andrew's sweetheart is heartbroken; Willie's and Harold's ladyloves are resentful over their swain's supposed absence; Harold, overdoing the part of a comely widow, flirts with the college dean and arouses the jealousy of the elderly spinster who is after him. The rich uncle, who turns out to be an incorrigible hick, woos Harold in cave-man style and tries to rush him into immediate marriage. The dinner is plundered by mischievous freshmen, and the party is raided by the police. Thus, amid gales of laughter, the action sweeps on to its climax of comic disaster, when the wretched trio of pretenders are unmasked and get the shock of their lives from the revelations of Uncle Isaac, who blossoms out as a practical joker of no mean parts. Two rollicking college girls, an excitable French butler, and an embattled darky cook add much to the general hilarity.

The following pupils have been selected to portray the parts: Putunia, Andrew's darky cook—Nina Laura Smith. Andrew Browne, a Senior in Cameron College—J. B. Marshall. Jacques, his French butler and valet—Beeman Dockrey. Willie Waldo, his pal—Earnest Burdine. Harold Hadley, another pal—Arthur Clyde Runyon. Altha Thorne, Miss Prunella's niece—Marilyn Crosthwaite. Julie Boynton, Harold's sweetheart—June Cox. Betty Boynton, Willie sweetheart—Virginia Reese. Dean Sacratris Boynton, Dean of Cameron College—Voyd Feights. Isaac Zimmerman, Andrew's millionaire uncle from New Zealand—Mason Shelton. Miss Prunella Thorne, a maiden lady in love with the dean—Lovine Conaway. A few other characters are to be selected later.

Director of the play—Miss Gladys Miller.

C.H.S. BAND AT LUBBOCK CONTEST

The Colorado band left at noon Friday for Lubbock in the Cuthbert bus. The band did not arrive in time for the parade at 4 o'clock but entered the marching contest at 6 in the Texas Tech stadium. After the contest a gymnastic performance was given by students in the college.

Free picture show tickets were given to the band members, but some attended a football game at the college and some saw Lubbock. After the entertainment the band spent the night at the Hilton Hotel.

Saturday morning they went to High school for the playing and sight-reading contest, where the Colorado High school band played at 2 o'clock. Hunter Brannon also played in the solo contest. At four there was a rehearsal for the massed band contest which took place at 8. C.H.S. members who played in this concert were Mary Frances Moeckey, Hunter Brannon, Elizabeth Pidgeon, Virgil Esterwood, Charles Watson, G. D. Womack, James Wulfjen, and Archie Mohler. Of the five directors, the most outstanding was George H. Clarke, of Los Angeles. After the concert awards were given. Hunter Brannon won first in solo contest and the Colorado High school band won second in marching and fourth in playing, which was an achievement considering the 40 bands entered.

The band left Lubbock at eleven and arrived in Colorado about two in the morning.

TO THE BIG CITY

Wednesday the 28th at noon was a time of joyous excitement for all the Homemaking girls who went to Fort Worth to the State rally. Harry Etta Landers, Ruth Elliott, Kathryn Hodges, and Doris Wynne were contestants. They were accompanied by about twenty other girls, Miss Hargrove and Mrs. J. M. Doss were chaperones.

About 9 o'clock, the tired group arrived at the Hotel Texas which was crowded with about a thousand girls. There they found a lovely suite all waiting for them—even with a radio!

Thursday was the day of the unloading of purses for nearly every girl spent most of her money on that day, and by Saturday she had to count her pennies carefully.

A banquet for the contestants and teachers was given Thursday night. Those who attended reported it to have been very elaborate.

Friday the girls "took in" the town (especially Woolsworth). Saturday morning there was a final meeting at the Paschal High school. At this meeting it was announced that Doris Wynne won first place in the state in Family Relationships. The girls returned to Colorado about 9:30 Saturday night. All had had a good time but they found tears gathering in their eyes upon the realization that that was the last time Miss Hargrove would be with them. They all are very sorry that she has gone, but she will always have a warm spot in their hearts and they will never forget her.

THE CAMPUS CAMERA

The campus camera had to go places this week to keep up with the students who gad about all the time. Kathryn Hodges visited a commercial law class in Paschal High in Ft. Worth and a dashing young man fell in love with her that he couldn't write anything but Kathryn. The boy took Kathryn to Lake Worth that night.

Joe Lee escorted Willie Grace Doss and showed her around Lubbock. Dorothy Thompson and Anna Don Snively fell for the Slaton Band boys' uniforms or was it the boys themselves?

Hazel Brookover has a tan car and she runs a taxi on Sunday evenings. Jack Foster will be "just sittin'" on a low 'petting his dog feelin' blue all day," when Marie goes away and leaves him.

Will someone tell Freddie Watson who Joe Robinson is taking to the Junior-Senior banquet? She has asked almost everyone but no one will answer her question.

Nine freshmen girls turned Ft. Worth upside down last week-end. The tales they told were miraculous. Eloise Coover had a slumber party Sunday night. Maribel, Annetta, Eloise and Lucille had a hard time staying awake Monday in school.

While the Seniors enjoy their Senior day Friday, these poor underclassmates will be registering for the next school year. Take it from a senior and pick out the easiest subjects if there are any easy ones.

Nancy Price played tennis with J. T. Williamson the other afternoon. Could it have been a love-set.

What is this about Lettice Crabtree going to Lovington, New Mexico, the 28th day of April and not coming home until the 1st day of May? We all know it was Ted Edgar that she was interested in.

ASSISTANT COACH WELCOMED

Newby Pratt, the coach of the Lorraine Bulldogs, has been appointed to succeed Adrian Clark as the assistant coach of the Wolves. Mr. Pratt played at Winters High and three years at McMurry College at Abilene. He will coach the backfield. The football boys are glad to welcome their assistant coach, Newby Pratt.

1921 STUDY CLUB PRESENTS GIFT TO LIBRARY

The 1921 Study Club of Colorado presented a book "Texas Poets" to the High school library. Mrs. Edna Cox Majors has six very good poems in it. The students are especially proud of the gift because the book will influence the lives of the students of Colorado High school for a long time.

COMMERCIAL NOTES

The typewriting students are laboring under the load of business letters and increasing their speed to 30 words per minute. Many are making between 40 and 50 words now, but some are lacking a stroke or two getting 30. The secretarial training students are diligently filling out legal forms and writing letters. The commercial law class thought that commercial law was a very hard course last term, but they are thinking that it is very interesting this term. The Bassinger vs. Cox and Shelton case is gradually setting under way. Many things are being expected that the cases had never dreamed of. Who would have thought that Denis Cosper was a mechanic or that Etta Fern was a night club dancer. We wonder what constitutes perjury.

MRS. W. L. COPE OF WESTBROOK BURIED MONDAY AFTERNOON

A lengthy illness of heart trouble claimed the life of Mrs. W. L. Cope, 77, at her home in Westbrook Sunday night at 9 o'clock.
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Westbrook Baptist church with the Rev. Clyde Childers and the Rev. A. D. Leach officiating. Pallbearers were Tobe Ramsey, Hub May, Ed Clifton, Sam Taylor, Lee Brown, and J. E. Skelton.
Burial was in the Westbrook cemetery beside Mr. Cope, who died in 1924.
Mrs. Cope had lived in Westbrook and vicinity some 27 years, having moved there from Abilene about 1910. She was born Josephine Rebecca Sprawls in Mississippi. She came to Texas as a child in 1860. The family lived in and near Abilene for a number of years. She made her home with her only son, L. Cope. Three daughters survive her, they being Mrs. C. E. Ben of Abilene, Mrs. J. M. P. O'Brien of Carbon, and Mrs. R. P. O'Brien of Vernon. A daughter, Mrs. M. Watts, died in Clyde in 1922.

Two sisters and two brothers are other survivors. These are Mrs. Jim Stallings and Mrs. Arch Stallings of Terrell, Bob Sprawls of Lubbock, and Mace Sprawls of Austin.
Kiker & Son of Colorado had charge of funeral arrangements.

TARRANT SHERIFF ENDS 1,900-MILE CAR DRIVE
Sheriff Carter of Tarrant county drove through Colorado Friday morning en route to Fort Worth from Grants Pass, Oregon, where he had gone to receive a prisoner. Arriving in the Oregon city he received telegram that his wife's mother had died in Fort Worth. He made the return trip of 1900 miles without rest, leaving Grants Pass at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon and arriving in Fort Worth at 2 Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Hyman, Widow of W. T. Scott, Jr., Honored At Service For Late W. T. Scott, Sr.

Because of the fact that W. T. Scott, Jr., was one of the prominent cattlemen of Mitchell county's earlier days and because Mr. Scott's widow, Mrs. Harry Hyman, is so well-known in this section, the following story on special dedication services which were held for the late Col. W. T. Scott, father of the Mitchell pioneer, at Scottsville, Texas, on Sunday will be of considerable interest to Record readers:
"On Sunday afternoon at Scottsville, Texas, an historic marker was dedicated to the memory of the pioneer, Col. W. T. Scott who in early days was known throughout Texas as Buck Scott. The marker is a granite shaft, six feet high, with a bronze tablet with lettering and the Texas star in front. It is being placed near the old homestead of Col. Scott by the government and the many descendants of Col. Scott.
"Col. Scott was a pioneer of East Texas, having come there from Mississippi 100 years ago this year. He married Mary Rose, the daughter of the well known veteran of the War of 1812, Col. William Pinckney Rose, of East Texas. The Rose family later moved to Victoria, Texas. Col. Rose's wife, Mary Vardaman, was an aunt of Ex-Governor James K. Vardaman of Mississippi.
"Col. Scott was born in Mississippi, 1811, and died at Scottsville, Texas, Nov. 1, 1887. He was a contemporary of Col. Dave Culberson, Senator Coke, Col. Alex and Bill Pope, and other early settlers of East Texas.
"Col. Scott was in the Senate of the Republic of Texas, was Vice-President of the Texas & Pacific Railroad and was offered the nomination for governor but refused. He was one of the leading men of East Texas, and filled many places of honor in the interest of his country. He owned many slaves and through his connection with the T. & P. railroad became a large land owner, owning many sections all over the State.
"He settled in Harrison county, Texas, at a large spring which bears his name, and at which place Scottsville afterwards was located. The old home place, one of the most imposing homes in the country, still stands. It is occupied by one of his grandsons, Scott Kretz and his family. The massive forest of trees which surround the grounds, attests to its old age. He contributed the ground for the town, the church, the camp meeting ground, the cemetery. He also donated the school and grounds.
"Col. Scott had nine children who grew to manhood and womanhood, married and filled prominent places in this State as well as Louisiana. All are gone except the widow of W. T. Scott, Jr., who is now Mrs. Minna Scott Hyman. Their sons, Will T. Scott, 3rd, now of California, Robert C. Scott, of Mitchell county, Texas,

John P. Scott, Jr., of California and Anne Rose Scott Hensinger, are all grandchildren of Col. Scott, and were reared in San Antonio.
"Mrs. Hyman was invited to speak at the dedication, being the only one of that generation living, and she and her daughter were guests of a grandson, Mr. Earnest Powell and his wife of Marshall, Texas."

M. E. Conference
Most ministers feel that setting of the educational requirements for admission into full connection with the conference had been made too high was cause of the present paucity. In order to become a member of the conference candidates for the ministry must have completed a four-year college or university course.
The conference adjourned for luncheon at 6 o'clock which was served in the basement of First Baptist church by the women of First Methodist church.
For the first time memory of D. P. Yoder, district lay leader, the evening hour was given over to lay activities, with Yoder presiding. Among the speakers were A. B. Crowder, Sweetwater, who emphasized the importance of raising the benevolence; Judge A. S. Mauzey, who discussed the rural problem and dangers confronting the world if it should be decided to "let Christianity go"; and Yoder, who summed up lay activities within the district. A large congregation listened to the lay messages.
Reports of preachers indicate that the district has shown an appreciable increase in benevolences for first six months of the conference year. A new spirit has been injected into all the churches by reason of the Bishops' Crusade which has wiped out the staggering depression debt that caused world evangelization stagnation within the denomination.

BAND IN LUBBOCK

Friday afternoon the members of the Colorado school band went to Lubbock where they entered the marching and playing contests. Schools from a large number of West Texas towns were represented in this meet. Colorado won second place in the second division of playing and fourth place in marching.
After the marching contest Friday night, the band members were guests at the football game between Texas Tech and El Paso School of Mines. The Junior High band members reported a very enjoyable trip.

GRADUATION PLANS DISCUSSED

Monday afternoon the three seventh grade classes met to discuss plans for graduation. "Junior High City on Parade" will be presented Thursday night, May 27. Every seventh grade pupil who passes will have some part on the program. The parts were explained and every one pledged to do "his part" to make this the best program that Junior High has ever given. The question of costumes and dresses was also discussed.

Lions Club Offers Tribute To O'Brien At Meeting Friday

Retiring Baptist Pastor Is Pictured As Outstanding In Every State By Speakers

Colorado Lions Friday offered strong tribute to one of their number, Rev. Dick O'Brien, who on the following day planned leaving here to establish his residence in Stamford. Several speakers, representing churches and civic organizations, spoke briefly in commendation of the minister.
The special program was in charge of Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church. Tommy Dawes, representing First Presbyterian church; Rev. A. L. Haley of First Christian church; Thos. R. Smith of All Saints' Episcopal church; W. K. Morgan, chairman of the board of deacons, First Baptist church; Jim Greene, manager of the chamber of commerce; J. E. Watson, superintendent of the Colorado schools; W. W. Porter, district Boy Scouts committee man; A. C. Connell, member of the school board; W. W. Whipkey, president of the Lions Club, and Rev. Mr. Jameson, were the speakers heard, all of whom offered strong tribute to Mr. O'Brien.

behind a permanent record that cannot be changed. It will be just what you have made it. You have only a few more weeks in which to improve this record. Will you look back on the years spent in Junior High and see careless mistakes and waste of time, or will you see great achievements and wise use of time?
Use these last weeks profitably and you will leave a better record!

EDITORIAL

O'BRIEN'S LAST SAY

Many friendly gestures have been extended us since we decided to leave Colorado, but none of them are more deeply appreciated than this one, that is the invitation to fill "Uncle Fred's" column. I am giving Uncle Fred full credit for being sincere in this matter in spite of the fact that this is Spring, and the season of inertia and that perennial affliction commonly known as "Spring fever." During attacks of this malady one delights to get others to do his work so that he may give himself to the delightful misery of yawning, stretching and sleeping. But of course a young fellow of Uncle Fred's age and disposition would not allow that to cause him to ask another to do his work.

I know a lot of people who claim that they are not lazy, they evidently have partial paralysis of the energetic nerve. I remember a boy who lived in our community when I was a kid who was so lazy that life was a constant misery to him. It was back in the days when each child in a home had a special "chore" to do around the house. This boy's first name was Epp. It was Epp's job to bring in the fire wood. He did not have to chop the wood simply to carry it in. One evening late he was sitting on the chop log at the wood pile putting off the job as long as possible when a man on horseback rode up. He asked the lad if he might get a drink of water. Epp moved his eyes without moving his head and said, "Yeah its in a bucket hanging on a hook on the back gallery." The neighbor started around the house following directions and Epp had an inspiration, he called out, "Hey mister would you mind taking in a load of wood as you go?" I don't know but I may be "carrying Uncle Fred's word."

Sometimes when you read a column like this ground out week by week by the same person who knows that he must have something that will both interest and occasionally instruct his readers, you imagine you could do better. My suggestion is that you try it one week and see if you do not have a more sympathetic attitude toward columnists. In fact I have long felt that all of us should at some time try to do the other fellows job so that we could get a view of the world from where he stands. For instance I wish everybody could be a preacher for just one day. As someone has said try to be a half-fellow-well-met and you are not dignified enough. Visit among the folks a good deal and you are neglecting your study. Give yourself to your books and you are not friendly enough. Go to a funeral and weep with the bereaved family and from there to a wedding where you are expected to be the life of the party. Get criticized for not visiting your members and when you do be taken for a house to house agent and have the doorbell unanswered. Answer every invitation to speak at clubs, luncheons, chapels, etc., etc., and it shows up in poorly prepared sermons on Sunday, refuse these invitations and you are not co-operating as a citizen of the community. Turn to others for advice and one group will think one thing and another group the exact opposite. So it would go if I tried your job. I would find many problems which are not apparent to me as I watch you from a distance and have no intimate, experimental knowledge of the difficulties you face every day.

In trying to fill in the column for Uncle Fred I feel like Joe Bailey said his opponents would feel if one of them was elected to fill his seat in the United States Senate. He said the fellow would be "about like a mustard seed in a drinking gourd." That's about how well I feel that I could fill Uncle Fred's place. In all sincerity I would say that any person who will follow Uncle Fred's column each week will become a much better informed man, and will find the tonic of clean humor and sparkling wit, stimulating his energies. My tribute to Uncle Fred is that: He is as versatile as Odd McIntyre, as philosophical as Uncle Dick McCarty, as logical as William Allen White, as witty as Mark Twain and as individual as Uncle Fred Whipkey.

As we leave Colorado, after five years of residence here, we find it impossible to express our feelings. This whole issue of the Colorado Record could not contain the impressions, appreciation and gratitude we feel as we look back over these five years. If a detailed account of these years could be written, no organization or individual would be left out, as the whole community has (have?) been grand to us. Of course we have been more intimately associated with the Baptist church people and love them better because we know them better. No finer congregation of people could be found than the one that worships at Third and Chestnut in Colorado. As their pastor and his family they have treated us royally for these five years, and we shall never forget. The treatment we have received at the hands of other churches in the community has been equally pleasant. Some of the dearest friends we have had here have been people from other churches. And from our hearts we can say that leaving the fellowship of the other pastors here, is one of the bitterest losses we have ever sustained. The luncheon given us by these pastors and their wives will live in our memories as one of the refreshing oasis encountered as we cross the desert of this life. Upon the First Baptist church, which has given us such loyal and liberal support, and upon the Colorado Record, which has co-operated in giving helpful and needed assistance in publicity for our programs, and upon all the other churches with their pastors, we humbly and sincerely ask the blessing of heaven.

DICK O'BRIEN.

INVESTIGATE WHEN TEMPTED TO BUY ELSEWHERE 6th Article on Buy-at-Home

Since Adam and Eve became dissatisfied with the Garden of Eden, fields further on have seemed greener to man and beast.

We are all familiar with the story of the farmer who built a loose fence about the straw the cattle wouldn't eat. They broke through and devoured it ravenously.

Naturally when our people go to other cities they are entranced with the unfamiliar stores, and the temptation to buy in what seems like greener fields is hard to resist. But a city that can make its people see the folly of that has done a very smart thing and achieved an economic advantage of great importance.

Every layman should know what every merchant knows. All store buyers go to the same markets. Any Colorado citizen can go to his favorite Colorado store and either buy at once, or have obtained for him in short order, anything that he could buy in any store in any city in America. Keep that in mind.

Colorado stores are proud of the fact they have an annual payroll of tens of thousands of dollars, that they furnish a livelihood of twenty-five per cent of our total population. But they heartily agree that "the retailer who believes that his store ought to be supported" because he pays taxes and spends his money at home" is a wrong mental attitude for successfully combating competition.

But Colorado stores do insist that if you will investigate before you buy elsewhere you will end by buying in Colorado, for the fields are just as green here as they are anywhere else.

And quality and price being equal, you do add materially to the prosperity of our community when you buy from Colorado stores.

COLORADO CAN BE FAMOUS FOR ITS FINE STORES
W. R. Hutehkin, ten years sales manager for John Wanamaker, New York, points out that, "The store is the only place where a man may exchange the thing he has for the thing he wants.

And the more things that are produced, bought, and sold, the greater the prosperity of all, and the better the living that all enjoy." Thus this nationally known authority makes apparent a fact too often overlooked, the fact that good stores are not only essential, but can be a powerful factor in the prosperity of any community.

Already Colorado stores provide a livelihood for one-fourth of our population, with an annual payroll that runs into the thousands of dollars. They pour other thousands into the community chest every month of the year in the form of taxes, licenses, rent and many items of general overhead.

SAFEGUARD YOUR CREDIT; PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY
Colorado stores are a credit to our city, and with the loyal support of all citizens Colorado can become famous throughout this territory for its fine retail establishments. And therein lies prosperity for all.

Colorado stores work constantly and cooperate loyally to maintain efficient, courteous institutions that every citizen can point to proudly. To continue this good work the merchants for Colorado need not only most of your business but all of your business, prices and quality being equal. If you can buy it anywhere you can buy it in Colorado. If an exception does arise Colorado stores will be glad to get it for you, they buy in the same markets with the retail merchants of other cities.

COLORADO

One of the graduating class asked me to write for them a pen-demon on "Colorado."

We have a state, a county, a city, and a river—several rivers—named "Colorado." Also we have a "bean" by that name. It means "red."

This is about the City of Colorado in Mitchell County, Texas. It is not "red." But it began, continued and is now composed of red-blooded people. This is not to criticize nor praise the City of Colorado. We would like it to be a mirror that mirrored accurately.

Its early settlers were strong, red-blooded men and women. In those days there were men careless of legal provisions and prohibitions. But there was a dominant element that insisted on complying with the law of the land. So that Colorado from the beginning has been known as a town of law-abiding citizenship.

Soon after the location of the town-site churches were established. These have maintained and have all these years kept up an aggressive effort to induce and encourage morality among the people. Each of the several churches in Colorado now is active in the cultivation of the moral stamina required to produce cultured, dependable men and women. No one can estimate the strength of the heart-appeal made weekly by the church people of Colorado.

The several churches have a combined membership of about 2,000. They have a church school enrollment nearly as large. The whole effort of these people is a noble effort. The time, money and energy spent are for the sole purpose of rearing and maintaining a people with such religious and moral principles as are required to stand the exacting tests of time. The nobility of a people is known by such enduring qualities; and a town is known in history by the nobility of its people.

And church and church activities are not the only methods used by the people of Colorado. From the beginning they have been liberal toward education. The total school plant now has a value of approximately $300,000. Last year the enrollment in the Colorado schools was more than 1500 and required an expense for education of more than $57,000.00. For taxation purposes we have property rendered at $4,625,000.00. No one doubts that Colorado schools and educational equipment compares favorably with that of any town in the State of like size. And in addition to the regular educational facilities, through the clubs, lodges and associations we have a system of adult education equal to that of other towns.

Colorado consists not alone in the built-up portions found in the city limits. We have a contributory territory reaching out from 10 to 30 miles. The city is the meeting place for all the people in these trade limits. And no town may justly boast of a better class of people. They are friendly, agreeable, substantial and dependable. Oh! they are human and subject to the attacks of commercial sharks and often resent useless exploitation.

And the wants, demands and necessities of this mass of intelligent, discerning people are such that it taxes the ingenuity of the mercantile and commercial interests to provide for them and eliminate the resort of the mail order house and more portentous cities east and west of Colorado.

There is very little of the upper and lower class spirit in the Colorado people. Only one considerable fortune has been accumulated. Most of the accumulations have been more evenly distributed among the dependable class of citizens. And such has led to a democratic spirit. Where can you find a more democratic spirit than when the people gather at Colorado? You will find a continuous smile, laugh, handshake, backslap, friendly dig and humorous greeting among the Mitchell county people at a Colorado gathering. We have a great people and a good town. Come to Colorado.

Here's the DRUM-MAJOR of the motor car parade

If you know a leader when you meet one, you'll see the moment you try this sparkling Buick why it's called the out-in-front car of the year.

You'll go for the way it goes for you—serene, steady, gallant as the figurehead on a buoyant ship—you're in for a thrill every time you put it into action.

You handle a wheel that turns as easy as the pages of a book. You press the treadle—and sink inches deep back in the soft cushions with the swoop of its take-off.

You click off miles by the score, the hundred—and no matter how far you range or what gait you travel, you can't get a whine out of that softly whispering engine!

The answer is you've got a car that was bored to go places the way you want to go—smoother, safer, steadier than any car you've known.

Power in this flashing Buick is the power of eight straight valve-in-head cylinders. Its gait is the level gait of a car built close to earth with enough bulk to hold it there. Its maneuverability is the quick mobility of a charger.

Yet the crowning touch of its creators was none of these but the figures they succeeded in writing on its price tag. The hard-to-realize fact is that this great straight eight can be bought for less than some of today's sixes!

There's just one way to get the true picture of Buick's stand-out value, and that's to drive it yourself. See us soon and get your order in, and you'll enjoy a summer like you've dreamed of!

FARM PROBLEMS TO BE WTTCC PROGRAM TOPICS

BROWNWOOD. — West Texas farm problems will be discussed at two of the three group conferences to be held during the West Texas chamber of commerce convention in Brownwood, May 10, 11 and 12.

More time and thought will be devoted to farm questions at this year's convention than possibly at any other session in the organization's history. The WTTCC, as an organization, has been a leader for soil conservation and for statewide legislation that would make concerted soil conservation work possible in Texas.

Realizing the importance of the subject, officials of the West Texas chamber of commerce have made "Soil Conservation and Flood Prevention" the general theme of the entire convention.

A group conference on "Farm Tenancy and Unemployment" will be held Monday afternoon, May 10. D. P. Trent, Dallas, regional director of the Resettlement administration, will discuss the farm tenancy question. Several other speakers will appear on the program. H. G. Lucas, Brownwood, president of the Texas Agricultural association, is chairman of the conference.

"Soil Conservation" will be the subject of another group conference Tuesday afternoon, May 11. H. H. Williamson, state director of the Extension Service of Texas A. & M.

MIDLAND COUPLE KILLED IN APARTMENT SHOOTING

Ted Dozier, 23, and his wife, Kathleen Stewart Dozier, 23, were fatally injured by pistol shots in their apartment at Midland recently. They were found on floor of the apartment shortly after report of two shots fired in rapid succession, had been heard by other persons in the building.

Dozier died within three hours after the shooting and his wife lingered several hours before dying. He was shot through the temple and bullet taking life of Mrs. Dozier crashed through her heart. Cause of the tragedy has not been determined by officers investigating the case.

Not One Error Is Found In Records Of City Secretary

The Best In Accuracy and Neatness I Have Found, Ben Davis States

Records of J. Lee Jones, who Monday morning retired as city secretary, were the "best in accuracy and neatness that I have ever seen in any city," Ben Davis of the Ben Davis & Company, Abilene public accountants, stated Friday after he and one of his assistants had completed audit of Mr. Jones' records for the past fiscal year. There was not one typographical error found anywhere in the long list of records checked.

Mr. Jones left the municipal building at 9 o'clock as a private citizen after several years as a public official. Before his election to the office of city secretary he had held the county clerk's position for some time.

Six Poems By Mrs. Sam Majors Chosen For Newest Anthology Of Texas Poets

Six poems by Mrs. Sam L. Majors of Colorado, who writes under the name of Edna Coe Majors, were chosen for the newest edition of "Texas Poets," an anthology of verse by 83 contemporary Texas writers with Henry Harrison of 430 Sixth Avenue, New York, as editor.

The poems fill three pages of the book, which is just recently off the press.

Names of the poems are "Lost Years," "Sign," "Desecration," "Flowers," "Question," and "Resurrection."

Those who know the poetry world consider it a distinct honor and recognition of ability to be included in Mr. Harrison's anthologies.

All of Texas' better known poets have work included in the anthology. Among them are Stanley E. Babb, Karle Wilson Baker, Florence Elberta Barnes, Leola Christie Barnes, Mary S. Fitzgerald, Jan Isbelle Fortune, Hazel Harper Harris, Boyce House, Siddle Joe Johnson, Fania Kruger, Nora Hefley Mahon, Mabel Major, Patrick D. Moreland, Berta Hart Nance, Lexie Dean Robertson, Virginia Spates, Gustine Courson Weaver, and Jessica Moreland Young.

Three of Mrs. Majors' poems appearing in the anthology are recopied below:

SIGN
 If I could take my grieving heart
 And lay it in the sun,
 I think that all my trying hurts
 Would scamper off, save one—
 One you have written deep. It wounds
 This loyal heart of mine—
 Ah! Take your cruel pen and dip
 It in the blood, and sign.

FLOWERS
 Take them away,
 These flowers,
 Like him, they cannot speak—
 But wait!
 Their sweetness is a balm
 To soothe my aching heart.

QUESTION
 What is this thing
 That comes at night
 And creeps
 Upon the flowering plants

And blankets them with death,
 But flees
 Before the sun's bright face?

PATIENTS AT SNYDER
 Three Colorado women and one Colorado man were among patients listed at the Snyder hospital last week. Mrs. T. R. Bedford and Mrs. J. L. Killian were listed as medical patients, Mrs. V. B. Morgan as a surgical patient. H. U. Salley was listed among men patients.

Mother - This will take all that tiring arm-work off your hands John

MOTHER'S DAY Sunday, May 9th

Mixing, stirring, beating, whipping, mashing and many other things that mother does can be done in a jiffy with an electric mixer. $22.50 as illustrated.

START mother's working day right and everything will work out easier and better for her all day long. If she starts it wrong, things are apt to be upset from then on. Electricity will help her start every day right—coffee just as it should be, toast just crisp enough, waffles, if she likes them, done to a turn. She'll find living more enjoyable if she makes full use of her electric service.

Electric time-saver clocks will turn on her radio, percolator or any other electrical appliance any time of the day or night. Two models, priced at $9.95 and $12.50.

Waffles for a quick lunch or breakfast are very appropriate. Automatic heat indicators take the guess-work out of baking them too. $4.95 and $5.95.

Few if any homes have enough lamps. Mother will certainly appreciate Better Sight floor lamps from $5.90 up.

If there's any room in the home where mother needs even, brilliant yet diffused light, it's in the kitchen. Renu-a-lites in 150 and 200 watt sizes are the answer. Prices are $1.15 and $3.95 respectively.

Combination toaster and grill that makes toast and waffles and fries eggs and bacon. An exceptionally versatile appliance priced at $9.95.

D.A.R. MEETING

The William Halbert chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of Colorado, Texas, met in the last regular session of the year Saturday afternoon, May 1, in the home of Mrs. Fred B. Ison with Mrs. S. A. Martin as co-hostess.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. R. B. Terrell, regent. Under the disposition of business, most important was the reading of a communication from Mrs. C. E. Way, a member who has been ill for some time in Uvalde, Texas, but who is greatly improved at this time; change of meeting date to the second Saturday of each meeting month, and mention of future presentation of citizenship awards to the best citizen from the student body of the Colorado and Loraine High schools.

The theme of the program was "Outstanding Women of Today and Yesterday." Roll call was answered with names of noteworthy contemporary women and comments on their achievements.

An interesting paper on "Outstanding Women in the United States" was presented by Mrs. W. M. Elliott. Besides the regent, hostess, and those on the program additional members attending were: Mrs. Sallie Dozier and Miss Mary Broadous, both of Colorado, and Mrs. Catherine Morgan of Sweetwater.

Also present was Miss Effie McLeod, week-end guest in the Ison home, from Snyder.

The rooms were attractively decorated with Southern pine needle baskets filled with native wild flowers, the Indian fire wheel. Refreshments of angel food squares with peppermint ice cream were served. Work will be resumed by the organization in October.

How a Bank Meets Its Expenses

—that are incurred in rendering services and in furnishing necessary supplies.

To render banking services and to furnish checkbooks, deposit slips and passbooks costs money.

A well-managed bank ordinarily covers a large part of the cost of rendering such services to its depositors by employing their free balances in good loans and investments. This bank gives its depositors full benefit of this principle by conducting its business with maximum efficiency to keep its operating costs low. On small, or highly active accounts, which otherwise would not pay their way, a service fee is charged in accordance with sound banking principles. These principles will be fully explained by our officers on request.
