

'REORGANIZE YOUR CC INTO AN AGGRESSIVE FACTOR OR QUIT,' PREXY CHALLENGES

Colorado Should Progress In Keeping With Opportunity Thompson Tells Citizens At Luncheon Club Meeting

"The business and professional interests of Colorado have arrived face to face with the alternative of either reorganizing their chamber of commerce into an aggressive, community building organization or quit," President C. C. Thompson of the CC declared as he addressed citizens at the organization luncheon club meeting Tuesday noon.

"It has been told me by Bill McCraw, Texas Attorney General, and other men prominent in affairs of Texas that at Colorado is to be found one of the best looking and less advertised small cities within the Lone Star State," the CC president continued in driving home the challenge that this citizenship would be expected to extend full cooperation, in means and moral support, in event the chamber should be built into the clearing house of progress that opportunity provided.

Other speakers spoke on the subject, one of whom offered strong tribute to Jim Greene, who a few days before had resigned as manager of the CC to accept a similar position in Big Spring. His outstanding work, extending over more than a quarter century, was lauded. Laxity in giving the organization cooperation was charged as having contributed to material loss to the city and county.

Thompson convened his directorate in executive session immediately after adjournment of the luncheon club session and upon his and other CC leaders recommendation it was accepted that the chamber start then its objective toward reorganization. A committee to represent the chamber in making selection of a new manager was appointed.

Under plans of the reorganized chamber of commerce the directorate is to be increased from 12 to 21 members. The nine new executives are to be announced at meeting Tuesday evening at the organization offices. They are to be elected for terms of one, two and three years, respectively, and will draw for those places on the board.

Committee charged with responsibility of steering the CC in plans looking to employment of a manager is composed of J. Ralph Lee, T. W. Stonerod, Jr., and Joe Pond. FIELD AND RANGE OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS AS RAIN FALLS OVER COLORADO TERRITORY

Conditions Will Be Stepped Ahead As Crops, Grass Of Section Receive Moisture During This Week*

The industrial horizon in Mitchell county offers a brighter hue since rains blanketed the territory this week to bring an end to semi-drought conditions and assure farmers of ample moisture for present needs and ranchers of a good grass crop and surface water on the range. Reports received at The Record office indicate that the rain covered practically all parts of the territory.

The rain was timed for bringing peculiar benefits to the rancher and farmer alike. Weeds that during first weeks of early Spring cover the range had practically matured and died leaving the ground in better condition for growing grass and farmers were standing by awaiting for moisture to bring up crops already planted and to conclude seeding acreage to other crops.

Small grain in the county was especially benefited. A considerable acreage was devoted to wheat this season, due to cooperation of the government in aiding the farmer and rancher to purchase planting seed. The grain was beginning to ripen and as a rule needed moisture badly.

The rain falling Sunday night and Monday morning ranged from one-half of an inch in some localities to five inches in others. 30 of an inch was reported at Colorado. The rain was heavier northwest and to the south and southwest. In the Guthrie and Vincent communities one and one-half inches fell. At the Spade ranch it was reported that two inches of moisture was registered.

"It was one of the finest rains that I have ever known, in so far as my personal views are to be considered," mused Earl Gunn, superintendent of Col-Tex refinery, Sunday. Mr. Gunn was down in the dumps, all because his ranch at Vincent was seared by continued drought. Water for his cattle was scarce and windmill operating pump in his water well was giving trouble. But it was a different story Monday morning. The place had been blanketed by one and one-half inches of rain and all was well.

O. F. Jones, manager of the Spade ranch, reported here Tuesday morning that the rain was one of the best to cover that large cattle domain in the territory.

RAINS BROUGHT SMILES TO THEIR FACES, ALSO

The farmer, rancher and business man was not the only citizen to get in behind a broad smile after the rains. Those who enjoy following the hounds on wolf hunts, too, were related. Joe Merritt, Dr. Dulaney, Cliff Etheridge, Joe Dulin and W. A. Dulin, are among the latter group seen with their heads together here, Monday talking prospects of a hunt over. "Fine weather for hunting," mused Joe Dulin as he strolled away from the huddle.

Sadler met with County Judge King and members of county commissioners' court Monday to urge cooperation there in plans looking to placing Colorado's claim for the hospital. That evening he discussed the objective with members of his council and received their approval.

County Judge A. F. King pledged full cooperation by himself and the four county commissioners' in the campaign. "I believe the hospital is to be located along the Texas & Pacific railway and we should be able to impress the powers that be of our merits in asking for location of this great eleemosynary institution and as for me and the members of my court we have pledged to give our sincere cooperation in endeavor to attain the ends sought."

SHAFT IN HONOR OF TEXAS VOLUNTEERS WHO FOUGHT INDIAN RAIDERS RECEIVED

Granite Marker Will Be Set On Highway Near City By CC; Battle Staged Here October 24, 1840

A granite monument commemorating heroism of a band of volunteers who in October, 1840, wrote colorful history for the then infant republic of Texas by destroying a Comanche Indian village on banks of the Colorado river a short distance south from where later was established this city, has been received by the chamber of commerce from the State Highway Commission.

The few pioneers who in that early day had pushed into the wilds of Central and West Texas to establish homes were being attacked by the Indians. Their meagre homes were destroyed, their families ruthlessly murdered and their livestock driven away. One of the hostile savage bands had established camp on the river here.

On October 24, 1840, 90 citizens under command of Colonel Henry Moore attacked the Indians, killing 128 of their number and capturing 24. Five hundred horses that had been stolen from Texas settlers, along with other properties, were recovered and returned to their owners. Most of the volunteers were from Fayette county. None of the Texans were killed during the engagement and only two were wounded.

President Charlie Thompson of the CC stated Wednesday that the monument would probably be set up on Highway One a short distance west of town. It carries the seal of Texas in bronze and an account of the battle, which, the description notes happened "in this vicinity."

Catherine Slagel Writes Account Of Junior Twilight Musicale On Sunday

By request, Catherine Slagel, herself a junior, has written the following account of the junior twilight musicale presented at the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon:

The Junior Twilight Musicale, an annual music week feature of the three junior federated music clubs of Mitchell county, was presented Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of the First Baptist church, which was enhanced by lovely baskets of fragrant spring flowers. Many of Colorado's most eminent young musicians were presented on this program, as well as four prominent members of Abilene music circles, who were guest artists of the Colorado clubs.

Mary Ann Latham opened the program playing "Waltz" by Chopin and "Sonatina" by Clementi. She was followed by Gloria Martin, Loraine artist and winner of the recent statewide contest at San Antonio. She sang two numbers, "Daddy's Sweetheart" by Liza Lehmann and "The Big Brown Bear" by Mana-Zacca. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. R. Martin.

Alfred Edgar Maddin rendered the Gypsy folk-song, "Dark Eyes," from the arrangement by John Thompson. Lynn Bodine, voice student in Hardin-Simmons and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bodine of Buford, sang "Little Mother of Mine" by Brown, which he dedicated to all the mothers who were present and especially to his own mother. He sang also "On the Road to Mandalay." He was accompanied by Jane Clare Meskimen.

Nancy Price gave us a vivid musical picture of Scotland in "Scotch Poem" by MacDowell. Sorretta Morrow, violinist, guest artist of Abilene High school, charmingly played "The Humming Bird" by Frenz Drdla and "Czardas" from the arrangement by Czerwonky. Mrs. Meskimen accompanied her at the piano. Jane Clare Meskimen played "Whims" by Schumann and "Nocturne" from Grieg.

Joe Morrison, Abilene High school soloist, sang two numbers, "Sylvia" by Speaks and "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears" by Caro Roma. He was accompanying by Jane Clare at the piano. Two numbers by the girls' quartet concluded the musicale. The quartet, composed of Fannie Fae Porter, Frances Merle Cooper, Betty Hodge, and Hazel Grubbs under the direction of Mrs. Martin, sang "To Sing Awhile" by Drummond and "The Children's Prayer," a Lithuanian folk-song by Trenhearne.

Federated Study Clubs Of Town Closed Year With Friday Meetings; Tea Given

Closing sessions of Colorado's four federated study clubs were held Friday, two of the clubs, the 1921 Study and the Zetagathian, meeting together for a tea given by the former at the home of Mrs. P. K. Mackey.

TEA HONORS ZETAGATHIANS

The tea given by the 1921 Study club at the home of the club president, Mrs. Mackey, honored the Zetagathian club, which was organized three years ago under sponsorship of the 1921 club.

Roses were featured in house decorations. Red radiance roses predominated in the receiving room. In the dining room pink radiance roses centered the buffet. They were arranged in a basket directly under a painting which was enough like them to be their reflection. A huge bowl of yellow roses centered the dining table, which was covered with lace over yellow. The table was set with cut glass.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Meckey, who later delivered an address of greeting. Mrs. W. C. Hooks announced a program which included a reading from Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland" by Mary Neville Broadus, two bird songs by Mrs. Charles Moeser with Mrs. E. L. Latham accompanying; and two songs, "Song of India" and "Second Minute," by Mrs. W. R. Martin with Mrs. Hooks accompanying.

Piano music was played by Mrs. Martin while punch was poured with Mrs. A. C. Anderson presiding at the bowl. It was served with canapes, decorated cakes, and yellow and green mints. Yellow rosebuds were on each plate. They were the compliments of Mrs. A. L. McSpadden.

SELF CULTURE ACHIEVEMENTS

"Achievement Day" marked the close of the Self Culture club, which met with Mrs. W. D. McClure as hostess and Mrs. L. B. Elliott as leader.

Answering roll call, each member told "What I Would Like to Accomplish." Bits of art, handwork, writing, and other accomplishments were exhibited as typical achievements of the year by the following:

Rains Fall

(Continued From Page One) months. Monday he inspected five surface water tanks on the ranch to find that two of them were running over the spillway. The others had caught practically full. Rain on some sections of the ranch was estimated to have totaled two and one-half inches.

The Hyman section reported an average of one inch. Extending northeast to Spade the precipitation gradually increased with an estimated one and one-half inches in that community. Lower, directly south of Colorado on the Mitchell-Sterling county line, received an inch of moisture.

County Commissioner Jim Boyd of Hyman reported the heaviest rainfall. Along Hackberry creek, small stream between Hyman and Spade, he estimated that five inches of moisture fell. The torrential rain, that sent the creek on a rampage of flood proportions, was accompanied by hail. Trees along banks of the stream were uprooted and with heaps of hail stones piled at intervals along course of the surging waters.

Rain was light at Westbrook and vicinity, as compared with that in other parts of the county. To the south and southwest of there, however, the fall was heavier. From two to two and one-half inches was reported in Conaway area. Judge B. L. Templeton stated Tuesday morning that one of the heaviest rains in many months fell on his farm, nine miles southwest from Westbrook.

F. K. Mackey reported that more than an inch fell over his ranch northeast of Iatan. Range and field conditions in that locality were greatly benefitted. East of Colorado the rain seemed to have been equal to that registered here. Lorraine estimated slightly over an inch. County Judge A. F. King stated that the rain gradually grew lighter in extending to his farm southeast of Colorado.

Short Course Will Open Aug. 16th Baskin Is Advised

Annual Gathering At College Station Usually Attended By Mitchell Citizens

Dates for 28th annual Farmers' Short Course of Texas A. & M. college have been set for August 16-19. Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, has been advised. Roy W. Snyder, Extension Service supervisor of specialists' work, is chairman of the general short course committee.

Long Illness Is Fatal To Mrs. G. D. Bynum, 60

Resident Of Mitchell County For Forty Years Succumbs Wednesday Noon

Death came quietly at the clock struck noon Wednesday and claimed the life of Mrs. G. D. Bynum, 60, at her home south of Colorado. Mrs. Bynum had been in ill health for more than a year.

This fall Mrs. Bynum would have rounded out forty years as a resident of Mitchell county, having come here in the fall of 1887.

She was born Viola Costin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Costin, in Mt. Hilliard, Alabama, on Aug. 30, 1876. Her family moved to Texas in 1886 when she was 10 years old, settling in Falls county near Waco. She grew up there and was married there to George D. Bynum on November 7, 1894.

Three years after they were married Mr. and Mrs. Bynum came to Mitchell county. They always lived in the Dorn section. Mrs. Bynum was a member of the Methodist church at Union.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 from Kiker chapel in Colorado, the Rev. C. E. Jameson of First Methodist church and the Rev. H. W. Hanks of Hamlin, former Methodist pastor at Union, officiating.

Palbearers, all nephews, were Ben Costin, Ben Pritchett, and Travis Pritchett, all of Colorado; Buck Costin of McCamey; J. C. Costin, and Warren Costin of Westbrook. Burial was in the Colorado cemetery.

In addition to her husband Mrs. Bynum is survived by five children, two brothers, a half-brother, and a sister. The children are Mark Bynum, Dee Bynum, and Mrs. Jim White of Colorado; Mrs. Clyde White and Mrs. R. D. Wigley of Kermit. Lark Costin of Colorado and John Costin of Westbrook are the brothers. W. C. Hart of O'Donnell the half-brother. Mrs. W. J. Pritchett of Colorado is the sister.

Kiker & Son had charge of funeral arrangements.

The thirty boys won an A-1 credit in camping contest, one of the major competitive events held during the two days.

There were 762 Scouts representing 29 West Texas communities against whom the local boys were pitted in the camp and other events. Along with taking first place in practical demonstration as to how a camp should be laid out and maintained, the Scouts won creditable mention in several other events.

The Colorado troops were accompanied to Big Spring by Marvin Majors, Scout Master of Troop 21, and Dr. W. B. May, Scout Master of Troop 20. Each of these men are expressing keen satisfaction in the showing made.

GOING TO MEMPHIS

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Grable plan to leave Saturday with the Broadway of America motorday for the annual Broadway convention in Memphis.

Tendency To Throttle Tourist Traffic
Over Route Charged By Highway Chief

That tendency to throttle tourist traffic over the Broadway of America is being advanced through establishment of ports of entry in New Mexico and Arizona threatens "to make a cow trail out of the western division of that thoroughfare" is charged in declaration by Henry W. Stanley of Dallas, president of the road association.

In statement issued for publication, copy of which was received by this newspaper Friday, Stanley stated that spirited attacks upon establishment of these barriers were to be made during annual convention of the Broadway of America association, set to open in Memphis May 18. Colorado was urged to give strong consideration to its responsibility in support of the association.

"Action of the Chicago Motor Club and the Automobile Club of Southern California in advising eastern and mid-western traffic to avoid the highways of New Mexico and Arizona because of ports of entry has caused a widespread determination to make the issue one of the principle topics before the convention," he stated.

Motorday originating at San Diego, California, with five cars and gathering recruits as intervening States are traversed, is to arrive in Colorado Saturday at noon and make an hour and thirty minutes stop for lunch. "We are going to expect the entry of one or more cars from Colorado in this important caravan," Stanley declared.

Joe H. Thompson, director of the Conoco travel bureau, with headquarters in Denver, Colorado, has accepted an invitation to deliver the keynote address at the Broadway convention. Mr. Thompson is regarded as one of the nation's outstanding authorities on tourist promotion.

Other principal topics to come before the Broadway meeting will be accommodations for trailer travelers, highway safety measures, additional tourist service, and tourist promotion.

The Broadway of America Association was organized ten years ago, linking Broadway New York with Broadway San Diego over sections of several highways. The Broadway route provides an all-graded transcontinental highway from coast to coast. Through cooperative effort, the cities on the Broadway route have brought a great volume of traffic their way.

MITCHELL COUNTY COTTON PRODUCERS LOST $20 PER
BALE IN 1936, IS CHARGE

Less Than Parity Price Paid
Due To Fact Planters Not
Organized, Cliff Day Says
In Address Here

Procrastination cost cotton producers in Mitchell county $20 for every bale of the commodity marketed from the crop of 1936, Cliff R. Day of Plainview, a director and special field representative of the Texas Agricultural association, told 200 farmers here Friday afternoon.

That such a loss had been sustained was contended by the speaker as having been brought about through continued laxity of the producers in perfecting an organization "for the purpose of writing our own State and Federal legislation and setting up the conditions under which we, the growers, are to operate our business."

"Practically every other major farm industry in America received parity and more for their investment and labor during last year," Day stated. "The wheat and corn farmers are to be listed in that fortunate class. They were paid government estimate of value in exchange for their commodities. Simply because they were organized and had concerned themselves about the affairs of their business in a cooperative and definite way."

The government estimated that cotton from the crop of 1936 should bring the producer not less than 15 cents per pound, to guarantee a fair return to the farmer, Day explained. "But we, representatives of one of America's most important industrial branches, went about our work singly, with each man for himself, and we can charge to that fact a cotton market average 4 cents below parity."

That cooperative effort is the only salvation offered the cotton farmer, if he would protect his property and assure his family a home and some of the good things of life was stressed time and again during delivery of the address. "Back in 1933 we were selling our cotton at from 5 to 6 cents per pound," he continued. "Then we, due to organized effort, received consideration at Washington and the president put into operation a method to assure better farm conditions."

"Ninety per cent of the cotton producers in America entered into agreement to plow up a part of their acreage and as a result market quotations on the commodity went up to nine and ten cents per pound. The start we made then should have been pushed aggressively, with every farmer in Texas and the solid South listed as a member on our organization roster. Every other industry is profiting through cooperative effort and we are facing the alternative of either doing that thing or go down in oblivion."

Day recalled that farm organizations were as old as time. "The first farm organization that I know anything about came into being many years ago, after a king of Egypt dreamed that his country was to be blessed with seven years of plenty and then suffer seven years of famine. A farm organization was perfected under direction of Joseph and everything was well."

"I have gone to Washington several times as representative of the farmers of Texas but due to fact we were not organized I was given little consideration there," he charged. "The day is here when your interests and mine reach beyond the four-wire fence around our farms and we must organize if our industry is assured of a fair return in the world's commerce."

The meeting held at the court house was called to order by Ben J. Baskin, county farm agent, who explained purposes of the gathering and introduced the speaker. Tom Finley of Silver was elected temporary chairman and Billie Cook of Colorado temporary secretary-treasurer.

Finley announced that meeting to perfect organization would be held in the district court room Saturday afternoon at 2:30. All interested farm citizens of the county are urged to attend. Several of the farmers present at original meeting last week were registered as members after paying annual dues of $2.00.

OUT OF HOSPITAL AFTER STAY OF MANY MONTHS

I. G. Haines, Colorado business man who several months ago was critically burned in an explosion at his garage on East Second street, was dismissed from the Root hospital recently where he had been a patient continuously since the accident. Haines was burned while making repairs to gasoline tank on a motor car.

FOOTBALL SQUAD OF 1937
WILL BE ARRAYED AGAINST
VETS IN PIGSKIN CONTEST

Battle At Cantrill Field On Monday Afternoon Offered
As Attraction To Fans Of This Community

The Wolves of 1937—hopefuls upon which Colorado High school is to base her football destinies during the next season, will be arrayed against a team of veterans of the gridiron Monday afternoon at Cantrill Field. The fight is set to open at 2:30.

Principal C. A. Wilkins announced Tuesday afternoon that both contenders for championship belt in the melee were promising plenty technique and fight. Only eleven men are listed on roster of the veteran team, but their names will recall stars who in other years wore the Wolf uniform with creditable distinction.

Included on that team are Earnest Burdine, c; Ed Morrison, b; Beeman Dockery, t; John Farquhar, c; Jack Morrison, g; George Mallard, c; J. C. Garrett, t; Walter Rankin, b; Clifford Greener, b; Ewing Lee, b, and J. W. Dunlap, g.

Thirty men are listed on the opposing squad—the Wolf defenders of the next athletic season. Thirteen from whom the starting eleven will be drafted include the following:

Charles Carter, c; Boon Jackson, c; Burl Ballard, c; Joe Smalwood, t; Quinton Hamrick, b; Thomas Chadwick, b; Jack Smith, b; Earnest Smith, b; Duff Chesney, b; Dale Simpson, g; Rudel Glover, b; J. W. Blasingame, g, and Van King, t.

Other members of the squad are Murrell Blasingame, Paul Hunter, Howard Lewis, Wallace Kirby, Harvey Cook, Hardison Almond, Ross Glover, Sam Majors, M. A. Webb, Dick Jones, Sam Richardson, J. W. Hodges, Weman Moseley, E. J. Tilly, John Colson, Ewell Dearen and Curtis Hood.

With organization of a good coaching staff the 1937 Wolf squad should be developed into a stronger grid organization than might have been said of these teams of the recent past. Newby Pratt, recently assistant mentor, is coming to Colorado with a commendable record at Loraine.

Modern Booster Pumper To Be Purchased, Chairman
Majors States

Purchase of a new booster pumper truck for the fire department is being considered by members of the fire and police commission, E. M. Majors, chairman, stated Tuesday morning. Majors said that acquisition of the new equipment had been authorized by the city council. Other members of the commission are Chas. Moeser and C. D. Hornberger.

The new truck is to be similar to the large La France pumper in many respects, Majors stated. The former will carry a water tank of some 200 gallons for handling small inside fires and those beyond the reach of present water mains.

The city sometimes receives calls for assistance in controlling fires in rural communities and on farm homes, Majors explained. The new truck, carrying its own water supply, will be of valuable service there.

Specifications for the new truck are to be submitted at June meeting of the council, after which bids on purchase of the equipment will be called for by the city.

Hunter Brannon was heard recently practicing on some kind of a horn. At first the neighbors thought that it was some one blowing the flues at the refinery.

Charles Carter seldom misses typewriting class.

THOUGHTS OF A SENIOR

Everyone may envy the lucky seniors but really they have nothing to be envious of, of course, the fact that in about three more weeks all will be over and forgotten. The teachers, it seems, realize this fact to its fullest extent and have been doing all they can to help the seniors remember their last few days in high school. Besides a map and a chart for history, Spanish III students had a Spanish theme, and trigonometry students had about ten problems no one could work all due for Monday, the one after Senior Day, isn't it terrible? There is no doubt that the seniors will remember for a long time these last few weeks of high school but, teachers, please have a heart.

ASSEMBLY

The program which was scheduled to be presented Monday by the Seniors was postponed and in place of the program, the different classes held class meetings. The Senior class met to see how many were planning to attend the Junior-Senior banquet. The Juniors assembled to take up the money for the banquet and make further plans for it. The Sophs met to prepare in the near future. The Freshmen planned some social function by which they are to be entertained before the dismissal of school.

Eastland Pioneer Died Friday After Lingered Illness

Father Of T. M. Marsh Is Given Rites Saturday With Burial At Rising Star

T. A. Marsh, Eastland county pioneer and the father of T. M. Marsh, manager of the Safeway Store at Colorado, died Friday noon at the family residence in Rising Star following an illness of two months. The Coloradoan and all other members of the immediate family excepting two sons were present when the end came.

Rites were conducted from the Rising Star Baptist church Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. Mr. King, assisted by Revs. John Henderson of Sipe Springs and Brown of Rising Star, officiating. Burial was in a Rising Star cemetery.

Mr. Marsh left Thursday afternoon for Rising Star to attend his father after receiving the information that his condition was grave. His mother returned with him to Colorado Sunday night for an indefinite visit.

A native of Tennessee, Mr. Marsh came to Eastland county 63 years ago when a boy of 11 years. He had resided there continuously since. He had engaged in farming until a few years ago when he retired and established residence in Rising Star.

Other survivors are four sons, Earl, Carl and Onis of Rising Star and E. H. of Neosho, Mo.; two daughters, Mmes. Delia Adams of Rising Star and Walter Morgan of Stamford; eleven grandchildren and two great grandchildren, all of whom were present for the funeral rites Saturday afternoon.

Mary Francis Mackey gave a picnic and picture show party for a group of senior girls Wednesday afternoon. Those attending were: Marybel Crosthwaite, Mary Elizabeth Pidgeon, Virginia Reese, Etta Fern Harkins, June Cox, Mary Eleanor Rogers, Annetta Lacey, Eloise Cooper, and Lucille Bodine.

After the girls emptied the picnic basket, they went to see "Three Smart Girls." They enjoyed the show so much that they almost disturbed the audience.

Virginia Reese captured Earnest Burdine's friend senior day.

JUNIORS PRESENT PROGRAM SENIOR DAY

Friday, May 7, 1937, the Junior class presented a program to the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes while the Seniors were gone on their Senior Day picnic. Betty Hodge was in charge of the program. It was as follows: Virginia Gurney (reading)—"Little Boy Blue"; Frances Merle Cooper (songs)—"In Luxemburg Gardens" and "I Can't Lose That Longing for You"; Joe Bill Jackson—readings, and Charles Carter and Joe Lee—duet.

The Junior class showed initiative in presenting this splendid program and bright prospects of being the leaders next year.

F.F.A. NEWS

A meeting of the officers of this area was held at Roby Thursday, May 6. Those going from Colorado were: Voyd Beights, president of local chapter and farm watch dog of the district; Quinton Hamrick, vice-president; Duff Chesney, secretary; Raymond Fuller, treasurer. These boys were accompanied by their advisor, Mr. Doyle Williams. This was one of the most important meetings of the year, because it was the last one.

At the last Ag meeting Dr. May gave the boys a very interesting talk on how to use and care for the teeth. Because of the absence of some of the officers, the regular opening and closing ceremony was not performed. Dr. May also had some pictures and diagrams that he showed the boys, which were very interesting. He is invited to come back at any convenient time.

Also at this meeting a committee was appointed by the president. This was a nominating committee. They were Quinton Hamrick, Duff Chesney, Corley Rogers, Raymond Fuller, and Maurice Watson. This committee will, with the help of the advisor, elect, choose, or select the officers for the next school term.

There will be a baseball team organized soon for the Ag boys. They

My station is all on its own. My living's got to come mostly from just you people right here. I want your steady trade, so's to build a real growing business. And there's where it helps me a lot, I can tell you, to be selling Conoco Germ Processed oil. You see it makes customers and keeps them for me. It's patented—the only oil that can Oil-Plate your engine. Meaning that a definite part of this oil always fastens direct to every working part... forms a real Plating of oil, which can't run down. Other oils will "dry off" every time you park, but Oil-Plating can't, so you'll never make any hard, grinding starts. And that ends the worst wear of all. Or when you're hitting it up all day, you won't find this real Oil-Plating rubbing right off, like just some plain little drops of oil. Oil-Plating's not thinning out either, nor burning right up. Which gives you mighty solid reasons why Oil-Plating means more mileage from your engine and your Conoco Germ Processed oil. Besides making customers, I get a kick out of changing you to an oil I can believe in myself, right to the limit.

SENIOR DAY

At last that great day for the seniors, Senior Day, has come and gone, but it is not likely that it will soon be forgotten. The seniors met at the Legion Hut at 9 o'clock and left for Big Spring. It was a colorful array that arrived there. All colored slacks, sun glasses, and straw hats could be seen everywhere. It was doubtful who was in them. The seniors swung, see-sawed and lay under the shade trees until time for lunch. Then they were served the best barbecue, potato salad, beans, sandwiches, pickles and onions that they had ever eaten. They had ice cream cones for dessert. After dinner, some went to town to visit Woolies, others went swimming and played golf, and others just lay around under the shade trees. There were two great big tubs of lemonade and ice tea that they drank from most all evening. Just before they left to come home, several pictures were taken of the entire group. They decided to go to the show at Colorado as several had already seen the one at Big Spring, so they all met in front of the show at 7:15, and went in as a class. Thus, Senior Day came to a close. The seniors went home tired but happy, for theirs was a most enjoyable Senior Day.

SECOND MUSICAL PROGRAM GIVEN

The second musical program of the week was given last Wednesday in the auditorium of the Colorado High school during the assembly period. Mr. C. A. Wilkins introduced the entertainers.

The first number on the program was a song, "Venetian Love Song," by the Colorado High school mixed quartet, which is composed of the following: Grover Buchanan, Betty Hodge, Frances Merle Cooper, and Walter Rankin.

The second number was a series of vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Mooser, accompanied by Mrs. Latham at the piano. The songs that she sang were: "Piper Love Song," "Indian Love Call," and "Little Old Lady."

Everyone enjoyed these musical programs immensely, and is looking forward to the next one.

ROBY CHORAL CLUB VISITS

On Thursday morning at 11:15 the Roby Choral club arrived to present a program in assembly which lasted almost an hour. The Choral club sang three numbers and a girls' quartet sang "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise." In the absence of one of its members, the director sang in this quartet. Three boys sang solos which were very much appreciated by the audience, especially a bass solo, "Asleep in the Deep." Next the boys' quartet sang "The Bells of St. Mary's."

Between the musical numbers and a one-act play an accordion number was given. The one-act play was quite humorous and concerned the unsuccessful efforts of some Junior classmen to kidnap the leading lady of the Senior class play. This clever miss escaped by pretending to drink a bottle of red ink.

Child Development Discussed Before Receptive Audience Friday Afternoon

A receptive audience heard a talk given by Miss Dosca Hale, Extension Service specialist, on adult education and child development at the Legion Hut on Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent of District 6, introduced Miss Hale. "The Home" was the background of Miss Hale's talk. She gave one boy's definition of home, "A place my father is glad to support, my mother enjoys keeping, and our friends feel free to visit and enjoy." There is a need in each community to study the social conditions and work out constructive development measures, such as recreation, library facilities, supervised picnics and game tournaments, Miss Hale said. She asked the women to consider two year programs planned on adult education and child development.

The following Mitchell county rural club women were present: Mesdames Lon Strain, Lee Strain, Claude Willis, Will Berry, O. L. Simpson, Mrs. E. R. Uzzle, J. B. Enfinger, and Mrs. Ed Strain of the Fairview community; Mrs. Carl Lowry and Mrs. Thomas Vest, Hyman; Miss Ruby Gordon Coe, Horn's Chapel; Mesdames Tom Daughtrey and J. C. Franklin of Plainview club; Mesdames of Looney; Mesdames T. L. McKenny, Lee Coleman, and Miss Roselle McKenny of the Iatan club. Colorado women present were: Mesdames Bennett Scott, J. V. School Musicians and Painters Have Part On CC Affair

Students Given Praise After Appearing Tuesday Noon On Luncheon Program

"You represent one of the most appreciated organizations in Colorado and are doing an outstanding work in loyalty to your home community, at home and elsewhere," President Thompson of the chamber of commerce told four high school students and their teacher, after the group had appeared on program of the CC luncheon club Tuesday noon.

The entertainers are known as the Dixie Debs, composed of Misses Frances Merle Cooper, Betty Hodges, Hazel Grubbs and Fannie Porter. Mrs. Bill Martin of Loraine, their teacher, played the piano accompaniment as the young ladies sang.

Other school artists presented the club were two youthful painters, Johnnie Grubbs, 12, son of Mrs. Ed Grubbs, and Darrell Shurtliff, son of Huse Shurtliff. Paintings done by the boys under direction of Mrs. Annie Glover were presented by J. V. Glover, principal of junior high school.

Chevrolet Honors Representatives Of North Texas Area

Banquet Given Groups and '100 Car Club' Cash and Pins Awarded

During the month of April, in three mass assemblies of dealers, sales managers, and salesmen, Chevrolet Motor Division honored the retail salesmen of the Dallas zone area, which is comprised of 100 counties of North Texas. This recognition was occasioned by the splendid selling record achieved by these salesmen in delivering new Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks and used cars for Chevrolet dealers during the year 1936.

One hundred thirty retail salesmen in the Dallas zone area qualified for membership in Chevrolet's exclusive "100 Car Club" and these men were feted with an elaborate banquet with entertainment and presented by Chevrolet Motor Division with "Appreciation Checks" in the amount of $75.00 each and a "100 Car Club" pin with a diamond mounted in it for each year in which they had qualified for membership.

Dallas zone of Chevrolet has great pride in their men of the "100 Car Club." More men of this zone qualified for membership than in any other zone in the United States, in 1936.

One hundred ninety-four men of this area qualified for membership in the "50 Car Chapter" of the 100 Car Club. These men received distinctive pins with additional diamonds mounted for each year's membership attainment.

Chevrolet dealers generally have strong, well equipped and well trained forces of retail salesmen and are providing them with additional incentives for increased retail selling efforts in 1937 through a very unique and practical plan of Incentive Bonuses. The selling at retail for Chevrolet dealers of new passenger cars and trucks, and of thoroughly reconditioned guaranteed O.K. used cars provides, for a large number of especially trained and experienced salesmen in practically every community of North Texas, a career in salesmanship that is dignified, substantial and satisfactorily remunerative.

Sign-Up Campaign Will Be Ended On Saturday, May 15

Baskin Urges Attention To This Matter In Event Benefits Expected

The final date for acceptance of work sheets under the Agricultural Conservation Program has been set for May 15 by the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee, according to Geo. Slaughter, Chairman. The committee has approved an earlier closing date for many counties where the sign-up is well advanced. B. J. Baskin, county agent, is urging all farmers to sign one of the work sheets, whether or not it is planned to enter program now.

Indications are that approximately 240,000 work sheets will be signed for the 1937 program. Of these, some 15,000 cover ranches with a combined acreage of 53,000,000 acres which will take part in the range conservation feature of the program.

The sign-up this year is progressing rapidly, and is three months ahead of the 1936 participation in the program. Slaughter pointed out that due to the advanced stage of the set-up, it would not be possible for the State committee to accept any work sheets after May 15.

The committee urged that farmers who contemplate filling work sheets do so at once in order to avoid any chance of being left out. Slaughter called attention to the fact that submitting a work sheet entitled a farmer to receive payment if he complies with the soil-building and soil-conserving practices indicated in the program, but does not obligate him to enter the program.

Rates of pay for Soil-Conserving are the same in 1937 as in 1936—5¢ per pound on the adjusted yield per acre—and $1.00 per acre multiplied by the number of acres devoted to soil building practices being the amount one may earn for a soil building payment. Various soil building practices that producers may safely follow and rates of pay are:

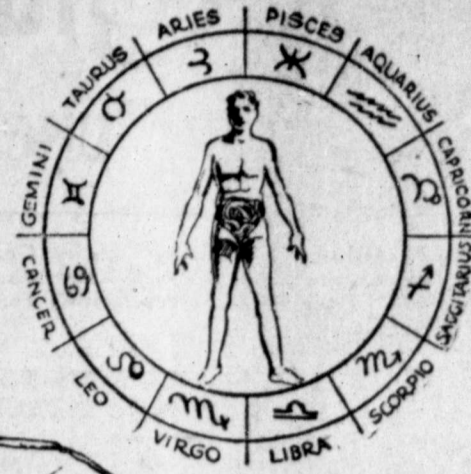

Terracing, 40¢ per 100 feet; contouring, 25¢ per acre; legumes plowing under after 60 days growth, $2.00 per acre (up to soil building allowance); sod, seeded in rows or solid (provided all crop is left on land or turned under after 60 days growth), $1.00 per acre; oats, wheat, barley (turned under as green manure crop), 75¢ per acre (producer should see county agent about this practice); contour listing of pastures, 70¢ per acre (computed on listing of 3/4 x number of linear feet divided by 43,560 sq. ft.); ridging of pasture land, 10¢ per 100 ft. (ridge must be 6 feet wide and 10 inches high).

There are several practices a producer may follow that must be conformer to under certain technicalities, but each producer should first consult the county agent.

Division of payments is same as in 1936. Share-tenants receive 50% of the soil conserving payment, and share-croppers 25% of same. Soil building payments are divided on basis of the actual expense borne by the various parties concerned.

IT IS GOOD BUSINESS TO SPEND WITH COLORADO MERCHANTS

7th article on Buy-at-Home

Commodity prices are now on an upward trend, a sure sign of more prosperous conditions. It is obviously good business to buy now in anticipation of future requirements if possible, and it is a matter of self preservation to spend what you do spend with Colorado stores.

Too many of us realize that Colorado stores buy in the same markets with the very stores in other cities that we are tempted to patronize. We do not stop to recognize and analyze the universal human tendency we have to think that the fields are greener elsewhere.

Our retail establishments have worked for years to make us proud of Colorado stores. Their stocks are adequate, their prices are equitable. When we think carefully instead of obeying our impulses we realize these things. And it is important that we do think, for our continued success and prosperity hinges thereon.

PAY YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY; A GOOD CREDIT RECORD IS YOUR GREATEST ASSET—GUARD IT

As we have said before, twenty-five per cent of our people depend on Colorado stores for a livelihood. They have an annual payroll that runs into the thousands of dollars and they spend huge sums locally in other ways. If they sometimes fail to have what we want, they will gladly get it for us, and from the same source patronized by the merchants from whom we are tempted to buy in some city. On a thousand other occasions they will have what we want, when we want it.

Let us, then, patronize Colorado stores. They are not only more efficient than we may have realized but more essential. Quality and price being equal Colorado stores afford a wonderful opportunity to keep Colorado money in Colorado. Money spent elsewhere doesn't help the twenty-five per cent of our people who depend on Colorado stores for their daily bread, doesn't build schools, pave any streets or accomplish any other civic improvements.

A SALES TAX

This column has always been in favor of a sales tax. A two per cent sales tax will hurt no one and will raise enough money to run the State government, get us out of debt and allow the State to amend our State ad valorem tax on our homes. The sales tax will make everybody pay their part.

The man that eats it up and wears it out is the only one that always did and always will pay every tax, whether it be called a sales tax or by some other name. So call it a sales tax, for that is what every tax finally is.

To tax oil, gas, sulphur and natural resources is all right, but don't make these taxes too heavy, for the final consumer pays it all, and none other ever did or ever will. The ten largest counties in the State are paying and will continue to pay fully as much as half of the entire sales taxes. Exempt nothing from the 2 per cent sales tax that is sold by retail to the consumer.

Let the income tax alone; leave that to the National Government. There would never be any income until the profit was made from the consumer.

The sales tax is not a burden on the poor man, because he pays it along with the richer man exactly in the proportion that each one consumes. In the attempt to falsely relieve the poor man of a sales tax, instead of his being relieved he is being relieved from getting a job.

Some advocate the enforced collection of the $150,000,000 delinquent ad valorem taxes. Not the fourth part of them can ever get the money to pay unless they can sell their real estate and the value of real estate, the true source of wealth and credit, is absolutely destroyed by high taxation. If there had been a sales tax during the last decade there would never have been any delinquency. It costs 20 per cent to assess and collect ad valorem taxes, and it would not cost over 2 per cent to collect the sales tax, and it would be collected every month.

Ad valorem taxes have destroyed the value of real estate to the extent that capital has practically ceased to loan and invest in it, and the money of the country that should be kept in circulation is daily seeking investment in nontaxable Federal bonds.

So much for the above-mentioned facts and conditions. If the Legislature would only do the real thing—and that is make a sales tax of 2 or 3 per cent if necessary, and make reasonable tax rates on natural resources and luxuries, on spirits, tobacco, etc.—there would be no unbalanced budget. But the real thing is to relieve real estate and free it from its deathtrap, and that could readily be done by placing a 3 per cent sales tax on real estate. Let this 3 per cent go to the State and county on all sales of real estate lying outside of incorporated cities and towns, and on all sales of property lying within incorporated cities and towns to go to such incorporations; and make it mandatory that the 3 per cent sales tax on real estate should be applied to reduce real estate ad valorem in the city, town or county where said real estate is levied.

OUR ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Supt. J. E. Watson up at the high school is also instructor in the English Language class and is authority on new English words. A few weeks ago we asked him to give us a "dither" on the word "dither." Here is what he said, "Dither is a perfectly proper word. It expresses excitement tinged with hysteria. It may have derived from dithyram. A dithyram is a sort of earmagnole, a shrieking chant sung by inebriated celebrating revolutionary heroes of achievements. The French mob died earmagnole during their celebrated revolution. The loud Greeks voiced dithyram when doing honor to Bacchus, their wine god."

Now we have come across a new word and submitted it to Mr. Watson's English class for elucidation. The word is "cacanny" and here is what he said:

The word is Scotch and that it is a variation from "canny." Everybody knows the Scotch are canny. You can't write about cacanny without approaching the subject cannily. "Ca" is a verb meaning specifically, to operate something by turning a crank or similar mechanism or, generally, to note any kind of work or procedure. "Canny" is an adjective. "Canny," depending on the context, may mean slow, deliberate, cautious, kind, tame or harmless. Someone has said cacanny meant boondoggler. The Scotch do not boondoggle, though, and we would be far from implying anything of a piddling nature to them.

Not being satisfied with Prof. Watson's digest we submitted the subject to State Press in the Dallas News and he said:

"Cacanny is a perfectly nice word, refined and scholarly, although not much used in ordinary curbstone conversation. It may be a commonly employed term in judicial circles, with which State Press is not very familiar. But his curbstone friends seldom try it out on one another. Cacanny means to loaf on the job, or to proceed so cautiously with the work that the output appears to have suffered from moral or physical lassitude on the part of the worker. A practitioner of cacanny is not necessarily a boondoggler, no more than a boondoggler is necessarily a piddler. But the boondogglers, the piddlers and the cacannys are cousins. They all make an appearance of diligence, but they don't get much done."

A pun being the lowest form of wit, why shouldn't we lowbrows get all the fun we can out of our level.

My wife wants to take a vacation to see the mountain. I told her most women could make mountains out of mole hills at home.

"Rambling Remarks" in the West Texas Baptist said all his thoughts had "Gone With the Wind."

Prof. J. V. Glover up at Junior High school in talking to his class asked one of the boys, "What do you mean by playing truant? What makes you stay away from school?" The boy answered, "Class hatred."

The young man who is content to fill a position in life, says "Men," which requires no preparation, no study or training, must be content as well with the wages of a menial. To secure the richer and lasting rewards of life, character, mind, money, or position, the man must pay the price of severe training and thorough preparation, though it costs years and much money.

I never had any faith in luck at all except that I believe that good luck will carry a man over a ditch if he jumps well, and will put a bit of bacon in his pot if he looks after his garden and keeps a pig. Luck generally comes to those who look after it, and my notion is, that it taps at least once in a life-time at everybody's door, but if industry does not open it, away it goes.—Spurgeon

ON GOING TO SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHURCH

Out for a stroll one beautiful Sabbath morning in October a fine, scholarly-looking man chanced to pass a church as the choir was singing: "Hark! Hark! my soul, Angelic songs are swelling." The man stopped. Something in him stirred as the waves of sound floated out through the half-open window, and the choir carried the music up-up-to the splendid climax, the man became conscious of emotions he had not experienced for years: He had gotten out of the way of going to church.

When the music stopped, he resumed his stroll, but not the train of thought interrupted by the music. He recalled that as he stood there a man and a woman, absorbed in animated conversation, passed apparently without hearing the music. Why was he appealed to and not these others?

He was rather pleased with himself that he had been appealed to by the beautiful music. He was rather sorry for the others that had not been appealed to. It argued a larger capacity in him. Is a man who doesn't care for music less a man? He felt quite sure of it. Isn't it a test of a big soul—to care much for many things? He was sure of it.

He thought of his children. If he wished to develop them along big lines, must he not put them in the way of caring for many things—books, music, science, art, history and humanity? The logic was plain. To live greatly is to care greatly.

Now this man had been brought up in church, but had gotten out of the way of going, like many other men and women. He had not sent his children to Sunday school. He was somewhat confused in his religious beliefs. He was an out-of-doors Christian. But he thought of the effect of the music on him as he stood before the open window of the church, he wondered if the music would have reached his soul if he had never gone to Sunday school and church. Or if centuries of his forefathers had never gone to church. And what would follow in the centuries to come if everybody should stop going to church.

That was not an encouraging outlook. He had never thought of it just that way before. But how about his own children? Was he, while helping toward a churchless, godless future—was he, perhaps, also robbing his own little ones of their future? Hasn't every child a right at least to the opportunity to decide for himself about his religious life?

That seems only fair. But how about the things he had learned in Sunday school as a boy, which he had to unlearn later? He thought them over. They seemed less serious than he had imagined. Hardly as serious as unlearning Santa Claus. Besides, he had to unlearn lots of other things as he went along. Medicine changes as much as theology, but most people still go to the physician when ill. Lots of things he learned at day-school he had to unlearn. Yet he wouldn't think of keeping his children away from day-school.

It looked very much as if he was making a very serious mistake in not sending his children to Sunday school, in not giving them the same chance he had had. And it looked as if he was making a mistake remaining away from the church. In remaining away from the church—fellowship and communion, was he headed for the unfriendly night?

His fellow men had done much for him. They had written books, and painted pictures and composed music; they had charted the world and the sky; they had named the rocks and trees; they had harnessed the rivers and the lightning. Oh! yes, he owed his fellow men more than he could ever pay; they had lifted his vision above the clouds. He was society's debtor. He had received more than he had given.

SENIOR CLASS VISITS CARLSBAD CAVERNS

We all had a wonderful time on the trip. The largest crowd of people this year went through the Caverns—1289 in all, of which 1054 were school children and of the 56 schools represented 46 were from Texas.
In our party of 24, 15 were seniors the rest were teachers and people connected with the school. Many teachers were there for the first time and practically all the Seniors.
We left Westbrook Friday at 4:00 and arrived at the Pecos River at about 8:30 where we camped out. Saturday we left early and drove to the Caverns arriving there at 9. Entered at 11 and came out at 5. Drove to the city of Carlsbad where we camped in a tourist park on the bank of the river, enjoying boat rides and swimming. Temperature there Saturday 97 in the shade.
Left Carlsbad Sunday morning at about 9:30 and drove back to Westbrook by 8 o'clock. On our return trip we drove by the Red Bluff Dam on the Pecos river where a large electric plant is located, the water furnishing the power for the running of the plant. There is constructed an immense dam across the river measuring 1 1/2 miles in length.
Everyone returned home glad of the experience and proud of the opportunity of seeing the Caverns.
Some notable incidents from the trip: We left two persons to start with and they had to get the notice to stop in Big Spring. Left one of the teachers at Lovin, N. M., where we stopped to get something to eat. You can imagine who it was as they always like to eat. Ask Hoyt Andrews what he thinks of Albuquerque girls in room 17 in tourist camp. Also Earl Bullock may have some information on the outcome of the peculiar game he played with a certain young lady.
All in all a most enjoyable time was had by all. Those making the trip were: Hoyt Andrews, Della Bolin, Melvin Boyd, Earl Bullock, Elton Davidson, Wayne Gilliam, Howard Hardestle, Thurman McCollough, Lois Richards, Virginia Shelton, Junior Stribling, Myrtle Turner, Ruby Turner, Neal Wilson and Maeus Woodall, Pres. LATAN WOMEN DISCUSS WATER PIPED IN HOME

By Mrs. T. L. McKenney, Reporter
"Water piped into the kitchen and bath is the greatest modern convenience for the homemaker," stated Miss Emma Gunter, county home demonstration agent to members of the Latan Home Demonstration club at their regular April 6th meeting which was held in the home of Mrs. Alvin Byrd.
Even the least expensive system of piping water into the kitchen costs less than piping water to the stock trough which is used on most farms. The homemaker who continues to carry water into the house is using her heels instead of her head. Often a water system would be provided if she caused her family to realize how much work it would eliminate.
The meeting was attended by three visitors, Mesdames Collins, Daniels, and Lowry and the following members: Mesdames Chas. Rotvidson, R. M. Jones, Ollie Harris, C. E. Sutphen, Tom Jackson, T. L. McKenney, F. L. Eikenberg, and Clyde McCreary.
Everett Kennon of Mine Run, Va., has been in 19 automobile accidents without suffering serious injury.

DIONNE QUINS FIND OATMEAL SOURCE PEP

There's nothing slow about the Dionne Quins. They pound the piano, blow horns and beat drums just as loudly and noisily as any healthy youngster. And when Dr. Lafayette comes in sight there's a mad, wild scamper to greet him. There's no denying it—the Quins are full of pep from top to toe every minute.

One of the reasons for the amazing vitality of the Quins is that their food is planned very carefully. The medical staff permits them to have only a carefully chosen selection of foods.

Quaker Oats is the Dionne Quins' cereal. It contains a rich supply of Vitamin B, the three-purpose Vitamin which helps brace up nerves, digestion and appetite when they are in poor condition due to lack of that vitamin. Quaker Oats with milk is a fine source of body-building minerals, muscle-building protein, and energy-making carbohydrates, all of which are essential for healthy childhood.

Today and every day the Dionne Quins had Quaker Oats. And every day these five little ladies are growing healthier, stronger—and more charming.

What is the "Low-price Field"?

YOU hear a lot about "the low-price field" these days. A good many cars claim to be in it. So whenever the low-price field is mentioned, remember:

Until Ford came, no average American could own a car.

Today all Ford prices are still low — with the prices of the 60-horsepower Ford V-8 $30 to $60 lower than those of any other car of comparable size.

But with Ford, "low price" doesn't merely mean low figures on the price tag. It means much more than that. It means low prices and low costs all the car's long life. Low prices for service — for parts — and, above all, for operation.

Both Ford V-8 engine sizes are economical to operate. The 85 horsepower gives greater gasoline mileage this year than ever, and the "60" delivers the highest mileage in Ford history.

Private owners, cab companies, fleet operators all report that the "60" averages from 22 to 27 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Check and see how much Ford saves you.
