Summary of the Daily News.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate on the 12th Senator Hoar, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the House amendment to the Senate Anti-Trust bill with an amendment. The Senate bill fixing the times and places for holding Federal Courts in Kansas was reported and passed. The Silver bill was then taken up and Senator Jones, of Nevada, opened the debate in favor of his bill. Before the conclusion of his speech the Senate adjourned. The House had a lively session in Committee of the Whole on the Tariff bill, which was still under consideration at the time of adjournment.

In the Senate on the 13th a petition was presented from Philadelphia business men remonstrating against the increase of duty on dress goods made wholly or partly from wool. After reports of committees Senator Davis, from the Pensions Committee, reported back the House substitute for the Dependent Pension bill and moved a non-concurrence and conference, which was agreed to. The Senate then resumed consideration of the Silver bill and Senator Jones (Nev.) continued his remarks in favor of the bill, at the conclusion of which Senator Jones (Ark.) addressed the Senate in opposition. After the disposition of routine business in the House debate on the Tariff bill was resumed, and Mr. Butterworth (Ohio) created somewhat of a sensation by his peculiar remarks and views on the tariff question. But little progress was made before the House adjourned.

When the Senate met on the 14th Senator Wilson (Iowa) reported a bill from the Judiciary Committee subjecting imported liquors to the provisions of the laws of the several States. The bill is intended to meet the late decision of the Supreme Court. After several Senators had expressed their views on the subject, the regular order was demanded, and the Silver bill was taken up and Senator Teller spoke in its favor. Several bills, of a local or private nature, passed and the Senate adjourned. When the House met, on motion of Mr. Morrill, of Kansas, the House insisted on its amendments to the Dependent Pension bill and asked for a conference. The Tariff bill then came up as unfinished business and was debated until adjournment.

After the reporting of bills in the Senate on the 15th the Silver bill again came up as unfinished business and Senator Teller continued his remarks in favor of the free coinage of silver. Senator Coke also spoke in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and against the bill as reported. When the Senate occupied the entire session. When the House met Mr. McKinley, from the Committee on Rules, reported a resolution providing for the consideration of the Tariff bill each day until Wednesday noon, in Committee of the Whole, when the bill and all pending amendments shall be reported to the House. This was antagonized by the minority but the previous question was ordered and the resolution adopted. A Conference Committee on the Dependent Pension bill was appointed, and debate on the Tariff bill continued. Pending bills were considered at the evening session.

The Senate on the 16th further considered the Silver bill, the question being on Senator Plumb's amendment that no funds available for the payment of the public debt shall be retained in the treasury in excess of $110,000,000. Senator Plumb in a vigorous speech advocated the amendment, and Senator Sherman opposed it. After a long discussion the bill went over and the Senate adjourned. After passing the Senate bill authorizing the registration of census mail the House resumed the Tariff bill and a lively discussion was kept up during the entire sitting. At the evening session seventy-one private pension bills passed.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

The Minnesota Meat Inspection Law Unconstitutional.

The Law Intended to Restrict Commerce and Therefore Invalid—The Mormon Church Loses Its Suit Over the Edmunds Law.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered an opinion holding unconstitutional the law of Minnesota requiring all fresh meats sold in the State to be cut from animals slaughtered within the State and inspected twenty-four hours before slaughter. The case is entitled "State of Minnesota against Henry D. Barber" and is of great interest to dressed beef men, who win the case.

Barber was convicted of selling fresh beef slaughtered in Illinois and which had not been inspected before slaughter as required by the law of Minnesota. He alleged that the law was an unconstitutional interference with Inter-State commerce.

The court in an opinion by Justice Harlan says: "The enactment of a similar statute by each one of the States composing the Union would result in the destruction of commerce among the several States, so far as such commerce is involved in the transportation from one part of the country to another of meat designed for human food and entirely free from disease. This act provides that all cattle, sheep and swine shall be inspected within twenty-four hours before the animals are slaughtered and that (if such be the fact) the inspectors shall certify that the slaughtered animals were found to be healthy and fit for human food. The sale of meat not taken from an inspected and certified animal is forbidden under penalty of fine or imprisonment. As the inspection must take place within the twenty-four hours immediately preceding the slaughtering of the animal, by its necessary operation, excludes from the Minnesota market practically all fresh beef, veal, mutton, lamb or pork—in whatever form and although entirely sound, healthy and fit for human food—taken from animals slaughtered in other States; and directly tend to restrict the slaughtering of animals whose meat is to be sold in Minnesota for human food, to those engaged in such business in that State.

"When to this is added the fact that the statute, by its necessary operation, prohibits the sale in the State of fresh beef, veal, mutton, lamb or pork from animals that may have been inspected carefully and thoroughly in the State where they were slaughtered, no doubt can remain as to its effect upon commerce among the several States.

"It will not do to say—certainly no judicial tribunal can with propriety assume—that the people of Minnesota may not, with due regard to their health, rely upon the inspections in other States of animals there slaughtered for purposes of human food. If the object of the statute had been to deny altogether to the citizens of other States the privilege of selling within the limits of Minnesota for human food, fresh beef, veal, mutton, lamb or pork, from animals slaughtered outside of that State, even those who are free from disease when slaughtered, and to compel the people of Minnesota desiring to buy such meats, either to purchase them, when desired for their own domestic use at points beyond the State, that object is attained by the act in question. Our duty to maintain the Constitution will not permit us to shut our eyes to these obvious and necessary results of the Minnesota statute. If this legislation does not make such discrimination against the products and business of other States in favor of the products and business of Minnesota as interferes with and burdens commerce among the several States, it would be difficult to enact legislation that would have such a result.

"The judgment of the lower court is affirmed."

THE MORMON CASE.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered an opinion of vital interest to the Mormon Church in the suit of the Church of Latter Day Saints against the United States, which came here on appeal from the decision of the Supreme Court of Utah in favor of the United States. The court affirmed that judgment.

The case grew out of the passage of the Edmunds Anti-Polygamy law by the Forty-ninth Congress. This law among other things dissolved the Mormon Church corporation, and killed its charter, directed the appointment of a receiver to wind up its affairs and escheated to the United States all the real estate owned by the Church in excess of $50,000 which was not on the date of the passage of the act held for purposes of worship or burial. When the United States, under the terms of this act, began proceedings to confiscate about $250,000 worth of property belonging to the Church, the Mormons immediately entered suit to have the Edmunds law declared unconstitutional.

BURIED ALIVE.

A Number of Miners Entombed By the Caving in of a Mine in Pennsylvania—Rescuers Drive Away By Fire Damp.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 16.—A cave in occurred yesterday near Ashley in No. 8 mine, operated by the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, by which twenty-five men were entombed.

Soon afterward not only relatives of the twenty-five imprisoned mine laborers but thousands of others gathered upon the spot discussing the best methods of effecting their rescue. The company took prompt action toward liberating the imprisoned men, but things were in such a chaotic condition that results were by no means certain. Many believed that the rescue of the men alive was well nigh an impossibility, while others, as they watched the continual movement of the surface and extensive workings of the mines, shook their heads in grave doubts.

The present cave in is in the workings of No. 8 slope of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, immediately adjoining the mine in which the extensive cave in occurred twelve years ago imprisoning ten men for over a week, but who were finally rescued alive. The present cave in extends over a half mile square and includes a portion of the thickly settled village called Maletta Patch. A large number of houses have gone down with the surface but only a few of them have been badly damaged.

The following is a list of men who are known to be imprisoned: John Hanson, Anthony Froine, Michael Schalley, John Allen, assistant fire boss; Michael Henry, Charles James, Frank Gallagher, Robert Roberts, Harry Jones, Ellis Williams, Owen Williams, Daniel Sullivan, Thomas Williams, John Banning, Anthony Frale, Harry Perry and son, Thomas Claus, John James and four Hungarian laborers.

FARMERS' REVIEW.

Crop Bulletin Based on Reports From Thirteen States—Complaints of Drought.

CHICAGO, May 16.—The Farmers' Review says: The report from correspondents in the thirteen States covered by our crop bulletin indicates that the general condition of winter wheat in this territory is 30 per cent lower and of spring wheat 10 per cent lower than the usual average of condition at this season.

Relative to winter wheat, Wisconsin and Kansas reports show some improvement in condition since April 30. In Kansas this is due to the prevailing drought having been broken by local showers in many parts of the State. In Wisconsin, on the other hand, the previous excess of moisture has dried out to some extent and conditions have become more favorable to growth. In Michigan and Ohio the condition of wheat has not changed since our last report. A few correspondents in Missouri report improvement in the condition of wheat, but the general average for the State indicates a marked decline during the past ten days. Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky reports also show a decline, caused probably by cold weather and an excess of moisture.

We summarize as follows the reports of correspondents relative to the condition of wheat: Winter wheat—Illinois, 71 per cent, Indiana 64, Ohio 85, Kentucky 85, Missouri 79, Kansas 93, Michigan 77, Wisconsin 79. Spring wheat—Illinois, 91 per cent, Wisconsin 94, Iowa 91, Nebraska 99, Minnesota 99, South Dakota 88, North Dakota 84.

A MILD SENTENCE.

Commander McCalla Put Upon Furlough For Three Years.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Secretary Tracy has issued a general order promulgating and approving the findings and sentence of the court martial in the McCalla case.

The court martial found Commander McCalla, of the Enterprise, guilty of the five charges preferred against him, which included the striking and cutting of Seaman Walker with his sword; putting other seamen on board the Enterprise in irons in violation of naval regulations; maltreatment of subordinates, and "conduct unbecoming an officer of the navy," in threatening to kill Seaman Meyer for smiling at him. The sentence is that McCalla be suspended from rank and duty for a period of three years and to retain his present number on the list of commanders while so suspended.

The pecuniary effect of the court martial and the Secretary's order is to place Commander McCalla on furlough or half pay for three years, reducing his pay from $3,500 to about $1,400 a year.

Big Mills Burned.

WINONA, Minn., May 16.—The Winona Mill Company's immense flouring mill and elevator burned early this morning. The flames leaped hundreds of feet into the air while the heat was almost unbearable. Loss, $300,000; insured for $200,000, mostly in mutual companies. There were 25,000 bushels of wheat in the elevator and 1,300 barrels of flour in the mill. The company employed 100 men. The mill had a capacity of 2,500 barrels, and was the finest equipped building of the kind in the world.

The Ballistic Explosion.

ROME, May 16.—The explosion of ballistite at Aveglino was more disastrous than at first reported. Nineteen persons were killed or have since died and thirty were seriously injured. Of these several are hurt beyond recovery. There were 300 workmen present and scarcely one escaped without a mark of some kind. This is the fourth explosion that has occurred in the wrecked factory since 1875.

Official Paper of Chase County.

The failure to answer truthfully or to answer at all, the questions of a census enumerator, exposes the party so offending to a fine of $100.

The Republican State Central Committee will meet May 27th, to call a State Convention, which will probably be set for an early date. It is the evident intention of the politicians to make the torture incidental to a political campaign as long drawn out as possible.

City Treasurer Wm. Peake, of Kansas City is short in his accounts from $17,000 to $20,000. The superiority of Missouri over Kansas is never so apparent as when a comparison is to be made between the jackpots of the two commonwealths. For particulars see Noland, Peake, et al.

The hero of Nashville ought not to talk about the portrait of Cleveland being attached to the "grand old emblem of liberty and progress," especially since it is a notorious fact that he (the hero) has had the banner of another county represent him in a parade which he, said hero, expected would benefit him financially. We know that converts are generally very zealous; but do please to give us a rest on this fulsome loyalty of some men, and the trying by them to belittle the patriotism of American born citizens.

The Farmer's Alliance of the Sixth Congressional District, threw down the gauntlet to the "powers that be" in that district Monday, by the nomination of Capt. R. S. Osborne. Capt. Osborne is a representative farmer and an able orator and should this action of the Alliance be followed by the endorsement of the Democratic Convention, the "cliff dweller," as McVall, the Republican nominee, is familiarly called in his own bailiwick, will find the duties of the candidate for Congress a good deal more exacting and expensive than those of a Capitol policeman.

At the special election at Edgerton Monday, called to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of the female municipal officers. The other fellows made a "clean sweep" and the lords of creation now control the legislation of that village. The apparent cause of the resignation of the petticoat government was the failure of the citizens of the town to co-operate with them in their efforts to regulate municipal affairs, but it is suspected that possible domestic exigencies, which would have kept the members of the council at home at critical periods of the administration, had much to do with their action.

There is one thing that should be remembered by the soldiers who are in favor of increased pensions, many of whom are in favor of a reduction of the revenues: that if the revenues are reduced there can be no increase in pensions; if pensions are increased there can be no reduction of the revenues.—Rep. Ez.

And yet Mr. Butterworth, (Rep) of Ohio, in speaking before the Committee of the Whole, in the House, on Wednesday of last week, on the McKinley tariff bill, said that he could name capitalists whose profits had exceeded those of all the agriculturists of any State in the Union, that he had known of an industry that had been able to make $60,000,000 in dividends on a capital of $1,250,000. "Protection?" said he, "why the country, in such cases, could better afford to keep these men in the Fifth Avenue hotel, pay their board and expenses and set them up in the banking business." "The time has come when some little courtesy should be shown to the American homes and American firesides." So mote it be.

At 1 o'clock p. m.—John W. Geary Post and Corps and McDonald Post and Corps. Dan McCook Camp 8. of V. will meet at the G. A. R. hall in this city, and march to the court house.

At the court house the program will open with prayer, after which the Cottonwood Falls band will furnish music. Misses Anna Williams and Lillie Mann will each give a recitation followed by music from the male quartette.

Then will be given the oration of the day by Col. C. D. Herod, of Erie.

The procession will then form with G. A. R. Post, Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans, followed by citizens in carriages and on horseback.

At the cemetery the decoration of the graves with flowers will be made by sixteen young ladies, daughters of veterans.

A team belonging to A. S. Howard tiring of the restraints of rural life, escaped the surveillance of the driver last Friday, and after a two-mile run reached the corporate limits of this city and immediately proceeded to make it lively for those of our citizens who were heroic enough to attempt to check them in their mad career. The prisoner on the rock pile interposed himself as an obstacle in their pathway and was thrown down, badly bruised, and his face considerably disfigured. They rounded the corner of Broadway and Pearl streets; struck the sidewalk at the postoffice and proceeded thereon as far north as Friend, where they abandoned the pavement for the boulevard, and were finally captured in the west part of town.

H. J. Radcliffe leaves Friday of this week for Hutchinson, where he will engage in the practice of law, and in the real estate and insurance business in conjunction with Scott E. Winne. Mr. Radcliffe is amply endowed with the necessary qualifications to shine as a star of the first magnitude in any body of legal luminaries with whom he may be associated, and his host of friends in this vicinity will join the COURANT in the hope that a full measure of success be meted out to him.

A CITRUS PARADISE

California has been called the Citrus Paradise, because no other State in the Union produces the orange and lemon in such large quantities and so delicately flavored. It is also the home of the grape, the olive, the fig and the English walnut. All the grains common to the more northern climes are successfully raised. California offers unusual inducements to the small farmer who has some capital to start with, and who is willing to wait for results.

In going to California you should travel via the A. T. & S. F. R. R., the great middle route to the coast. Address Geo. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A. Topeka; Kansas, for additional information.

Where and What is it?

It is at Fort Worth, Texas—that's "where." It is the Spring Palace annual fair—that's "what." This show will give in miniature what would otherwise require weeks of steady travel to see. A small edition of the World's Fair—Texas being a little world all by itself. Texans are a hospitable people, and you will enjoy seeing them and their Spring Palace. That you may have this pleasure, the Santa Fe Route has liberally arranged for a ONE-FARE round-trip rate to Ft. Worth. Tickets on sale May 8 to 28 inclusive; final limit June 3. Fast time, fine equipment. Inquire of local agent, Santa Fe Route, or address Geo. T. Nicholson, G. P. & T. A., Topeka, Kas.

GAVE HIMSELF AWAY.

How the Fair Cleopatra Penetrated Colonel Mascher's Disguise.

The masquerade ball was at its height. The tall, graceful young man who had arrayed himself somewhat hastily in a

"You do me honor, Sir Mulligataway," she replied, mockingly. "How have you been enabled to penetrate my disguise, may I ask?"

"You can't deceive me," rejoined the young man. "Through all the little tricks of artifice, of feigned voice and simulated simplicity—"

"Simulated simplicity is good," interposed the lovely shepherdess in the pale-green domino, pensively. "I'll make a memorandum of it."

"Through all these," he continued, impressively, "I recognize the unquenchable histrionic genius which nothing can hide."

"Just so," she murmured, "I am the beautiful and popular actress, Miss Cleopatra Siddons-Rachel, am I? Or was it the popular and beautiful actress? And who are you?"

"Who am I? Ah, fair enslaver," he answered, "I dread to tell you. The favor you have graciously shown me this evening, the acquaintance so happily begun, which it would break my heart to

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

The Provisional Government of Brazil has issued a decree suppressing religious instruction in the State schools.

A British clergyman of note estimates that the Protestants have increased the last hundred years nearly fourfold, the Roman Catholics and the Greek church each two fold.

The Italians of Boston have just held a meeting to take steps to establish an industrial school for young men and women of their race, in which also they can learn to read and write the English language.

The traveler and ethnologist, Tushkoff, points out the fact that there are 400,000 heathens and 50,000 Mohammedans in the Russian army, the latter forming 75 per cent. of the Cossack regiments, and also declares that Christianity is dying out in Southeastern Russia.

Several of the Southern States, notably Virginia, Florida and Arkansas, are developing good school systems, and the newspapers of North Carolina—a State which has not been as progressive in this respect as others—calls upon the people to make an increase of at least $150,000 a year in the appropriation for educational institutions.

The Illinois Supreme Court recently rendered a decision that will interest members of the Y. M. C. A. The court holds that the Y. M. C. A. is not wholly a religious body, but is largely a Christian and benevolent organization, and therefore the law restricting the amount of property to be held by religious corporations does not govern the Y. M. C. A.

In Odessa a recent decision of the authorities prohibits Jewish teachers from teaching in Christian schools. Furthermore, adherents of the Jewish faith are not allowed to give private lessons in Christian homes. The general public is warned against Jewish teachers in large posters on the bulletin boards, which allege that Jewish teachers endanger morals and religion.

School statistics for Paris state that there are 147,516 children attending the municipal or State schools; 61,294 attending schools directed by religious orders, and 33,000 attending free lay schools where religious instruction is given. It is also stated that attendance at municipal schools has increased by only about 700 in the last three years.

A FRENCH PENSION.

The Curriculum of a Fashionable Female Institution Near Brussels.

The entire system of education of girls on the continent of Europe tends to check their bodily and of course their mental and moral development. A lady friend of mine has spent four years in Mme. P.'s boarding-school for young demoiselles, near Brussels.

The school was situated at about half an hour's walk from the city, and P.'s rules and regulations appear queer enough to me now, though there was a time I used to consider them excellent. The ladies rose at 8 o'clock, had breakfast at 9, luncheon at 1, gouter (light lunch) at 4, dinner at half-past 6, and a little mouthful of something or other before bedtime, which was 11 o'clock in the night.

The dejeuner consisted of bread and butter, an egg, some cheese, cake and coffee, with or without milk, according to the propensities the ladies showed to corpulence. At lunch they had some cold meat or fish. For gouter they munched their tartines aux confitures, being thin slices of bread with preserves, and at dinner they sat down to a meal consisting of numerous soups, potages, sauces, entrees, etc., etc., not to forget the deserts—every thing as exquisite as an experienced French cook knows how to prepare.

In the morning they had a little French, a particle of geography, taste of history, a job of arithmetic, a dream of algebra and a little of Gallicized English. The afternoon was devoted to the more important lessons. They must have been interesting to witness. First, for instance, they had an hours' lesson about how to walk up and down the stairs, or how to pour out coffee. Then they had lectures on the art of how to enter a carriage. This mysterious lore would be studied in the following manner: A carriage was rolled before the door leading to the garden. The students then assembled on the stone steps, and after preliminary explanations by the learned professor descended gravely in single file, entered the carriage after the most approved fashion on one side, and tripped out of it on the other, I adhere strictly to the facts as related to me by my friend. Every evening after five o'clock was devoted to the giving of a sham party, when the students would by turns receive their guests—their fellow-pupils—entertain and dismiss them. Two or three male teachers excepted, the young ladies never saw a man during the whole of the four years' course. An extensive park surrounded the institution, and in its shady lanes the ladies took daily promenades. A dairy was kept on the premises, as was also a butchery, to avoid any chance of the girls catching a glimpse of such an awful creature as a milkman. The girls were allowed to look out of windows upon condition that they should retire to the innermost recesses of their rooms as soon as any person was seen approaching from afar. And this happened rarely enough, the road to the institution being one of the loneliest, ugliest, and least frequented around the city.—Pittsburgh Bulletin.

Edison's Democratic Ways. Edison is a Count, a millionaire and the most famous living inventor. His present wealth, which amounts to many millions, is as nothing compared to what it will be in the next few years; but he still works away in his laboratory, and comes forward to greet you in just such a suit of clothes as he wore twenty years ago. As compared with Edison's dingy little shop of twenty years ago, out at Menlo Park, in which he used to eat his bread and cheese seated on an old packing-box, talking over the work in hand to the boys, the present surroundings are fabulously luxurious. Every thing shows unbounded means, which may be the case, when we remember that this famous laboratory costs $300,000 a year to maintain. But the master mind is still the same. When he works it means work for his men. In the old days at Menlo Park it was no uncommon thing for him to remain at the bench for forty-eight hours at a stretch, sending one of the boys for crackers and cheese when he felt hungry, and not giving up until his assistants had actually fell asleep standing up. To-day he is just as interested.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

The Most Wonderful Invention.

DR. A. OWEN'S ELECTRICAL BELTS.

St. Louis, Mo., February 20, 1887.—Dr. A. Owen is the most successful inventor and manufacturer in the country of Electrical Appliances for the cure of acute, chronic and nervous diseases. They have received the unequalled endorsement of physicians of high standing, as well as thousands of sufferers who have been cured by them.

The Belts have a reversible current, and can be regulated to any desired power, and the current is under the control of the patient.
