RECORD-BREAKING JANUARY RAINS ARE RECEIVED IN COUNTY

TOTAL THURSDAY MORNING HAD REACHED NEXT TO HIGHEST POINT IN 50 YEARS

Skies were still overcast and dripping Thursday morning as Colorado and Mitchell county chalked up what is already their wettest January in 50 years with one exception.

According to the government gauge maintained in Colorado by Jim White, a total of 2.47 inches of moisture had fallen here since Saturday. Taking into consideration the mist which fell most of Wednesday night after the latest rain gauge was reported, the total had probably gone well above 2.50 inches by Thursday morning.

The rainy spell began Saturday afternoon. Hard showers punctuated a steady drizzle Saturday night and Sunday morning, amounting to a total of 1.77 inches. Rain set in again Wednesday morning.

Government rain records show that Colorado has received more than 2.50 inches during only one January in the last 50 years, and that was in January 1931, when 4.10 inches were recorded. For the last two Januaries, however, the county has received more than two inches, 2.25 inches being chalked up for both January, 1937, and January, 1938. The only other fall over two inches in 50 years was in January, 1920, when the town received 2.11 inches.

Ranchmen and farmers all over this area were jubilant over the moisture. Ranchmen were thinking of tank water, winter weeds and pasture grass. Farmers were thinking of moisture for the breaking of their fields for another crop.

M. E. CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS
Due to the good rain of last week-end our congregation was few in number, but did you know that we had a fine service? For all who came came for one purpose and that was that they might worship God together. Now of course we can and it is our privilege to worship wherever we might be, but at the same time we are told to assemble ourselves together often. I think that by gathering together in greater numbers we can and do generate more power, that is of course if we go because we want to worship God, but if we go just to be seen we will get our reward. For you know that if we go on dress parade someone no doubt will take pattern if its nothing but your dress pattern or maybe your hat pattern, we should never go to church that someone should see our new dress for if you do they may fall to see you or the preacher either. If you just have to show your new dress just go window shopping or somewhere. Don't go to church for that purpose.

I could just go on and on but I do want to urge you to go to church somewhere next Sunday. Just break over and go anyway. Now of course if you have not been in the habit of going the devil will surely paw up the earth when you ask hubby and the kiddies to go but just you remember that you and God are in the majority anywhere so you just say to him get thee behind me and mean it and you never saw such a coward as he is; that is when you mean it. Now go to church somewhere every Sunday this year that you can and God will bless you in it.
Your friend and pastor,
R. B. WALDEN.

WESTBROOK SCHOOL NEWS
REPORT ON STERLING CITY TOURNAMENT

The Westbrook boys participated in the Sterling City invitation tournament the past week and won third place after being eliminated by the more experienced and accurate shooting Forsan quintet. The Wildcats overcame a hard fighting Water Valley team who had previously beaten Arden 18-14. In this encounter Westbrook came out victorious 37-9. Lakeview won over Garner in the semifinals and Forsan over Westbrook. Then in the opener of the final session Westbrook overpowered Garner 19-11 despite the fact that Jones was chased from the game early in the second half with four fouls.

Redwine was outstanding in the entire tourney and was given a position on the all-tournament team. As a member of the all-tourney team Redwine has been asked to participate in a Roosevelt's benefit game to be played at Sterling City Jan. 30. This game will see the all-tournament team of the tournament in action against another outstanding team to be announced later.

Jones was given honorable mention as an outstanding player in the week-end the Westbrook senior boys and girls will enter a tournament at Ira.

MID-TERM IS REACHED
Half of the years work is being completed this week. The examinations will begin Thursday morning and continue through Friday evening. Public Speaking will be discontinued after mid-term. Commercial Law will take the place of Public Speaking. It's been told that if you want a snap, Law is your subject!

For the last term there has been 141 students enrolled in high school. This is about the same number as was enrolled at the beginning of the first term. There will be some shifting in the grades, but the number will be about the same as before. Upon investigation we find that there are about fourteen Mexicans attending our grammar school but there are no negroes.

SENIOR NEWS
We are still a lifeless bunch of Seniors as mid-term is very near and some of us are studying while the others are having a good time.

We still haven't started on the walk yet and have many days of hard labor on the annual. Mr. Hood, I wish you would have a good class meeting and lecture that we have got to get started on the walk, if we don't want to have the thing to build the last week of school. Someone here got to suggest a day for us all to come up here and work.

Ray Moody said that the Seniors at Sterling City divided up in couples and each couple made a block and laid it down with their names on it. Why don't we try that for a change?

SENIOR SCANDAL
Mr. Hood you didn't find anything unusual in your desk this morning did you? Weldon and Bonnie might know something about it.

Should you need a judge in the Home Ec. modeling, Miss McKenney ask Weldon Strange. We hear he was complimenting Bonnie on her nice work.

FRESHMAN NEWS
Here are the poor fish unprepared for exams. But there's still plenty of time for fun. Listen to this new one: "Bessie and Lowell" what pears they can be. We Fish often wonder if Bessie's mind is feeble or if she just can't make it up. She seems to have a new boy friend each week.

Wonder why Joan had so much company over the week-end. Say, Joan, was any of them your boy friend?

The fish were entertained with a party in the gym Friday night. They all reported a nice time.

JUNIOR NEWS
Juniors at last that week we have been dreading has come. Maybe our mid-term exams won't be as hard as we're expecting at least we hope not.
The Juniors had a party last Friday night at the high school. Everyone that came said they had a very, very good time. Table games were played and enjoyed by everyone. A lot of the Juniors didn't get to come on account of sickness. Maybe the next time we have an entertainment all of the class will get to attend.

Quite a list of demerits were posted in the Junior room Tuesday morning the first period. The Seniors have a class in the Junior room. Seniors are you getting childish? Some of them got as many as eight demerits at one time.

We wonder why chalk was all over James Skelton's desk the other day, he even had it all over his face and hands. James, you surely hadn't been eating it.

JACKRABBITS THIRD IN HIGHLAND TOURNEY
Friday afternoon the Jackrabbits Junior boys' basketball team, began play in the annual Highland Invitation Tournament at Highland. One game with Hobbs was played Friday; three games were played Saturday with Whitefiat, Divide, and Sweetwater. Being the defending champions, the team fought hard to retain its crown, but lost to Divide in the semi-finals. In the play-off for third place, Sweetwater bowed to Colorado, thus putting the Jackrabbits in third place. The plaque which was awarded the team was presented to Mr. Watson by James Paul Cooper Monday in assembly, and is now in the trophy case.

Jack Herrington, '40, playing forward for the Jackrabbits, was placed on the all-tournament team and received a tiny gold basketball. The all-tourney team is composed of the best players taking part in the tournament, as chosen by coaches of participating teams.

THE IMPORTANCE OF READING
Do you get a thrill when you hear the hum and whir of an aeroplane? If you don't, you should. When I hear an aeroplane I wonder where it is going, or what cargo it carries. Some great man or woman may be a passenger in the plane. I think that someone capable is at the controls and what a wonderful invention the aeroplane is.
I'm sure that we all know that Orville and Wilbur Wright invented the aeroplane; but I'm not sure we all know how they came to invent it. They read a book, just an ordinary looking book, but they got from that book an idea that led to the invention of the aeroplane. After reading the book they became interested in kites. Many afternoons after school they would climb a hill near their home and fly their kites. As they were enjoying this they were thinking of something else. Why couldn't kites have a motor in them and a person ride too? They began to work on their idea. They finally constructed a queer looking thing that somewhat resembled a bird. Of course the people said it couldn't be done, but the Wright brothers weren't discouraged. They worked harder and made a wonderful invention—the aeroplane.

How did the Wright brothers first get the idea of an aeroplane? They read a book.
When you read a book, you are associating with some of the greatest and wisest people in the world. We can have in our society some great thinkers, who talk to us about things nearest their hearts. They will talk to us as long as we are interested in our rank or occupation.
There are so many books. It is necessary for us to choose the ones which will advance our thoughts to a higher standard of thinking. For thoughts are the creative forces of the world.
For constructive reading choose books by the best authors which have gained a literary rating of generations. The best authors seek to make you think. Books may not cause you to make inventions and become famous but they will inspire thoughts and help you accomplish greater things.

WHO'S WHO ON THE CAMPUS
Mr. Fulcher
Mr. Fulcher's home town is Abilene. He went to grammar school and high school at Eastland. After graduation from high school he attended Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, for four years, graduating there one year ago with a B. A. degree. Throughout his educational career he considered physical education.
Mr. Fulcher worked last spring at the Cabot Carbon company in Kermit and came to Colorado in September to supervise recreational activities in Mitchell county.
Mr. Fulcher likes picture shows, sports, the radio, likes to hike and stay in the open air. He considers boxing his hobby.
Billie Margaret Gregory
Billie Margaret Gregory is a music teacher. It seems quite natural that she should like music with the important part she plays in the band. (Can you imagine how dull a band would be without a drum major? Ours ought to be good with three of them!) Billie Margaret likes her saxophone, but she really goes for that

Her face is slightly wistful, with freckles sprinkled deliciously across her nose, giving a truly intriguing effect. She has very dark hair and blue eyes.
Billie Margaret is a Freshman. She doesn't like to cook or sew especially. (Strange, isn't it?) She plays a good game of basketball and tap dances. I guess if girls played football she would play, because she likes to watch it, which is the nearest thing to playing it.
THE AGGIES AT WORK
If you've seen any of the Aggies kinda dolled up the last two or three days it's because they have been having their pictures taken. The class has been divided into groups of six. The best looking group will get their picture put in the Annual. One of the groups has an advantage over the rest. It had Doris Flo' Doss the Aggie sweetheart as a background.
The Aggie mid-term exam is scheduled to be at 8:00 Friday morning. The way the six week test averages look just about all of the boys are going to have the honor of taking the test.
The Colorado F. F. A. Chapter Conducting team, which consists of ten second-year Aggies have started practicing for the district contest at Roscoe Monday, February 13.
Colorado is the defending team, having won the district over Roscoe last year. Four boys on the team, Ross Glover, Jack Long, J. F. McCabe and Lee Brown were on the winning team last year. The other boys participating on the team this year are Clarence Walker, Hubert Hall, Lee Roy Thompson, Jack McCordle, J. N. Ellis and M. A. Webb. Mr. Shillingburg in his regular position acts as advisor to the team.

In the contest the team members are expected to be able to answer any questions having to do with parliamentary procedure. They are also expected to be able to recite the regular F.F.A. opening and closing ceremonies and the ceremony for the initiation of the Green Hands.
The team plans to win in the district contest at Roscoe, then repeat what they did at McCamey last year in the area contest but win first instead of fourth. After winning the area they will compete with ten more area winners for the state and then, . . . Work hard, but plan before you work.
A CALL FOR BOXERS
Boys interested in boxing in the Golden Gloves meet Truett Fulcher in the high school gymnasium, Saturday morning, at 9:00 o'clock. We would like to organize a Colorado Boxing Team, and enter a complete team in the Golden Gloves district tournament at Abilene, or either at Big Spring. This tournament is to be held later in the spring.
REV. HEYES IN ASSEMBLY
Rev. J. W. Heyes spoke to the students of CHS last Wednesday in assembly. We enjoyed his always interesting talk because it was very complimentary to us. He compared the students here with students abroad.

MRS. MARTIN PRESENTS PROGRAM
The Home Economics girls sponsored a musical program, given by Mrs. W. R. Martin of Lorraine. The program consisted of: "Alexander's Ragtime Band" Group number "Camping Out" Goodwin, Simpson "Music Maestro Please" Rhythm tap Willie Sue Nail "The Cutest Kids in Town" Kiddie Chorus "Al Tiempo Expand" Ensemble "The Christian Soldier" James Hartie "Just Whistle" . . . In connection with the state-wide observance of this week, Jan. 8-14, as Soil Conservation week, D. C. Lerner, manager of the local water facilities development of the government soil conservation service, has issued the following article:

"The second week in January has, for several years, been proclaimed as Soil Conservation Week by the Governor of Texas.

"In spite of all the jokes about making good resolutions just for the fun of breaking them, there aren't many of us who do not feel that the New Year is the time to get busy and do all the things we have been planning to do during 1938.

"All of this seems to have very little to do with the conservation of soil on our farm fields and pastures.

Soil erosion is nothing new to people who have seen their topsoil go down the creek year after year; and soil conservation isn't new to those who have tried in one way or another to stop these costly losses. As a matter of fact, efforts to curb soil erosion in this country date back to the days of George Washington.

"But in the last few years, the whole idea of soil conservation has changed. The old idea that erosion can be stopped by one measure alone has been discarded. Now we realize that the only way to keep soil on the land is to use the land as nearly as possible in the way nature intended it should be used. That means careful planning and a look ahead—and that's where the new year resolutions come in.

"Why not resolve to make 1939 a soil conservation year on your farm? That will mean finding out all you can about the subject and then planning all your farm operations for the year according to the principles of good land use. Finding out about soil conservation isn't any problem. The Department of Agriculture through the Soil Conservation Service is cooperating with farmers in applying proper soil conservation methods in 14 project and 32 soil conservation camp areas in Texas.

"Keeping your resolution to operate on a conservation basis during 1939 may be a bit difficult, but it'll pay dividends in the long run. It might involve some reorganization of your fields—some new fence lines, or terraces and strip-crops. But there's a good reason for every change you may have to make, as you will find out by talking it over with your county agent or one of the men attached to a Department of Agriculture demonstration project.

"Thousands of farmers in every section of the country made 1938 a soil conservation year and most of them are mighty glad they did.

"Finally, while we're talking about a look ahead, let's take a good long one—into the next generation and the one after that. Then consider the soil for what it is—a resource on which your children and theirs will rely just as completely as you do. Whatever you do to conserve that asset will benefit them as well as you. All in all, a resolution to look into the matter of soil conservation will be an easy and interesting one to keep. It's a safe bet. You will want to keep the other one too, and put your farm on a conservation basis during all the new years after that."

LORAINÉ REPORTS CHEESE FACTORY PRACTICALLY SURE

NEARLY 100 STOCKHOLDERS AT MEETING HELD ON MONDAY NIGHT

LORAINÉ—The farmers cooperative cheese factory to be established in Lorainé was practically assured in a meeting of stockholders here Monday night. Nearly 100 stockholders attended the meeting and were enthusiastic about the possibilities and agreed to personally solicit other farmers in their neighborhood in an effort to secure enough stockholders to assure an ample milk supply to make the plant a paying proposition. Their goal is not less than 300 stockholders in this area which takes in Mitchell, Bexary and Nolan counties. Approximately 200 farmers have already subscribed for stock which is being sold at $1 per share with a minimum of 25 shares. $10 of the amount is to be paid in cash when the organization is completed, and the balance to be paid within two years may be paid out of products sold to the plant.

The stockholders are to make a united effort during the next two weeks to secure more stockholders. Another meeting is to be held at the high school building here Monday night, January 23, at which time the organization is hoped to be completed. Farmers throughout the area, whether they have bought stock or not, are invited to attend this meeting and be prepared to pay the required amount for their stock at the meeting. Products cannot be sold through the organization except by stockholders, according to the charter which has already been received by a temporary organization.

Lorainé business men and farmers in the area have been working on the proposition for several months.

ARCHDEACON HEYES TALKS AT EPIPHANY SERVICE

Taking its place as one of the most beautiful services held in Colorado during the Christmas season, Epiphany, the twelfth night after the nativity, was observed at All Saints' Episcopal church Friday evening with Archdeacon J. W. Heyes in charge.

The church was lighted entirely by light which came from 180 white tapers burning on the altar, in the windows, and all around the room. Christmas decorations were still in the church, since Epiphany marks the close of the Christmas season.

The talk made by Archdeacon Heyes, who will leave here Feb. 1 to serve the Episcopal church at Eagle Pass, follows:

"One makes a serious blunder in trying to prove that three wise men went to the Christ child and gave their gold, frankincense and myrrh. The story is a photograph of a fact. It says:

"When money and worldly possessions cause a person to make havoc of his life then the real reason is that the gold, or money, was expended unwisely. It is not true, declares the Epiphany story, that money is the root of all evil. The evil came about because it was used by men who were not adopting a wise use."

"The Epiphany story says: 'In-cense symbolises man's possible growth. We are destined to evolve daily until we finally awake in Christ's likeness. Wise men ask: Grow old along with me: the best is yet to be.'

"But in this hard, old world there are hurts, bruises and the like. We are all liable to hurt either as a result of our own sins or the sins of others. When this happens, then comes, if we live a little wisely the wise disposition to do our best, to pour the myrrh on the hurts and the cuts. Wise people will be quick to learn that Jesus depends on them for the healing; they must be His agent.

"Yes, the story is, at heart, a true one. The multitude of lights in this church are symbols of the desire of the church to bring light on how to use money, the need for constant spiritual improvement and the necessity for healing forgiveness when hurts have come."

The Tigers rolled up an early lead and never let up. When the whistle ended the game, the big boys from Snyder had the big end of a 35-17 score.

Coming home Friday the Wolf cage machine took a 17-12 victory from the Sweetwater Mustangs.

We couldn't tell who the best player was, because everyone was getting his share of the tackles, but we did find out who was the most popular, his name was called by some one all the time, he wasn't high point man, and he didn't make a point. Yes, that's right it was the referee.

We wonder why some boys: Carry all their real estate under their fingernails? That kind of business ability leaves a dirty impression. Think that toothbrushes and toothpaste are just something you read about? 50,000 ads can't be wrong.

Wait until 7:55 to make an eight o'clock date and then expect us to think we are first choice? We know some good jokes, too.

Tell us about the blonde menace they had a date with last night? You still know where she lives, don't you? Push and shove, back-slap, and otherwise asset their brute strength? Tarzan stuff went out with Weismuller.

Call us babes, skirts, and toots? Maybe they'd like to be called bozos, dopes, and galoots!

PARALYSIS FIGHT CAMPAIGN IS ON

NEW YORK — Mobilization of county and city chairmen has been speeded up in Texas in the intensified "Fight Infantile Paralysis" campaign and organization of the state soon will be completed, Keith Morgan, chairman of the committee, for the celebration of the President's birthday, announced today.

During the past several days a good number of additional chairmen have been appointed for the various counties. County chairmen already enrolled are working feverishly to perfect their campaign units Mr. Morgan said.

Gratified over the splendid progress made George V. Riley, National Director of organization, declared:

"Actually organization has outstripped information. We are receiving an enthusiastic response to our invitations to serve.

"One of our major concerns at the moment is to supply chairmen already appointed with information about the drive to raise funds to fight the 'maiming death'."

BUSES CREDITED WITH HIGH DAILY AVERAGE OF ATTENDANCE IN SCHOOLS OF WESTBROOK

Bus transportation for pupils is credited by Ira D. Lauderdale, superintendent of Westbrook schools, with the high percentage of average attendance which has been maintained in his school system this year. Figures recently compiled by Lauderdale show the average daily attendance to be 87% of the total enrollment. Based on the scholastic enrollment, this percentage would be much higher, for at Westbrook there is the unique situation of more pupils enrolled than there are scholastics in the district and transfers from without the district. The schools have 327 students enrolled this year. The scholastic enrollment for the district is 197, and transfers number 121, making a total scholastic enrollment of 318, nine less than the actual enrollment. An average of 285 students are in attendance daily. Grammar grades have 186 enrolled with an average daily attendance of 156, or 84%. The high school average is 91%, there being 141 enrolled with a daily attendance averaging 129. The average teacher pupil load for the school is 27.2 pupils per teacher. Two hundred and seventeen pupils ride Westbrooks four buses. Of these 196 attend Westbrook school, and 21 are dropped at Carr. Those who attend Westbrook are divided as follows: Iatan, 42; Carr, 50; Spade, 45; Conaway, 40; Westbrook, 19.

OTTO JONES MADE
FRONTIER ROUND-UP

RANCHMAN SUCCESSOR TO LATE EARL GUNN; SAM
WULFJEN ELECTED TO
VICE-PRESIDENCY

Otto F. Jones, manager of the Renderbrook ranch in Mitchell county, was elevated to the presidency of the Colorado City Frontier Round-up association when directors of the organization met Friday afternoon.

Jones, formerly vice-president of the association, succeeds Earl H. Gunn, Col-Tex refinery superintendent, who died Dec. 14.

Elected vice-president in Jones' place was Sam Wulfjen, also a Mitchell county ranchman. Another director to take Wulfjen's place will be named at a board meeting in the near future. Earl Hammond continues as secretary-treasurer of the association, with Harold Bennett and H. B. Spence, manager of the Colorado chamber of commerce as his assistants.

Directors in addition to Jones, Wulfjen, and Hammond are Irwin Terry, C. C. Thompson, and P. K. Mackey, Mackey a general chairman of all committees.

HUNDREDS OF ROSES,
SHRUBS, AND TREES
ORDERED BY C OF C

Orders for over 1,000 rose bushes and over 300 shrubs and trees to be placed in yards and parks of Colorado and Mitchell county have already been handled through the Colorado chamber of commerce, according to H. B. Spence, manager, and additional orders are being made up rapidly.

Handling such orders on a wholesale price, non-profit basis is one way in which the chamber of commerce encourages city and county beautification. Spence points out. The organization has cooperated in this way for a number of years.

Those wishing to order roses, shrubs, or trees of any kind in any quantity should contact the chamber of commerce office as soon as possible, according to Spence.

WORK STARTED ON FARM-TO-MARKET
ROADS OF COUNTY

IMPROVEMENTS APPROVED FOR FOUR LOCATIONS IN PRECINCT ONE

Work has been started on two of the four farm-to-market road projects recently approved by the WPA for precinct one of Mitchell county, according to Jack Smith, precinct commissioner.

The four projects will total $13,417, with the WPA furnishing $8,768 and the county $4,649.

Fifty men are at work on the two projects now underway, one group on the Seven Wells road, the other on the Sterling City road. Bill Cravy and John Clark are in charge. Work on the Sterling City road will include leveling of a hill just south of the Morgan creek bridge and straightening of the road approaching the bridge from the south, Smith says. The Seven Wells work is at the south end of the Champion creek bridge. The end of the bridge is being repaired and a hill at the south approach is being cut down five feet.

The other two projects will be taken up on completion of these two. One will be a gravel and caliche surface for one mile of the Cuthbert road adjacent to highway one west of Colorado, and the other will be clay and caliche surfacing for one mile of road connecting highway 101 and the old Snyder highway a short distance north of Colorado.

FUNERAL AT BIG SPRING FOR COLORADO VICTIM OF HIGHWAY ACCIDENT

Funeral was held at Eberley chapel in Big Spring Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Belcher Nall Schubert, 35, of Colorado who died in a Colorado hospital at 9:55 Saturday night as the result of injuries sustained in a pre-dawn highway mishap west of Colorado.

Schubert was picked up by tourists after his car overturned and was brought to Colorado. He was brought to the hospital but is said to have refused to stay there, insisting that he was not hurt. Examinations did not reveal any broken bones.

About noon, however, Schubert became suddenly ill and was returned to the hospital by ambulance. He was given surgery early Saturday night, but succumbed a short while later. Death was attributed to an internal injury sustained in the accident.

Schubert, a native of Big Spring, had been working as a machinist at the Col-Tex refinery for the past six months. He is survived by his wife of Colorado; his mother, Mrs. Mamie Schubert, and three sisters, Pauline, Lillian, and Stella Schubert, all of Big Spring; and three brothers, James Schubert of Fort Worth, Robert Schubert of Santa Fe, N. M., and Arthur Schubert of St. Louis, Mo.

Funeral arrangements were made by Eberley funeral home of Big Spring. The service was conducted by Rev. G. C. Schurman, pastor of the Big Spring First Christian church, and Melvin Wise, minister of the Big Spring Church of Christ.

Episcopal church on Friday evening. . . . Archdeacon J. W. Heyes, who conducted the service, brought his photographic talent into play before the service and took an excellent picture of the candle-lit interior of the church. . . . It's been suggested that next year Colorado have a huge Christmas tree bonfire to mark the twelfth night after Christmas. . . .

Did you know that a long time ago—oh, 25 years or thereabouts—they often referred to the cottage of Thos. Dawes as the "British Embassy"? . . . We didn't until we ran across that term in our browsing among old newspapers in The Record files this week. . . .

"Firecracker serum" is Jackie Ray Ojom's "contribution" to the world of medicine. . . . That's what he declares the doctors gave him when his hand was injured by a firecracker explosion during the holidays. . . . To call it lockjaw serum would, of course, be just too unimaginative to catch the mind of a very active little boy. . . .

Thanks to R. L. Thigpen of the soil conservation service's water facilities office, The Record now has a record of Mitchell county rainfall by months for the past 50 years—way back through 1888. . . . It's an interesting thing, that rain chart, for its figures tell the silent story of a country whose well-being has always been bound up in rain or the lack of it. . . . The "fat years and the lean years" are there, pictured by a little row of decimal figures. . . . This chart will be published in The Record as soon as possible. . . . And speaking of rain, The Record appreciates the cooperation of Jim White in giving the readings from the government gauge at the city hall. . . .

"Housecleaning Time" would have been the caption we'd have put under a certain candid camera shot if we had had a camera and could have gotten the shot Monday afternoon. . . . There was Frank Kelley standing on top of a car in the alley below the Magnolia offices, wielding the business end of a broom and reaching as high on the wall of the building with the cleaning end as he could. . . . We thought, "He ought to wait until the sandstorms are over—it won't do any good to sweep that wall now." . . . About that time a letter tumbled off of a high window ledge where Mr. Kelley had been concentrating his "cleaning" efforts. . . . Then it dawned on us that we'd been wrong about the housecleaning angle, because he picked up the letter and walked off with a pleased, that's—that's right, beneath one of the Magnolia windows—evidently somebody'd been tossing notes. . . .

One of Colorado's newer residents, Norman B. Hall, Jr., employe of the Magnolia company in nearby oil fields, is said to have been an outstanding football star while attending law school at Tulane university. . . . He rated the All-Southern team one year. . . . Hall, who is a new husband as well as a new Coloradoan, grew up in Sweetwater, where his father is chief of police. . . . He and Sammy Baugh of slinging football were high school friends. . . . Hall and his wife, a former New Orleans girl, are to live in the Hatcher apartments after Jan. 20. . . .

"Fan mail" galore has come to Doris Flo Doss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Doss since her picture as FFA sweetheart of Colorado State school appeared in leading state papers recently. . . . Most interesting of all was a letter from a sailor in mid-ocean—a sailor who had never seen Texas. . . . He saw Doris Flo's picture in a paper which had been used to pad a gift package from a friend in Pensacola, Florida. . . . In his letter he pointed out that he had never written anyone he "didn't know" before. . . . This fellow evidently had the idea that she was national sweetheart of Future Farmers, or something. . . . Among other things, he wanted Doris Flo to write him all about Texas, "especially the Indians, cowboys, and ranches." . . .

No story carried by The Record in recent months has occasioned so much comment, here and elsewhere, as the one about the Cowboys' New Year ball two weeks ago. . . . It seems, however, that the story erred in stating that the ball poem, a take-off on Larry Chittenden's famous "Cowboys' Christmas Ball," was written by a Dick Lively. . . . Lively's name was the one which appeared in the author's place on the copy of the poem from which our story was written, but Mrs. R. B. Terrell has the original poem in her very interesting scrapbook, and it was, she says, written by a Bill Burr. . . . Burr was "just a cowhand" here in the early days, Mrs. Terrell says. . . .

Three Daring Adventurers Head Cast Of 'Dawn Patrol'

Back in the type of role that brought him to the forefront of the Hollywood acting ranks, Errol Flynn has the leading role in "The Dawn Patrol," coming Saturday midnight, Sunday and Monday, Jan. 14, 15, and 16 to the Palace theatre. With him are Basil Rathbone and David Niven, making up the dashing trio of war heroes, about whom the story centers.

A wartime drama of hell-for-leather British flying dare-devils, "The Dawn Patrol" gives Flynn the type of role he made popular when he first came to the attention of the American movie going public as the pirate chief in "Captain Blood." His amazing pace through such brilliant action films as "The Charge of the Light Brigade" and "The Adventures of Robin Hood" left him without equal as a swashbuckler in the film colony. Rathbone is no novice at adventuresome roles, and it was he as Sir Guy of Gisbourne who gave Flynn a run for his money in the final duelling scenes of "Robin Hood." Niven, a young Englishman whose growing popularity has placed him in great demand at the Hollywood studios, has played in several pictures with a wartime locale, and makes a perfect third for the trio, who in "The Dawn Patrol" harass the enemy at every turn with their devil-may-care flying.

Flynn has alternated his adventure roles with an occasional comedy, such as the recent hit "Four's A Crowd," or romantic drama. In this field is "The Sisters," in which Flynn, co-starring with Bette Davis, won such high plaudits from the critics that it seems likely he will have many more roles of that type. But an adventurer in his own right, the actor's own preference is for stories which give him a chance to go into action and fight a good battle. "The Dawn Patrol" is that kind of a story.

Appearing with the trio are Donald Crisp, Melville Cooper, and many others.

FIVE-STAR CAST IN NEW FILM ROMANCE

Capturing the behind-the-scenes romance, gaiety, adventure and excitement of life as it is lived at the United States Military Academy, Edward Small has lavished his talents of showmanship and entertainment on his first major film attraction for the current season—"The Duke of West Point," which comes to the Palace theatre on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 13 and 14 for its premiere showing.

Headed by a cast which includes Louis Hayward, Joan Fontaine, Richard Carlson, Tom Brown and Alan Curtis, this romantic drama tells the story of young cadets who enter a different and difficult world when they become Plebes at West Point. Recording their ups-and-downs, their personal human dramas, their prejudices and dreams, the picture is unrelentingly against authentic backgrounds which were photographed at West Point by a special camera crew.

Feeling that a picture of scope and importance deserved production values of first magnitude, Producer Small hired military and athletic experts to act as advisors throughout filming to insure absolute authenticity and accuracy in all sequences portraying the varied activities of those who actually are trained to become officers in the United States army.

"LAW WEST OF TOMBSTONE" Ritz—Friday and Saturday January 13 and 14

Different from the standard, run-of-the-mill western, this qualifies as solid entertainment that will delight followers of the wide-open spaces school and can also be counted upon to satisfy other types of theatregoers. Harry Carey returns to the outdoor characterization on which he first built his reputation. The script, treating of the lawless days of the old west, has been cannily constructed to maintain action and interest throughout. Carey, an ex-outlaw, moves to the furthest western frontier to begin life anew. Here he crosses six-guns with Tim Holt, an itchy-fingered desperado, wins him over to law and order and puts the town on a legitimate basis after plenty of galloping and gun-fighting. Love interest is handled by Holt and Jean Rouverol, a promising newcomer. Glenn Tryon directed.

Players are Harry Carey, Tim Holt, Evelyn Brent, Jean Rouverol, Paul Guilfoyle, Clarence Kolb, and Ward Bond.

GRACEY SISTERS TO BRING HOLLYWOOD PICTURE TO COLORADO AT PALACE

"The Tuttle Tugger" to Be Main Feature of All-Day Program Jan. 13 Presented by Local John Deere Dealers

Gracey Sisters, local John Deere dealer, is putting on another big John Deere Day program at Colorado on Jan. 13 for farmers and their families of this and neighboring communities.

"The Tuttle Tugger," an all-Hollywood picture, will be the main feature of the all-day entertainment and educational meeting. This picture will be shown at the Palace at 2 p.m. Packed with one hearty laugh after another, this rollicking all-talking picture promises to be a real treat for everyone who sees it. In the cast of Hollywood actors are Arthur Lake, Judith Allen, Victor Potel, Greta Meyers, Agnes Ayres, Jack Rice, Allen Caven, and many others.

The picture tells the story of a salesman and a saleslady who get their sample cases mixed up, and what a mix-up it causes! Leroy Bagley, the new milking machine salesman for the Tuttle Tugger Company, thinks he knows all about farming and tries to help the hired man. At the same time, he is trying to sell a milking machine. Every time he tries to help he causes trouble and plenty of it. It's a picture everyone will enjoy.

Four other brand-new, all-talking pictures will be shown in addition to the feature presentation. They include: "Around the Farm Clock"—an interesting, educational picture showing up-to-date power farming methods and equipment; "The Mark of the Genuine"—an instructive picture that shows how to keep farm equipment working like new down through the years; "Mr. Sheppard Looks Inside"—an inside story of the precision manufacturing of modern farm tractors, and a short newsreel showing new developments in agricultural equipment.

In addition to the five talking pictures, the John Deere Day program will include several talks and demonstrations in which you will be interested.

Gracey Sisters cordially invites every farmer, every farmer's wife, and every farm boy in this area to take part in this big day of entertainment and education.

Plans are being made to make this open house one of the big events of the year in this community. Many new ideas will be presented during the day which will be valuable to everyone present. According to Gracey Sisters, admission will be by ticket only, and any farmer who has not received tickets can get them for the asking at the store any time before the show. Call at Gracey Sisters any time before 2 p.m. for your tickets.

This will be an all day John Deere demonstration. The John Deere Hammer Mill will be demonstrated Friday morning and free lunch will be served at 1 o'clock. Lunch and demonstration at Gracey Sisters, corner 3rd and Hickory.

CARR NEWS

The J. W. Claxtons moved on the W. H. Putman farm Saturday.

Norman McMahan and Sybil and Alta Mae Claxton visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Putman Sunday evening.

For the most part Carr residents were glad to stay home last week and play host to that welcome visitor, rain.

CARR GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Carr Girl Scouts met Thursday afternoon and hiked over to see Mrs. Tom Grant. Mrs. Grant is recovering very fast. The girls sang while Mrs. Halbert played the ukulele. Then the Scouts hiked back to the clearing near Aubrey Reeses, built a large camp fire, ate their lunches, roasted marshmallows, and sang. After eating, the girls had a campfire investiture ceremony in which Una Wagner, Viola Turner, Myrtle Turner, Mrs. Halbert, and Mrs. Kay Morris received their Girl Scout pins. Then the girls visited and sang for Shirley Ann Rees, who was sick last week.

OUR NEW DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Trnett Barber was sworn in as our new district attorney and his first experience was in the District Court at Sweetwater last week. Barber was examining a juror: "Do you know anything about this case?" he asked. "No."

"Have you heard anything about it?"
"No."
"Have you read anything about it?"
"No, I can't read."
"Have you formed any opinion about the case?"
"What case?"
"Accepted," said Barber.

A juror petitioned the court to be excused and in his plea to Barber he said, "I owe a man fifty dollars that I borrowed, and he is leaving town today. I want to catch him before he gets to his train, and pay him the money."

"You are excused," said Barber in a very cold voice. "I don't want anybody on the jury who can lie like that."

The sheriff speaking to Barber about a man being examined as a juror said, "This man is a lawyer in the daytime and a burglar at night." Barber asked, "Which was he arrested for?"

Another man was being examined for the jury when he said, "I couldn't serve as a juror, judge. One look at that fellow convinces me he is guilty." "Sh-h-h," said Judge Mauzey. "That fellow you are looking at is the new District Attorney."

In his office a debt collector called and said, "Shall I call tomorrow?" Barber said, "Yes, call twice if convenient, folks will think you are a client."

Barber asked a convicted woman in the court if she would waive her right to appeal, when the husband spoke up and said, "Don't let her have no more rights, Mr. District Attorney, that's how I got this black eye."

Court finally adjourned and Judge Mauzey invited Barber home with him for dinner. During the table hour was this conversation: "Why did this is roast beef?" exclaimed Willie. "Of course," said the Judge, "what of that?" "Why you told mother this morning that you were going to bring an old muttonhead home for dinner this evening."

Armistice day and the holidays are past and we now pay tribute to:
THE GOLD STAR MOTHER

Rocking before a fire sits a gray haired figure watching the dancing flames with the same sorrow-furrowed face, no matter in what corner of the earth she may be. America, England, France, Germany, Netherlands, South Africa, Australia, Japan, China, Russia, it is always the same.

She is the Gold Star Mother, mother of the men who inhabit those snow-covered mounds in Belgium, Flanders, France, Russia, Northern Italy. Mother of the men whose graves on the shores of Turkey are wetted by the waters of the blue Mediterranean and dried by the blazing sun. Mother of those men over whose bones swim the fishes of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, Baltic and Black seas. Mother of those men who grope through life sightless, mother of those legless and armless ones. Mother of those who cough out their lives with remnants of lungs. Mother—may God forbid—of daughters who will take their place at the fire.

Sitting alone there by the fire she hears once again the joyous peal of bells which commemorate the 1938th anniversary of the birth of Christ. From the street comes the sound of voices—youthful voices—singing "Peace On Earth."

Suddenly the bells are drowned out by the roar of cannon, the shrill staccato of machine guns, and the viperous hiss of rifles, the youths' song of Good Will Toward Men has turned to a hymn of hate.

In the land of the Good Earth, the mother sees her sons fall. In this land of beautiful women and gay colors, the women are fast aging with grief and the somber black of mourning is the predominant color with these Gold Star Mothers. Kites belonging to fallen sons are reverently put away and in foreign countries incense burns perpetually at the altar of the Great God Buddha.

At a season of the year when all should rejoice how strange it is that there should be so much sorrow, the dove of peace has red spots of blood on his feathers. The only will men know is the iron-mailed fist of the militarist. Fighting, ceaseless fighting, flow of never-ending stream of human blood. Is this the proper way to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace?

Man, when you buy your son a toy gun, a mechanical tank or set of lead soldiers, or when you have partaken of a little too much Ulysses spirits and you boast of your military deeds on the past battlefield, forget not those gray-haired and solitary figures rocking there before the fire.

Remember these words, "Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men."

A SALES TAX

A state 2 per cent sales tax is the best means of providing money for the old-age pensions, and reducing the state debt, which is now about $19,000,000. Most of the states now have a sales tax. California has a 3 per cent sales tax and pays the aged $30 per month. It does not have a bunch of 500 or 600 politicians to manipulate the pension funds.

Texas has some members of the Legislature who, in defense of the rich, claim that a sales-tax is a burden on the backs of the poor, which is absurd, as the poor buy but little. Besides there are thousands of state and federal employees in Texas who draw large salaries, live on the fat of the land, dwell in fine homes, own no real estate and pay no taxes. The sales tax would catch this class of citizens, who are now immune from paying taxes. Should Texas enact the sales tax law, and abolish a number of those useless boards, commissions and bureaus, there would be sufficient money to pay the $30 per month and soon pay off the state debt.

DOING GOOD

We read in the Scriptures that the "Master went about doing good." A close reader of this column asked us to write and explain what was meant by this quotation and we will explain.

If I were to start out to do "good" it would be essential that I inculcate into my very being the example and teachings of the greatest "Doer of good." He who went about some nineteen hundred years ago "doing good."

I would make every effort possible individually and through worthy organizations to help relieve the suffering of the human body physically, mentally and spiritually. All organizations which look after the welfare of the orphans, the aged, the blind, the deaf-and-dumb, and the lame would have my full support. I would encourage any move for free medical service to those who are financially unable to pay.

I would go about speaking words of comfort, sympathy, understanding, and good cheer to those mentally, physically and spiritually down and out. Doing my part in giving and teaching. I would condemn the very appearance of evil, adultery, hatred, wrath, strife, envyings, murder, drunkenness, revellings, and any kind of selfishness.

I would have words of praise and encouragement for those who are promoting a spirit of love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, kindness, temperance and faith for the uplifting of humanity.

I would strive to be, and help others to be a good citizen. "Rendering Unto Caesar the Things that are Caesar's," upholding the laws of our land that are fair and just, and working toward the repeal of those which are destructive to the morals and betterment of our civilization.

At last, but not least I would strive for "patience" in my life, in the lives of individuals and the life of our nation. The value of patience means that one is in control of himself, that he is capable of sustained and unflinching efforts, that he has the ability to endure. Impatience proclaims a lack of confidence and a poverty of faith. We have need of patience. Almost daily there are friction, disappointments, and discouragement between people and nations. Patience is therefore priceless.

It is said that the mills of the gods grind slowly, but they do grind. Evil will one day be defeated. The ultimate reign of righteousness is the focal point toward which creation moves.

If I were to "do good" I would sum it up in these words: "Whatever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," and in so doing you will "Love your neighbor as yourself," and so fulfill the teachings of Him "who went about doing good."

ANCIENT HISTORY

Written for the History Class at the High School
GREAT LEADERS OF LATER-TIMES

Naturally one must wonder how, in such an early period of man's development, such men as Moses and a number who followed him could have been possessed of the marvelous intellects they had. Without discussing the merits of David, Solomon, Isaiah, and others of their time, we come on down to the great and good of a few centuries preceding the birth of Jesus of Nazareth.

China furnished the world Lao Tzu and Confucius 600 B. C. India gave to it Buddha, of whom it is said that only Jesus of Nazareth was superior in goodness. In the Sixth Century B. C. Persia, or Iraq, produced Zoroaster, or Zarathustra.

Egypt must be credited with having furnished a number of wise men, as suggested in the Bible when Stephen alludes to Moses as being "learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians." Euclid also was from Egypt, said to have been a native of Alexandria, although of Grecian parentage. Then there were the Ptolemies, all great men. These included the first Ptolemy, whose name was Claudius Ptolemaeus, who was an astronomer and geographer; Ptolemy I, known by his surname, Soter, or Preserver. However, he was a Macedonian, and one of Alexander's Generals, and when Alexander's possessions were divided after his death at Babylon in 323 B. C., Egypt fell to him. Another was Ptolemy II, surnamed Philadelphus. He was fond of the arts and literature, and added to the possessions of the Alexandrian library all the works he could secure. Some say it was by his order that the Hebrew Scriptures were translated into Greek and the Septuagint was formed.

GREECE SUPPLIED MANY MENTAL GIANTS

But it was reserved for Greece to supply the largest number of the intellectually great beginning with Thales of Miletus (640 B. C.) and including many others noted for their titanic minds.

There was Socrates (470 B. C.) and his brilliant pupil Plato. Then Plato's wonderful pupil, Aristotle. We could not omit Pythagoras, one of the three Greeks who first suggested the principles of the Copernican theory as to the movement of the heavenly bodies. Also Anaxagoras, who was denounced because he said that the sun, moon and other celestial bodies were composed of earth, stone and so on. Democritus was the jolly old philosopher who was first to suggest the atomic theory as to matter. He is called by many scientists of today the Father of Science. To these might be added more than a dozen others. Aristotle, Plato's student, was one of the greatest minds of all time. For several centuries he ruled the intellectual world, while Ptolemy held sway in the scientific field up to Galileo. These were marvelous men, although they made many mistakes.

Notwithstanding Rome was given more to militarism than to philosophy and the arts, Italy produced a number of men, who thought of something other than war and the conquering of nations. For example, Marcus Aurelius was both Emperor and philosopher, and was called "the flower of the Stoic philosophers." Epictetus was one of the wisest of all time. He was influenced largely by Marcus Aurelius. Giordano Bruno, scientist and philosopher was one of Italy's great men, for which he was burned at the stake. Cicero, who was well known for his oratory, was also a philosopher.

WHO WAS REALLY GREATEST

There is an interesting question for ethnologists, bacteriologists, philosophers and historians to puzzle over as to the great of the past and present. This question emerges as we consider man's history and achievements. It obtrudes itself upon us when we undertake to make comparison between the great of Moses' day and those of the present time.

The question is: Do not the achievements of those of ancient days overshadow those of today, when we consider the advantages and opportunities of the present as compared with those of several millenniums ago?

Because of the disparity of opportunity between ancient and modern man—between that of Moses' day and that furnished today through scientific discovery and invention—do not the accomplishments of the ancient ones exceed in magnitude and skilled execution those of today?

Opportunity in this sense includes the recorded accumulation of knowledge, scientific discovery and invention? Certainly the ancients were our equals in such works as they undertook. The marvel of their works consisted more in their conception and the skill with which their plans were executed, since they knew nothing of many facts now known to Science.

EVERY PHASE OF WORK RELATED TO FARMING INDUSTRY REPRESENTED IN BASKIN'S REPORT

Every phase of work related to the farming industry in West Texas is represented in the annual report recently submitted by B. J. Baskin, Mitchell county farm agent. Baskin's work in connection with the government farm program led him to dealings with 1,226 farmers and 61 ranchers. Through his office $430,000 in benefits were paid to these farmers and ranchers. During the year Baskin worked with 46 club boys, guiding them in the raising of maize and cotton and the feeding of livestock. Twenty-six of his boys went to the district encampment, and one, Garland Strain, attended the State Fair 4-H encampment. As representative of the Texas A. & M. Extension service, Baskin sponsored the organization of the Mitchell County Game Management Association for the purpose of propagating and conserving wild life. The association now includes 69 farmers and ranchmen controlling 252,000 acres of land. He assisted in holding the first organized fat stock show of the Mitchell County Fat Stock Show association. At this show 46 calves, 4 barrows, and the grand champion lamb were sold at auction. The show was one of the few in Texas held entirely under cover. Soil and water conserving work have claimed much of Baskin's time during the year. His report along these lines includes these notations: Terraced 1,494 acres of farm land; ran contour lines on 180 acres of pasture line and contour lines for ridges on 80 acres; staked off 12 dam sites impounding 97 acre feet of water with 23 surface acres; furnished engineering on spreader dam containing 900 cubic yards of dirt and connecting with a spreader terrace that irrigates 110 acres of grass land; assisted the government soil conservation service and the Farm Security Administration in setting up a local water facilities office and holding educational meetings on the designated watersheds. In addition to these activities the report covers various phases of work as follows: Assisted 25 men in filling trench silos; worked in an advisory capacity with the Farm Security Administration's tenant purchase program; assisted vocational agriculture teachers of the county in organizing a registered hog breeders' association; secured a supply of wilt resistant maize seed for five pure-line seed breeders, who will furnish their neighbors with an adequate supply of such seed within 12 to 24 months; tion service employes, Farm Security Administration supervisors, and extension workers. In line of duty during the year Baskin received 18,972 office calls and 5,531 office calls, made four radio talks, made 242 farm visits, wrote 177 news articles, mailed 1,701 individual letters and 74 form letters.

TWO MITCHELL FARMERS AMONG FIRST THREE WEST TEXANS TO GET APPROVAL ON APPLICATIONS FOR WATER FACILITIES

Two Mitchell county farmers were among the first three West Texans to be granted loans under the government water facilities program which is being administered by the Soil Conservation Service and the Farm Security Administration.

Approvals for the water facilities applications of Arthur Shepherd and Robert Barkley, both of near Lorraine in Mitchell county, have been announced by Louis P. Merrill, regional conservator for the Soil Conservation Service, and C. M. Evans, regional director of the FSA.

The third approved application was for Rice G. Alvis of Haskell county.

The loan made to Barkley, who farms 80 acres located eight miles northwest of Lorraine, will cover installation of a windmill, a farm water storage reservoir and pipe to be used for irrigation of a one-acre vegetable garden. Barkley will follow a farm and home management program, and under terms of the loan he will use conservation practices on his 68 acres of cultivated land. He will practice pasture improvement and controlled grazing on 10 acres of pasture land.

Shepherd, who also has an 80-acre farm near Lorraine, has been granted a loan to be used for the construction and installation of a windmill and tower, farm water storage reservoir, tile for garden irrigation, well equipment, and a stock farm.

Work of installing these improvements will be done through the soil conservation office in Colorado, D. C. Lerner being in charge. The water facilities program applies to the watersheds of Lone Wolf, North Champion, and South Champion creeks in Mitchell county, and to four other watershed areas in West Texas.
