The onclusions justified by the experience of the majority of these men may be summed up as follows:

In certain bodily conditions and when carefully administered, alcohol is a valuable drug, but it is at present used much too freely, and with harmful results. Its use as a daily bever age in any form is dangerous, physically and morally. As an illustration on another one. of its medicinal use, Sir Samuel Wilkes cites the following case: "A young lady for many years the subject of heart disease had finally been forced to take to her bed, and Dr. Wlikes was called in consultation.

It was a matter of formality as she was thought to be dying. "She was lying in bed gasping, with a fluttering heart and an almost imperceptible, irregular pulse, and semiconscious; she was being plied with ent did not perceive that they were sed by leading physicians as the BEST remedy for Children's Croup and Whooping Cough because it contains NO OPIATES. The action of Ballard's Horehound Syrup is mild and benign, it is adapted to infants, as well as adults of every variety of temperament and constitution.

Read This Remarkable Testimonial. MRS. B. W. EVANS, Clearwater, Kas., writes:--"My husband was sick for three months and the doctors told me he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. He is now a well man, but we always keep a bottle in the house, and think it has no equal for pulmonary diseases." Easy to Take; Sure to Cure; Every Bettle Guaranteed.
