In the list of graduates of Texas schools and colleges there is a great preponderance of girls, the proportion being at least two girls to one boy. The sins of the ancient in dooming the woman to ignorance are more than compensated for by the propensity of people on earth to educate the girl and let the boy hustle for himself. Right thinking people are willing to give the girls the best of it in the battle of life, but it is wise to educate the girls and let the boys grow up in ignorance. If the boys are not educated, the girls must marry ignorant husbands, if they marry at all, and they usually do. And as the man is usually looked upon as the protector and provider, it would appear that he should have at least an even break with his wife as regards an education. Unless the present generation wishes to follow the injunction contained in the song and "let the women do the work," it should see to it that more of the boys are put in school and kept there.—Dallas Times-Herald.

SUBURBAN POINTS OF MEXICO CITY.

Mexico City has one of the finest street car systems in the world. At any hour of the day or night you can get a car at the Zooclo and go for a long ride to the country, thru beautiful scenery. There are usually two cars together, the front one is first-class and costs six cents fare, while the back one is second-class and costs three cents fare. There is so much more of the custom of east in Mexico than in our own country. A similar system is kept up with the coaches, only there are three grades of coaches, the blue coach is for the aristocrat, or rather the showy people; the red coach is for the middle class or practical class of people and is the popular coach, almost all Americans use the red coach. The yellow coach, or third class, is used chiefly by the poor Mexicans. Between the service of the street cars and the coaches which are ever present, a little trouble in finding a means of transportation to any point.

I took the ride to Tacabaya several times and spent one-half day visiting the points of interest and enjoying walks thru the parks and shaded streets. Here, as everywhere in Mexico, are lovely flowers and luxuriant trees. It seems in keeping with the fitness of things for the wealthiest people of Mexico to have chosen Tacabaya for their summer homes. I spent some time and patience trying to find the Arbol Esclito, the blessed tree. There is a story that a Monk passing that way was wearied and so rested was under the grateful shade that he blessed the tree and bade it be always green. Immediately there came from its roots a spring of cold, clear water. That this is true, you see that the tree is always green and the brook goes on forever. Tacabaya has been very aptly called the Monte Carlo of Mexico. On the streets under the trees, in the parks and in the gardens are tables for almost every gambling game. One can wager a penny or a peso or many pesos. The tables are always crowded, especially in the evenings when the stakes are high, then as much as twenty thousand dollars may be seen on the table at one time. Besides the various gambling games are the bull fights and cock fights so much enjoyed by the Mexicans.

Atzacapalco is at the terminus of another delightful street car ride. This place had such a multitude of inhabitants that it received this unpronounceable name which means "ant hill." Atzacapalco antedates the conquest by many hundred years, and has kept its identity all the time. This was the famous slave market during the days of the Aztecs, now, however it has dwindled to a village whose inhabitants are potters and vendors of vessels; yet the same beautiful plaza, with lovely flowers, shade trees and sweet music are here as in other Mexican towns.

One of the most interesting points to visit near Mexico City is the church of Guadalupe, the holiest shrine of all Mexico and its legend the prettiest of all legends. The story goes that an Indian, Juan Diego, passed around this hill on his way to mass. One morning he was frightened by the sweet music of singing voices and at the same time the appearance of a lady who bade him hear what she might say. She wished him to go to the bishop and tell him that it was her will that a temple be built upon that hill in her honor. Poor Juan Diego delivered the message, but the bishop was incredulous, again the Indian went to the same spot, as the mysterious lady had bidden him do and received the same message and delivered it the same way, this was repeated for the third time when the bishop commanded a token of the truth of her command. Juan Diego was delayed this time on account of the illness of his uncle, but when going for a confessor, he met the strange lady who told him that his uncle was not well. He told her that the bishop's command, she bade him gather flowers from the barren rocks, the flowers at once sprang up and he carried them wrapped in his tilma to the bishop. When he dropped them at the bishop's feet, there appeared on the tilma an image of Virgin, Holy Mary, in the most beautiful colors. From the place where the Virgin stood, a spring of clear, cold water gushed forth, a panacea for the ill that but her flesh is heir to. As proof of this story the tilma with the Virgin's picture on it still hangs over the main altar of the temple, which the bishop constructed in all haste, and the spring of clear, cold water still refreshes the tourist who goes to see the exemplification of the strange story. They tell you that if you drink from this well that you'll return again. This is a very popular legend; in almost every house you'll see a picture of the "Lady Guadalupe." Almost every spot in Mexico has some legend or romance connected with it. I've only touched the many points of interest surrounding Mexico City. In addition to the variety of interests, Mexico City has the grandest climate on the globe. These nights when we are sweltering, the people there are sleeping under blankets and the days are like spring the year round. They have neither winter nor summer. The rooms are never heated and fans are never needed.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

Mrs. S. J. Sweeney, the state superintendent of the evangelistic department of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Texas, closed one of the grandest meetings of her life last night, August 13, in Indian Gap. The meetings began at 11 a. m. the 6th. Two were held each day at 11 a. m. and at night. Every one was well attended and the little school house could not hold all who came at night. People came in wagons and buggies from all over the county and the surrounding counties. Never had Mrs. Sweeney seen so many children and young people in proportion to the size of the audiences.

Mrs. Patterson, state superintendent of Systematic Giving, came from Oklahoma City to assist in the singing, Miss Lula Reed, state treasurer of the W. C. T. U., from Beaumont played on the organ. Mrs. Patterson sang some beautiful solos accompanied with the autoharp. These ladies besides leading the music, played, talked, took collections and did everything to make the meeting a success.

Four denominations took active part and all sectional differences were forgotten in the great desire to bring sinners to Christ. Mrs. Stoddard had been praying and preparing for this meeting several weeks and everything was in readiness the first day. Some had never heard a woman speak, and were doubtful about the propriety of it, but all confessed that Mrs. Sweeney was where the hand of God had placed her. A children's meeting was held, which was especially fine. When asked who wanted to be Christians and would give their hearts and lives to God, about sixteen gave their hands in token of this determination.

Every Wednesday the W. C. T. U. met in the school house at 4 p. m. and the L. T. U. at 5 p. m. This hour was taken up with a woman's meeting. The last day at 4 p. m. Sunday, a men's meeting was held. Miss Reed and Mrs. Patte on made special preparation with the songs, and it was a wonderful meeting. Strong men wept and gave their hands promising to be Christians. Some who had known the love of God came back with songs of rejoicing. The people of Indian Gap have an idea that the singing of the W. C. T. U. temperance pledge is the first step towards being a Christian and the pledges were presented several times, and many signed. The oldest inhabitants of Indian Gap say there never was such a meeting here. The silent, eager, earnest expression on the people's faces showed that the Holy Spirit was there, and all felt his influence. Mrs. Sweeney is delighted with the results, but she urges the Christians to care for the young converts. Surely the Lord has visited the people of Indian Gap.

MULLIN.

Editor Eagle:
After a few days illness, I am again able to wield my pen sufficiently to write a few of the events in and around Mullin since my last writing.

Some changes occurred in the business circles of Mullin last week. Felix Johnson sold to Schuler Eikner his grocery business and purchased Mr. Eikner's residence property. Another change will probably take place the first of September.

John Stearns has sold his home to a party at Santa Anna and has moved his family to the Harris residence.

T. H. Lovelace and W. A. Short attended the association at Big Valley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Hancock returned home Sunday from Brownwood, where they visited with their children, Mr. and Mrs. John Hancock, and also attended the reunion.

Berney Eaton is at home from Winchell for a few days.

Mullin has become a musical town. Prof. Ferrell and his pupils make air melodious with their voices during the day, while the brass band, fully equipped with superb musical instruments, rings forth a jubilant sound in the evening.

Miss Stanton of Granger and Miss Cook of Goldthwaite, the pleasant guests of Miss Erma Harrison, left Tuesday morning for their respective homes.

Mrs. J. A. Rogers, after two weeks visit to her sister at Rosebud, returned home Saturday evening. Her little son met with a frightful accident while away; a dog bit the little fellow on the cheek, making an ugly wound, which is, however, healing. This misfortune was a sad ending of a most delightful visit.

N. J. Tyson and daughter, Miss Nodie, Ella V. White, Mrs. Dave Gentry and children, Misses Bertha and Betsy Boler had a pleasant drive to Duran Sunday afternoon expecting to attend preaching, but in this was disappointed, as there was no service.

Walter Barker, accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Vogel, of Cameron, returned home Saturday from a visit to Rosebud and other points.

Archer Rogers has been off on a visit to relatives. He came in Sunday singing in his heart, "Home, sweet home."

Mr. Kittle, sr., of Comanche county, father of B. P. Kittle and Mrs. Aaron Little, is having a happy visit with his children this week.

Tuesday Carey Vaughn met with a painful and quite serious accident. In assisting N. J. Tyson to rope a wild horse Mr. Vaughn received a blow from the knotted end of a rope, which resulted in the loss of one of his eyes. He has many sympathizers.

Mrs. Z. D. Kemp is suffering from rheumatism; as soon as she is better will visit her mother and other relatives at Hutto.

M. C. Kirkpatrick visited Goldthwaite Monday.

Miss Hattie White is on the sick list this week.

The most notable event of the week was the fishing party, who spent several days at Weems' crossing, returning Saturday afternoon in ecstasies over the charming time they had on their trip. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Wood, chaparrone; Miss Erma Harrison and her lovely guest, Miss Stanton, the honoree of that blissful occasion; Misses Lizzie Cook, Lora Hudson, Maude and Hattie White, Nellie Kirkpatrick and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Prof. S. J. Broes, Willie Kirkpatrick and Charlie Hancock. They left Mullin early Wednesday morning and rested an hour or two at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, who were invited to join them on their trip, but could not in consequence of the serious illness of Mrs. Roberts' mother. They left these good friends with a supply of fine melons. Not far from their destination they met Prentiss Ballard, a former friend and schoolmate of some of the young ladies; he was with them the greater part of their stay and added very much to the enjoyment of the party, he furnished a boat, etc. The denizens of the water related every tempting bait thrown out, so the fish fry was a failure to the disappointment of all, especially Mr. Wood, who worked faithful to capture some of them. The well filled lunch boxes were a fine offset to the fish and all fared sumptuously at every meal.

Miss Julia Kemp came up to Mullin Monday evening and spent the night with Mrs. Skaggs. Tuesday morning she made the return of Prof. Ferrell's pupils and also of D. R. McCormack's residence.

CONFEDERATE MEETING.

Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans held a meeting last Saturday to close the business of the late reunion and to balance the camp's accounts for the fiscal year. It was shown that $353.30 had been paid out and that the camp still had $46.06 in bank and had an indebtedness of $151.25. It is an exceedingly fine showing, for the camp owns beautiful grounds, a large auditorium, a well, windmill and surface tank. The grounds are all fenced and cleared of undergrowth. This is valuable property and with a little more than $100 the entire indebtedness will be canceled.

The action of Jeff Davis camp in purchasing these grounds and making permanent improvements has stimulated other camps to take similar action.

PRIDDY.

Editor Eagle:

As the writer for this community has been silent for some time I will endeavor to send in a few of the latest happenings.

The Baptist revival closed Saturday night at a week's continuation. There were several conversions and three additions to the church.

Some will have cotton to pick soon, as early cotton is opening very rapidly.

Doc Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Davis, died at the family home, near Mountain creek, Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. He had been a sufferer with some head affection for some time and about three weeks before his death he was stricken with typhoid and malarial fever, which caused his death. He was a devoted Christian and a member of the Missionary Baptist church. His remains were interred in the Newburg cemetery Sunday evening. He leaves a host of friends who extend to the bereaved relatives of the young man their undivided sympathy.

Alice, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hopper, has been very sick this week but hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery.

C. R. Willis and Charlie Shultz left Monday for Panhandle where they will spend some time prospecting.

Mrs. Charles Fluenger has been quite sick for several days, but am glad to report she is now convalescent.

T. R. and G. W. Priddy are contemplating a trip to Schleicher county in a few days. THE MAID.

PAYNE.

Editor Eagle:

Miss Katie Conely, of Palestine, is visiting W. T. Carwell and family and other friends and acquaintances at Payne.

Bird Carwell has a new boy that his grandpa says is the finest one in Mills county.

Cub Stephens' wife has returned from a visit to Mississippi and says times were hard where she visited and crops poor on account of too much rain.

Texas.

most appreciated friends, was here
from Center City Monday.

W. B. Wilson was one of the prosperous farmers of Jones Valley who

Big Valley and attend to some business matters.

J. J. Mills came in from Belton
Sunday to spend the day with relatives and accompanying Mrs. Mills and the children home.

Mrs. E. J. Crews has returned to her home at McMurk from a visit to New Mexico. Capt. Crews is still there and is improving in health.

Eugene Thompson is holding down,
in an able manner, the editorial tripode of the Tribune under Mr. Perry's absence.—Temple Mirror.

Commissioner J. F. Jones called one day this week and ordered the Eagle sent to his son, W. W. Jones, at Center City.

Mrs. Perkins, a Missionary Baptist preacher, has an appointment to preach in Rock Springs school house Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All who will attend will be welcome.

Davis of Cook county, J. D.
Jamison of Hill county, M. R.
Clifford of Haskell county, G. M.
Gagner of Scurry county.

During the session we received two telegrams inviting us to Dallas for the next state meeting.

In regard to the cotton proposition we had propositions before us from Martin & Co. of Paris, Texas, and Malcolm Graham of the Merchants' & Planters' Compress & Warehouse Co. of Galveston, Texas. We appointed a committee to investigate the cotton situation and adopt or inaugurate a plan to be submitted to the locals.

Many matters of importance came up for consideration and were thoroughly discussed by members.

At last, after four days and nights of work (we held night sessions from 8 till 10, 11 and on one occasion 2 o'clock) came the time for adjournment and we sang "God be with you till we meet again" and were led in prayer by Chaplain J. V. Lane.
It was an impressive closing to see scores of men in tears as we sang, prayed and clasped the parting hand. W. A. BAYLEY.

P. S.—In another article I will describe the sights to be seen in Waco by a country boy. W. A. B.

MONUMENT, N. M.

Editor Eagle:

Monument and the surrounding country for miles and miles is coming to the front. The rains that we have had all along the year has made this country one of the finest grazing lands in the west. The grass everywhere reminds the eastern farmer of a wheat field ready for harvesting.
Cattle and horses are as fat as ever grazed.

The prices in cattle are looking
up. One bunch of stock cattle sold at $16 around. This is a farming as well as a stock country. Every man has a feed crop such as cane, milo maize, kafir
corn, and some of them have fine corn, as good as ever was raised in Mills county. Mr. Tomlinson, an old Mills county man, (some of you Eagle readers know him) has 100 acres in cultivation. His neighbors say he will make 1,000 or 1,200 bushels of corn, 30 tons of millet and about 20 bales of cotton. In fact, his entire crop is estimated at $2500. Several others have cotton. The nearest cotton gin is in Carlsbad, 75
miles, but most every one trades
either in Midland or Carlsbad and when going down for winter supplies it is no trouble to take a load of cotton to the gin and for the market.

The gardens are fine. Snap beans, peas, cabbage, turnips, beets, cucumbers, onions and everything that will grow anywhere in Texas grow fine here.
Everybody has plenty of vegetables, and watermelons, cantalou-pes, pumpkins and cushaws
do fine. If any of you Eagle readers are out in this part this winter call on me and I will give you pumpkin pie to eat. We have pretty flowers too, that makes a fellow feel more at home to see flowers growing in the yard and garden.

There has been several picnics
at different places in the country.
Monument celebrated the Fourth
with a barbecue.

Monument has Baptist preaching once a month, and has organized a Methodist church lately.

The Methodist just closed a week's meeting in Monument,
which was much enjoyed by all who attended, and a good part of the attendance lived from fifteen to thirty miles. We will have another meeting in September. So you Eagle readers see this is not such a heathen land as it has been pictured.

I will wind up my letter by saying this country is all right for me. The wood question has always been the hardest problem, but last winter was one of the coldest winters that we ever had,
and we fared well, so that wood question will not bother me so much any more.

Success to the Eagle and its
many readers. L. W. JONES

Last spring J. W. Cunningham had a horse and saddle stolen at the grounds of the Woodmen

him was a mystery at remained so up to this week when he received an unsigned letter stating his horse was in a certain pasture in Mills county near Mullin and that the saddle would be found in a thicket nearby. Mr.
Cunningham sent down and

For several weeks it has been compelled to stop trains at the Frisco crossing for the purpose of taking on and letting off passengers.

NOTHING ON THE MARKET
EQUAL TO CHAMBERLAIN'S
COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIAR-RHOEA REMEDY.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation
when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo., in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicine which equals Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy
for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by All Druggists.

A WARNING TO MOTHERS.

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather
of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to grip. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's
colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy
and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be resorted to only as a last resort for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears.
This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by All Druggists.

PRIDDY.

Editor Eagle:

After an absence of two weeks we think perhaps it would be of some interest for Priddy to be represented through the Eagle columns.

We have had considerable sickness in our community lately, mostly fever and la grip. Your scribe was not lucky enough to escape the latter.

Little Miss Alice Hopper had a serious attack of fever last week but am glad to say she is rapidly improving.

Miss Gussie Christian has about recovered from an illness of about two weeks.

Mrs. Pflueger was very sick a few days last week but is now convalescent.

Mrs. Susie Henson is reported to be very ill with fever. Hope she will soon recover.

Dock Davis, youngest son of I. H. Davis of this place, died at the family home Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. His death was not unexpected as he had been ill for several months. Every assistance that was thought necessary was given, but human power was too weak to retain him longer with loved ones here. While on his dying pillow he related to those around him that he had prepared himself a good while ago for a brighter home and that he was ready and willing to go. After the funeral service, conducted by Rev. T. J. Priddy, his remains were laid to rest in the Newburg cemetery. Dock had a host of friends and loved ones who mourn his loss, and we extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family.

The protracted meeting which was in session here last week closed Saturday night. There was to have been services Sunday at 11, but were called in on account of the funeral services. We did not have as good meeting as we expected, but we feel that God was with us and blessed us.

There was only one conversion that we had any knowledge of and three accessions to the church. All joined by experience and baptism. The baptismal exercises will take place Sunday afternoon. Our faithful pastor, Rev. C. H. Miles, conducted the meeting, and his time having recently expired, he was called and unanimously elected to serve as pastor for an indefinite length of time, and am glad to say that he accepted the call.

Euel Slack and wife of Comanche, accompanied by his mother and sister, spent a very pleasant day with the family of P. T. Willis a few days since.

Mrs. J. R. Lewis happened to a very painful accident a few days ago. She was canning fruit and in trying to adjust a lid to a glass jar the top suddenly broke and cut her wrist. Medical aid was procured immediately and the wound is doing nicely.

Since our last report J. D. Priddy and family of near Brady spent a short time here visiting friends and relatives.

Norton Windsor, formerly of this place but now of Hale county, is here visiting friends.

Joe Ellis and family attended services here Thursday night and Friday, and then left for Caradan, where they will visit relatives a few days before returning to their home at Democrat.

Messrs. Bob Willis and Charley Shultz left Sunday for a prospecting trip through the west. Vester Cunningham accompanied them as far as Comanche.

Hawley Pflueger is making preparations for the erection of a restaurant at Priddy. Glad to see our little town improving so rapidly.

Mrs. Minor and daughter, Miss Della, of Caradan were here last week making inquiries concerning a school for Miss Della.

The Cunningham annual reunion will take place today (Tuesday) at the old grounds, near Newburg.

Misses Beessie and Annie Pflueger have gone on a visit to relatives at Taylor and other places. They expect to be gone some time.

Grandma Hickey, who has been here with her daughter,

Mrs. Willie, is now at Goldthwaite visiting relatives.

August Baker, a promising young man of Priddy, has recently purchased a new trap.

Mrs. Stricklin of this place spent a part of last week near Caradan the guest of her brother, Bud Hill, and family.

Maid O' Washboard we hope to see one of your interesting letters in print this week. X

BIG VALLEY.

Editor Eagle:

Sunday was a big day in the Valley. The Mills county Baptist association met with the Big Valley church. The day was fair and at the hour announced for service the seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost. The meeting will continue this week. Bro. Bentley, a Kentucky minister, will assist Bro. Owen. Everybody seems to be concerned about religion. May God continue to pour out his rich blessings upon us.

Messrs Hashaw and Robert Weaver are on the sick list this week. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

Prof. T. E. Alvis of Roby is visiting home folks this week.

Mr. Reed and family of Llano, who have been visiting Rev. Owen and family, left for their home Monday.

Clyde Mohler and wife of Gatesville have located in our midst. We extend to them a hearty welcome.

Robert Grant of Goldthwaite made his usual visit to the Valley Sunday.

Quite a number of our young people attended the reunion at Ballinger last week.

Lee Warren went to Brownwood Thursday to visit friends and enjoy the reunion.

Some cotton picking. Mr. Perry expects to get out ten bales this and next week.

We are going to have a Farmers' Union barbecue and picnic at the Lunsford bridge on the San Saba side August 23.

Editor you are invited to and partake of the good
