VOL. 14. GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, DECEMBER 1, 1906. No. 13.

NEIGHBORING NEWS.

ITEMS CULLED FROM THE LEADING LOCAL PAPERS.

HAMILTON.
Walter Chambliss and Miss Jewel Whittington, of Blue Ridge, were married at Hamilton Monday.

Sheriff John A. McCaleb has appointed J. E. Beck as deputy. Mr. Beck has acted in the capacity for some time.

Pleas Williams and Wylie Price had a difficulty in Jonesboro last Friday, both of them being struck and badly hurt. Williams is said to be in a critical condition.

Mrs. E. E. Homes has let the contract for the rock work for the rebuilding of her two-story building lately burned on the southwest corner of the square to Will Tomlinson.

A little 4-year-old child of Alf Witaker's on the river, fell into a pot of boiling water last week and was burned so that it lived only a few days. Its mother was preparing a bath and set a kettle of water on the floor while she went for a tub, the little one following. As she returned the child ran backward falling into the kettle.

Deputy Sheriff J. E. Beck is minus a man. He lost him up near Gentry's Mill last Saturday. His name is Soroggin. He is a young man and is wanted in the Territory, we understand. He was working in the gin up at the mill and Ed went up there last Saturday and arrested him. The young man was perfectly willing to come, but wanted to go by the house and get some clean clothes. Ed went with him into the house and the young man washed his face and began hustling around while Ed was engaged in conversation with another man. Pretty soon Ed missed him and on looking for him he had disappeared. —Herald.

Ward killed hogs yesterday at home and brought the sausage meat down to the market to grind it up on the power mill and while doing so he became a little bit careless and let his hand get into the mill with the result that one finger was ground off to the first joint. Ward managed to get his hand out and stop the mill soon became unconscious. Not regain conscious he had been carried to a doctor's office and dressed.

School opened Monday with Prof. S. J. Fisher as principal, Mrs. S. E. Skaggs and Miss Kirkpatrick as assistants and Miss Erma Harrison primary teacher, with 111 pupils.

Died at the farm residence of his son-in-law, J. N. Crockett, Friday morning Mr. P. H. Briandine, aged 70 years. Mr. Briandine was in the city Thursday apparently in good health, and when death came he was seated in front of the fireplace talking with members of the family.

S. M. Gardner was a very pleasant caller at our office Saturday. He told us that he had sold his farm in the Duren neighborhood, and that he and his family were ready to leave for Aspermont, their future home as soon as the roads were passable from the recent rains.

Died, at the family residence in Mullin Friday morning, Mr. Rube Ross, aged 25 years. In February Mr. Ross with his sister, Mrs. Wallace, moved to Mullin in search of his health from Grand Rivers, Kentucky. The remains were prepared for shipment and sent to his former home in Kentucky.

A BIG DEAL.

T. J. Hamilton & Son this week sold their large mercantile interests at Star to the enterprising firm of Miller & Soules. This firm has been engaged in the hardware and grocery business for some time and Miller & Soules have been in the general merchandise business at the same place. This consolidation of business of both firms gives Miller & Soules an immense mercantile interest in this thriving town.

There is still talk of opening Parker street from J. D. Urquhart's place to the northern suburbs of the city. This street would be of vast benefit to the town in many ways, one of which is that it would make available some of the most desirable building lots in the town.

The office of the Goldthwaite National Bank has been greatly improved and beautified this week by a covering of mosaic being placed over the floor. Other improvements have been made on the interior of the building that add much to its appearance and gives evidence of enterprise and prosperity.

John D. Brown has purchased P. H. Clements' residence in this city for a consideration of $1350 and will be given possession of it Jan. 1. Mr. Clements has purchased the property on Parker street, just opposite J. D. Urquhart's home, and will likely build a modern dwelling there in the near future.

J. E. Evans was here from the Center City community one day this week and made it convenient to renew for the Great Religious Weekly. He expects to locate in New Mexico about the first of next March and his many friends here will regret to see him go.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boon entertained the young people of the town Thanksgiving night with an enjoyable reception. The reception hall, parlor and dining room were beautifully and lavishly decorated with brilliant autumn leaves. The scheme being effectively carried out in the candle shades of autumn leaves, and a large pumpkin hollowed out to represent a basket overflowing with the fruits of the harvest time. Paper plates were passed to the young men, each plate having an article of a Thanksgiving menu written on it. Each required to write a recipe of the article mentioned. If the recipe were collected and made into a cook book it would be real funny and unique. Mr. Richard Rice received the prize for his famous recipe of a pumpkin loaf. The recipe was as follows: "First get the pump, but get some one else to climb the tree for you, then put some sugar in them wrap dough around each, bake for an hour and it will be a plum 'goodie'." The bright tin plate he received will be kept unadorned, we hope for the future Mrs. Rice to try the pudding in. While the young men were thus engaged each young lady had secured a card, on which she wrote the thing she was most thankful for. Miss Kate Fairman securing the dainty little china plate for being appropriately thankful that she owned a pair of rubbers. The young ladies gave their "paper hearts" to the young men for their famous recipes to be kept as pleasant reminders of the occasion. Miss Lucia Talbert sang a beautiful solo in her usual way. Miss Lorraine Walters told about the advent of Billy Stuffles, in such a perfect imitation of a small boy telling startling things that her audience was convulsed with laughter. Misses Lois Humphries, Vallie Applewhite and Mary Lou Harris rendered delightful instrumental music. Much music was caused in matching letters of the alphabet to secure partners, to the dining room where dainty refreshments of fruit, cake and black coffee were served to the following: Misses Mary Lou Harris, Lois Humphries, Lorraine Walters, Jennie Bodin, Carrie Hardie, Clara Mae Cunningham, Vallie Applewhite, Kate Fairman, Beulah Rahl, Minnie Rahl, Lucia Talbert, Georgia Talbert, Alma Trent, Pamela Trent, Douglas Fox, Ruth Power, Kate Urbach, Poca Taylor, Lora Hudson, Lillie Martin, Eddie Kelly, Fawrie Thompson, Bea Little, Zella Prater, Mamie Campbell, Marjorie Hallquist and Messrs. PRICESTALK FOR US

When once you have made a bill with us you will be our regular customer, for we save you money on nearly every article

COMPARE AND PRICE

When once you have looked through our house and compared our goods with those offered you elsewhere we will have no trouble in selling you the good, for we knock them all out when it comes to large assortment as well as low prices. All we ask is an opportunity to prove these statements are correct in every particular. Let us show you.

THERE'S A GOOD REASON

We buy our goods in large quantities and for cash, therefore we get the lowest prices and big discounts. Again, we handle dry goods and groceries and consequently do not have to make all of our profit on any one line. Selling such an immense amount as we do, a very small profit will suffice, and is all we want.

The business men of the town have never known such prosperous times as they now enjoy. Everybody appears to have plenty of money and the bargains offered by Eagle advertisers and others find ready takers.
The bad condition of the roads has prevented travel to a considerable extent and the town has been very dull this week, as the farmers could not come to town. Very little cotton has been brought in and the gin and the public weigher have had a dull time of it.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

THE ACHES AND PAINS WILL DISAPPEAR IF THE ADVICE OF THIS GOLDTHWAITE CURE IS FOLLOWED.
A woman's back has many aches and pains. Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache; That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.
Many Goldthwaite women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. M. J. Strickland of Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "For several years I have suffered with a constant ache and misery in my back. It seems to get worse as night comes on, and keeps me from sleeping. I could not rest in one position to save my life. My husband got me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at R. E. Clements' drug store, and I had only taken a few doses when I felt relief, and before I had finished the contents of the box my back felt better than it had in years. I sent a box to my daughter, who was troubled a good deal with her kidneys, and this remedy helped her more than any other she ever used. We believe there is nothing better than Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney trouble."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
