Albert Nuckles was out hunting with a shot gun and in crossing a railroad trestle stopped and let the butt of the gun down between the ties. In drawing it up again one of the hammers caught against the tie and discharged the gun, the load entering the little fellow's hand, tearing away two fingers and lacerating the hand so severely that practically all of the hand had to be cut away by the physician. The boy was twelve years old.

Wooten Clingman, the fifteen-year-old son of J. I. Clingman, was firing crackers. A large cannon cracker failed to explode and so he broke it in two, as boys so often do the smaller crackers, and applied a match to it with the result that it exploded with great violence in his left hand, mangling it to an extent that the thumb had to be amputated below the second joint down in the ball of thumb, and part of the middle finger had to be removed also.—News.

Mail Robbed at Waco.

Two pouches of mail were found in a thicket near Waco Monday and proved to be from the San Angelo branch of the Santa Fe and destined for the north bound Katy fiver at Temple. The theory is that the two pouches were taken from the trucks at Temple and carried to Waco by the robbers. About $15,000 worth of money orders and checks were found among the mail, the robbers having made no attempt to cash any of these. The registered mail was taken and it is believed that a very large amount of money was secured. Some of the mail found was from Goldthwaite and there were checks and money orders from this place, also. The dates of these letters and checks ranged from Dec. 26 to 28. Officers and detectives are at work on the case and will probably be able to give some information in the near future as to the identity of the robbers.

The hunting season is in full blast, and almost every paper you pick up tells of some one being killed or wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun. There are two rules which hunters should make it a habit to observe closely, and the violation of which is responsible for nine-tenths of the accidents: Never carry your gun loaded while in a buggy; always unbreach your gun before attempting to cross the fence. These rules apply to every hunter no matter how careful he thinks himself.—Clarendon Banner-Stockman.

SELF CULTURE CLUB ENTERTAINS

A Brilliant Social at the Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph.

Decidedly one of the most enjoyable social functions of the season was the reception given on last Saturday evening at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph to the members of the Self Culture Club and their husbands or escorts; the associate members, their escorts and the young ladies visiting in their homes. The hospitable home is admirably adapted to entertaining, the hall being one of the good old fashioned kind, long and broad, was the center of the gay crowd which thronged the parlors as well. The decorations were simple and elegant. Added to the handsome furnishings were ferns and bunches of mistletoe which made a pleasing picture. The young people had to fight shy of bunches of mistletoe hanging from various places. In an improvised nook curtained off with white, over which was arranged a back ground of cedar and mistletoe, stood a pot of hot chocolate which was presided over by the three dainty Misses Minnie Gattin, Russle Oden and Chloe Hudson. The chocolate with whipped cream was served as the guests arrived. After a happy hour spent in mingling with each other and discussions of the holiday season, piano solos were rendered by Misses Lucia Talbert and Lois Humphries, after which Miss Talbert favored us with one of her rare vocal solos entitled "Once In a Purple Twilight." Miss Kate Fairman who is taking a special course in vocal at "South Western" had promised to sing, but owing to an attack of tonsillitis was unable to do so. much to the disappointment of her many friends and admirers. It was now announced that there would be a contest; cards and pencils were ready and questions, which were to be answered with the name of a girl, were read by Mrs. H. E. Brown. Many amusing answers brought forth peals of laughter. When they were corrected it was found that Miss Donald Oldfield and Mr. Claud Saylor had tied for first prize, so drawing straws Miss Donald received the prize, which was a handsome box of candy. The consolation prize was won by Mr. John C. Hicks and was a huge stick of peppermint candy, which he very generously divided.

Mr. E. M. Boon, though not having expected to sing, was prevailed upon to sing "The Palms" which was found among the music. Mr. Boon has a fine rich voice and it is needless to say that it was greatly enjoyed, especially as he is always obliging and gracious to his friends in singing for them. A crowd of the younger people now gathered around the piano and with lusty voices sang some of the popular songs, being encored again and again.

In the back of the hall stood a midwife Christmas tree decorated with "snow" and tinsel. On this tree were hung cards tied on half with white and half with green ribbon. At eleven o'clock the ladies were told to take those tied with the white ribbon while the gentleman took those tied with the green ribbon. It was found that the cards were numbered and on each gentleman's card was a question. When he arose and asked his question, the lady holding the corresponding number responded. The questions answers were made up of the names of eminent men and woman, which made it very entertaining as well as amusing.

Refreshments were now served in the dining room. The club colors being green and white, this scheme was carried out in refreshments, which consisted of fruit salad with a french dressing placed on a leaf of curly mustard, olives, cheese wafers, and pineapple sherbert in white capped with the same sherbert in a delicate green. The refreshments, withal, were dainty and delicious.

It now being near the hour for Sunday the guests bade their pleasant host and hostess good night with many wishes for a happy New Year and expressions of an evening delightfully spent.

Those present were: Mesdames J. H. Randolph, W. H. Trent, J. C. Street, R. M. Thompson, J. W. Kelley, M. E. Thompson, H. E. Brown, Misses Margine Randolph, Donald Oldfield, Allie Humphries, Alpha Hearne, Kate Fairman, Lorraine Walters, Clyde Lowrie, Lora Hudson, Lucia Talbert, Dora Humphries, Jennie Bodkin, Lois Humphries, Dora Oden, Georgia Talbert, Chloe Hudson, Russle Oden, Minnie Gattin, Lily Martin, Flora Lovelace, Mildred Baird, Eddie Kelley, Mabel Mullin, Mamie Kelley, Lawrence Thompson, Alma Trent, Helen Woody and Stella Greenwood.

Messrs. J. H. Randolph, J. C. Street, W. H. Trent, R. M. Thompson, E. M. Boon, Dr. H. E. Brown, Lee Robertson, Walter Weathers, Owen Yarborough, John C. Hicks, Lee Yarborough, John McDermot, Frank McDermot, J. C. Gibson, Claude Saylor, John Scott, Jr., Will Little, G. A. Henderson, Edward Gieslin, Wilbur Fairman, (Mullin) Will Kirkpatrick and Donn Hester, REPORTER.

Fifth Sunday Meeting.

The Fifth Sunday meeting of Mills County Baptist Association met with Big Valley church Dec. 28 and transacted the regular routine business, discussed several important questions and other wise passed the time pleasantly. It seemed that everything under the providence of God conspired to make this meeting in every respects the most glorious ever held in the county. At least that is the verdict of the writer, who is not at all pessimistic in matters pertaining to the Master's cause. The weather was fine, congregations good and the spirit of each service, it seemed to me, was at high water mark.

Big Valley is among the best neighborhoods in the county. The people seem to live at home and board at the same place. At every meal the table was almost groaning under the weight of the many things, nicely prepared, and in every respect suitable for the most delicate digestive apparatus of the dyspeptic to the strong physique of the manual laborer. And as a result most everyone in attendance, and especially the preachers, was too full for utterance. The church at this time has so pasture upon which the flock can graze, but they are sampling some of the theological sprouts and in all probability they will have a strong man in the near future.

The next meeting of this body will be with the Center City church. Let's everyone make a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether for associational missions that we may liquidate our obligations with our county missionary. My wife has a fine

Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If your cough—even from a simple cold—should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or any other poison. And now a little late though—oh, as says, "Put it on the label. If poisons are in your Cough Mixture, Good! Very good! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must be law to be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

THE CAMPAIGN OPENS

Some Good Men Announce Their Willingness to Serve the Dear People.

ALL ARE SUBJECT TO THE PRIMARY

There Are Now Candidates for Nearly Every County Office and Other Candidates Are in Prospect—All Good Men.

The 1908 campaign has opened in Mills county and a number of good men have announced as candidates for office, subject to the Democratic primary election in July.

L. E. PATTERSON.

One of the most efficient officers in the county is Judge L. E. Patterson, who announces this week as a candidate for re-election. Since the restoration of the criminal jurisdiction to the county court he has presided over several sessions of that court and has been frequently complimented for his fair and correct rulings and his carefully prepared charges to the jury. He gives close attention to his official duties and as a member of the commissioners court he is ever mindful of the interests of all parts of the county. He has many friends in every community who would cheerfully offer for re-election.

H. C. EZZELL.

Mr. H. C. Ezzell has served the county faithfully and well as sheriff and tax collector since last election and he announces this week as a candidate for re-election. An officer could not be found who would try harder to perform his whole duty and his close attention to his official business is known and appreciated by the people. He is careful and accurate and is, therefore, a mighty safe man to have in the office. He is popular with the people and is a first class officer.

G. W. TEMPLIN.

No man stands higher in the estimation of his fellow citizens than does Rev. G. W. Templin, who announces this week as a candidate for re-election to the office of county treasurer. He is well known in all parts of the county and everybody has full confidence in him. The manner in which he has conducted the affairs of his office has been very satisfactory to the people and his courteous treatment of all having business with him has made him many friends and supporters. He is popular with all the people and is one of the best men in the county.

JOE H. FRIZZELL.

In the announcement column appears the name of Joe H. Frizzell, who is a candidate for re-election to the office of tax assessor. He is now serving his first term in the office and has made a record of which he is justly proud. The careful attention which he has given to his work has been decidedly beneficial to the county and he is deserving of a liberal part of the credit for the reduction of the tax rate in this county. No more courteous, accommodating and popular gentleman can be found in the county and he has a great many friends who want him to have a second term in the office.

A. T. FRIZZELL.

Mr. Frizzle is a candidate for re-election to the office of county attorney—an office he has held with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents. He has forborne the collection of a lot of money on delinquent taxes by instituting suit for foreclosure and sale of the property. His experience in the office makes his services very valuable to the county. He is an officer who does his whole duty all the time and uses his best efforts in the interest of Mills county. Since the restoration of criminal jurisdiction to the county court he has had a large amount of official business and this has given him experience that will enable him to make even a better record in the future than he has in the past.

B. WALKER, JR.

The name of B. Walker, Jr., appears in the announcement column of this paper. Mr. Walker is a candidate for district and county clerk, and he is well qualified to fill the position. He is a farmer in Big Valley and the successful manner in which he has conducted his own business proves that he is fully competent to look after public business. The fact that those who have known him longest are his best friends is a strong recommendation for him and proves that he is a good man. He is a courteous gentleman and would make a first class officer.

R. J. ATKINSON.

One of the strongest men in the race for district and county clerk is R. J. Atkinson. He is one of the best men in the county and has friends and supporters in every community who are enthusiastic in his behalf. He served the county as sheriff and collector for four years and his record is one of which he is proud. He is one of the most accommodating and pleasant gentlemen it has ever been our good fortune to know and his qualifications for the position are unquestioned.

W. B. SUMMY.

Mr. Summy announces this week as a candidate for district and county clerk. He has been Mr. Crawford's deputy and understands every detail of the work in the office thoroughly. He is a fine business man and a most courteous gentleman. All who know him have confidence in him and he has many friends in all parts of the county. He attends strictly to his duties all the time and would make a fine officer.

S. T. WELLS.

S. T. Wells has been a resident of this county a long time and everybody thinks highly of him, both as a citizen and a business man. He announces this week as a candidate for county treasurer, a position he is in every way qualified to fill. His personal popularity makes him a mighty strong candidate and his friends are enthusiastic in urging his claims. One thing is certain and that is no better man than Mr. Wells could be found in the county.

urer, a position he is in every way qualified to fill. His personal popularity makes him a mighty strong candidate and his friends are enthusiastic in urging his claims. One thing is certain and that is no better man than Mr. Wells could be found in the county.

C. B. MOHLER.

In the announcement column appears the name of Carter B. Mohler, who is a candidate for public weigher. He is a farmer by occupation and the fact that he is the county secretary for the Farmers Union shows that he stands high among those who know him. He was reared in this county and has an extensive acquaintance and all who know realize that he is qualified to fill any office in the county. He is a pleasant gentleman and one who endeavors to do right at all times.

A. J. COCKRUM.

Mr. Cockrum is well and favorably known throughout the county and he has the qualifications to fill the office. He is popular with all who know him and no more genial and whole-souled gentleman lives than he and he counts his friends by the score. He is a successful farmer and stockman and has lived in this county a long time. He has a strong support and those who know him best are his most ardent supporters.

ROBERT JONES.

In the proper column appears the name of Robert Jones as a candidate for the office of public weigher. Mr. Jones is now engaged in the grocery business in this city. He has been a resident of this county for a long time and has a great many friends and well wishers. He is qualified for the position and if elected will give his best attention to the duties of the office.

City Campaign.

This week the city campaign has been opened and there are a number of prospective candidates.

J. B. BRINSON.

Mr. Brinson announces as a candidate for city marshal, assessor and collector. He has had a great deal of experience in that line of work, having served as deputy sheriff a few years ago and later was elected tax assessor in the county. Those who know him do not need to be told of his qualifications, for they are well aware that he possesses every requisite for a good officer in that or any other office to which people elect him. If he is elected he is sure to do his whole duty all the time and his friends are enthusiastic in his interest. No better man could be elected to that or any other office.

Mullin.

Editor Eagle:

Last Saturday evening just as the twilight was fading into the darkness of the night, at the Hotel Burnham, in the presence of a few witnesses the Rev. Van pronounced the ceremony that united in the bond of matrimony, Mr. Henry Jackson and Miss Allie Williams, both of Mullin. Their many friends wish them a happy and pleasant journey on life's voyage.

It is with sadness that we announce the death of Uncle James Campbell, Monday morning at 3 o'clock, December 26th. He was one of our best citizens and the large congregation that accompanied his remains to their last resting place was evidence sufficient to convince anyone that his friends were many. Bro. Templin from Goldthwaite conducted the funeral services. He received Bro. Campbell into the Methodist church about 15 years ago. One by one the workmen fall. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

As the old year was making her farewell bow and the new rushing forward to take her place, the firearms, bells, steam whistles and anvils let the slumbering ones of the city know that all had not retired. The confusion of sounds was so great and so unlike music, had the old year made a retiring speech or the new an address of welcome no one would be any wiser in Mullin for the noise was so great none could have heard. An unexpected explosion of powder from one of the anvils burned Mr. Maxwell Kirkpatrick right badly about the lower part of the face. Children who play with fire often get burnt.

One of the richest treats Mullin people have had for quite awhile was the entertainment given by Mrs. Williams' elocution class New Year's night. The city hall was packed to its utmost capacity and quite a number turned away. The young people acquitted themselves in a way that convinced the large audience they were equal to the occasion. Mrs. Williams' entertainments are all first class and our people show their appreciation of them with packed houses.

Miss Katie Fairman and her brother from Goldthwaite visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dew this week.

Ed. White is still very low with typhoid fever.

New Year's gift to all, with many wishes for a happy, prosperous 1908.

Pleasant Grove.

Editor Eagle:

We begin by wishing for the many readers of the Eagle a happy and prosperous New Year, and as we glide down the "stream of life" may each one of us become a blessing to all we meet during 1908.

Christmas has come and gone and with it many pleasant reminiscences of the past. The writer and family dined with B. P. Hurdle and family of Antelope Gap Xmas day. All who were present on that occasion enjoyed each other's society as well as the bountiful dinner which was spread before them. In the afternoon both vocal and instrumental music was furnished for the assembled guests.

There have been quite a number of parties given for the pleasure of the young people through this community.

Miss Alpha Hearne spent Xmas week with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloud from Hamilton were visiting Mrs. Cloud's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frasier and other relatives.

Mrs. Mae Johnson from one of the lower counties was visiting her mother, Mrs. Hinson, last week.

Again after the lapse of twelve months, the well organized band from South Bennett made the rounds through the Pleasant Grove community. Just at the calm still hour of midnight we were reposed by the sweet strains of music as it wafted out in the stillness of the night, and in a short time our home was graced by the presence of quite a number of the gallant boys and lovely girls of the South Bennett community. We certainly appreciate those Xmas visits from our friends, especially when they deport themselves in such gentlemanly and ladylike manner. Our doors stand wide open to the South Bennett band.

May this be the most prosperous year of our faithful Editor's life and may the Eagle wend its way into many homes in Mills county and then take its flight to many homes abroad. COPPERFIELD.

Orange Blossoms.

J. O. Swindle, jr., and Miss Pallie M. Boler were married last Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents in the Washboard community, Judge J. M. Sanderford officiating. A number of their friends and relatives were present to offer congratulations and good wishes and an elegant wedding dinner was served to the guests.

The groom is a son of Mr. J. O. Swindle and was reared in the community where he was married and now resides. He is a fine man and has the good will of all who know him and his high Christian character and many many virtues are recognized and appreciated. The bride is one of the most lovable and charming ladies it has ever been our good fortune to know. She is a daughter of Mr. J. M. Boler, one of the best citizens of the county, and she is admired for her many graces of head and heart. She has written for the Eagle for several years in the name of the Maid o' Washboard and her writings have been read and enjoyed by people all over this and other states and we feel sure that a correspondent for a county paper was never more highly appreciated by the public than she has been by the readers of the Eagle. She has written several articles, both in poetry and in prose, that gave evidence of great literary ability. She promises to continue to write for the paper and the readers will all appreciate her work in the future as they have in the past.

The Eagle can certainly extend hearty congratulations to these young people for they are both held in high esteem by the editor and their friendship is appreciated beyond measure.

Rev. Mason of Cleburne, who was shot and seriously wounded by his brother a few weeks ago, has recovered.

A young lady was fatally burned in Dallas this week by the igniting of a garment which she was cleaning with gasoline.

Judge Alton B. Parker announces that he is out of politics and that he will view the coming campaign as an innocent by-stander.

Sam LaPresto, a merchant of Dallas, was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun in his place of business. He was preparing to go hunting when the accident occurred.

Wouldn't it make you mad if you waited in line for fourteen hours in the rain to get your money out of the bank and then found when you reached the teller's window that you were $24 overdrawn? A New York woman did, and she was.—San Antonio Light.

Constable Teas of Lockhart was killed in an unusual accident Saturday night. He was assisting some other officers in making an arrest when he stumbled and fell against an officer whose revolver was discharged and the ball passed through the constable's body, causing instant death.

A meeting of those opposed to Baileysism in politics in Hill county was held in Hillsboro a few days ago and a similar meeting is to be held there January 13. The principal object is to arrange plans for sending none but anti-Bailey people to the state convention which sends delegates to the national convention.

Greed grows with groveling, and some men have a positive genius for it. Witness the millions that they are piling up to no good end, and for no great purpose. These millions speak well for their greed—if anything can speak well of greed, and this is the only tribute that will ever be paid to them—that they succeeded well in what they started out to do. As witness to their success they can call the ghosts of rained men, hungry women and starving children and there will be no one to dispute their testimony. Such is materialism in its commonest form and in its coarsest aspect.—Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus' Magazine.

The man who sends a dollar away from home to by that which he could procure from local merchants, is sending a dollar where it will never do him or the neighborhood more good. It has gone from him never to return again, and its usefulness is lost to the community in which he lives. Buy what you can from the local merchant and if necessary, let something be substituted rather than send away from home for what you need. In this way you help to build up the community in which you make your own living, you keep home money at home, and allow the home merchant a profit on goods that enables him to also be a factor in the upbuilding of the community.—Hamlin Bulletin.

Old Enough to Vote.

So you are 21?

And you stand up clear-eyed, clear-minded, to look all the world squarely in the eye. You are a man! Did you ever think how much it cost to make a man out of you? Some one has figured out the cost in money of rearing a child. He says to bring a young man to legal age, care for him and educate him, costs $25,000. Which is a lot of money to put into flesh and blood. But that isn't all.

You have cost your father many hard knocks and short dinners and worry and gray streaks in his hair. And your mother—you will never know! You have cost her days and nights of anxiety and wrinkles in her face and heartaches and sacrifices.

It has been expensive to grow you. But if you are what we think you are, you are worth all you cost and more.

Be sure of this: While father does not say much but "Hello, son," way down deep in his tough staunch heart he thinks you are the finest ever. And as for the little mother, she simply cannot keep her love and pride for you out of her eyes.

You are a man now, and some day you must step into your father's shoes. He wouldn't like you to call him old, but just the same he isn't as young as he used to be. You see, young man, he has been working pretty hard for more than twenty-five years to help you up. And already your mother is beginning to lean on you. Doesn't that sober you, twenty-one?

Your father has done fairly well, but you can do better. You may not think so but he does. He has given you a better chance than he had. In many cases you began where he left off. He expects a good deal from you, and that is why he has tried to make a man of you.

Don't finish. The world will try you out. It will put to the test every fiber in you. But you are made of good stuff. Once the load is strapped on your young shoulders you will carry it and scarcely feel it if only there will be the willing and cheerful mind.

All hail you on the threshold! It's high time you were beginning to pay the freight and your back debts to your father and mother. You will pay them won't you, boy? How shall you pay them? By being always and everywhere a man.—Exchange.

D. 1907, for the purpose of enabling the legally qualified voters residing in said Mills County, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited within the limits of said Mills County, as provided by Title LXIX, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and the several amendments thereto, with the following officers of said court present and participating in the proceedings of said court, to wit:

Ezell, Sheriff of Mills County, Texas, when the following proceedings were had, to wit:

In re. Local Option Election in and for Mills County, Texas:

On this the 27th day of December, A. D. 1907, the Honorable Commissioners Court of Mills County, Texas, met and was in Special session, at the court house of Mills County, Texas, in the town of Goldthwaite, in said county, for the purpose of opening the polls and counting the votes cast at the special election heretofore holden in and throughout the limits of said Mills County, on the said 16th day of December, A. D. 1907, for the purpose of enabling the legally qualified voters of, and residing in said Mills County, to determine whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited within the limits of said Mills County, Texas, as provided by Title LXIX, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and the several amendments thereto, and thereupon, it appearing to the court in open session, that E. G. Crawford, the Clerk of this court, in compliance with law, and in obedience to an order of this court, made and entered on the minute of this court on the 22nd day of November, A. D. 1907, ordering an election to be holden in and throughout the limits of said Mills County, on the 16th day of December, A. D. 1907, for the purposes aforesaid, has posted, and caused to be posted, five several copies of said order ordering said election, at five different public places within said county, to wit: One at Mullin; one at Center City; one at Priddy; one at Ebony, and one at the court house door of said county, in the town of Goldthwaite, in said county, for more than twelve (12) days next preceding the said day of election; and it further appearing to the court that the said election has been held in all respects in conformity with the laws governing such elections and the returns thereof made by the proper officer of each voting precinct in and throughout said county; thereupon, the court in open session, opened the polls, and counted the votes cast at said election, as the same were returned by the proper officer of each voting precinct in and throughout said Mills County, as required by law; and therefrom it appearing to the court that the total number of votes cast at said election was eleven hundred and sixty-seven (1167) and that seven hundred and twenty-one (721) of said votes were cast for prohibition, and that four hundred and forty-six (446) of said voters were cast against prohibition, and it appearing to the court therefrom that a majority of two hundred and seventy-five (275) of said votes were cast for prohibition, the result of said election is therefore here now so declared in favor of Prohibition.

D. 1907, ordered, adjudged and decreed by this, the Commissioners Court in and for Mills county, State of Texas, that the sale of intoxicating liquors be and the same is hereby absolutely prohibited within the limits of this the said county of Mills, State of Texas, as provided by Title LXIX of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, and the several amendments thereto, excepted for the purposes and under the regulations specified in said Title of said statute, and the several amendments thereto, until such time as the qualified voters of said county may, at another legal election, held for that purpose, by a majority vote decide otherwise.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all five doctors prescribed. Guaranteed to cure blood poison on weakness and stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by R. E. Clements druggist, 50c"

FULL RENDITION.

The New Law Governing the Assessment of Taxes for the Year 1908.

Article 5123. That hereafter when any person, firm or corporation renders his, their or its property in this State for taxation to any tax assessor, and makes oath as to the kind, character, quality and quantity of such property; and the said officer accepting said rendition from such person, firm or corporation of such property is satisfied that it is correctly and properly valued according to the reasonable cash market value of such property on the market at the time of its rendition, he shall list the same accordingly but if the assessor is satisfied that the value is below the reasonable cash market value of such property, he shall at once place on said rendition opposite each piece of property so rendered an amount equal to the reasonable cash market value of such property at the time of its rendition and if such property shall be found to have no market value by such officer, then at such sum as said officer shall deem the real or intrinsic value of the property; and if the person listing such property or the owner thereof is not satisfied with the value placed on the property by the assessor, he shall so notify the assessor and if desiring so to do may make oath before the assessor that the valuation so fixed by said officer on said property is excessive, then it shall be the duty of such officer to furnish such rendition, together with his valuation thereon and the oath of such person, firm or officer of any corporation if any such oath has been made, to the commissioners court of the county in which said rendition was made, which court shall hear evidence and determine the true value of such property as is hereinafter provided; and in this connection it is provided that such officer or court shall take into consideration what property could have been sold any time within six months next before the rendition of said property.

Article 5124. The Boards of Equalization shall have power and it is made their official duty to supervise the assessment of their respective counties and if satisfied that the valuation of any property is not in accordance with the laws of the State, to increase or diminish the same and to fix a proper valuation thereon, as provided for in Art. 5123, of this Act, and when any assessor in this State shall have furnished said court with the rendition as provided for in Article 5123 of this Act, it shall be the duty of such court to call before it such persons as in its judgment may know the market value or true value of such property, as the case may be, by proper process, who shall testify under oath the character, quality and quantity of such property, as well as the value thereof, said court after hearing the evidence shall fix the value of such property in accordance with the evidence so introduced and as provided for in Art. 5123 of this Act; and their action in such case or cases shall be final.

Art. 5124-a. If any tax assessor in this State shall fail, refuse or neglect to place upon any rendition as provided for in Art. 5123 of this Act, the true value or market value in accordance with the method of fixing such value as provided for herein or shall fail, refuse or neglect to return to the commissioners' Court such rendition together with the oath of the owner or person listing such property for taxes when such oath has been made, as provided for in this Act, or if the assessor accepts the rendition from any person rendering property for taxation without reading to such person the oath and having it signed and sworn to as provided by law, such failure, refusal or neglect shall be deemed malfeasance on the part of such officer and shall be cause for his removal from office.

Art. 5124-b. Every tax assessor and deputy tax assessor in this State in addition to the oath prescribed by the Constitution of this State shall, before entering upon the duties of his office take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, tax assessor (or deputy tax assessor as the case may be) in and for _____ County, Texas, do solemnly swear that I will personally view and inspect all the real estate and improvements thereon subject to taxation lying in said county that may be rendered to me for taxation by any corporation or individual, or by their agent or representative as fully as may be practicable and that I will as fully as is practicable view and inspect all other taxable property in said County rendered to me as aforesaid, that I will to the best of my ability make a true estimate of the cash value, the market value of such property, if such property has a market value, and if it has no market value, then the real value of all such property, both the real and personal on the first day of January, next proceeding and that I will make up and attach to each assessment sheet made up and sworn to by the said property owners, their agents or representatives, a true assessment and valuation of said property, together with a memorandum of all facts which I may learn bearing upon the value of said taxable property, and that I will make all possible inquiry relative to the true value of such property and that I will attach said memoranda and statement of facts that I may ascertain as aforesaid to the said assessment sheets of the respective property owners. That I have read and understand the several provisions of the constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property, and that I will faithfully do and perform every duty required of me as tax assessor; (or deputy tax assessor) by the constitution and laws of this State, so help me God." This oath shall be administered by the County Clerk and shall be in duplicate; the original shall be by the Clerk filed and recorded in records of the County and the duplicate shall be retained by the assessor or the deputy as the case may be.

Art. 5124-c. When a Commissioners' Court in this State convenes as a board of equalization, before considering the subject of equalization of property values for the purposes of taxation, each member of the Court including the County Judge shall take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, a member of the board of equalization of _____ County, for the year A. D. _____, hereby solemnly swear that in the performance of my duties as a member of such board for said year, I will not vote to allow any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls of said County for said year at any sum which I believe to be less than its true market value, or if it has no market value then its real value; that I will faithfully endeavor and as member of said board will move to have each item of taxable property which I believe to be assessed for said year at less than its true market value or real value, raised on the tax rolls to what I believe to be its true cash market value, if it has a market value, if not, then to its real value, and that I will faithfully endeavor to have the assessed valuation of all property subject to taxation within said County stand upon the tax rolls of said County for said year at its true cash market value or if it has no market value, then its real value, I further solemnly swear that I have read and understand the provisions contained in the constitution and laws of this State relative to the valuation of taxable property and that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me under the constitution and laws of this State so help me God." Said oath shall be filed and recorded in the Commissioners' Court record as a part of the proceedings of that term of Court.

Art. 5124-d. If in passing upon the value of any property by a Commissioners' Court sitting as a board of equalization in this State, the Court shall fix a value upon any property for the purpose of taxation and a majority of said Court do not concur in the judgment of the Court the Clerk shall record in the Minutes of the Court the names of the members, including the County Judge, who do not concur in fixing such values, (if the County Judge shall cast the deciding vote in such matter) and if any tax assessor or members of any Commissioners' Court in this State shall knowingly fail or refuse to fix the value of property rendered for taxes in compliance with this Act, and all other laws of this State, such failure, neglect or refusal shall constitute malfeasance in office on the part of such assessor or members of said court, and such failure, neglect or refusal shall be cause for his or their removal from office.

Art. 5124-e. Whenever the fact is brought to the knowledge of the Attorney General of this State that any tax assessor, deputy tax assessor, county judge or member of Commissioners' Court has failed, refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this Act, he shall at once file suit for the removal from office of such officer or officers thus offending. Such proceedings for the removal of such officer or officers herein provided for shall be brought in the district court of the county of such officer's residence, and such suit shall be brought by the Attorney General of the State or under his direction.

Bowel Trouble

Our Dead.

Mr. Thomas LaFayette Burleson departed this life at the home of his parents one mile northeast of Lamesa, Friday morning, December 13th, at 7 o'clock.

He had suffered with chronic inflammatory rheumatism since one and one-half years old. This continued to consume his body until it reached the heart, when death was a sudden result. He gladly heard the Father's call and submitted with the sweet grace of a little child. Sickness, pain and trouble had been his lot but our Father exchanged this for Heavenly joys and a better citizenship above. How great is our God thus to show his sympathy and pity for his suffering ones below. This was righteous also and good. When death came he said to loved ones near by: "I am dying, but I am prepared to go. I am going to a better home than this, etc." Shortly he fell asleep in Jesus.

He was the noble son of our citizens, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burleson, who have lived in Dawson county for a number of years and raised a large family of ten children, of whom eight are still living.

The funeral services were conducted both at the residence and the grave by Brother W. L. Whitley, pastor of the Baptist church at Lamesa. A large crowd of people and a host of relatives were present and one of the longest processions to the cemetery ever seen in Lamesa. Interment on December 14th, at 4 p. m. in the new cemetery southwest of town.

Brother LaFayette Burleson was born October 28th, 1881, and died December 13th, 1907, being 26 years, 1 month and 15 days of age. He was a fine young man, just in the bloom of manhood, with splendid intellect, a host of friends, obedient to parents, honest and true, full of virtue and possessing all the graces of the nobleman. Kind physicians, relatives and friends did all that could be done for his recovery, but his short life's work was finished and it was the Father's will that he should quit the walks of men for the eternal life beyond. We are loath to let thee go, but still we would not detain thee. The Lord's will be done. Tears and joy for the departed but prayers and sympathy for the bereft and broken hearted.
