Poley Harris came in last week and was arrested on two charges—abandonment of his family and fraudulently disposing of mortgaged property. Harris was a farmer living north of town.

Don Coker of this city was married to Miss Ida Hightower of Blanket at the Methodist district parsonage in Brownwood Thursday night of last week. They left at once for Sulphur, Oklahoma, where they will make their home.

J. M. Presler of Comanche, sitting with the civil court of appeals at Fort Worth as special chief justice, last week handed down the written opinion of the court in a case from Bowie in which the law creating independent school district was held to be unconstitutional.

It is with much regret that we announce the death of Dr. John J. Eargle, which occurred at Proctor Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. About seven months ago he was stricken with paralysis, but rallied from the shock. March 6 he suffered another stroke and from that time until his death he was unconscious.—Exponent.

BROWNWOOD.

Chas Fowler of Bangs and Miss Elice Shippley of Auburn, Ill., were united in marriage at the Bryan hotel this morning.

Dr. B. F. Winters has bought a residence from Prof. J. H. Grove, on Grove Avenue near Howard Payne college.

At 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Louine, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. C. Harrell, was united in marriage to Eugene Gibson of Houston.

In a runaway accident Tuesday afternoon Misses Miller and Hattie Conway were thrown from a buggy near the Empire Furniture Co. building and were severely bruised.

The smallpox situation is little changed from what it was last week except that all the patients are doing well, none of them being very sick and but few of them having taken their beds.—News.

SAN SABA.

A. J. Wallace died at the home of his son near Red Bluff last Thursday.

Worth Price purchased from C. N. Wild, 140 acres of land, 60 in cultivation, about 3 miles from town for a consideration of $4026.

The dates as permanently agreed upon by the directors for the San Saba County Fair are Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—July 14, 15, 16 and 17.

S. H. Evans and wife sold to F. F. Edwards and J. R. Cunningham, block 23 in Cedar Park addition with improvements for a consideration of $593.55.

The Odd Fellows of San Saba and vicinity are making arrangements to celebrate the eighty-ninth anniversary of the order with a picnic at the Fair Grounds on Tuesday, the 30th of April.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Atkinson of Goldthwaite visited the family of M. G. McGaugh a few days this week. Mr. Atkinson is Ex-Sheriff of Mills county and is now a candidate for district and county clerk of that county.

Owen Smithart died last Friday evening at the home of his mother on Wallace creek and was buried in the Cemetery in that neighborhood Saturday. Pneumonia was the cause of his death. On Monday of this week his brother, Archer Smithart, died of the same disease and was laid to rest in the same cemetery Tuesday.

Various rumors are floating around in regard to parties using dynamite to kill fish. If the grand jury gets onto the facts, somebody will wish they had observed the law in regard to the matter. No true sportsman will use dynamite and all others will be dealt with severely if caught.—Star.

HAMILTON.

Street superintendent Joe E. Williams is having railroad street graveled.

G. H. Luedde, of Waco, was in the city Monday. He will at once erect a large cold storage house on the lot just east of the Brozill residence, next to the railroad track.

Last night by invitation of the Commercial Club of Hico, about 40 members of the Hamilton Business Men's Club were highly entertained at Hico at a meeting of the citizens there when every courtesy possible was shown and the bonds of common interest and friendly feeling were again strengthened.—Herald.

LAMPASAS.

The new ice factory is now in operation.

Judge M. M. White has moved to his new home some two miles in the country.

John W. Townsen is sick at his home with small pox, the disease having developed enough to show its character Tuesday.

The Baptist brethren have contracted for the purchase of nice home of Z. T. Rogers on the hill, and it is understood that Mr. Rogers will remove with his family to Knox City, Texas. The house will be occupied by the Baptist pastor as soon as Mr. Rogers can make his arrangements to vacate.

Pursuant to a call by B. C. Greenwood, county chairman of the democratic party of this county, a large crowd assembled at the courthouse this (Friday) afternoon. Judge White made an address, contending for purity in politics and integrity and faithfulness in public men, after which resolutions were passed condemning Baileyism and endorsing the action of the convention recently held at Waco. Mr. Davidson's candidacy for attorney general was also endorsed.—Leader.

Walter Christie of San Angelo visited in this city Sunday.

An Austin Special say: "When Texas entered the union princely domain amounting to millions of acres was reserved by the state and set aside as an endowment for public school system. Although many sales have been made of this land, between thirty and forty million acres are still held by the state, which at the last report had a value of $42,817,730.53. The interest on this makes taxation for school purposes exceedingly low in this state, and at the same time has guaranteed money to carry on public education on an extensive scale."

If every man would observe the Golden Rule and do unto the other fellow as he would have the other fellow do unto him we would, it will be universally conceded, have a very different and a far better world. There is entirely too much selfishness in this old world, entirely too much. That avaricious and grasping disposition of too many of the human race; that well known and to a very considerable extent unrestrained pre-disposition to look out for self, and let every other fellow look out for himself, is the spirit that is predominating the world today, and it is not at all unnatural that sorrow and distress follow in the wake of such inexcusable and perhaps unpardonable selfishness. An observance of the letter and the spirit of the Golden Rule will cure many an ill the human race is heir to.—Austin Statesman.

Campaign Notes.

The city campaign is now attracting interest, as well as the state and county campaign.

One precinct candidate and several city candidates are announced this week.

JOHN L. BOLAND.

In the proper column appears the name of Mr. John L. Boland, who is a candidate for the office of public weigher at Mullin. He is well and favorable known in that precinct and is well qualified for the position. He has a great many friends and supporters and will prove a strong candidate for the office. He has made his home in that community for about three years.

D. Y. Fox submits his name as a candidate for tax assessor and collector of Goldthwaite. Mr. Fox is now serving the city as marshal, assessor and collector and is a courteous and popular officer.

Reginald B. Lovelace is a candidate for city secretary. He is a popular gentleman and is well qualified to fill the office. He has the support of many friends in his candidacy.

Conservative Ticket.

In announcing for the following city offices, we want to be understood as advocating such improvements and ordinances as we believe will result in the greatest good to the greatest number without injury to any one. At the same time looking to the present and future interest of our town as a whole. If elected we shall try to avoid creating strife between neighbors if possible. We believe it is a better plan to work together, because if the town is to improve it must be as a result of co-operation; our interest is mutual. We do not crave, and are not office seekers at all, but our interests are here and if it is your choice that we shall manage the city Government of Goldthwaite for twelve months, we will endeavor to render you a profitable service.

Something Worth Thinking About.

There is nothing that will spoil your watch quicker than dirt and old rancid oil. Cleanliness and caution is economy in a timepiece. The delicate parts doing indescribable work will soon wear themselves to ruin if permitted to run in accumulating dirt and without oil. Take proper care of your watch and you will get better service from it. If falling in any way bring it to our hospital for sick, watches and clocks, where they can be specially restored to health and a cure guaranteed. L. E. MILLER, The Jeweler.

Mullin.

Editor Eagle:

If you have not been out in the country lately it will pay you to lay off one day for a trip of that kind and see the fine prospects for a living another year without taking it out of a sack at 10-cents a grab. The farmers are waking up to the fact that to depend solely on cotton means to have to hustle for something to feed both man and beast. The fields of corn, wheat, oats and other grains declare to the passer by that they intend to put on foot a better state of affairs than have heretofore existed.

Providence is smiling upon us in the gift of fine spring weather, with a good season in the ground to make every thing spring forth as if wanting to guarantee bread to the eater and seed to the sower. How grateful we ought to be, and with earnest determined strides we should make to prove our gratitude and willingness to push our way to the front. All hail to the man who loves his business and is willing to hoist his banner over his farm and stand by it as proudly as any man of any other occupation or profession stands by his calling. We need to study our business to make a success of it as much as men of other callings have to study theirs. When we do this and stay with our business like successful business men of other callings stay with theirs we need have no fears as to results.

I started out, Mr. Editor, to tell you how pretty the farms and here I am writing a letter to farmers. When a fellow don't know much and feels like he wants to tell that he is liable to get off the track, so you will excuse me. Last Tuesday Mr. R. F. Williams tendered me a seat behind his match sorrels for a trip to the beautiful country home of J. L. King. There were many things of interest along the route, but when we arrived at Mr. King's and saw the fine orchard, the waving wheat fields, beautiful flowers of which there were a great variety as well as the general surroundings made us feel like Mr. King ought to be a younger man, or at least the weight of years held off for a long time that he might enjoy his beautiful county home. If any of you think "Uncle Bob" is slow of speech let him wind up and then take a trip with him to the country, if you don't think all the talking machines this side of the land of Naphthali have turned loose at one time I'll own up. Getting off my subject again. The merry whistle of the plowboy, the clear bob white of the partridges, blooming trees, nice stock, corn up and plowed over, wheat, oats and grass on a race to see which can head first, men grubbing, fencioing, burning brush, children on their way home from school all aided in making this short run to the country very interesting. Don't go back on your country homes, the president and his cabinet, the millionaires with their millions of wealth are all dependant on you for what they eat. Take courage, cluck to old Mike to move up, put the plow in a little deeper and when you are good tired take out, go home, gather the old woman and children about you and tell them, all the rest of the world are dependant on you and Mike.

Clear off my subject again. I shall not try to get back. Good bye.

Milk Maids' Convention.

The Milk Maids' Convention at the opera house last Friday night was a decided success and was enjoyed by a large audience. Those taking part in the program carried out every detail perfectly and have been frequently complimented for the excellent rendition of the play. The music was also of a high class and was a credit to the band. The receipts amounted to $62.15 and the entertainment was for the benefit of Goldthwaite Concert Band.

Prohibition Petition.

When you come to Goldthwaite next week call at the Country Drug store and put your name on the petition to state executive committee, if you want a chance to vote in the primary the 25th day of July, 1908, as to whether the next legislature will give to the voters of Texas a chance to vote on a state prohibition amendment in the state of Texas in 1909.

There is also a list at M. C. Kirkpatrick's office at Mullin.

Cullen Thomas Coming.

Hon. Cullen F. Thomas of Waco, one of the foremost men in Texas politics, will address the people in the court house in Goldthwaite next Tuesday night, March 30. Those who want information on the Bailey question should hear Mr. Thomas, for he knows all about it and knows how to tell it.

Executive Committee Called.

The Democratic Executive committee of Mills County is hereby called to convene at the court house in Goldthwaite Monday, April 13, at 2 p. m. for the purpose of arranging for holding a primary election in the county on May 2. All members are urged and requested to be present, for the time in short in which to make the arrangements and we must act promptly. D. R. McCORMICK, Chairman.

Good For Every body.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50c. at R. E. Clements' drug store.

And for further cause of action herein plaintiff alleges that he and those whose estate he has, claiming the same under deeds duly registered in the office of the County Clerk of Mills County on the dates hereinbefore alleged, has had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the land and tenements claimed and described in plaintiffs petition, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes due thereon for a period of more than five years next after defendants cause of action accrued if any, and before the commencement of this suit and this he is ready to verify.

Plaintiff further says that the exact nature and extent and character of the defendants claim to the above described two tracts of land is unknown to the plaintiff except that he understands that they claim an undivided one half (1/2) interest therein.

Wherefore premises considered, plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to answer this petition, that upon hearing hereof that he have judgment for title and possession of the above described land, and the cloud cast upon the title of the plaintiff by reason of the claim of the defendants be removed, cancelled and held for naught, that they be perpetually enjoined from claiming or asserting any further claim or title to said land, that plaintiff be quieted in his title and possession thereof and for cost of suit and for such other relief to which he may be entitled in law or equity.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness E. G. Crawford, Clerk of the District Court of Mills County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Goldthwaite, this the 12th day of February 1908. [L. S.] E. G. CRAWFORD, Clerk, District Court, Mills County, Save Money by Buying Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

You will pay just as much for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as for any of the other cough medicines, but you save money in buying it. The saving is in what you get, not what you pay. The sure-to-cure quality is in every bottle of this remedy, and you get good results when you take it. Neglected colds often develop serious conditions, and when you buy a cough medicine you want to be sure you are getting one that will cure your cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale by R. E. Clements' druggist, Goldthwaite and Mullin, Texas.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colorado, Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by R. E. Clements' drug store, Goldthwaite and Mullin, Texas.

After a separation of seven years and a half, during which time she thought her child had been a victim of the Galveston storm, Mrs. Maggie Reynolds of Shreveport, Louisiana, has found her 12-year-old son, whom she located through a neighbor in a horse trader's camp near Haynesville, La.

The man who owns a little home is well off. If it all be paid for he is at least able to live. With hogs and hominy and chickens and a good garden and an orchard, he may live in clover. I know a man who owns 30 acres, who is independent, and is lending money. He does not raise much cotton. Another man, whose farm has but 20 acres, will get out of debt this year and have enough to live next year without incurring debt. Debt for too large a purchase must mean poverty. Buy and pay for a small farm. Buy more land when able.—Farm and Ranch.

The Miller Messenger warns its readers that the festive lightening rod agent is working the farmers near there. The same old scheme that was worked in Brown county last year is being used there. An agent calls and makes ridiculously low figures for rodding the house. The farmer finally accepts the proposition and the agent moves on. About a week later two men drive up to the house, put up the rods and then present the bill for same at so much a foot, which totals about three times as much as the price agreed on. The farmer claim that it was a lump trade, the agents that it was so much per foot. By dint of threats they force some of their victims to cough up, while other take down their shot gun from behind the door and make the agents take the rod of their house. All notes are made payable in a distance town so that when suit is brought the farmer will find it too expensive to attend and fight the suit and the lightening rod people get judgment by default.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Unquestionably the farm today offers more to the farmer's son than any other calling, financially, morally and in every other way. His greatest enemy is the political demagogue, who has ever, in all ages, used the farmer for his own miserable ends: the curse, however, will perhaps be eliminated, as the farmer's son takes more and more of education and keeps in touch with what is going on through the newspapers, journals and magazines that now reach his farm home.—Stockman and Farmer.

I will take common chickens and eggs or feed stuff in exchange at market prices, for eggs, if you haven't the money to spare. J. N. KEMSEY, Phone 88, Goldthwaite, Texas.

Ticking or dry coughs will quickly loosen when using Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else, even for very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountainous shrub give the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. R. E. Clements, Goldthwaite and Mullin, Texas.

A great many subscribers have renewed for the Eagle this week. The appreciation the people show for the paper makes us strive to improve each succeeding issue.

The Last Week.

This is the last week in which papers can be sent through the mails to persons who are due for more than one year's subscription. The rule applies to all papers in the United States and those who fail to observe the law strictly are liable to lose their privilege of second class rate and will, therefore, be forced to abandon the publication. The Eagle will not take chances so desperate and will discontinue the paper to persons who owe more than one year's subscription and the accounts of those who have not responded to the notices will be placed with the collecting agency whose business it is to collect these accounts. Notices have been sent to all who are in arrears and the publisher hopes that those who have so far ignored the notices will realize that this is a matter of importance and that the account should be settled. The Eagle appreciates the patronage of the public and hopes that when the time comes for checking the list for those whose names will have to be dropped that no such will be found, but that all will have been paid to the time required by the postal law.

In this connection we desire to express our appreciation of the liberal patronage heretofore given the paper by the people all over the county and also for the prompt responses that have been made to the notices that have been sent out in obedience to the postal requirements.

About Watches.

While these statements refer to watches in particular, same will apply to our regular line of Jewelry silverware, etc. When it comes to buying a watch or piece of Jewelry, its not like buying a piece of calico that you are perfectly familiar with, you go to buy a watch you want a good one and you depend upon the Jeweler. I will say right here that your interest and mine are identical, its to my interest to give you the best. I had rather miss a sale than sell you an unsatisfactory watch. I am here to stay and I want your business not for one time but all the time. If you are contemplating purchasing a watch or piece of jewelry come to see me and I will give you the very best that money can buy and a guarantee of satisfaction. No one but a practical watch maker can point out to you the good and weak points in the make up of a watch and give you the kind best suited to the use it will receive. Come in and let us talk watch together. We will give you the advantage of our many years of practical experience in handling watches. L. E. MILLER, The Jeweler.

Letter to J. H. Allen.

Goldthwaite, Texas.

Dear Sir: A bank messenger lost a small coin. He set his bag down and looked for it. Found it, but somebody else had run-off with his bag.

A man who is going to paint had better look-out for his gallons. Devote is the least-gallons paint.

It's gallons that coat; it isn't the price of a gallon. With one paint, 10-gallons is plenty; another, 11 or 13 or 15 and so on to 22 gallons; and every gallon has to be paid for and painted—$3 to $4 a day for painting paint stuffed out with some sort of whitewash. The less the price of a gallon, the more the gallons.

Bank messengers better look-out for their bags and not stop to hunt for small coin; and property owners better look out for the gallons that make the expense, and not for the price which has nothing to do with it.

Yours truly,

As the weather has been so beautiful and the grass and flowers are coming forth we will write again.

Flowers blooming, birds are singing and all nature wears her most gorgeous robes.

The recent rain, together with the warm sunshine, is bringing the corn up, nearly every one is through planting corn. Some are fixing to plant cotton and cane. Small grain of all kind is growing fine. I think there will be lots of grain raised this year.

There are fine prospects for a fruit crop if we don't have a hard freeze to kill it.

We had a big white frost Monday night, but it did not hurt any thing.

Merry Milkmaids Entertained.

On Saturday evening March 21, 1908, the "Milkmaids" and escorts, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Walters, were royally entertained by Mr. R. E. Clements at the Innovation.

Upon arrival all were made welcome by the smiling faces and happy greetings of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Clements and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman, who left nothing undone that could add to the pleasure of the guests. Mrs. Scott and Miss Lois Humphries being present, it is needless to say that delightful music was one of the most pleasant features of the evening, while the lads and lassies did their share by singing a number of pretty songs, while some found enjoyment in the ever fascinating game of "42" and others enjoyed social converse.

With the "maids" in their pretty uniforms and the gentlemen at their best, it was indeed a pleasing scene.

After the games and songs were concluded Messrs. Clements, Scott and Mackey served the guests to delicious cream and ices, after which chocolate creams and bon bons were served by order of Mr. E. M. Boon.

After supper Mr. John Scott grouped the "Milkmaids" and took a flash light picture of them. It was high time to say good night and bid adieu to one of the most pleasant evenings of our lives.

Mr. Clements' hospitality will long be cherished as the happiest of our memories. It is needless to say that "extend to him esteem as rich as cream and friendship as strong as the odorous limburger."

Gibson—Talbert.

J. C. Gibson and Miss Georgia Talbert were married at the residence of the bride's mother in this city Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Only two or three intimate friends of the contracting parties were present and the announcement of the marriage was a surprise to most of the friends of the young couple, for it was generally understood that the ceremony was to take place the early part of next month.

Mr. Gibson is the pharmacist at the Country Drug store and is a man of fine character and splendid business ability. He has been a resident of this city for several years and no man stands higher in the estimation of the people here and he is as near worthy of the lovely lady of his choice as it is possible for a man to be. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Wynne of this city and she grew to womanhood here and has many admiring friends in the community.

The Eagle joins in extending congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Gibson.

During his residence here Mr. Stephens made many friends who were grieved when they learned of his death and unite in extending sympathy to his bereaved wife and other relatives, and especially do they grieve with his mother, who was so recently bereft of her husband.

LIFE'S JOURNEY.

Is burdensome to many in Goldthwaite.

Life's journey is a heavy burden With a constantly aching back, With urinary disorders, diabetes, With any kidney ill. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve and cure

Isom Evans, farmer, living nine miles west of Goldthwaite, Texas, at Pecan Bayou says: "Both myself and wife have used Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results. I have suffered off and on for several years with a constant misery in my back, and at times it was so bad that I could scarcely get around. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised at R. E. Clement's drug store I procured a box. I had not used over half of it when the pain disappeared and the secretions, which had been too frequent, became regular. Seeing how they had benefited me my wife started using them. The bearing down pain a cross the small of the back from which she suffered soon disappeared. We cannot recommend Doan's Kidney Pills too highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doanes—and take no other.

A Letter of Thanks.

To the public: We take this method of expressing in a small way our sincere thanks for your most liberal patronage on Friday night, March 20. We have used our utmost endeavors to merit the support and encouragement of our home people and have just arrived at a point where we ourselves enjoy some satisfaction in appearing in public. It has been a long hard pull for us, but owing to the untiring efforts and tact of our leader, we are now in a fair way to success as a home band, and your liberal patronage at our first entertainment is the best evidence that our labors have not been in vain. We believe that a good band is a credit to any community, and such we purpose to make our organization. We are glad to have your support and shall always strive to merit the same. Yours truly,
THE BAND BOYS.

New Year's Reception.

One of the most pleasant social functions of the season was the reception given by the Self Culture Club at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Skaggs on New Year's day. Many guests called in the afternoon at different hours and in the evening the parlors were filled with hand-somerly gowned women and gallant men.

The guests were given a cordial welcome in the reception hall by the receiving line composed of the officers of the club,
then they were taken in charge
by Mrs. E. B. Anderson who escorted them into the register room where they wrote their names in the register book and were presented with dainty hand painted cards expressing New Year's greetings.

The register book was presided over by Misses Mamie Kelley and Lillie Martin. From this room they were conducted by Mrs. J.
H. Wallace to the Japanese parlor where the decorations made them feel as if they were in happy Japan and this feeling was intensified when they were invited to a little nook in the room adorned with Japanese lanterns and parasols outspread overhead, while back of the gaily decorated table with its handsome tea service were two dainty dressed Japanese maidens who poured fragrant tea for the guests, and who were none other than Misses Eddie Kelley and Lawrence
Thompson attired in perfect Japanese costumes.

After drinking tea the guests were ushered into the dining room which was beautifully decorated with club colors. Broad white and green ribbons were gracefully draped from the chandelier to the corners of the table which was covered with a handsome point lace square over green satin. In the center of the table was a silver mounted mirror on which stood a jardiniere of Chinese sacred lilies in bloom carrying out the color scheme perfectly. Here sandwiches and chocolate were served by Mesdames R. J. Atkinson and R.
M. Thompson, after which the guests dispersed through the parlors and engaged in pleasant conversation and the ever fac-inating game of "42," until time would stay no more, when they departed with many words of praise for the pleasant evening.

REPORTER,

Club Notes.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Embroidery Club, in session with Mrs. Walter Fairman, Wednesday Jan.
6th. Aside from the regular membership there were present three visitors. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in discussing plans for entertaining the "husbands" of the club members. It was decided to devoted at least one and possibly two evenings in each month to the ever pleasing game "42."
The first meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Skaggs, Tuesday evening January 12, Mesdames Conro, Fair-man and Skaggs being the entertainment committee for this occasion. The husbands welfare being provided for, rules were suspended and delicious refreshments were served in Mrs. Fair-man's usually gracious manner, leaving the members longing for another opportunity to meet in her pleasant home.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

She Saturated Her Clothing With Oil and Ignited It.

Mrs. Carroll Lockett suicided at Mullin Wednesday afternoon at the home of her father, Mr. D.
Y. Childers. She had been with her brother at the barn snacking corn, but becoming tired she returned to the house. Going into one of the rooms she locked the door and pouring coal oil over her clothing set fire to it. Her mother, who was in the house, heard her scream and endeavored to go to her assistance, but before the door could be broken down she was so badly burned that she only lived a few hours.

Mrs. Lockett was recently adjudged insane and was placed in the asylum for treatment, but the knowledge that she was in an asylum for insane distressed her so much that her family took her away and carried her to Mineral Wells, where it was believed she improved considerably and she was then brought home.

Ivy-Caraway.

On the night of Dec. 31, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. J. G. Caraway, in the Bull's Springs community, Miss Clemmie Caraway and J. S. Ivy were united in marriage in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives, Rev. D. I.
Haralson officiating. After the ceremony a magnificent supper was served and later those so inclined participated in a dance and the time was most pleasantly spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy will make their home in Hanna Valley.

Wiedebush-Kauhs.

Paul Wiedebush and Miss Augusta Kauhs were married at the home of the bride's parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Jul Kauhs, in the Bull's Springs community last Friday at eleven o'clock. Rev.
D. I. Haralson officiated on the happy occasion and after the ceremony a delightful dinner was served to the assembled guests.

Mr. Wiedebush is a prosperous farmer of Williamson county and they will make their home in that county.

Church Burned at Mullin.

The Primitive Baptist church building at Mullin burned Wednesday night. The house stood near the public school building and was used for the primary department of the school. It is supposed the fire started from the flue or the accidental dropping of a coal from the stove. The financial value of the building was not large.

Business Change.

C. M. Allen this week bought the interest of J. M. Allen in the

JOAN OF ARC.

Obituary.

Wednesday night, Dec. 30, at the midnight hour the hearts of many were made heavy by the death of Mrs. Will Keating, who departed this world after a lingering illness attended by much suffering. Mrs. Keating's maiden name was Miss Blanche Routh, she was born December, 20, 1872, and was married to Mr. Will Keating, December 23, 1895. They lived together for thirteen short happy years during which their lives were blessed by five bright, healthy boys. She leaves to mourn her departure a devoted husband, five loving children, an aged father, besides brothers, sisters and many friends.

She was a member of the Missionary Baptist church, and was a true and consecrated Christian. She bore her sufferings with much fortitude and when the summons came she was not afraid to go. Her life was beautiful, noble, upright, pure, and refined. Never has it been our lot to know a more noble, lovable Christian, never has the beauty of Christian living been more exhibited; never has the blessedness and restfulness of a belief in Christ been more fully shown than when she entered the "Valley of the Shadow of Death" with no fear and a desire to remain here for the sake only of her loved ones. Her influence was ever for the good and pure. She was much loved by all right thinking people who knew her, but where she was most loved, where her influence was most felt, was in her own home and among her own people.

She was ever a loving faithful wife and was a mother among a thousand. She never had a moment to lose sight of the responsibility of motherhood, and it was her constant aim to raise her children to be noble, upright, intelligent Christian men. We miss her, but God, in his wisdom, knows best, and He it was who called her from us, yet we can not believe that he took her from us that her influence here might cease, for her influence will ever live in the hearts of those who know and love her. Could we be saying too much, should we say that so long as this world stands it will be a nobler and better place because of her having lived in it? We believe that nothing good is ever lost, and we truly believe that she—washed from her sins in the blood of Christ—was truly good and her influence was good.

Borrowing husband weep not, God knows best and he called her away, but before our Saviour departed this world he said:—"I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you." The same words are true to day. Look to God for comfort. In him she trusted and all is well.

Dear little children weep not, your darling mother is free from all pain and suffering, and the same God that cared for her will lead you and some day you shall meet her again, if you love and trust the God she trusted. Our Saviour has said:—"Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Borrow not, only await the glad reunion. A sincere friend.
