Teachers Reception.

The Mothers and Teachers Club and the Self Culture club entertained the Teachers Institute in the court house Monday evening and the occasion was one of pleasure for all who attended. The attendance was not as large as was expected, owing to the meagre notice given the people of the city, but there was a good crowd there anyway and the visiting teachers were made to feel a hearty welcome.

The exercises were opened by Mr. W. E. Miller, the master of ceremonies, with a short and appropriate speech and he introduced Judge S. H. Allen, who delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Prof. Fisher of Mullin. Then came readings by Misses Lella Brown, Lovie Gatlin, Joyce Harrison and Nita Cookrum.

At the close of the program, which was interspersed with delightful music by the Goldthwaite orchestra, Mr. Miller announced that the remainder of the evening would be spent in a social way and that refreshments would be served to all present, by the clubs entertaining. The refreshments consisted of hot chocolate with whipped cream and wafers and that part of the program was heartily enjoyed, as well as the balance of the evening's entertainment.

KINDNESS.

Published by request of Miss Mary Thomas.

Only a pleasant good morning,
Only a shake of the hand;
Only a kind word of comfort,
As we go through this sin-stained land.

Only a kind word spoken,
Only a smile as you pass;
Only a small love-token,
Yet through life it will last.

Only a tear with the weeping,
Only a smile with the gay;
Only a visit to cheer them,
Who on beds of affliction lay,
Only a song for the Savior,
Only a prayer or a flower;
Only a word for the Master,
In a sad and lonely hour.

Only to lighten the heartaches
Of others who have them to bear;
How great may be the blessing
If we but help them to share

The burdens they have to carry,
Of sickness, sorrow and woe,
Be kind to those around you;
It costs but little you know,

Be kind to the aged and helpless;
Alike to the rich and poor.
If we fail in deeds of kindness,
We'll not reach heaven's door,

For kindness pleases heaven,
Angels, Father and Son;
Do little deeds of kindness
Thill your work on earth is done.

Children Injured

A few nights ago as the people of Star were enroute for the church in that community, where a revival was being held, three children were run over and badly injured by a man driving at a rapid rate. Tom Venable's little daughter had one leg broken, while her brother had his head so badly hurt it had to be sewed up. A little daughter of John Venable was also badly bruised and another had a narrow escape from the reckless driver.

Andrew Perkins, a young man of that section, was arrested and jailed charged with being guilty of inflicting the injuries on the children and also with carrying a pistol. He is still in jail.

Choked to Death

Is commonly said of babies who have died of croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. Sold by R. E. Clements.

The Bachelor Maids club met at the Humphries home, with Miss Lois Humphries as hostess, on Friday night of last week. The president, in a beautiful lavender messaline trimmed in gold, presided over the meeting with her usual grace and charm, while the secretary, gowned in a spangled net over messaline, read the minutes of the last meeting.

After the business matters were finished all sat in eager expectancy for the announcement of the names of those who would soon cease to be "Bachelor Maids" and become instead—"Bachelors' Dears." Great was the surprise when neither our president, secretary nor hostess was announced, but our far-away friend and member, Miss Alpha Hearne, to Mr. William Crane of Franklin.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to games, one being to root a penny across a rug in the shortest possible time. Another was the recitation of a "Mother Goose" rhyme with each word ending in a given quotation. For this Miss Ada Moore was given the prize—a handsome book. Refreshments of hot chocolate, cake, divinity candy and stuffed dates were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother. At a late hour the guests departed, all declaring Miss Lois Humphries to be an ideal hostess.

WOMAN'S WOES

A Certain Cure for Female Trouble and That Tired, Nervous, Depressed Feeling That Makes Household Work a Dreary Burden.

Work, work;
Nothing but work;
Tiresome drudgery!
Work used to be a pleasure, but now a few minutes effort leaves you weak, discouraged and irritable with a feeling that everything has gone wrong.
The liver and bowels are responsible for this.

The symptoms are, heart palpitation, faintness, suppressed, excessive or irregular periods, bad digestion, bearing down pains in the side and back, nervous weakness, poor appetite, costiveness.

Prickly Ash Bitters sweeps away these troubles like magic, because it strikes at the root of the disease—the stomach, liver and bowels.

Women who take medicine for female troubles that does not benefit these organs are wasting money and valuable time. The liver is diseased because the stomach is unhealthy, and both have produced a constipated habit. This stoppage of healthy action in the liver and bowels has filled the system with impurities which have brought on irregularity in the female organs; it follows therefore, that a medicine which will correct the liver, strengthen the stomach and promote healthy bowel operations is the remedy for menstrual difficulties.

The poor, tired, discouraged woman who has suffered silently and so long with the ailments of her sex soon feels the strengthening and exhilarating influence of Prickly Ash Bitters. It does its work thoroughly, beginning with the stomach and extending its purifying and stimulating influence to the liver and bowels. When the stomach, liver and bowels are active and working in harmony, there must be health and regularity in the female organs. As a result of this improved condition the patient takes a renewed interest in her household duties. Appetite and strength return, the eyes are brighter, the complexion clears, and before long she is transformed into a bright, happy woman with rosy cheeks and cheerful spirits.

"I suffered much from indigestion and constipation. I had a drowsy tired feeling and nervous headaches all the time. I began using Prickly Ash Bitters and it has helped me wonderfully. I now have a good appetite, sleep well and can do a greater amount of work than ever before."

It will take two good hands and teams sufficient for the right man and cannot afford to rent to anyone without good tools, teams and force to work it right. See me at once.

The Imagination.

Had you ever stopped to consider what a power there is in the imagination? Sin first entered into this world through the imagination and it is today the fortress of evil behind which men and women hide to commit the foulest deeds and most damnable crimes. Men and women commit murder in their imagination and incur its guilt, who never have a chance to do it with their hands. Imagination can play upon the mind and make a well man ill. It can give to a poor man all the sensations of wealth and nothing seems so elusive when we try to measure it. It can build palaces and take from the home of another and place her as queen in said palace, upon whom, he, who imagines, bestows the kiss of love and confidence and say, "This is all my own." Yet it is not. It takes hold of the mind, goes out on trips, climbs mountains, crosses rivers, gets in and out of love scrapes, dies, and tries a trip into the beyond, moves about among the stars, shakes hands with the planets, rides in airships, hears the voice of music, the applause of men, counts the accumulated thousands of dollars, lies down to sleep and without any special effort to regain natural consciousness, finds himself face to face with the stern realities of life with the imagination playing upon something that is not, and never will be. Mr. Reader, have you not taken these flights, had lengthy conversation with an imaginary enemy, come to blows that had conquered combatants at your feet? On the other hand have you not in your imagination acted as peace maker in such combats and won for yourself laurels that money could not buy? As public school teachers have you not in your imagination approached the chairman of the board, presented your letters of introduction and tremblingly made your little speech and then awoke to the fact that there was no chairman of the board there? The Old Book says, "That every imagination of the thoughts of man's heart is only evil continually." Again it says, "I shall have peace though I walk in the imagination of mine heart to add drunkenness to thirst." Again, "They became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened." "Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me."

"How long will ye imagine mischief against a man?" These questions are propounded to us today as truly as they were to those in the days of the Psalmist and the writers of the Bible who felt constrained to deal with the imagination of man and hang its dark picture on the walls of memory in warning of the evils that can be cherished and harbored in the imagination against one who never did them a wrong. Beware! beware! Be not deceived. God is not mocked, whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. An envious disposition, cultivated, will lead to evil imaginations; and oh how many such dispositions exist? The dark storm is gathering against evil doers whether in high or low places, and the imaginations of the heart will be dealt with as truly as any and all other sins. RAMBLER.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

The Lometa Reporter issued a Christmas edition last week that reflected much credit on the paper and the town.

A truck gardener near Wichita Falls is shipping cabbage grown by irrigation and reports having made ten tons to the acre.

The Christmas accidents commenced early this year and a number of people have been injured in different ways and some have been killed during the week.

The wife of Hec McEabbin, one of the editors of the El Paso Times, shot and killed herself last Saturday because her daughter married against her wishes.

During a fire in a building at Dallas Monday night an explosion of gas in the building threw seven firemen across the street, but they were not injured seriously.

The census bureau reports 10,898,482 bales of cotton ginned in the United States for the season of 1910 up to Dec. 13. Of this number 2,849,911 were ginned in Texas.

Sunday night two thieves hurled a rock through a show window of Linz Bros. jewelry store in Dallas and grabbed a tray containing $8000 worth of diamonds and escaped.

The police of Houston "picked up" two men on the streets of that city a few days ago who claimed to be deaf and dumb and for that reason were soliciting alms from the public. When placed in the calaboose the men acknowledged that they could both hear and speak.

Governor-elect Colquitt has appointed Col. W. G. Sterrett of the Dallas News staff and one of the most popular newspaper men in the state, to be game, fish and oyster commissioner. The Colonel is an experienced fisherman but we don't know how much he knows about games.

A Boston man has been sent to an insane asylum for kissing a policeman. He had before tried to kiss a number of strange women, but it was thought he was only slightly deranged and would get over it. When he tackled the cop, however, the court took judicial cognizance and sent him up.

In every community, from one end of the state to the other, people are being warned and implored to pay their poll tax in order that they may vote in the election next year. It is confidently believed that the legislature will submit the state wide prohibition amendment and pro and anti alike are anxious for the voters to have poll tax receipts in order that they may vote on the proposition.

Few people realize the immense value of Texas products and the wonderful resources of this great state. The fact that the value of agricultural products of Texas each year averages $600,000,000 and that with an increasing population, scientific methods and increased acreage will make the products reach a value of $1,000,000,000 is hardly appreciated by the great majority of the people of this state.

Mullin.

Editor Eagle:
Robt. Fisher arrived in Mullin Sunday night with his newly found bride from Williamson county to visit relatives in Mills. Drouths don't seem to have any control over matrimonial ventures. Poor Rambler!

We went to the depot Monday morning to take a look at the departing teachers as they took the train for the institute and we very readily decided that other localities would have to spread themselves if they turned out a better looking set—we mean the female portion of the crowd. I Prof. Pickens, Kemper and Fisher can't hold their own with Miller, Hays and others of the less fair sex we will not be responsible.

We notice a squib in last week's Eagle stating that some were already wondering if Smiling Billie would not be at the institute. He may, as we noticed an article in the same issue from his ready pen announcing he is not dead, but among the living.

There will be two Christmas trees and Sunday school exercises in Mullin Christmas eve night. This is nothing strange, when you consider the population and rapid growth of the city. There is nothing puffy about this is there Mr. Editor.

Francois Leinneweber and Geo King hit the road early Monday morning with dogs and guns to silence the bob white feathered tribe. They returned in the late afternoon with—as the result of their day's work.

As Smiling Billie has been found, we trust when 1911 ushers in the correspondents will wake up and throw a few crumbs to the Bird? Why not some of the present school teachers tell us of some of the happenings in their school districts? If I were king and monarch of all I surveyed I would scan my eyes over my vast domain and let the people hear from me.

A little fellow was approached on the streets of Mullin by an elderly gentleman a few days since, who asked him if he went to school and who his teacher was, and the little fellow proudly answered that Mr. Miller was his teacher. "Oh yes," said the man, "I know him. He's a good-looking fellow, aren't he?" The boy looked up rather cunningly and said—"You sure said something then." There's nothing like training your pupils to stick to you.

Leinneweber & Cobb are just about winding up the distribution of 6000 folders sent hither and thither through the earth telling the people of their land bargains, and through their earnest and persistent advertising the county of Mills is better off with some good citizens from other places. After the holidays they are open for bids on a larger folder and expect to sow the land down with this kind of advertising. If you want in you had better begin to make your wants known.

Rambler longs to look in upon the august body of the teachers now assembled in the city of Goldthwaite for an interchange of ideas, but matters of greater importance to him say "no." Doubtless many changes have taken place and, owing to the interference of judges, preachers and other men of low estate, the moving away of some without such interference as well as some retiring from the ranks, the crowd may not look like it did of yore. With hat off we wish to add our little testimony to the fact that some of these who are filling the places of those breaking the ranks need no one to apologize for them for their appearance on the scene. We mean—the ladies and—and—the young man of the Pickens school. RAMBLER.

Teachers Institute.

The teachers institute has been in session this week with a full attendance and while the work has been very satisfactory to those interested the effort will be in future to have a more perfectly arranged program and preparation for better work.

The addresses have all been good and have been of benefit to the teachers. Judge S. H. Allen, Mr. J. C. Darroch, Rev. Woodward, Prof. Hamilton of Howard Payne college, Prof. Kimball of Temple and Mr. P. H. Clements have all delivered interesting and appreciated addresses to the teachers and the untiring work of Judge Allen to make the institute interesting and beneficial should certainly be appreciated by the teachers.

The teachers have arranged to have an educational column in the Eagle after this week and if it is conducted along the lines planned it will certainly be of vast benefit, as will the reading course outlined.

W. F. Page Dead.

Mr. W. F. Page died at his home in Lometa Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after a short illness with pneumonia, and his remains were brought to Goldthwaite and interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Page lived here a long time and only recently moved to Lometa and engaged in the hotel business at that place, which was the same line he had been engaged in here for a number of years. He was known personally to a great many people in this section and no man stood higher or had more friends. He was always courteous, and careful of the feelings and well-fare of those about him and was in every sense an ideal Christian man—one with whom it was a pleasure to be associated. He leaves a disconsolate widow and children who have the heartfelt sympathy of all who know of their great loss.

Mr. Page was a member of the Methodist church and of the Woodmen lodge and after the funeral services at the church, conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. B. Moon, the Woodmen conducted the burial service.

B. M. C. Shower.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, the home of Miss Addie Hudson was a scene of beauty. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower given by the Bachelor Maids club to one of its members, Miss Alpha Hearne, whose marriage is announced for Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, at the First Methodist church to Mr. William Crane of Franklin, Texas.

After the guests had assembled they marched into the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Miss Lois Humphries at the piano. The honoree was conducted by the president, Miss Maud Low, to the seat of honor which was overhung by a large white bell, strings of white bells leading from this to the four corners of the room. To carry out the color scheme each member of the club was dressed in white with the exception of the bride, who wore blue messaline satin. A toast to the bride was given by each one, all standing as the loving cup was passed. The president handed the cup to the bride with this toast—

"We'll drink to love—love, the one irresistible force which annihilates distance, prejudice and principles; love, the pastime of the occident, the passion of the east; love, that stealth upon us like a thief in the night, robbing us of rest but bestowing in its place a gift more precious than the sweetest sleep—love is the burden of my toast.

Here's to the wings of love;
May they never moult a feather,
Till your little bark and Will's little bark
Sail down life's stream together.
I drink to the health of the B. M. C.
I drink to the health of the groom.
I drink to the health of the bride to be,
May her life be one long honeymoon."

White score cards in the shape of a bell and tied with the club colors of white and yellow were passed for a contest, in which the letters of words were mixed up, the words being the names of the different articles of a bride's trousseau. The score was a tie between Misses Lois Humphries and Minnie Rahl, and Miss Lois, being successful in the draw, was awarded a beautiful handkerchief which she presented to the honoree.

Miss Maymie Sherman sweetly sang "Beautiful Garden of Roses," and as the last words were sung the streamers of the bell were pulled and the bride to be was indeed showered with many beautiful and useful articles. While these were being admired by all Miss Addie Hudson served fruit punch. Next in order was the fortune cake, each Bachelor Maid cutting her own slice. Miss Lois Humphries got the ring, which signified her to be the next "fortunate" one; Miss Maymie Sherman the dime, showing she would marry a rich man; and Miss Mary Pardue the thimble, which settles her fate for all time to come—"to be a Bachelor Maid forever." Slips of paper were then passed and each requested to write a receipt, "How to keep a man's love."

The most practical answer to the query was—"Give him three square meals a day." The receipts were then put together in book form and given to the bride for future reference, she promising faithfully to give each one a fair trial.

Ambrosia and cake were then served and, after much music and laughter, the time came all too soon for us to go—with the bride-to-be wishing that each one would be next. A MEMBER,

My chops are home ground made from good clean corn and always fresh. W. E. Pardue.

Goldthwaite Skating Rink.

In view of the fact that statements have been publicly made tending to convey the impression that the Goldthwaite Skating Rink is a place calculated to have an effect detrimental to the moral welfare of the young people of the community, we, the proprietors, desire to put before the public the following facts regarding the management of the rink.

1. The Goldthwaite Skating Rink is a legitimate business, conducted on strictly business lines, and pays a percentage to the Goldthwaite Band.

2. The rink is a pleasant place of healthful recreation. "All work and no play make Jack a dull boy," and we make bold to state that the rink supplies a needed want for the young people of the city. Roller-skating as an exercise is harmless and, at the same time, exhilarating and invigorating.

3. No drinking, gambling or swearing will be allowed on the premises, nor will any intoxicated person be allowed admission.

4. Dancing will not be permitted in the building under any circumstances.

5. Parents who do not wish their children to skate have only to inform the proprietors, who will gladly meet their wishes by refusing the children admittance to the rink.

In conclusion, the management will endeavor at all times to conduct the rink in such a manner as to make it a fit and proper place in which any lady or gentleman may pleasantly spend a leisure hour. The premises are comfortable, well lighted and heated, and it is the desire of the proprietors that there be no objectionable features in connection with their conduct of the business. The public are cordially invited to pay a visit to the rink and see and judge for themselves. Sessions are held each afternoon from 3 till 5 and at night from 7 till 9.

Christmas Time

This is the season when every one is looking for something suitable for presents for friend or loved one.

A few timely suggestions as to what would be appropriate and most likely to be appreciated should be in order.

Two things are of prime importance in selecting presents, viz, 1st, choose something that will be appreciated, and 2nd, select something useful.

A sack of good flour, a nice bowl and pitcher, a picnic ham or a bucket of Statesman coffee containing a nice Japanese cup and saucer would be sure to please the housekeeper. A water set, a box of Xmas candy or a collection of fine nuts and fruits would please the young ladies.

A box of cigars, or a pipe and a box of tobacco would tickle the young men, and some of the older ones too. Then the children will be delighted with candy and apples, coconuts, oranges, peanuts, bananas, pecans, walnuts, pop corn, etc.

Then there is the Christmas dinner to be enjoyed by the whole family.

Your order for any or all the above will be gladly received and promptly and carefully filled by J. C. STREET.
