The prohibitionists of the county opened the campaign for state-wide prohibition with a well attended mass meeting at the court house Saturday.

Rev. D. W. Gaddy performed the marriage ceremony for J. H. Hufstetter and Miss Ruth Owen in the parlor of the San Saba House last Wednesday evening.

The question of the incorporation of the town is again coming to the front. A petition is being circulated asking the city commission to call an election to determine whether or not incorporation shall be voted off.

Some parties left Lometa Saturday for points in this county with what was supposed to be a large tool chest, supposed to be filled with tools for working at the carpenter's trade. Sheriff Miller captured just such a chest hidden away in a gulch some distance from the camp, but instead of carpenter tools it contained whiskey.

Last Sunday evening Mrs. J. S. Bowles preached to the children at the Methodist church.

Bowles has inaugurated a line of work and will make permanent feature of the services at the church. The work is not intended alone for the children of the Methodist family, but all the children of the community are cordially invited to attend.

COMANCHE

Bart Johnson and Mrs. McArthur were married at the Methodist parsonage Saturday night.

Wednesday, March 14, has been set aside as a general clean-up day in Comanche.

J. T. and Mrs. M. E. Terry were married at Catter's store Monday morning. They had been married, but separated and divorced, but a reconciliation was effected, and Sunday she arrived from Cooke county, where she had been staying.

G. A. Chilton died at his home in this city Tuesday night at 1:30 o'clock of Bright's disease and a complication of lagrippe, rheumatism and rising in his head. He had only been taken down three or four days prior to his death.

At the meeting of the city council Monday night S. W. Childers resigned as chief of police and water superintendent to take effect March 15. He and family will move to Santa Anna, where he will have the management of a hardware business, owned by himself and F. E. Adams.

Each of these defendants was sentenced at the spring term of district court last year to two years in the penitentiary on charges of pursuing in the occupation of a liquor dealer in local option territory—Exponent.

BROWNWOOD.

The firm of E. B. Henly & Company, doing a real estate and fire insurance business in Brownwood for fifteen years or more, has been dissolved and Mr. Henly has retired from the business.

State dispatches announce the dismissal of the appeal in the Good Wooldridge case from Brown county. Wooldridge was convicted in this county for seduction and was given a term in the penitentiary. Appeal was taken to the higher courts.

John Benham and family have returned from lower Mexico where they spent some eighteen months, and Mr. Benham announces that he is back to stay. He says he does not regret his stay in the tropics, but that it is too isolated to suit himself and family and that he will not return. Sometimes they would not see any one from the states in two or three months and the tropical insects make life almost unbearable there. It is a great fruit country and one enjoys to visit there. John is going to join his brother, Newt, on the farm near Grosvenor.

The compensation of the county tax assessor for the assessment of taxes for the road bonds in district No. 1 was the subject of a very interesting discussion before the commissioners court this morning, when Mr. Miller and his attorneys appeared before the court to effect a compromise whereby the bills of Mr. Miller for assessments of 1909 and 1910 might be allowed. It was stated that Mr. Miller had made the special assessments for the years named and had received no compensation therefor, when under the law and the ruling of the attorney general he is entitled to something like $1750.00 each year.

News of a shooting in the Salt Creek community, seven miles southwest of Blanket, reached Brownwood just before noon Sunday, and a little later Joe Hamlin, a well known citizen living on the Clio road near Bill Anderson's came to town and gave himself up to Jailor Lile. The dead man is Roger Faulkner, son of George Faulkner who lives near Blanket, and the killing took place at the home of his brother, Jim Faulkner, in the Salt Creek community. The weapon used was an old time Colt's and three bullets took effect in the region near the heart. Hamlin was placed in jail and held as a prisoner until this morning when he made bond in the sum of $2500 to appear on next Monday for examining trial. The trouble which caused the shooting is traced to an alleged insult to the daughter of Hamlin, who is the wife of Jim Faulkner, with whom Roger Faulkner lived.—Bulletin.

Little Edwin, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mat Kuykendall, last Thursday fell in climbing into a wagon, and his foot caught in the wheel breaking his leg at the ankle. It was a very bad break, but at last accounts the little fellow was getting along nicely.

Judge Allen and the county commissioners have been invited to go to Brownwood as guests of the Goldthwaite Commercial club to see the road building going on there and look into the plans and methods of the work. This is a splendid plan and the club is entitled to the gratitude of the people of the entire county. The commissioners are the supervisors of road work in this county and by inspecting the work in progress near Brownwood they will get many valuable ideas and suggestions that will help them in their work, especially in the sand and the muddy places where such work is needed. The trip will probably be made the first of the week.

A Six O'Clock Dinner.

On February 28 it was with pleasure we met at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fairman. The clouds hung heavily and the cold and gloom prevailed outside, yet the scene within was not marred, for everything presented the beauty and brightness of spring. Soon the merriment and laughter filled the parlor. The hostess, in her usual gracious manner, threw open the doors into the dining room. Here a five course dinner was served in a most perfect manner, during which time there was a constant flow of wit and humor. After dinner several pianoforte selections were rendered and some old time songs were sung by Misses Kelley, Moore, Prater and Mr. Wilbur Fairman. Delicious pop corn was passed and much enjoyed. Then each guest found their places arranged for 42. The merry game began and lasted until quite late. Mrs. Fairman plus hospitality a treat is in store for the fortunate guests and on this occasion the bright faces of a jolly crowd added zest to her efforts, which are always crowned with success.

The following guests participated: Misses Albertson, Sanderford, Moore, Prater, Martin, Kelley and Mr. Wilbur Fairman. A GUEST.

Huntsville.

Editor Eagle:

At a mass meeting of the students of Sam Houston Normal Institute a movement was set on foot to purchase the old log home of General Sam Houston and donate it to the Normal. The building was recently repaired and is now used as a boarding house. It is on a piece of ground that just into property belonging to the Normal; so it has become desirable for the institution to own both the lot and the log house. The students are very enthusiastic about the venture and hope to be able formally to present the lot and building to the state at the unveiling of the monument of Gen. Sam Houston on San Jacinto day. It is the intention of the alumni of the Sam Houston Normal to move the residence back to the old homestead grounds, now the property of the Normal, and install therein a museum for the preservation of relics of Sam Houston and other heroes of the Texas Revolution. A number of these relics are already owned by the normal and others have been promised.

On March 2 a large crowd of students and citizens witnessed a basket ball game between the Allen academy and normal teams, played on the court of the latter. The score stood ten to twenty-seven in favor of the normal. That evening from 8:30 to 11 o'clock the members of the girl's and boy's basket ball teams tendered the Allen boys a reception at the library. The boys were cheerful losers and expressed themselves as highly pleased with the courtesy shown them by the students of the normal, and admired the athletic spirit of the school.

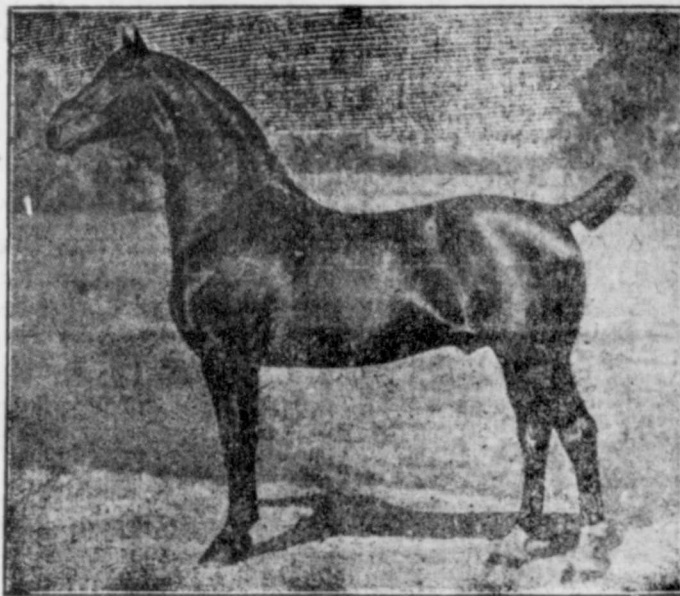

On March 4 a game was played with the Houston high school basket ball team. For a time it seemed doubtful as to which team would be victorious; the Houstonians made the first score. Another point was made for the visiting team, and a groan swept through the entire crowd. A number of enthusiastic normal boys started the school song, which seemed to help our boys. A good rah! rah! rah! screamed all the students in a body, for then the score was 4 to 10, still Houston was ahead, but our boys were pulling to the front. The score ran up and up until it ended by the normal winning the championship, the score being 28 to 13 in their favor. The normal boys have won every game this season.

Editor Burger of the Mullin Enterprise was in the city yesterday prospecting with a view to locating, but the Eagle did not learn what determination he reached.

Nothing will be gained in the end by misrepresenting an opponent or misstating his position. The advocates of the bonds and those who prefer to build roads by taxation are all in favor of good roads and believe they are acting in the interest of the town and county.

Better get our prices on furniture, for we will interest you.—Bodkin, Hurdle & Co.

All Good Roads lead to Everly's

Road Bonds.

That all men are in favor of good roads, I believe too self evident to admit of discussion. That honest and intelligent men may differ in opinion as to the best and most economical plan to adopt to improve our public roads, I think is equally true. So let us concede that all men, in the discussion of this matter, are equally honest and patriotic, and that all desire good public roads, and not deal in personalities, because the latter only show the weakness of our argument. So the question is not, do we want good roads, but what is the best and most economical plan to pursue in order to get the means to procure them. Those who favor the issuance of the road bonds of this precinct, say that is the best plan. We who oppose the issuance, say nay—that the best and most economical plan is to levy a special tax.

As I understand it, those who hold the affirmative propose the issuance of the road bonds of this precinct in the sum of $50,000.00, payable in forty years and bearing 5 per cent interest per annum, and redeemable at any time after ten years, and the levy and collection, annually, of a tax to pay the interest thereon, and create a sinking fund sufficient to pay all of said bonds at the end of the forty years.

The taxable value of the property of this precinct is $2,138,000.00, and the presumption is that it will gradually increase each year, but for the sake of convenience we will say that it is $2,000,000.00. We must set aside for the sinking fund each year for ten years (because the bonds are not redeemable before the end of that time) $1250 00, making $12,500.00 lying idle in the depository at the end of that time, bearing such interest as the Depository may be willing to pay. Each year we must collect $2500 to pay the current interest on the bonds. On the latter practically no interest is paid by the Depository, because in a brief time it is paid out to the bond holders as interest. For at least a time we must raise each year by special tax $3750 to pay the current interest of $2500 per annum, and create the sinking fund of $1250 annually, to pay these bonds, and in addition thereto enough to pay the county officers their fees for handling the funds. The assessor gets 5 per cent on the first $2,000,000 taxable property or $1,000 per annum; the collector and treasurer each get 5 per cent of the taxes collected—say 5 per cent of $5,000, or $250.00 each; furthermore the treasurer gets 5 per cent of the amount the bonds sell for; so if they sell at par he gets $2500, and we get $47,500 for road purposes. In forty years we will have paid the assessor $40,000 for assessing this tax, not mentioning what we pay the collector and treasurer. We cannot reduce this expense without changing the law.

Now why should these bonds be made so we cannot redeem them before after ten years? Why should they be fixed so that we must accumulate $12,500 in the treasury before we can begin paying them? Why should we burden ourselves with this enormous expense of more than $40,000 to pay officers before we get these bonds paid? The cost of collecting the taxes and disbursing the same alone, will be greater than the bond issue. All of this in order to, in a brief time, spend $500 per mile on the roads of this precinct. Do we need that much per mile, and does it pay? These are the questions to ask yourselves.

From our present road tax we get more than $3000 per annum in this precinct. This tax is not likely to be reduced, because the other precincts will want it, and this tax must be uniform all over the county, and not one cent of it can be used to pay bonds. Now we, who oppose the bond issue, say: Levy a special tax of, say 15c on the $100 valuation, getting thereby at least $3000 per annum, to supplement our present fund, and spend the same on the roads until we get them in a good condition, and then repeal the tax and we owe no one. This would give us at least $60 per mile each year besides the work of the road hands, and we claim that in less than ten years the roads could be put in excellent condition and the tax repealed.

Boosts for Texas.

The luxuriant banner of a virgin soil waves over an empire of idle acres, beckoning the farmer, the laborer, the manufacturer, the railroad builder and all useful citizens to come to Texas.

The astounding possibilities for investment and advancement draw the tendrils of industrial and commercial life of the nation toward Texas, where all can share the heritage of a beneficent Creator.

When we buy cotton goods to the amount of one dollar, the farmer gets 27 cents, the transportation companies 7 cents, the English manufacturer 35 cents and the government 33 cents, while with the factory in Texas the entire dollar would remain with us.

Good roads are winning a prominent place in popularity with the farmers and no county is considered progressive that has not improved its public highways. Build good roads and place your county in the progressive class.

The Texas farmers ship $1,200,000 of raw material daily to the factories outside the state and buy a portion of this back as a consumer. To build the factories necessary to manufacture the raw material produced in Texas will require an investment of one billion dollars.

It is as important to properly market as it is to properly raise farm products. We are a producing country and, therefore, interested in markets and market facilities for our products. The world's average is two acres of cultivated land per capita, while in Texas we have seven acres of cultivated land per capita, leaving a surplus production of five acres of cultivated land for each individual which must be sold.

Texas offers exceptional opportunities to every line of industry and new fields are constantly opening up that were formerly considered to belong strictly to other states and countries. The latest venture is a fur farm which is to be established in Southwest Texas by a company of eastern capitalists, who recently visited the state for that purpose. The farm covers 3,000 acres of land which is the most suitable for growing fur bearing animals. Only two or three such ventures have been made in this country before, but have proven successful and there is every reason to believe that Texas will make good in the new industry.

The United States Department of Agriculture estimates the total cotton production of the United States in the season of 1910-11 will amount to 11,436,000 bales. The estimated production for Texas is 3,140,000, which is more than will be produced in the states of Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and Missouri combined. The wealth of the farmers of Texas is increased $200,000,000 annually by the fleecy staple and 9,000,000 acres of fertile Texas land is used for the cultivation of this valuable commercial plant. The Texas cotton crop will clothe the entire world with one suit per capita, but only one bale out of ever seventy produced in Texas is manufactured in the state; the remainder is sent to England at a transportation expense of $5.00 per bale to be manufactured into goods for Texans to wear, and our cotton crop gives employment to 350,000 factory laborers in England.—Commercial Secretaries.

Danger signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.
Danger signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Goldthwaite proof:
Joseph Tall, proprietor of the Rock Hotel, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "For two years I was subject to attacks of backache that came on suddenly, especially when I stooped. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply at Clements' Drug Store and after taking them a short time I was relieved. I have had no return of the pain for several months. In view of my experience, I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills live up to representations. I feel that they should be kept in every home."

Goldthwaite people can not be surprised anywhere in the world for their hospitality. Several copies of this fact were shown this morning.

In one case a man and his wife were found to be sick and in need of a doctor.

Dr. Johnson raised $33.81 by public subscription for them in a short time. A woman was also made that a lady and her children were in need at their home in the country. The Baptist ladies once sent them money and clothing, and the Methodist ladies sent them $10. Such acts as these are infrequent because of the necessity for them in this land of poverty.

Ridge.

Editor Eagle:

Not seeing any letter from our Ridge correspondent for quite a while will write a few lines.

Health of the people generally is good at present, although there has been quite a number of cases of lagrippe. Our old time friend, S. A. Murphy, has been confined to his bed for several days, but we are glad to say that he is now recovering. Also our esteemed friend, V. S. Meeks, has been very low with measles and complications of same, but he was able to ride out yesterday to Ridge and is gradually regaining his health and strength, for which we are glad and rejoice with him and his noble family.

We have had an abundance of rain of late and the land is in excellent condition for cultivation. Corn planting and gardening is all the go. Farmers certainly are jubilant over crop prospects at present and we should be very thankful to the all wise Giver of every good and perfect gift of both temporal and spiritual blessings.

Our school closes this week. Oh how we do wish it could continue on for at least two months longer! Your scribe thinks that our school has been a grand success from start to finish under the care and efficient management of that affable young gentleman, Mr. Dow Hudson. He is one of us and we wish for him and also predict for him a bright, useful and prosperous journey all along down the rugged pathway of life's uneven journey and I desire to give vent to my feelings in regard to our educational facilities. The true measure of any civilization is not in its prisons or magnificent temples of justice standing in the midst of well kept lawn, but rather in the humble school houses, where future man and woman is accustomed to answer the summons of the morning school bell. And the better the school house and conditions for the care of the health and lives of the children, the more honor and credit should be given the fathers and mothers of the children. This feeling here in Ridge school has found an expression in the form of the vote cast here on the 25th of last month in favor of a special school tax of 20c on the $100, the same to be appropriated to school purposes in general and a good school house in particular—18 votes for it and 4 against. See?

We have plenty of good fresh air, abundance of the very best water, since the new city wind mill has been raised. We have good, honest neighbors and a hard working, Christian citizenship. What more could we ask? Say, bud, move to Ridge. I should like at some time in the near future to drop a few lines on the subject of state-wide prohibition, and if you don't care I will give your readers some eye opening history of this move. I realize that this is a very, very vital question, and we should go to the bottom of it and shun not to declare the whole council and also renounce the hidden things of dishonesty as we go along. No, I am not in favor of saloons, drunkenness, debauchery, fornication, murder, theft, blighting of home happiness nor any such things, and I am not a state-wider either. I am not under a black flag either. I am under the blood stained banner of Prince Emmanuel. But I am making this too lengthy, and will hold my forces in reserve for some time in the future, but it is all I can do to refrain from writing more, since all anti prohibitionists have been so misrepresented recently; and falsely accused of every crime under the sun.

"FIGHTING BOB" JAP'S IDEAL.

"Fighting Bob" Evans, in talking to some officers, once incidentally touched on the change of fortunes brought about by war. "I had a Japanese servant," he said, "for several years. The man was quiet, prompt and obedient, and I could depend upon him in an emergency. He was continually studying books on drill and tactics, and in his quiet way taking in everything. I never thought much about it, except that it was a spirit I liked, as I should have done likewise if I had been in a similar position. I supposed he read the books because they were handy, for you know a Jap is never idle.

"When I went out east a few years after I was introduced to a number of officers, and among them a colonel—the same Japanese who had been my servant. I recognized him at once and asked how he had managed in so short a time to rise so rapidly. With grave politeness he told me that through my kindness he had been able to study and observe and that he had patterned his life after mine and hoped some day to rise as high in his country as I had in mine."

On entering the guests were ushered into the dining room where delicious and refreshing punch was served by Misses Pauline Harris and Eleanor Skaggs. The ever pleasing and fascinating game of "Bunco" was played at the conclusion of the games. Miss Rahl Minnie received the prize—a handsome bottle of perfume, tied with the club colors, Miss Beulah Rahl received the booby—a small bottle of "Hoyle." Refreshments of ambrosia and cake were served. After expressing their appreciation of the pleasant evening the girls departed with regrets that Miss Smith had to return to her home on the next morning train.

Mullin.

Editor Eagle:

News is scarce. Everybody farming and planting gardens. Very few people coming to town.

We spent the day Tuesday down on Mr. Leineweber's farm. His alfalfa is looking fine and he is improving his irrigation plant, which is now up-to-date. We had fish for dinner and fish for supper.

Mr. Allen from Ballinger was here Tuesday looking after his cattle that he has been wintering on Mr. Leineweber's ranch; he has something over 100 head on the ranch.

Uncle Joe Fletcher has been delivering some nice seed corn in Mullin which he raised last year without irrigation. When properly planted and cultivated Mills county will produce farm products with very little rain. Read up on dry farming then try what others have made a success of.

There were some twelve or thirteen public religious services in Mullin last Sunday. How is that for one day? We think there were seven or eight sermons. There was preaching at four places at the same hour.

The state Sunday school convention convened at Fort Worth Thursday morning, March 9. It is expected to be the greatest Sunday school convention the state has ever had. We do not know whether Mills county will be represented or not. There will be representatives at the lat stock show. There will be representatives at Mineral Wells. Is the Sunday school of less importance than these?

Dr. Barrett from Brooke Smith has located in Mullin and has his office in the McCormick building ZEDDY.

Ridge.

Editor Eagle:

Not seeing any letter from our Ridge correspondent for quite a while will write a few lines.

Health of the people generally is good at present, although there has been quite a number of cases of lagrippe. Our old time friend, S. A. Murphy, has been confined to his bed for several days, but we are glad to say that he is now recovering. Also our esteemed friend, V. S. Meeks, has been very low with measles and complications of same, but he was able to ride out yesterday to Ridge and is gradually regaining his health and strength, for which we are glad and rejoice with him and his noble family.

We have had an abundance of rain of late and the land is in excellent condition for cultivation. Corn planting and gardening is all the go. Farmers certainly are jubilant over crop prospects at present and we should be very thankful to the all wise Giver of every good and perfect gift of both temporal and spiritual blessings.

Our school closes this week. Oh how we do wish it could continue on for at least two months longer! Your scribe thinks that our school has been a grand success from start to finish under the care and efficient management of that affable young gentleman, Mr. Dow Hudson. He is one of us and we wish for him and also predict for him a bright, useful and prosperous journey all along down the rugged pathway of life's uneven journey and I desire to give vent to my feelings in regard to our educational facilities. The true measure of any civilization is not in its prisons or magnificent temples of justice standing in the midst of well kept lawn, but rather in the humble school houses, where future man and woman is accustomed to answer the summons of the morning school bell. And the better the school house and conditions for the care of the health and lives of the children, the more honor and credit should be given the fathers and mothers of the children. This feeling here in Ridge school has found an expression in the form of the vote cast here on the 25th of last month in favor of a special school tax of 20c on the $100, the same to be appropriated to school purposes in general and a good school house in particular—18 votes for it and 4 against. See? We have plenty of good fresh air, abundance of the very best water, since the new city wind mill has been raised. We have good, honest neighbors and a hard working, Christian citizenship. What more could we ask? Say, bud, move to Ridge.

I should like at some time in the near future to drop a few lines on the subject of state-wide prohibition, and if you don't care I will give your readers some eye opening history of this move. I realize that this is a very, very vital question, and we should go to the bottom of it and shun not to declare the whole council and also renounce the hidden things of dishonesty as we go along. No, I am not in favor of saloons, drunkenness, debauchery, fornication, murder, theft, blighting of home happiness nor any such things, and I am not a state-wider either. I am not under a black flag either. I am under the blood stained banner of Prince Emmanuel. But I am making this too lengthy, and will hold my forces in reserve for some time in the future, but it is all I can do to refrain from writing more, since all anti prohibitionists have been so misrepresented recently; and falsely accused of every crime under the sun. "FIGHTING BOB" JAP'S IDEAL. "Fighting Bob" Evans, in talking to some officers, once incidentally touched on the change of fortunes brought about by war. "I had a Japanese servant," he said, "for several years. The man was quiet, prompt and obedient, and I could depend upon him in an emergency. He was continually studying books on drill and tactics, and in his quiet way taking in everything. I never thought much about it, except that it was a spirit I liked, as I should have done likewise if I had been in a similar position. I supposed he read the books because they were handy, for you know a Jap is never idle. "When I went out east a few years after I was introduced to a number of officers, and among them a colonel—the same Japanese who had been my servant. I recognized him at once and asked how he had managed in so short a time to rise so rapidly. With grave politeness he told me that through my kindness he had been able to study and observe and that he had patterned his life after mine and hoped some day to rise as high in his country as I had in mine."
