Premiums for Good Crops.

The Texas Industrial congress has offered $10,000 absolutely free to the farmers of this state, under the conditions named in the rules here given. The benefits of good crops will amply repay for the labor and time expended in the cultivation, even if a prize is not secured. There is no charge of any kind and those who expect to enter will have to hurry, as only a few days remain in which to make the entry. For full particulars write to Texas Industrial Congress, Dallas, Texas.

RULES.

Each contestant must raise both corn and cotton; no contestant can enter after April 1, 1911; full and regular reports must be made to the Congress on the 1st of each month; each contestant must so describe the location of his land that an inspector can easily find it; a careful record kept of how the crop is raised, cultivated and how often fertilizers, if any, are used, etc.; girls not over 20 years of age, on January 1, 1911, may try for prizes offered for 20 acres or for 10 acres for both; men and women may compete for the 20-acre prizes; corn must be grown on a single plot containing ten acres, as the case of the cotton must also be on a single plot containing ten acres, but the two may be grown on separate plots containing two or ten acres; prizes may be grown on one or two plots either four or twenty acres on the same farm, under the management of the same person; every contestant must agree not to appeal from the decision of the Committee but to accept its judgment as final.

Code Consumer.

When buying your flour, ask for the sack or more if you wish. PARDUE.

There are ways and ways to kill a town, but probably no more effective way than for everybody to patronize the mail order houses. Every community is, more or less, a victim of the mail order habit, and this habit, however small, works a proportionate injury to the business institutions that support a town. The man who obtains his living in a community ought to feel under a moral obligation to patronize those who live in the community. If everybody sent to Chicago for their dry goods we would soon have no dry goods houses; if we sent off for groceries the grocers would have to quit business; if we ordered clothing and hardware and drugs and printing, wall paper, paints and furniture, how long would it be before our town would be a back number with not enough life to distinguish it from a graveyard? The success of any local institution depends upon the support of the people. The interests of all are interwoven. If you help your local institutions those institutions help you. Send your money away and you forever rob your community of a part of the amount, and help paralyze her efforts for commercial success.—Ex.

Champ Clark, who is to be the next speaker of the lower house of congress, has broadly intimated that he would not be averse to accepting at least one term as president of these United States. He says he is not troubling about the office, but that it would be a good thing to have in the family.

C. L. Bodkin has moved his harness and repair shop to Bodkin, Hurdle & Co's. store.

Austin Notes.

There were 971 bills introduced in the 32nd legislature and 277 were enacted into law. Of the laws passed 105 were general, of which five have already been vetoed and 172 local, of which three have already been vetoed.

The legislature adjourned without passing the appropriation bill, which makes it absolutely necessary for an extra session not later than August.

All the redistricting bills died on the calendar. They may be taken up at the extra session.

The legislature created four new counties—Brooks, Jim Wells, Culberson and Willacy. We now have 249 counties in Texas.

The bulk of the legislation was local, most of it relating to city charters.

The submission of the constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition was perhaps the act of leading importance of the present session.

There were five constitutional amendments submitted by the 32nd legislature as follows: Statewide prohibition; providing that members of State Boards serve six years; authorizing cities to make their own charters; providing six year term for penitentiary commissioners; providing a tax of 5 cents for Confederate pensions.

By concurrent resolution the legislature endorsed the election of United States Senators by popular vote. Petitioned congress to legislate against polygamy and passed five other resolutions.

Again for Road Bonds.

In answer to an article written against road bonds and in favor of taxation will say I am strictly against taxation for many reasons. In the first place it is not economy; secondly, too expensive; thirdly, too slow a process. Should the people decide on the tax, we are just allowed 15c more raise, and the taxable property in our precinct being approximately $2,000,000, would be equivalent to $3,000 each year; thereby taking 16 years to obtain $48,000 and $2,000 on the seventeenth year. So we will say it will take 17 years to raise the amount of $50,000, the amount to be issued by our bonds. The interest on $50,000 at ten per cent added to the principal ($50,000) for 17 years would make the amount of $140,169. Now, so far as collecting, it will cost as much to collect tax money as bond money. The interest on $50,000 bond for 40 years will amount to $52,000, estimating what the banks will pay us back at 5 1-10 per cent. Of course we cannot get this absolutely correct, as the bank will pay back interest on our daily balances. Now, our bonds at that rate will cost us $102,000. Admitting our Treasurer will get $2500, all we can say is, "There is not a man in the county whom people had rather see get it than Mr. Wells." He happens to be the lucky man.

Now, with the tax it will be one year before we get the first $3,000. It will take the first two collections to buy the necessary machinery to do the work with. In that way it will be three years before we can begin work with our extra tax; and in that time we tax payers will be so thoroughly disgusted we will be ready to vote it off. And in that way we would not get money enough each year to justify our employing an engineer to oversee our work. Who in this county knows anything about this kind of work? We just know enough to spend it and get about one half of its value. We would necessarily take 17 years to spend this money, as we will be that time collecting it by taxation. Now, how much better would our roads be in that time? And who would be here to enjoy what we would have? Of course, we already have $3,000 coming in each year, but it will take that to keep them in their present condition, with heavy washing rains each spring. We will get the same $3,000 if we have the bond issue and when our bond money is spent our tax could be cut down to $2,000, and possibly less, as it would not require near the same amount of money to keep them up, after they are once put in order.

Now, with the bonds we can be at work in six months. The railroad will furnish us with a civil engineer and they know who to send. The money will be brought from a foreign county and spent among our home people, leaving $50,000 with, principally, the laboring people. We can do this work in two years with bonds and be getting the good of our investment at 5 per cent (less what the banks pay us back, making it cost us not more than 3 per cent) instead of 10, or better said, 11 per cent, using tax money. Now, this will make us a better county and a better town, make our land worth more. Think, did you ever hear of a county working her roads with taxes and making them permanent? Listen, you will never hear of them being made good any other way than bonds. It is the bond issue that put cement side-walks in the business part of Temple, and, being so well pleased with this method, they are going out with them to the resident part in the same way. It is the bond issue that has built the court houses in our counties, and a great many other public enterprises. Why pay $140,000 in 17 years when we can have 40 years to pay $102,000? Let us take the 40 years and be doing something else at the same time. Let's get busy and do something. Let's be progressive and show the people of our Lone Star State that Mills county is not a back number; and good roads is the best start. Ask the commissioners and the people who went to Brownwood to inspect the roads there, being made by bonds, what they think of it and what they are doing.

United we stand, divided we fall. Let's work together,
Yours for good roads,

Death's Visit.

Mr. Chas. A. Magee died at the home of Mr. F. N. Irwin in this city last Sunday at noon and his remains were interred in the cemetery at Pleasant Grove Monday morning. He had been a sufferer from bronchial or lung trouble a long time and he came here several years ago with the hope that the climate would be beneficial to him and for a while he appeared to improve. He was the only brother of Mrs. B. P. Hurdle, with whom he made his home, and was visiting at the Irwin residence when he became too sick to be moved home. He was a native of Franklinton, La. was 38 years of age and a printer by trade, but had been unable to work at that business for several years on account of the condition of his health. The Eagle held him in high regard, both as a citizen and a workman and joins in extending sincere sympathy to Mrs. Hurdle and other members of the bereaved family.

B. M. C.

It was with much pleasure the last meeting of the B. M. C. was in the home Misses Mamie and Eddy Kelley. Much to the surprise of the girls, we were met by "men," Messrs. Darroch, Marshall and Dr. Johnson, who seemed to want to join the B. M. C. We could never trust the men in our secret organization. Some members of the club seemed a little excited, but Misses Kate Fairman, Lawrence Thompson and Eddy Kelley assured the girls the three men present were harmless creatures. Soon the men were asked to repair to other quarters. And the president in her characteristic grace and manner presided over the meeting.

At the conclusion of the business meeting a very pleasing game was played—drawing letters from the deck and spelling bachelor maids. This was very enjoyable; soon the merriment and laughter of the girls filled the parlors. Miss Louis Humphries received the club prize—a box of Hylers, Miss Beulah Rahl, the booby—a box of "Cracker Jacks."

Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

After expressing thanks for the most enjoyable evening, the girls left, voting Misses Mamie and Eddy most charming hostesses.

The next meeting will be with Miss Zella Prater. REPORTER.

The Goldthwaite Eagle

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY

ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM

Entered at the Goldthwaite postoffice as second class mail matter.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

In the prohibition election in Caldwell county last Saturday the anti won by a majority of 11 votes.

Congressman Randell of Grayson county has announced his candidacy for United States senator to succeed Senator J. W. Bailey.

The legislature adjourned last Saturday and in his final message Governor Colquitt announced a determination of calling an extra session, but did not say when it would be convened.

The subject of good roads is attracting attention in almost every part of the world. It is no longer a question of the necessity for good and substantial highways, but the best means of securing these roads is being discussed everywhere. Various plans are proposed, but the fact that the improvements are needed is not debatable.

In Dallas and other cities in Texas the matter of the postoffice remaining open Sunday has been submitted to a vote of the patrons, irrespective of party affiliations or the right of suffrage and in every case the majority was overwhelming in favor of closing the offices on Sunday and allowing the postman a day of rest.

Many thousand people greeted Col. Roosevelt when he passed through the state this week, stopping at Houston, San Antonio, Austin, Dallas, and other places. He made several speeches and at every stop he was accorded as much honor as he would have had if he had been president of the nation. He kept clear of politics to a marked degree and his advice and information concerning public matters and public duties will or at least should be of lasting benefit.

If we have kind and comforting words for our friend and his labors, speak while our friend can hear and feel. During the conflicts of this life, unseal the alabaster boxes of praise and appreciation; they will do no good after he has gone. How many failures have occurred, how many lives have been blasted, how many uncrowned kings and uncrowned queens are spending their lives in obscurity—all attributable to the lack of expressed sympathy and appreciation on the part of supposed friends. If we have an approving word for a friend, why withhold our praise until our struggling friend sinks under his load and passes into the unknown where the praises of men are not needed? One word of approval, one token of appreciation, may re-invigorate and so strengthen a discouraged friend that he will take a new view and lease of life, for the lack of which he might give up the struggle. If we are to be friends to the dead, why not to the living? Why not show some mark of our friendship in this life? Are there not living friends deserving some token of esteem? Would it not be better to divide honors between the living and the dead? We may praise the dead, but let us not forget to encourage the living.—Unknown.

Responsive Reading.

The W. C. T. U. of Goldthwaite requests the use of the following responsive reading in the Sunday schools throughout Mills county tomorrow:

Song, "Rescue the Perishing"—School.

Prayer—Superintendent or pastor.

Responsive reading—Superintendent and school:

Supt.—What is the teaching of today's lesson as to Temperance?

School—It teaches that each of us is the "good man" or keeper of the house he lives in—his body—and is expected to keep it pure and protect it from attacks by its worst enemy, alcoholic drink. We need to bar the mouth-doors of our body-houses tight against this enemy, or it may sneak in and "steal away our brain," and cause us to forget to watch for the coming of the Lord in calls to duty here, and to the better home above.

Supt.—What does the Bible say of the final result of wine drinking?

School—At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder.—Prov. 23:32.

Supt.—What is said of those who encourage the use of drink?

School—Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, and putteth the bottle unto him, and maketh him drunken also.—Habakkuk 2:15.

Supt.—How does one who votes for liquor license violate this Scripture?

School—The license voter by his vote makes the liquor seller his agent, and through his agent "gives his neighbor drink," and thus incurs upon himself this woe of God.

Supt.—What does Paul say of the duty of abstinence for the good of others?

School—It is good neither to eat flesh nor drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. (Rom. 14:21) Wherefore if meat make my brother to offend I will eat no flesh while the world standeth. I Cor. 8:13.

Supt.—How does one who votes for liquor license violate this Scripture?

School—By his vote he helps to place pitfalls of ruin in the pathway of others that will cause thousands to "offend" or commit sin.

Supt.—What ought to be the attitude of Christian voters toward the liquor saloon?

School—The saloon being the enemy of the home, the school, the church, the state and every other good thing, every good man is bound to be the enemy of the saloon, and every soldier of the cross should feel impelled by the Spirit of Christ to fight the saloon, the arch enemy of all good, to its death.

Supt.—Why should the church interest itself in the destruction of the liquor traffic?

School—Because the church is commissioned of Heaven to save men and promote righteousness, while the saloon destroys men and promotes unrighteousness, and thus obstructs the work of the church for the salvation of the race.

Supt.—Ought ministers to take an active part in the fight on the saloon?

School—Certainly, Being the leaders of their churches in the world war upon sin, preachers ought to lead in the assault upon the saloon, which has become Satan's chief recruiting station for the army of evil on earth, and demolishing this bulwark of "the enemy of men's souls" is religious work. Hence it is entirely proper for God's people to use the Lord's house on the Lord's day to promote the movement for the destruction of the soul-destroying, crime-breeding, God-dishonoring liquor traffic.

Constable T. G. Preston of Center City attended the meeting of the state association of constables at Fort Worth the first of the week and was in that city at the time of the fire at the stock yards. Considerable business of importance was transacted by the association and members were shown much courtesy by the people of the Panther City. Mr. Preston was kind enough to bring the Eagle a copy of the Star-Telegram containing a full account of the proceedings and many other matters of interest.

TRIP TO BROWNWOOD.

Inspection of Good Roads by Mills County Delegation.

The members of the commissioners court, accompanied by some of the citizens of Goldthwaite, made a trip to Brownwood Monday to inspect the work being done on the public roads at that place, and they were all enthusiastic on the subject after seeing the good work being done by the road builders.

If there is a man in Mills county who is opposed to good roads or doubts their benefits he should make a visit to Brownwood or some other county where the work is in progress or has been completed and he will be convinced of the advantage of first class public highways.

The work on the Brown county roads has been in progress for something like two years and the road that was first built is really better than the newer portion, because it is fully settled and hardened. They do not use a rock crusher or road roller, but grade the road in the same manner it is done in this county and then cover it with "dobe" dirt, which makes a hard surface after becoming packed by rain and travel. In the low and marshy places rock is piled in and the dirt placed over in sufficient quantity to level the road bed and the rock on the bottom prevents washing away or being destroyed otherwise.

The Eagle firmly believes that 100 miles of such road built in sections where the roads are bad in this county would be worth many times the cost to the farmers in hauling their products to market and would be of incalculable benefit to the town in the way of causing people to come here because of the good roads.

The party visiting Brownwood as guests of the Commercial Club of this city was made up of the following: Walter Fairman and wife, Judge Allen and Judge Patterson in Mr. Fairman's car; L. R. Conroy and County Commissioner Hines in Mr. Conroy's car; W. H. Trent and wife, Mrs. R. M. Thompson, County Commissioner Mason and Nelson, in Mr. Trent's car; L. E. Miller, Mayor Rahl, Commissioner Renfro and R. M. Thompson in Mr. Miller's car. A number of other Mills county citizens were there, having made the trip on the railroad. The Brown county officers and citizens were glad to give us all the information possible concerning the road building, amount of time and money required in the building and other matters of interest to us all. Especially did Judge Broomfield and Tax Assessor Miller exert themselves to make our stay both pleasant and profitable and we all returned home more enthusiastic than ever on the subject of good roads.

There are now more than 30,000 United States troops along the Mexican border. Just what object the authorities had in congregating the troops in that section has never been made clear, but it is likely they expect the overthrow of the Diaz government in Mexico by the revolutionists.

Mullin. Editor Eagle: Good morning to all. Isn't this a fine morning? The birds are singing in the boughs and the bells are tinkling on the crows: The hogs are squealing in the pen, and we have had some warm times at Mullin. Ho, ye correspondents! Brother Bob will have to enlarge his paper if the force keeps increasing. We had Zeddy, Jill, New Comer, A Friend, Antelope Gap. - Why don't you sign some name? - Red Roses, Clovis, Hiawatha, Star, and Muck A Muck last week. Did you all notice now Mucky talks about anti prohibitionists having been so miserably misrepresented and falsely accused, and how he under the banner of Prince Emmanuel, wants to give us some eye-opening history on the very very vital question. As I feel sure I read between the lines and see over whom Mucky is popping his whip. I have already prepared for him an outer garment that wont look much to the world like he is under the flag he claims to be. Now, Mucky, a hint to the wise is sufficient. Your article as correspondent is alright, until you accuse the writer of dishonesty, misrepresentation, and false accusations; then you transcend the bounds of our staff of correspondents and throw down the gauntlet for rough sailing on a stormy sea. And you must not raise a rough house if I should just pull your Emmanuel banner a little to one side and give the public a peep at something that don't look much like Emmanuel taking any stock in. The pale, but smiling face of our young friend, Wm. Tippen, was to be seen here and there on our streets for a day or two while the official band was trying to play the tune of "Peace Be Still." But they would not. We understand the state-wide campaign will be pulled off next Friday night at Pompey school house in Mills county. Prof. King, the teacher at that place, will champion the pro side and a gray haired sire the anti side. Sixty-eight quarts of whisky was shipped out of Ballinger last Friday by one dealer and all consigned to Coleman. The pros sheriff has fifty-two quarts of the same shipment locked up in the county vault and the anti who ordered it is behind the bars with a good chance to spend some time in the state prison. Ho! you church member, will you cast your vote any other way than for the stuff to be put out of Texas? We trow not. H. C. COBB.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW.

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Goldthwaite Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys,

'Twould say much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys,

Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.

Mrs. J. P. Whaley, Booker Street, Brownwood, Texas, says: "It is about three years since I first used Doan's Kidney Pills. I suffered for some time from kidney complaint and gradually grew worse until I could hardly get around. There was a dull, dragging ache through the small of my back and the kidney secretions were irregular in passage. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me in a few days and now when I feel in need of a kidney tonic, I take this remedy, always obtaining great benefit. I believe it my duty to tell other people of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50cets Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A New Thresher.

We are glad to learn that Messrs. Berry and Frazier of Pleasant Grove have purchased a J. I. Case Steam Thresher, with all modern attachments. Their machine is a 23-28 bar cylinder, a 40 horse power engine, self feeder suction, stacker and weigher, all complete. The Case engine has plenty of power to pull the Separator over any hill in Mills county and is up to now under belt. The Case Separator cleans the grain fine and makes it difficult for the old hen to find even one grain in the straw. We can safely say these two hustling boys will save at least 99 per cent of all the grain. Give Chester and Charley a chance at your grain and we feel assured, with one of the best machines in the world, you will get entire satisfaction.

The J. I. Case Steam Thresher can, under ordinary conditions, thresh from 3000 to 3500 bushels per day. Having used the J. I. Case machine for twenty years am fully able to recommend it to the public as well as the firm of Berry and Frazier.

F. N. IRWIN.

Notice.

We wish to say that we have sold out our entire stock of Hardware and Implements to W. B. Jackson Hardware Co., who will assume all indebtedness and continue business at the same old stand. We thank our customers and friends for patronage received in the past and ask a continuation of same for the new firm.

Yours very truly,

Good Roads.

The Eagle editor and many others in this town, as well as in the precinct and throughout the county, favor public road building by an increase of our present road tax, believing that to be the quickest and most economical method of getting good roads over the county. We sincerely believe the people will vote for the tax and they are to be given an opportunity to do so. The following letter is being sent out, together with petitions to be circulated for signatures asking the commissioners court to order an election:

EVERYBODY WANTS GOOD ROADS.

The good roads petitions are out and you are requested to join us in a petition to the commissioners court for an election to increase our road tax by a special tax of 15c on the $100.00, to be levied, collected and applied on the roads, not only in precinct No. 1, but on all our public roads leading to the various communities in the county. We think it best to increase our tax until we get good roads, instead of issuing bonds, and then the tax can be taken off. We call your attention to the fact that the towns of Goldthwaite and Mullin will pay about one fourth of the tax—Goldthwaite alone about one fifth—and that not one dollar of the same will be spent upon the streets of the town of Goldthwaite. It all goes on the roads outside the town corporation. We are taxing ourselves to repair our streets and we are willing to be taxed to build better roads in the country. We all like and see the need of good roads. Yes, better than we can hope to get with our present funds. So believing as we do that the country people will receive equal, if not greater, benefit by good roads, we are asking that you canvass your communities by circulating the petitions sent out asking the commissioners court to order such an election and we will gladly co-operate with you in voting the tax and making good roads throughout the county, and when that is done we will gladly co-operate with you in asking the commissioners court to reduce the road tax to where it is now and we will be able to keep them in good shape and will not be in debt and paying interest on bonds, but will all be benefited by the good road, whether we have property or not or live in town or country, Yours for good roads the most practical and economic way, but for good roads.

Editor Eagle:

Good morning, Brother Bob Good morning to the Eagle force. Good morning to the readers of the Eagle. Isn't it fine to have a good clear conscience that when you awake and look out upon the beauties of this grand old world you can truthfully say "Good morning to all," and really mean it? Did you, Mr. Reader, ever stop to think what it means when we say "good morning" to a fellow man? Does it not really mean that we feel good that we have it in our hearts to thus speak, and wish the one spoken to a good morning? Ye scribe can stand on tip-toe this beautiful Monday morning and look as far as the eye can see and then throw his thoughts beyond his vision and truthfully say good morning to all. If there is a way of trouble rolling across his peaceful breast, it is so remote that an inspection fails to find it; there is, therefore, peace, joy and contentment that knows no bounds and gives a hand of greeting and welcome to everything but sin and its natural consequences. We don't want to shake hands with the slip-around, hide-me-out boot-legging business; nor with the devil, who so deceives humanity as to give them lying lips and cursing hearts. He is a deceptive, damnable slink, that knows exactly how to deceive men and women: made in the likeness of God and causes them to walk into his nets and pulls them away from all that is good, tightening his coils at every step while the thunders of wrath and the billows of eternal destruction hand with all their mutterings and warnings across their path. And yet, so deceptive is their leader that with his hellish dope he causes them to follow him, seemingly unconscious of the ruin in their pathway. Please understand that we are not talking about the real man and woman, but about the demon that has deceived the real man and woman and so possesses them that they willingly bow to his satanic orders. We must still insist that the remedies are at hand and if properly administered much of the crime could be obviated. It will take a little more stiffening in the backbones of those in authority and an united effort on the part of those who are opposed to letting the devil run rough shod over the law and the wishes of the best people in the community, to put a stop to these things and save the boys who are headed for the whirl-pool, some of whom may be in the act of making the last fearful leap. Mr. Voter, is it your boy? If so, can you afford to withhold your means, influence and prayers and let the work of ruin and death go on? God clothes his people with power in that he hath said "Ask what ye will in my name and it shall be given you." The United States of America, the State of Texas, the County of Mills clothes our officers with the authority and power to throttle the thing, throw it down, tear it to pieces and expose it to its death and banishment from our midst. Will they do it? Will we as citizens of this grand county of Mills, where we have our homes, fold our arms, throw down the oars, tighten our purse strings, yield to the fear of the loss of a dollar, or the firm-firm, back-biting, slimy talk of a few who want to drink, sell drinks, cuss and seek to run rough shod over law, mothers' tears and prayers, widows' entreaties, the orphans' cry and the church of Almighty God?

God forbid that we should. For we have everything that is good on our side from Jehovah on the throne to the innocent, smiling babe at its mother's breast—everything that appeals to our manhood to shake off the shackles, plant the guns of destruction all along the enemy's lines and with one solid, unwavering, fearless, determined shout for victory beard the lion in his den and let the chips fall where they may. If it takes the heads from the shoulders of our highest officials or wealthiest citizens, whether in office or out of office, let it be done rather than have the seeds of discord, lawlessness, human butchery and enslavement of our young men sown broadcast right under our nose. It don't take a detective to see what is going on, nor will it take a whole county to bring the violators to justice; if it does, let's line up and do our part, for the God whom we claim to serve will not hold us guiltless if we sit idly by and hold our peace.

Yours for justice to all.
