THINGS IN GENERAL.

The undeveloped resources of Texas are so gigantic that it is going to require big business concerns to develop them. Our iron ore has slept in the hills of east Texas for centuries awaiting a fifty-million dollar investment to set it in motion. We have a hundred million acres of idle land awaiting 10,000 miles of new railroad to develop it and industry languishes for want of big financial institutions strong enough to support it. It is only these huge leviathans that can carry our burdens over the high seas of industry. The opening of the Panama canal will enlarge our possibilities in commerce and Texas must be up and doing or we will miss our place in civilization. The hour of destiny is striking. Now is the time.

Press reports announcing that the Orange Commercial club will employ graduates from the A. & M. college to engage in agricultural research work and to generally supervise farming in that section carry a message of progress that is well worth considering. From time immemorial, cities have drawn upon the farms for their brains and by returning to the farm bright cultured minds, the cities are paying a just debt to agriculture. The Texas farms have supplied Wall street with its leading financiers; the nation with its foremost statesmen and the country with its greatest writers and the cities can therefore, well afford to turn back to the soil these brainy young men who will make the nation's greatest agriculturists.

Col. B. F. Yoakum has announced that he has grown weary of railroad building in Texas and will retire from construction work. It is said he will devote special attention to developing the agricultural interests and improving farm methods along the lines of the Frisco system and throughout the state of Texas. Within the last week or two some shrewd booster editorials have been going the rounds of the press calling attention to the fact that there are still a few unmarried women in Texas, and that, considering the fame of Texas women for beauty and all good womanly qualities, including obedience of wives to husbands, this should prove an incentive in attracting large numbers of America's best and richest bachelors to this state. The foregoing, no doubt is one of the great attractions of the state, but there are others. A dispatch from El Paso says that 5,000 Mexicans had crossed the border there within ten days to help in the cotton fields of Texas. Judging from the reported uprisings in Mexico during the past two years, great must be the incentive to induce a Mexican peon to give up the attractions of revolution to come to this state to do real work. But the attractions do look rather enticing, as pickers are reported making $5 to $8 a day, which looks real good even to a Texas white man, and no doubt much better to the Mexican peon and his usual 30 cents per in gold.

The old adage, "Make hay while the sun shines" is a good one. Now that the sun is shining upon Texas and times are prosperous within her borders, would it not be well for the commercial, legislative and financial interests of the state to "cinch" this condition as a permanent state asset, so that investment and expansion can go ahead in confidence without constant fear that from "out of the blue sky" of real, genuine, bubbling-over prosperity, as in 1907, there may stalk forth the black and financially despairing business panic.—Commercial Secretaries.

Elder Smith of Oenaville has an appointment to preach in the Christian church here the second Sunday in this month. It is expected that he will preach here two days in each month hereafter, but will be definitely determined on Sunday.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING.

The Fifth Sunday meeting of Mills county Baptists was held at Mullin, beginning last Thursday night and closing Sunday.

Owing to the busy cotton season and the presence in Mullin of scarlet fever, the attendance was not as good as usual, but the interest of those present was at a high pitch and the meeting was a success. A committee was appointed by the board to gather some necessary information looking to the employment of a missionary for Mills county and to report at a called session of the board in the near future.

Among the visitors from abroad were Prof. Rouse and Mrs. Jennings of Brownwood.

The ladies had a fine meeting and were treated to an inspiring talk by Mrs. Jennings, district president of the Ladies Aid society.

The next regular meeting will be held at Rock Springs in December.

WANT FREE ADVERTISING

They are all out after the innocent and unsophisticated newspaper man. No sooner is the campaign over, in which numerous appeals were made for free space in the interest of some candidate than the colleges over the country inaugurate a system of securing a literary bureau to send articles to the press under the head of news that carry with them a good healthy advertisement for said college. As far as the Eagle is concerned, we are "out after grapes" just the same as the aforesaid politician and college. When we do the work we will have to at least think we are to be paid for it.

MEETING TO BEGIN.

Elder J. S. Hall is to begin a meeting at Center City on Friday night before the fourth Sunday in this month. The people of all denominations are invited to take part in the meeting and Arrangements have been made by Postmaster General Hitchcock for engraving and manufacturing a series of twelve stamps, unique in size and novel in design, for exclusive use in forwarding packages by the new parcels post. Under the law recently enacted by the congress, ordinary stamps can not be used for this purpose. The special parcels post stamps will be larger than the ordinary stamps, and will be so distinctive in color and design as to avert a possible confusion with stamps now in use. The new issue will be in three series of designs. The first will illustrate modern methods of transporting mail, one stamp showing the mail car on a railway train, another an ocean mail steamship, a third an automobile now in the postal service, and a fourth the dispatch of mail by aeroplane. The second series will show at work in their several environments the four great classes of postal employees—postoffice clerks, railway mail clerks, city letter carriers and rural delivery carriers. The third series will represent four industrial scenes, showing the principal sources of products that probably will be transported extensively by parcels post. The stamps will be ready for distribution Dec. 1, in order that the 40,000 post offices may be supplied with them before the law becomes effective, Jan. 1.

The national committee is still in need of money to defray the expenses of the Democratic campaign. Those who desire to contribute as much as $1 will help the cause along and the amount will be gladly received by Chairman Roberts or Judge Clements and forwarded to the proper persons.

SCHOOL OPENING.

The public school opened here on Monday, September 30, 1912. A large number of pupils were in attendance the first day. Of the number 24 were out of town students. A large number of visitors were present on the opening morning.

After the pupils had all marched to their places, Prof. Street made a short address, after which they were led in prayer by Brother Newman. Then all joined in singing "America," after which Prof. Street made some announcements concerning the school work, and Brother Newman made a very interesting talk, then Prof. Goodnight and Miss Clyde Lowrie both made short talks.

There are 17 in the graduating class this year, and they marched through the High school rooms in single file and then took their places and everybody sang the Battle Hymn of The Republic.

All the students seem to have entered school this year with the determination to accomplish more than ever before.

All the lower grade rooms had opening exercises similar to the High school department.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

The home of W. A. Couch, six miles northeast of Caradan, was destroyed by fire Thursday afternoon and all of its contents were lost except a feather bed and some pillows. It is not known how the fire originated, but it had gained such headway when discovered that nothing could be saved from it. Mr. Couch was at the barn a short distance away and Mrs. Couch was engaged in doing the family washing by the side of the house when the fire was discovered, which appeared to have started in the middle of one of the beds. The flames had so far advanced that even the clothes in the wash tubs were destroyed before they could be gotten out of the way. It was a large building, a part of it being two story, and it burned very rapidly. There was no insurance on the house or contents.

BROKE HIS ARM

Thursday afternoon Mr. A. S. Burger's little 5-year-old son fell from a chair in the family home in this city and broke both bones in his left arm, between the elbow and the shoulder. The break was a bad one and the fellow much better off there.

The senate sub-committee investigating the conditions in Mexico continues its work at some of the important points this week. While the committee has not made its report it is understood that the findings are such that the United States will take steps to stop the war in Mexico.

There is a difference of opinion between the members of the organizations and the authorities in Massachusetts have been met this week. The imprisonment of some of the labor leaders with murder in connection with labor troubles at Lawrence and other places in that state last winter was the cause of the outbreak.

It is never easy to climb a steep mountain, but there is a glorious view from the summit. It is never easy to solve a knotty problem at school, but to overcome a bad personal habit or to effect a sweeping moral reform in a community; but the whole history of human advancement and civilization is simply a record of men and women who delight to do hard things.—Exchange.

At the close of the examining trial of J. B. Sneed at Amarillo last Saturday, charged with the killing of Al. Boyce, Jr., in that city, Judge Downing remanded the defendant to the county jail to await the benefit of bail. An appeal was at once taken to the state court of criminal appeals, which will hear the case next Monday and it is expected that the case will be concluded by the court immediately afterwards.

The Texas supreme court judges reported to have entered into agreement to hereafter disregard errors in the trial courts before will not reverse cases unless errors were made unless such errors were calculated to in some way interfere with the correct judgment of the judges of the court of appeals will have such an effect it will be of great benefit and save much unnecessary time and expense in the lower courts.

The business man who uses his patronage as a means of collecting hard accounts sets a bad example, for he forces men who want his patronage to "stand him off." Such transactions may become an endless chain and prove disastrous to the business community. If the fellow who owes you don't pay his debt, so some other means of collecting besides putting a "fine" on the prompt paying man.

Gentlemen are not bred, they are made. One is as likely to step out of the coal-miner's hut as out of the duke's mansion. Hence gentlemen are the social ligatures that keep humanity from separating in layers. It has never been possible to confine a gentleman to one stratum of society, much as we have loved to think so. They are the standing obstacle of fact against all fiction of caste. Our garbage man is a thorough gentleman; and I know a man of most select family who was born a cad and will always remain a cad. Every now and then Nature produces a gentleman just to show how sound humanity is at the core. It is the jugglery of names and the added significance which titles add in time, that I would rather be myself being called a gentleman than a saint.—Dr. Frank Crane.

The lightning struck the smoke stack on the engine room, setting fire to a large wood pile, and from there followed a wire into the seed house several yards away, and threatened fire to this building. By a pre-arranged fire fighter of the steam process, no sooner had the lightning struck than was the steam turned into the seed house and smothered the flames, leaving practically no damage done, more than a good lot of excitement.—Chief.

About 500 pounds of seed cotton were stolen Saturday night from S. M. Martin's field four miles west of town. The cotton was piled up on the ground and the party that stole it came in some time during the night, loaded the cotton and got away before anything was known of it.—Herald.

DOUBLY PROVEN

The Eagle Readers Can No Longer Doubt the Evidence.

This grateful citizen testified long ago.

Told of quick relief—of undoubted benefit.

The facts are now confirmed. Such testimony is complete—the evidence conclusive.

It forms convincing proof of merit. A. W. Glover, 905 Rogan St., Greenwood, Texas, says: "For nearly thirteen years off and on I have been bothered with kidney trouble. My back would ache as though it would break and I was rarely free from a splitting headache. The kidney secretions annoyed me greatly. I tried many remedies but never got anything that would help me like Doan's Kidney Pills. This preparation has done me a world of good." (Statement given May 30, 1908.)

A LATER ENDORSEMENT. When Mrs. Glover was interviewed on October 25, 1911, she said: "Nothing could change the high opinion I have always had of Doan's Kidney Pills. You may continue to publish my former statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (adv.)

J. D. CALAWAY, M. D.

SAVED BY HIS WIFE.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. Kings New Discovery" writes Mr. Flint, "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsillitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by R. E. Clements. (adv.)

Winners report on Oct. 1 showed a remarkable shortage of cotton as compared to last year, and report of the condition of the crop was not encouraging. More cotton had been ginned in Texas this season, however, than had been ginned on the same date last year. The accidental discharge of a shot in their home at Rising Star Tuesday night caused the death of Mrs. J. R. Montgomery and her husband was mortally wounded. The couple had retired when a shot gun hung on the wall accidentally fell and was discharged, striking them both. The trial of a number of men charged with complicity in a widespread dynamite conspiracy against employers of non-union workmen commenced at Indianapolis, Ind. Monday and will likely continue several weeks. The cases are similar to those of the McNamara brothers, who are now serving terms in the Indiana penitentiary.

The roadstead of nations passes annually 69,000,000 homes and $123,000,000 of property. His moving van of civilization heard the accents of every tongue, the jostle of property in every clime. In this line of march can be seen the fiery haste of the East, the hurry and bustle of the North, the enterprise and enthusiasm of the West, the strange and powerful energy of Europe and the queer frugality of the Orient—all united in one thought and one purpose—to build in Texas the grandest civilization the world has known.—Selected.

number of residents in Brownsville, says the News, are thinking of petitioning the city council to have street lights turned off at midnight for a rather uncommon reason. "I want the lights turned off," said one of these citizens, "so my chickens can get some sleep. Every time the chickens go out under the street lights they get so excited that the business man hangs at the patronage as a means of the grasshoppers hard accounts sets attracted by the for he forces men who takes the chickens to stand h't, and go back to transactions may be light. PROGRESSION.

Progressives in Mills and adjoining counties are requested to look over the following facts in order that they may see the splendid progress we are making and the popularity of our cause and candidates with the people:

At a meeting of the United Confederate Veterans' Union at Ada, Oklahoma, a poll taken resulted as follows: Debs, 1; Wilson, 6; Taft, 1; Roosevelt, 280.

The railroad men in Chicago were canvassed last week and the result so far is as follows: Taft, 56; Debs, 79; Wilson, 94; Roosevelt, 214.

A Minnesota editor has set a new pace for those who are taking straw votes to test the popularity of the candidates for president. He sent out 400 letters to five men, one in each of the five counties over which his paper circulates in that state. In the group were, one lawyer, one newspaper man, one business man and two farmers. He got 225 replies with this result: Debs, 1; Taft, 13; Wilson, 61; Roosevelt, 122.

W. F. SIMMS, Chairman.

A BAD WRECK.

Two Santa Fe freight trains crashed together about five miles east of Lampasas at 10 o'clock Tuesday night. One man was killed and several were injured.

Henry Evers of Fredericksburg was the man killed. He was a stock man and was with a shipment of stock transferred to the Santa Fe here by the Central. The injured are Engineer Lee Parker and Fireman McCoy of the east bound train, Mann Wolf of this city, M. H. Roberts of Willow City and others whose names we failed to learn. The injured were sent to Temple to the hospital and news from there today is that Wolf was not so badly hurt as he was at first thought to be. He was hurt in the breast, but will soon be well.

The east-bound train was loaded with cattle and hogs and many of them were killed. The two engines were badly demolished. Wrecking crews and train men had the track cleared in less than 24 hours and traffic is again moving in the usual way.

The cause of the collision is not known.—Lampasas Blade.

ESTEP-BURROWS.

Mr. E. C. Estep and Miss Burton Burrows were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city Wednesday afternoon, Rev. F. M. Jackson officiating.

Mr. Estep is one of the well known and popular citizens of this city and has friends in all parts of the county. He was engaged in the furniture business here for several years and only recently disposed of his interest in that business to devote his attention to his farm and other interests. His bride is a daughter of Mr. J. B. Burrows and grew to womanhood here. She has a great many admiring friends here and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Estep have the good wishes of a host of friends.

It is claimed by some that the sun is gradually cooling off, and scientists have begun the erection of a forty-foot tower to surmount the observatory of the Smithsonian institute on Mt. Wilson for the purpose of making an investigation as to whether or not the sun is gradually cooling. That body may grow colder but it is hard to make one believe it when the thermometer crawls up above one hundred in the shade and boils over in the sunshine. However, when winter comes, and the mercury in the tube gets down in the cellar, one is inclined to believe that old Sol has about gone out of business.—Honey Grove Citizen.

A most unusual case was the lynching of a negro fiend by the convicts in the Wyoming state penitentiary at Rawlins Tuesday. The negro had assaulted an aged white woman of the town and after his capture a mob of citizens assembled at the jail to take him from the officers and hang him. The sheriff hurried him to the penitentiary for safe keeping and to protect him from the mob. With the mob at the jail still clamoring for the negro, about 100 prisoners broke loose immediately after breakfast and made a dash for the negro, who had also been taken to breakfast. The guard was overpowered before he could thrust the negro into a cell and himself locked in the cell by the infuriated convicts. One of the convicts produced a rope and while the others held the negro, he tossed a half hitch over the negro's head and made the other end fast to the balcony rail of the cell house. The negro was tossed over the rail and the convicts marched back to their work. Not until the cries of the imprisoned guard brought other guards was the lynching known to any one except to those who took part in it.

The Bachelor Maids were delightfully entertained last Friday evening by Misses Bina Renfro and Sallie Weathers, at the hospitable home of the latter, on Fisher street.

We were specially instructed to assemble early and when we entered the hall we were served with delicious punch.

After a large number of the Maids had arrived and a short time had been spent in conversation we were pleasantly surprised with an invitation from the hostesses to accompany them to the picture show, which we did gladly and we certainly enjoyed the entertainment.

At the close of the program we returned to the place of meeting, where we were served with ice cream and cake and the members appeared to enjoy this part of the entertainment equally as much as they did the other portions.

After spending some time in merry making we adjourned to meet with Miss Hortense Power at the next appointed time. REPORTER.

Wm. Pfluger of Pflugerville, Travis county, spent some time at Priddy visiting his brother, Mr. Chas. Pfluger, and family and left Wednesday for Slaytor and other points in the west, to look after his real estate interests.

Lieut. J. A. Rogers, of the United States army, spent Wednesday in this city. He has been visiting his parents at Mullin for some time and will leave next week for Honolulu, T. H., where he will be married to a young lady of that city and will then return to his command, stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah.

J. W. Hill returned the first of the week from a trip to Hamilton and reports that a great deal of cotton will be brought to Goldthwaite from that section, on account of the good price prevailing here. He believes that with improved roads much more of the trade of that section would come to this city.

A GOOD LAW.

The new postal law which became effective Oct. 1 forces newspapers to label as advertising all articles for which pay is received for the publication. The law also requires the publisher to make a sworn statement to the postal department twice a year as to the ownership and control of the paper, which statement must be published in the second edition of the paper in October and April. This statement is to give the names of the stockholders, mortgage holders and others connected with the paper, in order that the public may be advised of the influence behind the paper and the publisher. The law is a good one, but an amendment should be made to it requiring publishers of weekly papers to make oath to the number of subscribers to their papers, in order that advertisers may know when they are being swindled by false claims of circulation. To take an advertiser's money on a false claim of circulation is nothing short of petty larceny and should be dealt with as such.

A LOG ON THE TRACK

of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hesselmer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50c at R. E. Clements. (adv.)

ALMOST A BLAZE.

There was a small fire excitement in the business part of town Monday morning when smoke was seen emitting from the rear of Gardner & Faulkner's store. The discovery was soon made that the smoke was coming from beneath the floor, where some burning trash had been blown through the ventilation grate. A section of the floor was taken up and the fire extinguished. There was very little damage done to the floor.
