COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Important and Interesting Meeting Plans For Fair.

The Commercial club meeting Monday night was not largely attended, but those who were present took interest in the proceedings.

President L. E. Miller announced that he had given instructions regarding the repairing of the reunion grounds fence.

The constitution was so amended that two or more members can hereafter hold a meeting and transact the business of the club. It is hoped that this change will induce a better attendance upon the meetings.

The president was authorized to appoint a committee to be named at the next meeting to secure a list of premiums for the 1913 fair.

A committee was also authorized to invite farmers to take part in the meetings of the club and also to take stock in the fair.

Business men who fail to attend these meetings miss much that would interest them and be of benefit to the town.

Hon. Chester Harrison, secretary to Congressman Slayden, spent a part of Wednesday in this city looking after private business and meeting with his personal and political friends. He and Mr. Slayden own a valuable ranch in the upper end of this county and have just completed the erection of a stone dwelling thereon. The property is in the charge of Mr. W. A. Curtis. Mr. Harrison expected to leave Thursday night for Washington, to be ready for the opening of congress.

The prospects for a small grain crop are extremely good at this time and unless some unforeseen and unexpected disaster befalls the crop we will have more oats grown this year than ever before in the history of the county.

The short session of the sixty-third congress of the United States will convene in Washington Monday at noon.

ROMANCE OF TWO DECADES ENDS

When Miss Annie Randles of Goldthwaite Texas, and R. M. McCollom, a well known resident of Bisbee, were married in El Paso Tuesday, the romance of a sixteen years' engagement when two hearts beat continuously as one, was given the fitting climax. Mr. and Mrs. McCollom arrived in Douglas yesterday afternoon from El Paso and have been visiting the sister of the groom, Mrs. M. B. Reed, of Sixteenth street. They will leave this morning for the Hill City, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. McCollom were childhood sweethearts in the Texas town from which the bride came to meet him this week. They became engaged. The prospective groom arranged with his sweetheart to wait for a time. "Let me go out into the world and make a fortune for you, dear, then we will be married," he said. The little sweetheart consented.

McCollom first went to California but, failing to find the fortune there, came to Arizona. For several years he has been in Bisbee. Throughout the period of waiting he and Miss Randles kept up an active correspondence. Recently, whether fortune smiled more pleasantly upon the groom or he felt that his life was too lonely without his promised bride, McCollom wrote her that he was ready for the ceremony. They agreed to meet in El Paso. This they did and on Tuesday were united in marriage.

Mr. McCollom, who is one of the best known miners in the southwest, will undoubtedly be congratulated by his many friends as will his bride. They will make their home in Bisbee in a house which the groom has provided for the newly acquired wife.—Douglas, Arizona, Paper.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. W. Randles of the Pickens Springs community and has a large circle of friends in her home community and elsewhere. Mr. McCollom also lived in that community until a few years ago and is kindly remembered by many friends. All who know them offer congratulations and good wishes.

SINGING CONVENTION.

The Mills County Singing convention will meet in regular session with the Star class on Saturday, Dec. 7, at 10 o'clock A. M., and continue over Sunday. It was announced at the Center City session of the convention that the Star people would serve public dinner on Saturday and Sunday. We wish that each singer of the county would feel like the success of the convention rested on their individual support and that they would put forth an effort to make this one the banner session of its existence.

We have decided to give some time on Saturday afternoon to discussions on any subject for the betterment of the convention; so get your wits together and come with a few remarks, if not a long spiel. We make a special request that you bring your Majestic Praise and Triumphant Hosannas, as we think these two books will be the most used in the convention. Let each and every one make the necessary sacrifice to attend and let's come together and sing God's praise with the Spirit and the understanding.

Yours for a greater and better convention.

CONTENTION AMONG BRETHREN

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.—Psa. 133:1.

The church of God, the church of God!

Oh! What can be the matter? Whence this confusion gone abroad? Whence all this noise and clatter?

Oh! Whence this strife, contention, all, So much as to appal us?

For one will say, "I am of Paul," And one "I of Apollos."

O, you, for whom the Savior died, You who in Christ confided—

Was Paul for you e'er crucified? Or is our Christ divided? (1 Cor. 1:12-13)

O, you who now defour and bite, (Gal. 5:15)

And envy one another— Oh! Why do you take up the fight, And go to law with brother?

Before the unbelieving throng Such work is unappreciated, Why don't you rather suffer wrong,

Yourself to be defrauded? (1 Cor. 6:1-7)

Oh, can it be that wolves (Acts 20:29) and dogs, (Phil. 3:2)

Among the flock has entered? And that you flounder in mire and bogs

Each one so deep self-centered? Now scoffers viewing from abroad

Beholding, only canter, Speak of the church of the living God

With ridicule and banter. (Heb. 1:10)

Oh, let all strife and envy cease, All malice and division (1 Cor. 6:16)

That the temple of the "Prince of Peace" (Isa. 9:6)

Be held not in division. (Psa. 44:13)

Instead of groveling, low and mean, And tightening strife's dark fetter;

Holding yourself in high esteem, Esteem the other better. (Phil. 2:3)

You who within this temple stay Oh be not many masters, (Matt. 23:8)

That God may turn his wrath away, (Psa. 106:23)

And save you from disaster. Submit yourselves unto your God

(Jas. 4:7) He's ever near to guide you. Bury deep your wrongs beneath the sod,

And 'neath His wing he'll hide you. Resist the Devil and he'll flee, (Jas. 4:7)

Resist him, O my brother. For you are members don't you see?

Each one of every other. (Rom. 12:5)

And peaceably your journey go, (Rom. 12:18)

Your journey on to Heaven. A little leaven in the dough,

The whole big lump will leaven. (Gal. 5:9)

And you, the faithful of the land, Whose hearts are torn and bleeding,

God still will lend a helping hand, Your every act, He's heeding.

Remember Old Elijah's call, When to our God he'd flown,

They prophets, they have killed them all, And I am left alone." (1 Kings 19:14)

What was Jehovah's answer then? (His forces never fail)

"I have reserved seven thousand men Who've not bowed down to Baal." (1 Kings 19:18)

And should the faithful be but few, There's one with strength and power.

Our Savior, he is ever true, E'en in the darkest hour,

Fear not, you who in God's house dwell, The furies beat against it.

For e'en the very "Gates of Hell Shall not prevail against it." (Matt. 16:18)

German farmers ship butter and eggs to their city customers by parcels post and find the arrangement of the greatest convenience to all concerned. The butter is wrapped in parchment paper and then packed in pasteboard boxes. The eggs are shipped either in strong cardboard or wooden boxes, constructed so as to safeguard the contents. This suggests how practical the parcels post may become. The beginning that is to be made within a short time now by the United States will pave the way for a great extension of this system, which will rapidly increase, according to all probabilities, to great magnitude.—Schenectady Gazette.

An Austin correspondent says that it is proposed to introduce a bill in the coming session of the legislature providing for a state registration law for automobiles. This proposed law will provide for the registration of all automobiles in the state and each owner shall be required to pay a registration tax of something between $10 and $25 annually. Professional drivers shall be required to take out a license, which will cost about $5. The new law will also fix penalties for the violation of speed limits. It is also suggested that part of the revenue derived from such a law would be devoted to the building of highways over the state for the benefit of motorists.

CHRISTMAS SEALS

I have been requested by Mrs. O. B. Colquitt, the state chairman of the society for the prevention of the spread of tuberculosis, to act as chairman in Goldthwaite for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals and I solicit the co-operation of the public in the work. The receipts from the sale of these seals will be used in the campaign for the relief of the sufferers from the dreadful disease and to prevent its spread. If every one will buy a few of these seals to stamp their Christmas presents and their mail during the holidays we of this community will be doing our part for the great cause. The seals are not to be used in lieu of postage, but the few cents expended for them will be of benefit when added to the grand total.

I shall ask some of the ladies of the town to assist me and some of the business men have already kindly offered to take some of the seals for sale.

Ask for the seals when you make your holiday purchases and if the merchant does not handle them he will take pleasure in procuring them for you. MRS. R. M. THOMPSON, Local Chairman.

ATTORNEY'S NOTICE.

I wish to announce to the various magistrates and peace officers throughout this county that I have assumed the duties of the office of County Attorney, and stand ready at all times to co-operate with you in bringing about a more thorough enforcement of the laws. If at any time I can be of assistance to you in any matter pertaining to your official duties, command me, I will be glad to serve you.

My clients, and the public generally, I wish to thank for the generous patronage I have thus far received. The office which I hold, contrary to a somewhat prevalent opinion, is no disqualification for the civil practice; and I expect to continue to do a general civil practice, such as conveying, examination of titles, abstract work and management of civil cases in the various courts. A share of your business will be duly appreciated.

Respectfully,
J. C. DARROCH.

Texas surveyors, in computing areas and distances, use varas instead of yards, as taught in the books. A vara is 33 1-3 inches in length and 1,900 varas make a mile. The common school boy or girl is taught that twelve inches make a foot, three feet a yard, and 1,760 yards, 5,280 feet, or 63,360 inches, make a mile; but when they go to measuring land they have no use for yards, etc., for they have to deal with varas altogether. The yard mile is 26 2-3 inches more than the vara mile, as commonly used. They are taught at school that 4,480 square yards make an acre, but when they go to survey they say that 5,645 square varas make an acre. The reason why we use the varas instead of yards is that when Texas was under the Spanish and Mexican rule they began surveying with the Spanish system, and when the Americans assumed control, in order to prevent confusion, they continued this system. But just why the English standard of measure is taught in our public schools instead of the one now in actual use, is more than we can understand. We believe it would be safe to say there is not one teacher in ten in our public schools that could tell you how many square varas are in an acre, yet all the lands in Texas are measured in varas.—Wichita Falls Times.

CLUB MEETING.

The Self Culture club met on Friday evening, Nov. 29, with Mrs. Chas. Burks as hostess. While the attendance was not large, we spent a very pleasant evening. The hour was very interesting.

A well written paper on "The English Gentry," was read by Mrs. Bodkin. It was written by Mrs. Lowry, an absent member. Another paper on "Rural England" was read by Mrs. M. E. Thompson. Mrs. J. C. Street gave a fine report from the meeting of Women's Clubs in Fort Worth.

It was decided to entertain the club members, their husbands and escorts on Dec. 31, at the home of Mrs. Frank Geeslin.

We were glad to have Mrs. Will Dew and Miss Dooly with us during the meeting, as visitors.

After the lessons were over the hostess served delicious chocolate and cake.

The comptroller's department has issued a statement saying there are 3120 open saloons in Texas and that out of the 249 counties in this state only 78 allow the sale of liquor.

The death of Senator Raynor of Maryland, occurred in Washington D. C., Monday, after a long illness. He was one of the most able members of the senate and was prominently mentioned as a presidential possibility during the last campaign.

It is reported in Washington that Japan is negotiating for a coaling station at Honolulu. The laws of this country would prevent the acquisition of a coaling station on our coasts, but it is a question whether such law applies to foreign territory under control of this government.

A student in the A. & M. college was fatally injured while repairing a transom over his door Monday. A chair on which he was standing tilted and he fell and struck on a portion of the broken transom and an artery in his groin was severed. His home was at Rogers, Bell county, and his remains were carried there for burial.

President Taft is quoted as saying emphatically that he will not be the candidate of his party for president four years from now. He perhaps realizes, as do the Democrats, that at the end of four years President Wilson's administration will have become so popular that it will be useless for another party to name a candidate against him.

The original hospital buildings of the Santa Fe railroad at Temple burned Tuesday night, together with their contents, but there was no loss of life, as the buildings were not much in use and there were only twelve patients there, and they were all on the first floor and were easily rescued. Since the building of the brick hospital the old wooden buildings have only been used for negroes and Mexicans. The origin of the fire is unknown.

There never has been an argument to refute the Eagle's statement that it is unfair as well as bad business policy for a merchant to use his patronage as a means of collecting bad debts. The prompt paying man should be encouraged rather than discouraged and rejected. The business man who gains a reputation for requiring that those who want his patronage must first pay their obligations to him will find fewer hard accounts on his ledger. Some people refuse to pay their obligations with a view to forcing patronage.

A report recently issued by the United States Geological Survey shows that Pennsylvania produced 30 per cent of the sand used in glass making in the United States in 1911, which amounted to about 400,000 tons, the average value per ton being $1.40. Glass sand has recently been discovered in Texas near Wichita Falls and Comanche and it is expected that that state will contribute largely to the output in the next few years.—Commercial Secretaries.

The story is being told in the Texas press of two Tennessee farmers who located in East Texas several years ago, one of whom today is one of East Texas' wealthy citizens while the other is barely eking out an existence, mortgaging his crop to tide him over from year to year. The reason for the difference in circumstances is obvious; the one who has prospered engaged in the raising of hogs, an occupation that has been sadly neglected and the result is a fat bank roll, while the other engaged in cotton raising, an industry that is already over done in Texas and as a result the wrong side of the ledger for him! The story points a moral which every Texas farmer should profit by and be governed accordingly. We ship out of Texas annually 3,450,000 bales of cotton, while we import 60,000,000 pounds of pork. Does it pay to raise pork or cotton?—Commercial Secretaries.

CITATION.

The State of Texas,
To the sheriff or any constable of Mills county—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. N. Phelps by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 35th judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 35th judicial district, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Mills county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Goldthwaite, on the 1st Monday in December, A. D. 1912, the same being the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 26th day of October, A. D. 1912, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 1288, wherein Mrs. Liddy Phelps is plaintiff, and J. N. Phelps defendant, said petition alleging, in a suit for divorce, that on or about the 18th day of September, 1907, plaintiff and defendant were lawfully married and continued to live together till on or about the 10th day of November, 1910, when on account of the cruel and inhuman and outrageous course of conduct pursued towards her by the defendant, plaintiff was compelled to abandon and did abandon the defendant and seek the protection of her father's home. That plaintiff in all things demeaned herself with propriety, and cared for the household of the defendant and managed her domestic affairs with economy, but notwithstanding this, defendant, about four or five months after their marriage, began a course of unkind, harsh, tyrannical and cruel treatment towards plaintiff, which continued until she finally separated from him on the 10th day of December, 1910. That on divers occasions defendant was guilty of excesses, cruel treatment and outrages towards plaintiff of such a nature as to render their further living together as man and wife insupportable; that at their home on the Morgan place in Mills county, Texas, on or about the 10th day of July, 1908, defendant demanded of plaintiff that she go and feed the mules, which she did, but defendant not being satisfied with the manner in which she performed said task, became violently angry with her and struck her on the head with his fist, knocking plaintiff down and seriously bruising and hurting her; that in the month of Nov., 1908, while plaintiff and defendant were at her father's home defendant commanded her to go out with him to cut cane, and the weather being bitter cold, plaintiff refused to go, whereupon defendant drew and presented towards her a cocked pistol, stating that she must go or he would shoot her, and at the same time cursing and abusing plaintiff. That at the home of her father in Mills county, in the month of December, 1908, defendant in a drunken fit cursed and abused plaintiff, and struck her over the head with his clenched fist, felling her to the floor, and in such manner as to show utter disregard for health if not life of plaintiff; that defendant is a man of violent temper and passions, and cruel disposition, and on many other occasions during the time that they lived together addressed to plaintiff the most opprobrious epithets and threats of personal violence, frequently charging plaintiff with unchastity, and infidelity, and undue familiarity with other men. That he took from her their only child, stating that if plaintiff ever attempted to recover same he would kill her. By all of which conduct defendant cruelly and wantonly lacerated the feelings of plaintiff, and rendered it unsafe for her to live with him or be near him, and compelled her to go to her father's as hereinbefore stated, that he has never supported her since that time. Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving the bonds of matrimony, for all costs of suit, and general and special relief.

Herein fall not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Goldthwaite, this the 23rd. day of October A. D. 1912.

D. 1912 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. . . . where in Mrs. Fannie Conner is plaintiff, and Joe Conner is defendant, and said petition alleging: Suit for divorce from bonds of matrimony, plaintiff alleging that she was married to defendant in Menard county, Texas, Nov. 14, 1909, and lived with him as his wife until Nov. 15, 1909, when on account of his cruel and inhuman proposal to her to go to a house of prostitution in Fort Worth, or other city, and ply the vocation of a common prostitute for hire until they could realize enough money to retire to some other country where they were unknown and live together ever after, and upon her spurning said proposition with scorn and indignation, he left her, and she has never seen or heard of him since. That on account of the cruelty aforesaid, plaintiff says she could never again live with defendant as his wife, and she sues for divorce from bonds of matrimony, and restoration of her maiden name of Miss Fannie Hawkins.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Program of the Mills County Teachers' Institute, to be held in Goldthwaite, Dec. 16--20, 1912.

The school laws require all teachers having schools in the county to attend the institute the full five days, and to respond promptly and cheerfully when called upon for any work in the institute. We are anxious to make this work of practical value to the schools of the county. This may be done by earnestness and real interest on the part of teachers in attendance. The law provides that teachers shall receive regular wages for the institute week, provided they spend the entire week in institute work. No teacher losing a part of any day is entitled to pay for the institute week. The county superintendent is not authorized to excuse any teacher from full attendance; except it be upon a physician's certificate of actual sickness.

In making the program many good teachers' names do not appear. Those whose names do appear are merely leaders in the subjects assigned. All are expected to take part. It is hoped that a good attendance of trustees will be had Wednesday afternoon, the 18th. Teachers are urged to request the attendance of their trustees. State Superintendent Bralley has recommended the use of "School Room Essentials" by Sutton and Hern. This book is sold by C. A. Bryant & Co., Dallas, Texas. You may order from them direct, or I can furnish you the book at the same price and save you trouble and postage.

Teachers examinations for the next year will be based on this book.

I have requested Prof. A. J. Street to have general charge of the institute. Respectfully, Governor Dix of New York this week issued a full pardon to Albert Patrick, who has been in Sing Sing prison for a number of years, serving a life sentence for the murder of Wm. M. Rice, a millionaire. Both Patrick and Rice were former Texans and Mr. Rice owned land in Mills county. The history of the case reads like the fancy of a novel writer. Since 1900 he has been constantly in prison and for four years he was in the death chamber of the toms in New York. The governor of the state commuted his sentence to life imprisonment and he protested that the governor had no right to interfere with the court's sentence and impose what he termed a greater penalty than had been assessed by the court. He is a lawyer by profession and has aided many of the prisoners in the toms and in Sing Sing to prosecute their appeals and some have been liberated through new trials which he planned. After spending some time in Kansas City, visiting his sister and her family, he is expected to return to New York to again make fight for the Rice estate, which he claimed was willed to him by the aged millionaire, but the state claimed the will to be forgery.

The State of Texas. To the sheriff or any constable of Mills county—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. L. Kinnebrew, Sr., and J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 25th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 35th judicial district, to appear at the next regular term of the district court of Mills county, to be holden at the court house thereof, in Goldthwaite, on the 1st Monday in December, A. D. 1912, the same being the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1912, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 10th day of September, A. D. 1912, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 1285, wherein J. F. Wheat is plaintiff, and J. L. Kinnebrew, Sr., and J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., are defendants, said petition alleging, that on or about the 9th day of March, 1912, he was and is still the owner in fee simple of a certain tract or parcel of land in Mills county, Texas, and was then and is still in actual possession thereof, and is now and has at all times been entitled to such use, occupancy and possession thereof, which said land is described as being the north 160 acres out of that lot, tract, or parcel of land in said Mills county, Texas, described as "1st. 227 acres of land more or less out of G. H. & H. Ry. Co. survey No. 1. Patent No. 209, Vol. 25; Beginning at a point 517 vrs. N. 19 W. from the S. E. corner of a 300 acre tract out of said survey, conveyed to D. T. Bush; thence north 19 W. with East line of said 300 acre tract 1307 vrs. to north line of this survey; thence N. 71 E. 989 vrs. to east line of this survey and west line of H. Shropshire survey; thence S. 19 E. 691 26-100 vrs. to N. E. corner of a 100 acre tract once owned by H. K. Reynolds continuing S. 19 E. 615 35-59 vrs. further to N. E. corner of a 43 acre tract out of said 100 acre tract conveyed to one Koen; thence S. 71 W. 989 vrs. to the place of beginning, containing 227 acres of land more or less. That on or about said 9th day of March, 1912, defendants, by means of false and fraudulent statements and representations then and there made by and for them and in their behalf, to plaintiff, did then and there induce, procure and cause plaintiff to execute his deed of conveyance of that date, conveying said land to defendant, J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., and did then and there, in order to procure said conveyance, offer and exhibit to plaintiff a deed of even date therewith to be executed by defendant, J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., and which was thereafter on the 11th day of March, A. D. 1912, so executed and delivered to plaintiff, by said defendant, J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., which said deed purported to convey to plaintiff 640 acres of land in Reagan county, Texas, described therein as section or survey No. 230, block No. 1, cert. 1-115, T. P. Ry. Co. survey in said Reagan county, and said defendants did then and there and at all times prior to the accomplishment of their said fraudulent purpose, represent to plaintiff that they were the owners in fee simple of said Reagan county land and had the right and authority to convey same, and that said deed then and there executed and delivered by defendant J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., to plaintiff was then and there a conveyance of the title of said land to plaintiff, and warranted the title of same to plaintiff; all of which said deed purported on its face to do, and represented to plaintiff that it was useless for him to delay or to make other investigation; that they knew the title to be in them and in no other party. All of which plaintiff believed and relied upon, and acted upon, and which was the procuring and moving cause, and the only cause of plaintiff making and executing the deed to the Mills county land herein above described, to defendant, J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., and the only consideration therefor; That in fact and in truth neither of said defendants owned or had any title or interest in or to said Reagan county land or any part thereof, and well knew such to be the fact at the time of their said transaction with plaintiff, but fraudulently withheld said fact and concealed same from plaintiff, in order to procure his said conveyance of said Mills county land. Plaintiff further alleges that the said deed executed by defendant J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., conveys no title and represents no value, and that the said deed from plaintiff to defendant, J. L. Kinnebrew, Jr., is now and was at the time of its execution wholly without consideration, and plaintiff offers and tenders same and a reconveyance thereof back to defendants. Wherefore plaintiff prays that defendants be cited in terms of the law to make answer herein, that upon final hearing he have judgment cancelling said deed so executed by him and that cloud be removed from his title to said Mills county land, and that said trade or exchange of land be in all things recinded, and for all costs of this suit, and for such other and further relief both general and special, both in law and in equity.

Herein fall not, but have before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, at office in Goldthwaite, this, the 7th day of November, A. D. 1912.

A PANIC PREDICTED.

The Result of the Democratic Victory To Be Far Reaching.
Editor Eagle:

At the risk of being dubbed a calamity howler and accused of "seeing things," I hazard the prediction that within the next eighteen months, we shall see a financial panic, compared to which the one of 1907 will appear as the babbling brook to the raging torrent; the gentle zephyr to the mighty tempest.

In the beginning, I want it understood that I was and am, heartily in favor of the election of Woodrow Wilson, regardless of its temporary consequences, for in the end it will result in permanent and stable good to the nation.

The election of a Republican president would have kept conditions in "statu quo," but the trial of strength between the "money trust" and the government had and has to come and each year the tentacles of the monster are entwining themselves more firmly about the commerce and people of the country and the sooner the life and death struggle between the big interests and the people, acting through their government, comes, the better. The popular slogan of "shall the people rule" has a deeper significance than is casually given it. It is a nut shell voices the query "Shall the government throttle and subdue the trusts or shall the trusts continue to rule the government and peonize the masses?" In 1908, shortly after Ex-Attorney General Jewel Lightfoot returned from New York City, where he went to gather evidence in the famous litigation between the state and the Standard Oil Company, the writer heard him make the statement, in a private conversation, that the magnitude of the combine or organization of the moneyed interests of the east was so gigantic, so stupendous, so overwhelming and overshadowing that the ordinary mind could not grasp it. Said Mr. Lightfoot, "The hundredth part has never been told."

"I state on positive, personal knowledge," continued Mr. Lightfoot, "that this same bunch of financiers, and I can name and count them on the fingers of my two hands, own or control, either directly or indirectly, not only the oil supply of the nation, but also every trunk line of railroad in the United States, every line of commercial steamers that ply between American shores and foreign countries, all the steel, iron and copper, all the sugar, all the leather, all the tobacco and snuff. They also own what is known as the glucose and starch trust, the meat trust, and many, many others of minor importance. In addition to this, they dominate and control every big bank in every important city in the United States. When I say all I mean practically all for while here and there springs up a small, independent concern, only their insignificance saves them and the very moment they become in any way formidable competitors they are either bought over or driven out of business." So we have to deal, not with "trusts" in the plural, but with a trust, a hydra-headed monster who has grown and fattened on the substance of the land, until even the federal government will find in it "a foeman worthy of its steel." This monster, protected and nurtured by the Republican party, has lulled and soothed the people into a hypnotic sleep, by allowing the farmer reasonable value for his products and the laboring man fair wages, and then laughs with ghoulish glee when it sees the farmer and laborer have to return to the coffers of the monster every dollar of the income derived from his farm and labor, for the necessities of life, on which enormous prices have been arbitrarily fixed and enormous profits realized, so the entire wealth of the country is, by this circuitous route rapidly finding its way into the capacious pockets of this coterie of "financiers."

In this good year of 1912, the people—the masses—are reading more, are thinking more. In other words they are awakening from their lethargy and sleep of fancied security and the enormous vote recorded for Wilson and Roosevelt and against the Republican party is the result. This was a year of revolution in American politics. The people are by the peaceful method of the ballot making a desperate effort to throw off the yoke of financial bondage and making a strenuous effort to unwind the tentacles of the monster from about them.

To have elected Mr. Taft would have had the same effect as administering stimulants and opiates to one at whose vitals a cancer was gnawing; the stimulant would impart an unnatural strength and the opiate quiet the patient, but the disease would still be there and a drastic operation would be the only remedy; this heroic treatment is, in my opinion, going to be administered by the incoming administration.

To the most casual student of current events it is apparent that William Jennings Bryan, "The noblest Roman of them all," will be tendered and will accept the portfolio of secretary of state in the Wilson cabinet, and will from that vantage point largely shape the policy and destiny of the government. That he is a bold and daring knight, is universally conceded, and if there were any doubts along this line they were dispelled at Baltimore when he faced the hoots, derision and jeers of the rabble and oblivious to the howls and yelps of "Blanche, Tray and Sweetheart," he stood calm and serene as a May morning, yet firm as the rocks of Gibraltar, and almost single handed and alone fought and vanquished the powerful minions of the trust and the nomination of Wilson was the result. Therefore, it is clear that "war to the knife and knife to the hilt" is to be the slogan between the people through organized government on the one side and the trust through its entrenched financial power on the other. "Lay on!" that this monster will calmly surrender. Nay, verily. It is going to fight. The money trust knows but one method of warfare—panic.

It will be remembered that when Judge Landis imposed the fine of twenty-nine million dollars on the oil trust that Mr. Rockefeller calmly made the statement that a panic would result. He meant by this to say that he and his associates would put on a panic, which they straightway did and the financial stringency was never relieved until a higher court reversed the finding of Judge Landis, relieving the trust from the payment of the fine, when at once normal conditions were restored. The situation at present is this: A large number of the old guard in congress, whom the trust could rely upon to protect its interests and prevent legislation inimical to it, such as Cannon, Aldridge, Bailey, et al., have seen the "handwriting on the wall" and detected the signs of the times and either saved their faces by refusing to stand for reelection or have stood and met ignominious defeat at the polls and their seats are filled by new-blood men who have the people's interests at heart and who will shape legislation in the interest of the masses.

An analysis of the recent election shows that while the "classes" supported President Taft, the vote of the masses was registered against him. This vote was divided between Wilson and the "Bull Moose," many believing that Mr. Roosevelt was the Moses to lead us out of Egypt. In this they were deluded. This "Bombastes Furioso" occupied the presidential chair for nearly eight years and during his incumbency, so called trusts, or more properly the one trust, put on branches and shoots as thick as flies which thrived and multiplied with none to molest or make them afraid. So it is clear that Teddy is the rankest kind of "four flusher" and no relief was to be expected from his election.

When congress convenes in extra session in the spring, the guns will be unlimbered in the way of "tariff revision downward," drastic laws both civil and criminal will be enacted, looking to the suppression of the trust and these laws will under the new regime, be actually enforced and the war will be on. "The money power will close down the wheels of commerce with an iron hand in an endeavor to bring about 'hard times' " and conditions in the hope of discrediting the Democratic administration before the people and forcing them to return the government to the Republicans in 1916. In my opinion the complete annihilation of the trust, root and branch, is the only salvation of the party and the common people, so "Lay on McDuff and damned be he who first cries hold, enough." This battle will be a fierce and furious one and business stagnation and chaos may be expected during its progress and it behooves our banks, business men and people generally to so shape their affairs as to be prepared to cope with the situation.

LOOKOUT SCHOOL HOUSE
Editor Eagle:
As it has been some time since I have seen anything from this community, I thought I would drop the Old Bird a few crumbs. The health of this community is not very good at present. Some sickness, mostly bad colds. Cotton picking is over with the exceptions of a few scattering patches. Little Jimmie Green, son of T. H. Green, was right sick last week, but is better at this writing. We had some good showers over the country last week. Which will be a great help to the small grain. There is a right smart planted in this community. Our school is moving along nicely with Davis Huckaba as teacher. This is Davis' first school. He is a young man of high ideals, and we are expecting something great of him in the future. B. A. McCarty is now located at his new home in Jones county, at Lueders, Texas. We hated to lose this good family from our community, but we congratulate the people of that community on getting them. Brother Hall of Star preached at the school house Saturday night, Sunday at 11 and Sunday night to a large and attentive crowd. Charley Griffin and family have moved to the Caradan community and Mrs. Muri has moved into the house Charley vacated. Uncle Bub Havens now has his mill up and will grind corn and chops and feed every Saturday evening. W. M. Sparkman is now expecting the arrival of his son-in-law, Asberry Tidwell, and his family. They are moving from Hood county. John Ward is now able to be up again, after a right smart spell of sickness. J. W. Harris is now out "a going," after a spell with appendicitis. S. J. Mrs. W. D. Wilson and children arrived from Winslow, Arizona, Sunday night for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mullens.

—For Sale—My residence in northern suburbs of Goldthwaite. A four room house, good well, one acre of ground. A few fruit trees. Will sell for $600. Good terms.—W. H. WOOD

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING
One of the charming hospitalities of the week was the entertaining of the Merry Maids and Matrons and their escorts, by Mesdames Frank Geeslin and Leonard Skaggs on Tuesday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Geeslin. When the game was called Miss Adeline Little having highest score, was awarded a handsome bottle of toilet water, while to Mr. G. A. Swaim's lot fell the booby, which was a most delightful bottle of Hoyts German cologne. After the prizes had been admired, the hostesses served an appetizing salad course.

The trial of J. B. Sneed is still in progress in Fort Worth, but it will likely be terminated the early part of next week. He is charged with killing old man Boyce in Fort Worth Jan. 13 of this year. Since that time he has shot and killed young Al Boyce in Amarillo. Young Boyce ran away with Sneed's wife, who had been placed in a sanitarium in Fort Worth for treatment.

First copies of the revised edition of the Bible published by the American Baptist Publication society have reached the society's headquarters. The new edition is a radical departure in its construction from the language used in the King James version. In the new Bible the names "Adam and Eve" do not appear. Their place is taken by the words "man" and "woman," which is a direct translation of the old Hebrew names. Other great changes are made. The story of Jonah and the whale is changed so that the words "great fish"—as being a nearly interpretation of the ancient Hebrew—take the place of "whale." "Jehovah thy God" takes the place of "Lord thy God." Carved replaces graven, and the word "immersed" in parentheses follows the word "baptize" in every instance. In the new edition the Lord's Prayer becomes: "Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done as in Heaven so on earth. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debt, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. Amen."—New York American.

A man who is looking for trouble usually locates it. The man who has the idea instilled in his mind that everybody has a grudge against him will not find it any trouble to locate slights and discourtesies. Life is too short to be filled with such small things. We must rise above the atoms if we ever develop into a figure of any consequence. To have friends, we must be friendly. In fact, if we have many friends, we must realize that humanity is not perfect. Most all of us have our faults and peculiarities. Of course, we do not consider that we are peculiar, yet the fact remains that we are judged through others eyes and if they are discriminating they will locate our peculiarities. A better way is to look for the good points. If we will utilize as much care and attention hunting the good qualities as we do to locate the shortcomings we will be richly rewarded.—McGregor, Mirror.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous In Goldthwaite.

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth. Mrs. Mollie Pierce, Brownwood, Texas, says: "For nearly a year I was in misery and physicians did not know what ailed me. They said that I would have to undergo an operation. I came to Brownwood for that purpose, but the change made me feel better and I put off the operation. Finally I got to feeling bad again and suffered from intense pains across my back. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and sent for a box. The third day after I began using them, I passed three gravel stones with great agony. I have had no sign of the trouble since. I am very willing to confirm my former public endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FLAGGED TRAIN WITH SHIRT

Tearing his shirt from his back, an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, of Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50c at R. E. Clements. (adv)

NEEDS MONEY.

To Whom It May Concern:

Does it ever occur to your mind that a doctor sometimes needs money? If not, let me remind you they do. I am sure this doctor does need it badly. Those I owe expect me to pay them, consequently I hope you will consider this and help me. I have worked hard, even when under physical suffering, to do you justice. Now I consider it but just that you should help me. I am willing to part with my home to pay debts, in fact, am trying to sell land for that purpose, which would be entirely unnecessary if all would come and pay part of their indebtedness to me, if not at all.
