There's A Right Time For Everything

As well as a wrong time. The last few days have warned you what's to be expected in the future. The right time to prepare for this hot weather to come is now; the wrong time is to wait until it's here. Right now our stock is complete—right up-to-the-minute in all that's new and popular as well as a complete line of staples. Right now is the time to buy. Next week may be the wrong time. Every day is the right time to compare our goods and values. We are always glad to show our goods. Seeing is believing. Look, compare and then buy.

See our showing of Ladies, Misses and Children's House Dresses. They are the dependable kind. Made like mother used to make them, they stay made. For the little tots, age 2 to 10, at 50c to $3.00. Misses, wide range of colors and materials, $1.00 up. Ladies, in Gingham, Percale and Linen, at $1.75 to $5.00

See the new Bulgarian Braids, the most popular trimmings.

Our Shoe department shows a healthy increase and it keeps us on the hump to supply the demand, but we are always humping. Always a shipment or more on the road. The Right Leathers and Lasts always at the Lowest Prices for the same or better quality.

Ladies' Lingeries in white, elaborately trimmed, right up-to-the-minute in style and the best values we have ever shown, at each $3.00 to $12.50

Something especially attractive in Silk Messaline at each $15.00

If you are hard to please in a new dress and want to make your own dress according to your own views, see our splendid showing. The more particular you are, the nearer we can please you. Voiles, Ratines, Charmeuse, Foulards, Krystal Cloth and lots of other good weaves and patterns to make your selections from.

Let us impress on you who are not familiar with our line and make of Clothing the necessity of an inspection of same. It's to our mutual interest that we urge you to see our line. If we can save you a dollar we are always willing to do it if we can—sell you a little better suit for less money. We are going to do it, because when you buy a suit from us you will be so well pleased that, instead of one regular customer in this line, we are more than likely to have six or even more, because you will tell your friends of this, the best suit you ever bought for the money, and they too will be regular customers. Once a wearer of our Clothing, always a wearer—that's why we want to show you the line. MEN'S—$8.50 to $20.00; BOYS'—$3.75 to $10.00.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR REUNION.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 29—Chattanooga has decided to raise from $50,000 to $75,000 for entertainment of the reunion of confederate veterans to be held here May 27-29. Committees are at work securing cash and subscriptions from the business men and concerns of the city and community. The fund will be secured without delay.

Since the formal organization nearly two months ago, the reunion work has been pushed with energy by thirty committees. The camp for the veterans has been selected and named. It will be in Jackson Park, a splendid location near the business section of the city. The camp can be reached by three street car lines, all of which will operate special schedules to accommodate the veterans. It is planned to have a street car pass the camp every minute.

The camp has been named "Camp Stewart" in honor of the late Gen. A. P. Stewart, the renowned confederate chieftain. Tents and cots to the number of 14,000, and 10,000 respectively, have been secured from the United States war department for the camp.

The official program for the reunion has not as yet been completed. It will provide, however, for the customary parades, social functions and other entertainments.

J. Pierpont Morgan of New York, one of the greatest financiers the world has ever known, died in Rome Sunday and his remains are en route to New York for burial. Mr. Morgan's estate is estimated to be worth something near three hundred million dollars and it is thought the bulk of it will go to his son, who is his namesake.

D. J. Hawkins, the Star druggist, had business in the metropolis the first of the week and made the Eagle a business call.

C. M. Allen this week bought T. H. Henderson's automobile and has already become an enthusiastic motorist.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Good Road Work Reported—Interesting Plans and Discussions.

The Commercial club meeting Monday night was largely attended and was interesting throughout.

The road committee reported the work on the Hanna Valley and Ebony road completed and that it was in excellent condition. Several members of the club have inspected the road and reported it one of the best in the county. Mr. J. D. Berry, who supervised the work, was complimented for the very efficient service he had rendered and the secretary was instructed to draw a draft on the Club's treasury for Mr. Berry's salary.

The committee appointed to prepare a letter to the people of the western portion of the county, advising them of the completion of the road, made a report and the copy of the letter submitted was ordered printed and mailed to the citizens interested in the road.

The committee appointed to secure fire extinguishers for the business houses reported progress and was granted further time.

The road committee and Mr. Berry were instructed to begin work on any road where work was needed and the co-operation of the citizens could be secured.

The Club will meet next Monday night and it is to the interest of all business men to attend.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

The most popular general news and farm paper in Texas is the Dallas Semi-Weekly Farm News. It is read by more people than any other publication in the Southwest. It is the favorite with men readers, women readers and boy and girl readers, because it has something for all of them and the best to be had at any price. The Eagle and the Semi-Weekly Farm News will be sent a whole year to any address for $1.75. We accept and receipt for all subscriptions at this office. We do all the ordering and take all the risk.

HE PREACHED REPENTANCE.

In the long ago the voice of the first Baptist preacher was heard in the wilderness of Judea, preaching repentance and saying, "Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." This message was also given to the Twelve to go into all the world.

There is no doctrine that is more clearly taught than that of repentance. One of the saddest things to my mind is people going into churches without repenting of their sins. "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."

We hear much nowadays of accepting Christ and joining the church and not much said about repenting. Somehow the ministry of today seems to no longer realize the necessity of repentance to salvation.

Oh, that people would wake up on this line. How seldom do we see the evidences of Godly sorrow and the tear of grief as it glistens in the eye of the penitent. If we don't repent of our sins we haven't any starting point. It is an easy thing to get up and confess Christ but if we haven't repented it does not amount to anything, for we haven't any foundation. Let us then as ministers of the gospel of Christ preach the Bible repentance and hue to the line.

Yours for the right,

J. D. LONG.

The regular session of the thirty-third legislature of Texas came to a close Tuesday at noon. The general appropriation bill was not passed neither was the congressional redistricting bill. Governor Colquitt has called an extra session to convene July 21 for the purpose of passing an appropriation bill and dealing with other legislation as the Governor may indicate in his messages from time to time. This legislature has enacted some very beneficial laws, but on the whole very little was accomplished by the session and some of the most important measures for consideration were neglected.

E. J. Shave was here from Star one day this week, looking after business and meeting with his friends.

W. A. Gardner of Mullin was here yesterday, marketing cotton.

M. C. Kirkpatrick, cashier of the Mullin bank, had business in this city Tuesday.

Rev. J. D. Long was here one day this week and made the Eagle a pleasant call. He is a student in Howard-Payne college at Brownwood, but finds time to do some missionary work in this section. He is one of Mills county's most promising young ministers.

It will pay every reader to read the advertisements in this issue carefully.

W. C. Bursleson and family visited W. B. Summy and family in this city the first of the week and while here he called and had his name added to the Eagle's growing list of readers.

Elmo Elliot, son of T. F. Elliot of Antelope Gap was here from Knox county this week visiting the scenes of his childhood and meeting with friends. He was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office.

BETTER FARMING METHODS

INCREASED CORN YIELD RESULTS FROM PRIZE CONTEST OF TEXAS INDUSTRIAL CONGRESS.

ALFORD BRANCH
"Champion Corn Grower of Texas."
167½ Bushels on One Acre.

Alford Branch is a wide-awake farmer boy living at Overton, Rusk County, Texas, who, by careful preparation of his land in the fall of 1911, so that it was in condition for the winter rains to sink in and to be stored for the use of the plant during the following season; who carefully selected the best seed-corn that was grown in his section and by shallow and constant cultivation from the time the corn was a few inches high until it was actually mature, not only kept it free from weeds, but kept the surface for an inch and a half or two inches so finely pulverized that it acted as a mulch and prevented the loss of moisture by capillary attraction, has raised on one acre of second bottom land 167½ bushels of corn at a cost of 13 cents per bushel. Rating the corn at the low price of 70 cents per bushel, there was a net profit of $95.35 from this acre. Adding to this the $250 prize money awarded him by the Texas Industrial Congress, makes a total of $345.35, which is the interest at 6 per cent upon $5,755.83, and represents the value of an intelligent combination of brains and work.

This young man broke his land in the early winter with a two-horse plow, cutting about six inches deep; followed in the same furrow with a team pulling what is known as a "bull-tongue" that cut ten inches further into the earth, but turned up no sew soil, and formed a reservoir to hold the moisture as well as to aerate the land and make more plant-food available. He used five hundred pounds of commercial fertilizer that had been recommended by a reliable house as best adapted to the successful growth of corn upon his black, sandy land, which had been in grass for a number of years and had an ample supply of humus. He used seed-corn that was popular in his neighborhood, known as the "Bloody Butcher." He states that he made as much corn on the one acre by the better methods above-mentioned as his father made on ten acres prepared and cultivated in the old-fashioned way.

The picture below is a graphic illustration of the value of using improved methods.

19 BU. PER ACRE
10-YEAR AVERAGE OF TEXAS

51 BU. PER ACRE
GENERAL AVERAGE OF ALL CONTESTANTS

52 ½ BU. PER ACRE
LOWEST PRIZE-WINNING YIELD

167 ½ BUSHELS PER ACRE
LARGEST PRIZE-WINNING YIELD

The general average of all contestants was fifty-one bushels to the acre, while the general average for the State in 1912 was but twenty-one bushels. If all of the corn growers in Texas had averaged just what these contestants averaged, at the prevailing price, the crop would have brought one hundred and sixty-million dollars more than it did.

In 1911 the average corn crop of Texas was 9.6 bushels to the acre. Seventeen hundred and forty-six contestants for the prizes offered by the Texas Industrial Congress, coming from one hundred and sixty-one counties, averaged 31½ bushels of corn per acre. All of the prizes were won in seventeen counties. In 1912 there were 4,620 contestants from 205 counties. Fifty-five counties won prizes, and 16 of the 17 that won in 1911 won again in 1912. This clearly demonstrates that the work of the Congress is constructive, permanent and cumulative.

The Congress keeps in touch with all contestants, makes suggestions as to preparation of soil, conserving moisture and fertility to make plant food available, as to seed selection and the best methods of cultivation, but all of these are subject to any changes that the contestant thinks best to make; the only object being to offer suggestions that cause the farmer to investigate and with all the information at hand to determine the best methods to adopt.

Alamo Heroes Monument To Be Built At San Antonio

Combining beauty, grandeur and usefulness and representing the patriotic devotion of loyal Texans to the memory of the pioneers who fought for and won liberty, the Alamo Heroes Monument, to be erected in San Antonio on ground hallowed by the blood of the fortress' defenders who preferred death to surrender, will be one of the greatest works ever undertaken in Texas. Its graceful lines that emphasize rather than conceal the rugged strength of the structure will mark it as a work of art; its great height and the massive character of the base, its columns of statuary within and without will give it grandeur, and its usefulness to the people of the whole state will be realized in its galleries, its auditoriums, its museums, its art galleries, its halls for state and national patriotic societies or associations and its individual rooms for each county in Texas for the maintenance of art or historical exhibits.

The Alamo Heroes Monument will rise to a height of 802 feet, the highest structure in the world. It has been designed along modern lines to possess strength and stability such as would not have been possible when the tower of Babel was built, for modern engineering has made possible feats that were impossible then or, for that matter, were impossible only a generation ago, yet with all the advance the science of engineering has made this monument will be one of its greatest accomplishments. It will contain four spacious auditoriums, a museum, an art gallery and statuary hall and a separate room for every county in Texas to be devoted by each to the encouragement of art and history by the maintenance of exhibits along these lines associated with that county. Near the top balconies will be provided for visitors that wish to take a look into neighboring counties through the large telescopes to be provided for that purpose.

The base of the monument will be of solid granite rising to a height of fifty feet. On this base will be placed at each corner of the monument and arranged around the shaft huge pillars, each eight feet in diameter and seventy feet high, all of solid Texas granite. These pillars will be surmounted by heroic-size statues of Travis, Crockett, Bowie and Bonham, the four great leaders who died in the Alamo with the men in their commands who had followed them devotedly in the early days of the campaign for liberty and who did not hesitate to follow them even to death. Above these statues will be placed the six flags of the Confederate states of America, Mexico, Spain and France. Place will be made, too for an emblem representing the Indian tribes that possessed this land before the Spanish adventurers found their way here.

Active work of raising the building fund was begun a few weeks ago, tickets having been placed in the bank and trust companies throughout Texas for sale to those desiring them, each bank retaining the money received on deposit until called for by the trustees to be put to the use for which it is given. Already much interest in the monument has been aroused and the county agents are explaining the plan and purpose to the people in their respective territories, arousing much interest every day, so the monument fund is increasing rapidly. Each day brings nearer the time when the actual work of constructing this new world's wonder may be begun, each ticket purchased makes this work possible

MRS. SALLIE CAROTHERS.

The subject of this sketch was born on Monday morning, Nov. 1, 1817, in Humphrey county, Tenn. Was converted and joined the M. E. church, South, in 1865. Was married to Mr. S. M. Carothers Nov. 8, 1817, from there to Texas in October, 1872, settling in Coryell county, near Gatesville, living there 22 years. From this place the family went to Floyd county in 1890, living there three years. They again removed to Knox county and after about one year at this place they again changed their location to Hamilton county, on the Leon river, and from there they came to Mills county and settled near San Saba Peak, where they lived 13 years previous to her death, which occurred Monday morning, March 24, 1913. She was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Goldthwaite, March 25, 1913.

Sister Carothers moved from Tennessee to Louisiana in January 1871, from there to Texas in October, 1872, settling in Coryell county, near Gatesville, living there 22 years. From this place the family went to Floyd county in 1890, living there three years. They again removed to Knox county and after about one year at this place they again changed their location to Hamilton county, on the Leon river, and from there they came to Mills county and settled near San Saba Peak, where they lived 13 years previous to her death, which occurred Monday morning, March 24, 1913. She was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Goldthwaite, March 25, 1913.

Mother Carothers belonged to the generation of people who passed through the trying times of our Civil war and the more trying period, if possible, of reconstruction and we all know what grand characters were developed in those times and Mother Carothers was no exception, but by true devotion to country and family helped in no small way to bring from the disaster of these times the prosperity and peace we now enjoy. As a Christian Sister Carothers lived an exemplary life, and by her kind greeting, which was always with a smile one felt encouraged at every meeting. And to her family she has left a legacy that is worth more to them than diamonds, for they can rest assured that she is now at home with Jesus, and while we know the old home is desolate to her husband and those stalwart sons will never more have her kindly and helpful visits in their homes here, we commend them all, father, sons and grandchildren to the God whom she trusted and in "The sweet by and by" they will all meet in that home above where parting is no more. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them." Rev. 14: 13.

CORNER STONE LAID.

Elaborate Ceremonies by the Masonic Lodge Thursday Afternoon.

The ceremonies of laying the corner stone for the new court house were conducted by the Goldthwaite Masonic Lodge Thursday afternoon, and were witnessed by an immense audience, which numbered several thousand. Mr. T. C. Yantis, representing the Grand Lodge, was present and assisted in the ceremonies. There were also a large number of visiting Masons from other lodges.

After the ritualistic ceremonies by the lodge, Hon. Jewel P. Lightfoot of Austin delivered a most pleasing address. He was introduced by State Senator R. P. Connor of Brownwood, who took occasion to make some very complimentary remarks concerning Mills county and her people. Mr. Lightfoot was also decidedly complimentary in his reference to the enterprise and liberality of the people in erecting such a magnificent structure as the new court house.

After the ceremonies Mr. W. C. Dew, worshipful master of the Goldthwaite Masonic Lodge, entertained Messrs. Yantis and Lightfoot, Judge Robertson of Belton and Senator Connor of Brownwood, together with the Masonic committee and a few of his special friends, at a six o'clock dinner at the Mountain Cottage. Mr. Dew's thoughtfulness and courtesy and the elegant dinner were much appreciated by his guests.

MAKING A GOOD CITIZEN.

It is an undisputed fact that idleness and crime are closely associated. It has long been an adage that an idle brain is the devil's workshop, and those who have been giving the subject attention are unanimous in the conclusion that the boy who has no useful manual labor to perform is readily attracted to vice, and to the chance that crime appears to offer to secure a living without labor. This is an empty hope as many know by bitter experience, but they usually acquire this knowledge after it is too late to be of any benefit to them. The vocational training and the manual arts training received in the better class of public schools is destined to play an important part in the making of good citizens for the future. Boys who have something to do, something to interest them aside from their regular studies, are as a rule too busy to get into mischief. The thing to do to save the boy is to get him started right, and this is the intention of these departments in the schools. He gets absorbed in his occupation early in life, his ambition, latent perhaps, but always present, demands his best efforts in order that he may excel his comrades. We must look to the boys of the country for our future citizens, and we should do all in our power toward making the right kind of citizens, men who will be a credit to their parentage, to themselves and to their country. —Brownwood Bulletin.

OUR FRIENDS.

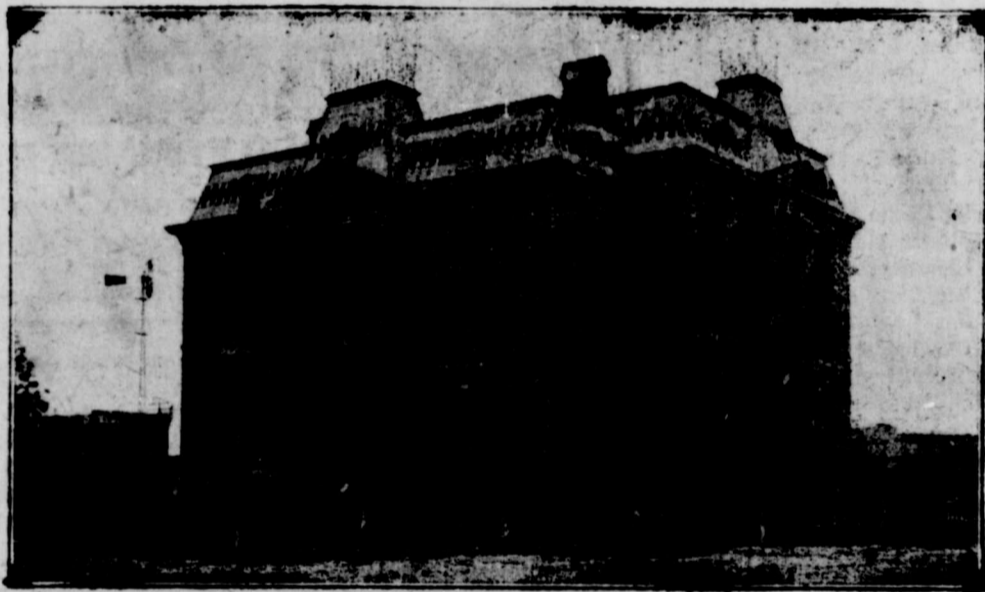

Several of our friends have renewed their subscriptions this week and others have added their names to the Big Bird's growing list. Mills County's New Court House.

The Corner stone bears the name of the Goldthwaite Masonic Lodge which conducted the ceremonies and also the names of the Gordon-Jones Construction Co., builders; Henry T. Phelps, architect; S. H. Allen, county judge; M. H. Hines, J. W. Mason, J. B. Renfro, W. H. Nelson, county commissioners who contracted for the building, and Judge E. B. Anderson, who was the court's legal adviser. The court house is a great improvement over the old building.

Mills County's Old Court House

The above is the likeness of the Old Court House, which was burned on the night of May 5, 1912. This building was erected in 1889 by John Cormack, contractor; was designed by Oscar Ruffini, architect. The corner stone bore the names of the contractor and architect, the Goldthwaite Masonic Lodge and following officers: J. P. Grundy, county judge; Matt Roach, A. V. Patterson, G. H. Dalton, S. L. Cooke, county commissioners; M. C. Humphries, county clerk, G. W. Cunningham, sheriff.

B. M. C. MEETING.

One of the most enjoyable meetings of the Bachelor Maids Club was on Friday evening of last week with Miss Nora Hooks, at her pretty new studio on the public school campus. The members came early as requested, and in a short business session it was found necessary to fine several members twenty-five cents for breaking rules.

A large bon fire was built in front of the studio. Tin plates were passed and the girls indulged in an Indian war dance for a few minutes around the camp fire.

Sharp pointed sticks had been prepared by the thoughtful hostess, which were passed to the girls. Some of the Bachelor Maids broiled bacon while others toasted bread and broiled eggs. After the fun of preparing supper, olives, pickles, onions and lettuce were passed. Delicious tea cookies were served.

Musical selections by Misses May Perry, Helen Woody, Clyde Lowrie and Nora Hooks were enjoyed.

At a very late hour the guests bade Miss Nora good night with many expressions of thanks for so enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be with Missmie Kelley. REPORTER.

FARM LIFE FACTS.

Don't wear out your soil. Rotate your crops.

Farming is business in its highest application.

To own one's home and land should be one's highest ambition.

Farmer boys who smoke cigarettes are like wormy apples—they drop long before harvest time.

Seed selection is as important to successful farming as the most careful methods of cultivation.

Proper marketing is more essential than prize farming. The first benefits the masses the latter the classes.

Poor lands can be made to bring profitable returns through diversification and scientific agricultural methods.

There is no royal road to an abundant crop; no magic rule by which the slothful man may reap as abundantly as his industrious neighbor; no discarding of the methods which experience and common sense have taught to be most profitable.

The new and scientific agriculture to which every Texas farmer is turning, in a word, is only the most exact attention to those common-sense natural laws with which every farmer, since the day of Cain, has worked with, more or less, in harmony. S. A. LINDSEY.

THE MICROBE OF LOVE.

Dallas Morning News, March 13, 1913.

Delighting audiences that had packed the Dallas opera house to its capacity, the Dallas Press Club scored the greatest triumph of its career with its presentation last night of "A Night in Bohemia," a combination vaudeville, minstrel and dramatic offering.

Each year for several years, as is the habit in other large cities, where the press club idea flourishes, the Dallas Press Club has made its bow to the public in a "show" of some kind and as the show this year has been unusually advertised, every seat in the house was sold yesterday afternoon, leaving standing room only for the late comers last night.

From the standpoint of an approach to serious dramatic effort, the little comedy with which the show was ended, proved the most notable offering, "The Microbe of Love" being a delightfully whimsical satire upon modern movements and theories. It was acted, too, with a high degree of skill, reflecting credit on Mollie Moore Godbold, the author of the play, and upon Mrs. Earl McCoy, who staged the comedy, as well as upon the members of the company who presented it.

"The Microbe of Love" is the means of bringing together several bachelor maids and an equal number of bachelor men with Madam Hymen-Cupidd doing the work with some new preparation that has the same effect upon the disease known as the single state that an effective serum would have on more fatal diseases. At any rate a cure is effected all around, and the play ends happily, as well as comically and laughably.

This play will be presented at the opera house in Goldthwaite next Thursday night under the auspices of the Mothers and Teachers club.

Ross, in Fort Worth Wednesday at the advanced age of 86 years. Mr. Carswell and his family lived here a few years ago and are kindly remembered by the people of this city and surrounding country and the bereaved ones have the sympathy of all.

The flood losses in Indiana, Ohio and other states were great, but the loss of life was not nearly so large as was at first feared. Relief funds are being forwarded from all sections for the destitute people of the flooded districts.

Two of the Allen gang who shot to death the officers in Hillsville, Va., court house a few months ago, were put to death in the electric chair last Friday and others of the gang are serving long time sentences in the state prison.

President Wilson has appointed Capt. Bill McDonald, the notorious ranger captain, United States Marshal for the northern district of Texas, Geo. Green, who held the appointment under the Republican administration, having resigned.

The trial of J. A. Clopton in Dallas on a charge of killing Capt. J. L. White, manager of a trust company who had refused a loan to Clopton, resulted in a mistrial and the case was re-set for May 19. Clopton was released on $15,000 bond.

Turkey has agreed to leave the settlement of the difference between that government and the Balkan states to the arbitration of the powers and to make such concessions as are demanded by the powers having the settlement of the difficulties in charge.

One of the beneficial measures enacted into law by the legislature was that requiring saloons to close at 9:30 at night. This will have a decidedly beneficial effect in the larger cities, where the all-night saloons are the places for criminals of all classes to congregate.

The deplorable condition of the flood sufferers in Ohio and Indiana should appeal to the generosity and liberality of the people everywhere. Mills county should be well represented in the list of contributors, for the prosperity in this county makes the duty doubly urgent.

A report from Washington says Senator Culberson of Texas is slated for the first vacancy on the United States supreme court and that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. This announcement has caused some of the big politicians and their supporters to "sit up and take notice."

A rule has been promulgated by the postoffice department that hereafter postmasters must give their entire time to the affairs of their offices. It is understood that one of the requirements will be that applicants for appointment as postmaster will give their entire business attention to the postoffice.

One of the greatest trusts in existence is the paper trust and an investigation into its affairs by the government would be beneficial. At frequent intervals notices are sent out by the manufacturers of paper that they have advanced prices and the strange part of it is that they all advance at the same time.

The celebrated German specialist, who claims to have prepared a vaccine that will cure tuberculosis, has put his treatment to the test in several sections of this country, but the medical authorities are still not satisfied with the treatment to an extent that endorsement can be given to it. Some patients claim great improvement, while others have not been benefitted. The secret of the preparation of the vaccine is held by Dr. Friedman and so far he has refused to divulge the methods of its preparation.

The good the motor car has done to all classes is almost unfathomable. It has had a tremendous influence on the general uplift of the country, and this relates to a range covering social health, educational and financial condition. With a registration of nearly 1000,000 motor vehicles, the necessary amount going weekly into the pay envelopes of the mechanics engaged in the industry can readily be seen. Good roads have never progressed in the proportion that they have since the introduction of the automobile. —New Orleans Picayune.

FROM MRS. VAN GLAHN.

Dos Angeles, Cal., March 22, 1913.
Editor Eagle:

The day that I closed my last letter to the Eagle the flood gates of Heaven were thrown open and a torrent of rain began to fall and continued for forty-eight hours with but little intermission. The precipitation was reported from five inches to twice that quantity.

The streets were flooded with water. One boy paddled a canoe down Jefferson street, while the pedestrians en route to their places of business were compelled to take off their shoes and stockings and wade across the street. Policemen were very kind to carry over in their arms women and girls. Street cars, on several lines, were blockaded by high water and compelled to suspend their runs.

This rain storm makes the second climatic experience, so unusual to this country. The cold snap in January and the rain in February were exceedingly uncomfortable and inconvenient to business men and women who had to face the weather. Farmers are jubilant over the prospect of a fine crop, and the benefit to the country in dollars and cents, which has been estimated at millions of dollars.

With March came the opening of spring like a sea of emerald as far as the eye can see, made brighter by the radiant sun shining forth from glowing skies, and breathed upon by balmy air; upon the brow of gentle spring sits a crown of orange blossoms, which later in the summer will be transformed into golden fruit.

At Santa Clara Valley "180,000 cherry trees burst forth into fragrant bloom," sweet harbingers of spring. These blossoms excited the admiration of crowds all day long. It was said to be a landscape set thick with fruit trees and the trees presenting a scene much like an old fashioned snow storm, only the snow flakes were blossoms on the fruit trees.

"In religion it is Easter time." The churches yesterday celebrated the greatest event in the history of the human family, recalling to mind the sepulcher in the garden where the two Mary's first beheld "The One risen from the dead."

Special music at all the churches. At the Orchard avenue Baptist church Miss Ella V. White lead in the music at both services, morning and evening. She also trained her primary, Sunday school pupils for the occasion; a little program in the Sunday school room at 10 a. m..

With your permission I am going to add what the Eagle had to say to the human family this week in the Sunday Magazine of Los Angeles Times.

"Come up, come up, dearly beloved brethren, you think that the Eagle tribe has nothing to do but admire you and envy your greatness? You are wrong, as you often are. The Eagle tribe sees the greatness and the advantage of the human race but we Eagles can see your limitations too.

"I say again, come up. Get on the wings of the Eagle and ascend with him this morning to the apex of the sky. A human being of the Eagle type years ago declared that "The heavens declare the glory of God." These are the days of all the year when the heavens sing as they did upon the morning of the creation. If you would come up with me to the sky this morning, what unspeakable glories you would see spread over the face of the earth. Why, this morning above other mornings in the year? Because we are at the vernal equinox. Now, do some of you superior lords of creation ask, "Well, what of that?" If you could come up with me and poise yourselves on broad pinions at the apex of the sky you would know.

"The sun this morning rises at the absolute eastern point of the globe and follows the equator in a straight line until it goes down away off at the ultimate western point in the ocean, where sky and sea come together. It is an unusual equinoctial season, for the Easter full moon sets in the west as the sun rises in the east, and tonight will rise as the sun goes down in the west. If you human beings could rise on Eagle pinions in the apex of the sky directly over the equator you would see, "That the heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth his handiwork."

It is glorious to think of the globe swinging in space held in place by threads so fine that no eye can see one strand of them; with a circumference of 25,000 miles, one half bathed in brilliant sunlight, and as it turns eastward the shadows shift bringing the western horizon into the rays of light, while from the east night following on broad black wings creeps slowly westward, everlastingly keeping the absolute equilibrium between light and darkness.

"Some thoughtless person may rise up and point out the fact that there are two equinoxes six months apart. You must not be too quick to find fault, another vice inherent in human nature. The Eagle knows that there are two, but they know that there is a great difference between the autumnal and the vernal equinox. I am not saying that one is superior to the other. What I want you to understand is that there is a difference between the vernal and the autumnal equinox, and I prefer to dwell on the one now before us rather than to confuse things by comparing and making a confused picture.

There is something in the spring time akin to what the world must have been on the day that creation was finished. Yes I know the Talmudists who comment upon the scriptures tell us that creation was finished in the fall of the year, and that the eternal spark of life was breathed into Adam upon a certain calm evening just as the sun went down behind the western sky. They tell us that the Creator looked over His handiwork and proclaimed it all very good. The purple grapes hung ripe upon the vine, the apples hung yellow and scarlet from the branch and the fields were waving like a sea of gold as the ripe heads of wheat bowed before the rippling breeze.

I prefer in my Eagle simplicity not to believe that. The Talmudist did not write in California where the crops come like the fruit upon the tree of Life, twelve manner of fruits for the twelve months of the year.

I prefer to look upon creation as having been finished in the spring, and I think that creation is renewed every spring as the equinoctial sun circles around the globe.

There is undoubtedly an animal satisfaction in the purple grapes and the red apples, but it is not in the fall that "a brighter iris blushes on the burnished dove." That comes in the springtime, when there is brighter green upon the fields, when the poppy lifts his yellow chalice to the sunlight, when the vine puts forth its little tendrils, more beautiful to my eye than the most luscious bunch of grapes.

"The Eagle could fill a book talking about the thrills that come in watching the equinoctial sun circle the equator today, followed by the silvery beams of the moon, half sphere behind him. The mocking birds trill their songs of thanksgiving and the meadow lark pipes his simple song of praise; the Eagle has only a shriek, but oh! it comes from a heart filled with joy as he thinks upon the glories of our earthly home. Yours for love of nature, The Eagle.

I have just heard of an honor conferred upon Dr. Robt. Barton, son of Dr. A. W. Barton. He has been appointed assistant surgeon on a fleet to sail from Honolulu to China and Japan. The Doctor will be absent several months and anticipates a great time.

Mrs. White has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Nefoy, at Hollywood, where she will spend a few days.

If this long letter should prove tiresome to my friends let me know and I'll be more brief next time.

Thanks to those dear boys and sweet little girls that wrote me of their appreciation of my letters to the Eagle. They inspired me to write again. G. V. M.

COTTON CORPORATION.

Its Plans and Purposes—Costs and Benefits.

The solicitors for the listing of cotton with the Southern States Cotton Corporation will begin work next week and for that reason the outline of the policies and plans of the corporation has been furnished the Eagle for publication. The article furnished for publication is as follows:

Why Contract.

For the one great purpose of establishing a permanent and sensible marketing system for cotton, which will guarantee a reasonable profit for the cotton grower.

The Southern States Cotton Corporation has but one object and that is to secure 15 cents for cotton, which is a reasonable and just price. The Corporation will not sell a pound of its cotton until the required price is paid. The cotton will be placed in bonded warehouses and held for the price. There are only two ways of selling cotton—the old way of selling for whatever price it will bring or selling through the Corporation for 15 cents.

How Your Cotton Helps.

Because it will take that much off the market and assists in getting others to list. It is expected to secure from three to ten million bales of cotton and when the world sees that this amount has been secured by the Corporation the price will be assured. Every bale therefore helps.

The Cost.

The selling fee you pay goes toward paying the expenses of the Corporation and in warehousing the cotton, etc. There are two ways to pay this fee, either $1 per bale cash when you get the contract or 10 cents per bale when you get the contract and $1.25 per bale when you deliver the cotton. This is not an additional cost to you, for when you sell under the old system you pay many times this amount, although you may not know it at the time.

What the Corporation Agrees.

When you sign this selling contract you have the Corporation bound to pay you 15 cents for your cotton, middle basis.

What You Agree.

You only agree to deliver the amount of cotton named in the contract, provided you make that much, and to accept 15 cents per pound for it.

How Settlement is Made.

You can take all script which bears interest, or you can take three-fourth of the selling price of the cotton and take the other one-fourth in script bearing interest.

The Corporation.

The Southern States Cotton Corporation is not a private corporation, it is a marketing system for the entire south. Its primary object is not private gain, but to secure 15 cents per pound for cotton. For every $1 made for the stockholders $20 or more will be made for the cotton grower.

Will You Help

The hearty cooperation of everybody is needed, for the more cotton there is listed the stronger will be the demand for the price and the quicker the results will be obtained.

Investigate and help.

STORMS

All kinds of lumber with which to fix your storm houses. Better get ready. HARRIS & McCULLOUGH.

Miss Gladys Templin of Mullin attended the picnic here.

Fishing seems to be the main attraction for the men of this community at this season. Several fishing expeditions have been made at the Bayou, but so far, they have been fruitless.

Mesdames Johnson and children of Fisher and Reams of Democrat were guests of Mrs. Elza Smith one day this week.

Miss Maizie Baskin of Fisher returned the first of the week from a visit to relatives in San Saba.

Grandma Burleson is somewhat sick at present.

Mr. Tacket, the Watkins man, has been in our community this week. JOAN OF ARK.

The court of Civil Appeals affirmed the breaking of the Winfield Scott will by his daughter, Mrs. Georgia Townsend of Denver. The estate is valued at $3,000,000. Scott has been dead eighteen months. The contest was begun by his daughter and was directed against the second Mrs. Scott and her ten-year-old son. The Scott will cut Mrs. Townsend off with practically nothing, though her son was given $100,000 at the death of his mother. Mrs. Townsend previously had been given several business buildings in Fort Worth. The bulk of the estate was given to the ten-year-old son of Scott, though its control was placed in the hands of administrators who were to act until the son was 50 years old. With the will broken, Mrs. Townsend will get $1,000,000 and Mrs. Scott $1,000,000, with the remaining million going to the ten-year-old boy.

"Young man, when you buy a buggy, be sure it's a Studebaker"

Sound advice from the man who has been driving one for twenty years.

When you buy a Studebaker buggy you are buying all the skill, experience and science in buggy building that half a century can produce. You are protecting yourself against the mistakes of younger builders.

You will always be proud of the Studebaker nameplate, for there isn't a buggy on the road that is its equal for style, luxury and good looks.

Flexible bent-reach gear, graceful lines, solid corner, plugless body, double-ironed shafts, are a few of the special Studebaker features.

The new close-fitting shifting rail is enough in itself to make you buy a Studebaker buggy.

CITY ELECTION.

The city election Tuesday was a quiet affair, only about half of the voters casting their ballots and no contests developing. Four Aldermen were to be elected and while there were no candidates, several names were placed on the ballot. The result of the voting was the re-election of Will H. Trent and F. N. Hubbert as members of the council and the selection of J. H. Randolph and J. D. Urquhart as new members of the body. These four gentlemen, with Alderman H. G. Bodkin and Mayor James Rahl constitute the city council.

30,000 VOICES

And Many are the Voices of Goldthwaite People.

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Goldthwaite people are in this chorus. Here's a Goldthwaite case.

W. C. Frazier, farmer, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "One of our family had been suffering for a long time from her kidneys. There were pains in her back and she was laid up in bed. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused her much annoyance. I had seen Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and I got a box at R. E. Clements' drug store. She began taking them and a few doses helped her. The pain in her back left and in a short time her kidneys were normal. Since then we have had great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (adv)
