OUR INTERESTS

Are so interwoven with those of yours that it's not only right morally, but from a strictly business point it's absolutely necessary that we should work hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder, together for each other's interest. It's absolutely impossible for us in town—and especially merchants—to get along without the farmer. On the other hand it's almost impossible for the farmer to get along without the merchant. We've got to have the farmer and the farmer has to have the merchant. Now the most important step is to get closer in touch with each other. It's quite natural that we like to see the farmer prosperous and to receive good profits on his products. This he must have to be prosperous. On the other hand we, the merchants, must have a fair profit on our goods. We, as well as you, have a fixed expense that must be met before our profits begin, and it depends on the amount of goods sold as to how prosperous we may be in the mercantile world. The day of big profits is gone—it's the volume that we must depend on, and that only, for our revenues. The day of the skin game in both the agricultural and the commercial world is a thing of the past. The sooner we of both classes realize this the better. We can't, neither do we desire to get the best end of any deal. All we care for is a small profit and the volume. We are more anxious than you that every article bought of us be absolutely as represented and absolutely satisfactory. This is the merchant's greatest asset—it's worth more than capital. That's our greatest ambition—to sell you the best of any article at the lowest price. Your patronage and good will is the greatest asset we can have and this we want. On the other hand it's our duty to help you and your community in any way possible to better yours and their condition, and we believe that you will always find the merchant ever ready to do this. Now is it not your duty to buy your goods from the home merchant, the one that's always ready to help you? Help us to sell you better goods for less money. The volume will do it.

THINGS IN GENERAL.

The Frisco Railroad system, with a trackage of 5,254 miles, a capital stock of $200,000,000 and a bonded indebtedness of $320,000,000, is in the hands of receivers. This giant industry has fallen with a crash that has been heard around the world and its echo is still reverberating in the bank vaults of two continents. No matter what may have been the causes that contributed to this undesirable situation, the intrinsic value of the property is no less at this time than before it was placed in the hands of a receiver. The prosperity of a large section of our state is closely interwoven in the future of these properties, and we are all vitally interested in their early restoration to normal business conditions.

We have so many things to depress us and when life is just one thing after another anyway, that a short visit to the fountain head of our happiness and prosperity where we can sit quietly and watch the waters of life bubble and flow, is refreshing, instructive and encouraging. The last Federal Census report shows that we now have 779,177 homes with an average of a little more than four persons each. We gained in the past ten years 203,443 homes. We build an average of seven homes every working hour in the day. Cupid and the stork are master builders and neither of them belong to the union. Cupid performs 140 marriage ceremonies in Texas per day and the stork brings 365 children to our homes. Then the goddess of opportunity beats them all bringing population and wealth to the state. So long as we can build 20,000 homes per annum Texas is safe and so long as the prosperity triplets—Cupid, the Stork and Opportunity—smile upon us we will be happy.

The Texas Good Roads association will have a mid-summer congress in Corpus Christi July 10, 11 and 12. L. W. Page, director of the Bureau of Public Roads, and other men of national reputation will be present, and the hope is to make this the greatest gathering of good roads enthusiasts that has ever been held in the south.

The association invites the commercial organizations, the mayors of cities and county judges to appoint delegates to attend this congress, and urges all who are interested in the improvement of public highways of Texas to co-operate in making this meeting a great success.—Commercial Secretaries.

WEDDING AT LAMPASAS.

Bruce Burnett of Big Valley and Mrs. Leif Cox of Lampasas were married at the home of the bride's parents in Lampasas Sunday afternoon and arrived in this city on Monday morning's train, en route to their home in Big Valley. The marriage was a complete surprise to many of the friends of the young people. The groom is a son of Mr. J. H. Burnett of Big Valley and is a young man of fine character and high standing with the people who know him. He was reared in this county and has a multitude of friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. J. Warren and was a resident of Nabors creek community for several years and moved from there to Lampasas about a year ago. She has a great many admiring friends here and elsewhere.

The Eagle extends congratulations and good wishes to the young couple.

STAR SCHOOL.

The Star school board met Monday and selected teachers for the next term of their school as follows: Prof. W. A. Jeter of DeLeon, principal; Mrs. Ira Hawkins of Star, assistant; Miss Donald Oldfield, primary.

The board is to contract on June 19 for a new school building to cost somewhere in the neighborhood of $6000, that amount having been voted in bonds for the purpose.

The Eagle is of the opinion that the board has made a fine selection of teachers. Prof. Jeter was in to see us Tuesday and he gave us the impression of a man of experience and ability. Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Oldfield have both taught school in this county and their very satisfactory work gives assurance of the success of the Star school.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Interesting Meeting and Large Attendance—Fair and Roads.

The attendance at the meeting of the Commercial club Monday night was larger than usual and several suggestions created interest.

The advertising committee was instructed to advertise for bids for the concessions on the fair grounds during the fair and reunion July 15 to 17.

The road committee was instructed to take up the matter of work on the Hanna Valley road with Commissioner Haynes and co-operate with him as far as possible in making the necessary improvements and repairs on the road.

The matter of a trade excursion to the surrounding country and smaller towns was discussed and a committee composed of J. H. Randolph, H. G. Bodkin and R. M. Thompson was appointed to ascertain how many automobile owners would furnish cars for the trip, also to secure the services of the band, if possible, and make suggestions regarding the schedule for the trip. The committee was to report at the next meeting.

The fair committee was instructed to prepare plans and suggest ways and means for providing premiums for the fair exhibits.

COTTON CONVENTION.

Second Gathering of Planters and Business Men Is Planned to Start July 10—Large Crowd Expected

A second meeting of the Cotton Growers of the South will be held in Fair Park Coliseum July 10, continuing several days. This is pursuant to a resolution passed at the last convention May 1. The interest and enthusiasm displayed at the preceding convention went far to show the officials the spirit of the men toward the Southern States Cotton Corporation and their plan for marketing the cotton of the South.

The convention to be held July 10 will doubtless reveal in concrete form the progress of the plan in the entire cotton growing belt, and it is probable that the co-operation of the banks in the movement will be shown by the attendance from banking circles. The convention will be held at Fair Park Coliseum and it is expected that a large crowd will attend.—Dallas Times Herald.

CARD OF THANKS.

To Our Many Friends:
We wish to express our sincere thanks and most profound appreciation of the many kindnesses and deep sympathy of our many kind and thoughtful friends during the last illness of our little son Morris. Nothing can take away the deep and lasting sting of such affliction, but the balm of true friendship and heartfelt sympathy can soothe the heart and help greatly to mitigate the suffering of the bereaved; this was liberally bestowed on us during our hour of affliction, for which we express our heartfelt thanks to our many kind friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. HARRISON.

HUTCHINGS-HARRISON.

Ira Hutchings and Miss May Etta Harrison were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city last Sunday evening, Rev. R. S. Pierce officiating. The young people have a great many friends in this city and in other communities of the county. The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Bennett creek and the bride is a daughter of Mr. T. J. Harrison of South Bennett community. Both of the young people were reared in this county and have the best wishes of all who know them.

The Eagle joins in extending congratulations and good wishes to them.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and salivated. Then when you have a fullness in the stomach and feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by R. E. Clements. (Adv)

CONTRACT AWARDED.

New School Building to be Erected East of the Old Building.

The Goldthwaite school board this week awarded the contract for the erection of the new High School building to Gordon-Jones Construction Co. of San Antonio, the company that is building the new court house. The school building is to be two stories and a basement, and is to be constructed of reinforced concrete, faced with brick, backed by tiling. The building will be very similar to the court house in material. The contract price is $12,360 and the building is to be completed by October 1, 1913.

The original plan for the building included plumbing and hot air heating, but the bids for the entire plant so far exceeded the allowance and the board's expectation that the plumbing and heating had to be eliminated. The board wisely decided that these improvements could be added at a later time and it would be better to have the building made large enough now, so an addition would not be necessary and make the other additions later than to reduce the size of the building and later have to build an addition.

The board selected the site for the new house Thursday and the contractors expect to have the excavation commenced in the next few days and work will be commenced on the new building right away. The house will be built southeast of the old school building, near Miss Nora Hooks' music room, and will be an ornament to the town and a source of pride to the citizens.

The Eagle feels that the school board is entitled to the gratitude and unstinted praise of the public for the hard work and careful management by its members. It would cost several hundred dollars to pay for the time and energy of these gentlemen in some private enterprise and they have devoted themselves to the interests of the school without compensation or hope of reward.

"I have had this wagon twenty-two years, and during that time it cost me only $6.00 for repairs, and that was for setting two tires."

"And after twenty-two years of daily use in good and bad weather and over all kinds of roads, I will put this wagon against any new wagon of another make that you can buy today."

"Studebaker wagons are built of air-dried lumber and tested iron and steel. Even the paint and varnish are subjected to a laboratory test to insure wearing qualities."

"No wagon made is subjected to as many tests or is more carefully made than a Studebaker. You can buy them of Studebaker dealers everywhere."

"Don't listen to the dealer who wants to sell you a cheap wagon, represented to be 'just as good' as a Studebaker."

Farm wagons, trucks, dump wagons and carts, delivery wagons, buggies, surreys, depot wagons—and harness of all kinds of the same high standard as the Studebaker vehicles.

Fire at Wichita Falls destroyed about $60,000 worth of property Saturday.

The scarcity of labor in Texas has become quite a problem. Up in north Texas women have been assisting in the harvest fields, on account of the scarcity of laborers.

The commanders of the opposing forces in Mexico are giving no quarters to captured foes and almost ever account of conditions there shows a list of those who have been executed for taking part in the revolution in one way or another.

A negro rape fiend was hanged in the city of Washington Monday for a crime he committed on Christmas night. This is the first execution for a similar offense in the District of Columbia. Appeal was made to President Wilson in the coon's interest, but without effect.

The dead body of Pascual Orozco, father of the well known rebel leader in Mexico by that name, was found hanging to a tree near Joluita a few days ago. The old man was captured by Zapata's army some time ago and his friends and the friends of his son offered a ransom of $20,000 for him, but Zapata announced that he could not sell justice.

A difficulty between whites and blacks at a negro picnic in Newton county resulted in several negroes being arrested and jailed. One of the negroes was released on bond and that night he was lynched by unknown parties. His body was found hanging the next morning within 200 yards of a negro camp meeting, but the lynching was done so quietly that the meeting was not disturbed.

The strong opposition that has developed against the adoption of joint resolution No. 18, which is to be voted on in July, makes the defeat of that proposition almost certain. The provision for the creation of so large a debt and other objectionable features of the measure are meeting with strong opposition. At least one of the members of the legislature who voted to submit the amendment has announced that he will vote against it.

A representative of the United States marine hospital service was called to Texarkana to take personal charge of the fight against the epidemic of infantile paralysis, which prevailed there. The main remedy suggested was cleaning all premises and putting the city in a good, sanitary condition. While the bad sanitary condition of the city was not likely responsible for the outbreak of the disease the danger could be lessened by a strict observance of a good system of sanitation.

To keep our tongues from evil and our lips from speaking gulle, as the good old verse puts it, is one of the most important things in life. It may seem a little thing to hush sharp word, the unkind remark, the hasty repetition of something that is not to the credit of another. Yet this is important; and that not only to the one spoken of, but is directly important to the one that is careful to keep clear of these things. A reputation for gossip is easily won and is never anything to one's credit yet. It may seem pleasant at the moment to be the bearer of news, but it is far pleasanter in later memory to hold the knowledge of a tongue unscathed by evil and lips sealed against gulle. There are so many things to tell about one another it is a pity to let any of these things go unnoticed while we recount the small fault which might die out of lack of attention, if we let it severely alone. It is not our place to judge and set right all the weak spots in others. We ought to be thankful that this is so—instead of trying to take upon ourselves the judging from which we are mercifully freed.—Ex.

Little Miss Nettie Williams, the ten-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams, living out on Cowhouse, was bitten on the ankle of her left foot by a rattlesnake last Thursday morning about 8 o'clock. L. P. Baugh, Sr., died shortly after noon Monday, following an illness resulting from cancer.

The aged mother of J. A. Austin arrived home this afternoon from an extended visit to her grand children at Dallas and Pine Bluff, Ark.

The school trustees of Goldthwaite are planning to erect a twelve thousand dollar fire proof high school building, the crowded condition of the present building making such action necessary. Prof. F. E. Norton, who taught the Brady school last term, has been elected superintendent, while the corps of teachers is a strong one.—Bulletin.

THE CONFEDERATE PENSION

The Thirty-third legislature in pursuance of the constitutional amendment adopted in November of last year, passed a law which will take effect July 1, 1913, wherein it is provided: That a pension of $8.33 1-3 per month shall be allotted to all blind, maimed and totally disabled Confederate soldiers, or their widows, the remainder of the funds to be raised by the special tax of 5 cents on the $100, which is levied by this act, is to be divided pro rata between the remaining pensioners, each of whom shall receive a sum not to exceed $8.33 1-3 per month.

Another important change in the Confederate pension is: The widow entitled to the pension must have been married to such soldier prior to January 1, 1900, and must never have remarried and each Confederate soldier who is entitled to the pension must have become a resident and bona fide inhabitant of the state of Texas before January 1, 1900, and the law further provides that the word "widow" as used in the act shall not apply to nor include women born since 1861.

SOLID FACTS.

Mr. P. H. Clements, in his address to the Temple excursionists last week, said, among other good things:

"We do not boast of having the richest county in the state, nor the poorest. We have a county composed of small farmers and stockmen, a county of happy homes and patriotic citizenship. Mills county has the largest percentage of home owners of any county in the state of Texas.
" There is a reason for this. We have a good people here and a good bunch of county officers who never make a mistake; neither have we any grafters. We have made no mistakes except possibly in the early days in building a jail which we have no need

It is unfair to withhold patronage from any man because he pays his debts in order that some hard pay fellow may be given the patronage as a means of collecting. The system operates as a fine on the debt paying man and encourages the fellow who does not hesitate to make obligations without the hope of meeting them.

The Daughters of the Confederacy gained the first point in their suit against the superintendent of public buildings and grounds in Austin, who insists upon the organization removing its belongings from certain rooms in the state capitol building. The district judge granted them a temporary injunction restraining the superintendent from removing their effects from the capitol until the case is passed upon by the higher court. They are pretty sure to lose the case finally, but this injunction helps their feelings considerably.

There is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better or for worse as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of gold, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given to him to till. The power which resides in him is new to nature, and none but he knows what that is which he can do, nor does he know until he has tried.—Emerson.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Tom Harrison Hurt When Team Ran Away With Reaper.

There was a bad accident at Will Palmer's place, a few miles east of town, Wednesday afternoon when a team attached to a reaper ran away and Thomas J. Harrison, jr., was seriously injured. Will Palmer and young Harrison were preparing to cut grain with a reaper and had hitched their team to the reaper when the animals took fright and started to run. Tom was standing on the ground holding one of the reins and in attempting to check the team he was thrown against a wire fence and his arms and body were fearfully lacerated. From his appearance he must have been carried along the wire fence for some distance by the frightened team and his left arm was so badly cut that more than two yards of thread was used in sewing up the gashes. It was at first thought his arm could not be saved and the physicians are still in doubt, but there is some reason for hoping that amputation will not be necessary.

While the cuts in the left arm are by far the most serious and dangerous, the young man was cut and bruised over his entire body and there are two bad cuts in his ankles. The fact that he was not a great distance from physicians when the accident occurred and he was given attention promptly by Mr. and Mrs. Palmer until the physicians arrived perhaps prevented him bleeding to death.

LEADERS AMONG MEN

A celebrated French writer tells us that "as soon as a certain number of living beings are gathered together, whether they be animals or men, they place themselves instinctively under the authority of a chief." It has long been noticed that animals show leadership and that they exert a powerful influence over others in protecting themselves.

But animals become leaders because of their superior strength in combat and because of their power to prevail over their antagonists. Such is not the case with men; they become leaders because of their talents. Intellect, not physical force, is responsible for leadership among men.

Young people who show themselves capable of doing things better than others, who see the things that should be done and do them faithfully, will become leaders. People are anxious to do the right thing if there be capable leaders to begin.

The place to do something worth while is not in some distant place where you are unknown, but at home where your worth is known and fully appreciated. Your home community needs your services. Here your originality is appreciated; your perseverance commended; and your ability to lead is in demand. Here you can accomplish greater work than among strangers who do not know your ability and who must learn your qualifications for leadership.

But no one who has not first succeeded in doing something worth while need expect that he can lead others. Self-control is necessary. Self-negation must be practiced and honest, conscientious intentions fully demonstrated before leadership can be assumed.—Exchange.

THE NEED OF CANNERIES.

The loss accruing last year to the growers of perishable products in this state through inability to find a market, has started the rehabilitation of old, and the erecting of new canneries in the fruit and vegetable belt to handle the surplus stock. The turning of waste into profit adds to the permanency of our fruit and truck industry and contributes toward the general prosperity of our commonwealth, but an encouraging and important feature of our manufacturing operation along these lines is that the home people are behind them. When a community ceases to cry for help and puts its shoulder to the wheel, it is on the broad highway to success and when it acquires from actual experience a knowledge of industry essential to maintaining condition favorable to growth and development.—Commercial Secretaries.

We are in a universe, remember, where science tells us, nothing is lost, nothing is wasted. Every atom of it is immortal; changing endlessly in form, but never ceasing in its working, in its fruitions. And if that is true of atoms, do you think that it is less true of souls? If that volt of electric power is never to be lost out of the great scheme, is it likely that the throb of your soul, the pain throb, maybe, is of no account? If Christ's suffering wrought all we see, is your suffering, think you, less sure of its end? The truth is, the whole travail of humanity, its sums of pains and woes, is immeasurably the richest, the most productive of its seed sowing. The weaknesses, the limitations that we mourn the narrowness of our lot, the inexplicable sorrows which have been our fate are the treasurers in us that will yield the highest interest. This is the teaching of the cross. It is the teaching of science, of history.—Christian World.

This is the time of year that every thing should be done to prevent contagious diseases. The fly is the greatest disease spreader known and yet the people do very little in the way of killing the fly and stop their multiplying. It is true that the most of us screen our houses, but we should not stop there, for it is not destroying them, it is only preventing them from entering our houses. By the use of poison in breeding places, such as in and around the barn, all damp places or where there is standing water is the best way in the world to stop them from increasing. Now is the time to start this crusade against the fly, and the cost of each individual citizen would be very little. Don't put it off until tomorrow, but commence today.—Milam County Enterprise.

The Eagle refers with pride to the splendid financial condition of the people of Mills county, as shown by the various bank reports of the county. While the deposit accounts are not as large as would be expected in the busy season and the loan accounts are some larger than would be necessary at harvest time, the reports are encouraging indeed, and an investigation will show that a majority of the people of this county have checking accounts with the banks.

NOTICE TO PARENTS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN.

If you have a child of scholastic age—7 to 17 years—that has not been enrolled by the census trustee of your district this year, please report to me that fact together with the name and age of the child, as it will mean a loss to your school of about $7 for every child in your district so omitted.
Very Respectfully,
S. H. ALLEN,

HOLDERNESS-MILLER.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Miller was the scene of a pretty wedding last Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Winnie Miller and Mr. Claud C. Holderness were united in marriage, Rev. R. S. Pierce officiating.
 The bride was gowned in a beautiful embroidered voile over white satin. The only ornament worn was a diamond necklace, a gift of the groom.
 The groom was dressed in the conventional black.
 Miss Miller grew to womanhood in Mills county. She is a graduate of Canyon State Normal and has taught some of the best schools in this county. Mr. Holderness is a prominent contractor of Wichita Falls.
 The marriage took place in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was served. The bridal couple left immediately after dinner for Goldthwaite en route to Wichita Falls, where they will make their home.
 The bride's going away gown was a blue silk ratine, having hat and gloves to match.
 Mr. and Mrs. Holderness left on the 9 o'clock train amid showers of good wishes from their many friends.

MOST CHILDREN HAVE WORMS

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system, and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail, Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis (Adv) Sold by R. E. Clements.

MRS. WILLIS DEAD.

The remains of Mrs. A. J. Willis arrived yesterday morning from Mineral Wells and were conveyed to the Odd Fellows cemetery for interment. Mrs. Willis lived in this county most of her life and only recently moved with her family to San Saba and a few weeks ago went to Mineral Wells with the hope of benefiting her health. While her health had not been good for some time, her friends were not prepared for the announcement of her death, which was a great shock to them.
 The bereaved husband and children and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of all their friends.

BABY HARRISON.

Morris, the 20-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harrison, died at the family home in this city last Sunday and the little form was laid away in the Odd Fellows cemetery Monday morning. The little one had been sick for some time and his death was not unexpected by the family and friends. The bereaved family can be sure that they have the sincere sympathy of all who know of their sad bereavement.

SPLIT LOG DRAG.

To keep a road smooth and crown the best method is to drag it with a road drag. A road drag is made easily with two halves of a log which have been split. The log should be about six or eight inches in thickness and about 6 or 8 feet long. The two halves of the log are set 3 feet apart with the smooth faces forward and upright. They are then fastened together with braces set in holes bored through the log. A pair of horses may be used to drag the road and are hitched to a chain fastened to the front half of the log. The road drag should move forward so that it slants across the road in such a way that a small amount of earth will slide past the smooth face of the log toward the center of the road, thus forming the crown. The edges of the logs will smooth out the ruts. The best way to drag is to begin at the side ditch and go up one side of the road and down the other. In the next trip the drag should be started a little nearer the center and the last trip over the road the drag may work close to the center itself. Small ridges of earth will be thrown in the horse track and smeared by the round side of the log smoothly over the road. The smearing of the earth by the drag is called "puddling" and it tends to make the surface of the road smooth and water tight after the sun comes out. The road is always dragged after it has rained and not when it is dry. A good, strong pair of horses with a well-built drag can drag about 3 or 4 miles of road in a day, and it is the best way to maintain good roads. In every county some farmer along each four miles of road should own a drag and drag the road when it rains, and he would always find the road in good condition when he goes to market.

Owing to the fact that many rural schools were closed at the time when the prize maintenance essay was announced by director Logan Wallen Page at the Office of Public Roads, it has been decided to extend the limit for receiving the essays to October 15, 1913. In addition to the gold medal given as first prize, two silver medals will be given as second and third prizes. If a child who has submitted an essay previous to the issue of this notice should care to try again, he is at liberty to do so, but he must be a pupil of a rural school. There is some misunderstanding in regard to the subject of the essay. The idea is to set the children thinking how to better their earth roads with the material they have at hand.—U. S. Bulletin.

WHY I BUY AT HOME.

I buy at home because my interests are here.

Because I want to see my goods.

Because I sell what I produce here at home.

Because I want to get what I pay for.

Because the man I purchase from pays his part of the city and county taxes.

Because the community that is good enough for me to live in is surely good enough to buy in.

Because I believe in transacting business with friends.

Because the man I buy from stands back of his goods.

Because the man I buy from helps support my school, my church, my lodge and my home.

Here is where I live and here is where I buy.—Grandfield Enterprise.

MULLIN.

Hello, Brother Bob. When you as for news you shall have it. Get your tablet and write, "Thus saith Smiling Billie." We have had a fine rain, gully washer, log floater, mud slinger and one that will bring up things.

Yes, and you may say the first car of lumber for the new depot has arrived and the push car on the section is being propelled by a gasoline engine.

The loafers are all at their places and each trying to excel the other in a good old laughable joke, one of which they say is true and goes thusly:

J. L. Farmer, being scarce of teams applied to Joe Burkett for the loan of a horse to put with one of his to a mower to mow his crop of oats. On arriving at the field he found he had some work to do on the mower and turned the Burkett horse loose to graze and when he got ready to hitch up the old rascal had eaten up the good man's crop and was nicker-ing over the fence of an adjoining pasture. Farmer said he would not be outdone in any such way, so he mounted the Burkett steed and came to town to demand of Burkett a feed of oats for his own horse. Burkett informed him that he was out and borrowed a feed for his two mules from Ben White that morning. Said he had been cutting three days and came out one feed behind. My! Can't the old Texans get there farming and —ing?

If you want to, you might say that the oil well now being drilled in Mullin is over 2,000 feet deep, and if gas and much gas is any indication for oil you may expect to hear of a gusher in the next few days.

Some late additions to the town makes things pretty windy at times and some have been looking for a sure 'nuff blow out. If anybody suggests that this talk sounds like old Daddy Summy you may say it ain't so and don't stop to argue the question, for Summy is not guilty. J. R. Clark may be the man at the bottom of all this mischief, as he has been known to have an investigating, meddlesome disposition in other days and in other men's matters. If we find he is the duck we will first resort to persuasive means and try to get him settled without having to call out the mob-tia in this incorporated town, with John Hester, Leineweber, Bralley and Jones in the saddle, with spurs on, making a charge on Jeff Johnson's cows and Short's horse. Old Short fooled 'em, for when they arrived at the charger they found a stake at one end of a long rope, the horse at the other end and the whole thing fastened to Mother Earth, all of which was said to be in strict compliance with incorporated laws.

You may tell 'em that John S. Chesser planted five rows of cotton last Saturday and that with the five big onions he gave the Temple boosters we presume made him sick, as he has not showed up for several days.

By the way, you need not put it in the paper, but the way them Temple boosters blowed Mullin was a sight. They said Mullin was simply the IT between Temple and Brownwood. Now Brother Bob, if you go and put this in the paper you will have Messrs. Eli Fairman, Ben Geeslin and the Hon. P. H. Clements pawing the earth, for you know they can't stand it for Mullin to be put ahead of Goldthwaite.

The edict has gone forth that all oats from four inches to twelve must come down or come up, as some claim they are grubbing them.

If it continues to rain Joe Burkett's horses will be in demand, and J. L. Farmer says to tell you that you can't founder the one he had.

The Mullin Lyceum, composed of more than 25 young men, are preparing to pull off a play that will startle the natives. They also have installed a moving picture outfit, the like of which will be immense, as the editor of the Enterprise has had a photographer here from a distant city taking views of the great crowd, the moving street cars, and Uncle Henry Cobb running after one of Dr. Herrington's roosters which went out in one of his fields and picked up a bundle of his fine oats and started for the doctor's barn. These may be some of the first pictures on exhibition. I don't know this to be true, so you needn't put it in the paper, for Bowden may not want everybody

FARMS OPENED.

New Farms Opened Up in Mills County Annually.

Forty-two new farms are opened up in Mills county every year and the latest Federal Census reports which are based on data gathered in the Spring of 1910 show a total of 1484 farms in this county at that time. In 1900 we had 1059 farms. We have a total of $6,803,329 invested in farm property and our farms are worth $4,588 each, including equipment.

The total number of farms in Texas at the date of the last census was 417,770 having increased 65,580, or 19 per cent during the past decade. The value of all farm property in the state is $2,218,645,000. The average Texas farm is valued at $5,311.

FARM FACTS.

(By Peter Radford, president of Farmers' Union.)

Only hard work receives a recompense.

Co-operation is the farmer's salvation.

The secret of success is constancy of purpose.

Power is permanent when it is a product of principle.

One of the greatest problems of civilization is to eliminate the parasite.

Tomorrow may never come, but the wise farmer plans for it just the same.

No man ever climbed the ladder of success with his hands in his pockets.

Progress is not only desirable and necessary, but it is natural and inevitable.

Hands that work and brains that think are the silent partners of successful farming.

The person who expects something for nothing usually harvests a good crop of expectations.

Don't forget your health when you take an inventory of your assets, its value outranks all others.

Farm products are increased in value by getting them where needed at the proper time. Good roads increase values.

The greatest need of the Texas farmer is cheap money and better marketing methods. The city man should stand behind the farmer instead of standing in front of him.

Good roads annihilate distance and cancel space. They bring the farmer nearer the market and place the farmer in closer touch with nature.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

The County Board of Education was in session Wednesday. Among the matters considered at this meeting was the petition of the citizens of the village of Priddy and country immediately surrounding it for the creation of a school district. The petition was granted. The new district will be composed of territory taken from Becker Mountain, Priddy and Mountain Creek school districts. These schools were overcrowded and will be relieved by this new order.

The people of this new district expect to vote a special tax, build a first-class school house and maintain an up-to-date school at home. Such an ambition is commendable in any people. We predict that this move will prove a most powerful factor in advancing the growth of Priddy. That is one of the best sections of the county, with a wide-awake, enterprising citizenship. They are right in providing the best facilities for their children's education at home. Hurrah for Priddy! Watch her grow. EDUCATOR.

MR. DICKERSON DEAD.

Mr. Cornelius Dickerson died at his home in this city last Saturday at noon, after a long illness. His death was not unexpected, for his condition had been known to be critical for some time and his recovery was thought to be next to impossible.

Mr. Dickerson was an old resident of this place, having located here when the town was young. He was a charter member of the Odd Fellows lodge at this place and was ever faithful to the order and its teachings. He was a man of many friends and no enemies and it can be truthfully said of him that he wronged no man, but was ever ready to assist those who needed his help and sympathy. He leaves a wife and four sons, besides other relatives and many friends to mourn his death.

The funeral services were held Sunday morning, under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge and were largely attended.

B. M. C. MEETING.

The pretty new suburban home of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Lowrie was opened to the Bachelor Maids club on Friday evening of last week, Miss Edna as hostess.

The guests were asked to write their wills and to will something to everyone present. This caused much merriment for the time.

Cards were passed with questions on them to be answered in what was found on a penny. Several cut for the prize, but Miss Mamie Kelley, being the fortunate one, received a beautiful ivory fan.

Miss Mary Alice Lowrie entertained with several piano selections. A delicious ice course was served.

Those who were guests of the club were Miss Grady of Coleman and Misses Rosa Keese and Ethel Stephens.

The next regular meeting will be with Miss Clyde Lowrie.

UNFAIR TO THE DRUGGIST.

The Old Joke About "Something Just as Good" Doesn't Apply to This Drug Store.

You have probably heard dozens of times the old story that a drug store was a place to get "something just as good." There is at least one druggist in the world that you can't say this about.

It is certain that an inferior article will never be substituted for a guaranteed one by Clements' Drug Store. Take for instance a safe reliable remedy for constipation and liver trouble like Dodson's Liver Tone. This harmless vegetable remedy has proved so satisfactory a liver stimulant and reliever of biliousness and to entirely take the place of calomel without any danger of restriction of habits or diet, that there are dozens of preparations springing up with imitations of its claims.

But Dodson's Liver Tone is guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it, and if you are not satisfied with it, R. E. Clements will hand your money back with a smile. Any person going to this store for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone can be sure of getting a large bottle of this genuine remedy in exchange for his half dollar. (Adv)

COTTON CORPORATION.

Plano, Texas, May 29. Southern States Cotton Corporation, Dallas, Texas.

Gentlemen: Herewith selling contracts for 272 bales of cotton, which represents one-half day's work yesterday in a farm to farm canvass.

This was the first day that I have energetically worked at this business, and I can assure you of being able to report not less than 1,000 bales by Saturday night next. I only found one farmer who would not show a disposition to contract his cotton to the corporation—in fact all the farmers that I interviewed seemed very anxious to co-operate with the plan of the Southern States Cotton Corporation, which is sure to better their condition. Yours very truly,

A. E. HOLMES.

The above is being given only as an example of what is being done in almost every other cotton-growing county in the South. While reports like the above are gratifying to the greatest degree, let not the good work cease until we are assured of "putting over" the greatest movement ever inaugurated for the South. "A few million bales will do the work." J. W. HILL
