Nevertheless, you need a few things all along. It doesn't matter how little your wants may be, we want to sell you that. We appreciate the privilege of selling you, matters not how small the sale. We are glad to see you in our store, even if you don't buy a thing. We want you to come, we want you to come, we want you to make our store your store; meet your friends here; ask to see our goods; you are under no obligations to buy. Your association and acquaintance we very much desire, You know that's one of the drawbacks to our country today—too much selfishness. We should mix and mingle with each other. Ask your friends and acquaintances to meet you here. Remember, it's only a short time until the Mills county Fair will be on. We want to see you all here. THE HOUSE THAT SATISFIES

Texas

FARM FACTS.

(By Peter Hadford, president of Farmers' Union.)
"Tis a wise farmer that knows his own soil.
Mortgages are far too popular as cover crops.
Because a bad habit exists is no sign it is right.
Farmers succeed only through ability, energy, co-operation and useful effort.
The know-it-all in agriculture is like fruit—the soonest ripe the soonest spoiled.
Reduced to its lowest terms, good farming is like good reading, good thinking and good work.
The biggest obstacle in the way of the Texas farmer is our present system of rural credit.
The problem to deal with is not the high cost of living, but the high cost of marketing.
The farmer's problem is everyone's problem. What affects the farmer also affects the consuming public.
Give the farmer a square deal and a chance to prosper and our rural problems will solve themselves.
The average market basket has 54 cents worth of leak in it. The producer gets only 46 cents of the consumer's dollar.
The rise and fall of prices is dependent upon market conditions. A prosperous agriculture depends on a good market.
The drudgery of old-line farming has embittered many a farmer with his calling and induced him to give up the fight and move to town.
There is no nobler task in civilization than building a home.
Farm peasantry is the most alarming spectre that confronts the public of Texas today.
Two-thirds of our farmers are tenants and fifty-one per cent of them move every year.
Mr. and Mrs. Britt left Monday for their home in Leon county, after a visit to J. R. Parker and family.
John C. Hicks had business in Brownwood one day this week.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Interesting and Well Attended Meeting—Arrangements for Fair.
The meeting of the Commercial club was largely attended Monday night, which was evidence of the interest the business men and citizens generally are feeling in the forthcoming fair and reunion.
The committee in charge of the sale of privileges for the fair and reunion grounds reported some sales of privileges having been made.
E. M. Boon was unanimously chosen to have charge of the vocal music during the three days entertainment and the entertainment committee announced arrangements in progress for securing a band for the occasion.
Messrs. H. G. Bodkin, E. M. Boon and J. B. Whiteman were appointed to solicit subscriptions for a fund to pay the night watchman's salary for the next twelve months and they were instructed to call a mass meeting of the subscribers to the fund to select a watchman, as soon as a sufficient amount had been secured to guarantee a salary of $50 per month.
Mr. Randolph suggested that the entertainment committee arrange with the owners of automobiles to take the old soldiers and their wives for a ride over the city and the surrounding country at some convenient time during the reunion and the suggestion met with hearty approval by all.
The committee to secure the premiums for exhibits for the fair reported having secured a very attractive list with prospects of several additions.
Business men and others who are interested in the advancement of the interests of the town and country are invited to attend the meetings of the club.

J. W. Henry and family of Bell county, have been here visiting their relatives, Messrs. S. O. Koen and M. G. Cline and families.
Mrs. Jennie Estep orders the Eagle sent to her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Ross, at Mangrum, Okla.

TELEPHONE CASE DECIDED.

The case known as the Brown Telephone case, which was appealed from the district court of Brown county, was affirmed by the supreme court of Texas yesterday. This case involved the right of a telephone company to build lines on the streets of a city of less than ten thousand inhabitants, without the consent of the city government. The Brown Telegraph Company, a Goldthwaite concern, had a survey of a route and submitted it to the city council of Brownwood and asked the council to approve the plan, or in event any portion of the proposed route was not satisfactory, to suggest such changes as might be desired. The council refused to approve the route, or to suggest any changes. The telephone company then applied to the district court of Brown county for an injunction to restrain the city officers from prosecuting its employes for setting its poles on the streets, which was granted by Judge Goodwin, and the company then proceeded to build its line into the city. The city of Brownwood and its officers then proceeded to appeal the case to the Court of Civil Appeals, where Judge Goodwin's action in granting the injunction was affirmed. The city then carried the case to the Supreme Court of Texas, where it was also affirmed.—Brownwood Bulletin.

MEETING TO BEGIN.

The Rock Springs and Miller Grove communities will join in holding a camp meeting on the creek in John W. Roberts' pasture, between the two communities, beginning Friday night before the 3rd Sunday in July, under the auspices of Rock Springs Baptist church. The county missionary, Rev. L. A. Bagley, and Rev. R. W. Bynum will do the preaching.

M. J. Thorpe attended the Elks banquet at Brownwood Tuesday night.

C. E. Strickland and Jesse Oquin were among those who had business in Brownwood Wednesday.

Floyd Pardue and family have returned from a visit to relatives in Dallas.

J. H. Allen, jr., and family have spent a part of this week on the San Saba river, fishing.

F. Nieman was one of the good men of Priddy community who looked after business in this city Monday.

Scott Thompson and his wife and baby were here from Big Valley Saturday and Sunday visiting his mother and sister.

BURGLARY AT MULLIN.

Last Friday night the depot at Mullin was burglarized and a keg of beer taken. The burglar pried open one of the windows and entered the building, but there was nothing taken except the beer. One strange thing is that only one keg was taken, when there were three or four kegs in the building. The officers made a thorough investigation, but were unable to locate the guilty party or parties and it is likely no clew will be discovered now.

THE VALUE OF CHARACTER.

Too much weight can not be given to the statement of the late Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, the great financier and New York banker, in his testimony before the "money trust" investigating committee of congress in which he explained that character was everything and without it men could not expect to accomplish much. Coming from a man of Mr. Morgan's standing and long and successful experience in the business affairs of the world—a man who controlled more finances than many of the nations possess—it must be understood to be authentic and is well worth the careful thought of all men, especially the younger ones. It was sought to show by Mr. Morgan that men were measured by the amount of their possessions, but he would not have it so. But among other things he said:

"I know lots of business men who can borrow any amount, whose credit is unquestioned. It is not because they have money back of them, but because the people believe in them. This is often without any financial backing at all. Such a man might not have anything at all, and yet his credit would be good. I have known a man to come into my office and I have given him a check for a million dollars, when I knew he had not a cent in the world. There are many such men. Commercial credits are based upon money, or property or character. The first essential is character; this is before money or anything else, and money cannot buy it. It is often the case that a man of unquestioned character can get all the money he wants, and a man with property cannot get any credit at all. It is the rule of business. Business men investigate a man's financial worth, but the first thing is to know his record. A man may get credit on the faith of bonds or other securities, but not without character also. A man whom I do not trust cannot get money from me on all the bonds in Christendom. That, I think, is the fundamental rule in business all over the world."

MEETING IN PROGRESS.

The revival in progress here at the Presbyterian church attracts good congregations and the services are always interesting. The preaching is done by Rev. Green, while Rev. Dooley and the ministers of other denominations give assistance and the Christian people of all denominations are taking part in the meeting. A large tabernacle has been placed immediately in front of the church and it is well lighted and seated. The preaching service is always interesting and the song service is also attractive.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Impressive Ceremony Followed by a Banquet—Lodge Prospering.

The members of the Masonic fraternity met in their lodge room at 8:30 Thursday evening and installed officers for the new Masonic year, as follows: Worshipful master, Harry Allen; senior warden, Thos. T. Nichols; junior warden, Duke Clements; treasurer, James Rahl; secretary, Lewis Hudson; senior deacon, N. M. Brinson; junior deacon, Carter Mohler; chaplain, J. D. Calaway; tiler, G. H. Denison.

Pastmaster W. C. Dew presided and L. B. Walters acted as marshal. After the ceremonies were concluded the brethren assembled in the banquet room and partook of a bountiful supper which had been prepared by Mr. Joe Taff at request of the stewards.

Toasts were then proposed and responses made by P. H. Clements, James Rahl, L. B. Walters and Rev. W. A. Hammett.

Matters of importance to the order were discussed by other brethren present, who on the occasion seemed to be in a happy frame of mind and felicitated each other freely on the fact that the lodge now owns a commodious and comfortable home and is free of debt.

This order has made substantial growth during the past year and now has nearly one hundred members.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

The residence of Mr. W. L. Livingston in the Caradan community was destroyed last Saturday afternoon and its contents was a total loss together with the smokehouse, which contained meat and other food supplies. It is not known how the fire originated, for it was not discovered until the roof was falling in. Mr. and Mrs. Livingston were in Goldthwaite at the time and their sons had gone to a base ball game, leaving no one about the place. There had been no fire in the house since early morning, when breakfast had been prepared and the only theory the Eagle has heard is that a coal dropped from the cook stove and smoldered slowly for several hours before making a blaze.

Friends of the family circulated a subscription list in the home community and in this city and received liberal contributions for them.

GROOM IS HONORED.

Something new and novel was introduced into Lometa society Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stephens, in compliment to Mr. Ben Hester, groom-elect, successfully entertained the gentlemen friends of the groom between the hours of 8:30 and 11 o'clock at their home.

The guests were received by Mesdames Wilson and Stallings. After they were presented to the groom-to-be, they were led to the punch bowl, presided over by Miss Lola Mitcham.

The hostess, assisted by Mesdames McCarron, Stallings, Wilson, Mitcham, Osburn, Woods, Mason, and Misses Lucy and Lola Mitcham and Sallie Hester, presented each gentleman with a cup towel, needle and thread, with the demand that they hem the two rough ends of the towel.

This proved quite amusing to the ladies present, but quite tedious to the men who were not accustomed to sewing. The sewing was judged as to neatness and Uncle John Stephens received the prize; J. A. Woods, D. W. Nicholl, C. L. Smith and Ollie Davis as close seconds. J. T. McCarron received the consolation.

Making a noise like unto an auto delivery car, J. A. Woods and D. W. Nicholl entered the double room with a bag and small wagon full of gifts which were eagerly inspected by the groom and which proved to be valuable gifts for housekeeping. Across the hall in another room was displayed handsome dining room and kitchen pieces, consisting of a dining table, six chairs, kitchen cabinet and art square, which were presented by several of the business men of the town.

During the evening Miss Parke rendered several beautiful solo selections with Miss Lola Mitcham at the piano.

Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, coffee and cake were served, after which the tables were arranged for "42" and it was with reluctance that the guests finally thanked the hostess for a most pleasant evening spent.—Lometa Reporter.

MOST CHILDREN HAVE WORMS

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system, and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail, Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis (Adv) Sold by R. E. Clements.

CONTRACT CHANGED.

The county commissioners were in special session Monday and granted permission to the Gordon-Jones Construction Co. to place pressed stone pillars at the entrance of the new court house instead of cut stone. The company desired the change because of the difficulty in securing sufficient stone large enough from which to cut the pillars. The architect was consulted and he agreed to the change, stating that he believed the pressed stone to be stronger and also preferable because it will not chip or flake. The contractors agreed that they would pay to the county the difference between the cost of the pressed stone and the cut stone, should there be a difference, but it develops that the pressed stone costs them more. However, the increase in the cost will be borne by the contractors. This arrangement will likely expedite the building, as several weeks would have been required to cut the stone.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

DANGEROUS CALOMEL GOING OUT OF USE..

A Safer and More Reliable Remedy Has Taken its Place in the Drug Store and in the Home.

A few years ago, men, women and children took calomel for a sluggish liver and for constipation. They took risks when they did so, for calomel is a dangerous drug. Your family doctor will be the first to tell you this if he discovers you dosing yourself with calomel.

But the drug trade has found a safer, more pleasant remedy than calomel in Dodson's Liver Tone.

Clements' Drug Store tell us that their drug store sells Dodson's Liver Tone in practically every case of biliousness and liver trouble where calomel used to be taken.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liver tonic that is absolutely harmless for children and grown people. It sells for 50c. a bottle and is guaranteed to be entirely satisfactory by R. E. Clements, who will refund your money with a smile if it does not give quick, gentle relief without any of calomel's unpleasant after-effects. (Advertisement.)

The Bachelor Maids Club met with Miss Clyde Lowrie on Friday, June 20, 1913. Several guests were invited to share in the evening's pleasure.

A short business session was held, at which it was decided to postpone the election of a vice president to take the place of Miss Lawrence Thompson, who now takes the office of president.

After the business session was adjourned, Miss Lowrie passed dainty score cards and the games of Rook, Bunco and "42" were enjoyed for a part of the evening.

Mrs. Lowrie assisted Miss Clyde in giving scores, and when the high score was called for Miss Kate Fairman was fortunate in the cut for the prize and received a lovely box of bon bons.

The girls were then invited into the dining room, where they were served delicious pineapple ice cream and devil's cake. The dining table was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

After a most delightful evening the club adjourned, to meet next with Miss Hortense Power. XX.

DEATH'S VISIT.

Mrs. Rachael Curtis, mother of Mr. Joe A. Curtis, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Duncan, at Payne Tuesday night and was buried at Payne Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Curtis had been an invalid for a long time and her death was not a surprise to her family and her friends who knew of her long illness. She was 84 years of age and had been a resident of this county for many years, she and her husband having located here in the early seventies. She was held in high esteem by all who knew her and her death caused universal sorrow among her friends.

The Eagle joins the other friends of the family in extending sincere sympathy.

It is reported from Detroit that the Ford Motor Co. has declared a dividend of $10,000,000 to its stockholders. Of this amount the president of the company which bears his name received nearly six million dollars.

A young man on trial in the police court in Washington, D. C., attempted to "shoot up" the place when he was denied release on probation after a conviction of highway robbery. Three shots were fired by the prisoner before he was overpowered by one of the witnesses and disarmed.

In the controversy between Governor Sulzer and other political leaders in New York the public is likely to learn of some of the "understandings" and private transactions of men higher up. The governor claims there are men of political power endeavoring to ruin him for refusing to do their bidding.

A grand jury at White Plains, N. Y., has presented a report condemning the famous old Sing Sing prison and recommending that it be abolished and a new prison built. This building was erected in 1825 and as many as 2000 prisoners have been confined therein at one time. The report gives in detail the unsanitary condition of the place, which is indeed bad.

The fight that is being made on the constitutional amendment known as joint resolution No. 18, which is to be voted on July 19, practically assures the defeat of the amendment. People are slow to adopt amendments to the constitution anyway and the apparent danger in allowing too much power to the legislature by this one makes its defeat almost sure.

A complaint was lodged with the war department at Washington a few days ago charging that the United States soldiers were as lawless as the Mexicans along the border, but the complaint was probably made by some one who had prejudice on one side or the other and expected the soldiers to take their views and support their side. The soldiers and their commanders are likely to be all right.

The executive committee of the Farmers Congress has made the short course at A. & M. College a part of the educational work of the Congress. The course will be given at the college the week preceding the congress and all farmers who can avail themselves of it are urged to do so. A letter to Prof. E. J. Kyle at College Station will bring all desired information as to the expenses and other matters.

Investigation into the action of the attorney general of the United States in ordering the postponement of cases in federal court in California was opened this week when the papers in the cases were called for by congressional resolution. The United States district attorney was preparing to put two prominent men to trial in California on a charge of white slave traffic when an order was made from Washington postponing the cases. The attorney claimed the postponement was detrimental to the government's case and promptly resigned.

The United States government has never yet taken a decisive stand in the Mexico trouble and probably will never do so. The fact is, we have very little concern about the greasers and their troubles as long as they fight among themselves and respect the rights of Americans. At the outset they were rather careless about their shooting along the line, but the presence of some of Uncle Sam's boys along the borders has caused them to give more attention to the course of their bullets and the Americans who are in Mexico have had ample time to get out if they desired to do so, consequently this government has about all it can do to attend to its own affairs.

TEXAS FARM LIFE COMMISSION.

An Investigation Made Into the Condition in Italy..

Naples, June 19, 1913—In my first article I showed how the farmers of Italy enjoyed better markets for their wheat, corn, potatoes and other products of their farms, than we of Texas, and I described a small Raiffeissen Credit Association, commonly called a rural bank.

The lands of Italy average better than ours, due to methodic and continuous upbuilding of the soils. This practice is universal throughout the country. Ninety per cent of the lands are cultivated. Hill and mountain sides and narrow valleys are cultivated the same as the broad level black lands and are made to yield as bountifully. As lands are valuable, it is cheaper to build and rebuild soils than to purchase other lands, but our people do not realize it yet. When our people shall have learned how to farm, at the same time build up their farms, Texas lands will excel those of Italy by greater odds than do the lands of Italy now excel our Texas lands. But Texas lands will not be properly farmed under present conditions. Two things stand in the way, namely, our system of tenantry and the credit system of our farmers. No man, whether Italian or Texan, is going to conserve, build and rebuild soil to which he has the right of occupancy from only year to year. It requires means to farm properly and profitably. There must be well thought out plans in order to farm successfully, but what is the use to make the plans when there is not the means available with which to execute them?

The Italian people have solved these problems and there may be a good lesson in the methods pursued here.

But first let me say that the Italy of today is not the Italy of 20 years ago. The farmers of Italy produce almost six hundred per cent more today than they did twenty years ago. You ask what wrought this change? Several things, but the one that lies at the base and is the most potent of all was and is Co-operative credit. The Raiffeissen and the Schulze-Delitsch system of credits had their origin in Germany about fifty years ago. After they had gained popularity among the people of Germany, they were adopted by the farmers of northern Italy in 1883. In time these institutions spread and became established throughout the northern portion of Italy—which is close to Germany—and proved of such excellent benefit to that section, regenerating and accelerating farming operations and quickening all lines of business, that efforts were made to introduce them in southern Italy by the government. For this purpose, the State began in 1907 to enact a series of laws to assist in establishing these credit associations and rural banks in the islands and South Italy. It first authorized the saving banks of the Bank of Naples to engage in the rural credit business in the southern provinces of Italy and in Sardinia, and in 1906 an Act was passed creating a special rural credit section of the bank of Sicily. These banks are very large and powerful financial institutions. They send out men to organize local rural credit banks, assist in organizing and starting the bank right, and then examine them from time to time and lend them money on their paper at four per cent—which the local rural banks are required to lend at six per cent. The difference of two per cent builds up a surplus in the local banks sufficient to more than protect against losses, after paying all operating expenses.

The officials of these big banks informed us that the loans for agricultural purposes at four per cent, a rate fixed by law, in no way affected the rate of interest on loans for commercial and other purposes, which are controlled by the money market as formerly. This, they said, was due to the fact that their rural banking department made loans only to farmers, and to them only for agricultural purposes. So we see that these rural banks are strictly business institutions and are not for charity. If a farmer wishes to purchase seed, fertilizers, farm machinery or cattle, he may have a loan, but not so because he may have had bad luck and needs money to buy food, clothing, medicines, etc. Again, loans will only be made within certain prescribed limits as to time and amount. The farmer may borrow $200 on one year's time for cultivation, harvesting and the purchasing of seed, manures and fungicides; and $600 on three year's time for the acquisition of farm machinery.

This completes the three types of rural banks of Italy, one the rural bank which is usually of the Raiffeissen type, the other the people's bank of both the cities and rural districts, known as the Schulze-Delitsch type, and the state bank which loans money to these small banks on the paper of their members.

Perhaps I should explain that the Raiffeissen bank is merely a number of farmers who associate themselves together as a credit society without material capital, and borrow as a society from its respective members, while the Schulze-Delitsch bank is a share bank with limited liability and has capital. Usually the shares are small in amount, about $3.00. Both these banks receive savings and other deposits of members and non-members, to whom they pay about 4 per cent. After a short time these deposits are usually sufficient to supply all the funds required by the bank for lending to its members.

Besides these banks are the land credit banks of Italy, which I shall describe at another time, and perhaps I shall not devote an article to them as all institutions are conducted on much the same principles and quite simple in plans and operations.
S. A. LINDSEY, Chairman.

The Goldthwaite Eagle

Saturday, June 28, 1913.

After July 1 booze can not be shipped from one part of Texas to another and those who desire such shipment must order from outside the state.

An Interurban car struck and demolished a physician's automobile in the suburbs of Fort Worth Saturday morning. The physician and his daughter and a patient were dangerously injured.

The good roads school in connection with the good roads convention at Corpus Christi will attract many of those interested in road building. Technical addresses and instruction in road building will be a part of the work of the school.

According to an Associated Press announcement, Archdeacon Stuck of Fairbanks, Alaska, formerly of Dallas, Texas, reached the summit of Mount McKinley on June 7. Mr. Stuck is Episcopal missionary in Alaska. He planted a cross and an American flag on the highest point of the highest pinnacle accessible.

The state of Colorado has the distinction of having the only woman state senator in existence. Her name is Mrs. Helen Ring Robinson and she is touring the eastern states at the solicitation of her suffragette friends of the other states, who want the public to see a real live female lawmaker.

Governor Colquitt is quoted as saying that the battle of the Alamo was made in the court yard and not in the chapel, as has long been believed and taught. It is said he will deliver some lectures in the state to properly inform the people on the subject of the "last stand of the Alamo defenders."

The police department at Dallas has issued a decree that automobiles and motorcycles must use mufflers in the city hereafter. The large number of these machines in the city makes the noise very annoying and unnecessary. Goldthwaite city council recently declared in favor of such an ordinance for this city.

It is evident that "Uncle Joe" Cannon, former speaker of the lower house of congress, does not believe the suffragettes will weigh political questions carefully. He is quoted as saying that since Indiana is to have woman's suffrage it is a mighty good time for handsome men to run for office.

The supreme court of the United States has upheld the act known as the newspaper publicity law and publishers who desire to avail themselves of the privilege of the second class mail rate will hereafter comply with its provisions. Under this law the publisher of a paper must make affidavit twice a year to the ownership and management of his paper and show what influence governs his editorial policy by giving the names of the holders of mortgages or other indebtedness due by the paper. The Eagle believes this law is good in the main, while in some cases it may cause some embarrassment, but the people have a right to know the ownership of a paper and the influences that govern it, in order that they may properly judge its editorial policy. One of the provisions of the law requires daily papers to give their exact circulation and the Eagle believes the provisions should also apply to the weekly papers.

The resignation of the United States district attorney in California because the attorney general ordered a postponement of certain cases at least accomplished the end desired by the district attorney, for the president and attorney general were compelled to order prompt prosecution of the cases. They have employed outside counsel in the case and the former district attorney certainly should have been one of the attorneys employed in the prosecution. He put the legal department of the administration in a hole good and proper and while he should not have attributed or intimated wrong motives to the attorney general, his provocation was great enough to justify him in being ill tempered. He lost a good office, but he forced the cases to trial and another feature about it is Attorney General McReynolds is much wiser now than he used to be.

NEW LAWS.

There are about 150 new laws to go into effect in Texas on July 1. Of course, many of them are of minor importance to the great mass of the people, but some of the changes and new laws are of interest to all the people.

The saloon regulations require saloons to close at 9:30 each night and remain closed until 6 o'clock the following morning. Intra-state shipment of liquor into dry territory is punishable by a penitentiary term as is also the selling of liquor outside the saloon limits in cities. A fine of from $1 to $100 is imposed for being drunk in a public place.

Cities of 1000 or more can hold an election to determine whether or not they shall have a commission form of government, the election to be ordered upon a petition of 10 per cent of the voters.

No common school districts shall be organized in counties of less than 10,000 with line more than four miles from the center of the county.

The state is to erect girl's training schools for delinquent girls.

The new pension law allowing an increase in Confederate pensions becomes effective.

Train dispatchers must furnish information to station agents regarding belated trains and the agent must place the information upon the bulletin board, upon penalty of from $50 to $100.

Murder is defined and "degrees" of murder are eliminated.

Hazing by college students is prohibited, under penalty of from $25 to $200.

Libraries for farmers must be provided at county seats out of the county funds, upon a vote of a majority of the qualified voters.

All counties must provide hospital accommodations for the sick and diseased who are indigent.

The scholastic age limit is extended to 21 years.

A fine of from $5 to $100 is imposed for leaving the carcass of any dead animal in any public road or street or within 500 yards of any residence.

Assault with a prohibited weapon is punishable by a fine of $2000; by jail sentence from one to two years or penitentiary sentence up to five years.

Organization of rural credit associations provided for, stipulating that the loans must be for productive purposes and not to be over $200.

Divorces can not be granted until the party applying has lived in the state twelve months and the county six months and where cruelty is the ground for divorce, the parties can not marry, except each other, for twelve months.

It is unlawful to issue checks, drafts or orders without funds to protect them.

Wife desertion is punishable by a fine of from $25 to $500 and confinement in the county jail up to one year.

A fine of $50 to $100 to use imitation of Texas flag for advertising purposes and $25 to $50 fine to offer for sale any article bearing an imitation of a Texas flag.

Fine of $5 to $200 for throwing glass, nails or other articles in a public road.

Pool halls may be abolished from communities or county by election.

Commissioners courts can create road district on which a levy of 15 cents on $100 valuation can be made upon a petition of 200.

Many other measures of lesser importance become effective, such as allowing the formation of fraternal insurance organizations, protection of fish and oysters, governing insurance companies, etc.

A delegation of Mexicans went to Paris some weeks ago to confer with ex-President Porfirio Diaz relative to Mexico. He stated he would like to return to his native land, but not to participate in the affairs of government. A relative has sailed from Paris to Mexico to investigate conditions and ascertain the advisability of Diaz returning to that country.

Bert Resley and his brother-in-law, Albert Downey, of Big Valley, made the Eagle a pleasant call yesterday. Mr. Resley has been with the Peters Paper Co. of Denver, Col., for several years and has moved to Mills county for the benefit of his wife's health.

Prof. Harrington, former president of the A. & M. College, is quoted as saying: "It is true that the cotton crop is our money crop, and will probably remain so for a long time. It does not follow, however, that this condition should not be changed early as practicable. From a very reliable source we learn that Texas is importing about $50,000,000 worth annually of pork and lard products to supplement the consumption in this state. She imports also a very large amount of dairy products. Can it be reasonably denied that we should increase our hogs and cattle on our farms and diminish our acreage in cotton, but secure a better acreage yield? We ought to raise as much cotton on a less acreage than we are now using and diversify our farming by raising stock, especially hogs, beef and dairy cattle, which would enable us with better cultural methods, to reach the goal of less acreage, but better total yield and more money. There can be no question but that the problem of marketing our crop, whether cotton, truck, grain or live stock, is a most serious one and perhaps the greatest handicap the farmer has to encounter; but while laboring to improve our condition in this respect, it is not necessary that we should cripple our productive capacity, properly directed along the various avenues open to the farmers of Texas."

To keep our tongues from evil and our lips from speaking guile as the good old verse puts it, is one of the most important things in life. It may seem a little thing to hush a sharp word, the unkind remark, the hasty repetition of something that is not to the credit of another. Yet this is important; and that not only to the one spoken of, but is directly important to the one that is careful to keep clear of these things. A reputation for gossip is easily won and is never anything to one's credit. It may seem pleasant at the moment to be the bearer of news, but it is far pleasanter in later memory to hold the knowledge of a tongue unsullied by evil and lips sealed against guile. There are so many things to tell about one another it is a pity to let any of these things go unnoticed while we recount the small fault which might die out of lack of attention if we let it severely alone. It is not our place to judge and set right all the weak spots in others. We ought to be thankful that this is so—instead of trying to take upon ourselves the judging from which we are mercifully freed.—Exchange.

The trouble with some men is that they can never learn the value of cooperation and team working in town building. Men of this character have never learned to give and take. A proposition proposed by some men of the town does not exactly meet their approval in all its phases they refuse to help carry it through and begin to pull back. The result is that the efforts at town building are hampered to the amount of their influence. On the other hand the men that have learned the value of team work get in the game and work regardless of their small objections and work with the end that the results are obtained. This is the necessary spirit of town building. Men must stand shoulder to shoulder and to a certain extent give up ideas of details allowing the majority to control in such cases. We all need to learn this lesson more and more.—Palestine Herald.

The children's bureau of the federal department of labor has prepared a compilation of the steps which various cities are taking to protect child life and prevent the increasing mortality rate among children and will circulate it in a national campaign. The department warns the nation that the death rate among babies is due largely to preventable diseases.

Beginning July 1 the parcels post will operate a C. O. D. department. This will prove a great convenience to the public and will deprive the express companies of a large amount of revenues.

A Tennessee preacher is quoted as saying that there will be automobiles in heaven. If his guess is good, we hope they will be of the anti-puncture variety and all carry self starters.

A VISION OF THE FUTURE.

Robert G. Ingersoll is credited with the following vision of the future:

I see our country filled with happy homes, with firesides of content—the foremost land of all the earth. I see a throne where thrones have crumbled and where kings are dust. The aristocracy of idleness has perished from the earth. I see a world without a slave. Man at last is free. Nature's forces have by science been enslaved. Lightning and light, wind and wave, frost and flame, and all the secret, subtle powers of earth and air are the tireless toilers for the human race. I see a world of peace adorned with every form of art, with music's myriad voices thrilled, while lips are rich with words of love and truth—a world in which no exile sighs, no prisoner mourns; a world on which the gibbet's shadow does not fall; a world where labor reaps its full reward; where work and worth go hand in hand; where the poor girl trying to win bread with the needle—the needle that has been called "the asp for the breast of the poor"—is not driven to the desperate choice of crime or death, of suicide or shame. I see a world without the beggar's outstretched palm, the miser's heartless, stony stare; the piteous wall of want, the livid lips of fear, the cruel eyes of scorn. I see a race without disease of flesh or brain—shapely and fair, the married harmony of form and function—and, as I look, life lengthens, joy deepens, love canopies the earth; and all over, in the great dome shines the eternal hope.

SWAYNE-PAGE NUPTIALS.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the Rock Hotel Tuesday evening at 8:15 o'clock, when Miss Nina Belle Page became the wife of Mr. William Monte Swayne of Temple.

The parlor was tastily decorated in the colors of white and green, and in a nook in the corner of the room an arch draped and entwined in green and white suspended by a huge white bell.

Preceding the wedding party, Mrs. Floyd F. Kirby of Lometa, attired in her own wedding gown, very softly and sweetly gave the reading "Deathless," while "Melody of Love" was being rendered on the piano by Miss Pauline Harris of Temple, which was continued throughout the entire ceremony. Miss Olga Harris of Temple beautifully sang "I Love Thee Truly," after which the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March was heard. First came Mr. Otis Page, brother of the bride, and Miss Carrie Swayne of Temple, sister of the groom, as best man and bridesmaid, followed by little Miss Doris Page, as ring bearer. Last came the bride and groom and were met beneath the arch by Rev. Pierce, who in a solemn and impressive manner made them man and wife, using the ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in white messaline, draped in real lace, with ornaments for her hair, and carried a white prayer book, showered with sweet peas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Swayne, wore Duchess lace over shell pink messaline and carried daisies showered with sweet peas.

After congratulations the bride donned her handsome going away gown and they left on the 8:59 train for Houston and Galveston to be away about ten days, after which they will be at home in Brownwood.

They were the recipients of many handsome gifts of cut glass, silver, China and hand-made novelties.

The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mrs. W. F. Page and an accomplished young woman, possessing those lovable traits of character which have indeed made her popular.

The groom is an engineer on the Santa Fe railroad, is a man of sterling qualities and has many friends who wish for him and his bride unlimited happiness.

The out of town guests were: E. J. Swayne, Misses Olga and Pauline Harris of Temple, Mrs. C. M. Russell of Lampasas, Dick and Otis Page, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. Kirby, Fred T. Thompson and Misses Iona Speer and Vera Herring of Lometa.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and salivated. Then when you have a fullness in the stomach and feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by R. E. Clements. (Adv)

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Several of our citizens were transacting business in the county seat Monday.

We had a fine rain last week, which came just in time to save the corn crop.

Considerable cotton and maize is being planted on stubble land.

Rabbits are doing considerable damage to our crops. It would be a good idea for each community to make up a purse and hire a sharpshooter to hunt and kill the rabbits. By so doing we would soon exterminate them.

In another two weeks field work will be practically over, then your "Uncle John" will be off for that fishing trip. Roasting ears and watermelons will soon be ripe. Better come to the country, Bro. Bob.

FAIR CIRCULARS.

The advertising committee for the Confederate Reunion and County Fair has issued circulars this week announcing the coming events and inviting the attendance and co-operation of the people. A copy of the circular appears in this issue and others have been circulated by mail and otherwise. Many of the most progressive and liberal business men are represented on this circular, which makes a fine showing for the enterprise as well as the united purpose of the citizens of this progressive town. Look over the circular carefully, read the advertisements and see what inducements are being offered and the cordial invitations that are being extended and then make up your mind that you will be in attendance upon the fair and reunion without fail.

Mrs. Bruce Jones of Birmingham, Ala. suffered from an ugly ulcer for nine months and Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured her in two weeks. Will help you. Only 25c. Recommended by R. E. Clements. (Adv.)

THE FARMERS' PROGRESS

Watch for the Farm Exhibits at the Mills County Fair.

The farmers have made wonderful progress the last few years. A great many in Mills county now have their mail delivered to their doors every day; have telephones in their homes; have the best implements and vehicles; set their tables with the best that the market affords. Many of them do all their business through the bank, and this last point is the certain indication of a wide-awake man. The bank deposit book forms a record of their cash receipts and the stubs of the check book are a perfect record of all payments. Our bank also keeps a record of all these transactions. Let "our bank" be "your bank" and we will do you good.

SCHOLASTIC CENSUS.

A Slight Loss to the Common School Districts—New Independent District.

The scholastic census of the county as reported to Judge S. H. Allen, ex-officio superintendent, shows a slight decrease from last year. The total in the common school districts for the coming school year will be 1893, if no mistakes have been made in the reports to Judge Allen, while Goldthwaite has 350, Mullin 190 and Star 101. Star is now an independent district having recently organized such district and issued bonds for a school building.

SWAYNE-PAGE.

Mr. W. M. Swayne of Temple and Miss Nina Page of this city were married Tuesday night at the bride's home in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. Rev. R. S. Pierce pastor of the Methodist church, was the officiating minister on the happy occasion.

Mr. Swayne is an engineer on the Santa Fe and is held in high esteem by his associates and acquaintances. The bride is one of Goldthwaite's most admired ladies. She has made her home here for some time and has a large circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Swayne left on the evening train for a wedding trip to Galveston and elsewhere, after which they will be at home at Brownwood.

A more extended account of the wedding appears elsewhere in this paper.

FOUR RULES OF LIFE

First. If possible, be well and have a good appetite. If these conditions are yours, the battle is already half won. Many soul and heart troubles arise really in the stomach, though it may seem strange to you.

Second. Be busy. Fill the hours so full of useful and interesting work that there shall be no time for dwelling on your troubles, that the day shall dawn full of expectation, the night fall full of repose.

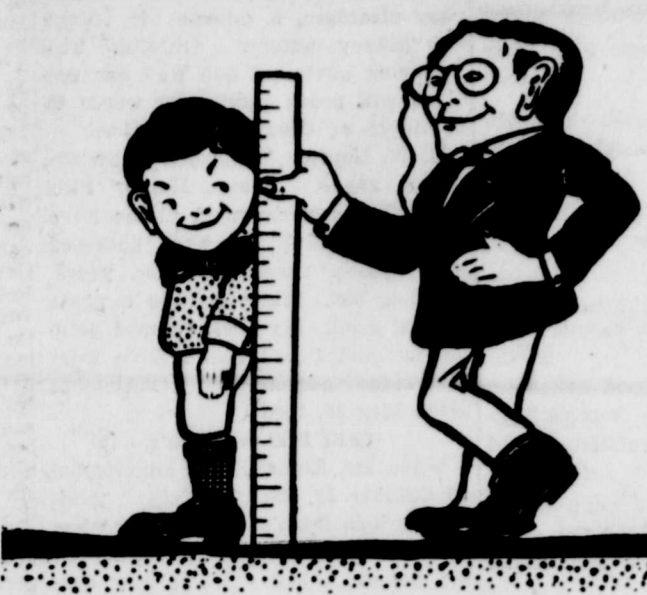

Third. Forget yourself. You never will be happy if your thoughts constantly dwell upon yourself, your own imperfections, your so-called sorrows, what people think of you and so on.

Fourth. Trust in God. Believe that God is, that He really knows what is best for you; believe this truly, and the bitterness is gone from life.—Australian Farm Journal.

Jake Saylor has moved the residence from west of the Saylor hotel to a lot west of Walter Bayley's home, near the college.

ANOTHER BRANCH STORE.

Messrs. L. H. and W. T. Little went to Lometa Thursday and made final arrangements to open a dry goods store there on Sept. 1. They secured a five years lease on a nice building in a good location and will soon begin placing fixtures therein. W. T. Little will be in charge of the business, which will be owned by Little & Sons under the name of the Little Mercantile Co.

Messrs. Little & Sons are among Goldthwaite's most successful merchants. They own a large business here and one of equal proportions at Hamilton and this Lometa store will be a fine addition for them, for by owning a number of stores they can buy in much larger quantities and necessarily secure the best prices from factories and wholesalers. Lometa is to be congratulated upon securing this splendid firm and the people of that section can be sure that they will be benefitted by Little & Sons locating a store at that place.

MRS. KATHERINE ROACH DEAD.

Mrs. Katherine Roach died at her home, four miles west of Lometa, at noon Monday, June 23, at the age of about 75 years. She came from Ireland in 1881, locating at the present homesite. She is the mother of six living children as follows: Pat, Mat, Robert and Mrs. Mary Kempky of this immediate vicinity and Ambrose and John of Eldorado. She was buried at the Nickles cemetery, above Shaw Bend, Tuesday with Catholic services.—Lometa Reporter.

"I've had my Studebaker 15 years—and not a cent for repairs"

A word of just praise for a wagon that has done its work faithfully and well.

Men become attached to their Studebakers—proud of them.

Because they realize that a Studebaker is built on honor and with an experience in wagon building that dates back to 1852.

Studebaker wagons are a result of that long experience, coupled with a desire to build the best wagons, not cheap ones.

And when your dealer says 'Buy a Studebaker—there's no better wagon made' he's giving you the verdict of a million farmers. He is not asking you to try an experiment.

—that delicate richness of flavor, that refreshing originality of taste that makes the salad a success, is attained by using this oil. Clear, pure, wholesome, supremely good—made from the best olives at exactly the right stage of ripening—will firm but turning from gold to purple. Worked quickly after gathering. No oil from the pits is included—not a drop of the cheaper grade of oil from the second pressing—just the first flow of oil from the crushed (not pressed) fruit.

White Swan Olive Oil

All olive oil must be pure, but there are a dozen degrees of richness, clarity and wholesomeness. White Swan Olive Oil is pure and more—it is better than the law requires.

Your grocer will be glad to recommend it because he knows that you'll come back for more.

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Goldthwaite Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed,—to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. The following advice of one who has suffered will prove comforting words to hundreds of Goldthwaite readers.

C. W. Lindsey, farmer, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills were first recommended to me by a friend and as I had been bothered with kidney trouble for ten years, I got a box. They did me a great deal of good. My back stopped paining me and I had less trouble from the kidney secretions." (Statement given May 28, 1908.)

Still Praises Doan's. When Mr. Lindsey was interviewed on October 24, 1911, he said: "I always praise Doan's Kidney Pills when I have the opportunity in return for the benefit I had. You may continue to publish my former statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MRS. CURTIS DEAD.

News reached here Tuesday of the death of Mrs. Louisa Curtis at her home in Junction, Kimbel county, after a long illness. Mrs. Curtis was the mother of Mrs. Robertson of Big Valley and grandmother of Messrs. Robert and George Robertson. She also leaves three sons and other relatives, besides a great many friends here and elsewhere to mourn her death. Mrs. Robertson and little granddaughter, Walter Robertson, were summoned to her bedside several weeks ago and were with her when she died.

Mrs. Curtis lived in this county most of her life and was a resident of this city for several years. Her husband, Mr. Baxter Curtis, died a number of years ago, since which time she has made her home with her sons and moved to the west a few years ago on account of the failing health of one of her sons. She was an estimable lady whom to know was an honor and a privilege to be desired. Many of her friends here feel a personal loss in her death and mourn with her relatives and deeply regret that they were denied the privilege of paying a last tribute to her memory by attending her funeral. Her remains were laid to rest in the Cemetery at Junction Tuesday afternoon.

WOOL SOLD.

The Trent State Bank this week effected a sale of the wool stored here and the price realized was very satisfactory to the wool growers, although it has not been made public. The wool was sold to Mr. S. D. Rainer and it is known that there was something like 55,000 pounds, which brought about $8,500. There were two car loads of the wool and it was shipped this week by the purchaser.

Goldthwaite Commercial club is entitled to some credit and thanks by the wool growers, for the club provided a storage place in this city for the wool free of cost.
