The People Who Sell It For Less

FARM FACTS.

Farmers who are capable are always in demand. Ability is the only measure of merit in farming.

The farmer who does not know where he stands does not stand anywhere.

A silo costs but very little compared with its real value: Build more silos.

The farmer that farms with his mind as well as his hands is generally a success.

Success in farming depends largely upon proper marketing, cheap money and co-operation.

Every farmer should buy his implements from the home dealer and acquire the home industry habit.

Co-operation between the rural and urban districts means better schools, better roads and better living.

Texas farmers will spend $300,000,000 this year outside the state for corn. Plant more corn and keep Texas money in Texas.

Benjamin Franklin must have been thinking of Texas farmers when he said: "If we do not all hang together, we will assuredly hang separately."

The nation's menu must be made up from the fields, pastures, orchards and gardens, and to farm intelligently the farmer must know what is needed.

PETER RADFORD.

A number of Goldthwaite people went to Mullin Sunday afternoon to attend the unveiling of a monument at the grave of Mr. M. C. Kirkpatrick by the Woodmen of the World.

Mrs. Wade Morris and baby arrived from Jacksonville Monday for a visit to her mother, Mrs. Power, and other relatives. Miss Vashti Power, who has been visiting Mrs. Morris came home with her.

Miss Lucille Grisham spent the week end with her friend Miss Gladys Brown in Brownwood.

J. C. Witty was a visitor from Star one day this week.

J. G. Jones of Center City was a pleasant caller at this office one day this week.

Little Miss Vera Allen spent the week end with little Miss Mary Brown in Brownwood.

B. A. Howington of Washboard community was here Tuesday and made the Eagle an appreciated call.

J. R. Lee of Star was one of the Eagle's good friends who had business in the big town the first of the week.

Hugh McCullough, who is a student in Howard-Payne college at Brownwood, spent Sunday and Monday at home.

Our good friend, Mr. W. W. Witty of Star, was here Tuesday and ordered the Eagle sent to J. W. Hamilton at Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. A. J. Priddy and daughter, Miss Gertrude, left Sunday for Waco to visit relatives and attend the Cotton Palace.—Brady Standard.

The new seats for the Midway school arrived the first of the week and were carried over there to be placed in position in the building.

The oat crop was never better at this season than now and if the crop matures according to indications this county will gather the largest oat crop in its history.

J. M. Jones was a visitor from Hanna Valley Tuesday. He came near meeting with a serious accident en route to this city from his home. His wagon tongue dropped down and a tug came loose, frightening his team. No injury resulted, fortunately.

It has been suggested that another date be fixed for road working day in Mills county, because of the last road working days having been too disagreeable for work to be done to advantage. The Eagle thinks the suggestion a good one and is heartily in favor of it.

MILLS COUNTY PROSPERS.

The People Have More Than Half Million Dollars in Bank.

The Eagle's frequent claim of the great prosperity of the people of this county may not be taken as fact without the showing of figures, hence the Eagle has compiled a summary of the bank statements of this county to prove its assertion. Of course, this is not the only proof we have, but this is a mighty strong indication that the "gaunt wolf" will not likely disturb many people in this county. While the crops were short here, as compared with the yield of some former years, it is not likely the people have ever been in a better condition generally than they are now.

Following is a list of the deposits (money belonging to the people) as shown by the recently published bank statements:

Star State Bank.....	$ 32,475 56
First State Bank of Mullin	51,389 91
Goldthwaite National Bank	134,647 99
Trent State Bank.....	395,486 19

Total $523,999 65

Besides this, a good portion of the deposits in the Indian Gap and Zephyr banks belongs to Mills county people who live near those towns.

The postoffice at Bronson, Sabine county, was robbed of $120 in money and $1200 in stamps Sunday night. The safe was destroyed with nitroglycerine or some other explosive.

The prime minister of England, Mr. Asquith, announces positively that his government has no intention of interfering in the Mexican trouble or attempting to thwart the plans of this government in dealing with the situation.

Subscribers who do not receive the Eagle regularly are requested to notify this office and we will endeavor to have the matter remedied.

STAR.

Autumn is here and the crisp, cool November days put a vim and snap into one that harmonizes well with the spirit of progress and prosperity that prevails here. The new school house is a drawing card for Star and many people have moved and are moving to Star on account of it.

A "pounding" was given Rev. Meyers, the new Methodist pastor, last Friday night. Many people came, bringing something as a present, and enjoyed the occasion.

W. L. Eddy has traded his farm and store to Morris & Son of near Center City, who have taken possession of the business. Mr. Eddy will stay here until this term of school closes.

The disastrous fire at Evant evidently has not dampened the spirits of the business men there, for announcement has been made that they will build again and bigger and better than before the fire.

Work has begun on the Masonic hall, which will be built over Hawkins Bro's store.

Work on the school house is progressing rapidly and the house will be ready for use in a short time.

Mason Goode, who is attending school at Evant, visited relatives at Star Sunday.

Mrs. John Hamilton of Kansas City, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Roberts, boarded the train one day last week en route to Kansas City, Mo., where Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will make their home. The good wishes of their friends go with them.

Our school is progressing very well, considering circumstances. The primary and intermediate teachers, Miss Donald Oldfield and Mrs. D. I. Hawkins, are teaching in the old school house and Prof. Jeter is teaching in the Baptist church. Mrs. G. D. Burney has not started the music department yet.

Here's to the Eagle, and please excuse my mistakes and my blunders for when it rains it sometimes thunders.

XX.

C. B. Mohler and wife visited at Star Tuesday.

Clyde Everett of Hamilton visited friends in this city Sunday.

Walter Campbell was among the visitors from Mullin one day this week.

L. B. McCormick was here from the Democrat country the first of the week.

A. D. Weston has been in Southern Texas this week, looking after business matters.

Work on the Presbyterian parsonage is progressing very satisfactorily. It will be an ornament to the town.

Mrs. R. L. H. Williams returned to her home in Fort Worth a few days ago, after a visit to friends in this city.

The seats and desks for the Star and Indian Gap schools arrived this week and a number of citizens from each place were here to receive them and haul them out.

Mrs. A. V. Lane and other members of her family returned Tuesday night from Regeby, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lane's baby.

Miss Emma Harrison returned Saturday night from a visit to Dallas, Marlin, Brownwood and elsewhere and left Wednesday for Pearl to spend some time with Rev. Carpenter's family.

Rev. Carpenter, who was the pastor of the Holiness church here some years ago, was here from Pearl, Coryell county, the first of the week. He has been located at Pearl since leaving Goldthwaite.

E. G. Kingsbury, a reformed newspaper man, now a prosperous farmer and stock raiser of near Star who uses some of his spare time serving as surveyor and notary public, wrote us a much appreciated letter a few days ago and enclosed a renewal for his subscription.

Advertising Methods Adopted by an Enterprising House.

That Goldthwaite is fast becoming metropolitan in the methods of advertising used by our merchants to call the buying public's attention to the many splendid values which they are offering, also that the wide-awake firm of B. A. Harris is keeping up with and just a little ahead of the times in an advertising respect is again practically demonstrated in what is perhaps the most elaborate system of advertising ever attempted by any business house of this section, namely: the giving away of the beautiful Claxton Parlor Grand Piano which will soon be on exhibition at his store.

This piano retails at $400 each, guaranteed for ten years. The principal points of superiority of this celebrated Claxton piano over any other of this class of instruments lie in the three strings in unison with overstrung bass, the splendid pitched scale and true sounding board which give the Claxton that rich deep, even tone so much admired.

In a recent interview with Mr. Harris regarding this decided innovation in advertising, he stated: "We have been enjoying the patronage and confidence of the buyers of this community for some time now and by always trying to keep our stocks complete the saying that 'You can get it at Harris' has become a household expression. In giving away this piano we are actuated by a double purpose, to show our appreciation of the patronage of our friends during the past, also to encourage new trade and to bring the many splendid values we are showing in all lines to the attention of every buyer in this territory. The plan we are using in giving away this piano is equal and fair to all, simply this: Every person buying one dollar's worth in our store will receive a coupon good for 100 votes. The person returning to us the largest number of votes will be given the piano absolutely free of all cost. No favors will be shown. Our reputation of square dealing assures our customers of that fact."

This four hundred dollar Claxton Parlor Grand Piano is surely a present worth having and we predict a very "merry race" for votes during the next few months.

Mr. Harris is surely to be congratulated on his broad-minded methods and "Trade Getter" advertising system. (Ad)

SIN'S BLIGHT.

It is sad, 'tis so sad when we ponder
The pathway so many have trod,
Far out into sinning they wander
Far away from the goodness of God
An infant so pure and so humble,
So innocent, loving and sweet,
Not a stone in the pathway to stumble
The innocent, pure, baby feet.
To a child now the infant is growing,
Still pure in the pathway it treads,
Sweet child, loving smiles you're bestowing
All around you, a radiance you shed.
But that child—as an angel, as holy,
Its life pure and white as the snow,
It travels the pathway so slowly
Unmindful of where it may go.

One day, in a moment unguarded
Temptation is found in the way;
It yields. The whole nature is weakened.
Oh, sad is that unlucky day!
Just one blur, but the pathway is darkened,
Just one stain, but no more white as snow;
Oh, could that pure child heard and hearkened
How one sin's the beginning of woe!
Again is the innocent tempted,
Again, and again, and again.
No longer from folly exempted
Each wrong leaves its blot, leaves its stain.

Till the life, once so pure and so holy
Is blackened and stained past repair;
It was done all so gradually slowly
He thought not his life to impair.
That life, as it nears its perfection
The babe to maturity grown,
It is brought to his sad recollection
"The wild oats" that in folly he's sown.
He turns from the pathway of sinning
He enters the road leading home,
Over evil a victory he's winning,
He fights back each foe as it comes.

His life that was ruined and blackened
He's mended as far as he can;
Never once is his zeal for right slackened,
He's resolved to be holy—a man.
All around righteous acts he's bestowing
As onward and upward he climbs,
Into perfect manhood he's now growing,
He's reaching for heights more sublime.
A paragon, his life is of greatness,
A beautiful sight to behold!
It is glistening now in its whiteness,
'Twas refined in the fire as pure gold.

But how much more perfect the picture
Had sin never cast o'er its blight
And blotted in every conjecture
That life, once so pure and so white
Much is lost, both in strength and in power,
The past he can never undo;
He can never reach the perfection
His Maker intended him to.
Life is grand, but oh, how much grander
Had sin never entered the heart;
The sin stains forever will hinder
And will steal from the grandeur a part.

Yet one thought to our heart is consoling—
Our Savior was e'er true and pure,
Each temptation subduing, controlling,
All pain he was strong to endure.
When we enter the mansion of glory,
Those mansions so pure and so fair
Where angels e'er sing the sweet story
Where naught that is marred enters there,
When we enter those mansions of brightness
Where the soul is at home with its God.

We'll be clothed in a robe of pure whiteness,
Made white in the dear Savior's blood;

For our own righteousness, rags so filthy
We'll discard, we'll cast them away
In the righteous robe of our Savior
We will enter those mansions of day.
Our God, who in love has e'er heard us,
Our iniquity has turned away,
For every small good will reward us
And crown us as kings for aly.

But friends, loving friends, in life's morning,
So pure in the image of God,
So soon you will tread without warning
The pathway the fathers have trod.
Oh, choose the right path in your childhood
And escape so much folly and sin
E'er you're lost in sin's hazy wildwood
Where naught that is good enters in.
Should sin even once your heart enter,
Expel it and bid it to fly,
For once in your heart it finds center,
Its blighting effects never die.

You may change—may press steadily upward,
May fill with good deeds every day,
May be strong, but oh, how much stronger
Had you ever kept evil away.
When you enter the pathway of sinning—
The path that all follow who fail,
Before you have time to consider
Another has followed your trail.

COMMISSIONERS COURT.

The court met in regular quarterly session Monday with all members present.
Routine business was transacted, such as receiving and approving official reports, auditing accounts, etc.
The court bought a Wales adding machine for the county.
The resignation of A. Lorenz as justice of the peace for precinct No. 6 was accepted and R. F. Swindle was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

The resignation of J. R. Wilmeth as justice of the peace for precinct No. 5 was accepted and R. M. Haynes was appointed to fill the unexpired term.
A nurse was employed to attend Mrs. W. V. Carlock at a salary of 50 cents per day.
The commissioners and county attorney of Lampasas county spent Thursday here conferring with the court relative to the Moline county line school district, but no action was taken in the matter. The two courts agreed, however, that if a majority of the citizens of the district petitioned for the abolition of the district the request would meet with favorable action. This county line district was formed some time ago and an election was held last August for the issuance of $4500 in bonds to erect a school building and the levying of 25 cents maintenance tax. The election resulted in 35 votes being cast favorable to the two propositions and 12 votes against them. The result of this election has never been officially declared by the Mills county commissioners court and probably will not be given further attention until the next term, in order that the people in the new district may have an opportunity to make their desires known by petition or otherwise.

The contractors are about ready to deliver the new court house to the court and it is likely a special session will be called for that purpose next week.
The court adjourned for the term yesterday at noon.

AUTOLOADING SHOTGUNS

ANY way you look at it, the Autoloader is the highest development in modern shotgun design. It puts five loads at your disposal by merely pressing the trigger. It puts the recoil to useful work—to eject the empty and slip in the fresh shell. It saves the gunner's shoulder—rids his sport of annoyances—increases his shooting average.

Your danger is that in your enthusiasm over the autoloading principle, you may forget to insist on getting the finest embodiment of that principle—the Remington-UMC Autoloading Shotgun.

The peculiar advantages of the Remington-UMC are too many to detail here. What you want to do is to get one of the Remington-UMC dealers in this section to demonstrate them to you on the gun itself.

How We Can Do It

You have read our claims of better quality for the money here than you can get elsewhere. You have naturally asked yourself, "How can they do it?"

FIRST. Our greater purchasing power, made possible by our big business enables us to get the "quantity prices" on everything we buy.

SECOND. We buy for cash only and gain the advantage of every discount offered.

THIRD. Our expenses are always kept at the lowest possible point, consistent with good service to our customers.

FOURTH. Our years of experience in buying has given us a knowledge of where the best values are to be had and how to obtain them.

FIFTH. And the last and most important reason is our version of the great merchandising truth, "Give the people superior value and you will get their trade." Our profit on each sale is very small, but the sum of many such small profits is quite satisfactory.

You can prove the truth of our claims to your own satisfaction by comparing our values with those of other stores. Make up your mind to do that.

Those elected to associate membership were Mesdames Kelly Saylor, W. K. Marshall, John C. Hicks, J. C. Darroch, Leonard Skaggs, Claude Saylor and Frank Rahl.

After the business meeting adjourned, Miss McPherson, assisted by Mrs. Huddleston, served refreshments of hot chocolate and wafers. This is to certify that the writer and another widower have arrived at the conclusion of the 4th week of actual baching, which has consisted of many things more tedious to perform than it would consume time to mention. However, the time passed off pleasantly and we have taken a new lease and started in for an indefinite period, and to prove we are on the up grade our first guest was the Hon. Judge Conner of Brownwood, who pulled chicken bones just as though he was in the Southern hotel. So you smaller fry needn't tremble at the thought of putting your feet under our table. You needn't rush in on us as though this was a general invitation, for the chicken proposition is more frequently bacon. We are in the midst of a strange people and we never know what a day may bring forth. Our nearest neighbors are widows and only a block away is a widower and still older bachelor keeping bach, while two blocks away are two medium-sized middle-aged bachelors licking the same skillet, with some talk of another pair or two launching their crafts on the same stormy sea, and the conference, to cap the climax, sent us a bachelor preacher and he is occupying the parsonage hardly a block away. If any of you correspondents or common people see fit to offer any comments on this state of affairs you are at liberty to pop your whip.

The long fought piano contest at Kemp Bros.' store came to an end at 6 p. m. yesterday, Nov. 12, and Miss Stella Burkett was the winner by nearly a million votes.

One of the most enjoyable affairs it has been our pleasure to enjoy was the Halloween party given by the Home Mission ladies of the Methodist church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hester. It seemed that everything that could be thought of to make the occasion enjoyable had been brought into action and these with Mr. and Mrs. Hester's tact at entertaining made it an evening very enjoyable and long to be remembered.

Mullin has seven full pledged life-sized ministers domiciled within her incorporated limits, Chickee! While they represent a variety of doctrines, they seem to dwell in peace and it might be said of them, "Let them alone, for they are joined to their idols." Old big Goldthwaite can't hit the preacher proposition as hard as Mullin. We just will get ahead of you some way.

A very large crowd of people assembled in the cemetery last Sunday at 2 p. m., to witness the unveiling ceremonies of the monument of M. C. Kirkpatrick, deceased, by the Woodmen of the World. The ceremonies were very impressive and many who are not Woodmen were convinced that the order is a blessing to the families of their departed brotherhood.

Mr. Francis Leineweber, one of Mullin's best citizens, moved to his ranch last week. We understand he sold his home in Mullin to Mr. Allen Weathers, who has taken possession.

About ten of our school teaching young ladies have gone to different parts of the county and state to engage in their school work. Five of our home lady teachers have places in the Mullin school. Fifteen lady teachers from a little place like Mullin spells something besides ignorance and indifference to education.

Train is due, so I bid you adieu. Success, peace and happiness to all. H. C. COBB.

The United States Geological Survey Bulletin points out the need for railroads in the development of gold fields in Alaska. The government authority might have added railroads are also badly needed in Texas to develop our agricultural resources. We have only 27,000,000 acres of land in cultivation out of a total area of 167,000,000 acres, and a larger part of our idle land is susceptible to a high degree of cultivation; then too, agricultural development means permanent tonnage. We have most everything in place which railroad investors require, except perhaps, stable conditions. No railroad company will run where they will be buried under the landslide of uncertainty or kaded by the snowstorm of bitter merciless hatred. They want the shine of hope and the soft winds of friendship. Let us have an era of peace and prosperity.—Commerciaries.

man can take a morning's toddy be honorable; he can refuse to open the doors of a church and command respect, but the guy absolutely refuses to pay honest dues his fellowmen is criminal in the sight of God and is not entitled to the respect of his fellowmen. Every town there are men who have established reputations for beat-honest bills, yet these fellows are respected by decent people the same as the honest man, who by the sweat of his brow, earns sufficient money to discharge his honest obligations. As a rule the guy who lives off his fellow-townsman is a man who will strut as if he had a million and has the nerve to look at the whole citizenship in the face every day to day the same as if he were honest. Bartlett has such fellows same as other towns, and it is a pity that they can not be driven into oblivion with one whiff from the father of wind-time, however, has arrived when the man who contracts debts with attention of paying them will be regarded upon as a reprobate—a dishonest man without respect, whose name will be regarded as worthless those men who do suffer hard to meet honest obligations. The notion of every man should be to do his word as good as his bond. Bartlett Tribune.

hate to scoot around the town in a motor car, and have folks looking with a frown on corners near far: Just watch that aleck—he goes! He's raising quite a ruckus. But if he paid up what he owes, he'd go on foot like us. I'd start out with spirits gay, but I'd lose my grip, for knowing I'd be talked that way would spoil little trip. I'd want to sell my chug cart and other costly pets, rustle in the clanging mart unpaid my debts, I'd hate to see a loving frau in precious stones bedecked, a diadem upon her brow and lace all correct, if I had reason to suppose that people standing around were saying: "There that one goes with diamonds by the day! And if her husband paid his—which he won't do, alas!—I have to ornament her gills with bits of plate glass." I would like to entertain in gorgeous style, if I believed there was in behind the guest's sweet smile people in my dazzling halls should per, as will bores: "Just see paintings on the walls, the carpet on the floors. Just mark the less bric-a-brac! But if he paid up, his home would be a two-shack or boarding house, today I can't stand that sort of thing; I'm immensely bored; and so I buy, by jing, the things I need."—Walt Mason.

CLUB RECEPTION

Decidedly smart and particularly beautiful was the afternoon function of Tuesday with which the members of the Self Culture club complimented Mrs. William K. Marshall, a bride of a few weeks, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Street.

Never was the Street home more hospitably inviting and more exquisitely floored than on this occasion, when tribute was paid a friendship of long duration. Furthermore, it was an enjoyable affair and one which sustained the prestige of Mrs. Street as a hostess. In fact, the social geni hovered about the club as a whole with particular delight.

So carefully was every detail anticipated that the afternoon was a transition of ease and grace. A color scheme of purple and white gave patronage to the violet which is the club flower, and no opportunity was lost to use both the color and flower.

The guests were received by Mrs. R. M. Thompson, president of the club, and next introduced to the honoree, who was beautifully gowned in blue crepe de chine embroidered in blue and gold, and afterward welcomed by Mesdames Street, Anderson, Trent and Fairman, then graciously conducted by Mesdames Gillespie and Randolph to the wishing room, where each was given the privilege of expressing their desires for the future happiness of the bride in a beautifully hand painted register book presided over by Miss Clyde Lowrie. As a reward for these efforts at flashes of wit or sentiment Mrs. Sam Sullivan served hot grape punch.

The most extensively interesting game of Logomachy was scored on heart shaped cards painted in violets and corsages of the dainty flower were given to each guest as favors. During this spirited contest the players were refreshed from cut glass bowls filled with purple and white mints. At the close of the game in a cut with several others Miss Perry carried away the coveted trophy, a hand painted bowl filled with the club flower, Miss Dora Oden receiving consolation favor.

With this appropriate speech Mrs. Thompson in her graceful manner presented a handsome clock to the honoree: "Mrs. Marshall, allow me in behalf of the Self Culture club, to present to you this token of love, friendship and esteem for your loyalty and faithfulness to the club since its organization. It is the sincere wish of the entire club that the minutes and hours, as they are ticked away by this clock, may each and every one be filled with peace, joy and happiness for you and yours." And in her sweet, characteristic way, the honoree replied: "Here's to the friends that are sweet and good. Here's to the friends that are true. Here's to the friends that I love best. In other words—here's to you." The color scheme was further in evidence in the service of purple sherbet and angel cake. Mrs. Marshall reciprocated the attention of her hostesses by an all apparent happiness in the courtesy and the hour was indeed a pleasant one. Those present included the members of the Self Culture club, Art Embroidery club and Merry Maids and Matrons club. A GUEST.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

In the district court in Waco this week Judge Munroe denounced the suspended sentence law in vigorous terms.

In many of the counties where road days could not be observed on Nov. 5 and 6 the people have fixed another day for the work.

So far there have been at least a dozen entries in the gubernatorial campaign and the election is a year off. Perhaps there may be other entries before the campaign closes, but certain it is that all who are now avowed candidates will not be in the race at the finish. In fact, several of them can not claim to be in the running now.

The governor of New Hampshire decided against Harry K. Thaw in the application of the state of New York for extradition. The case will be carried to the federal court and Thaw may yet gain his liberty. It is hard to see how an insane man can be guilty of "conspiring" with sane people to commit a crime. Thaw is bad all right, but he should have justice.

The "dope fiend" who claimed to have killed Mrs. Florence Brown in Dallas and implicated a lady of his acquaintance in the crime has been discredited and the lady released from custody. It was wrong for the officers to arrest the woman on his statement, in the first place, for they must have known some thing of his character and habits.

The indications are that the Mexican troubles will not be settled soon and the less the United States government has to do with them the better it will be for all parties. This government has nothing to do with the affairs of that country and old Huerta spoke a truth when he said that President Wilson had neither a moral nor legal right to demand his resignation.

It is safe to predict that Hon. Will H. Mayes will be the next governor of Texas if the newspapers of the state can bring about that result. They are all for him, so far as we have been able to ascertain, and they do not fail to advocate his cause on every occasion. He is one of the most popular editors in Texas, especially among the members of the profession.

A man usually gets just what is coming to him in this life. If he is a fair player, men will play fair with him. If he is a crooked player, then he will be given a crooked deal. The world is full of fair players and it is a good old world if you look at it for the good there is in it. It is a scrappy old world, filled with brickbats, if you are in pursuit of brickbats. It is a raw old world if you are forever exhibiting your raw spots. It is a funny old world if you know how to smile, and the men who know how to smile are the men who are willing to bury yesterday and not bear malice.—Fort Worth Record.

War with Mexico has been the subject most discussed by the press and people during the last few days. President Wilson's ultimatum to the head of the Mexican government demanding that he resign and that his successor be not named from his chief advisers caused much concern and it was felt that the result would be a declaration of war. The Mexican refused to accede to Mr. Wilson's demand, however, and that was an end of the matter, or at least there has been no hostile indications so far. President Wilson's advisors counseled him against attempting to enforce his demand, for he was clearly in the wrong, as the Eagle sees it, in making such demand. The troubles in Mexico are to be deplored, but they belong to that nation and the United States would sacrifice many men and much money in "butting in" and attempting to regulate the affairs of that country. Former President Diaz has advised Huerta to resign.

INDUSTRIAL CONGRESS.

The fifth annual convention of the Texas Industrial Congress to be held at Dallas on December 13, when prizes for the best results in competitive crop production, aggregating $10,000 in gold will be awarded, will be made up of officers and members of the congress, delegates, contestants and visitors. The delegates will be appointed by county judges, mayors of towns and cities, commercial bodies and state associations whose work is connected with agricultural betterment or otherwise allied with the purposes of the Congress. The general attendance of all contestants and their friends is desired for the reason that these conventions inspire such a feeling of mutual encouragement and determination among them as is of the utmost advantage in carrying forward the work of the congress for better farming during the whole of the ensuing year. The convention has been limited to one day and the program and prize awards arranged accordingly. The railroads of the state have made a special low round-trip rate to Dallas for the occasion.

The many friends of Mr. J. W. Butz and his family are glad to know of his advancement in the railroad work. He was agent for the Santa Fe here a number of years and had the respect and confidence of every body. He is a railroad man of long experience and his friends here know that he can make good in any department.

The Denison Herald says: "J. W. Butz, general freight agent for the Katy here is being checked out of office, and R. S. King, formerly agent for the Katy at Pittsburg, Texas, is being checked in to succeed Mr. Butz. Mr. Butz has been appointed train master for Katy with headquarters in Greenville and will have charge of the Shreveport division, McKinney and Mineola branches. He will leave tomorrow for Greenville to assume his new duties, relieving K. Randolph, who has been assigned to other duties. Mr. Butz has been in Denison but a year and has made many friends with the business and railroad men of the city. He has been head of the Safety First move in Denison for his department and has been assisting in this move not only in Denison but over this district. Mr. Butz received many congratulations today from friends for the promotion which all were glad to see him receive."

Declare War on Colds.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of cold: Don't sit in a draughty car. Don't sleep in hot rooms. Don't avoid the fresh air. Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Over-eating reduces you resistance. To which we would add—when you take a cold, get rid of it as quickly as possible. To accomplish that you will find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy most excellent. Sold by R. E. Clements. (Adv.)

The case of McPige, who was convicted of perjury in the district court here, was reversed and dismissed by the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin.

The Phillips & Company bankrupt stock of groceries was sold to the highest bidder Tuesday by Noah Palmer, assignee. The Rotan Grocery Company of Waco bought both the stock and fixtures and notes and accounts.

The drill of the Comanche Oil Company is now in oil bearing sand, and it is claimed the well is producing about thirty barrels of oil per day. The company is casing off about 600 or 700 feet of salt water and when this is done the oil and gas will be given an opportunity to flow unrestrained, and it is claimed the well will then make thirty barrels or better.

The Chief-Exponent thinks Comanche county would be better off if she did not raise a stalk of cotton. Let us raise feed and stock, and if we must grow cotton, make it the surplus crop. All cotton and credit is a curse to any county. It not only keeps the farmer in bondage but his wife in the field and his children out of school. Let us cut out so much cotton and emancipate the women and children from a life of slavery.—Chief.

LOMETA

known. The whole building was aflame when discovered.

R. Becker happened to quite a painful accident last week. He had been to see his family here and was returning to his business at Junction, making the distance from Menard to Junction by stage. The team was scared and ran the vehicle over a large rock, throwing Mr. Becker out and under the vehicle. One or both wheels passed over his body, breaking two ribs and otherwise bruising him up. He returned here and is resting well at the home below town.

Lightning struck the residence of J. J. Urquhart Tuesday morning early and set fire to the roof. Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart were in the kitchen but neither was shocked perceptibly. When the crash came they thought something near had been struck and Mr. Urquhart went onto the gallery to look out and see. He saw nothing, but soon E. R. Meador, who lives next door, notified him that the house was on fire. The fire had gained but little headway and was soon extinguished by the use of a yard hose.—News.

He has managed to get his name in all the state papers, posing as a candidate for congressman at large, and giving his home as Brownwood.

Whether the shot was fired intentionally or not does not alter the fact that L. A. Armstrong of the Southern hotel had a very narrow escape from possible death about noon Monday, when a steel jacketed bullet whizzed by his ear, went through the door facing and broke the glass on a telephone booth by his side. Henry Hogan, a negro waiter at the hotel, is in jail, charged with firing the bullet, though no motive has as yet been found.—Bulletin.

The friends of Mrs. L. E. Miller were delighted to know that she was able to be out in an auto yesterday to witness the Gentry show parade.
 Her condition has been improving rapidly for several weeks and it is now thought she will be entirely recovered in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Glascock were here for several days visiting her brother, Judge E. B. Anderson, and family. Mr. Glascock has been engaged in the drug business at Me-business at that place and is looking for a location. They left the first of the week for a visit to Galveston.

Mrs. B. F. Geeslin, sr., mother of Mr. B. F. Geeslin of this city, fell in her room in her son's home Sunday morning and broke or dislocated her hip and has since suffered a great deal. Her condition is now very critical with little or no hope of her recovery. She has been unconscious for several hours and her heart's action is very poor. Mrs. Geeslin is in her 84th year and this fact coupled with the severity of the injury makes her recovery extremely doubtful.

A TRIED AND PROVED GUARANTEE

Man Bought a Bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic and Took It Back and Asked for His Money and Got
 It.

A man recently tried out the guarantee which R. E. Clements gives with every bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. He bought a bottle and then went back to the drug store and said
 the medicine hadn't helped him.
 The druggist just reached into his cash register and took out a half-dollar, the price of the bottle of Liver
 Tonic, and handed it back to the gen-man. But he didn't take the money.
 He owned up that he was just trying the guarantee, and as a matter of fact, he had found Dodson's Liver Tonic the best remedy for constipation and biliousness he had ever tried. "Why," he said, "my wife wouldn't be without a bottle in the house for anything. It's the best thing in the world for the whole family, and the medicine that I prefer to take or to give to my children for a lazy liver."

R. E. Clements sells Dodson's Liver Tonic and guarantees it to start the liver without violence. It is taking the place of calomel everywhere.
 If you buy a bottle and don't find this pleasant-tasting vegetable liquid the best thing to start a lazy liver, he will hand your money back with a smile. (Adv)

HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Winston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. S. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, a woman's tonic, has done for me. I was down sick with womanly trouble, my mother advised several different remedies, but they didn't seem to do any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for anyone to walk across the floor. My husband advised me to try Cardui, a woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well." If you suffer from any of the ailments common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

SOUTH BENNETT

Just watch the farmers plow while the sun shines in Mills county. Since the continued rains of last week the optimists overflow at a rapid rate.

Small grain is growing fine. Quite a number are still planting 15c cotton. A currency bill nor the Mexican war can't even halt the thought of us while we continue to strive onward and upward.

Matt Casbeer is building a nice residence on his father's place, where he will reside the coming year and cultivate a portion of his father's farm.

The young people enjoyed a pleasant singing at J. F. Wheat's Sunday. The vocal class interest is increasing every week.

Quite a number of our people have been on the river assisting in gathering the enormous pecan crop.

Mrs. Fred Curt is enjoying a visit from her brother, Mr. West Carroll, and wife of Stuart, Okla. They formerly resided in this community a year back in the early seventies and he reports that the development of our county has actually been miraculous—just jumping by big degrees.

E. M. Boon and J. C. Street were visiting in the community this week.

We are informed that Mr. Dave Morris has traded his fine farm here for a mercantile establishment at Star, with an additional farm also located there and will move there at once. We regret to give up these old time friends and neighbors.

Mr. Jim Ballard of near Shive has moved to J. W. Hill's farm, where he will farm the coming season.

Webb Hill and wife, Jim Giles and family and Cleoro Jones and family were visiting in our midst last Sabbath.

Col. J. K. Griffin and Sam Carroll attended the San Angelo fair last week. Both reported a splendid time, that the fair and exhibits and races were worth the trip and that the former Mills county residents living there were doing fine.

Our school is progressing splendidly under the management of Miss Robbie Keese. Indications are that we will have the most successful term here than in several years.

Edgar Simpson is building an additional sheep and goat pasture and repairing his place in general. Well, by the wayside, you are not allowed to prophesy or proselytize a bachelor nowadays, under a severe penalty, so don't worry girls.

Here are we all going to the show and see the elephant and the rhinoceros—horse."

Ed Morr's and family were visiting here Sunday.

Lester Berry and wife were among the pleasant visitors to the singing Sunday from Liberty. Frank Taylor and several more good singers were also present from Liberty.

DOWNWARD COURSE.
 Fast Being Realized by Goldthwaite People.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.

Urinary disorders may quickly follow.

Dropsy and often Bright's disease. This frequently is the downward course of kidney-ills.

Don't take this course. Goldthwaite residents should profit by the following experience:

Mrs. H. A. Yazell, Lampasas, Tex., says: "About four years ago kidney trouble gave me much pain and suffering. My back got so bad I could not get up from a chair without help. Every move I made was painful. A neighbor advised me to take Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a supply. My health improved after the first few doses and the pains left my back. My kidneys are now normal."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (Adv)

A Consumptive Cough.

A cough that bothers you continually is one of the danger signals which warns you of consumption. Dr. King's New Discovery stop the cough, loosen the chest, banish fever and let you sleep peacefully. The first dose checks the symptoms and gives prompt relief. Mrs. A. E. Mertz of Glen Ellyn, Iowa, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured a stubborn cough after six week's doctoring failed to help." Try it, as it will do the same for you. Best medicine for coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Money back if it fails. Price 50c and $1.00. All druggists, by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (ad)

LISTEN!

Some have paid me and I am thankful, others have not and I need it. It certainly makes us all feel better to settle our accounts. My patience and grace may be exhausted soon if you do not come in and settle in some satisfactory way what you owe me. Yours truly, M. L. BROWN.
