IMPORTANT TO INCOME TAX PAYERS.

Under the act of Congress approved October 3, 1913, every individual having an annual income in excess of $3,000 is required to render to the collector of Internal Revenue on or before March 1 of each year a report giving a statement of his income received from all sources during the calendar year preceding. Failure to file this annual return within the time prescribed subjects the offender to severe penalties and all individuals having an annual income subject to taxation under this law should immediately notify A. S. Walker, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Texas, giving their name and address and the nature of the business in which they are engaged, in order that they may be supplied with form of return, rulings and necessary instructions.

The Collector has a list of all corporations subject to this tax, and they will be supplied with blank forms for report as soon as possible after December 31. The attention of corporations is directed to the fact that the Corporation Tax Act of 1909, under which they have been making annual reports to the Internal Revenue Department, has been repealed and is superseded by the Income Tax Law. However, the manner and time of rendition and payment of tax are practically the same as under the old law. Partnerships are not required to render returns, but the members composing the firm if they have an income subject to tax are required to render return and therein account for all income or profits arising from the partnership.

Special attention is called to the fact that the failure to secure Income Tax blanks will not relieve the taxpayer from the penalties imposed for delinquency in filing return. The report for the year 1913 may be filed at any time between Jan. 1 and March 1, 1914. Assessments will be made as soon as possible after the returns are filed with the collector, and the tax assessed is due and payable June 30, 1914.

HONESTY COMES NATURAL

Honest men are born that way. They are honest not only in their acts, but in their minds. Instinctively they avoid dishonesty, and the idea of profiting by dishonesty does not occur to them except theoretically. It does not occur to them to discuss with themselves the subject of their own honesty, for they take it for granted that they are honest, as they take it for granted that they have the customary outfit of veins, arteries and nervous tissues. Sometimes naturally honest men are tempted to become dishonest, and sometimes they succumb. Every individual, male and female, has weak moments, and many is the man or woman who has gone wrong under the urgency of a momentary impulse, and endured a life of bitterness and self-reproach in consequence. Most men who are actually and consciously dishonest are congenitally so. They were born handicapped. Occasionally one may become dishonest gradually and willingly and to that class is most applicable the old axiom that honesty is the best policy. It is the best policy whether regarded solely as a policy or broadened into a principle. The dishonest man is an unhappy man, and the least successful person in the world is that one which is most unhappy. Did you ever know a dishonest man whom you believed to be companionable with himself in the dark? Did you ever know a dishonest man who wasn't lonely in the society of those whose society he most desired?—State Press.

The senate passed the currency bill last Friday by a good majority and it is believed the measure will soon be ready for the signature of President Wilson, who is well pleased with the bill.

LATE PLANTING AND THE BOLL WEEVIL.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—Occasionally the theory is announced that the boll weevil can be controlled by late planting better than by early planting of the crop. The Bureau of Entomology has conducted many experiments to determine whether late planted cotton will produce a satisfactory crop. The results have all been negative. The advocates of late planting, however, have contended that the experiments of the Department have not been conducted on a sufficiently large scale. On this account an unusually large experiment which was provided by natural conditions in Louisiana is of interest.

In the spring of 1913 there was an overflow by Bayou de Glalze in Avoyelles Parish, occurring in May and continuing until early in June. On one side of the Bayou a strip of land one mile long and from eight to ten miles wide was flooded. The levee on the opposite side of the Bayou retained the water. Cotton was planted early on one side and late on the other. It has furnished a large scale contrast between the two methods of planting in the same locality and on identical soil formations.

Examinations which have just been made by the Bureau of Entomology show that a crop of half a bale was made on the side not overflowed where the planting was early, while the opposite side which was late planted yielded much less. A few illustrations out of many that were obtained will be given. O. H. Joffrion obtained a yield of 1125 pounds of seed cotton from a crop planted on April 15, while the crop planted across the Bayou on May 20 yielded 650 pounds of seed cotton per acre. Mr. O. P. Couvillion planted on May 22 and obtained one-fourth of a bale per acre. In 1911 on the same field he produced a half a bale per acre.

The illustrations that have been given show the general difference between the early and late planted cotton. The observations, therefore, prove in a very definite way that late planted crops are sure to be injured more severely than when planted early.

Rev. C. H. Bagley of Caldwell county is visiting his son, Rev. L. A. Bagley, and family.

Miss Dora Oden left Tuesday for Fort Worth to visit Mrs. S. E. Ross and family and other friends.

Mrs. Myrtle Johnigan and children of Coleman are in the city visiting her brother, Charles Arnold, and family.

Mrs. W. L. Greer of Corsicana is visiting her parents, Rev. L. A. Bagley and wife, and other relatives in this city.

While most people sympathize with the constitutionalists in Mexico, mainly because of the fact that they can not support even with their sympathy the government of a man who secured his place by treachery and murder, nobody expects the war in Mexico to end with the success of either of the contending forces. Huerta will never be allowed to peacefully occupy the president's office in Mexico and the constitutionalists will divide into two or more factions as soon as they succeed in overthrowing the treacherous villain.

The newly completed line of the Santa Fe from Lubbock to Farwell, eighty nine miles long, has been thrown open to traffic. While the line is completed, it is still in the hands of the construction company, but will be turned over to the operating department by February 1, 1914. The first steel was laid on this line in March, 1913. This is the last link in the short line transcontinental route of the Santa Fe between California and the Southwest. The route formerly went northeast in the Panhandle, via Canyon, and the new cut-off saves about 100 miles.

A GOOD MAN IS FALLEN.

There come times in the lives of us all when we are made to stop and consider all that has gone before, connected with that that calls us to consider. Of no other event is this so universally true as death. Although so common an event in the world, it is yet the most serious event in the world. Lives not before thought of are at their ending called vividly to the minds of those who have known them. Then it is that an estimate is made of the life gone. Love forgets the faults of the loved one dead, friendship remembers only the good and even enemies do not let their thoughts dwell on the objectionable traits of a dead man. But must Charity's mantle be used to cover a part of every life? Is it needful now as we look at the life of our friend, John Little, so abruptly brought to a close? No stranger in Goldthwaite last Sunday would ever have felt that any of the tributes to his memory were tributes of charity. When the message came Saturday morning that he was dead, and that message was whispered from one to another till all Goldthwaite and surrounding country had heard it, no stranger could see that every heart was sad, but they were, and friend greeted friend and spoke with bated breath of their common loss.

Almost as silent as had been the love for this good man was this gloom in the same hearts that loved him; but when the approach of the hour for the train's coming with his remains saw the throng of sad faced friends gathering to receive all that death's hand had spared to us of him, no one could then have doubted the genuine and universal love felt for him here. Long before the train arrived automobiles had crowded all the grounds about the station. In buggies, surreys and on foot they came till waiting rooms and station platform were taxed to their limit with throngs of friends sadly expectant. All day long friends vied with friends in seeking some possible act of tribute to the dead or of service to his loved ones still living.

At the church friends filled every foot of room inside the house, while other friends waited outside to join them in the last sad march to the open grave. After some preliminaries by local ministers, all hearts were melted, all eyes wept as his pastor from Hamilton recounted his virtues and with numbers of other Hamilton friends present joined the Goldthwaite host to mourn his loss.

At the cemetery in a grave even made beautiful by loving hands and thoughtful friends, he was gently lowered to his last resting place in a bed of roses, beneath a mountain of flowers, amid the tears and heartaches of many who loved him.

In an hour like this if anything could bring gladness to the heart of a father who had already learned to lean on his son with unstinted confidence, or a mother whose chief pride and comfort he was; or a beloved wife who had forgotten that life could be without him; or brothers and sisters who honored, loved, admired and trusted him, I say if aught could give joy to these then surely no sorrow could have been theirs amid these evidences of the love and honor in which he was held.

As we tonight sit and sadly review his life, we need no mantle of charity. In vain do we seek for aught to condemn. He was not perfect, none is, but when did father and mother ever have a more dutiful son, wife a truer, more loving husband, brothers and sisters a nobler, better brother, or little children a more thoughtful, affectionate and devoted father? But even these facts can not now suffice to make sunshine in the hearts of those that loved him so; yet in the years to come—years that cannot take away from them the sweetness of his life and memory, these things will be remembered and they will make the grief less poignant, the sorrow less bitter.

In these coming years when the living ones may be sources of anxiety, when doubts as to their future may come, how sweet it will then be to have the happy consciousness that this dear boy, trusting in Jesus thru the years, had fought the good fight, had measured up to the stature of a true man in all life's relations, and had died the triumphant death of one who has won victories through Christ the Lord. Dear ones, while you weep, you weep not alone. Many hearts are sad tonight with you. You feel that your sorrow is all that you can bear, yet the parents, the companion, the brothers, sisters and little children who have given up one to pay the penalties of violated law dying in dishonor and crime would give the world to have your consciousness tonight. You have nothing to explain or apologize for in his life. It will be a benediction, a comfort and a joy to your declining years as it has been helpful to the world hitherto. We do not see the wisdom of the Father in taking him now while he was so young and his loved ones and the world seemed so much to need him, but God knows best and we shall know after a while. Let us then try to enter into the spirit of the poet and believe with him the sentiment expressed in the lines:

"Sometime when all life's lessons have been learned
 And Sun and Stars forever set,
 The things which our weak judgment here has spurned—
 The things o'er which we've grieved with ashes wet,
 Will flash out before us from life's dark night
 As stars shine most in tints of deepest blue,
 And we shall see how that all God's plans were right,
 And how, what seemed reproof was love most true.
 We shall see how that while we fret and sigh
 God's plans go on as best for you and me,
 How when we called he answered not our cry
 Because His wisdom to the end could see;
 And e'en as prudent parents disallow
 Too much of sweets to craving babyhood,
 So God, perhaps, is keeping from us now
 Life's sweetest thing, because it seemeth good.
 And if, sometimes, commingled with life's wine,
 We find the wormwood and rebel and shrink,
 Be sure a wiser hand than yours or mine
 Pours out this potion for our lips to drink.
 And if one we love is lying low
 Where human kisses cannot reach his face
 Oh do not blame the loving Father so,
 But bear your sorrow with obedient grace.
 And you shall shortly know that lengthened breath
 Is not the sweetest gift God sends his friend,
 But sometimes e'en the sable pall of death
 Conceals the fairest boon His love could send.
 If we could pull ajar the gate of life
 And stand within and all His workings see,
 We could then interpret all this doubt and strife,
 And for each mystery find the key.
 But not today. Then be content, sad heart.
 God's plans, like lilies pure and white, unfold,
 We may not tear its close-shut leaves apart.
 Time will reveal their calyxes of gold.

A GOOD SHOW

The Hayes company has been here this week, giving entertainments at the opera house each evening and a matinee was given Thursday afternoon and another will be given this afternoon. This company gives entertainments well worthy of the patronage of the public. In the plays there are no objectionable features and the troupe is made up of refined, nice people. The music, which is supplied by a Mexican orchestra, is of a very high class and is attractive to lovers of music.

This is a good show and the liberal patronage the company has received during the week attests the approval of the public. The entertainment at the opera house tonight will close the company's engagement at this place.

Miss Lora Hudson, who is a teacher in the Vernon public school, came home to spend Christmas.

Miss Zoe Rock, who has been bookkeeper for the Light and Ice Co for several months, will be bookkeeper for the Geeslin Mercantile Co, succeeding Mr. Casey, who resigned.

A JOLLY GO AWAY PARTY.

Friday evening, Dec. 19, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ball of McGirk entertained at their hospitable home in honor of Misses Berry and Cryer, who were to leave for their respective homes to spend the holidays.

At an early hour the spacious rooms were filled with a merry group, both old and young, and soon the halls were ringing with merry peals of laughter, created by the novel and amusing games introduced; while "Progressive Forty-Two" was a prominent feature much enjoyed.

At ten-thirty the guests were ushered into the beautifully decorated dining-room, where Mrs. Ball, assisted by Mrs. Cornelius, served delicious sandwiches, chicken salad, olives, and chocolate.

At a late hour we very unwillingly bade our fair hostess good night, unanimously voting this one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

Soon another year will have gone down in history. To some, 1913 has been very pleasant to others, who are superstitious, 1913 has been a bad omen and they lay all their misfortunes to the "13." As for us, "13" is our lucky star. We wish to thank all of our patrons and friends who have so liberally patronized us since our opening this year and we hope for a continuance all through next year. We are looking forward to 1914 to be the "banner" year of Mills County.

JOHN LITTLE IS DEAD

Mr. John C. Little died at his home in Hamilton last Saturday morning at an early hour, after two weeks illness with jaundice. The announcement of his death was entirely unexpected to most of his friends here, for the fact of his illness was not generally known and even those who did know of it were not aware that his condition was such as to cause alarm. When the announcement of his death came, it caused universal sorrow among those who knew him.

No man stood higher among his fellows than did John Little and no man's death would have caused more genuine or universal sorrow than was caused by his death. He was well known in Goldthwaite and throughout Mills county, having lived here for about ten years before moving to Hamilton, where he had been engaged in business for about three years. He was numbered among the best business men of this town during the time he lived here, and in Hamilton he was also regarded highly for his worth and integrity. Not only was he a business man of high character and fine ability, but he was high-minded, Christian gentleman whose very presence was an honor to a community and whose example was beneficial and inspiring. It has been truly said by one who knew him well, "The world needs such men as John Little." Honest in every transaction and honorable in every motive, he was an ideal of the Christian manhood of the nation and an inspiration to those who were associated with him. It was impossible to be associated with John Little without honoring and respecting him fully as a man of pure thoughts and an upright life and we all miss him and mourn with the bereaved wife and children, parents, brothers and sisters.

The remains were brought to Goldthwaite for burial, arriving here on the early morning train Sunday. They were met at the depot by a large number of friends of the family and were conveyed to the home of his parents, from which place the funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon. A large number of the friends of the family assembled at the residence to join the solemn procession to the Methodist church, where the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Alonzo Monk, pastor of the Methodist church at Hamilton, assisted by Rev. A. S. Pierce, pastor of the Goldthwaite Methodist church and Rev. J. C. Newman, pastor of the Baptist church at this place. The large church was filled to its capacity before the beginning of the service and perhaps as many people remained on the outside of the building as were able to secure seats on the inside. The service at the church having been completed, the solemn march was begun to the Old Fellows cemetery, where the burial service was conducted by the Woodmen of the World, of which order Mr. Little had been a member for a number of years. The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in this city and was an indication of the high regard in which the good man was held by the people here.

As an indication of the esteem in which he was held by the members of the community in which he lived the last three years of his life, eight business men and the pastor of the church in which he held membership and served as a steward, accompanied the remains to this city and brought with them beautiful floral offerings from the people of that community.

The Woodmen lodge selected Messrs. W. C. Dew, J. V. Cockrum, H. G. Bodkin, John C. Hicks, O. H. Yarborough and James Rahl to act as pall bearers and Mr. W. C. Dew, who met the funeral party at Temple on the sad journey to this city, was commissioned to express the sympathy of the lodge as a body and its members individually to the bereaved wife and other members of the grief-stricken family.

Most of the business concerns at the people observed the Christmas holiday, but the rural mail carriers had to make their trips the same as on other days. It does seem that these faithful public servants should be allowed to spend this most important holiday with their families.

Will Woody, who is a student of pharmacy in Galveston, is spending the holidays with his home folk.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The report last week gave the proceedings of the institute up to Friday afternoon.

Saturday and Monday morning were spent in discussing the regular features of the program. Monday afternoon was given principally to the discussions of school improvement plans for the county. Tuesday morning was given to regular program work. In the afternoon, J. V. Cockrum and Chas. Rudd sent boxes of oranges and apples and a bucket of mixed nuts, as a treat to the teachers. The rejoicing among the teachers over this treat had hardly ceased when a big candy bucket, filled with chocolates was sent up to the teachers as a treat from J. S. Caldwell, the city marshal. The teachers alone know how much such expressions of friendship and sympathy are appreciated.

The teachers present donated $23.50 cash and eight books to start a teachers library for the county. P. M. Bowden, Arthur Smith and Judge Allen were appointed as committee to select books and magazines for this library. The committee will meet in the County Judge's office on the second Saturday in January. They invite suggestions from any friends as to books that ought to be in the library. The library will be kept in the County Judge's office. We think this is a valuable move, as it gives an opportunity for self improvement along professional lines. XX.

Commence the new year with the resolve to do your best for the up-building of the town and county.

When the holidays are over and we have settled down to business again, we should all resolve to buy everything we need from our local dealers and thereby help our county and our home town.

Bad roads are reported all over central and southern Texas and the business interests of many towns have suffered because of the impassable condition of the roads, caused by the recent overflows and excessive rains.

The Waco school board is considering the advisability of segregating the sexes in the public school in that city. The board believes that the separation will be beneficial and cause all the students to give better attention to their studies.

The rains have been excessive throughout this section the last few months and have caused a great deal of inconvenience in the way of bad roads and delayed work, but we all hope that in the end we will receive benefits on account of the good season. The ground that will more than offset the damage we have suffered and the inconvenience we have endured.

The action of Gen. Villa's troops at Chihuahua and the fact that he confiscated a great amount of the property of the people who had surrendered put the constitutionalist commander in bad repute all over the country and did violence to the cause they represent. The order of Villa issued later forbidding looting and announcing that soldiers or others found guilty of looting would be executed has had the effect of reinstating the old rebel in the estimation of many.

Too many people consider the chickens as a sort of essential nuisance—essential because everybody keeps them and a nuisance because they are more trouble than they are worth. The latter is true in most cases because the birds are scrubs and unproductive and because they are merely a side line that gets little attention. There are few well managed farms however, but that have fine, profitable flocks of well-kept hens, and they contribute no small part to the pleasure of the life on the farm—Farm and Ranch.

A reception was held in Santiago, Chile, a few days ago in honor of former President Roosevelt, who was in that city. During the evening a former diplomat of that country made the statement that the Monroe doctrine was a dead issue and that conditions which caused the promulgation of the doctrine by President Monroe had entirely disappeared. The former president, while expressing regret that the controversy was necessary, vigorously denied the statement of the speaker and assured his hearers that the Monroe doctrine was still a vital principle of the foreign policy of this government.

Railroad building in Texas at the present time is at a standstill, caused chiefly by the incessant rains which have fallen all over the state during the past thirty days and construction of new mileage will continue to be hampered for some time on account of the heavy damage wrought by the recent floods. There are now eleven unfinished railroads and interurbans in Texas; eight are new steam lines and three are electric railroads. These incompleting lines suffered a hundred thousand dollars loss caused by the recent deluge, by wash-outs, misplaced and destroyed track material and bridges. Several of those roads which have only recently opened for operation also suffered severe impairment, while the total deprivation to all Texas lines in revenue loss and physical damage was approximately $2,000,000, according to authoritative information.—Commercial Secretaries.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Events of Interest From the Seat of Government.

Washington, D. C. December 20.—In these days when anything transpires connected with the development of the cattle industry and thereby causing a lowering of prices, it is watched with interest. The Department of agriculture deserves much credit for its efforts on behalf of the nation as a whole. Its branches reach out and embrace everything that will lead to the betterment of the farmer's life in his continual struggle, not only for existence, but for the betterment of his surroundings. With this end in view the Department has taken up the question of the depleted western grazing lands with their greatly reduced areas, consequent to their being thrown open for settlement. To discover what is the best vegetation for grazing purposes, extensive experiments have been carried on in these states from Canada to the Mexican border. As the result of these experiments timothy is shown to be the best adapted as well as the cheapest of the twenty-two varieties tested under this great divergence of climate conditions. Only forty-two per cent of the alfalfa and fifteen per cent of the alsike clover, respectively, gave partly or wholly satisfactory returns. No species yet tried can be economically introduced in the hot, dry foothills of California, Arizona and New Mexico where the land is distinctly arid.

Congressman Ferris of Oklahoma is the author of a bill to establish a legal holiday to be known as "good roads day," and Representatives Brynes and Stephens have measures calling for federal and state co-operation in road building. The opening of this question and the introduction of a number of bills on the subject immediately following the convening of the regular session indicates that the governors who "worked on the road" created a worthy sentiment, inasmuch as the Ferris measure is a sort of suggestion that shoveling dirt may become a social event. The other bills seek to secure substantial financial assistance from the federal government to be used in co-operating with the states and local authorities in this great work. Grave differences exist between government agencies and the advocates of highways intended almost entirely for automobile tourists. Representative Shackelford, Chairman of the House Roads Committee, has taken a pronounced stand in favor of good dirt roads that will connect up farming communities with towns, and he wants lots of them rather than routes that stretch out across great distances.

The volume of tourist travel to the Isthmus of Panama is surpassing all previous records. Almost every one in official Washington has visited the great ditch, with the exception of President Wilson, whose plans to spend the holidays in the Canal Zone have been interrupted by Congress. A convenient short cut to the Panama Canal for tourists in the south, middle west and far western states, is made possible by the special pleasure cruises sailing from New Orleans.

RADFORD'S PLATFORM.

The laws of Texas relating to business are wholly unsuited to the transactions of the farmer.

Our methods of preparing cotton for the market are wasteful and our holding plans are inadequate to meet the imperative needs of the farmer.

We must give the same care and consideration to a system of co-operative laws, extending to the farmer the facilities adapted to his business that is now afforded corporations.

Legislation should be based upon the needs of that large body of intelligent and progressive farmers that constitute the great bulk of population as well as assisting the incompetent.

Every movement and transaction of cotton from the field to the spinner should be carefully studied by the next legislature and methods of co-operation and assistance extended to meet the necessity.

Farm tenancy is the greatest menace now confronting the state and can only be checked by affording the tenant and the laborer facilities for acquiring property and reducing the high rates of interest which are now sapping the vitality of agriculture.

PETER RADFORD.

GOLDTHWAITE MAN'S LUCKY FIND

Will Interest Readers of the Eagle.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Goldthwaite man:

J. C. Fulton, Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "About three years ago I was taken down in the bed with a severe pain in the small of my back. Often I was so bad that I had to have assistance in changing from one position to another. The kidney secretions were too frequent and painful in passage and highly colored. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills, as I had often heard that they were good for kidney trouble, and I procured a box at Clements' Drug Store. I noticed improvement after I had taken a few doses, and after I had finished two boxes I was able to go back to work."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fulton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Ad)

Items Culled From the Leading Local Papers.

LOMETA

F. M. Hendley has purchased the J. A. Smith farm consisting of 320 acres. The farm is located three miles east of Lometa and is a most valuable piece of land.

Mrs. J. W. McCully and son Clarence are here from Waco to spend Christmas with Mrs. McCully's mother, Mrs. M. E. Nevans, and other relatives.

The entertainment given by the ladies of the Methodist church proved to be a most pleasant affair to those in attendance, as well as a profitable occasion for the ladies.

Work on the Masonic building just east of the railroad will be pushed as rapidly as possible and if the weather is favorable the building will be completed within the next thirty days.

Last Sunday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage Rev. Charles Doak performed the marriage ceremony that united Raymond Kirby and Miss Bertha Fisher.—Reporter.

COMANCHE

Sheriff Jack Cunningham returned Sunday from Austin, where he placed Tom Campbell, an adjudged lunatic, in the state asylum.

Work has been delayed on the new brick plant to be erected in Comanche, awaiting the pleasure of the railroad in constructing a switch to the site.

The Comanche Indians met their Waterloo in a fast game with Houston Saturday, score 20 to 0, and with it went the High School championship of the state.

According to the report of Sam Switzer, government gin reporter, 20,390 bales of cotton had been ginned in Comanche county up to Dec. 1, compared with 32,250 up to same date last year.—Chief.

HAMILTON

Last Wednesday night at the First Baptist church in this city were celebrated the solemn rites of matrimony between Mr. V. Reese, late of Waco, and Miss Edner Misener, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Misener of this city. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. B. Everett, in the presence of a large crowd of invited friends.

A most shocking affair was the death near Vista on the morning of the 8th of Miss Myrtle Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Blackburn, from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid. The young lady had gotten up before daylight and put on her clothes and then went to her mother's room for some warm water. Returning to her bedroom she changed her clothes and it is supposed immediately took the fatal drug and lay down on the bed, covering her face with a pillow. Her little sister was sent to wake her a little later, but she could not do it and when others came they found her almost gone. She died in about fifteen minutes. No reason can be assigned why she would want to take her life. She had lately been to Dallas, where she took a course in book-keeping, and was preparing for a business career. She left no note of any kind and some think she did not intend to kill herself. Her sisters heard her up during the night and could smell carbolic acid, as if she had taken some before getting enough to cause her death. We learn that her clothes that she had on when she first went to her mother's room have not been found also $15 in money that she was known to have is missing. A few days before she burned up every picture she had of herself and other circumstances seem to point to the fact that her mind may not have been just right.—Herald.

SAN SABA.

R. J. Mauldin made a business trip to Brownwood last week.

George Gartman of Goldthwaite is here visiting his sister, Mrs. J. C. Cook.

S. T. Taylor spent Sunday at Goldthwaite with his father, who has been seriously ill.

Carson Bros. have bought the machinery at the old roller mill and are enlarging and further building the warehouse at the depot.

A delightful social event of the past week was that of Wednesday afternoon, when Misses Ada Walker and Anna Martin entertained at the home of Miss Walker with a party for Miss Ruth Sanderson, who left the next day for her future home in Dallas.—News.

The committee was very successful in their canvass of the town for the relief of flood sufferers last week and something over $100 was contributed in cash in addition to other supplies.

Dennis Sullivan has the contract to move the Methodist church from its present location 200 feet north and 30 feet east. This move is for the purpose of making preparations for the erection of the new building.—Star.

LAMPASAS

Mat W. Poole has again been employed by the city of Lampasas to take care of the water department.

Dock Brown, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, was brought in from Bell county Sunday night, suffering with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Noble were here Sunday, guests in the home of Ben Peak. They will probably return here for a longer visit before going to their home in San Antonio. Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Peak are sisters.

J. G. Spradling lost a good work horse Monday night in a peculiar manner, the horse having been turned out to graze, found his way to the transfer track of the H. & T. C. at the crossing near the Hanna Springs and there fell through the trestle work hanging only by his hind feet, in which position he died and was found there Tuesday morning.

C. C. Yarborough reports that he has sold more than $200,000 worth of turkeys which his wife raised with little trouble on their place some eight miles south of Lampasas. They have some yet to sell and the entire crop will reach something like $250. This will go a long way towards providing for the wants of the family, though Mr. Yarborough raises corn, oats, cotton and other crops as well as turkeys. The best way to destroy the grasshoppers is to raise plenty of turkeys, and allow your neighbor the same privilege. The turkeys and grasshoppers do not seem to do well together, but the turkeys do well where there is a good grasshopper range.—Leader.

BROWNWOOD.

When Driller Jack Pippin of the Brownwood Oil and Gas company returned to work yesterday, after a delay of about a month, he met with a surprise when, after sending his drill down about thirty feet a good quantity of oil began flowing.

What is believed to be an immense lignite coal field has been discovered in the eastern part of Brown county, and some 900 acres have been leased by G. S. Wilson and Rice Stewart for the purpose of exploitation. The field is located on and near the 400-acre farm-ranch of J. R. Heffner, about midway between Blanket and Zephyr, and four miles from the Santa Fe railroad.

If the citizens of Brownwood will subscribe $50,000 the Synod of Texas will immediately give in cash the sum of $110,000 to Daniel Baker college, for the purpose of providing additional building and equipment and paying all the outstanding indebtedness of the institution. This news was brought from Austin by Dr. Junkin, president of the college, who has been in conference with the executive committee. It is the plan and hope of the committee and authorities of the college that Brownwood's part of this fund may be raised and construction work begun on the new building by March 1st, and that the buildings will be completed and ready for use by the opening of the next session, in September.—Bulletin.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed.

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Mrs. Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by R. E. Clements (Adv)

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

The Teachers Institute was visited Monday by Mr. T. C. Yantis and Dr. J. W. McCarver of Brownwood. These gentlemen were here in response to an invitation by Judge Allen for the purpose of directing in the organization of the Rural School Improvement League for Mills county. The organization stands for:

1. Better sanitation in the schools.
2. Better constructed and equipped school houses.
3. Better water for the children to drink.
4. Better provisions for healthful sports.
5. Better moral and physical development of the child.
6. Better kept and more attractive school grounds.
7. Better trained and more efficient teachers.
8. Better co-operation by parents and trustees.
10. Better school sentiment.

The organization will have a committee whose work shall be to visit the schools of the county, noting conditions and grading the work in the special field of their labor. Forty-two Mills county teachers entered the contest for the prizes to be given for excellence in the work. From this concert of effort and the friendly competition among teachers for first place in the county's schools, great good may be expected to result to our educational interests. XX.

MARRIED IN TEMPLE

Earl Power and Miss Aublye Taylor were married in Temple Monday night, in the presence of a few relatives. Harry Martin and wife of this city were among those attending the wedding, which was quite a surprise to the many friends of the young people in this city and at Mullin. The groom is a son of Mrs. J.G. Power of this city and is engaged in real estate business in Waco. The bride was reared at Mullin and is a daughter of W. L. Taylor of that city. She has been attending Baylor college since the opening of the fall session. They are both popular with a large circle of friends here and in other parts of the county, who join in wishing them a long life of happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Power will make their home in Waco.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

County Clerk Summy has been doing a pretty good business in the marriage license department the last few days. Since last report the following licenses have been issued: I. S. Jones and Miss Anner M. Spivey, Ferd Sullivan and Miss Eva Crawford, Sam Hammett and Miss Eula Dear, R. L. Fortune and Miss Ida Caraway, E. H. Cannon and Miss Flossie Knowles.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

To My Customers and Friends In and Around Goldthwaite:

In discontinuing my office at Goldthwaite it is with much regret, because of the very pleasant and profitable relations with you in the past. I have not sold my good will or right to practice medicine in Goldthwaite or anywhere in Texas. While I do not expect my former customers to regard me longer as their family physician, yet I will be pleased to answer any calls for professional service. This statement is made necessary because some have gotten the idea that I have sold my right and cannot again practice medicine in Goldthwaite.

While I regret to leave my practice at Goldthwaite, I am truly glad my former customers will have active and competent physicians to select from. It is needless for me to speak of my former partner, Dr. Lowrie, or of my congenial associate, Dr. Campbell. They are too well known to need my mention, but I desire to say that I have sold my office fixtures, including X-ray machine, to Dr. L. P. McCrary, for whom I have a high regard. I have made careful inquiry and I do not hesitate to recommend him as being not only a Christian gentleman, but a careful and competent physician worthy of your confidence and patronage.

I expect to have financial interests in Goldthwaite and will visit that place about once a week and will be delighted to make such visits.

Again thanking you for your former patronage, allow me to wish for you a merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous new year.

Yours truly,
M. L. BROWN, M. D.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is most pleasant to take. For sale by R. E. Clements. (Adv)

WHEN YOUR LIVER GOES WRONG

Nearly Everybody Needs a Liver Stimulant at One Time or Another.

Nearly everybody now and then is annoyed with a sluggish, lazy liver or by constipation or by biliousness.

It is for this reason that Dodson's Liver Tone is such a good medicine to keep always in the house.

Either children or grown-ups can take Dodson's Liver Tone without bad after-effects and without restriction of habit or diet. It is a vegetable liquid with a pleasant taste, but a reliever of constipation and liver troubles, and entirely takes the place of calomel.

R. E. Clements guarantees every bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone they sell. It costs 50 cents per bottle and if you are not satisfied that it is worth the money, they will hand your half dollar back with a smile.

Don't be fooled by preparations imitating the claims of Dodson's Liver Tone. Just remember R. E. Clements will give you back your money if Dodson's Liver Tone fails you. That is a guarantee that guarantees. (Ad)

NOTICE TO TAX PAYERS.

I will be at the following places on the dates given for the purpose of collecting taxes:

|               |                         |
|---------------|-------------------------|
| Star .....    | Jan. 5.                 |
| Priddy, ..... | Jan. 6.                 |
| Ebony .....   | Jan. 7 and 8.           |
| Regency ..... | Jan. 9.                 |
| Mullen, ..... | Dec. 27, Jan 10 and 17. |

I make these dates especially for the convenience of the taxpayers, but will kindly ask that if possible you call in at the office and pay your taxes, as we are much better equipped to receipt for them and collect your money than we are in the country. Then again, many times on given dates in the country the weather is so bad that the people can't turn out. So, as the time is short in which to pay your 1913 taxes and a great number of people have not yet paid, I will again ask that you drop in and pay your taxes, avoid the rush, get quicker service and give us more time to adjust and make any changes you may want made relative to the transfer of lands since your rendition was given.

All persons becoming 21 years of age after the 1st day of January, 1913, and prior to the July primary, 1914, are entitled to an Exemption Certificate, free of charge.

Very truly,
E. O. PRIDDY,
Tax Collector.

Fit His Case Exactly.

"When father was sick about six years ago he read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Tablets in the papers that fit his case exactly, writes Miss Margaret Campbell, Fort Smith, Ark. 'He purchased a box of them and has not been sick since. My sister had stomach trouble and was also benefitted by them.' For sale by R. E. Clements. (Ad)

Croup and Cough Medicine.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly that they are apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs, colds." So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists.—H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. (Ad)

PROPERTY FOR SALE.

I have the following property for sale on easy terms at reasonable prices.

CHAS. RUDD.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Depwe, Okla., writes: Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, just as I did, how good it is." And it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. At all druggists.—H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (ad)

ATTENTION.

For some time I have in various ways asked for satisfactory settlement of all notes and accounts due me. As stated before it is my purpose to discontinue my office in Goldthwaite at least for a time about Jan. 1, 1914, and possibly by Xmas. I need the money you owe me and prefer it in cash now, but if you are so situated that you cannot pay the money now you certainly can come and make satisfactory adjustment. I am addressing everybody that owes me on old or new accounts. See me in the next 3 or 4 weeks and let's adjust our business amicably. I thank all who have paid, both for their patronage and payment and want the privilege of thanking all other customers the same way.
