"The Home of Economy"

"The House with a Conscience"

J. M. Petsick of Caradan and J. F. Petsick of San Saba county were among the visitors to this city the first of the week.

Rev. R. S. Pierce was confined to his room by sickness Sunday and his pulpit in the Methodist church was filled at the 11 o'clock service by Rev. J. T. Weems.

The candidates are mixing among the voters pretty lively now and the campaign can truly be said to be "warming up." Our county and precinct candidates are all deserving and good men and the voters will have a hard time selecting the best. In fact, they are all best.

Miss Mary Lou Grundy has returned from market, where she bought a large stock of spring millinery for Geeslin Mercantile Co. The stock is beginning to arrive and Miss Grundy and her assistants will place it on display as rapidly as possible.

One strong paper in a town of 2,000 inhabitants is worth more to the town than two newspapers, and costs the people less. But a paper to be strong, must have influence, and to have influence it must have character to back it. No paper that is the "organ" of one man, or whose utterances are dictated by certain men and interests is worth anything to a community.—Hamilton Herald.

P. E. Currie, formerly of this city who was county commissioner of the Goldthwaite precinct, writes from Glen Rose to renew his subscription to the Eagle and to express his good wishes for his friends in this county. He has filled the office of sheriff and tax collector for Somervell county for some years and is a candidate for re-election. If his friends here can have their desire in the matter he will be elected by such a large majority that he will never again have an opponent for the office. He is all right and we guarantee he makes a first class officer.

A FINE PLAY.

Entertainment Delights a Large Audience—Entertainers Appreciated.

The entertainment given at the opera house last Saturday night under the auspices of the Self Culture club was a delightful success from start to finish and the audience was enthusiastic in its applause for every one taking part in the program. The play was entitled "Under the Spell" and was a strong representation of the temperance cause. Every one taking part in the play and those who assisted with specialties were at their best and the parts could not have been better rendered by professional people. In fact, few of the professional troupes visiting this city have given such genuine and universal satisfaction. A large part of the audience, no doubt, expected to make allowances for the want of experience of those in the cast, but the presentation proved that there need be no allowance for anybody. Not only did the players carry out their parts well, but they were selected with a view to their fitness for the portrayal of the characters represented. The selection was made by Mrs. J. A. Gillespie and Miss Mamie Kelley, the entertainment committee of the Self Culture club, and they have received unstinted praise for their good judgment and the careful training they gave to those taking part.

The music was rendered by an orchestra made up of some of the best musicians of the town and was along worth the price of admission. Every feature of the program was a delight and all connected with it could tell from the hearty applause that the appreciation of their efforts was genuine and enthusiastic.

The financial receipts from the entertainment were also decidedly satisfactory to those in charge and the Self Culture Club ladies. After all expenses had been paid $63.75 remain ed to be used in buying furnishings for the ladies' club room.

BETTER HIGHWAY TALK.

Bad roads are ear-marks of indolence, carelessness and cussedness.

The farmer's son gets his first lesson in profanity on the bad road.

Good roads are of equal importance to the producer, consumer and transporter.

Civilization follows the flag, but prosperity and education follow improved highways.

The question of better roads is one that effects both the fireside and the counting house.

The good roads problem is not only an economic one, but a moral and educational one as well.

Good roads are not competitors of the railroads and interurbans, they make business better for both.

HOMER D. WADE,

GROCERY STOCK SOLD.

S. P. Sullivan this week sold his grocery stock to J. C. Street and will devote his entire time to the hardware and furniture business. Mr. Street moved the Sullivan stock to his own store.

BALL INDORSED.

County Convention Held Saturday. Good Attendance.

The county convention to send delegates to the prohibition Democratic eliminating convention at Fort Worth was held in the court house and it is safe to say that a number of the voting boxes were represented. No credentials were necessary, as it was simply a mass meeting of prohibition Democrats and all favorable to the plan of eliminating all but one of the prohibition Democratic candidates for governor had an invitation to participate in the meeting.

G. W. Jackson, who issued the call for the convention, was made chairman and R. M. Thompson was elected secretary.

By an overwhelming majority the convention instructed its delegates to vote for the naming of Thos. H. Ball of Houston to be the standard bearer of the prohibition Democrats in the campaign for governor and Will H. Mayes of Brownwood was named as second choice by the convention.

G. W. Jackson and Rev. A. R. Watson were named as delegates to the convention that is to convene in Fort Worth today. E. F. Casey, J. D. Ryan, Rev. J. C. Newman, J. W. Roberts, J. W. Hill, B. F. Geeslin and R. M. Thompson were elected alternates.

A collection was taken to pay the expenses of the delegates and a committee composed of Rev. J. C. Newman, Dr. S. A. Lowrie and B. F. Geeslin was appointed to solicit funds to defray the delegates' expenses.

The convention was harmonious throughout and only two candidates made a show of strength.

J. T. Priddy returned Monday from a short visit to Temple.

H. F. Butts was a visitor from Mullin the first of the week.

Mrs. Sayles of Lampasas has been here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Allen, sr., and family.

F. F. Henry, one of the strong candidates for sheriff and tax collector, was here from Star one day this week, meeting his friends and transacting business.

Elder M. L. Vaughan of Lometa will preach in the Christian church here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and at night. The public has a cordial invitation to attend these services.

Mrs. Mankin, late of Oklahoma, who has been visiting in Lampasas and Belton for some time, has arrived in the city and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Allen, sr., and family.

Goldthwaite has a live commercial club and a live newspaper in the Eagle to boost the club and its work. The club at its last meeting decided to hold a fair some time during the year and also to place a county exhibit at the Dallas fair.—San Saba News.

T. E. Hamilton and Rolla Livingston of Star were among the visitors to this city the first of the week.

A. F. Grant returned Monday from Edenberg, Hidalgo county, where he went some weeks ago with Jess Ramsey in an auto which Mr. Ramsey bought here.

R. J. Atkinson of San Angelo wrote the Eagle editor a pressing invitation to attend the bankers convention in that city this week and we would have gladly accepted his invitation had it been within the range of possibility to do so. We appreciated it very much, however, and will look forward with hope and pleasure to a visit to our friends in that thriving city at no far distant day.

McKINLEY-CORRIGAN COMPANY

The Store of Goldthwaite

To The People Of Mills County:

When I announced for Railroad Commissioner, I stated that I would borrow the money from the farmers to make the campaign on. I wish to modify this statement to read: "From the citizens of Mills county." I announced without your advice; therefore, I do not want any man to spend a cent in my behalf.

I must have some money to finance my campaign. I want you to help myself and wife borrow fifteen hundred dollars. Five hundred of this amount will be used to pay a debt I owe, leaving one thousand to be used in my campaign.

I have secured four months leave of absence from the Company, which will allow me ample time to make a thorough campaign. If I am defeated, I will return to my old position and remain until you run me away or I am moved without my permission by the Company. I will retire on April 15 and begin an active campaign. Between now and that time I will square all my bills around town from my salary.

I want to make a note for fifteen hundred dollars, due two years from March 1, with the usual rate of interest, to be signed by myself and wife. This in order that, if I should die before the note is paid, she will be required to pay it from our Life Insurance, which amounts to four thousand in old line companies; with a provision that I may take up the note any time that I can get the money. If I am elected --and I am confident I will be-- I will take it up in the first year; otherwise I will have to pay it monthly from my salary as agent, which will require two years and allow us to live. This salary has averaged twenty-one hundred dollars per year for the past ten years. Since the parcel post has cut the rates it will average eighteen hundred per year for some time to come. If the note should run two years it would amount to just one year's salary.

All I have to secure this note with is my word of honor, backed up by the duties I owe my wife and two little girls. I will not ask anyone personally to sign the note with us, because I know that most of those whose names would help me have been imposed on and have taken a pledge not to sign notes with their own brothers--for which I cannot blame them. That is my reason for asking your help in this manner--so that you can volunteer your help and not have to be embarrassed by refusing, which you would probably hate to do. You can rest assured that I will not ask anyone to help me further than this effort.

Any man in Mills county that wants to help us out in this manner advise me before March 1. I presume I can have a special form of note drawn up that will permit all to sign who wish to help me, so that the risk will not be great on anyone. If neither of our banks will cash the note, I will succeed in having it cashed some place.

If there is a living man can tell you that I owe him a penny for which I have not made satisfactory arrangements, or if you can learn of any act or deed done by me from my infancy that would cause you to believe I would not make a Railroad Commissioner that Mills county would be proud to claim, don't help us. If you think from what you have learned of me that I am qualified and would be an honor to Mills county, come to my assistance and I assure you that you will never have cause to regret your action.

AUTO TURNED OVER

Bell Tullos' auto turned over about a mile west of Zephyr Saturday night and the passengers were all thrown out, but none were seriously hurt. Bell and Jim Tullos, accompanied by two young ladies, were en route home from Brownwood in the auto and in turning a sharp curve at too great a speed the wheels "skidded" and the car was overturned. The two young men were slightly bruised about the face, and Jim was rendered unconscious for a few moments, but the ladies were unhurt, except for being thoroughly frightened.

The only damage to the car was a broken axle and this was not a serious damage.

The car was large and of heavy power, which makes it indeed remarkable that no one was hurt in the accident. The young man who was doing the driving states that this accident learned him to go slow on turns, which is an exceedingly good idea, as other auto drivers can testify.

Bell Tullos, owner of the car, called this week and gave the Eagle an account of the accident.

JUNIOR CLUB ENTERTAINED

On Friday evening, Feb. 13, 1914, the S. D. Club was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Forehand, with Miss Lucille Forehand as hostess. Progressive games were enjoyed the first hour. When time was called Misses Bonnie Frizzell and Maggie Ross held highest score and in the draw Miss Maggie Ross was successful and received a box of bonbons in heart shape. Miss Belle Harper received the consolation prize—a candy heart. Delightful refreshments were served, which consisted of hot chocolate cake. Dishes of delicious home-made candy were on the tables during the games.

The club is organized of the girls of the junior class of the high school. The membership list is composed of the following: Maggie Ross, Lucille Forehand, Bonnie Frizzell, Josephine Gartman, Georgia Frizzell, Sophia Martin, Anna Belle Wood, Myrtle Randles, Little Ruth Allen, Eva Allen, Ruby D. Hearne, Ruby Keese, Belle Harper. REPORTER.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the health of the community is dependent to a considerable extent upon the sanitary conditions and the appearance of the city is made much more attractive by cleanliness. And, whereas, the ladies of the Self Culture club and others have determined to co-operate with the civic improvement societies of the state in observing a state "clean-up" day on March 10:

Therefore, I, as mayor of Goldthwaite, do hereby designate March 10, 1914, as Clean Up Day in the said city. On that day all citizens are requested to co-operate in the good and beneficial work by clearing their premises and vacant lots of all trash, tin cans, etc. Those who place scrapings from their premises in some convenient receptacle can have the same removed by the city wagon upon application of the scavenger, the city marshal or myself. Rocks and scrapings from stables and cow lots will not be hauled free, but trash that can not be burned will be hauled free.

Immediately after the date designated as clean up day the city marshal will be required to make an inspection of all premises, cow lots, stables and vacant lots and report to the recorder the names of all persons whose premises are not in proper sanitary condition.

If every citizen will co-operate in this work we will continue to have a clean and healthy town and will thereby be well repaid for the labor and expense. JAS. RAHL, Mayor.

A WINTER COUGH.

A stubborn, annoying depressing cough hangs, racks the body, weakens the lungs, and often leads to serious results. The first dose of Dr. King's New Discovery gives relief. Henry D. Sanders of Cavendish, Vt., was threatened with consumption, after having pneumonia. He writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery ought to be in every family; it is certainly the best of medicines for coughs, colds or lung trouble." Good for children's coughs. Money back if not satisfied. Price 50c and $1.00. Recommended by R. E. Clements. (ad)

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

Young Man Killed When His Horse Falls—Companions Unhurt.

Jesse Henry, the 17-year-old son of Mr. Wiley Henry of the Democrat community, was fatally injured last Friday night near his home when the horse he was riding fell with him.

Young Henry and a number of companions were returning home from an entertainment at the school house and were running their horses. The horse that was in front stumbled and fell to his knees and two or three other horses struck the animal and fell, among them Jesse Henry's horse. The young man was behind the others when the first horse fell and his horse must have fallen over all the rest, for it was in front after the accident. Young Henry was thrown to the ground violently and it is thought his skull was fractured and perhaps a blood vessel was ruptured. The sympathy of those who know of the terrible accident goes out to the bereaved family. Jesse was a fine young man and had a great many friends, some of whom live in this city and they were all grieved when they heard of the accident.

WANTS A FRANCHISE.

The regular meeting of the City Council last night was attended by a large number of citizens, a sprinkling of lawyers, and representatives of the West Texas Telephone company and the Brown Telegraph and Telephone company. The reason for this increased interest was the fact that at that session of the council the Brown Telegraph and Telephone company intended to formally present a franchise for a second telephone exchange here. No action was taken on the proposed franchise, further than to place it on its first reading and refer it to the ordinance committee; but about two hours was given over to a discussion of the subject by representatives and friends of both sides. The council finally decided to set aside Tuesday night, Feb. 24, for further argument of the franchise.

Unusual interest is shown by citizens in the proposition for a second telephone exchange here. The Brown company got into city politics some time ago when application was made for permission to enter Brownwood with long distance lines. The application was refused by the council, and after a long and expensive fight in the courts of the state the Brown company won a decision and brought its lines into town. Many can foresee a similar fight, with possibly a similar result, in case the council refuses to grant the franchise now asked for.—Brownwood Bulletin.

LEBAM, WASHINGTON.

Editor Eagle:

As I see nothing in your paper from the state of Washington, I will try to impart a few words that may be of interest to the grand old Bird.

The town of Lebam is situated on the Willapa river, about fifteen miles from Grays Harbor, on Willapa bay, and the Northern Pacific railroad runs through it. The chief industry is the lumber industry. This town has a population of about two thousand, and all of the laboring class, of which about three hundred and fifty men are employed in the saw mill and logging camp of the Cace and Brown Lumber Co. The mill here has the capacity of one hundred and seventy five thousand feet of lumber per day. Wages range from $2.50 per day to $5.00, and all people who want work and good pay for it can do well here. I will now give you a few of the dots in the timber of Washington. The principal are fir, cedar, spruce, hemlock. The fir grows to be very large from which the principal lumber is cut.

The climate here is very mild; health good; the water the best that I have ever had the pleasure of drinking. In fact, this is the best place for a poor man I have ever dropped down in.

I will now give you a few outlines of my trip out here. From Ardmore, Oklahoma, to Denver, Colo., was a snow covered plain. From Denver to Salt Lake City via Grand Canyon was a way of many sights. The view of Pikes Peak over the swinging bridge at Manitou, Cal., Ledville, with its high elevation; stopped at Salt Lake City, Utah, and saw a few of the many sights of that noted city, passed through the renowned city of Ogden, then down the Columbia river to Portland, Oregon; thence over the Oregon short line to Lebam, Wash, where I am now located and will say that of all the grand sights I saw on my trip was the state house at Denver, Colo., which was one of the finest buildings I ever had the pleasure of viewing.

Wishing the Eagle and the editor the best success, I am, A. F. SHAW.

Don't fail to read the story of ideas and ideals helping humanity.—Adv.

WHEN IS A MAN OLD

A short time ago there was in one of the eastern states an unique gathering of men, all of whom had lived to be more than 70 years of age. It was unique, also, in that, according to a published report, all those who attended were at the time actively engaged in some important work, and all testified to their ability to do as efficient work as when they were many years younger.

In this gathering were statesmen, bankers, lawyers, doctors, editors, ministers, teachers and representatives of other classes, all of whom were hale and hearty, their minds vigorous and their bodies reasonably healthy, and they all looked forward to several more years of general usefulness, and they asked: Why should the ability of a person of three score and ten to do good work be questioned.

The idea that a man of three score years has outlived his period of useful activity is due in a measure to the widespread humorous references to an alleged statement by Dr. Osler of Baltimore a few years ago—a statement which he has frequently repudiated—but the reports of which appear to have had more or less influence on the minds of many as to the time at which one's best years are over.

The constructive science of our day sets no age limit to a man's usefulness. Some men from dissipation, wrong habits of life, or inherited infirmities are disqualified from active pursuits under two score years, while others are physically active and mentally strong and forceful at four score. The consensus of opinion is clearly that age is not a matter of years, that right living, temperament and will power are the determining factors in the prolongation of a man's usefulness, while the calendar has comparatively little to do with the matter up to the age at which the human machinery naturally and inevitably wears out, and this may be somewhere near the century mark for men who have conserved their energies and have absolutely refused to grow old before their time.—San Antonio Express.

VALENTINE PARTY FOR THE BACHELOR MAIDS CLUB.

The members of the Bachelor Maids club assembled at the beautiful Martin home on Parker Street on last Friday evening for one of the prettiest and most successful social meetings which the club has to its credit. At this event Miss Lillie Martin and Mrs. L. A. Skaggs were postesses.

Coming as it did on Valentine eve, the heart motif was contributed by Cupid for the enrichment of this pretty scene. In a booth charmingly decorated with red and white hearts, Miss Sophia Martin served delicious iced punch. Informality was prevalent and a jolly heart forfeit game supplied the vehicle of amusement. Miss Williamson was the only successful member in this game and was awarded a dainty Valentine calendar.

The doors of the main parlor were then thrown open and within was beheld an improvised postoffice, decked with gay hearts and ribbons. When the company was seated in this room who should appear but the "King of Postoffices" Uncle Sam who was in reality Miss Sophia Martin, dressed in a suit of stars and stripes. The postoffice was then opened and each one received a Valentine bearing instructions to seek the "Goddess of Spoonology." This charming personage proved to be Mrs. Harry Martin, who reigned in a picturesque booth ornamented with hearts and drapings of yellow and white, the club colors. Here each couple of partners purchased two tiny spoons, using miniature hearts for money. The spoons for each couple were tied together with yellow ribbons and had to be used in eating the refreshments without being untied.

The yellow and white of the "spoonology booth" were further in evidence in the decoration of the entire dining room. The polished table was overlaid with a white lace cover over yellow. Crystal and gold holders bore the unshaded white tapers. In the center of the table resting on a bed of yellow daisies was a mirror on which was placed a cut glass vase of daisies. Suspended above the table was a large Japanese parasol draped with hearts of yellow and white.

A delicious ice course was served, which also carried out the color scheme with apricots and angel cake. Only a few invited guests were present, but every provision for pleasure was made for the entire company and each one expressed their appreciation of the privilege of being participants in the pleasures XX.

While engaged in the trial of a man in San Antonio charged with murder one of the jurors became insane and the case had to be withdrawn from the jury and continued Monday.

A number of citizens of Falls county stormed the jail at Marlin Saturday night for the purpose of hanging two negro rape fiends, but the sheriff had already removed the prisoners from the jail and they could not be found by the searchers.

State Treasurer Kennedy of New York suicided Sunday by cutting his throat with a razor. He had been summoned to appear in a graft investigation and it is supposed that he killed himself rather than face the investigation. A full audit of his books has been ordered by the governor.

The statement of Hon. Sheb. Williams that Texas needs another Richard Coke for governor is exactly true. At this time a master hand is needed to steer the ship of state. The job is too big for mediocres and men of small ability and no experience in governmental affairs. The man who can take charge of the executive office and give the state an economical and wise administration will immortalize himself.

Senator Bacon of Georgia died in the hospital in Washington last Saturday. He had been suffering several weeks with kidney trouble, but the immediate cause of his death was given as blood clot on the heart. Senator Bacon was the first senator to be elected by a direct vote of the people and since the Democrats secured control of that branch of the national legislative body had been chairman of the foreign relations committee. He had been a member of the senate for about twenty years.

There will be a gathering of prohibition Democrats in Fort Worth today for the purpose of naming a standard bearer for that faction of the party in the gubernatorial campaign which is already beginning to warm up. This convention has no authority to force any man to retire from the race, but the one who submits his name to the convention and is defeated, then attempts to make the race anyway will have cause to regret the act the balance of his life. A man who is of enough consequence to be considered a possibility in the campaign cannot afford to "bolt" the convention.

Gen. Villa announces that positively he will not be a candidate for the presidency of Mexico. He states that it would be an act of a traitor to attempt to defeat Gen. Carranza for the position, and he declares that he is a soldier and not a statesman. His plans for the military policy of the government is for the soldiers to be put to work for three days in every week and given three days in each week for military training. He says the people need work and the work will aid in developing the country. The outlook is that the constitutionalists will gain control of the government in the near future, but it remains to be seen how long they will hold it.

This is the open season for candidates and many tents have already been pitched in the happy hunting grounds. Every citizen is entitled to the right of liberty and the pursuit of office, and to his turn to pull at the tail feathers of the American Eagle and hear the National bird scream out its verdict. From the platform of those who would guide our destinies, large flocks of political disturbances have arisen and some strange birds are making their flight. But before the season closes many candidates will hold up a white feather and the pursuit of office will lose its charm and there will be some wiser as well as poorer men returning from the hunt.—T. E. M. Association.

STAR.

Mr. Editor, I wish to apologize to Prof. W. A. Jeter and the school in general for a false statement I made last week in regard to the church house being damaged by the school children. I thought I had been reliably informed and did not at the time think of the statement reflecting upon the credit of either the teacher or the pupils; aiming at the truth only. I have since been told by absolutely reliable informants that not only is the statement false but that Prof. Jeter stands ready to pay any damage that might have been done while he was teaching in the church house. I am glad that the statement was not true because it uplifts Prof. Jeter still higher in the opinion of the many good friends he has here. Prof. Jeter is one of the ablest teachers we have had in the history of Star and we are all proud of him.

The young people enjoyed singing at the home of Elmer Tubbs Sunday night.

Ode Sargent of Pottsville is here visiting his sister, Mrs. T. E. Hamilton, and family. He is moving on the Colorado river.

The Star Commercial club met in regular session last Thursday night. Important business was discussed and prospects seem favorable for another mercantile establishment here. A committee composed of T. E. Hamilton, F. N. Baker, W. L. Boykin and R. H. Patterson was appointed for the purpose of requesting McKinley & Corrigan to locate a branch house here. A letter from a newspaper man was read before the club and if we can get McKinley & Corrigan here we will be able to support a newspaper.

The young people enjoyed a Valentine party at the home of Mr. Chas. Bowman last Saturday night.

The Woodmen met in called session last Saturday. The attendance was slim and no business transacted.

The choir met in regular session last Wednesday night at the home of Miss Ada Morris. Our choir is advancing rapidly and we are doing some fine singing.

The young people enjoyed a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. M. J. Peck last Saturday night. Games and contests were engaged in and everybody enjoyed the occasion very much.

The Star Music Club met in regular session last Friday night. This night being election night the following officers were elected: B. P. Goode, president; J. E. Peck, vice-president; Miss Arie Slaughter, secretary; Prof. W. A. Jeter, treasurer; Mrs. G. D. Burney, corresponding secretary; Mason Goode, sentinel. The following standing committees were re-appointed: Program committee—Mrs. G. D. Burney, Mrs. Dora Goode, Miss Arie Slaughter. Membership Committee—Prof. W. A. Jeter, W. E. Peck, Miss Ethel Soules. A motion was made and carried that a committee be appointed to get up and give an entertainment for the purpose of raising funds to get some song books, etc. This being done, the following committee was appointed: J. E. Peck, D. I. Hawkins, Miss Donald Oldfield, Mrs. Dora Goode.

The young people enjoyed a party at the home of Dr. Brooking last Saturday night. Refreshments were served and the young folks enjoyed themselves heartily.

Four hearts beat in happy unison last Sunday evening when Mr. Grover Stanley and Miss Mabel Knowles, and Mr. Otis Knowles and Miss Viola Keith drove to McGirk and were happily united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Hall.

Prof. Jeter, our popular and efficient high school principal, was gladdened by the good attendance at the Sunday school last Sunday. Prof. Jeter is also our Sunday school superintendent. Nine members were added to our ranks last Sunday.

Mr. E. Garrett's home a short distance east of Star caught fire last Sunday morning. By quick and calm work the fire was soon extinguished, however, and the damage was not very much. Mr. Garrett should be congratulated on his escape. It is supposed the fire started from a defective flue. STAR REPORTER.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF LEVERETT-PAYNE WEDDING.

On Friday evening, Feb. 13, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leverett's beautiful home was opened to a number of guests, with Miss Mary Leverett as hostess, who greeted all with a cordial welcome. The crowd was entertained by music on the player piano by Master Coalter Leverett for quite a while. Then rice was passed to all and they were then asked to pass into another room. In walked Mr. Mark H. Leverett and Miss Dula Payne, preceded by Mrs. W. H. Leverett, who in her charming way introduced them as her son and daughter, which was a great surprise to everyone, as they had been married for some time and it had been kept secret. The bride and groom were then given the heartiest congratulations and wishes for a long, prosperous and happy life.

The groom is one of Mills county's most popular and accomplished young men and has resided here all his life and has a host of friends to wish him a most successful and happy life. He is a fine young man with every prospect for a long and useful life. With his determination and efforts, we are sure he and his bride will enjoy a happy life.

The bride is one of our public school teachers from Talpa, Texas and has made a host of friends since she has been here to wish her success.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Leverett will make their home here until Mrs. Leverett's school closes, then they will go to the coast to make their home permanently. A GUEST.

These young people were married by Judge Allen in the district court room two weeks ago, but only a very few people were advised of the happy event, the young folks having determined to keep the marriage a secret until the close of the Midway school, which is being taught by the bride.

Mark Leverett is a son of Mr. W. H. Leverett and is a young man of high character and is in every way worthy. He was reared in Mills county and has scores of friends and well wishers. The bride has only been here a short time, having come here from Coleman to teach the school at Midway. She has made a great many friends in that community and is a lady of education and culture.

The Eagle joins with the other friends of the young couple in extending congratulations and good wishes.

AN INTERESTING STORY.

How a Big Idea and a High Ideal is Helping Humanity.

(Synopsis of Preceding Chapters: A dozen years ago Louis Liggett was a traveling man calling on the drug trade. Being a high-minded, square fellow, something of a dreamer and idealist besides a good business man, he became disgusted and distressed at the unwholesome conditions existing in the drug trade, and conceived a plan for their betterment, which in a few years revolutionized things, raised the standard of efficiency and medical purity and resulted in 5,000 of the best pharmacists in the country uniting in an organization known as the Rexall Druggists. These 5,000 druggists stand unflinchingly for the ideas and ideals upon which Lou Liggett worked out his vision and render distinct and invaluable services in the communities in which they are established.)

CHAPTER IV.

And now comes the most interesting and wonderful part of our story, yet the hardest to tell.

It was easy for you to imagine Lou. You know such men—big, broad, frank, high-minded—men whose mere grip of the hand and the wholesome spirit they radiate, inspire and uplift you. Yes, it was easy for you to imagine Lou—and you'd like to meet him.

Then, his idea and his ideal, you grasped those, too. You realized the bigness and significance of them—what they mean to you—your family and humanity. You admitted and applauded.

You saw still more. You appreciated that, great as was Lou's idea and ideal, he would have been quite helpless without his army of 5,000 Rexall druggists, and you have come, we believe, to have a profound respect for these 5,000 men who have loyally stood by and helped Lou realize his dream—helped him help humanity.

Yes, all this has been easy for you to grasp, but it will take more imagination than any one man possesses for you to realize from any printed description the wonderful—the marvelous—the stupendous things that are going on in the laboratories of the United Drug Company at Boston—the birthplace of the more than 300 Rexall Remedies.

As you arrive, you are almost awed by the magnitude of the place. Acres upon acres of floor space; yet still too small, and additions now being built. When you stop to think that here are made over 300 remedies and enough of each kind to supply 5,000 druggists, you begin to realize the magnitude of the proposition.

Spotless cleanliness—absolute—unvarying—almost incredible, is your first impression on entering. You see hundreds of men and girls, all so clean and neat, you wonder how they keep so.

You go to the chemist's laboratory. You see earth, floral and animal products from all parts of the world. You are told that they are each the best that money can buy and science extract. You marvel at the care—the almost over-care with which the formulae are chosen and prescriptions filled, yet that is part of the ideal.

Now to the label department. Yes, the labels are different. Printed in large type, clear and readable. Note that every ingredient is specified and the sentences are not twisted with intent to evade and mislead. Note, also, that no one remedy will relieve or cure everything. Rexall Remedies are not "cure-alls." Each one is designed to meet and correct a specific disease. When you reach the guarantee you are convinced. You read:

The United Drug Company and the Rexall Store selling this preparation guarantee it to give satisfaction; if it does not go back to the store where you bought it and get your money. It belongs to you and we want you to have it.

It strikes you that here is sincerity and truth. Here is a man—a company that establishes a business on an ideal and sticks to the ideal. Not mere preaching, but actual practice.

And so you wander on through room after room. As you go your wonder increases. Everywhere is evidence of the completeness with which Lou's idea and ideal has been worked out in every department cleanliness, purity order care. Not for a moment is carelessness permitted.

remedy is made in the Rexall laboratory and not one untruthful, misleading or exaggerated statement is made concerning them.

When next in Boston don't fail to visit in person the Rexall laboratory, for it is one of the wonders of the world—one of the most interesting spots in that historic city.

This, then, in brief, is the story of the Rexall Remedies—the most notable and significant achievements in medicine in the 20th century.

Rexall Remedies were conceived by a man with an idea and an ideal. They were developed out of the combined experience of 5,000 of the best druggists in the country.

Rexall Remedies maintain their supremacy and their sole increase because a big idea and a high ideal, sustained, upheld and promoted by honor and integrity, cannot fail of ultimate and splendid success.

CONSTIPATION MAY CAUSE APPENDICITIS.

It Pays to Be Watchful and Careful. Dodson's Liver Tone is Recommended and Guaranteed.

In a number of cases it has seemed that appendicitis has resulted from chronic constipation. Hence it is well to be careful and keep the system in as good working order as possible, for if you never suffer from constipation you are likely to lessen your liability to other complications and troubles.

But that does not mean that it is wise for you to use calomel, a poison that stays in the system and often leaves bad effects behind it, even after you may have appeared to be benefitted temporarily. As a matter of fact, calomel is exceedingly dangerous to many people, perhaps to you. So it is just as well not to take chances.

For constipation, biliousness, liver complaint, sick headache, etc., Dodson's Liver Tone is guaranteed by R. E. Clements, who will cheerfully refund purchase price (50c) instantly to you in the event that it fails to give complete satisfaction.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liquid, perfectly harmless, easy to take and highly effective without pain, ache or gripe and leaving no bad after-effects. It assists nature and builds you up instead of weakening you. So many people have been immensely benefitted by this good remedy that it's worth your looking into at once. Make no mistake—ask for Dodson's Liver Tone.—Advertisement.

HORSE OWNERS.

The horse is the principal motive power of the farm and therefore requires the best attention. If he does not thrive or eat well, have his teeth attended to. Bad teeth and improper mastication causes more disturbance than any other trouble; causes acute indigestion, colic and diseases of the alimentaries and many other troubles. A stitch in time may save the worth of your horse. Spend a few dollars on your horse before he gets down or is disabled. Bring your horse to me and have him examined and treated. I will be in Goldthwaite the second Saturday in each month to do all classes of veterinary work. Examination free.—Dr. O. M. Walters, Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist, San Saba, Texas.

If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. Many very remarkable cures of stomach trouble have been effected by them. For sale by all dealers. (Adv)
