PLEASANT GROVE MARRIAGE

Walter T. Reed and Miss Ruth Webb were married last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Pleasant Grove community. There was a large company of friends and relatives present to witness the ceremony. Rev. J. H. Frizzell of this city was the officiating minister and after the marriage a delightful dinner was served to the assembled guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. F. D. Webb and has a great many admiring friends. The groom is a prosperous farmer of the Atherton neighborhood and is highly recommended by those who know him. The young couple will make their home in the Atherton community.

MOVES TO LOMETA

L. A. Skaggs, who has been employed as prescription clerk in R. E. Clements' drug store in this city for several years, has purchased the Kirby & Son drug store in Lometa and will move to that city and take charge of the business in the next few days. Mr. Skaggs is a graduate in pharmacy, a good business man and a very clever gentleman and his business associates and friends regret very much his removal from the city. The many friends of his family also regret their departure. Mrs. Skaggs will especially be missed from the social and ladies club circles. The good family have the best wishes of all their friends.

COTTON POOL

The cotton holding plan of the Texas Bankers' Association was placed on a permanent basis at a meeting at Dallas last week when the movement was officially endorsed by officials of the Texas Farmers' Union. This union on the part of the growers of cotton and the men who finance the crop, is considered by conservative business men as the most encouraging step in the cotton holding movement and it is believed that the culmination of the plan in bringing together these two forces will have an immediate effect of restoring the cotton situation to a normal basis. Commercial Secretaries.

Henry Martin and family made an automobile trip to Brownwood Sunday.

G. B. Brown and family were here from Killeen Sunday, visiting relatives.

If you have visitors or know of any other local items, write, phone, or tell the Eagle.

Miss Daisy Nelson of Lometa visited Mrs. Leonard Skaggs in this city a part of the week.

S. T. Weathers has purchased Leonard Skaggs' residence in the southern portion of the city.

Will H. Trent and wife visited in Brownwood the first of the week. They made the trip in their automobile.

The Baptist fifth Sunday meeting convened at Ebony Thursday night and will continue its session today and tomorrow.

Ed. Willis and his mother, Mrs. P. T. Willis, of Priddy, went to San Angelo Tuesday for a visit to Dr. Lewis and family.

Rev. J. D. Long was here Monday en route home from Long Cove, where he had been to fill his regular appointment.

H. G. Bodkin and wife made a trip to Hamilton in their auto Sunday and spent the day with W. T. Little and family.

K. W. Eubanks will hereafter receive the Eagle at Lopaloma, Texas, by order of his brother-in-law, W. L. Burks, of this city.

W. A. Meiser of Belton, a prominent real estate owner, who has considerable property in this county, was here Saturday looking after business matters.

J. G. Jones, one of the prosperous and progressive young farmers of Center City community, was a pleasant caller at the Eagle office one day this week.

E. M. Meyer, one of the prosperous merchants of Priddy, transacted business in this city last Saturday and made the Eagle a pleasant business visit.

Fred J. Williams of San Angelo was appointed trustee of the stock of the Geeslin Mercantile Co. by the referee in bankruptcy, Mr. Dumas, and has been busy this week making an inventory of the property.

G. G. Clements and family have moved from Indian Gap to Big Valley and will make their home on the Burnett farm. His daughter, Miss Gertrude, entered the Goldthwaite High school this week. She is a graduate of the Indian Gap school.

The Eagle very much regrets a mistake last week which made us say the Baptist Ladies Aid Society would have charge of the Picture show one night next week, when we should have said the Mothers and Teachers club. The announcement was given us over the phone and in some unaccountable way it was written down wrong.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Pass of the Bayou country were pleasant callers at the Eagle office last Saturday and Mrs. Pass presented us with some of the finest turnips we ever saw. They averaged 22 inches in circumference and some of them had two "sets" of greens or tops. They were of the purple top variety and were delightful. We certainly appreciated the kindness and thoughtfulness of the lady.

Will Woody has been employed as prescription clerk in Clements' drug store and will enter upon his duties next week. He is a graduate of pharmacy and has had considerable experience in the business. He is at present employed in Kirby & Son's drug store in Lometa and comes here to take the position made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Skaggs. He is a very popular young man and his return to this city is decidedly pleasing to his many friends.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.

Editor Eagle:

Another Thanksgiving day is drawing near, and I realize each day, as it approaches the many blessings showered upon me from that source from which all blessings flow, the Divine Father.

Think of a woman seventy-eight years on her earthly pilgrimage; blessed as I am, with all my faculties in fairly good condition, my eyesight and my hearing are remarkably preserved; but then, I am not old.

For in me a fountain flows
And round me pleasant thoughts repose.
And sympathies and feeling high
Spring like stars from the evening sky.

Yesterday, the 18th, as I was quietly pondering along this line of thought in the silence of my own room, my daughter, Mrs. White, came to the door with the mournful tidings just received from Ella V. through the phone that her father-in-law, Mr. Brown, sr., had passed away. He had been ill for more than a month, and while the physicians had pronounced him in a hopeless condition, the summons was not expected so soon. Another good man has gone to his eternal rest. Such is life. Flowers of sadness as oftentimes intermingled with those of gladness. How sweet to say, "O Lord thy will be done."

The Eagle has added another blessing to the many I have already been the recipient of thru the years by reporting three of my former pupils as members of the senior class in Goldthwaite High school, Norman and Lucille Grisham and J. D. Lowe. Once more I was with these dear pupils and others of Mills county, that was my great pleasure to teach in days gone by. Pleasure? Yes! Why? because I had the best and smartest children in Texas and they are still dear to me.

This recalls to my mind Thanksgiving day in 1901 when my pupils in Mullin entertained their parents and friends so beautifully. Two of those sweet children since that time have joined the Angel choir in "The Holy City of the Lord," where they are constantly singing songs of praise before the "Great White Throne." Yes, Burnett Chesser and Vera Butts are in a happier, brighter sphere than this old world. That each one of our little band as we respond to the call may be prepared to meet these dear ones in that realm of light is the fervent prayer of their first teacher.

To those kind friends who now and then remember me with a letter I extend loving thanks. Especially am I delighted with the hope, that if I am spared, I will be granted the pleasure of greeting them and others in 1915. I shall expect the Eagle to be represented by the Editor, his staff and "better-half." I will close by wishing for the readers of the Eagle a pleasant Thanksgiving Day. G. V. M.

SANTA CLAUS AS A FIRE BUG

Santa Claus has done his full share toward bringing misery as well as merriment to this world. The candle on the Christmas tree has contributed its full quota toward making a heap of ruins out of what was a home of happiness.

It is not the nature of Santa Claus to sow seeds of sorrow. Why not induce this dear old gentleman to join the ranks of fire preventers?

Don't permit your own neglect to be saddled on Santa Claus. Don't permit your Christmas merriment to wind up in smoke and flame and ashes and despondency. It is far better that common sense be used as a seasoning for Christmas cheer than it is to have the spirit of the season made unsavory with bitter tears of regret.

In every little Christmas tree candle there is danger—State Fire Marshal.

W. E. Reid was here from Center City one day this week, transacting business, and made the Eagle a pleasant call.

Next Tuesday is to be "Turkey Day" in Goldthwaite and the price offered for turkeys is decidedly attractive.

The schools of the county will be closed next week, because of the teachers being in attendance upon the Institute in this city.

Mrs. J. M. Arnold and daughters and Mrs. M. E. Ebers and little son went to Killeen Wednesday for a visit to relatives and friends.

The box supper in the Scott building last Saturday night by the members of the Epworth League was a success, socially as well as financially.

Miss Lida Thompson arrived from Dallas Wednesday morning to spend a few days with her mother and other relatives. She is the Dallas representative of the Tyler Commercial College and is doing a fine work.

The Santa Fe railroad will establish a through Pullman car service between New Orleans and San Francisco, via Goldthwaite beginning Jan. 1. This is the shortest route between the Gulf and Pacific ocean and the sleeping car service will be the longest through service in the United States.

The United States troops evacuated Vera Cruz, Mexico, Monday and the constitutionalist authorities took charge of the district. The people of this government are glad that President Wilson has withdrawn the troops and it is sincerely hoped he will not again have cause or inclination to send the army or any part of it to that country.

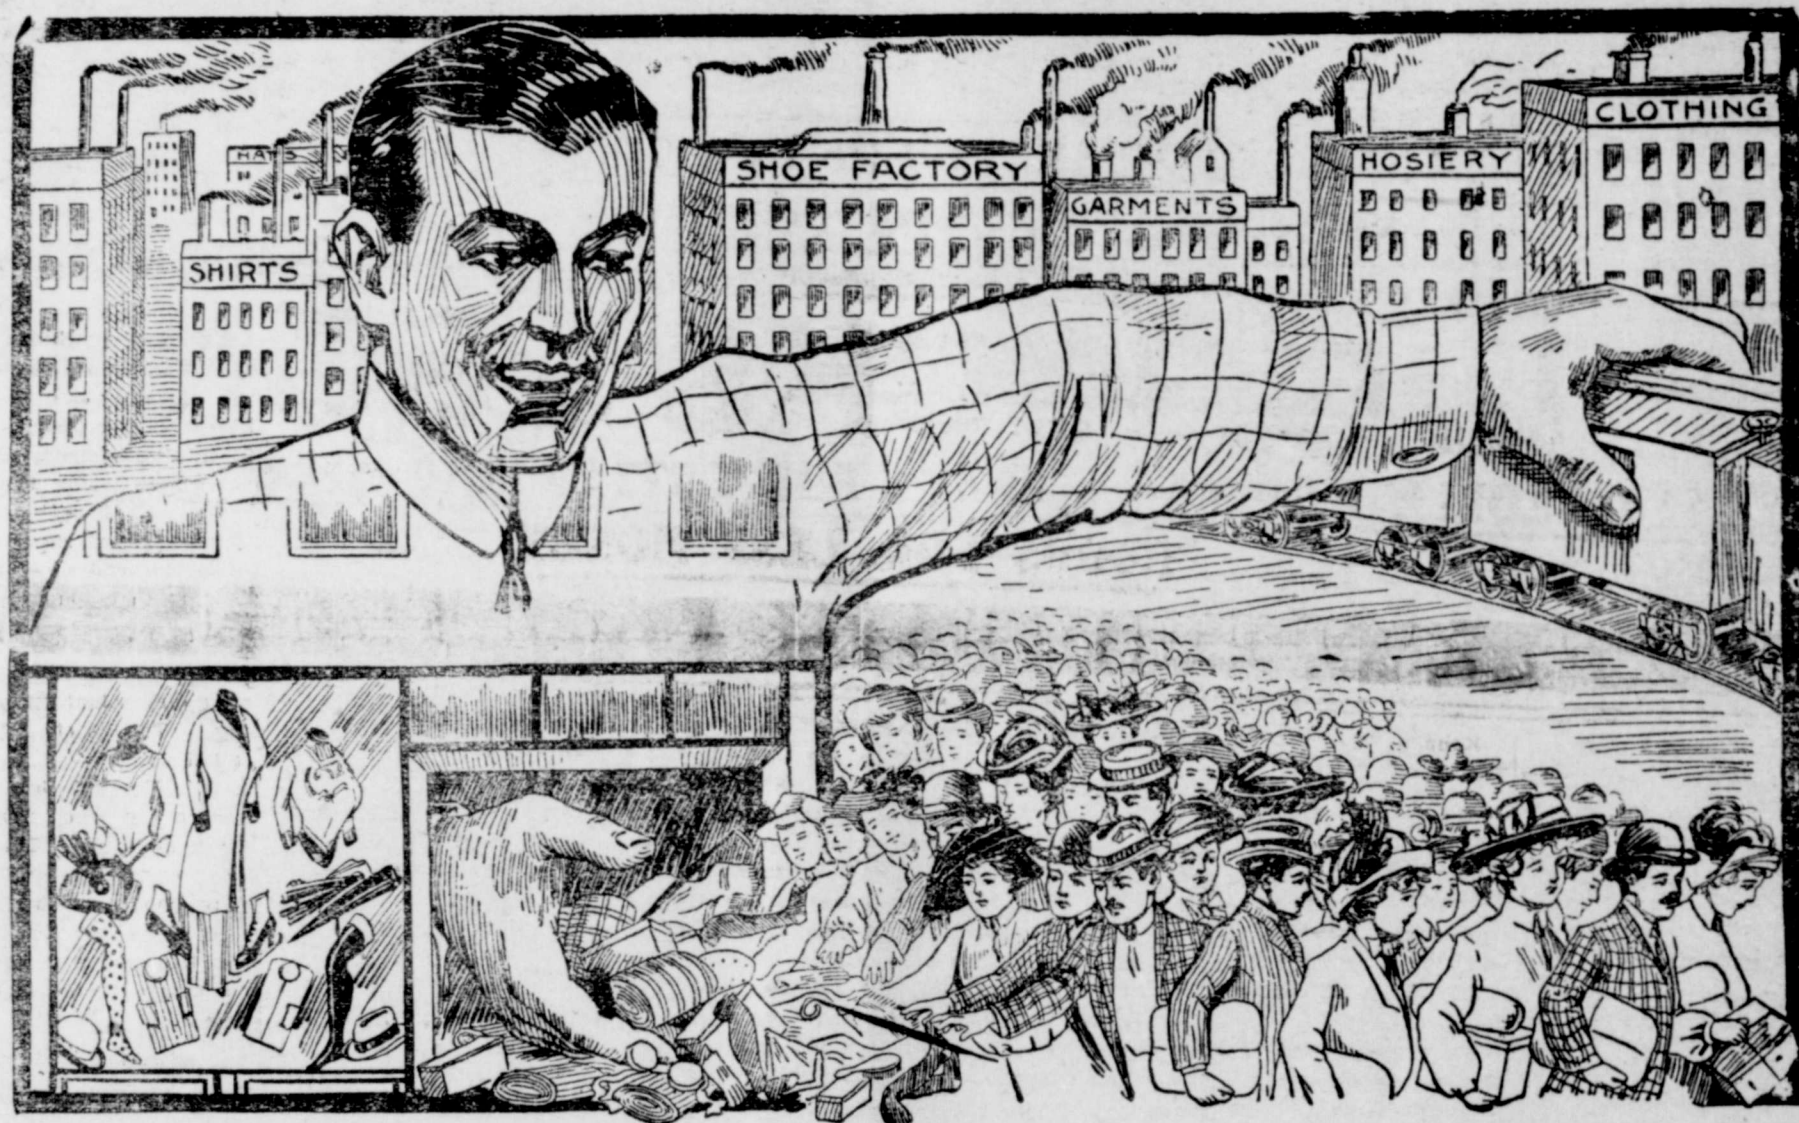

J. C. Campbell & Co., prominent dry goods merchants of San Saba, went into voluntary bankruptcy Monday. The assets of the firm are stated to be $25,000 with liabilities of $17,000. This has been one of the leading dry goods firms of the town for many years. The company went into business in 1904 and has been quite popular. The succession of hard years and the war depression this fall and inability to collect are the causes of the failure.—San Saba News.

A sensation was sprung in New York this week by the filing of an affidavit alleging that the pardoning of Albert Patrick by ex-Governor Dix was the result of a deal made between Patrick's millionaire brother-in-law and a prominent banking firm of New York. All parties accused of being implicated in the conspiracy deny any knowledge of any such transactions, but the district attorney is investigating. It will be remembered that Patrick was convicted of the murder of Wm. M. Rice of Texas and New York, and was pardoned after serving a number of years in prison and making the most remarkable legal fight for freedom ever made in the world's history. He was several times sentenced to be executed, but each time secured a stay of execution and is now an oil operator in Tulsa, Okla.

The gradual stamping out of the hoof and mouth disease is another striking example of the benefits that come from co-operation. In dealing with this national peril, the officials of the Department of Agriculture have worked in co-operation with owners and shippers of cattle and with officials of state departments and the result is that the spread of the epidemic has been stopped. Heroic measures were necessary and millions of cattle were slaughtered, entailing an enormous loss to owners, but the bright light that shines out from this great disaster is the spirit of co-operation that prevailed among the workers who were fighting this deadly malady and the forgetfulness of selfish interests which made them one in stamping it out.—Commercial Secretaries.

MARRIED IN LONG COVE
Mr. Albert H. Conradt and Miss Lennie Cornelius were married in the Baptist church in Long Cove last Saturday night, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, Rev. J. D. Long officiating. The bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Doss of Bend, were the attendants and the ceremony was quite impressive. The attendants were also newly married people, having been married in the same community the previous Sunday.

On Sunday there was a reception at the home of the groom's parents in Long Cove and an elegant dinner was served to the assembled guests.

Mr. Conradt is a prosperous farmer and devotes a part of his time to teaching school. He is one of the leading men of that community and is a man of high character. The bride is one of the community's most attractive and accomplished young ladies and has a large number of friends.

Heartly good wishes and congratulations are extended the young couple.

COTTON RECEIPTS
The bad weather has prevented cotton being brought to market the past several days and as a result the receipts are very little larger than reported last week. At the public yard the season's receipts up to yesterday afternoon were 5841, against 2819 to the same date last year. At the Farmers Union yard the receipts were 3654, against 3751 up to the same date last year.

Kodaks, all prices at Clements'—The Rexall Store. (adv.)
Mrs. R. E. Thornal and little son and daughter left Wednesday night for Austin to spend Thanksgiving with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Brim desire the Eagle to express their sincere thanks to the ladies of the Christian church for a delightful Thanksgiving dinner sent Thursday. It was indeed a fine dinner and was enjoyed as much as it was appreciated.

No. schedule of assets and liabilities of the Geeslin Mercantile Co. has yet been made public. The company's store is still closed and the stock of merchandise is in charge of the temporary trustee appointed by the referee in bankruptcy. It is likely a meeting of the creditors will be called by the referee next week.

THE SENIOR CLASS MEETING
Misses Lucille Street, Ruby Keese and Sophia Martin proved themselves charming hostesses when they entertained the Senior class on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Street. The chief features were candy-making and corn-popping after which progressive '42' ensued. The game trophy was a dainty box of chocolate bon-bons, which went to Miss Consuella Saylor.

Beside the many other features, a refreshment plate was passed. Throughout the entire evening the spirit of informality reigned.

The participants in the pleasures were the senior class and teachers.

REPORTER.

BAZAAR NEXT WEEK
The Bazaar by the ladies of the Presbyterian church will be opened next Friday and Saturday in the Scott building. They have a great amount of goods of various kinds to sell and will also serve dinner both days of the sale. The ladies have made a great many garments and prepared much fancy work for the sale and have also received many articles as donations from wholesalers, jobbers and manufacturers who sell goods in this city. Some of these have sent dozens of boxes of candies, others have sent such articles as they manufacture or handle. Among these donations is a casket contributed by a manufacturing firm engaged in that line, but the ladies do not expect to have it on display or to offer it to their customers. They will sell the casket to a dealer here or elsewhere and the sale price will add considerably to the treasury of the society.

County Clerk Summy issued marriage license since last report to Geo. Mayer and Mrs. Lucy Eikner, Chas. Peel and Miss Ethel Clubb, H. F. Bufe and Miss Hilda Schuster.

The Eagle is indeed glad to add the Center City correspondent to our force of efficient and interesting writers. We trust the letters from Center City will be frequent, for that is one of the best communities of the county and should be represented weekly in the columns of the Eagle.

R. M. THOMPSON, Editor

The suicide of E. R. Sayle is reported from Brady. He was employed in Abney & Vincent's store and was held in high esteem. He formerly lived in Brownwood and was a business man of ability. No cause is known for the act.

The heads of the various state departments at Austin estimate that thirteen million dollars will be required to run the state government the next two years and the next session of the legislature will be called on to make appropriation for approximately that amount.

The hubbub over Turkish land forces firing upon the United States flag at Smyrna has turned out to be a tempest in a teapot. The shots were fired to warn the approaching launch of the presence of mines in the harbor and was an act of courtesy and friendship rather than hostility. The jingo crowd has not yet ceased their effort to draw this government into the European conflict, but with Woodrow Wilson in charge of affairs we have no cause to fear that the efforts will succeed.

At the Baptist convention at Abilene last week Dr. R. C. Buckner, founder and manager of the orphans' home, gave the property to the Baptists of Texas. The home owns property valued at $676,000, all free of debt. Dr. Buckner has done a great work in building this home and in caring for orphan children. Besides devoting the best years of his life to this work, he has put $100,000 of his own property into the enterprise and his act in turning the property over to the church to have the good work continued is the crowning event in his great life of usefulness and unselfishness.

A Dallas special to the daily papers says: A commission composed of representative of Texas agricultural, horticultural and dairy organizations to leave Dallas this week on a fifteen days tour of the several northern states to study agricultural conditions and methods which have, generally speaking, placed several states ahead of Texas as a producer. The scheme is backed by the Texas Farmers' Congress and when the commission returns a pamphlet will be published and distributed over the state giving full information of the result of the investigation. The commission expects to visit Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

The first number of the Llano Searchlight has been received at this office. Judge A. H. Willburn is editor and owner of the new paper. It is well edited, filled with good reading matter, and advertisements of up-to-date business men of that town. The fact that the mechanical department is in charge of Mr. C. B. Boswell is sufficient evidence that the paper makes a good appearance. Mr. Boswell was employed in the Eagle office a good many years ago and later was engaged in another line of business in this city. He has a great many friends here who are glad he has again engaged in the newspaper work and feel sure of his success.

The European war has made an opportunity for all kind of grafting and thievery and the public should look well into the management of the various enterprises proposed for the relief of the people of the warring countries. The cause of the children in those countries of hoilities appeals strongly to the American people and affords a rich field for unprincipled grafters and thieves. Plenty of honest people are engaged in securing assistance for the needy ones, but it does no honest man harm to prove his sincerity and those who demand the proper credentials from men who would receive contributions for European sufferers will use good judgment and protect themselves from imposition.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE

Program of Mills County Teachers Institute, to be held at Goldthwaite, Nov. 30—Dec. 4, 1914.

The teachers of Mills county will hold their annual Institute in Goldthwaite during the week, beginning Nov. 30th and ending Dec. 4th, 1914. The law requires all persons who expect to teach in the public schools of this county this year to attend the sessions of this Institute for the full five days.

Acting in concert with the county superintendents of three other counties—Brown, McCullough and San Saba—which hold their Institute at the same time, we have secured nine leading educators of the State and Nation, one or more of whom will address the Institute each day. We know this is an opportunity of rare value to Mills county educationally; and we shall not regret any time, effort or money spent in securing these able educators if our people will take advantage of the opportunity thus offered. We urge all school trustees of the county to attend, and extend a cordial invitation to everybody to spend as much time as possible with us. The date of the Institute was determined by the fact that Dr. H. W. Foght will spend the week in Texas. Dr. Foght is Specialist in Rural Education, United Bureau of Education, Washington D. C. He is recognized everywhere as the most eminent authority on rural schools in America. Surely, if he can come all the way from Washington to address us on a subject so vital to us, we can give one day to hear him. To hear any speaker secured is well worth a whole week of the time of any parent interested in his or her child's welfare. Emphasis will be given to the importance of teachers attending closely to the discussions by the speakers, and the merit of work done will be determined in large measure thereby. All teachers are expected to provide themselves with pencils and substantial note books.

S. H. ALLEN,
Institute Director.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It in Goldthwaite

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Goldthwaite residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

Mrs. Robert Urbach, Goldthwaite Texas, says: "The first symptom of Kidney trouble in my case was pain in the small of the back, which gradually grew worse until I was hardly able to move. At night it changed to a dull ache and I couldn't sleep. If I caught cold, it settled on my kidneys and made my suffering worse. The kidney secretions were unnatural. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at Clements' Drug Store. They gave me prompt relief." Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Urbach had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv.)

Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any druggist and have it in the house against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief. (Advertisement)

Witness my hand, this 27th day of October, 1914. E. O. PRIDDY, Sheriff, Mills County, Texas.

DESPONDENCY DUE TO INDIGESTION

It is not at all surprising that persons with indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried every thing that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them, my digestion is fine." For sale by all Dealers. (Advertisement)

CENTER CITY

Editor Eagle:

Fearing that some one might think that Center City is dead because the writer has kept silent for so long, we send a few items to let our Mills county friends know that it is not even sick.

A Doctor hunting a location need never stop at Center City, for we seldom need one. If we ever should need one, we could send to Star, as they have a supply there.

Every one you meet is all smiles as though they had gotten fifteen cents for their cotton.

The school opened Nov. 16 with large attendance under the able management of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Head. We feel assured that this will be one of the most successful schools ever taught here. Mr. and Mrs. Head not only take an interest in literary work, but are a great help to the young people in their social affairs. They seem to be willing to give their time and talents to the up-building of the community.

Rev. Robinson, the new M. E. minister, delivered an interesting sermon Sunday at eleven. At three o'clock in the afternoon he organized an Epworth League, with Mr. Jas. Head, president; Ray Knight, vice president; and Miss Viola Head, secretary. There were twenty-five young people showed their willingness to lend themselves to the good work by joining the League. We feel assured that it will be only a short time until every boy and girl in the entire community will have their names enrolled.

Mr. Claude McPherson and Miss Jewel Greathouse of Goldthwaite visited our little city last Sunday.

Mrs. S. L. Evans returned home Saturday after an extended visit to relatives at Winters. Mrs. J. E. Evans of Goldthwaite accompanied her home for a short visit.

Last Friday morning Mr. Robert Lee and Miss Ruth Jones were quietly married at the residence of Rev. Miles. While the time of the marriage was not generally known, the announcement of the happy event caused little surprise to those who are on confidential terms with the contracting parties.

Grandma Welch of Goldthwaite is visiting relatives in this community.

Arrangements were made for special service to be held at the M. E. church Thanksgiving but owing to the unfavorable conditions of the weather all the plans were not carried out.

Miss Mae Hill visited relatives and attended church at this place Sunday.

There seems to be a great musical awakening among our people. The girls are studying instrumental music under direction of Miss Viola Head. The boys have organized a Glee club with Mr. Ray Knight president. Hurrah for the young people. They are striving to attain a position enabling them to combat with the most ambitious of our country.

With best wishes for the Eagle and its many readers.

AUTUMN LEAVES.

A. E. C.

The annual reception of the Art Embroidery Club occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. H. Wallace Monday evening.

Despite the rain, quite a number were assembled—only husbands and escorts of the club members were bidden.

At the door the guests were warmly greeted by the hostess and president, Mrs. J. D. Brown, whose diversified talents are always a wonder to their many friends.

The home was beautiful in autumn embellishment. Choice pink and white chrysanthemums, ferns and palms were advantageously clustered about the rooms. As the eye reveled in the floral picture presented the ear was also gratified by music from a Victrola.

Score cards were daintily hand painted by Miss Lillie Martin. The games were spirited and full of fun. At the conclusion Mr. Walter Fairman Mr. J. D. Brown and Mrs. Edward Geeslin were found to have won high score.

The final feature of the evening was the serving of delicious sandwiches, olives, marshmallow whip, cake, Jordan almonds and hot chocolate.

GOOD SPEAKERS

I wish to remind again the friends of education throughout Mills county of the special features of the teachers Institute next week. The work as planned is a departure from the ordinary lines followed in teachers Institutes. Prof. E. L. White, county Superintendent of McCullough county, and I began work on this plan last May. We have spent much time and a considerable sum of money in our efforts to secure for our counties the very best Institutes possible. Our plan was adopted by Brown and San Saba counties. An association of the four counties was formed and we have secured as speakers for these Institutes some of the ablest educators, not only of the state, but of the United States. Since the highest interest of every parent is his child, and the chief obligation of every parent is the proper development and training of his child for life, and as every child's training rests primarily with its parents, I shall feel disappointed if many of the fathers and mothers in Mills county do not attend this Institute for at least a part of the week. Such a band of educators never visited Mills county before. I fear it may be long before we are able to secure their like again. This is a rare opportunity for our county's up lift educationally. It concerns us all. It was so planned as to be of special help to all. Don't miss it. The meetings will be in the district court room, where good seats and every comfort will be provided for all who come. Remember that one or more very able educators will be with us every day of the Institute. I feel like no citizen who cares for education can afford to miss hearing Dr. Fought of Washington City. He will be with us on Monday. He being a specialist on rural education and being recognized as the ablest man in that work in America, will be of special value to our county, composed almost entirely of rural schools.

Very respectfully,
S. H. ALLEN.

CLUB MEETING

The Embroidery Club met this week at the pretty home of Mrs. J. N. Weatherby. The attendance was unusually large despite the rainy afternoon.

Mrs. J. D. H. Wallace will entertain the members at their next meeting, Dec. 2.

OBITUARY

Addie, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Rudd, was born April 9th, 1885, professed faith in Christ as her personal Savior July, 1899, at the age of fourteen, thus giving almost her entire life to the service of God. She was married on Dec. 31, 1905, to Mr. Wayne Daniels, who was ever faithful and true to her to the end. She was almost an invalid for the last six years of her life, during which time she exhibited a great deal of patience in bearing her bodily afflictions, never complaining, but with that unshaken faith in God, she ever looked forward to the time when God should verify His promise and receive her unto himself, which promise was indeed and in truth fulfilled, when at the home of her parents on Nov. 6th, 1914, she quietly fell asleep, as it were, in the arms of her Savior. Seemingly God spared her the agonies of death, and she passed quietly to her reward.

To the kind husband, parents and loved ones it should be a source of great satisfaction to know that she had every attention and care that was possible for skilled physicians and loving hands to bestow upon her.

Addie is gone but not dead. True, the soul was separated from the body, but that is only the beginning of real life. Such was her faith in God and in his word, that before she went away she selected the 23-d psalm and requested that her former pastor (who also baptized her) Rev. C. H. Miles, conduct the funeral services. She also selected the song “The Lord is my Shepherd.” Her body was laid to rest in the Center City cemetery, attended by a large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends, who spared nothing but did everything possible to show their love for her, so much so that when the mound was finished it was literally covered with flowers placed there by loving hands.

Loved ones, sorrow not as those who have no hope, but rather let her going be one more strong cord to draw you heavenward, and may the God in whom she had such unflinching faith be your God, and when it is His will, may you be one unbroken family in that beautiful home beyond the skies. A FRIEND.

OUR SALE IS STILL ON

We have set the pace for others to follow.

Prices when they actually needed the goods at a low price. We claim we are the benefactors of Goldthwaite in the way of Low

Prices, and we made them so low that we did not have to meet any Sale price that was put out. Already our prices were so low our Competitors had to meet them.

Our Prices will now be Lower than ever

Editor Eagle:

Mrs. Lucinda Rathff, mother of H. G. and W. A. Rathff, an old and highly respected lady died at her home here on November, the 6th after a lingering spell of sickness, lasting over a month. She was buried the following day in the Buffalo cemetery. Her funeral services were conducted by Revs. J. H. Briley and L. A. Clark. She was one of the old "landmarks" of this section of the county.

Cotton picking is still the order of the day. Some are sowing oats for winter pastorage.

Rev. L. A. Clark preached his farewell sermon here Sunday. He goes from here to Mullin charge.

R. S. Bell and wife are the proud parents of a fine boy, born last Tuesday.

Our school opened last Monday with very good attendance, with Miss Zeola Philen as principal and Miss Mona Bakery as assistant.

We are having plenty of rain of late.

Health of the community is good, although there is some lagrippe.

Our Sunday school is in good working order. J. M. Robertson is the efficient superintendent with a corps of able teachers. UNCLE JOHN,

PASSING OF MR. J. T. GUTHRIE

Mr. Guthrie was born January 3 1840, and was called from this life last Friday, Nov. 20, 1914. His health had been rapidly failing for some weeks, but his life which ended calm and peacefully, went out sooner than was expected.

He was a pioneer of Mills county, having settled in Trigger Mountain community some thirty-eight years ago. He wrought much and well in the early development of his community. I knew him only in the later years of his life and observed some things in his character which should be commended. While many of us complain of life's trials, he did not. He seemed resigned to any trial and looked upon it as a matter of his own sowing. He was cheerful and carried much sunshine. Moreover, he possessed the fine spirit of excusing the world for the wrongs and evils he found in it. I never heard him speak evil of any one. This is a point most of us haven't got but would do well to covet.

Above other things I commend his strong and lively hope in the world to come. He spoke in terms of deep consciousness of personal salvation. He claimed a thorough repentance and abundant pardon at the hands of our Great Father in Heaven.

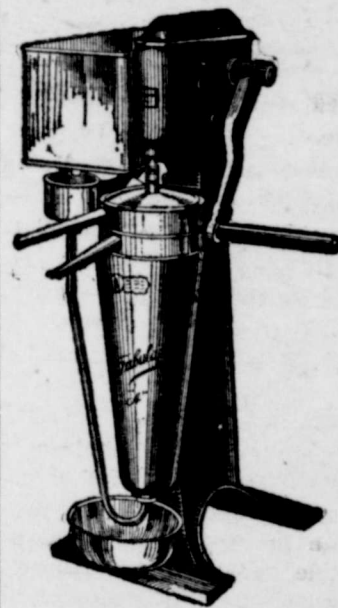

His remains were laid to rest in the church cemetery Saturday in the midst of a sorrowing congregation. L. L. HAYS.

CLUB RECEPTION

The event of social moment on the Thanksgiving week calendar was Tuesday afternoon when the Merry Maids and Matrons club kept open house for their friends at the attractive home of Mrs. L. A. Skaggs. Quite the most elaborate in home setting among the season's gatherings was this, the season itself suggesting the rich details which made the afternoon so much complimented in that the crimson and gold of nature's own autumn hues were combined with the snowy locks of cotton in the decorative arrangement. At no other time of the year does nature so nicely provide decorative motifs of such artistic blending of coloring.

Despite the dark day and the constant showers of rain the guests were present in representative number and in this there was a pretty compliment to the hostess' club in that it evidenced its past affairs to have been alluring in their pleasurable details. From the outside doors the callers were ushered into scenes of beauty aglow with the bright colors and many beaming tapers. Little Miss Vivian Nell Skaggs, dainty as the most fragile Parisian doll, received the cards at the door, on a silver tray. With Mrs. Skaggs in receiving stood Mrs. Max Thorp, president of the club, Mrs. J. H. Randolph and Miss Daisy Nelson of Lometa, the house guest for the affair. After the welcoming there came the 'cup that cheers,' served from an immense pumpkin centering a table embowered with a graceful arch covered with the flescy staple and banked with ferns. This cup recalled a memory of years long gone by and proved to be sweet cider. With this was the old fashioned ginger cakes. Mrs. W. H. Trent served this beverage. The souvenirs here were real cotton bolls.

In combining this cotton and Thanksgiving event the club ladies brought in the colonial note in costume as well as otherwise. All in white with many a flounce and furbelow and with materials fashioned from cotton, powdered hair in psyche, the beauty of costume called forth many a remark of admiration.

Passing from the parlor into the dining room another scene of beauty met the eye. This was truly a Thanksgiving dining room with its wall adornment of bunches of autumn leaves from which were suspended golden ears of corn and the table with lace covers over, yellow and for the center of the table one large ear of corn upright while from out this peeped a large kewpie. From the chandelier covered with bunches of chrysanthemums, ropes of snowy popcorn trailed to the table edge to be there held in place by other chrysanthemums of yellow and white. Here Mesdames J. F. Geeslin and M. E. Ebers served minced turkey sandwiches and tea.

Next came the register room, where Mrs. R. M. Thomp on presided over the book of "Lost Line Limericks." Here Mrs. J. A. Gillespie presented each guest with a miniature cotton bale, which was in reality a marshmallow tied with bands to resemble cotton bales.

During the receiving hours the gaiety of small talk was blended with sweet melodies of music, rendered by the charming Miss Lucille Grisham.

Withal, the afternoon was beautiful in its details and exploited a generosity of entertaining befitting this club circle and the Thanksgiving tide.

DEATH'S VISIT

The death of Coleman Smith, the 8 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, occurred at the family home in this city Thursday afternoon about 3 o'clock. He had been sick for several weeks, first with typhoid fever and later other troubles set up. Finally pneumonia developed and his illness had so weakened his constitution that it could not withstand the disease.

The funeral services were held at the family home yesterday afternoon and interment was made in Odd Fellows cemetery. Notwithstanding the exceedingly disagreeable weather the sad services were attended by a large number of the sympathizing friends of the bereaved family.
