WHAT ABOUT IT

Editor Eagle: Ballinger recently celebrated the 29th anniversary of its birth with a great picnic which reminds the writer that Goldthwaite will be thirty years old on September 2nd. Our natal day has never been celebrated as such, though a Confederate reunion at one time fell on that day of the month.

Civic pride and local pat-iot'sm would be stimulated by some appropriate exercises on the approaching birthday. If the day is to be observed it is time that some steps be taken in that direction. U, DOWNS

WHO WILL START IT

By J. E. Evans, Deputy,

In a recent issue of your paper it was suggested that grounds should be be secured. As it is now, not a rod of land has been dedicated as accessible that only a few minutes walk will be required to reach it. ments can be secured. In any event, nothing will be done till something is attempted.

This writer believes that grounds can be had at a very moderate cost. Who will start the movement, and suggest the location for a
