VOL. 21.

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, AUGUST 14, 1915.

NO. 52

RATLER

For Eagle:
A light shower fell here Monday night. There are good indications that we shall have more soon. It has been a good while since a good rain fell here, so of course, we are needing one badly.

MARRIED IN FORT WORTH

Friends here of Prof. Albert Long learned this week with certainty of his marriage to Miss Mattie Lee Hudson in Fort Worth two weeks ago.

There was a rumor here at the time of the wedding that the young people had been married, but the young man returned to this city and after spending several days with relatives proceeded to Winters, where he has been elected superintendent of the school. This week Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Long received letters from both the bride and groom, telling of the wedding.

Albert Long is one of the most popular and deserving young men ever reared here. He is studious, highly educated and with all a splendid example of manhood. His bride is unknown to the people here, but was a student in San Marcos normal and later in the state university at the time Albert was in school at these places. Her home is in Paris, Texas, but she is now with her grand mother in El Paso. It is understood she has been elected to a position in the Winters school for the coming term.

Friends here of the popular young groom are delighted to extend congratulations and good wishes.

CAMP RESOLUTIONS

Jeff Davis camp, No. 117, at their first regular meeting, succeeding the reunion of the Old Confederate soldiers requests that the Goldthwaite Eagle say to the Farmers Union that they certainly appreciate what they and their wives did for the comfort and enjoyment of the "Old boys in gray" in furnishing speakers and a bountiful dinner, that could not be surpassed in quantity or quality and which they will always cherish in memory as being an expression of the love and good will to old soldiers of the south by the people of Mills county. J. D. CALAWAY, M. D., Committee.

One Schubin and wife with a party of friends passed thru the city from Hamilton Tuesday en route for the Llano river to spend a few days fishing.

JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP

The Texas Woman's Press Association enthusiastically endorsed a Texas Woman's Press Association Scholarship in the University of Texas School of Journalism. This requires a sinking fund of $5,000, the amount of which has been subscribed. The interest on this money at 7 per cent will keep a girl respectfully in the University. This is not to be a Loan Fund, but to be given each year to some girl, an upper classman who has made a record in English composition or has a decided talent in journalistic work.

Now, no matter how you feel in regard to Schools of Journalism you must acknowledge that the cultural training a student gets in the University of Texas will be of vast advantage in this line of work to the fortunate girl. If each one will give as he or she feels able the amount will have a beginning that will encourage the members of the T. W. P. A. to work with heart and pen for this tangible evidence of the faith they have in the School of Journalism in the State University. Today we are not asking for money but for pledges, the amount pledged to be paid October 15th, 1915. Will you please do something for this scholarship fund which will mean so much to a worthy Texas girl, who will otherwise have to be so financially cramped that the best work cannot be done or else she will have to forego the great benefit that will come from a University education. We assure you we shall work and shall give toward this fund, provided we get enough promised to make the effort worth while. For reference as to our ability and integrity to foster this splendid enterprise we refer you to citizens and banks of our respective home towns.

A copy of this letter will be sent to every newspaper in Texas, and to a few of her most public spirited citizens asking for a money pledge for this fund. The names and amount given will be kept on file by the Chairman of this committee and are open to inspection at any time.

Very truly,

MINOR POETS

The classics in poetry as in all other arts, whether in the making or in the splendid fulfillment that comes later, have invariably excited first the scorn of little cotemporaries and then the envy of little followers. The "undiscerning crew" never fail for objects for their blind contempt among the names above them; or for fulsome adulation from among the names of their kind.

"The dullards of past generations, the undiscerning crew,
That turned deaf ears unto Shelley,
That turned blind eyes upon Keats.

Unchangeably reincarnate, invincibly born anew.

Still buzz in the press and salon,
still lord it in learning's seats."

So it is observed to be today by William Watson; so hath it always been, and ever will be, world without end.

"That turned deaf ears unto Whitman," would strike just as true. The scholarly—the learned, you note, do not always command our awed respect, either in press or salon, or in learning's seats.

Song, truly sung; in whatever note, in whatever degree—truly sung, commands my awed respect. There is no minor or major after all, save, it may be, in bulk of work.

"Du bist wie eine Blume"

There are but eight lines of that; and it is as great a poem as Tennyson's "Enid." There are but eight lines of Heine's "Fichtenbaum," and it has every artistic merit of "The New Life" of Dante. Henley's "Gerardine" is but a song, and yet it lives at the heart of the world with "Romeo and Juliet."

If we speak of the lyrics of Henley as "minor poems," we speak of their tonality that pierces to an intense depth of feeling than the major reach of sound or thought can go; as we speak of the minor love of soul for soul, not its major and diffused love of humanity.—Extracts from article "Texas Poets: of the Smaller Fry" in "Alcalde" by Leonard Doughty.

Two companies of militia were sent to guard a black brute this week at Groveton charged with criminal assault.

The increase of Japanese in the southwest has made it necessary to establish a consulate at Los Angeles, Cal., according to a report.

Mrs. W. H. Birdwell and sons have been in Lampasas this week visiting relatives.

J. W. McNeil was one of the good men who called at the Eagle office one day this week.

Mrs. B. L. Dillingham of Austin arrived in the city Sunday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. L. E. Miller, and family.

J. L. Quicksall, one of the leaders in the farm demonstration work in the state, was a visitor to this city the first of the week.

E. G. Kingsbury returned Tuesday night from a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition. He enjoyed the trip, but was glad to get home.

Elias Bryan returned to his duties as telegraph operator for the Santa Fe at Somerville, after spending ten days with his relatives and friends at this place.

Claud Eacott and wife have returned from the Panhandle country and will again make their home in Goldthwaite, which is good news to their many friends.

B. A. Harris left Tuesday night for St. Louis and other markets to buy his fall and winter stock of goods. He expected to be away ten days and perhaps two weeks.

Dana Everly has returned from the convention of Shriners at Seattle and a visit to the Exposition at San Francisco. He enjoyed the trip and the vacation, but of course is glad to get back to Goldthwaite.

W. T. Little and family came over from Hamilton last Saturday for a visit to relatives. Mr. Little joined the other buyers for Little & Sons on their trip to market, while Mrs. Little and son remained here for a visit.

G. B. Brown and family left yesterday in their car for a trip to the coast country. . . . J. W. Bishop of Rising Star, is visiting his brother, B. H. Bishop. He always makes it a point to pay his visit when the Sacred Harp singers convene as he is a great lover of this particular music. . . . The Santa Fe's Killeen agent, I. W. Arnold in company with his wife and three daughters, Misses Mozella, Marion and Francis left yesterday for a visit to the position and other places of interest. We trust that they may have a very pleasant trip indeed.—Killean Herald.

MARRIED AT MULLIN

W. W. Tippen and Miss Ollie Mae Williams were married at Mullin Monday morning and left immediately for a honeymoon trip to Galveston and other points. The announcement of the marriage was not a surprise to the many friends of the young couple, but the exact time was not known to any save their relatives and most intimate associates.

These are two of the most popular young people in Mills county and everybody is glad to extend congratulations and good wishes to them. Mr. Tippen is cashier of the First State bank of Mullin and is also a stockholder and director in that institution. He is a business man of fine ability and a citizen of the highest integrity. Previous to going to Mullin he served as deputy sheriff and tax collector during Mr. Priddy's term of office and his splendid qualifications for discharging the duties of the office, as well as his courteous manners attracted to him scores of friends and they still esteem him as a man worthy of every confidence and every trust. The stockholders and the patrons of the bank with which he is connected also have the same high regard for him and it can safely be said that no man is more universally honored in Mills county and none more worthy of that honor. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. R. F. Williams and was reared in Mullin. She has taught expression in the public school at that place and elsewhere and has endeared herself to her pupils and patrons wherever she has taught. She has many admiring friends in this city as well as in her home community, where she is a social favorite.

Mr. and Mrs. Tippen will be at home in Mullin the early part of next week.

The dense ignorance of the people of Mexico can be understood when we realize that the outlaws operating along the border the past few weeks really believe they are starting a movement to drive out the Americans and take a wide strip of territory for Mexico. Some of the outlaws who have been captured actually say they were engaged in a movement to restore a part of the Texas territory to their country.

Auto racers, prize-winning motor boat owners, aviators, choose Texaco Motor Oil. Where every ounce of energy is required to produce results and where even the slightest of defects in a product makes a great difference, Texaco Motor Oil is used because its quality and reliability are advantages that cannot be overlooked.

It is a worthy representative of Texaco quality.

LOUIE MILLER IS DEAD

L. E. Miller, Jr., only child of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Miller, died at the family home in this city yesterday morning at 1:05 o'clock, after a long illness.

To all who knew the young man these words carry a peculiar sadness, for all recognized in Louie a young man of great promise and his death has caused a cloud of sorrow to envelop this entire community and to extend to other localities where he was known and appreciated. He had just entered manhood's estate, being 21 years and five months of age, and no young man of his time had brighter prospects or better opportunities until he was stricken with progressive paralysis some months ago. The disease first appeared in one of his fingers and, notwithstanding one of the most persistent and titanic battles ever waged by science was carried on by medical men and surgeons all over the country, the disease continued to progress. Some of the most learned and scientific men in America were summoned in his case, but the disease baffled them all and the hand of Death could not be stayed.

Louie Miller was reared in this city, having moved here with his parents in early childhood. He was popular with his associates and commanded the respect and admiration of all who knew him. Possessed of an unusually bright mind he was educated to a degree beyond that to be expected of one of his years. After graduating in Goldthwaite high school he attended the Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, where he distinguished himself as an orator and a student, graduating from that institution with high honors and a splendid record.

No young man ever grew to maturity here who held a higher place in the estimation of the people, and the grief that has crushed the hearts of his devoted parents is shared by all of his friends and their friends.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon and interment was made in the Odd Fellows cemetery, the sad and solemn service being conducted by Rev. J. G. Forester, pastor of the Methodist church. The active pall bearers were selected from among Louie's most intimate friends and associates. They were D. Albert Trent, Dow Hudson, Fred Martin, Carroll Lowrie, Alvin Street and Lewis Little. The honorary pall bearers were also selected from among the close friends of the family and were Messrs. W. C. Dew, W. H. Trent, J. H. Randolph, W. H. Birdwell, J. C. Street, J. H. Burnett, Walter Fairman and R. M. Thompson. The service was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends of the family from this and other communities and the grave was literally covered with beautiful bouquets and cut flowers.

COMMISSIONERS COURT

A Short Term and a Light Docke—Business in Good Shape.

Commissioners court met in regular quarterly session Monday and the term was only continued three days, there being very little business before the court outside of the regular routine. This was one of the shortest sessions the court has held, but all of the county's business is in good shape and there is no necessity for a long term.

The resignation of A. H. Braker as constable of precinct No. 6 was received and accepted and Will Braker was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

A correction was made in the delinquent tax record whereby an error was made since 1901 in the Greenleaf Fisk tract and the record was made to show that the apparent delinquency was caused by an error in rendition. The county farm demonstration work was ordered discontinued after the present contract with the demonstrator expires Nov. 1.

A small galvanized water tank owned by the county was sold for $7. After examining and approving of fiscal reports auditing and allowing accounts for current expenses the court adjourned for the term Wednesday afternoon.

MEETING CLOSED

The Christadelphian encampment which was held at the Confederate camp grounds in this city, closed Sunday night, after a most interesting series of meetings. Monday and Tuesday of this week a debate was conducted, or rather an investigation was held, on some of the denominational doctrines. Dr. Etn. Wilson of this city taking issue with Rev. Burnett on some points in controversy. The debate was interesting and it is hoped beneficial to all who heard it.

Announcement was made yesterday that Sam McBurney, who for several years has been first trick operator at the Santa Fe has resigned his position here and accepted the night operator's post at Zephyr. Mr. McBurney made the change on account of his health and so that he could be at home all of the time.—Brownwood Bulletin.

NOW HER FRIENDS HARDLY KNOW HER

But This Does Not Bother Mrs. Burton, Under the Circumstances.

Houston, Texas.—In an interesting letter from this city, Mrs. C. Burton writes as follows: "I think it is my duty to tell you what your medicine, Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done for me.

I was down sick with womanly trouble, and my mother advised several different treatments, but they didn't seem to do me any good. I lingered along for three or four months, and for three weeks, I was in bed, so sick I couldn't bear for any one to walk across the floor.

My husband advised me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I have taken two bottles of Cardui, am feeling fine, gained 15 pounds and do all of my housework. Friends hardly know me, I am so well."

If you suffer from any of the ailments so common to women, don't allow the trouble to become chronic. Begin taking Cardui to-day. It is purely vegetable, its ingredients acting in a gentle, natural way on the weakened womanly constitution. You run no risk in trying Cardui. It has been helping weak women back to health and strength for more than 50 years. It will help you. At all dealers.

An appropriation to pay for renovating the state capitol and making needed repairs will become available Sept. 1 and the superintendent of buildings and grounds is preparing to have the work commenced at that time.

The attorney general has brought suit against seven breweries in this state, alleging the violation of the anti-trust law and the disregard by these corporations of the law forbidding contributions to campaign funds.

It is probable the authorities will decide to have military training take the place of gymnastics for the male students of the University. The European war has caused all states and nations to turn their attention to military matters.

The Tarrant county grand jury has postponed an investigation of the recent failure of the Fort Worth Savings Bank and Trust Co. until a report is made by the receiver appointed by the court to take charge of the bank's affairs.

Texans returning from a visit to the Panama-Pacific exposition and a trip thru the west are almost unanimous in their verdict that the state of Texas is far ahead of the western country and presents better opportunities in nearly every line.

A nine-year-old girl in Trinity, Texas, has undergone twenty-three surgical operations during the short period of her life and is said to be recovering nicely from the latest operation, which was performed in Houston a few days ago.

The town of Osborn, Ohio is to be abandoned as a result of frequent floods, the government to pay the property owners for their holdings. The town has had a population of 1000 and the cost of building levees to make the town safe from floods would be greater than the cost of the property.

Mexican outlaws have made frequent raids along the border in Texas the past few weeks and large numbers of soldiers have been sent there to do patrol duty and protect the citizens and their property. Several battles have taken place between the outlaws and the soldiers and officers and a number have been killed on either side.

Gen. Scott, U. S. A., who was sent to El Paso to meet Villa, the Mexican chief in an effort to secure a promise of a cessation of outlawry by the bandit chief and his followers, was successful in his mission Villa agreeing to pay for the property taken from Americans in Chihuahua last week and to punish the violators of the law. A special from Austin says that the enactment by the Thirty-Fourth Legislature of what is generally known as the delinquent tax law, which is now in effect, means the ultimate collection by the state of upward of $5,000,000, according to estimates of tax collectors who have given study to the proposition. Since this law has been in effect from June 18, 1915, the comptroller's department has had a force of men and women clerks at work on the delinquent tax rolls gathering information as to the amount of delinquent taxes in each of the 250 counties in Texas.

ROBT. KIRBY DEAD

The remains of Mr. R. N. Kirby arrived in Goldthwaite on Saturday evening's train from Temple, where he died at 11:15 that morning, following an operation for appendicitis. He was stricken with appendicitis a short time before his death and was carried from his home at Lometa to a sanitarium in Temple for an operation, but his condition was such that the operation could not save his life.

Mr. Kirby was one of the most highly esteemed citizens of the Lometa country and numbered his friends by the score. He was a son of Mr. A. J. Kirby of Lometa and a brother of Mrs. P. H. Rahl of this city. He was married here a few weeks ago to Miss Sudie Mae Rives and to the young wife and other bereaved relatives the sympathy of the people is extended.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which order Mr. Kirby was a valued and highly esteemed member, and the remains were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

SETTLEMENT WANTED

A number of people indebted to me promised to settle when they sold their grain. I acted upon the promises, believing they would be kept and I now request and urge those who owe me to make settlement. No one needs what is due them more than I do and surely I have been patient and have waited a long time on some of these notes and accounts. This is meant for all who owe me and I hope it will have the result of securing a settlement of the indebtedness.

RACE HORSE ACCIDENT

A peculiar and uncommon accident happened to one of the best running horses on Sunday before the fair opened on Tuesday. Julio, a favorite of Geo. Moore of Waco, was on the track being worked out with another horse. Moore had instructed his jockey to hold Julio back and he had clipped the first eighth beautifully and while going the second eighth, without stumbling or seeming to make a misstep, a bone in one leg popped and was broken clean. He was brought in and given away. Mr. Moore had a splendid string of horses and won some good purses and was a genteel and a reliable racer.—San Saba News.

LAMPASAS
 Carl Harris, of Big Springs, is here for a few days with friends. Miss Helen Jepson, of Comanche, formerly of Lampasas, and Mr. Emil Botcher, of Dallas, were married Monday evening, July 26th, at the German Baptist church in Dallas.

Bostick Brothers, who live on Lucy creek about eight miles northeast of Lampasas, have sold between five hundred and six hundred head of cattle to Asa Huffstutler, of Georgetown.

Walter Moore and family, and his nephew, William Moore, with Uncle Tilford Bean, as superintendent, left Thursday morning in their car for Dalhart, and will probably take in Roswell, New Mexico, before their return.

Wednesday evening Bro. D. R. Hardison had the pleasure of uniting in marriage Mr. Lewis E. Brown, a traveling man, and Miss Belle Altmar of this city. The ceremony occurred at the parsonage of the Christian church, and was witnessed only by a few friends.

Purses to partially reimburse Felix Garret and C. P. Jenkins the losses sustained by them by fire recently, were made up by the people of Lampasas the past week, and both are properly grateful for the aid received when sorely needed. Mr. Garret lost his entire grain crop and a number of other things by fire at his barn, and Mr. Jenkins lost practically his entire grain crop by fire just when he had begun to thresh his grain for market and home use.—Leader.

HAMILTON
 Mr. and Mrs. Arville Blackshear and baby daughter, Margaret, Capt. John G. Jones and Ed Ligon left early this morning in an automobile for Goldthwaite to spend the day.

Last Sunday, August 1, an anniversary service was held at the Baptist church in this city, that day having marked the passage of the first year of Rev. W. T. Turner's pastorate.

Jim Lawrence, formerly with J. T. James & Sons, returned to Hamilton this week to take the place of C. B. James in the drug store, during the latter's absence on a visit to the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Rev. Randolph Clark came down from Stephenville Saturday and preached at the Central Christian church Sunday morning and evening. At the evening service two converts received the ordinance of baptism. This was Brother Clark's first visit to Hamilton since he was bitten on the hand by a copperhead snake some two months ago, and he is still feeble from the effects of the poison.

A. J. Porter and family took passage in Hamilton Wednesday for Des Moines, New Mexico, where they go to reside in future. Lon Porter was raised in this county, served as county treasurer and made a good one, and has always been a first class citizen. His friends in Hamilton and over the county regret to lose him and his estimable family, but trust they will find happiness and contentment there and wax rich in this world's goods.—Record.

Mrs. Carrie Vernon, widow of Sam Vernon, for twenty years after 1883 editor and proprietor of the Comanche Chief, and her daughter, Miss Annie Lee Vernon, left Saturday for Dublin, after a week's visit to old friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Vernon retains her youth well, and Miss Annie Lee is a charming young lady. Comanche people of the olden times regretted that their visit was made so brief.—Vanguard.

Uncle Dave Carnes, one of the old timers of Comanche died last Saturday and was buried Sunday. Uncle Dave was a son of Dick Carnes, who came to Comanche county and settled at Old Cora something like sixty years ago.

A barn belonging to Dr. Clements was entirely destroyed by fire Thursday morning in the northeast section of Comanche. The fire was of unknown origin, not being discovered until it had gained considerable headway.—Chief.

RIDGE

Editor Eagle:

As we have not seen anything from Ridge for some time, thought we would drop in just a moment and have a chat with you all.

Health of our community is grand. Miss Stella Meeks, who was taken to the Temple sanitarium on the first of this month, was operated on for appendicitis and the little lady is reported as doing nicely since the operation. Her mother remains at the sanitarium with her.

Two threshing machines are running in our community at present. Our grain crop is fairly good and the farmers will be in better condition to live another year, as they have raised abundance of feedstuff. The cotton crop will be light and we predict the price will be still lighter.

Elder L. L. Hays, assisted by Elder Jackson from Goldthwaite, is conducting a revival meeting at Ridge with good attendance at each service, good interest manifested and good behavior by our young people and, speaking to their credit, I can truthfully say that in point of good morals and good deportment, I think we have a model community of young people. This element among our rising generation speaks much credit for the parents.

While our community religiously represents several Christian denominations, we all meet together as neighbors and friends, and are at peace with each other. We don't like for our young people to be abused from the stand, because we don't think that is the scriptural Gospel way to teach any one, and in reality would have a tendency to drive them away from seeking after the truth. We are not accusing any one of doing this, but just giving this out as our feelings about the matter and feel sure that our feelings are shared by the Eagle editor and many readers of the Old Bird.

The drouth seems to be on in full force and effect. Stock water is getting scarce and some are compelled to change location of their stock in order to get water for them.

Wishing you all an enjoyable summer time, I remain SCHULMITE.

RILEY LONG DROPPED DEAD

Mr. R. F. Long died yesterday morning about 8 o'clock at his home in Big Valley. He was at work on a stack of feed when suddenly he dropped down and was dead, the cause of his death being attributed to heart failure.

Mr. Long was one of the foremost men of this community and was one of the best men of Mills county. He lived in the Big Valley community for twenty-six years, having moved to this county from eastern Texas. He stood high with everybody and was an honorable, upright man and one whose memory will be cherished by all who knew him and his place in the community will not be easily filled. The announcement of his death caused universal sorrow among his acquaintances and friends everywhere and the fact that it was so entirely unexpected made the shock more severe to his relatives and friends.

No announcement has yet been made relative to the funeral arrangements, as one of his brothers, Mr. Ben Long, was en route to New Mexico and telephone messages were being sent yesterday in the hope of reaching him in order to give him the information and time to return home to attend the funeral.

Mr. Long leaves a wife and several children besides an aged mother and a number of other relatives, all of whom have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

A NEW GIN

E. L. Martin is installing a new gin at Big Valley and expects to have it in operation in time for this season's crop. The gin is located on Ben Long's farm about three-fourths of a mile from the Big Valley store. Mr. Martin is an experienced gin man, having managed gins in this city for several seasons and he undoubtedly knows the business and knows how to make a success of it.

Goldthwaite, Texas

An Associated Press report from Washington says: Reports have reached here that more than 1000 Carranza troops from the command of General Navarette in the state of Tamaulipas have moved over into Texas in the territory surrounding Brownsville and have scattered into bands to rally Mexicans in the state, with the announced purpose of beginning an uprising. They are reported to be under command of Juan De Los Santos, Vincente Davila and Carlos Garcia. War department officials would not discuss the report, but it was said to be in their possession and probably would be one of the reasons for moving troops to the border.

Mrs. Fay Reed and baby had a narrow escape from being badly hurt Monday afternoon in a run-away accident, as did Lee Sykes, in whose buggy they were riding. They were en route to Big Valley when rain commenced to fall and they attempted to raise the umbrella over the buggy, when the horse became frightened and ran away. He made a quick turn with the buggy and Mrs. Reed and baby were thrown out, the lady falling on the baby, but in such a manner as to shield it from injury. Mrs. Reed was badly bruised, but not seriously injured, while the baby did not get a scratch. Mr. Sykes remained in the buggy and finally quieted the animal. It was indeed fortunate that there were no serious results from the accident.
