SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

To Sunday School Superintendents.
Being unable to make up a complete roll of Superintendents and writing you personally, I take this means to ask that you make announcement in your school concerning the Mills County Sunday School Convention, which meets at Goldthwaite the 2nd Sunday in September, which will be September 12th, convening in the Baptist church at 10:00 o'clock.

Every school in the county should elect at least two delegates. These delegates may be teachers or officers in their school and it is their duty to give any information or report from the individual school and to represent said school in every way. Be sure to select delegates that will attend and also alternate to make it certain that your Sunday school will be heard from and receive the benefit of the convention.

The convention is truly a great institution, intended to disseminate useful information in our county, and for it to attain this object, people from every Sunday school in the county must attend. Especially should every teacher and officer be there. Bring your questions and problems and receive the aid of others in solving them.

A program has been made out and published and those relying on the program will be wide awake Sunday school people who are conscious of our needs in Mills county.

Come, send your representatives, teachers and officers and let us put this convention to its intended service.

Sec'y Mills County S. S. Convention

ON DIFFERENTIAL PLATFORM

Goldthwaite Candidate for Railroad Commissioner Defines Issues.

Goldthwaite, Texas, Aug. 27—That the cotton differential is to be an issue in next year's campaign for the office of railroad commissioner is indicated by J. M. Arnold of this city, who is already in the field for the 1916 finish. Mr. Arnold made the race last year and received 141,155 votes, notwithstanding failure to get his name on the ballot in ten counties. He now says:

"I shall make the race in 1916 regardless of who or how many toss their hats in the ring. My campaign issue shall be the restoration of the differential on cotton, and the recognition of the Ship Channel as a factor in making competitive water rates. The people of Texas need a practical man on the commission. Just as long as the commission is made a preparatory school for politicians the public will lose the benefit of the office to them."

Friends here of Mr. Arnold were glad to read the above special in the Houston Chronicle a few days ago, for it gave them positive assurance that he would make the race for railroad commissioner in the next campaign and we all feel sure he will be successful. He was a candidate in last campaign against a man who had only held the place one term and the race for the nomination now will be against one who has been in office almost since the time that "the memory of man runneth not to the contrary."

The ability to catch and tie a frisky goat within the shortest possible time will win a new Ford automobile for some Texas cowboy at the Brownwood Free Fall Fair, October 6-10. This is only one of the big amusement features which will be staged during the Brownwood Fair, but it is certain that Gun Club Park, where the goat roping will be held, will be crowded with twenty or twenty-five thousand spectators to see the Ford runabout given away to the best goat roper.

The roping contest will be open to all and entries should be made before September 15th. It is expected that cowboys from many counties will make an effort to drive the little new runabout.

Rev. J. J. Daily left Wednesday for Liberty Hill to visit his father and other relatives.

Mrs. Felix Landers and children returned to their home at El Dorado Wednesday, after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sellers, and other relatives.

Rev. A. B. Jenkins has declined the call at Bangs. He will fill the pulpit at Goldthwaite next Sunday at which time he will announce his decision whether or not he will accept the Goldthwaite call.—Central Messenger.

Mrs. Cull Anderson, of Goldthwaite, who had been a guest in the home of her aunt, Mrs. B. W. McKenzie in this city returned to her home Tuesday. Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Lora Tinsley, who with her parents lived in Hamilton a number of years during her early girlhood, and was popular with a large circle of friends.—Hamilton Record.

The most effective piece of farming the Advance has been able to learn of this season is that where in the efforts of Dan Pace, who lives a few miles west of Kenedy, are concerned. Mr. Pace has fifty acres in cultivation, and has worked it all himself having employed no labor at all. No cotton was planted, and practically all his crop consisted of corn. Monday, he sold $350 worth of hogs, and prior to that time had sold as many more. In addition to this he has ready for market equally the same number as were sold Monday. Mr. Pace has raised all the hogs he has sold and has not spent a cent for feed. He now has on hand sufficient feed to do him through next year, and also has sufficient brood sows on hand to insure a good bunch of hogs for market next year. Besides working his crop and caring for his hogs, Mr. Pace has sold a few cattle along, and has raised a number of young mules and horses. Those of our citizens who are of the opinion it takes a large acreage on which to make a living, are respectfully cited to the success of Mr. Pace, whom it is reasonable to believe, will make more clear money than the cotton farmer who cultivated three times the amount of land as was worked by him.—Kenedy Advertiser.

FROM MRS. VAN GLAHN

Tropico, Cal., Aug. 2, 1915.

Editor Eagle:

August the eighth month of 1915 made her debut amid golden sunshine and cool breezes laden with the perfume of summer blossoms. I took advantage of this lovely Sunday morn and attended services at the Glendale Baptist church, of which I am now a member. There is no Baptist church in Tropico. We live on the shed dividing Tropico from Glendale. It is only a matter of time when both places will become a part of Los Angeles.

This afternoon the Eagle, the good Old Bird from the city of Goldthwaite found me beneath the "oak tree," where I spend the greater part of my time during this warm weather. A welcome visitor is the Eagle.

20th—Since commencing this letter I have been absent from home. I spent last week with my grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, and had a most enjoyable visit. While there Mr. Brown received the appointment of assistant County examiner of Civil Service and while he regretted to resign his position as manager of the I. S. C. he feels quite proud of his promotion.

Miss Mary Vickers, daughter of J. C. Vickers, formerly of Goldthwaite, now of Bristow, Okla., is the guest of Mrs. W. E. White and daughters. Miss Vickers has been to the Panama exposition in company with a party of young ladies, chaperoned by Rev. J. T. and Mrs. Davis. The whole party will visit San Diego's fair and other places of interest in southern California.

I have read with profound sorrow the terrible news of the Texas floods and disastrous results. I see from the morning paper that Los Angeles is a city of suffering and sympathy to those unfortunate ones who have been damaged by the recent flood. A score of Texans in the Galveston flood in 1900 are citizens of Los Angeles and know how to sympathize with the present sufferers. A meeting was called by Mr. Skinner and a number of people who went thru the Galveston flood of 1900 responded, besides about fifty other former residents of Texas. After a brief discussion it was decided that aid would be offered to the people of Galveston.

I see from Los Angeles Times that, among the many attractive exhibits at the Panama-Pacific exposition, are those of China, "the youngest of the world's republics. She has expended $750,000 in exhibits and buildings at the exposition. In the Palace of Fine Arts, China art occupies a corner made interesting by her beautiful exhibits. In the Palace of Manufactures industries this infant republic shows her wonderful progress along that line of industry, while in educational and social economy China is to be congratulated on the advance she has made and is making. Chinese girls who a few years ago only received home training for domestic work, are today keeping pace in the halls of literature and science, with the boys studying with them, side by side. The Chinese Pavilion erected at the cost of $200,000 supplies color and atmosphere to their exhibits at the San Francisco exposition.

At Whittin on Sunday the 22nd Mrs. Lydia Sharpless, the oldest white woman in California celebrated her 105th birthday by attending church in the morning. This venerable centenarian gives a table of ten commandments, which she has observed and urges others to do so:

1. Thou shalt not worry
2. Be calm under trials.
3. Take care of thy health
4. Employ thy time industriously.
5. Eat what agrees with thy stomach
6. Sleep eight hours
7. Be honorable in all thy dealings.
8. Go to church.
9. Vote prohibition ticket
10. Live to be 105 years old

KICKING THEMSELVES

The number of people who are now in a financial strain because they spent what little cash they had for oil stock, so called, is almost incredible. They moan in silence and mourn in language not suitable for a religious talk and go out behind the stables and kick themselves, but it does no good. They wanted to make a big pile of money in a hurry and thought that the assertions and promises of friends, and especially preachers and religious people, could be relied on and they handed up their money and now feel that they have been buncoed. Many of them are now ready to go before the grand jury and tell all about it. But some prefer to suffer in silence because they are ashamed that they bit at such an uncertain bait. The old adage "always look at both sides before you form an opinion or act," was overlooked by them and they bought pieces of paper in a hurry and now they repent at leisure. But the next time a medicine man comes along they will be sure to buy a package.—Taylor Journal.

WHAT BILL DID

Bill Turner was a farmer, he labored all his life. He didn't have no schoolin' and neither had his wife. But Bill was built for business and made the wheels go round, and left a healthy fortune when they put him under ground. He was always taking chances, paid a hundred for a bull. His neighbors called him crazy, but he left a stable full of cows that broke the record, making butter by the ton, and Bill had his picture printed in the Spouse-dunk Weekly Sun. He had newfangled notions of making farming pay. He even bought a fool machine to help him load his hay. The neighbors fairly snorted when they saw the bloomin' thing; said Bill would never make it work. It wasn't worth a ding! Bill didn't say a single word and didn't care a darn about what they said, fer slick as grease, his hay went in the barn an hour before the thunder storm came sailin' out that way and caught his neighbors in a pinch and spoiled their new mown hay. Bill's neighbors put their milk in cans, and set 'em in a tank. Bill skimmed his milk with a machine and turned it with a crank. Smith chops his fire wood with an ax. Bill used some gasoline and sawed a hundred cords a day with another blame machine. Today Bill's wife rides in a car and dresses up in silk. Smith's wife rides in a wagon and keeps on skinning milk.—Taylor County, Ky. Enquire—

Thursday of this week, Grandmother Forehand, with her children, grand children and great grand children met at what is known as the "Spring tank" in Bud Forehand's pasture for a picnic. Grandma is 81 years old and this was the first time they have ever all been together. They were all there with the exception of two great grand children. A bounteous dinner was spread and immediately afterward Mrs. Burch photographed the crowd, there being 51 in number, 16 families being represented. The relatives from a distance were Mrs. Cone of Cameron and Mrs. Foldersness of Abilene. There were four visitors present, Mr. and Mrs. Burch, Mesdames Robertson and Marshall. XX.

The state apportionment of school funds has been fixed at $6 per capita, which is $2 less than the amount apportioned last year. However, there was a deficit of $1 in the last year's funds and the schools have so far received only $7. The apportionment for the next scholastic year would have been $7 but for the fact that the deficit of last year has to be made good out of this year's money.

FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING

Editor Geo. H. Boynton of the Hamilton Herald, Editor W. A. Smith of the San Saba News and Editor Robert E. Downey of the Copperas Cove New Era believe in passing the bouquets to their friends while the flowers can be seen and enjoyed. Here are a few samples, which are very much appreciated:

With its last issue the Goldthwaite Eagle began the twenty-second year of its publication. The Herald congratulates its pleasant neighbor. Editor Thompson is one of the cleanest men of the newspaper profession and his success is the result of his straightforward business methods and his appreciation of the responsibilities that rest on him as an editor and publisher. The Herald wishes him and his paper continued success.—Hamilton Herald.

The Goldthwaite Eagle has attained the dignified age of twenty-two and Editor Thompson has been at the helm from the tenth month of its existence until now; no doubt he will continue the work until '30' is called for him. The writer feels a proprietary interest in the Eagle, for we spent three most glorious years within its sacred precincts, years that are laden with pleasing memories, and its prosperity has followed in the intervening years with interest. The Eagle is one of the best edited strictly local papers in the state bar none.—Copperas Cove New Era.

The Goldthwaite Eagle, like the bold Italian bird wheeling around the snow-capped crags of the Alps, screams back from the summit of 22 tempestuous years that "all is well." New feathers adorn its proud and stately head and on the wings of faith and hope it circles higher and still higher in the clear blue skies of service and success, far above the storm of doubt and envy and competition that rage and beat about the average newspaper. With the exception of the first few months, the "piping" period of its life, R. M. Thompson has been its guiding genius. Thompson is an all round newspaper man—one of the cleverest in the state—a good citizen, friend, and neighbor and a Christian gentleman, and these are the noblest titles man ever bore. May the Eagle continue to serve and please its people and the future years of Bob Thompson be the most useful and pleasant.—San Saba News.

BOOSTERS COMING

The Temple boosters will be here next Monday in a special train to meet the business people and advertise Temple. There was an excursion of the business men of that town last year and they made quite a favorable impression here and it is certain they will meet with a cordial reception Monday. The hour for the arrival of their train having been fixed at 7:07 in the evening the Commercial club and the business men individually will not be able to entertain them as well as they would had the train reached this place at an earlier hour. However, we will do the best possible under the circumstances.

WANT POSTOFFICE

The citizens of the Antelope Gap and San Saba peak neighborhoods have petitioned the postoffice department to establish a postoffice at Los Dinero, which means the siding at the Ware or C— ranch, about ten miles south of this city. The community certainly needs a postoffice, as the citizens of that section must either come to this city or go to Lometa for their mail. There is a large settlement there and the department should undoubtedly grant the request.

WANTS YOUR GINNING

I have taken charge of the Perry gin, better known as "Grandma gin" in Goldthwaite and will appreciate the patronage of the farmers of this section. I promise every accommodation and courtesy within my power. Respectfully,

On Waste in Cotton Marketing

Henry N. Pope, lecturer Texas Farmers' Union, when asked to estimate the annual loss due to improper methods of marketing the Texas cotton crop said in part:

"The waste in cotton marketing begins at the gin and it follows the product through every step from the gin to the mill and it aggregates an enormous waste which could be prevented, amounting to not less than five dollars per bale. Samples taken from the bale by the cotton buyer amount in the United States annually to 100,000 bales, which is known to commerce as the 'city crop'. At normal prices, that cotton is worth $60 per bale making a total of $6,000,000 per year. Experts calculate that storage for cotton can be provided at a cost of $1.50 to $2.00 per bale for the permanent structure. This loss, amounting to $6,000,000 occurs annually and the saving of this item alone within two or three years would provide all the cotton warehouses that the South can possibly use at the time of its greatest need for storage and with the largest crop that it can possibly produce, for cotton will move continually from September to March and at no time, nor under any circumstances, would there ever be more than one-third or one-fourth of the total crop under shelter.

As a consequence of the cutting of the bale for the sample, the cotton must be repacked at the compress. The ragged condition caused by much sampling and exposure in the gin yards, or in the back yard, or in the cotton yards, or on the railroad platform, or elsewhere, from the gin to shipside, results in an accumulation of dirt and trash in 'pluckings' on compress platforms and in cotton yards in increased insurance, in damage from exposure, in increased fire hazards and the deduction for the tare which always exceeds the actual weight of the bagging and ties by ten pounds at least—I say that these several items of waste and graft amount in the aggregate to a sum not less than five dollars per bale, every cent of which is calculated in advance by the purchaser, and is deducted from the price which the spinner pays the farmer. None of this appears in the bill of lading but is all in the transaction and it all accrues to the loss of the producer.

The next process is official grading of the cotton sample. In my judgment the farmers are losing from fifty cents to one dollar per bale by the grading of the cotton buyer, who naturally will give himself the benefit of the doubt in order to protect his own business with the mill. A cotton buyer, uncertain as to whether a bale of cotton is strict, middling or middling fair, will buy it at the lower grade rather than the higher. We must allow that there are many dishonest men in the cotton trade, as in other vocations, and that a large number of them will take advantage of the farmer's ignorance and possibly grade the cotton much lower than its actual grade."

TRUSTEES TO MEET

Judge Dalton and the county board of education request the school trustees of the county to attend the county institute here on Friday, Sept. 17, for the purpose of hearing State Supt Doughty discuss the million dollar educational appropriation and explain how the schools are to obtain their pro rata share of it. This is an important matter and every trustee should be present and patrons of the rural schools would also do well to hear his explanation.

MAIL CARRIERS CONVENTION

The Letter Carriers association, composed of the rural carriers of McCullough, Lampasas San Saba and Mills counties, will hold a semi-annual meeting at San Saba Monday, that being a holiday. These conventions are always helpful as well as pleasant and a great many of the friends of the carriers join with them and their families in the enjoyment of the occasion. Several Goldthwaite people are expected to accompany them from this place and the Eagle editor appreciates very much an invitation to attend.

C. E. Anderson and family will occupy the Street residence, just south of the Catholic church.

Reports continue to come of the murder and maltreatment of Americans in Mexico, but it seems that these things do not deter the venture-some from trying their fortunes in that country of blood and famine.

The A. B. C. mediation in Mexican affairs appears to have failed signally, in fact, Villa was the only factional leader in Mexico who took kindly to the plan and he seems now to have lost hope or confidence in it.

The United States submarine vessel which went to the bottom at Honolulu last March, carrying 22 men to their death has been raised and floated after months of work and with immense expense.

The government's estimate of the cotton crop up to Monday was that it is 69.2 per cent of normal and that less than 12,000,000 bales will be marketed this season, which will be five million less than last year. This estimate is not likely too high and causes those interested in cotton to hope the price will be more satisfactory than it was last season.

A man has just been arrested in St. Louis charged with crimes which, if true, will show that he has lived a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" life for 46 years. In some places he is known as a robber and leading citizen and in other localities under a different name he is an outlaw and escaped convict. The fact that it is claimed he has lived the double life so long without detection makes the story almost unbelievable.

A contest of the new warehouse law is being made by the Texas ginners association, the most objectionable feature of the law to them being the taking of three samples from each bale of cotton ginned. The state secretary of the organization was arrested at Taylor last Saturday for refusing to sample the cotton as required by law and his case has been carried to the court of appeals on a writ of habeas corpus.

The Bailey banquet and love feast at Dallas last Friday night has put the subject of a successor to Senator Culberson uppermost in the minds of those of a political turn. Some believe this banquet was the opening of Mr. Bailey's campaign for the position, while others think it was the getting together of his friends for the purpose of agreeing upon a candidate other than him. The "fellow up a tree" can only watch and wonder.

The announcement is made that Judge John D. Robinson of Belton will be candidate for congress from his district in the next campaign. His friends here regret extremely that he has formed the determination, for it now becomes certain we are to lose his services as district judge, which position he has filled with much ability and his affable and courteous manner makes him very popular with the people. It is sincerely regretted that we of Mills county will not be given the opportunity of supporting him for congress, since we can not have him for judge, but the district in which he is located does not embrace this county. He is one of the best qualified district judges in Texas and his splendid ability will be felt and appreciated in the congress of the United States.

There are occasions when mob law can perhaps be justified and even when the burning of a human being at the stake is believed to be right, but the crime committed by the mob at Sulphur Springs Sunday night was not one that could be condoned under any circumstances. Two officers attempted to arrest two negroes when the blacks fired upon the officers, killing one and wounding the other. A posse located the negroes and in a battle with them one of the negroes was killed and the other wounded. Both were carried to Sulphur Springs and burned. The crime committed by the negroes was not one for which burning is justifiable and it is to be hoped that those who engaged in the savage proceedings will be made to suffer for it.

Procter, graciously received and entertained her guests.

Lometa received its first two bales of cotton last Friday, both bales being ginned by the Farmers and Merchants Gin Co. They were both brought in at the same time and the producers of the cotton were Commer Alexander who lives in the Antelope Gap country and Rejino Alvarado, who lives about three miles south of Lometa. Henry Stallings bought the Alvarado cotton, paying 8 3/4 cents a pound for it, and J. L. Butt-rill bought the bale belonging to Mr. Alexander, at the above mentioned price.—Reporter.

there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 31st day of March, ffenreidt, C. L. Bateman and wife, Emma Gertrude Bateman, and the unknown heirs and unknown assigns each of the said

A. H. Draughon, Flem DeGraffen-reidt, C. L. Bateman and Emma Gertrude Bateman, are the defendants.
Said petition alleging that on March 1st, 1915, the plaintiff was seized and possessed of the Obs Johnson as, Pat. No. 546, Vol. 120, dated March 17th, 1888, on the waters of Pecan Bayou (described by notes and bounds) and that on said date the defendants entered upon said premises and ejected him and prays for recovery of said premises with writ of possession, costs, etc.

As a second count that B. F. Win-deed there is an erroneous description clouding plaintiff's title.

That on November 9th, 1910, B. F.

the defendants F. W. Crum, I. H.
Neal, W. W. Wallis, W. B. Tatum, Flem DeGraffenreidt, C. L. Bateman assumed the payment of said note, that all the defendants assert claim to or liens upon said premises which cast clouds upon plaintiff's title.

Plaintiff prays for rescission and recovery of the land or alternatively for judgment for his debt with foreclosure.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon showing how you have executed the same.

GIN NOTICE

Our gin has been thoroughly overhauled, having put in new saws and ribs, making the stands do as good work as new ones. As is our custom we do all repairing before the ginning season commences, and are therefore fully equipped to give our customers good work and quick service. We will grind corn at any time. Wishing to thank our customers for their patronage, we are, Respectfully,

NO EXCHANGE OF BOOKS

The time limit for exchanging school books with the publishers has now expired and there will not be an exchange price for school books hereafter. Under the uniform school book law the publishers were required to pay for the old books for two years, but now they will not be required to do so.

SLANDERING THE SOUTH

Not one, but several of the papers of the North and East have seen fit to slander the South as a result of the lynching of Leo Frank. The slanders that they utter on the subject are but evidence of the fact that the editors of the papers in question fail to measure up to the broad-gauged standards that properly should be set for them.

Those who slander the South because of this lynching should remember that people in the South were the first to condemn the acts of the lawless Georgians. They should remember, too, that Georgia is but a small part of the South and that its sins can not be placed on the shoulders of all people who live south of the Mason and Dixon line. They should also remember that in the most aggravated cases there has been a constant condemnation on the part of better citizens of all lynching bees, no matter where they may have been held.

The South does not approve of lynchings. The South does not approve of the murder of Leo Frank. Those who take any other view are either so grossly misinformed as to be incompetent absolutely of forming a just and proper opinion or they reach a false conclusion willfully. There is no middle ground for them to stand upon.—Austin Statesman.

S. KEMP DEAD

Friends here were grieved when they learned of the death of Mr. S. Kemp at his home in Mullin Friday night. He was an old and honored citizen of the county and had many friends. His health had been bad for a long time and his death was not unexpected to those who knew of his condition. The bereaved family has the sincere sympathy of many friends in every part of this county and elsewhere, for Mr. Kemp was held in high esteem wherever he was known.

We Are In Better Shape

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ORGANIZED

Ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, met at Center City Wednesday afternoon, September 1, 1915 and re-organized a Woman's Missionary Society. There were seven members enrolled and the following officers were elected: Mrs. J. T. Owens, president; Mrs. J. R. Robinson, first vice president; Miss Sadie Owens, second vice president; Miss Nora Head, third vice president; Mrs. W. G. Welch, fourth vice president; Mrs. T. A. Gardner, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Viola Chappell, treasurer and recording secretary.

Mrs. Novella Knight was appointed as agent for the Missionary Voice. Five copies of the paper were ordered by members of the society.

It was agreed by the society that we meet the following Monday afternoon of each second and fourth Sunday. One of these meetings to be devotional the other business.

Our pastor, Bro. Robinson, kindly consented to preach a special sermon regarding missions, to help increase our membership.

The society was dismissed by the Pastor to meet again at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, Sept. 13. REPORTER.

R. S. SMITH DEAD

Roger Smith of the Center community received a message Thursday bringing the sad information that his father, Mr. R. S. Smith, had died that morning at the Baptist sanitarium in Dallas, where he had been for treatment. The old gentleman lived in this county several years ago and is kindly remembered by all who knew him. He was a high-minded gentleman of the old school. At the time of his death his home was near Tyler and his remains were carried there for interment. Roger Smith left here Thursday night to attend the funeral and be with other members of the bereaved family.

SETTLEMENT WANTED

A number of people indebted to me promised to settle when they sold their grain. I acted upon the promises, believing they would be kept and I now request and urge those who owe me to make settlement. No one needs what is due them more than I do and surely I have been lenient and have waited a long time on some of these notes and accounts. This is meant for all who owe me and I hope it will have the result of securing a settlement of the indebtedness. J. D. CALAWAY, M. D.

I guarantee satisfaction as far as it is in my power to give and will strive to please my customers in every way. Respectfully, J. E. GREATHOUSE.

Floyd Jackson and wife have moved from the southern part of town to the residence known as the Milton Cline place, next to Dr. Campbell's home, north of the high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Bolter left Wednesday night for their old home in Virginia, where they expect to remain. They were pioneer settlers in this section, having located in the Trigger mountain country many years ago.

It is understood Mrs. W. F. Page will again take charge of the Rock hotel on Sept. 15. Mr. Taff, who has had charge of the hotel for the past year, has not made known whether he will continue in that line of business or engage in some other line.

The Eagle appreciates very much an invitation by Mr. J. W. Roberts to attend a concert at Rock Springs yesterday afternoon at the close of the vocal school at that place. We heard good reports from the class at that place and would have been glad to attend the concert had circumstances permitted.

The new Santa Fe passenger depot has been accepted by the company from the contractor and was opened to the public Wednesday. Only the passenger business and baggage will be handled therein, the old building being used for freight and express. Another improvement the company has made in the service is the addition of L. E. Booker to the depot force. He has charge of the baggage and express departments.

The news reports inform us that "General" Pascal Orozco has passed over the Texas border once too often and his light was put out by a posse of Texas officers and citizens near where he and some of his outlaw followers had depredated upon ranch property. That is the way to get rid of the marauding, thieving greasers who have been terrorizing the Texas border and that is the way the "revolutionists" could be made to stop firing across the line into Texas. Instruct the soldiers to return the fire and there will be no more battles near the border.

The Three Blind Men and the Elephant

They were taken to "see" the elephant. The first one touched the trunk and said that the elephant was like a snake. The second one grasped a leg and said, "How like a tree!" The third passed his hand along the side of the huge beast and said, "Just like a wall." As is frequently the case, they didn't combine their knowledge.

Take three engineers and their lubricating problems. One has achieved perfect valve lubrication. Another has reduced wear and trouble on his guides. The third knows how to make gears last longer.

The combined knowledge of the three would increase the value of each one to himself, and to his employer. How can they exchange experiences?

By getting in touch with an organization which has worked out thousands of these lubricating problems. Such an organization is back of Texaco Lubricants. Unlimited experience in all parts of the country, plus the means for giving you the benefit of that experience, enables us to solve your particular lubricating problems.

On this basis we have built up an extensive, growing business in all classes of lubricants.

The engineers who have benefited by our service cover the country, and embrace every industry—yours included.

REACHED HOME SAFELY

G. B. Brown and family reached their home in Killeen Saturday night, O. C. Hallmark and family coming in Sunday morning.

In conversation with Mr. Hallmark in regard to their position during the tropical storm of last week, he stated that a passenger bore them the tidings at midnight Sunday of the approaching storm and nineteen minutes later they were leaving their camp on the island for higher and safer ground, taking refuge in a school house in which they remained until Wednesday.

Mr. Brown feared the loss of his car at one time while returning to their former camping ground. They were traveling over a seemingly solid stretch of land between the bayou and a large lake on the prairie when Mr. Brown changing gear killed his engine and at that same instant the car began to sink into a quagmire. They worked very earnestly and quickly in getting out but Oscar says they had not been working at all until they saw a long stretch of water bearing down upon them in the distance. They succeeded in getting to safety in ample time to see several feet of water go over the place they had vacated. Oscar always sees the comical side of a situation and some of his narratives of their experiences are right laughable.—Killeen Herald.

The farmer who spends three days a week in town will succeed about like the merchant who spends three days a week in the country. When a man has a business to attend to and does not attend to it, he loses it and loses out. This applies to the farmer as well as any other class, and any landlord who imagines he can safely leave his interests in the hands of tenants or hired men half the time is on a par with the office boss who thinks he can shoulder his responsibilities onto the office boy. If farming as a vocation is worth following at all it's worth following closely. If merchandising is worth a merchant's time, it is worth also his intelligence; and the record is that the merchant who does not give his business very close and intelligent attention soon ceases to be a merchant. It is an evidence of farming's fundamental safety that so many farmers succeed in making fair livings and staying out of debt while devoting but little of their thought and labor to it. The farmer declares he has a hard and laborious life. Sometimes that is true. But many land owners, small as well as large, actually devote less time to their fields and farmsteads than the 8-hour-a-day men of the cities devote to their workshops, and far less than the average merchant prince devotes to his office and store.—Dallas News.

In a truly progressive age the boy and girl should agree on the amount of alimony she is to receive in case of divorce. Considerable legal expense will be saved if this question is settled before the wedding. They could enter into a contract something like this: "Know all men and women by these presents, that the following agreement has this day been entered into by and between Mr. Ivanhoe Beau, party of the first part, and Miss Helio trop Princess, party of the second part. In consideration of an agreement made by party of the second part to marry party of the first part agrees that in case the matrimonial barge, boat, canoe or raft shall run into or against any snag, rock, shoal or sandbar, causing said matrimonial vessel to sink, upset or in any wise become unseaworthy, or if any violent storms of any character whatsoever overtake them, that he, the said party of the first part, will pay said party of the second part a monthly stipend of $12." Of course in some cases it may be necessary to give a larger amount, but it is much easier to drive a bargain in the moonlight before marriage than it is to drive one in the court room.—Claude Callan in Star-Telegram.

Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Jeter, who have taught several successful terms of school in this county, are preparing to move to Llano county, where they have contracted for a good school. Their many friends here wish them continued success.

The board of examiners for school teachers was in session yesterday with quite a number of applicants to be examined for certificates.

Robt. Littlepage has returned from Taylor, Austin and other points, where he has been in the interest of a proposition to prospect for oil in this county. There are good prospects for securing oil and he feels that he can interest the necessary capital as soon as he secures the required lease on lands in the territory the test well is to be located.

The death of Col. F. B. Ballito at his home in Cleburne a few days ago caused deep and abiding sorrow for all newspaper workers of high or low estate in Texas. Col. Ballito was one of the most universally beloved members of the profession. For a long term of years he had been traveling for the Western Newspaper Union and his visits to the country printing offices were looked forward to with pleasure and the annual meetings of the Press association were made more pleasant and attractive because of his presence. The "Old Colonel" was a friend to all the newspaper folks and we all loved him. Peace to his ashes and repose to his soul.

When a man lets his girl child have free run of the town and its amusement resorts; when he fails to censor her taste in dress and escorts and amusements, and when he permits her to go where she will, with whom she will and return when she will; when the father of a child is so manifestly indifferent to her future as to have no concern for her present, it is a fair assumption on the part of the daughter and her masculine friends that he doesn't care where she goes or what she does. The result is often written in court dockets or sensational newspapers, and the parents usually come in for a lot of sympathy. The truth is that many fathers and mothers are so anxious for their daughters to have men friends and to get married and out of the way that they are disposed to take chances which should not be taken and accept for her attentions of men who are unfit to associate with good girls. We hear a good deal about delinquent girls and their sorrows. Why do we not hear more about the parents who have contributed to the delinquencies of such girls.—Galveston News.

Where shall the boy and the girl of Texas parents "go off" to school? This is a question which passes itself on the hearts of Texas parents at this time of each year. It is estimated that no less than 2,000 students leave Texas every year to attend colleges and universities of other states. They spend annually, in this way, out of the state more than $2,500,000. Just why a Texas boy should be sent to another state for his education is a question which has never been answered to our satisfaction. Of course, this is a free country and possibly it is none of our business. But these Texas boys should expect to live and fight the battle of life in Texas. Texas has just as good colleges and universities except the technical school, as any state. At the Texas college our boys and girls would meet, get acquainted with and form associations with the people whom they are to do business with during a life's career. Wouldn't that be of some advantage. If it is the name of it they go away for, we ask, what's in a name. In Texas very few boys rise to fame or fortune on the family name. Happily here every man is the architect of his own fortune. He is what he makes himself.—San Saba News.

If you intend to sell land get your abstract of the title thereto prepared first, otherwise the delay in perfecting your title may cause you to miss a sale. -E. B. ANDERSON, Abstractor.

An experienced employer attaches little importance to written recommendations. He remembers how many he has himself given and how little they really meant. -N. Y. World.

If you are buying land require the seller to furnish you an abstract of his title, so you may know you are getting a good title. If you contemplate selling your land, have an abstract thereto prepared first, so you will know what kind of title you can make to it, as the purchaser is almost sure to want to know. I have the only complete set of abstracts of the land titles of Mills county and will make your abstracts for a reasonable charge and will help you cure your titles if defective. -E. B. Anderson.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Goldthwaite Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments--are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy--have proved its merit in many tests. Goldthwaite readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Goldthwaite citizen.

Joe Taff, prop. Rock Hotel, Goldthwaite, says: "I was subject to spells of backache for years. When these attacks came on, it was pretty hard for me to stoop or do anything I have used Doan's Kidney Pills procured from Clements' Drug Store, and they have always given me relief from these troubles. I think very well of this medicine."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy--get Doan's Kidney Pills--the same that Mr. Taff had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

TO THE PUBLIC

"I feel that I owe the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy a word of gratitude," writes Mrs. T. N. Witherall, Gowanda, N. Y. "When I began taking this medicine I was in great pain and feeling terribly sick, due to an attack of summer complaint. After taking a dose of it I had not long to wait for relief as it benefited me almost immediately." Obtainable everywhere (adv)

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION

It is certainly surprising that any woman will endure the miserable feelings caused by biliousness and constipation, when relief is so easily had and at so little expense. Mrs. Chas. Peck, Gates, N. Y., writes: "About a year ago I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured me of biliousness and constipation. Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

SOME FAILURES

A dozen failures sat and talked before the county jail; their early hopes this life had mocked--why do so many fail. Well two of them had never learned their promises to keep, so by prosperity they are spurned, as being false and cheap. And two of them are afraid they'd earn more than they drew, so now they're loafing in the shade with naught on earth to do. And two of them had swollen heads--they knew more than the boss so now they're lacking board and beds, each one a total loss. Those who would talk an endless streak and whoop about their rights; they've row been hungry for a week, and have no roosts at night, the two who're shedding tear for tear, are plunged in frightful woe, because one time they didn't hear the evening whistle blow. The last two of this seedy flock thought independence fine; when they were due at eight o'clock they'd not show up till nine. They all look cheap, in their pants they have no sign of kale; they're saying that they have no chance. Why do so many fail--Walt Mason.

NOTICE TO THE TAX PAYERS OF MILLS COUNTY

House Bill No. 91, Chapter 85 of the Acts of the 34th (last) Regular Session of the Legislature of the State of Texas, provides for the recording of State, County and Municipal Tax Receipts in the County Clerk's Office.

This law is to some measure important to owners of real estate, as it is for the protection of such property, for it is quite a difficult matter to keep track of all the tax receipts from year to year. Abstractors are justified in refusing to certify to taxes, unless these receipts are recorded. This law provides for recording the old tax receipts as well as the new ones, and the fee fixed by said law is 25 cents for each receipt. W. B. SUMMY, County Clerk, Mills County, Texas.

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD

"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and found them to be just as represented, a quick relief for headaches, dizzy spells and other symptoms denoting a torpid liver and a disordered condition of the digestive organs. They are worth their weight in gold," writes Miss Clara A. Driggs, Elba, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere. (Advertisement)
