MERREL SCHOOL

Editor Eagle: As it has been sometime since I've seen anything from this part of the world, I thought I would drop the bird a few lines.

Cotton picking is over in this part of the county and everybody is preparing for a new crop, but I don't think they aim to feed the boll weevil much next year, from the way they have begun to sow oats and wheat, for they have found out they can't live on cotton.

Our school is progressing nicely. We haven't a full school yet, but Mr. Davis Huckabee, the teacher, expects all the pupils next week and then he will have a fine school we hope.

Mr. Alonzo Harris and family visited Mr. T. A. Yeager last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts also Mr. John Havens and some friends from Hamilton county made a flying trip up to Mr. Yeager's in their car.

Mr. J. M. Harris' daughters visited their sister, Mrs. Charley Griffith last Sunday. Mrs. Griffith's baby, little Johnnie, had been sick, but the girls said she was better when they came home, which we were glad to hear.

Mr. Tom Green and Mr. Will Tully were out gathering up sweet potatoes last Tuesday. Guess they are going to peddling, so look out for a peddler.

Mr. W. A. Harris, Boyd Yeager and Mr. Cox's boys went turkey hunting last Sunday, but I haven't learned what success they had.

Mrs. Will Tully visited at Mr. T. H. Green's last Tuesday.

Mr. Perry Yeager and Mr. Boyd Yeager returned last Saturday night from Winters. They have been out west picking cotton. They say they like that country fine.

Health in this community is good, so I'll ring off and give Smiling Billie the floor.

Mrs. Claud Eacott visited relatives in Temple this week.

Joe Taff was among the visitors to the cotton palace the first of the week.

Wm. Cline went to Lardlett Tuesday to be present at the marriage of a friend.

Mrs. Lewis Hudson returned Wednesday from a visit to her mother at St. Joe, Texas.

Dr. M. L. Brown was here from Brownwood Saturday, looking after business matters.

S. J. Cross, surveyor of San Saba county, was a visitor to this city the first of the week.

Mrs. J. A. Hester and little son of Mullin visited relatives here the first of the week and left Tuesday for Lometa to visit.

R. W. and M. D. Long, two of the best men of the Big Valley community, were business visitors at the Eagle office Monday.

E. F. Casey and W. W. Tippen were two of the prominent business men of Mullin who visited this city the first of the week.

John Nesbit, one of the best men of the Pleasant Grove country, was an appreciated caller at the Eagle office one day this week.

W. T. Little and his wife and son came over from Hamlet Sunday for a visit to relatives. He returned home Monday, but Mrs. Little and son remained for a longer stay.

Mrs. H. C. Burch and children of Sibley, who spent several days here visiting her sister, Mrs. R. E. Clements, and family, left the first of the week for San Angelo to visit relatives.

Only a few days will elapse until the Eagle will be authorized to announce a wedding in which a number of Mills county people will be greatly interested.

PICKENS SPRINGS

Editor Eagle:

My! My! How I enjoyed reading all those good letters last week. Did not No. 8 from Ebony look lonely. Wonder where No. 7 has gone? May be as Kate and Dupli-Kate said of Dish Washer, may be he or she has also called the sea of matrimony, but we hope the poor fellow is more fortunate than that 'C' and hope to welcome him with No. 8 back again.

Charlie Wrinkle returned home last week from Winters, where he spent some time visiting.

Mrs. T. M. Beshears and children of Mullin spent Saturday and Sunday visiting in our community.

Some of the young people of this place attended the box supper at Trigger mountain Friday night.

There is some talk of the young people organizing a literary society at this place in the near future.

Mrs. Jim Randle and daughter, Miss Myrtle, spent Saturday visiting in Mullin.

Miss Etta Goodwin went to Zephyr Sunday afternoon and will spend next week visiting at that place.

Ernest Beaver is a guest at the Wrinkle home at this writing.

Floyd Jackson and wife are the proud parents of a fine boy who arrived at their home in Temple Monday.

When the city of Ardmore, Oklahoma, was wrecked by an explosion of gas from a car of gasoline, with a loss of forty lives, the Santa Fe Railroad fresh from its extended rescue work at Galveston, hastened to assure the people of Ardmore that they would protect the victims of the explosion against loss as far as it lay within the company's power. While the explosion was still under investigation, and without waiting for the judgment of the courts regarding its liability, the railroad sent a committee to work with a committee of Ardmore citizens in an effort to list the damage claims and pay them off at once. What could be fairer or juster? Give the railroads a square deal.—Leslie's.

A number of Mills county people had the unexpected opportunity of seeing real airships passing over Tuesday afternoon. The airships were of the government fleet passing from Fort Sill, Okla., to Fort Sam Houston San Antonio. Six of the machines left Waco Tuesday morning en route south, but four of them lost their course and drifted far out of lace but made a landing in the Lampasas river country, got their bearings and then proceeded on their way, reaching Austin in the afternoon. They passed over the southern portion of Mills county and were seen by people in the Antelope Gap and San Saba peak communities. While the loss of time in making the long trip out of the course was not intended at the outset, it has proved of benefit to those operating the machines, since it has enabled them to calculate more accurately the effect of the wind on their machines and they have gained experience in the importance of taking the proper bearings that will be helpful to them in future.

LAMPASAS

Work has begun on the addition to the Christian church, the new part now under construction to be used as a Sunday school room.

Rain to the depth of nearly three-fourths of an inch fell Saturday and Sunday, putting a good season in the ground and laying the dust effectually.

George Rosson, who has been manager for the S. W. Telephone Company at this place for several years, has gone to Winters, where he will engage in the produce business with his brother, who is already established there in that line.

The local Baptist church has secured the service of Rev. S. E. Tull, of Temple, to hold a protracted meeting here beginning about the fourth Sunday in February, 1916. The church voted upon the matter at the conference held Wednesday night.

Captain J. F. Lewis, father of Howard F. Lewis and Miss Ferrell Lewis, died at his home in the northwestern part of Lampasas, Wednesday afternoon, November 17, at about 5 o'clock. He had reached the ripe age of 83 years, and had made an honorable, upright man, faithful father and splendid citizen.—Leader.

COMANCHE

Mrs. Betty Cook, one of the best known and widely loved women in Comanche county passed into the vast forever after an illness of six weeks at a sanitarium in Austin, November 14th, at 1 a. m.

The Comanche Cotton Oil Co. began their first run on peanuts last Friday night and shipped their first car of peanut oil Tuesday. The venture is proving a greater success than was expected. The nuts contain a great deal of oil and the cakes have the appearance of an excellent feed.

The gin report for Nov. 1, of this year as given by official reporter, S. W. Switzer, shows 4,769 bales ginned in the county as against 11,935 by Nov. 1st, 1914; but little more than one-third of last year's crop and it is nearly all gathered.

Wednesday morning Clyde Marshall principal of the west ward school, while going to meet the early morning train, in crossing a vacant lot ran into a wire which had been fastened on the top of the fence posts. He was thrown from his feet and rolled into a ditch seriously bruising himself and splitting his upper lip so that six stitches had to be taken in crossing the wound.—Chief.

HAMILTON

Jake Boone of Shive has moved his family to Hamilton to send the children to school. At present they are making their home in one of the Cotton residences just west of the college hill.

Rev. Alonzo Monk Jr. leaves Monday for Corsicana to attend the annual Methodist Conference. Of course he does not know where he will be sent another year, and we do not know that he has expressed any preference.

Since the county was redistricted the commissioners court has created four more voting districts. Two of these are in the town of Hamilton, No. 22 in Commissioner Smith's district and No. 23 in Commissioner Schwartz's precinct.

The Herald regrets to chronicle the death last Sunday evening of an old and highly esteemed citizen of the county, Mr. Hugh Price of Pottsville. He died very suddenly. He had been about the place that day as usual, and had just come into the house and sat down in a chair complaining to his wife that his head was 'swimming.' She thought little of it, but soon looked around and saw his head had drooped, and going to him found him dead.

Last Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, Adolph Summers, about 45 years of age, living several miles east of Hamilton, killed himself with a shotgun in his home. He had been to town the day before, and return-

Wichita county has voted an issue of $225,000 in bonds to build a new court house at Wichita Falls.

In a letter to one of the pastors in Temple, Governor Ferguson has pledged his administration to assist in enforcing the prohibition law in Bell county.

The owner of the San Angelo street railway system has announced the determination of giving the system to the city, but there is so much opposition to the property being accepted it is likely the matter will be submitted to the voters.

Fire swept a great part of the red wood forest in LaHonda Valley, California, a few days ago, destroying some of the big trees. The fire was started by an incendiary who murdered a ranchman who attempted to interfere with him.

After an interview with President Wilson Tuesday, Henry Ford, head of the Ford Motor Co., announced his willingness to contribute all of his wealth as well as his personal efforts to bring peace in Europe. He stated he believed Christmas would be a good time to attempt to end the terrible conflict.

The state has become the owner of another large plantation on which convicts are to be worked. The purchase was made by the penitentiary commissioners and the governor. The property is located in Madison county and 4327 acres are in the tract, with most of it in cultivation. There is a gin and other improvements and considerable stock, including mules, horses and cows. The price paid was $100,000.

A number of the counties in the state have already raised their pro-rata of the fund necessary for the expenses of the national Democratic convention, provided it is held in Texas. Dallas has guaranteed the money and the hall and the prospects are good for the convention being brought to Texas in 1916. San Francisco has offered $200,000 for the convention, but as the expense money is all the executive committee will require it is not likely the larger offer will have any bearing.

A banquet at Waco a few nights ago drew together several of the foremost politicians of the state among them some of the prospective as well as some of the announced candidates for United States senator. The business league offered a prize to the one who those present at the banquet determined had rendered the greatest public service and the award was made to former governor, T. M. Campbell of Palestine. The premium proved to be a small white donkey, the emblem of democracy.

Governor Ferguson held a consultation with Gen Carranza, head of the de facto Mexican government, across the river from El Paso, Tuesday, at which time the subject of depredations along the Texas border was thoroughly discussed and the Mexican commander agreed that the efforts of both governments should be exerted to stop the outlawry. Governor Ferguson was very favorably impressed with the general and thinks he will be capable of administering the affairs of Mexico.

Out at Denver a wise man died the other day. His name was Benard Beer, and he left two sons and a will that provides that the lads were to be given $500 each out of the estate at once, and every year thereafter they are to receive as much money as they have made and saved. At the end of the first year they have over a thousand dollars to the good, they get another thousand, but if they have squandered the original five hundred and have no assets they get nothing. In making this provision in his will, Beer explained that he desired to encourage habits of industry, thrift and economy in his sons, and to stimulate them to acquire a competence by their own efforts and the exercise of sound business judgment.—Mineral Wells Index.

TROPICO, CAL

Editor Eagle:

November comes like some gray ghost
Across the hills and valleys,
In russet leaves beneath her feet

The wind makes sudden sallies,
The bare trees stand like sentinels,
All silent, gray and dripping
Beneath the low-hung clouds.

Where vapor-wraiths are slipping,
Oh haste, November, gaunt and grim
Another step is nearing,
For Christmas waits impatiently

With message sweet and cheering.

Yes, November is here, and we are having the first rain since April. Commenced raining Friday, the 5th, and continued through Saturday and Saturday night. A beautiful gentle rain, everything looks lovely. Last night—Monday—another glorious shower fell, but this morning the sun came forth bright and beautiful.

17th—Following the rain "Jack Frost" made his appearance doing some damage to gardens. Mrs. White's beans, in blossom with young beans, were nipped so seriously that she does not hope to enjoy the fruit of her labor, but she is not alone, for many others had a similar experience.

Last Sunday I attended the M. E. church at Tropic in the morning, in the afternoon I went with my great grandson and his parents for an automobile drive, visited Casa Verdugo, Monta Rosa, Glassell Park and returned on San Fernando Boulevard. The scenery illustrated by the glorious sunlight was beautiful beyond description. Like the dumb poet "I can feel but cannot express."

That the San Diego exposition will continue thru 1916 is an established fact, the total amount pledged to the cash guarantee fund is reported to be $113,644. Only a few thousand more was needed, and I am sure has been secured since that report.

I hope that the same crowd, with many more added to it, from Goldthwaite, Mullin and other points in Texas will take advantage of the opportunity and come to California and that I, if I am spared, may meet old friends once more. I trust that the boll weevil will share enough to the people to justify their taking the trip to the golden west.

The long expected visit of "The Old Liberty Bell" was realized on the 15th inst. by the citizens of Los Angeles and suburbs. The greatest crowd ever gathered in any public place in Los Angeles thronged Exposition park to do homage to the Liberty Bell. So great was the crowd that a number of women fainted. Our little boy came near a collapse. It was estimated that 100,000 persons were inside or immediately surrounding the park, 70,000 Los Angeles children greeted the great bell with thousands of American flags of all sizes waving as the bell passed. The most beautiful blossoms of Southern California's flowerland and many flags were banked about the bell. A great American flag carried by the grand army men followed the bell car, the life and drum of the grand army playing war-time airs. After the reception of the Liberty Bell at Exposition park, the bell on its car was drawn back to the Southern Pacific track to resume its place in the rear end of the special train, and left at 1 p. m. on its way east.

The first stop after leaving this city was at Yuma, Ariz. In all, the old Liberty Bell was an honored guest of Los Angeles for just seven hours. And why shouldn't it be? When we recall the history of this emblem of Freedom. It is the one voice of gladness that links the Centennial Congress of 1776 with the Congress of 1915. But age has touched this venerated relic, its clarion calls will be heard no more. For more than eighty years, it rang proclaiming almost every important step toward the good of liberty. Its crowning achievement, which more than anything else gives it the name of the Liberty Bell occurred in July, 1776, when it proclaimed the Declaration of Independence. It pealed a welcome to George Washington, to the city of Philadelphia, then again it was muffled for the funeral solemnities of this great man, the father of our country, which occurred in 1799. July, 1835, it tolled the reu'iem of Chief Justice Marshall, and the bell spoke no more, the crack, made when it was tested in the years gone by, widened and its voice was stilled forever. Though its tongue is silent, its presence is even as profound in its message "Ring out, Peace to all." The spirit of the Liberty Bell will never die, it has lived a rich life. It has tolled for the makers of the nation, for their births, their deeds and their deaths and at last tolled its own voice out with Marshall. The spirit of the bell will never die.

With best wishes for the Eagle and all its readers, I am the same
MRS. M. M. VAN GLAHN.

AFTER FOUR YEARS

Goldthwaite Testimony Remains Unshaken.

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Goldthwaite story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight home to many of us.

Mrs. R. Urbach, Front St., Goldthwaite, says: "I was seriously afflicted with a bad attack of kidney trouble, the first symptom being a slight pain in the small of my back. This gradually got worse and I was hardly able to get about. Nights, I couldn't sleep well. If I caught cold, it always settled in my kidneys and increased my suffering. I finally decided that my kidneys were at fault, as the kidney secretions were unnatural. I then used Doan's Kidney Pills and received prompt relief. I am never without this medicine in the house.

The above statement was given on October 24, 1911 and on April 26, 1915. Mrs. Urbach said: "I still use Doan's Kidney Pills as I need them and they never fail to give me good results. I have all the confidence in the world in this medicine. Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Urbach had. BEWARE OF CHEAP SUBSTITUTE

In these days of keen competition it is important that the public should see that they get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and not take substitutes sold for the sake of extra profit. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has stood the test and been approved for more than forty years. Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

HOW TO PREVENT CROUP

It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Jones, Elida, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I kept a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and when he began having that croupy cough I would give him one or two doses of it and it would break the attack. I like it better for children than any other cough medicine because children take it willingly, and it is safe and reliable." Obtainable everywhere. (Advertisement.)

MARRIED AT LOMETA

Prof. J. T. Reed of the Goldthwaite public school and Miss Ruby Miller were married at the home of the bride's parents in the neighborhood of Lometa Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A number of the Goldthwaite friends of the young people were in the company witnessing the ceremony. Prof. Reed has only been here a short time, but he has made a splendid reputation for himself as a teacher and a citizen. Mrs. Reed is a stranger to most of the Goldthwaite people, but she is a sister of Mrs. Robert Rice who formerly lived here. Mr. and Mrs. Reed came to this city immediately after the wedding ceremony and are at home at the residence of Mr. J. T. Prater on Fisher street.

OBEDIENCE FIRST

Obedience is the first law of nature. Man although he boast of his independence owes most of his progress in intellect, physical development and improvement in efficiency to obedience. The fact that we have been able to survive in the struggle for existence so often mentioned by biologists shows that we have obeyed the laws of nature and the laws of health and the human welfare.

The first lessons a child must learn is to obey. Not only does the moral law require obedience to parents, but the natural law demands obedience in health and general welfare.

Lack of self control has wrecked many lives. There are many people in the world who have never submitted to authority. They were never required to obey parents; they refused obedience to nature's laws; they have scorned deference to the moral laws, transgressed the spirit and often the letter of state and national laws. Such people have never overcome self; they have not conquered vanity and egotism. They can never adjust themselves to the rules and requirements of organized society in a manner satisfactory to their feelings.

There is little hope for those who will not submit willingly to the laws of the country; who refuse co-operation with those whom the laws of the county or state authorize to do certain things for the good of society; who would place themselves and their business against public welfare and human progress.

"To obey is better than sacrifice." No man can be a good citizen who does not control himself, honor, respect and obey the laws of his state and nation. A good citizen does more than this. He honors and obeys the divine laws and is willing to contribute toward advancing his fellow citizens.

Obedience must be learned in youth. What a responsibility upon parents! The hope, aspirations and future success of children must depend upon self mastery and obedience, learned in childhood and in youth.—Farm and Ranch.

UNVEILING CEREMONIES

The unveiling of a monument at the grave of Roy Greathouse in the cemetery by the Woodmen of the World Sunday afternoon attracted a large audience. The ceremonies were conducted according to the ritual and the address for the occasion was delivered by Rev. J. G. Forester, pastor of the Methodist church, in most appropriate words.

The lodge is soon to unveil a monument at the grave of R. F. Long in Big Valley cemetery and also one at the grave of A. J. Gatlin in Rock Springs cemetery.

RIGHT SPIRIT ABOUT MAIL ORDER

Many of our merchants are to be congratulated in their efforts to combat the "mail order business." The trade-at-home proposition is rapidly gaining ground, the careful buyer is now passing up the glaring inducements offered by the pretty catalogue from the big mail order business and giving their attention to the reliable materials offered by their local business men. When it is remembered that the money that goes to the big mail order houses drains the cities and country, making it very hard for the smaller merchants to thrive, regardless of the fact that the local man can many times save you money, it certainly is time for the "home trade" people to get together. The fact of the matter is the big mail order houses are making their wealth from advertising, so why not read the honest offerings from our local merchants, instead of the alluring, misrepresenting pretty catalogues from the eastern and northern concerns.

Leave your dollars here. You will get your money's worth; you will assist the merchants to prosper and you will at the same time be directly assisting Sweetwater to build up in every enterprise.—Sweetwater Journal.

(8)—That all of said statutes of limitation and all rights of limitation in plaintiff under said statutes, the plaintiff now pleads in bar of the rights, claims and demands of the defendants and all of each of them.

(9)—Plaintiff further represents that none of the defendants whatsoever herein named and that none of the defendants herein referred to as the unknown heirs of the defendants or either of them herein named have any right, title or interest whatever in, to or upon said lands and premises or any part thereof whatsoever; but that because and by reason of certain defective acknowledgments appearing in the history of said title in the conveyance or conveyances made by some of said defendants and, because of the defective execution of certain of the deeds of conveyances by others of said defendants and because of defective or obscure recitations of the proper and accurate names in the conveyance or conveyances of other of said defendants and because of the defective record of the conveyance or conveyances executed by others of said defendants, and because of the omission by others of said defendants to acknowledge their deed or deeds of conveyances, and because of the omission through inadvertence, neglect or mistake of others of said defendants to execute deeds of conveyances at all, although their intention to so execute is manifest, and because of the absence from the record of proper administration proceedings in, to, covering and relating to the estates of others of said defendants necessary to make the records show and disclose the authority of such defendants to execute and convey good, proper and sufficient deeds of conveyance properly conveying title to the properties in and by said deeds intended to be conveyed, and because of various and divers other and sundry omissions of the defendants or some of them to convey their right, title and interest in said property to either J. W. Driskill or his immediate and remote vendors, and because of various other omissions, defects, errors, clerical and other omissions apparent of record in the deed and other records of Mills and Brown Counties, Texas, relating to the title to said properties or a part thereof, said records do not disclose that the defendants and all of them herein mentioned either by name and the unknown heirs of said defendants named parted with or divested themselves of the title to said property, lands and premises in said Brown and Mills Counties, Texas, thus disclose that the said several defendants hereinbefore named have an interest or claim in and to and part ownership of all or some portion, respectively, of said lands and premises, and each and all of which constitute and form a cloud upon the title of the plaintiff and damages and slanders plaintiff's title to said lands, property and premises.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment for all of said lands and premises and the title thereto against all and each of said defendants and all and each of the unknown heirs of all and each of said defendants and that all claims of right title and interest in, to or upon all said lands and premises or any part thereof in favor of all or either of said defendants or the unknown heirs of all or either of said defendants be adjudged and decreed to be without merit and to be clouds upon plaintiff's title and that plaintiff have judgment removing said clouds and quieting his said title and he prays for costs and all such other and further relief to which he may show himself entitled, both in law and in equity.

Herein, fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Goldthwaite this 22nd day of November, A. D. 1915.

C. D. LANE,
Clerk, District Court, Mills County, Texas.

DISTRESS IN THE STOMACH

There are many people who have a distress in the stomach after meals. It is due to indigestion and easily remedied by taking one of Chamberlain's Tablets after meals. Mrs. Henry Pradghan, Victor, N. Y., writes: "For some time I was troubled with headache and distress in my stomach after eating, also with constipation. About six months ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. They regulated the action of my bowels and the headache and other annoyances ceased in a short time." Obtainable everywhere. (adv)

A BAD ACCIDENT

Last Friday night a little son of Mr. A. B. Miller was run over by an automobile driven by Freddie Martin and his leg was broken. The accident was unavoidable and those who were witnesses to it attach no blame to the driver of the car or the child. Immediate attention was given the broken limb and the boy is resting as well as could be expected and will soon be fully recovered from the effects of the accident.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during his time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its being me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

CONFEDERATE MONUMENT

Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans met in special session in the court house Monday afternoon and a number of their friends met with them. The proposed monument to be erected to the members of the camp and deceased veterans was discussed and it was determined to erect the monument at a cost not to exceed $125. The plan of the monument, as prepared by Mr. J. N. Keese of this city was adopted and the contract for the erection of the monument was awarded him.

The design is square with a polished surface on the sides for the inscription of the names of the members of the camp. A shaft or figure six feet high will be placed on top of the monument at a later date, a delay in securing that portion of the monument being caused by the war, as the shaft is to be made of Italian marble. It was decided to have the monument erected on the public square, north of the court house.

A considerable amount has already been subscribed by members of the camp and others and it is believed there will be little effort necessary to raise the entire amount by popular subscription.

RANDALL—ATKINSON

She has a great many friends in this community and in other parts of the county who are glad to extend good wishes and congratulations to her and her husband.

MAKING GOOD

The many friends here of Bert Holden, now Judge Holden, are glad to know he has distinguished himself as a district judge. He is another of Mills county's former citizens of whom we are all proud. The McComb City, Missippi, Enterprise says of him:

The wonderful record being made by Judge Holden in this Circuit Court District continues to be the cause of favorable comment throughout the State and will eventually be the cause of saving the tax-payers of the state thousands of dollars in years to come. Judge Holden's prompt and business-like method of holding court is causing people in other sections of the state to sit up and take notice. They are beginning to ask their judges, why if a judge in another District can finish the work of a term which took from five to six weeks heretofore, in ten days to two weeks, they cannot do likewise. The result of Judge Holden's example is already being felt in other court districts and courts which have dragged thru weary weeks at each term in times past, are beginning to be conducted on a business like basis with a consequent reduction in the length of the terms of from one to three weeks. The tax-payers pay the biggest part of the expenses of the courts and this being the case it would seem that the tax-payers in every county in the state owe Judge Holden a debt of gratitude. The pace he has set for the other Judges puts it up to them to cut out the tomfoolery of the past and get down to business, and this they are doing with the consequent result that court costs are being reduced from a few hundred to several thousand dollars in each and every county.

President Wilson has issued an urgent appeal to the people of the United States to aid in alleviating suffering in the war area of Europe by contributions to the Red Cross society. In this connection the president says: The American Red Cross through whose instrumentality hundreds of thousands of our people have been enabled to give substantial expression to their pity for those who have fallen under the stroke of war, is nearing the exhaustion of its resources. Into its war relief fund it has received, in round sum, $1,600,000. In the sending and maintaining of nearly four hundred surgeons, nurses and sanitarians, who have carried American skill into all the zone of war, in financial aid for the hospitals and other Red Cross institutions and in the purchase and transportation of nearly 4,000,000 pounds of hospital and medical supplies and equipment, this sum has been reduced to less than $50,000 now available to meet the great demands of the approaching winter.

FINE FRUIT

The Eagle editor received a boxful of apples this week from his friend, Mr. Deed H. Mayar of Leavenworth, Wash., and we certainly appreciated them very much, both because of the nice fruit and the thoughtfulness of Mr. Mayar in sending them to us. The apples were almost of a uniform size and one we measured was twelve and one-half inches in circumference. They have a beautiful color and a delightful flavor. The Leavenworth Echo states that "The higher up the valley you go, the bigger and redder the apples grow," and we must believe that Leavenworth is at the very head of the valley.

SOCIETY ENTERTAINMENT

On Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Trent, the Home Mission Society was informally entertained by Mesdames Trent, Forester, Dickerson and Hudson.

Delightful refreshments of pine apple ice cream and marshmallow cake were served the guests as they arrived. A "penny for your thoughts" contest was the first form of entertainment and this was followed by a Bible Question contest which excited much interest.

The hostesses for the pleasant afternoon proved quite capable as well as charming, and each guest voiced their appreciation of the courtesy. REPORTER.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES

Morgan, pastor of the Baptist church, preached a most appropriate sermon, which was enjoyed and appreciated by the congregation.
