GLENDALE, CAL.

Editor Eagle:

Before offering my Xmas greetings to the readers of the Eagle, I will go back a short space into the last days of November.

On the 25th of November, Thanksgiving day was observed in Los Angeles and suburbs in true Thanksgiving spirit, the poor, the sick and even the prisoners were feasted. Following the example of our Lord and Savior, many citizens threw open their doors to those who, perhaps, would not have had a taste of the good things to eat that go to make up 'Thanksgiving Day.' In addition to this, home entertainments to the unfortunate, feasts were spread in different parts of the city for the needy.

Our family was entertained on that occasion by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Nefsey and Master William. Mrs. White and every member of her family gathered around the festal board and partook of a most delicious dinner, even to the turkey and pumpkin pie. Mrs. Wieman, nee Hassie White, was carried over by Mr. Nefsey in his auto. She has been in poor health for several months and is still an invalid.

Thanksgiving is peculiarly a family day, not held, however, at the present time, as being so important as in the days of the early pilgrims. To the children it has ever been a day of joy and happiness. The fond memories of childhood are still recalled by those of us who are in the 'sere and yellow leaf.' Even the Quaker poet, Whittier, sang of the pumpkin pie in connection with Thanksgiving.

Now December is here, and we are rapidly approaching the day that surpasses all other days in importance to the entire world. In Luke 2:8-18, we have the first Christmas and we can learn from this chapter how to celebrate the birthday of our Savior.

"And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flocks by night, and lo, the Angel of the Lord came unto them, and the glory of the Lord shown round about them, and they were sore afraid."

"And the Angel said unto them, fear not, for behold, I bring you glad tidings of great joy, which shall be to all the people, for unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you, ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in the manger."

"And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

"And it came to pass, as the Angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another let us now go even unto Bethlehem and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord has made known unto us."

"And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph and the babe lying in the manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was to all the people, concerning the child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them concerning the child."

Thus we have from holy writ, the origin of Christmas and we miss its chief beauty when in celebrating it, we forget its significance. As I see it, I think it impossible for the human mind to conceive a more beautiful scene than this first Christmas, when the shepherds watching their sheep by night, an Angel appeared unto them illuminated by the brightness and glory of the Lord and delivered the sweet message of the birth of the Savior, the scene made more rapturous by the appearance of a multitude of heavenly hosts praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace and good will toward men.

Amid this galaxy of beauty arose the star in the east, giving the finishing touch to the scene and at the same time guiding the "wise men" to the place where lay the "Prince of Peace," the Christ Child, to whom these wise men presented gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

The gift in Bethlehem was love. He so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son—that was the love of the first Christmas. Let us all keep in our minds and hearts this precious love and be able thru the eye of faith to call up the forms of the Angels and hear the echoes of those songs that made jubilant the first Xmas morn is my sincere wish for all.

As I will not write again this year, to the Eagle, I will wish for the editor and readers a happy, prosperous and useful new year.

SCHOOL MAN HERE

An Opportunity for Rural School Improvement.

Prof. Cunningham of the state department of education was here last Saturday and went to Democrat to speak on the subject of schools. He made the Eagle a pleasant call and we found him very enthusiastic regarding the improvements possible for the rural schools by means of the million dollar fund provided by the last legislature.

The conditions under which state aid can be granted rural schools are such that almost all of them could participate in the special fund. One of the requirements is that the district must vote a special tax "not to exceed" 50 cents on $100 property valuation. This does not necessarily mean that 50 cents must be levied by the district—in fact the school board of such district might determine that only 10 cents would be necessary, but must be given the authority to levy whatever amount is necessary, not to exceed 50 cents. Then the building of any district receiving this special aid must be arranged according to modern designs for affording the best light. This can be done by closing the windows on one side and placing more windows in the other side and the expense need not be more than a few dollars, or perhaps the patrons would do the work and make any financial outlay on this score unnecessary. The heating requirements can be met by placing a "jacket" around the stove already in the building. Other requirements can be met in the same inexpensive way by districts unable to install modern equipment.

So far, only Star and Democrat have availed themselves of this special aid for their schools, but there is really nothing to prevent every district in the county receiving aid from the fund and it is certain that such aid will far exceed the outlay required of any of the districts.

Those interested in the subject should take the matter up with Judge Dalton or the county school board.

Mrs. G. H. Frizzell left for Worthford Wednesday to spend the holidays with relatives.

GIRLS AS MANAGERS

The girls in our farm homes will have far greater influence in the activities of the farm and in rural society than they have in the past. The farm is no longer operated solely by those who have great physical strength. Intellect rather than muscle is the power in production. Whether or not it becomes the duty of girls to manage the farm and earn their living in the production of crops and animals there will be opportunities for those who are willing. The organization of boys' and girls' clubs has done much to dignify and exalt labor on the farm. These clubs have shown the possibilities of greater production; they have done more; they have taught young people that farm work is just as honorable, just as dignified, just as easy as a rule as work in the factory and the shop.

Girls find their greatest influence in the home, the school and the church, yet if it becomes necessary or expedient for girls to earn their own living or assist their feeble parents the farm may afford an opportunity for it. Improved implements, machines and conveniences have relieved the manager of drudgery and increased his earning capacity. With these facilities girls may become managers and profitable producers when this seems advisable—Farm and Ranch.

A negro desperado was shot and killed while resisting arrest in McCullough county Monday night. He had been employed by a citizen of Brady and when caught in the act of burrowing the residence, shot his employer in the shoulder and made his escape. He was followed by the sheriff and deputy and again engaged in a running fight, after firing upon the sheriff several times. When he was finally surrounded near Worthwell he made fight and was killed while exchanging shots with the posse.

Mrs. Graydon Elland of Ira arrived in the city Friday night of last week to visit Mrs. T. T. Nichols and other relatives thru the holidays. She was quite well known here as Miss Ethel Chery and has many friends in this and other communities.

Rev. L. L. Hays of Trigger Mountain was here Tuesday shipping a large amount of peas to Dallas, where he found a ready market at a satisfactory price. Farmers of Mills county raise many crops besides cotton, which accounts for the universal prosperity in this county.

Dr. Jones was here from Mullin Tuesday and informed some of his friends that he was preparing to move to Arizona. He expects to move in the next few days—perhaps next week. The many friends of this good family regret their departure, but wish them much prosperity.

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."

TAKE Cardui The Woman's Tonic

Cardui helps women in time of greatest need, because it contains ingredients which act specifically, yet gently, on the weakened womanly organs. ## SMILING BILLIE

Editor Eagle:

Christmas, did you say? Is it possible that another year has run its course and 365 days have swept by since the dawn of the last Christmas morn?

Can we look back on those fleeting days and honestly claim to be the doer of 365 good deeds—just an average of one a day? Are we willing to see the good deeds go in the scales against the bad ones? Laying aside all speculation, guesswork and preconceived ideas of our own and taking a broadside sensible, honest review of the past of our lives, what kind of showing have we made? Let us not wait to be brought face to face with the records when it will be too late to make a showing. How about it old boy? Have you made any improvements over last year? Are your accounts any ways near square? How about it girl's? Would you be willing for all your acts to be made known to your family? If we should be called from activity and good health suddenly into eternity, as thousands have been during the last 12 months, could we truthfully say, "It is well with my soul?"

If these questions are asked by poor Dear Billie, they are worth thinking about. Perhaps the old boy will yet make a happy hit on something and do some good before he goes hence. Those girls whom he has had such a strenuous time with, may get under conviction at this kind of talk and tell Billie who they are for a Christmas gift. If you will I will make it a point to go to see the last one of you, I mean I will say yes to every one who asks me to let them come see me. You see next year is leap year and you will have a chance to do something to worry the life out of a fellow besides writing about him. Ha! ha! ha. Old Billie, you dear old thing. You'll have to jump sideways if you get all that crowd of old maids—Oh! I meant all those charming girls coming to see you next year. Hurrah for leap year and the chance the girls will have to tell who they love—I mean to ask the boys to let them come to see them. I feel the embarrassment beginning to wear off already and the honey and sugar rising in my mouth as I anticipate the first one that asks me. I can't hardly wait to get to say, Most assuredly and with the greatest of alacrity, I sarcastically accept your company. Sure pop, Smiling Billie.

Now, Mr. Editor, if you don't think this a catchy spiel don't put it in your paper, for I want to be sure to say the right thing, for this will be something new for this child and he must be on his job before the time arrives so as to make a happy hit. Unless I hear from you, Mr. Editor, to the contrary I will take it for granted that you indorse my plans and I will proceed thusly.

Yours lovingly,
SMILING BILLIE.

Not only did the paper demonstrate the enterprising and progressiveness of its management, but it proved that Ballinger is indeed in truth one of the most enterprising cities in Texas. The paper is a credit to its publishers and will be of lasting benefit to that splendid town.

There were, during the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, 628 indictments returned in Texas for murder, of which 464 were brought to trial resulting in 294 convictions and 141 acquittals. Of those convicted, only fifteen received the death penalty, but whether this number paid the death penalty is left to guess, since the statistics given out by the Attorney General's office are apparently made up of the record of trial courts. But even if none escaped, if fifteen were hanged, the number is certainly not excessive. During the year there were more than fifteen cases of murder committed in circumstances that called for the infliction of the supreme penalty. The fact that the percentage of convictions was greater in the case of crimes against property than in that of crimes against persons is too natural to merit the emphasis given to it. If there were no other reason, the fact that property can not be charged with aggression or provocation would explain why these crimes are more successfully punished than are the graver ones against life and limb. This record is not peculiar to the courts of Texas.—Dallas News.

Items of Interest Culled From Local Papers of Towns Mentioned.

LOMETA

D. C. Bostic and Miss Mamie Brown were married at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon.

Dr. J. B. Townsen returned yesterday from St. Louis where he has been the past five months. We regret to report him as being sick, but hope he may soon be entirely recovered.

D. H. McCaughan, of Roscoe, has been here this week on a visit to his son, J. D. McCaughan, Mr. McCaughan formerly lived in this county and has many friends in Lometa who are always glad to see him.

The nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bilton was taken to Temple last Friday night, where he was operated on for appendicitis. We are glad to report him as being convalescent.—Reporter.

COMANCHE

Miss Zola Daniels and Mr. Neely Cox were married Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. P. Weatherby died at his home in Comanche Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The funeral took place at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Mrs. Mollie Godbold informs us that the family of her mother, Mrs. T. O. Moore will all be present at the coming holidays for a reunion. After that she expects to go to California to join her husband, S. W. Godbold, to make that country their future home.

Wallace Cunningham called to see us Saturday. He came here with his father, Uncle George Cunningham, in 1869, when he was but 15 years old. He is now past the poll tax age. His brother, George, left here in the early 80's and now lives in Oklahoma. Mrs. Lee Chancellor and Mrs. Henry, of Democrat, are the remainder of the family now living. Uncle George passed over the river a number of years ago. They are a mighty fine connection.

J. Q. Couch, who committed suicide last week at Gustine, as we learn from the Gustine Gazette, was 69 years of age. He had attended church services before noon and two sons had taken dinner with him. It was the usual family Sunday gathering of father, mother, grown-up children and other members of the family taking dinner at the paternal home. There was no sign of mental aberration and he participated in the social conversation during and after the meal. About four in the afternoon he went into a room, closed the doors and windows, and a gunshot alarmed the household. Upon entering the room they found him with the top of his skull blown off.—Vanguard.

LAMPASAS

Mrs. A. M. Cosby, who left here about two weeks ago to make her permanent home in Paris, died there Sunday.

Wednesday morning at 9:15, Miss Lula Smith of this city and J. A. Hendricks, of Midland, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Omar Smith.

Richie Paine was stricken with appendicitis last week, and was taken to Temple for an operation which his many friends hope will be successful and not detain him long from his work and his family and friends.

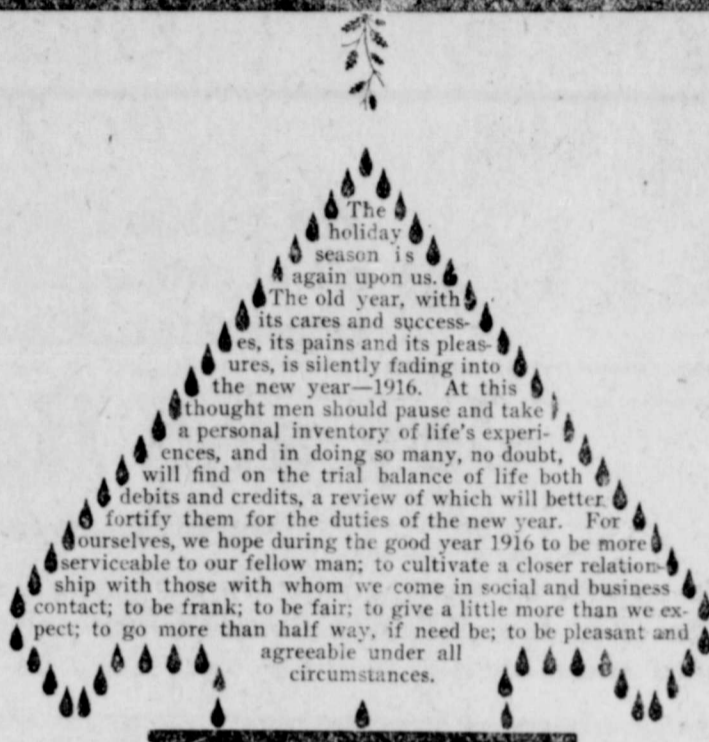

Mrs. W. F. Barnes and daughter, Miss Myrtle, have gone to New York City and other eastern points, and will probably not return home until the spring opens. Mr. Barnes will join them later in the season. News has been received here of the death of Dan W. Phillips, which occurred at Galveston, Saturday. He was 65 years of age, and made Lampasas his home from his youth until he moved to Galveston about 11 years ago. He held some responsible positions in the political world, one being that of representative from this district in the state legislature, the district then being composed of Lampasas, Burnet, Mason and San Saba counties. For many years he conducted a confectionery and fruit stand here. The widow and a number of children are left to mourn the death of husband and father.—Leader.

SAN SABA

Mrs. Claude Dickerson of Goldthwaite passed thru last week on her way to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. W. M. White, at Cheokee. She was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Whitte, while in this city. Mrs. R. A. Doran and son, John Hilla, returned home Saturday. Mr. Doran is now ranching in Tom Green county. Mrs. H. H. Doran accom-

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.
A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Goldthwaite resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

J. C. Fulton, stone mason, Goldthwaite, says: "Three years ago, I was taken down in bed with a severe pain in the small of my back. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, painful and unnatural. I decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills, as I had often heard that they were good for kidney troubles, so I got a box from Clements' Drug Store. I noticed improvement in my condition right away and after finishing two boxes, I was able to go back to work. I am never without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house." (Statement given October 24, 1911.)

No Trouble Since

On April 26, 1915, Mr. Fulton said: "I still think well of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no need of a kidney medicine since using them." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fulton had. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

ROCK SPRINGS
Editor Eagle:
Health of our community is very good this week.

Mr. J. H. Godwin was on the sick list the first of the week, but is much improved. at this writing.

There were only a few present at Sunday school Sunday morning, but in spite of the small crowd, we had a good Sunday school. Next Sunday we hope to see more of the members present.

The B. Y. P. U. is still progressing nicely under the able management of our president, Mr. Joe Roberts.

The young people enjoyed the parties at Mr. Carl Perry's and George Lewis, this week.

There will be preaching and dinner on the ground at Rock Springs next Sunday. Bro. White of Brownwood is expected to do the preaching.

School turned out Wednesday until after the Xmas holidays.

As this is about all the happenings of late, I will ring off wishing the editor and the many readers of the Eagle a very merry Xmas and a happy new year. JENNY LIND.

MULLIN
Editor Eagle:
Mrs. Aaron Little, wife of one of our largest and best farmers, was so badly burned Wednesday that it is thought there is no hope of her recovery. Clothes caught from fire around wash kettle.

Some evidences of booze finding its way into dry territory. Men are to be pitied who have acquired the appetite of strong drink. Trouble, sorrow, contentions, strife, enmity, wrecked homes, heart-broken wives, orphans and deaths are the results of strong drink and yet men plunge into the whirlpool of destruction regardless of families, country, law and the God who gave them being. A sad picture and such men are to be pitied.

Miss Myrtle Kemp returned to Temple last week to be operated on the second time in the last few weeks. From the way packages are going out on the rural lines, the parcel post business means something to someone.

The Methodist and Baptist Sunday schools are preparing for a Christmas tree Friday night.

Wishing the Eagle's force and all who read the Eagle a very large and happy Christmas, I will ring off.

H. C. COBB.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT
Mrs. Little Burned to Death at Her Home at Mullin.

Mrs. Aaron Little was burned so badly Wednesday morning at her home near Mullin that she died Thursday morning.

She was engaged in her duties about her home and had a fire around a washpot in the yard. In some way her clothing was ignited. With complete presence of mind she called to two children to bring a quilt and wrap about her. She then directed that water be thrown over her to quench the flames. A physician hurried to give her attention, but it was found that she was so terribly burned about the lower limbs and body that her recovery was impossible. She lingered until Thursday morning, when death relieved her sufferings.

Mrs. Little belonged to one of the oldest and most highly esteemed families of this section and was a lady of most excellent qualities. She and her husband located in the Mullin country many years ago and drew around them many warm friends who ever remained true to them. She leaves a husband and several children, besides other relatives who are overcome with grief and to them the sympathy of the people is extended.

W. Driskill or his immediate and remote vendors, and because of various other omissions, defects, errors, clerical and other omissions apparent of record in the deed and other records of Mills and Brown Counties, Texas, relating to the title to said properties or a part thereof, said records do not disclose that the defendants and all of them herein mentioned either by name and the unknown heirs of said defendants named parted with or divested themselves of the title to said property, lands and premises and all thereof, and the records in said Brown and Mills Counties, Texas, thus disclose that the said several defendants hereinbefore named and the unknown heirs of the said several defendants hereinbefore named have an interest or claim in and to and part ownership of all or some portion, respectively, of said lands and premises, and each and all of which constitute and is a cloud upon the title of the plaintiff and damages and slanders plaintiff's title to said lands, property and premises.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays for judgment for all of said lands and premises and the title thereto against all and each of said defendants and all and each of the unknown heirs of all and each of said defendants and that all claims of right title and interest in, to or upon all said lands and premises or any part thereof in favor of all or either of said defendants or the unknown heirs of all or either of said defendants be adjudged and decreed to be without merit and to be clouds upon plaintiff's title and that plaintiff have judgment removing said clouds and quieting his said title and he prays for costs and all such other and further relief to which he may show himself entitled, both in law and in equity.

BUILDING DEFERRED

After devoting a whole day to a consideration of building plans, the Commissioners Court has decided to take no action at present regarding the proposed improvements at the court house. Three architects have been in attendance upon the court yesterday and today, presenting and explaining plans for the improvement work.

"I guess we will have to dig a storm house and chuck the records in it for safe keeping," remarked Commissioner Nat Simmons this morning. At present a great mass of records are unprotected from fire, and this is one of the main reasons for desiring the improvements which have been contemplated. The plans for improvements, as submitted by the architects, call for an expenditure of about $25,000, most of which the court has accumulated during the past three or four years. There appears to be a sentiment in the court for referring the matter to the voters so that an expression as to a proposal to build a new courthouse may be secured. For the present, at least, nothing will be done.—Brownwood Bulletin.

For a simple remedy for Coughs and Colds and that grippy feeling ask your druggist for four ounces of Pulminol, which will cost 50c. Mix with equal parts of simple syrup, which you can make yourself. Take one teaspoonful every hour if necessary and note the relief you will receive. (adv)

—If you intend to sell land get your abstract of the title thereto prepared first, otherwise the delay in perfecting your title may cause you to miss a sale.—E. B. ANDERSON, Abstractor.

Scott Thompson and family and A. Campbell of Goldthwaite have moved to San Saba and will make this place their home. They are domiciled in the A. Behren's residence in the southern part of town. Mr. Thompson will be connected with the Grain Mercantile Co. as salesman. He is a gentleman of pleasing appearance and has had considerable experience in this line of work and will no doubt be a drawing card to the store. We extend a hearty welcome to these people and trust that they will continue to like their new home.—San Saba Star.
