SAVING YOUNG ANIMALS

Not only does the Nation's interest require it, but our own welfare will be best served by raising as many young animals as economy and the facilities will require. Those who have not thought it advisable or have not taken the trouble to prepare for raising a few pigs, calves, lambs, colts and kids will find reasons for raising some of these animals, since war has created a greater demand for livestock. On most farms it will be worth while to go to considerable trouble and perhaps incur some expense if necessary to raise a few animals, enough, at least, for the needs of the farm and the welfare of the family. It may be that every farm will require the facilities for greater diversity of farming where the manager is almost independent of others. Such conditions would of course impose hardships on many, but war has often caused this and it might be repeated during the present war.

There will be need of cows to take the place of old and unprofitable cows now kept; swine will be required to supply meat for the family table and perhaps a few for sale; there may be a good reason for raising sheep, goats; teams will be needed on many farms to increase the productive efficiency of the managerous farming generally as raising animals. Likely there will be in greater demand than ever before. Let us who can raise young animals and get the advantage of greater demand—Farm

Fred Faulkner left Saturday night for Dallas, where he entered a business college to take a special course.

Mrs. Jas. Rahl and son Prentice and daughter, Mrs. Mamie Lee, left Sunday morning for an auto trip to Lehigh, Okla., to visit relatives.

Misses Aubrey Jones and Jessie Tillman returned to their homes in Mullin Saturday, after a visit to Mr. Kemper's family in this city.

W. M. Johnston this week ordered the Eagle sent to his daughter, Miss Rosa, who is attending the summer school at the State University in Austin.

J. B. Saylor and family of Houston came in Saturday from Comanche, where they had been visiting relatives and spent several days with relatives in this city and county. They made the trip in their big Cadillac and expect to return home via Austin and San Antonio.

J. A. Saylor of Portales, accompanied by his family, visited relatives here this week. He left here a good many years ago for the west and has made good in his New Mexico home. The Eagle is always glad to know of the prosperity of Mills county people, whether at home or abroad.

R. F. Swindle and family are visiting relatives in Washboard community and the Eagle has a suspicion the time is not far distant when they will again call Mills county home. They moved to Schleicher county last fall, but the continued drought in that section has made the outlook very gloomy and they are mighty likely to come back to the land of plenty and prosperity. Welcome home.

A SQUARE DEAL

If the great amount of money to be collected by the state highway commission from auto owners is spent judiciously on the public roads, or even if a reasonable part of the money is appropriated for road improvement, the auto owners will have no cause to complain, for the manufacturers of tires and other accessories will pay the amount indirectly. Of course, if the money is used as the road money of counties is sometimes used in paying political debts and grudges by those entrusted with the expenditure, the auto owners will have cause for complaint, but we will hope that at least a majority of those who are to oversee the work for which this money is to pay will perform their duties faithfully without regard to vote getting.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Prater desire the Eagle to express their sincere thanks to the many good people who assisted in saving their household furniture and belongings at the time of the destruction of their home by fire. The people worked unselfishly and persistently until a large part of the furniture had been saved and exerted every energy to save the entire property. Mr. and Mrs. Prater feel deeply grateful for this help and kindness and want all to know of their appreciation.

WOODMEN ENTERTAINED

The Woodmen were complimented Tuesday night by the Dixie theatre management with a free entertainment and after the show the lodge entertained visiting Woodmen as well as local members with an ice cream supper in the lodge room.

Tax Assessor Kemper has returned from a visit to relatives and friends in Collin county.

Henry Martin and J. L. King made an auto trip to Fredericksburg Sunday, returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Trent returned Monday from an automobile trip to Temple, Waco, Martin and Franklin.

Marvin Weatherby and wife are happy in the possession of a daughter, who arrived at their home Sunday morning.

Automobile owners should be sure to secure numbers from the state highway commission before July 1. The garage owners are prepared to take applications for such registration.

Alex Shaw sent a dollar this week to have the Eagle sent to him at Fort Morgan, Ala., where he is in the coast artillery. He has a great many friends here who wish him a pleasant time in the army and a safe return home.

An interesting little problem is going the rounds just now. You are asked the year of your birth, the year of your marriage, your age and the number of years married. You add them together, divide by two, and you get the year the war will end. There is just one snag about this problem. It only works if your birthday and marriage anniversary have already passed for this year. If they are still to come you must reckon your age next birthday, and the number of years you have been married when the next anniversary arrives. Try the problem on your married friends—Saturday Blade.

Miss Mary Morris went to Brady Tuesday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Duke Mann.

Mrs. J. M. Bateman and son left Monday morning for Oklahoma to visit relatives.

R. S. Burgess orders the Eagle sent to his son Richard, who is visiting relatives at Charleston, Ark.

Miss Nellie Sevier of Caradan went to Temple Monday to be with her mother, who was in the sanitarium at that place.

L. W. Hill of Long Cove was a business visitor to this city the first of the week and made the Eagle a pleasant call.

James Rahl was a business visitor to Ft. Worth the early part of the week, having shipped a car of beef cattle to that market.

Deputy Sheriff Everett Evans returned Monday morning from a short visit to his brother, who is a member of the Houston police force.

Two blind beggars engaged in a fist fight in Ft. Worth Sunday. The men fell out over the matter of beggars having to pay license in the Panther city.

Miss Annie Pfluger, who has been studying music in Austin, came in Wednesday morning and went over to Priddy to visit relatives before going to her home at Eden.

C. M. Stephens and wife of Corpus Christi spent a part of the week here visiting relatives. Mrs. Stephens, nee Miss Dora Beshears, lived in Goldthwaite for a number of years and has a great many friends here. She was employed in the Eagle office a long time and was one of the most appreciated employees the Eagle ever claimed.

A quarter cent per pound additional tax on second class mail matter which includes newspapers and other publications was finally agreed upon by the Senate Finance Committee. Also five per cent tax on the profits of publications over $4,000.00 per year. This provision was upheld by a vote of 8 to 6 by the committee. The postage increase on post cards from one to two cents was killed, thereby cutting ten millions from revenue that could be realized in this manner. A six per cent exemption on the excess of profits of business started since the war began was agreed upon.

The next duty confronting the people of this country is that of contributing the $100,000,000 which the American Red Cross society is asking for. This is as much of a patriotic duty as was that of subscribing for the Liberty loan bonds. But it is more than that. It is also a humanitarian duty; for the money is to be used, it is hardly necessary to say, to alleviate the sufferings and cure those who fall wounded in fighting the Nation's battle. Such an appeal ought to awaken a momentary sense of generosity even in a miser. The amount may seem large to some. In reality it is small. It is less than a dollar apiece; and there is not one of us in ten thousand of adult age who can't afford a larger contribution. More than 3,000,000 people subscribed to the Liberty loan bonds. Ten times that number ought to subscribe to the Red Cross fund. Pacifists might have excused themselves from subscribing to the Liberty loan bonds on grounds of moral compunction. But that feeling, if genuine, commands them to subscribe to the Red Cross fund. The money is to be spent, not to cause, but to relieve suffering; not to destroy, but to save life.—Dallas News.

A GLIMPSE OF HEAVEN

What Heaven is I know, not but I long have dreamed of its purple hills and its fields of light blossoming with immortal beauty; of its brooks of laughter and its rivers of song and its places of eternal love. I long have dreamed that every bird singing its life out here on earth may sing forever there in the tree of life, and every consecrated soul which suffers the pain of this world may rest among the flowers of Heaven and live and love forever. I have long dreamed of opal towers and burnished domes, but what care I for gates of pearl, or streets of gold, if I can but meet those who loved me here on earth; see the glorified faces of father and mother and little baby brother who died among the bursting buds of hope and take in my arms again my own darling baby who fell asleep ere her little tongue had learned to lip "Our Father who art in Heaven." What care I for crown of stars and harp of gold, if I can love and laugh and sing with my loved one forever, in the smile of my Savior and my God? —Bob Taylor.

THE WATER SUPPLY

So much depends upon the abundance and the purity of the water supply on the farm that every farmer should give special attention to the source of the conditions under which his home is supplied. At this season of the year it is especially important that the supply be investigated and arrangements made for plenty during the trying months of summer and early fall when the supply might be low or fail entirely.

It is a very easy matter to neglect the well, the cistern, the spring or the reservoir when general farm work is pressing. A little neglect may be a very serious matter. The life, health and the efficiency of each member of the family will demand that no chances be taken with impure or unwholesome drinking water for home.

There are several very serious diseases disseminated largely thru the drinking water. Disease germs may lurk in water and before their source is discovered cause illness and possibly death. Typhoid fever is one of the diseases to be dreaded in rural as well as in urban communities. Its source has often been traced to impure or contaminated drinking water. Any expense or trouble should be undertaken to prevent it. There are also other diseases the germs of which may be spread thru water.

Not only is the supply of drinking water important, but stock water should be provided in the event the supply is likely to be exhausted on account of drouth. While spring showers are frequent is a favorable time to conserve stock water and provide for the needs of the animals when drouth is severe. A little work preparatory to conservation may save trouble and expense later in the season.—Farm and Ranch.

TICK FEVER IS STILL RAGING!

Time of year is here to vaccinate at this dreadful disease. I am sending medicine to different parts of the state to immunize against Tick Fever. Cattle so high to take any chance on them get tick fever. I guarantee to immunize for 6 months. If one takes the fever 6 months after being vaccinated by will furnish medicine free to treat it. I will go to any place in the county and treat a case of tick fever and if the fever is over 105 degrees and I fail to cure the tick the visit went cost you a cent.

I treated and vaccinated several head of cattle in Mills county and led to stop the fever in a single day. Now this is a fair proposition for an who owns cattle, for every cowman know what tick fever their cattle. It is one of the most dangerous diseases we have among the cattle, and I want to do is to show the way to cure their cattle and vaccinate against this dreadful disease.

AN INTERESTING TRIP

Editor Eagle:

After two days rest from sight seeing, my heart turns back to dear old Texas and it makes me home sick when I think how far I am from my home and good friends there in Goldthwaite. So friends, I am writing you a letter to let you know that I am thinking of you this morning.

I am visiting a dear friend of my girlhood, Mrs. R. J. Parks, with whom I shared my joys and sorrows, triumphs and failures as a high school girl in the little town of Hico, in Hamilton county.

The first great treat we had on coming to our nation's capital city, was to hear our great and good president, Woodrow Wilson, who spoke in the arcade on Tuesday, June 5, to the old soldiers of whom there were ten thousand present, being in the city to attend their annual reunion. The crowd listened in breathless silence to his every utterance, often applauding as he spoke. The burden upon his mind was that that concerns our part in the great world struggle that is now raging and as he plead for sympathy and support of the people in directing the affairs of the nation, utterances of approval were heard, while sympathy and determination to stand by our great leader was written upon every countenance. Many patriotic airs were sung and played thruout the program and the enthusiasm of the crowd was at its highest. It was indeed an occasion to stir the patriotism of every American citizen. I could not fulfill my promise that I made to a number of you to shake hands with the president for you, for as he came out of the building to his automobile, he was heavily guarded by a number of soldiers so that no one was allowed to come nearer than fifteen or twenty feet of him.

The next day Miss Addie Smith and I went to the Washington monument to go up into it and view the city as a whole from that high pinnacle. We had to wait quite a while before we could go up into it for several hundred people were already there lined up waiting for their turn to be carried up in the elevator to the top, as only about thirty-five could be accommodated at one time. After an hour of waiting our turn finally came and we were carried up. We stood at the windows transfixed by the beautiful sights we saw. As I beheld the picturesque winding Potomac, the lovely parks with their stately trees, carpets of green and beautiful flowers extending up to it, the magnificent public buildings, statues, monuments and other parks and play grounds all over the city, I wondered if heaven with its pearly gates and golden streets would be any more beautiful than our nation's capital.

That afternoon we went out to Arlington to the unveiling of a new monument recently erected by the Daughters of the Confederacy to the memory of our beloved Robert E. Lee. I was overcome by a feeling of awe and sadness as I beheld the resting places of the more than 40,000 soldiers who have laid down their lives for our country. I wondered too, as I saw the columns of our fresh young soldiers out drilling near by how many more sisters', wives' and mothers' hearts would be made to bleed as they did in the days of old on account of the dread conflict we are now in.

Beyond the cemetery on the brow of the hill whose slope stretches away a half a mile to the Potomac 200 feet below stands the mansion which was the home of Robert E. Lee and which is kept and preserved as nearly as possible in the condition it was when our hero lived there.

Thursday we visited Mt. Vernon, the home of George Washington. The mansion occupies a beautiful site overlooking the Potomac. The rooms are all marked as banquet room, music room, west parlor, dining room, Washington's bed room, etc., and much of the original furniture is there and arranged just as it was in Washington's day.

Off to the right and down in the valley is the tomb of Washington and his wife. I could reach into the tomb and almost touch the vault in which our chieftain lies. The associations of Washington during his life time and the presence of his tomb here has made Mt. Vernon a shrine of Patriotism and thousands of people visit it every year.

On our way back to Washington we stopped at Alexandria and visited the church that Washington and Lee attended and sat in the pews in which they sat during their life time.

Friday we went on an excursion into Pennsylvania to the famous battlefield of Gettysburg, a hundred or more miles from Washington, the occasion being the unveiling of a new monument erected to the memory of Robert E. Lee. The monument is Virginia's tribute to the battle field. On top of it is a statue of Lee mounted on the back of his trusty horse, Traveler, of Civil war fame. Many of the old soldiers who fought in this bloody battle were there that day and it was indeed interesting to have one of them point out to us the ground upon which the Confederate and Union soldiers stood during the fight and to see the big guns used by our men along the battle front for a mile or more. I saw a number of men on the field looking for bullets to take home with them as souvenirs.

There is much more that I might write about the interesting sights I have seen in and around Washington, but I see that I am making my letter too long, so I must leave off here and if I stay long enough I may write again. MRS. S. A. LOWRIE
P. S. Miss Addie left Washington Monday and stopped in Memphis for a visit to relatives there.

One of the best regulation laws enacted by the recent session of the legislature is the one which forbids flaring automobile lights. The light is to be lowered so that it will not "shine the eyes" of other drivers when cars meet. To comply with this requirement special equipment will be needed on all cars.

RESIDENCE BURNED

The residence of Mr. J. T. Prater, on Fisher street, was destroyed by fire Monday morning about 7:30 o'clock. The fire had gained such headway when discovered that it was impossible to save the building and all energies were turned to saving the household goods, most of which were taken from the burning building with but little damage.

It is thought the fire was caused by the leaking or explosion of an oil stove in the kitchen. Mrs. Prater had lighted the stove to prepare breakfast and had then gone into the garden to assist Mr. Prater in gathering vegetables. She had only been out of the kitchen a few moments when the blaze was discovered and the alarm given. The flames had gained such headway, however, before the discovery was made that it was impossible to save the kitchen or dining room furniture, but most of the furnishings of the other part of the house were saved.

The house was well built and was only recently remodeled. Mr. Prater carried $1500 insurance on the building, but there was no insurance on the contents.

The citizens who responded to the fire alarm used every energy to save the property and the residences adjoining and by hard and unceasing efforts the flames were prevented from spreading from the Prater property.

Mr. and Mrs. Prater have secured a residence across the street from their former home, where they will reside temporarily, until they formulate plans for the future. They have not yet determined whether or not they will rebuild on their lot.

BURK-BECK

Mr. A. L. Burk and Miss Blanche Beck were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city Tuesday evening. Rev. I. T. Morris officiating. The wedding had been expected for some time by the friends of the contracting parties and the announcement of its consummation was received with pleasure by them all.

Mr. Burk is manager for the Lanford Mercantile Co of this city and his fine business qualifications and his personal popularity give him a foremost place in the estimation of the people. He has only been here a few months, but during that time he has drawn around him a large circle of friends. His bride is a daughter of Mr. J. S. Beck and was reared here, where she has a host of admiring friends and all who know her are pleased to extend their good wishes to her and her husband.

MEETING CONTINUES

The meeting at the Christian church has continued thru the week and the interest has been good at every service. A number have united with the church and the results have been decidedly satisfactory from every standpoint. Elder Wallace is a forceful speaker and a logical reasoner and holds the attention of his congregation throughout the service.

It is understood the meeting will close tomorrow and those who have attended the services hope Elder Wallace will make many more visits to this town and hold meetings here, for they appreciate him both as a man and a preacher.

THANKS FOR HELP

I am indeed thankful to the good people who aided in saving my home from destruction by fire at the time of the burning of Mr. Prater's residence. EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfect—harmless and doesn't gripe.

"BEWARE OF STRANGERS"

A Plant that Grows with the Times

About five years ago we conceived a tremendous idea—the idea of giving to America a soft drink such as it had never before tasted. A new kind of soft drink in flavor and in its cereal ingredients—a soft drink that should be nutritious as well as delicious—pure and wholesome.

The idea took root—it was cultivated, experimented with, tended with all the care and skill that science could apply. For four years this work went on and then finally about a year ago there sprang into being, Bevo—the drink triumphant.

Less than two months after its introduction Bevo had leaped into such popularity that even our already large facilities could not supply the demand.

The result is that soon will be completed (built by public demand) the largest plant of its kind in the world—daily bottling capacity, 2,000,000 bottles.

You will find Bevo at all places where refreshing beverages are sold. Bevo is sold in bottles only—and is bottled exclusively by

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. At that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and I suffered usually about three days suffering this way for three years, not to be a mere skeleton and was unable to go anywhere and had to have my house work done. I suffered with a pain in my back and I could not do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking medicine. I suffered so much that I just about given up all getting anything to help.

My birthday Almanac was in my yard. After reading it I decided to try Cardui. I was so thankful that I did, I proved when on the am now a well fine and the cure for it has been given. I had health.

over her recovery. Two years ago she began to suffer with stomach trouble and indigestion. She doctored and took medicine, but kept getting worse. She lived on such food as milk and toast and fell off until she weighed only ninety-seven pounds and was hardly more than a living skeleton. She complained of awful pains in her stomach and was very nervous. The pressure of gas on her stomach would collect around her heart and she would wake up at night suffering and gasping for breath. I was awake nearly all night every night with her.

"Tanlac has worked on me more like a miracle than a medicine. Three days after she began talking it she began to feel better. After taking two bottles she now eats heartily and sleeps as soundly as if she had never been sick. I lay in her life and is as happy as a lark. She now weighs one hundred and fifteen pounds—an actual gain of eighteen pounds. She has improved so much that some of our neighbors who haven't seen her for some time didn't know her on first sight. Tanlac has restored her health after everything else had failed."

Tanlac is sold in Goldthwaite by E. Miller & Son, in Regby by Keeling & Keeling and in Star by J. R. Clark. (adv)

of this city. Mrs. E. Taylor of Lott, Tex., was married Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the Methodist church by pastor, Rev. Z. V. Liles.

The Liberty Loan was largely oversubscribed, which proves the patriotism of the American people as well as their business judgment.

Indictments have been returned against several people charged with being implicated in the crime of kidnapping and murdering the Keet baby at Springfield, Mo.

This week was designated as Red Cross week in America and the campaign for raising a fund of one hundred million for war relief in the seven days will doubtless be successful, for every section of the country has responded liberally with subscriptions.

Coal and oil producers have been ordered to forward such of their products as the army and navy need at a price to be fixed by the president of the United States, after the trade commission determines upon a fair price. That is the only way to deal with those people and it is hoped the government will extend its power to cover the supplies needed by the public.

Profitable farming means that the farmer is to receive a fair return on his investment and a fair labor return to the farmer and his family. The labor income is the amount of money the manager has left after paying all business expenses of the farm and deducting interest, usually at five percent, on the money invested in the business. To determine whether or not the farm is really paying a profit and what crops and animals are making profit it will be necessary to keep records.

Keep records to enable the manager to answer the question to his entire satisfaction.—Exchange.

A meeting of the former students of the state University was held in Dallas last Saturday to discuss ways and means for keeping the University going and taking its management out of politics. It was decided to make an extensive campaign of education in the state to inform the public on the matter in controversy and ultimately to secure support for a constitutional amendment taking the management of the educational institutions away from politicians. A resolution introduced by Chesler Terrell calling upon the speaker of the house of representatives to call a session of the house with a view to impeaching Governor Ferguson was overwhelmingly defeated.

Our attention forcefully is drawn to the value of good roads and the loss as caused by lack of them every year when crops are gathered and hauled to market. The only surprise is that we did not take more interest when there was an opportunity to improve the roads. If there is to be a limit to the movement of freight and the transportation companies required to move certain commodities at the expense of others as seems likely, Eable roads that permit quick and economical hauling will be a greater asset than ever before. It may be that auto trucks will come into wider use for hauling farm products not only from farm to railroad station, but between cities and towns. If this should be done fortunate will be towns and cities situated on good roads. There are so few facilities for storing grain, cotton, hay, peanuts and other products on farms, that it is almost imperative that the surplus be delivered in cities and towns. To attempt to hold such products without storage facilities means a loss. But where are good roads market can be reached or the surplus taken to storage.—Farm and Ranch.

Arrangements Being Made For A Big Celebration

July 4 will be celebrated in the proper manner at Star, if the plans outlined by the patriotic and enterprising citizens of that community are taken as an indication.

The full outline of the program can be seen in this issue and the Eagle feels a pleasure in lending endorsement and commendation to the plan proposed. It is hoped to make the celebration embrace the counties of Hamilton and Mills and a large gathering is expected. Arrangements have been made for the comfort and entertainment of the people in the good old way that the Star people know so well—the hospitable way. All who have attended entertainments and public gatherings at Star in the past need only to be informed that the celebration is to be held at that place and their attendance is assured.

Read the program and make plans to spend the day at Star and remain there for the entertainment by local talent at night.

MR. JONES DEAD

The death of Mr. John G. Jones occurred at his home in Hamilton Thursday morning at an early hour. It was not unexpected by those who knew his condition, but the announcement caused a feeling of sadness to those who knew the good man and his family.

Mr. Jones was a member of the mercantile firm of McKinley-Corrigan Co and made frequent visits to this city. His son, Lee Jones, lives here and his daughter, Mrs. J. D. H. Wallace, made her home here until recently, when she and her family moved back to Hamilton in order that she might be able to attend at his bedside and be with the family. Mr. Jones had the confidence and friendship of many Mills county people who join in extending sympathy to his bereaved family.

Announcement has been made of a social function here of the approaching marriage of Miss Maid-J. Allen of Bartlett and Edgar T. Neal of San Saba, sheriff of San Saba county. The wedding will be at Georgetown on June 30.—Bartlett Special.

Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage of William Edward Blanton and Miss Johnnie Myrtle Taylor at San Angelo on June 10. The groom has many friends in this city, where he spent several years of his boyhood and where he has since visited. They all join with the Eagle in extending congratulations and good wishes.

W. H. Linkehoger and wife, W. M. Johnston and wife, B. P. Hurdle and son, Wilbur Fairman, Miss Nora Hooks, Lewis Hudson, Henry Rahl, Clyde Hudson, Will Rahl, Arthur Whitley, Walter Weathers, R. I. Stein and family, Floyd Ligon and family were among those who attended the funeral of Mr. J. G. Jones in Hamilton Thursday afternoon.

A rather peculiar theft was practiced upon Clyde McIntosh assistant cashier at the Citizens' National Bank Sunday night. His car was taken from the garage at his home by unknown parties and driven about a mile from town, robbed of its four practically new casings and left standing in the road. Mr. McIntosh did not lock his garage, but he thinks hereafter he will take this precaution—and it is a hint also to other auto owners.—Brownwood Bulletin.

All livestock in the hands of the owners will be exempted from the price fixing provision of the new national foodstuffs bill by Representative Garner of Texas and Lever and Anderson in charge of the measure. Cattlemen throughout the state have wired Garner asking that the same exemption provisions that are allowed for the farmer with reference to his farm products be given the cattle producer. Garner pointed out the equity of the request and the committee leaders agreed to insert an amendment extending this privilege.

SUMMER CLOTHES THAT YOU CAN WEAR WITH A SENSE OF BEING WELL DRESSED

Most men confess themselves to be lacking in exact knowledge of the details of style in clothes. How essential it is, therefore, to one's peace of mind to be able to trust one's tailor to these points. Men can believe implicitly in tailored-to-order clothes—you have the authoritative knowledge of correct style that comes with more than twenty years of experience. This becomes specially important in Tropical Weight clothes—which, if they are ours, a man may be certain that he is dressed in strictly correct form to the last detail. Be measured

MEETING TO BEGIN

A revival is to begin in the Baptist church tomorrow. Rev. W. R. White, pastor of the church, is to do the preaching and this fact adds to the interest, for he is one of the foremost preachers of his denomination and his splendid sermons are always full of interest to his hearers. Plans have been made, the Eagle has been informed, to have the meeting continue two weeks and the church membership and other Christian people and the community in general are expecting great results.

We do not know how many of the newspapers are going to be forced to suspend, but we do know that many of them, both large and small already have suspended, that many have been forced to cut down their regular issues and that many others have advanced their subscription price as well as their advertising rates. The new war revenue measure is dealing them all a heavy blow in that it taxes their advertising and lays heavy tribute also in the form of increased postage charges. While thinking of these matters, we are wondering if a community really owes its local paper anything. Let anything happen that is a real credit to the community, let a citizen do something that is really worth praising, let the community need to launch any movement for the public good—and the local paper is expected to use the time of its editors to write up these things, the time of its printers to set and print them and its paper to circulate them. Such things are all for the good of the community at large, but the individual beneficiaries do not advertise, some of them send their job printing to other towns—and the newspaper gets its pay in kindly words, except when its editor "tramps on somebody's toes." Then he gets what the poet calls "unshirtd hades."—Troupe Banner.

Miss Poca Taylor arrived from Dallas the early part of the week for a visit to relatives.
