The city council held a regular monthly meeting Monday night with all members present.

The resignation of O. A. Campbell as city marshal was accepted and J. G. Berry was elected to the position at a salary of $65 per month.

The auditing committee's report showed O. A. Campbell had paid into the treasury $16.99 more than he had collected and the amount was ordered returned to him.

The city attorney was instructed to correspond with J. A. Glenn, division superintendent of the Santa Fe railroad, relative to allowing the city to begin the use of water from the tank.

Aldermen Walters and Steen were appointed to ascertain the prevailing rate for water in other cities, together with rules and regulations governing the use of water.

Resolutions were adopted and ordered recorded in the minutes expressing the sincere regret of the council because of the resignation of Mr. J. C. Darroch as city attorney and expressing the high esteem in which he is held by the members of the council individually and collectively.

TO AILING WOMEN

A Little Sound Advice will Help Many a Sufferer in Goldthwaite.

No woman should consider herself healthy and well if the kidneys are weak. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are disordered. If the kidney and bladder become inflamed and swollen worse troubles may quickly follow. This is often the cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning is also frequent cause of headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness, and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has proven effective in thousands of such cases. Let a Goldthwaite woman tell of her experience.

Mrs. Claude Dickerson says: "I have great confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, as I have used them and they have benefitted me greatly. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, as I believe they will give good results to any one who needs a kidney medicine."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Dickerson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

GETTING RID OF COLDS

The easiest and quickest way to get rid of a cold is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This preparation has been in use for many years and its value fully proven. No matter what remedy you use, however, care must be taken not to contract a second cold before you have recovered from the first one, and there is a serious danger of this. A man of middle age or older should go to bed and stay in bed until fully recovered. It is better to stay in bed three days at the start than three weeks later on. For sale by L. E. THANKS TO FRIENDS

If ever there was a time when we had cause to appreciate our friends, it is now, and if ever our hearts were filled with gratitude to those bound to us by the ties of friendship, it is at the present moment. Words cannot express the strength of our feelings towards those good, loyal and true friends who came to us in our time of overshadowing sorrow and extended to us their sympathy and kindness. To say we appreciate all that was done and all the words of sympathy, seems so hollow and meaningless when measured by our feelings of gratitude, but we can never forget the helpfulness of our friends at the time we needed them most. May the great All-Father, who knows and understands, give blessing and comfort to those who have proved their friendship and sympathy for us by their words and deeds. We know that sorrow like ours is the heritage of mankind, but it seems to us that we could not have borne up under the severe and heart-rending trial without the supporting sympathy and consolation of our friends. Accept, dear friends, our poor weak words of appreciation and may He who gives us the grace to say "Thy will be done", bless and shield you all.

AN ESSAY ON BARN

By Barnes & McCullough

Put a stop to future feed famines by building barns in 1919. Don't let this year go by without having shelter for everything you raise on the farm, in the way of feed stuffs, and a shelter, by all means, for every animal on the farm. Don't leave a single one out, not even the chickens and implements. Let's have a shelter for everything and every thing in its shelter when the bad weather comes from now on. Isn't it a fact that the farmer and stockman who has not sufficient barns to shelter his feed and stock loses enough even these dry years to pay for a barn, then why not let 1919 be the big barn building year, we know we are going to raise the feed. If there ever was anything on a farm that would pay for itself in one year, it is a good big barn.

Barns cost a little more than they did ten years ago, but the stock and crops you protect with the barn is worth a lot more. A good barn on the premises speaks prosperity for the owner. The world is going to call for an unbelievable lot of building material in 1919. Get yours early.

This condition deserves the attention of every man who intends to build at a reasonable cost. We urge you to talk your building problems with us at once. The prospects are good for large feed crops this year. Let's save all of it by building now a place to put it while we can and be ready for the big crop in 1919.

Please let us hear from you when in need of anything in the building line.

More Eggs Tonic

January 23, 1919.

Make your hens lay is my advice—from experience. In January, 1918, I ordered a $1.00 package of Reefer's More Eggs Tonic. Our hens were not laying at all. We fed this bunch of hens, about 50 head, and in 2 weeks were getting from 2 to 3 dozen eggs a day. Also bought another package of More Eggs the first of this month from W. A. Richards and began feeding our hens. They are furnishing plenty of eggs now. I can highly recommend More Eggs to all poultry raisers, as it will surely make the hens lay. Yours very truly,

DATES ON PAPERS

On account of some trouble with the Eagle's linotype, the work in the office has been somewhat congested for several weeks and as a consequence the subscription dates have not yet been placed on the papers and the rule regarding "stop when out" subscriptions has been accidentally overlooked in some cases. The machine is now in first class working order and the dates will be placed on papers as rapidly as possible and the payment policy adhered to strictly. Those who have received the paper after the expiration of the time paid for will have notice in the next few days and we hope they will all renew promptly. The Eagle will never again be conducted on a "hope so," catch-as-catch-can basis.

THAT TERRIBLE HEADACHE

Do you have periodic attacks of headache accompanied by sickness of the stomach or vomiting, a sallow skin and dull eyes? If so, you can get quick relief by taking Chamberlain's Tablets as directed for biliousness, and you may be able to avoid these attacks if you observe the directions with each package. For sale by L. Judge H. T. White and wife arrived Thursday from Greenwood, S. C., and will again make their home in Goldthwaite, which is delightful information for their host of friends. They lived here a long time and a few years ago disposed of their property here and moved to South Carolina, where they had large property interests, but like everybody else who has lived in good old Mills county, they were not satisfied elsewhere and their friends were not satisfied for them to be away. Judge White filled several offices of trust here in former years and was a leading citizen, whose influence for good was felt throughout the country, and all who know him and his good wife bid them a hearty welcome home.

A GOOD MAN GONE

The announcement of the death of Mr. Frederick Dew last Sunday night at his home a few miles west of Mullin, carried sorrow wherever he was known, for he was one of Mills county's best and most valued citizens—one in whom his friends trusted and on whom all actuated by the right could depend.

Mr. Dew was an unusual man in many respects and his splendid educational attainments and extraordinary ability, together with his high character, commended him to all with whom he was associated, or with whom he came in contact. He was reared in Mills county and it was here his immaculate character and staunch integrity was best known but his acquaintance and friendships extended far beyond the confines of this county, or even this state. In early life he determined to become a lawyer and after qualifying himself for that profession, engaged in the practice for a few years, but found it was not entirely to his liking and entered school work. In this line his marked ability soon brought him into prominence and he was for a number of years retained by the national government as a teacher in the state of Washington. A few years ago he returned to this county to engage in ranching and in this as in other lines, he met with great success and his methods and management soon attracted such wide spread attention that the Agricultural and Mechanical college offered him a position at a most attractive salary, but his interests here prevented his accepting the position.

No man has a higher conception of right than he had and none are more loyal and true to their friends. He was ever ready to give assistance and counsel to those who needed his help, and young and old alike had learned to depend upon him and trust him. No man could be missed more than he will be missed and none would be more sincerely mourned by all the people. Truly, Mills county has suffered an irreparable loss by the death of Mr. Dew and none realize it more surely than the writer of these lines, who has been honored by his friendship for a quarter of a century and knew him intimately and well. Fred Dew was a man among men—possessing the courage of his convictions and the ability to deal with affairs in a manner which attracted admiration rather than antagonism from those who differed with him.

The large gathering of friends to sympathize with his bereaved wife, mother and other relatives Monday, when his remains were brought here for burial, proved the high standing of the good man with people of all walks of life, and the expressions of sympathy for the sorrowing ones were many and sincere.

Funeral services were conducted in the home of his brother, Mr. W. C. Dew, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. W. G. Callihan, pastor of the Methodist church here, assisted by Rev. J. T. Weems, pastor of the Methodist church at Mullin, who was a life-long friend and neighbor of Mr. Dew. At the conclusion of the services the funeral procession was formed and proceeded to the Odd Fellows cemetery, where interment was made and there again the large congregation and the beautiful floral offering demonstrated the high esteem in which he was held and the deep sympathy of the people for the bereaved family.

SNEED CAPTURED

R. L. Sneed, whose wife was shot and killed at their home east of Star Thursday of last week, was taken into custody at the home of his father in Lampasas county, near Evant, Sunday morning and carried to Hamilton jail. He is said to be non-communicative and at last report had made no statement regarding the tragedy at his home.

RUST-PROOF STEEL.

Quite accidentally, Harry Brearley, a Sheffield (England) metallurgist, has discovered a method for making a rust-proof steel. It will not stain or corrode. He came upon the discovery when seeking a way to prevent erosion in gun bores so that the war is responsible for this advancement. It has long been claimed by makers of a certain kind of wire for concrete reinforcement that "pure iron" would not rust. Soon we may be treated to pens that will not corrode and penknives that may be left out in the rain. The new iron may also be substituted in many places for aluminum on airplanes. Be prepared also for patented iron pills that will prevent the rust of old age.

NOT BY THE HOUR.

"Do you understand the new telephone rates?"

"No. Can you explain them?"

"I think so. Of course you know we are to have metered service."

"Yes, I saw that in the paper."

"That means we will be charged for every call."

"Each call will be a distinct charge, then?"

"Yes."

"I'm glad of that. I had an idea when they put a meter on the line they were going to charge us by the hour, and judging from the time it takes me to get a number now that would bankrupt me."

CREATING PREJUDICE.

"You know people who take no alcohol usually eat a great deal of candy."

"Wish I'd thought of that when I was in the legislature," sighed Uncle Bill Bottletop. "I'd have got up and blamed prohibition on the sugar trust."

The United States senate has passed the bill providing for another Federal judge to assist Judge Meek.

Congress has awarded 41 medals to soldiers for special acts of bravery in France. The awards have been made on recommendation of Gen. Pershing.

The announcement of the resignation of Scott Woodward as state senator was indeed pleasing. He states he will devote his time to his private interests. Governor Hobby has called for an election to be held Feb. 20 to fill the vacancy.

It is reported that pink boll worms have been discovered in Pecos county and the agricultural department is preparing to eradicate them. These worms are as detrimental to the cotton crop as the boll weevil, but their operations do not cover so large an area as the weevil.

The sensational charges of crime on the part of American soldiers in France will be found to be vicious and untrue. The American army is made up of the highest class of American manhood, besides which the army discipline would make it impossible for any considerable amount of outlawry.

An anti-mob law amendment to the constitution has been offered in the state senate. It provides that one found guilty of participating in a mob shall be debarred from the right of suffrage or office-holding in Texas. It also requires members of the legislature to make oath that they have not taken part with a mob.

The Texas ranger service is being investigated by the legislature and charges have been filed by Representative Canales from the Rio Grande country, where rangers have been operating for several years. Canales says he expects the rangers to kill him because of the information he has given, but the rangers interviewed say they do not intend to hurt him. Events of the next few weeks will be watched with interest.

The new railroad administrator says he does not believe in government ownership of railroads and in this he is in accord with an overwhelming majority of the American people. Time was that many people believed the government should own the railroad and telegraph systems, but they have seen how this plan could be used to build a monster political machine and how an astute politician could draw to his support the organized labor forces, not alone among railroad workers, but all labor organizations by the free concession of demands, no matter how unjust and unreasonable, no matter how much financial loss is entailed. These have served to convince the public that ownership of railroads by the government would not be a good thing.

Big Business and some of his misguided or misinformed advocates have made and are continuing to make a hard fight on the Texas homestead law, but they are not getting anywhere with the fight. True, some good people have been made to believe that the home owner has been unjustly treated by the clause in the constitution protecting his wife and children in their homestead right, but most folks believe the home should be exempt from foreclosure for debt and fortunately a majority of the members of the legislature are of the latter class. The homestead law and the free school system are jewels in the crown of Texas and should remain unchanged and they will remain.

Ruminations of a Rambling Mind.

Editor Eagle:

While my mind rambles and I ruminate on the current events of the day, I actually become dizzy headed and semi-intoxicated by the multitude of multifarious questions that are revolving around us.

What does it all mean and when will we cease revolving, gain our footing and hold our holt until everything about us cease to whirl and we are again normal, rational human beings ready to pick up the threads of life and commence to weave again intellectually, the warp and woof of our domestic welfare.

Our president is in France formulating a League of Nations to bring in the reign of peace on earth, good will toward men. His secretary of the navy is at home outlining a great three year building program for the navy and declares that America must have a navy second to none on the globe. His secretary of war, the pacifist, Mr. Newton D. Baker, is clamoring for a million men for the American army. Organized labor is picking the carcass of the railroads and demanding an additional increase of wages and salaries about once in every six months and getting it, and Mr. McAdoo don't only grant the increase, but generally reverts to the beginning of the year for the beginning of the increase, rolling up millions of back pay for millions of the members of organized labor, many of whom are now being paid more for a day's labor than the ordinary farmer can earn in a week. We are facing a bond issue of five billion dollars in April. Some patriotic United States senators are clamoring for an appropriation of two hundred million dollars for road building; we have a two hundred million deficit in the scheme of government operation of railroads. Telegraph, cable and telephone companies are raising all kinds of howls about the way they are being used and abused and the public joins in the chorus condemning Mr. Burleson for the way he is using and abusing them in his ratemaking schemes, etc., etc., and yet the whirling dance goes on. New government schemes are being concocted; new offices are created by the thousand in both the state's and nation's governments, for which additional appropriations must be made while taxation is piling up at a rate never before seen by civilized men.

What is it all drifting to? Are we a nation of idealists fostering all of our schemes by bombastic financial schemes, or are we really able to carry on this way and keep on safe ground? A United States senator recently asserted that we were drifting into national bankruptcy. Is he crazy and all the rest of us sane, or we all crazy but him?

Has any one in the United States got sense enough to pass judgment on this situation? Respectfully submitted to the public.
A. J. HARRISON.

Disasters That Have Befallen Rulers in Years Ending With One Particular Numeral.

Years ending with the figure eight seem to have a certain fatality in the history of kings. Thus 1588 sounded the knell of Philip II's hopes of extended empire; 1618 was the beginning of the Thirty Years' war, with the misery which the ambition of princes brought upon Europe; 1628, by the Petition of Right, marked the first real revolt of the British people against the doctrine of the divine right, a revolt consummated in 1648. The death of Cromwell put a period to another form of autocracy in 1658, and 1688 saw the end of the divine right as practical politics in this country. The first Partition treaty, in 1698, was one of the landmarks in the history of the barter of peoples by their kings. The alliance of France and Spain with the United States in 1778 brought another democratic power into full life, crushed Napoleon's dreams of an eastern empire, while in 1807 he began to sense the pangs of the "Spanish ulcer." And 1848 was the blackest year in the history of kings till 1918.—Manchester Guardian.

Relieve Your Rheumatism For 25c.

NR does it by improving digestion, assimilation and elimination—the logical way.

NR Today—Relief or No Pay

There are three vital processes of human existence—the digestion of food, the extraction of nourishment from it and the elimination of the waste.

Let anything interfere with these processes,—let them be interrupted or improperly carried on, and sickness of some kind follows.

Poor digestion and assimilation means failure to derive full nourishment from food and that in turn often means impoverished blood, weakness, anemia, etc. Poor elimination means an accumulation of waste matter which poisons the body, lowers vitality, decreases the power of resistance to disease and leads to the development of many serious ills.

Rheumatism,—due to some interference with the process of elimination, failure to get rid of certain body poisons,—cannot be expected to yield to any medicine that fails to correct the condition responsible for it. Could any reasonable person expect to rid himself of rheumatic pain as long as rheumatic poison is allowed to remain in the body.

Think of this. It explains the success of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) in so many cases where other medicines have failed. Thousands are using NR Tablets every day and getting relief. Why pay five or ten times as much for uncertain things? A 25c box of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), containing enough to last twenty-five days,—must help you, must give you prompt relief and satisfactory benefit or cost you nothing.

And Nature's Remedy is not only for the relief of rheumatism. It improves digestion, tones the liver, regulates kidney and bowel action, improves the blood and cleanses the whole system. You'll feel like a new person when you've taken NR Tablets a week. You've tried the expensive medicines and doctors, now make the real test. You'll get results this time. Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) is sold, guaranteed and recommended by your druggist.

A nice lot of Monuments and Markers at Close Prices. Can save you 15 to 25 per cent and give the very best material and the highest grade work. How? By eliminating the agent-commission-business, which means that amount saved for the buyer. Agents will tell you their firms can buy marble or granite cheaper than your home dealer and make you a better price, which is false and misleading, as we dealers pay exactly the same price for the same grade of stock. Figure with me before placing your contract, as I can save you money—and I guarantee my work. Will take feed or Good Stock in trade.

Pyorrhea.

Seventy-five per cent of the people have Pyorrhea Alveolaris (an oozing of pus from the tooth socket.) Specialists tell us that it is often the cause of heart, kidney and stomach troubles, also responsible for many cases of tuberculosis and arthritic rheumatism. I am giving, and have been for five years, special attention to the treatment of mouth infection. If you have it you should call on your dentist at once and have it attended to.

There is considerable activity in the oil business here, but so far no wells have been brought in, though some are expected right away. CODE TO THE HEN.

Tell me not in mournful numbers that the price of boards is up; that you can't afford a hen house or a bedroom for your pup. You indulge in grievous error in comparing COIN with THINGS; costs should be compared by angles, never in concentric rings. Costs of eggs today remind us that we pay four times the yen; last year twenty cents they cost us, now we pay three score and ten; yet a house to hold these chickens and a place for them to lay, only cost a trifle over what it cost you yesterday. Let us then be up and building a hen house, roost and laying nest, and the COST can be forgotten, for the hens and Barnes & McCullough will do the rest. They carry everything to build anything. (ad)

Baptist Loyalty Bond Campaign for Mills County.

During the month of February the Baptists of Texas are going to float a million dollars worth of bonds for their educational institutions. Several denominations have campaigns on to push claims of the kingdom in this opportune hour. This idea was conceived by our Executive Board before America entered the war.

I have been appointed chairman of this county and wish to give the following facts:

1. The bonds are in amounts from $50 to $1000.

2. Only coupon bonds will be issued.

3. The bonds will bear 6 per cent interest payable every six months.

4. $50,000 will mature every year until whole issue is taken up. The first bonds will mature in 1921.

The bonds will be secured by more than $2,000,000 worth of property and by the Baptist General Convention of Texas which has been doing business more than half a century and has never defaulted in an obligation.

6. Liberty bonds will be accepted in exchange for Baptist Liberty Bonds.

7. A number of leading business men and bankers have examined the matter and declare that they are gilt edge.

IN MEMORY

When the bony hand of Death reaches out for a victim he is no respecter of persons, often taking some one whom the community thinks can not possibly be spared. Such being the case with the one to whom this tribute is paid, I ask space to make mention of my departed friend, Fred Dew, who slipped away from us, leaving a vacancy that many are asking: "Who can fill it?" He was a man of extraordinary ability and when properly approached was always glad to be your friend. His life was an open book; true to convictions and always willing to meet those who differed with him in open discussion. I never knew but one man his equal in retaining what he read and heard, thus rendering him an interesting and instructing conversationalist, who was always glad to impart to others any information within his power. Realizing the worth of such a friend and useful citizen I would not feel right to remain silent without speaking in his praise, and in doing so I am truly glad that what I say after his death I said while he was living. While I am 27 years his senior I often went to him for information and advice and never found him too busy to respond cheerfully, willingly and intelligently. Who could have such a friend and not grieve when he is taken away?

Our Divine Father knows best and to Him we commend the bereaved ones as they pass through these trying afflictions.

DEATH'S VISIT

The remains of Mrs. Obe Smith reached here on Sunday morning's train from El Paso, where she died after several months illness, and were laid to rest in the Mohler cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Smith, nee Eva Beck, was a daughter of Mr. Joe Beck and grew to womanhood in this county, where she had a host of friends. A few years ago her health became impaired and she spent some time at Carlsbad, later going to El Paso with the hope of improvement, but it was of no avail.

The bereaved husband, father and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of all who know of their bereavement.

BEBEL WARNED OF DEFEAT

Twenty-One Years Ago German Social Democratic Leader Prophesied Downfall of Country.

Under the heading, "The Fulfillment of a Prophecy of Bebel," the Berner Tagwacht of December 13 points out that 21 years ago August Bebel, then leader of the German social democracy, warned the German nation that in case another war came it had no prospects of winning a decisive victory. In speaking in the reichstag on the budget on December 15, 1897, Bebel said:

"No, Herr von Kardorf, we shall have to be glad to keep what we have. Even in the government circles no one thinks that, even as victors in such a war, would we gather in billions in the shape of war indemnities from our opponents, as was the case in 1870. Such a thing is simply impossible. At all events, in the next war we shall have to pay the war costs ourselves, and be happy if nothing worse happens to us. And we shall again have to take care of the wounded and the surviving relatives of the dead ourselves, without being aided by French or Russian billions."

The Swiss newspaper remarks that Bebel's prophecy has come true, "in a much more fearful measure than Bebel imagined, or could have imagined."

LONG HIDDEN FROM ENEMY

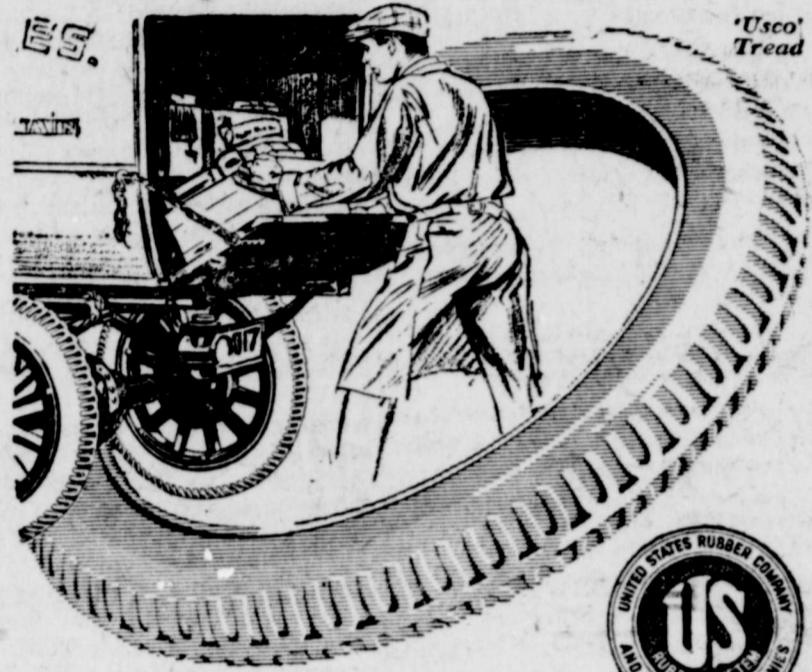

Remarkable Adventures of Allied Soldiers and Civilians in Lands Occupied by the Huns.

There have been some wonderful tales told of the way in which men in occupied districts have escaped detection by the Germans. To the ingenuity and courage of the countrywomen many British, French and Belgians owe their lives or their liberty. There is the case of that British hussar who, in the Mons retreat, managed to escape capture by hiding in a wood and, after many days and many adventures, was hidden by two Belgian peasant women in a cottage. Little by little he assumed the air and appearance of a peasant of the neighborhood, and passed muster even with the Germans. Then there is the story of the treasurer of a French town who was hidden by his wife in the garden for three years. As town treasurer the Germans were very anxious to catch him and obtain his books, but the French wife was too much for them, and it was only when the Germans had gone, bag and baggage, that the town treasurer emerged with his books.

"CHARLES MARSHALL."

Just how little some persons know about the vice president of the United States was explained in some detail by Thomas Riley Marshall, the present incumbent of that office, at a dinner in Boston just before President Wilson departed for France. After saying that while some persons knew that such an office existed, few knew who the incumbent was, he proved that erudite Boston is no exception by holding up his place card, which bore the inscription, "Charles Marshall."

MRS. C. M. BURCH

Reasons!

Why you should use Cardui, the woman's tonic, for your troubles, have been shown in thousands of letters from actual users of this medicine, who speak from personal experience. If the results obtained by other women for so many years have been so uniformly good, why not give Cardui a trial?

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Mary J. Irvin, of Cullen, Va., writes: "About 11 years ago, I suffered untold misery with female trouble, bearing-down pains, headache, numbness... I would go for three weeks almost bent double... My husband went to Dr. for Cardui... After taking about two bottles I began going around and when I took three bottles I could do all my work." E-30

EVER SALIVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe

Historical Facts vs. Uncritical Calumny.

To Rev. W. R. White.

We will omit the question of harmony and who desires it most. We want it at all times, but do not believe it necessary to insult the intelligence of those who differ from us in religious matters, in order to bring it about. If the subject was of so little importance to the public why was it discussed at all? We can not ignore glaring facts either, hence our reason for taking up the matter.

Now, who is Homer C. Stuntz and Mr. Z. C. Taylor? Are they on an intellectual basis of equality with such men as the late Col. Roosevelt, Frank G. Carpenter, and the many diplomatic representatives of this country and others? Are they world renowned lecturers, tourists or historians? Or are they just plain Missionaries who have tried to convert an already Christianized people. We know Bro. Bagby and to use your words when you referred to the Pope in Rome, we think very little of his intellectual abilities.

It makes no difference if the letter be genuine or not, the fact that it was supposed to have been written by a Pope, makes it an infallible proof. So you attribute infallibility to the head of the Catholic church when you think it will prove your claim, but alas, why did you not investigate the matter just a little. It would have saved you considerable humiliation before the readers of this paper if you had. Here is a history of the so called Infallible Proof. This alleged encyclical first came into existence in 1897, was printed by the South American Missionary Society of London; incorporated into his Geography of Missions by Harlan Beach, of Yale College, and was quoted by Dr. Robt. Speer, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, in an address before the Rochester Convention of the Students Volunteer Movement as an evidence of the need of Mission work among our South American neighbors. After a correspondence of more than two years, Rev. Chas. A. Martin, of Cleveland, Ohio, forced Dr. Speer to acknowledge that the document quoted as a Papal Encyclical was a forgery of a renegade Chilean.

This is a sample of the methods used by some respectable people and of the value of their stories about Catholic affairs especially in remote places. Thank God if the Catholic clergy of any country ever become so degenerated as represented in your forged infallible proof, they cease to be members of the Catholic church, but am sorry to add are readily absorbed by other denominations, at least for a time. The case of Ex-Priest Chiniquy, dismissed from priesthood for immorality—the Protestant synod of Chicago, disowned him in 1862 as a swindler. Can furnish the history of all "Ex-Priests," and so called ex-priests.

We quote the following from Rev. J. B. Hemmeon, Methodist. "Protestants never think of such a thing as reading Catholic books or periodicals, or anything that smells of Rome. Not only are they absolutely ignorant of Catholic teachings, practices and history; but they generally believe a distorted caricature and call it "Romanism."

From the late Ex-President Roosevelt concerning South America: "I believe that in the era which is now opening, the republics of Latin America will be able to teach much to the people of my country. Their unquestionable superiority in intellectual brilliancy and logic, will enable them to achieve a better solution of some of the most vital problems of popular government than any that has yet been reached in any part of the world."

And now we quote from Mr. Winfield S. Bird (who was for many years consul in Venezuela) "Editor Standard and Times, Dear Sir.—In your paper of Friday last you quote what Mr. Speer has given as the language used by the Bishop of Caracas with reference to the priests of his diocese. I am impelled by a feeling of love and veneration for the Dr. Juan Baptist e Castro, the Archbishop to whom he alludes, and by a high appreciation of the character of his clergy, to assure you that Mr. Speer has very unjustly treated them. I resided both in La Guayra and in Caracas from 1881 to 1896, as a representative of the United States Government. Although of the Protestant faith, I regularly attended the only church (Catholic) in that country, and had unusual facilities for knowing the public and private character of the clergy, some of whom were my personal friends, and I solemnly attest this fact that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, they were without exception, pious and exemplary representatives of their holy profession. I am sorry to say in conclusion that since my return here, in 1897, several Protestant ministers in this community have been guilty of crimes that shocked the sensibilities of even Godless men and women."

(This letter was written from Eutaw, Ala., Feb. 22, 1910)

We now quote the following from the Protestant historian, Ranke. "The work performed by the Catholic missionaries in Mexico, Central and South America in the early 16th century, was indeed a vast as well as a holy one. In the beginning of the seventeenth century, we find the stately edifice of the Catholic church fully reared in South America. Magnificent cathedrals have arisen. The Jesuits taught grammar and the liberal arts, and a theological seminary was connected with their college of San Lidefonso. All branches of theological study were taught in the Universities of Mexico and Lima, Peru. This college was founded in 1557. Meanwhile the mendicant orders had begun steadily to propagate Christianity over the whole continent of S. A. The monks taught the natives the arts of reading and singing, sowing and reaping, planting trees and building houses." If we may believe such Protestant historians as Ranke, who was not at all partial to the church, we see that the priests did not retard education, but were the only agents of the art in that country.

You mention as a "historical fact" the passage of a bill giving religious tolerance in April, 1915, and that a mob headed by a priest tore the bill from the hands of the officer, etc. Please quote your authority for this assertion, and let the public see if it is a "Historical fact" or just plain camouflage.

We believe that we have rendered sufficient evidence, all from Protestants, to show that the Church was not, is not now, nor ever will be a curse to South America, but if you wish further evidence we will gladly publish it, and all from prominent Protestant authority.

You say the retort of Cardinal Newman was the height of presumption. Allright we shall see. Kindly tell us who civilized and Christianized the British Isles, and what year it occurred. Also please, who established the doctrine of the Papacy, and in what year, Give us historical proof.

Our article is now too long so we will be forced to answer your remaining charges in the next issue of the paper. We wish to commend you, brother, for the fact that you use decent language, but believe, in defense of truth and justice, that you should investigate previous to making such uncharitable charges against your fellow Christians. X. Y. Z.

DREADFUL COUGH CURED

A severe cold is often followed by a rough cough for which Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven especially valuable. Mrs. F. W. Olsen, Marysville, Mo., writes: "About two years ago my little boy, Jean, caught a severe cold and coughed dreadfully for days. I tried a number of cough medicines but nothing did him any good until I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It relieved his cough right away and before he had finished taking one bottle he was cured. I think it is just fine for children."—Sold by L. E. Miller & Son. (adv)
