MILLS COUNTY OIL FIELD BEING DEVELOPED

Reports Are Satisfactory To Those Who Know and Pleasing Results Assured.

The oil situation in Mills county looks mighty good to the Eagle and this view is shared by many who are in touch with the situation. Developments are looked for that will prove Mills county to be the best oil field in Texas from the fact that the oil is deep enough to insure a great volume and yet is not so deep that drilling is prohibited to all but the large companies. Keep your eye on Mills county and watch the Eagle for reports of developments.

Barton Keese, who has been in military service and encamped at Houston, received his discharge last week and reached Goldthwaite Friday evening. He will remain here for some time and perhaps permanently.

Walter Fairman and wife, accompanied by Mesdames J. T. Prater and L. E. Miller, left Wednesday for an automobile trip to Austin. From there Mr. and Mrs. Fairman expect to go to Houston and other places for a visit to friends.

TRIGGER MOUNTAIN.

Editor Eagle:
Corn planting is the order of the day and oil is the talk of the times.

Quite a number of farmers in these parts having inclined fields have lately taken a spell of terracing. Some would be scientific f.l.l.o.w said of this terracing that it would have been wise ten or twenty years ago. The writer supposes he means it is still wiser at present.

Sunday school at Trigger was well attended Sunday.

Rev. James Weems preached at North Brown Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sam Sparks of Oklahoma is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Canner. The Sparks family formerly lived in this community and the old neighbors are glad to have Mrs. Sparks share the long delayed visit with them.

It was hoped that the flu had left the country, but I am sorry to note that C. M. Bramlet's family is reported sick with flu. Hope they will soon recover.

W. E. Garner finds attraction away up near Zephyr. Seems that would be too far for Will when there is so much to attract near home.

Clint Petty of North Brown visited E. Reynold's home Saturday and like all other good men, carried his family with him. Misses Addie and Kate Hays visited home 1st Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Crow of Fort Worth is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dellis.

G. D. Byrd of Bend made a business call to our community recently. CUPID.

A light rain fell here Saturday night, which was beneficial to small grain and gardens.

T. B. Graves came in from Connell the first of the week to look after business matters and investigate the oil situation.

Mrs. S. F. Pearson of Miller Grove community returned Monday evening from a visit to relatives in Williamson county.

Austin Taylor and family of Farwell are visiting relatives here and he is taking a "look in" at the oil business. He is engaged in the land business in the west and is doing well.

Ernest Cooke of Ovallo and his sister, Mrs. Lindley of Brownwood, were called here the first of the week on the sad mission of attending the funeral of their grand-mother, Mrs. Stark.

Jack Gartman, one of the city's most popular and pleasant young men, has returned from Waco to accept a position as dispenser of soft drinks at the fountain in Miller's drug store.

H. G. Kaiser, who was recently offered the position of cashier in the Santa Fe office at Coleman, has decided to remain in Goldthwaite to wait developments in the oil business. He has the right idea.

One of the insurance adjusters visiting Goldthwaite this week spoke in high praise of the city, for the clean condition of the streets and alleys. He referred particularly to the cleanliness of the lots at the rear of the stores and stated that even the vacant houses here were clean and free from debris and trash. This condition is a matter of pride for the people here and reflects credit upon the city government as well as the entire citizenship.

WHAT MAKES IT GO

A very mysterious clock is on display in the show window of Miller's drug store. There are no works or weights and the mystery is, what makes it go, but it does go and it keeps accurate time.

SALVATION ARMY HOME SERVICE

Salvation Army work is primarily religious and designed to save men from sin, sorrow, disease, and death in this world and the next. This is the Army's objective and that is why it is a Salvation Army. As means to that end it is necessary to help men and women in a material way. Men are so constituted that body needs are much more apparent and insistent than soul needs, and by long experience the Army knows that a hungry man asking for bread is apt to consider a sermon on the condition of his soul as the proverbial "stone." The Army recognizes Christ as its Commander-in-Chief and accepts as His commands for every day duty the 35th and 36th verses of Chapter 25 of the Gospel of St. Matthew.

"For I was an hungry, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in;

Naked, and ye clothed me, I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison and ye came unto me."

When the hungry are fed, the naked clothed, the sick and imprisoned are ministered unto they are very willing to listen to the friend who has helped them explain why the help was given and in whose name the service was rendered.

Army Activities

The Army activities are as varied as the problems of poverty. They include shelter for homeless men and women, homes for working girls, children's homes, rescue homes for unfortunate girls, maternity hospitals, slum work, day nurseries, cheap food depots, cheap clothing and second-hand stores, employment bureau, work among the prisoners, medical relief and visiting nurse work, summer outing for the poor, Christmas and Thanksgiving dinner baskets, missing friends, and inquiry department, farm colonies, etc.

Work in the Southwest

The Army's work in the Southwest is comparatively new and is not on the same scale of Army activities in the other parts of the country where it has been in service for a longer period of time. Until recent years the Army has confined its activities to the larger cities of the world where the need was greatest but it is now extending its work to the smaller places. There are twenty-four Corps in this Division and the Army plans to double this work in the next few years.

The Army now maintains maternity hospitals and rescue homes in San Antonio and El Paso and it is planned to establish similar institutions in Oklahoma and Louisiana as soon as funds for the necessary buildings can be secured.

The Army now operates hotels for transient working men, and homeless men in Dallas, Galveston, Beaumont and Ft. Worth and will extend its work according to its ability in other cities. The Army plans to establish in this territory institutions similar to those in other large cities of the United States, such as orphanages, hospitals, homes for the aged, etc.

SOMETHING INFINITELY NOBLE.

(By Jim Dash, in Riverside, Cal., Press.)

Their religion may not be yours or mine; we may disapprove of the jazz music of tambourine and accordion; we may not like these mixed with our religion. But these peoples are getting results. They are literally working to beat the devil—and they're doing it pretty often, too. They get under people's skins.

"Over there" the outposts of the blue clad Army are furnishing hot coffee and doughnuts to the boys on the fighting lines, and according to reports from the front the Allied soldiers are for them to a man. Over here they march along the streets and stop at any convenient corner where they sing hymns and tell the old, old stories of the Bible. And the passersby stop and listen and look—and laugh, some of them. But others drop coins into the tambourine which is passed among the crowd.

To me there is something pathetic and pitiful—and infinitely noble about these men and women of the Salvation Army. Some of them are old men with snow-white hair; some are thin, labor-worn women; and some are fresh cheeked young girls. Out of the face of each of them, though, shines that high and holy purpose which has been the motive power of every crusader since the time of the great Wayshower.

Don't laugh at them, folks, they're doing good, and doing it against the heavy odds of limited means. They're fighting an uphill fight. Let's help them!

THE MOTHERLY SALVATIONIST

Under the above caption the Literary Digest gives another magnificent article on the work of the Salvation Army in France. The opening paragraph of this article is as follows:

"The American soldiers in France take off their hats to the Salvation Army. And the salute includes the 'doughnuts and pie' that the Army provides in exchange for francs or for thanks, just as the 'emigre' soldier happens to be provided. A correspondent of the New York Times declares that when the memoirs of this war come to be written the doughnuts and apple pies of the Salvation Army are going to take their place in history.' It is explained that while the Salvation Army has no funds of millions back of it, it has 'the good sense of some motherly women and kindly men who discovered the homely way to the hearts of the doughnboys.'"

THE BEST LAXATIVE

IN MEMORY

Stark—The death angel visited the home of Grandpa Stark March 17, 1919, and claimed for its victim his aged companion. She was taken from this world to that home prepared for the children of God. Grandma Stark was born April 15, 1838. At the age of about 30 she was converted to the love and mercy of Christ, and ever carried the spirit of meekness and love with her. Her friends were many. She leaves a devoted companion, one consecrated daughter and four honorable sons to show the influence of their Godly mother whom they delighted to honor. Certainly no husband was ever more faithful than Bro. Stark, patiently and tenderly ministering to his suffering wife. Sister Stark loved her family. For them her heart did beat, her mind thought and her hands wrought, and it was her joy to speak of her grandchildren.

The writer will say to the sorrowing ones, look heavenward and think of a city without tears God wipes away all tears up yonder. This is a time of weeping, but by and by there will be a time when God shall call us where there will be no graves, sins or sorrow, but God in his infinite wisdom permits such sorrow only to purify us. He places us in the fiery furnace of grief for the absent one, but may we come out as did the Israelites unscorched and keep our feet toward Jerusalem despite the heartaches.

Mrs Stark had a taste of sorrow. The death angel visited her home once and carried away an infant, budded on earth to bloom in heaven. Those tiny hands hold the gates of heaven ajar for the mother they had not known on earth. Now what is it to her? Joy, peace, angels and music. Should we mourn for her? The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away. Her body was laid to rest in Rock Springs cemetery.

The longest life is but a span. Time's tide is rolling on! Our days and years are in God's hand—

We too must soon be gone.
MRS. J. R. DAVIS.

CORDIALITY IS LACKING.

"What's wrong with that?" asked the youthful reporter. "The whole town turned out to welcome him."

"That's just the point. Nowadays most royal receptions consist principally of jeers, boos and hisses."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

LESS COTTON TO BE PLANTED IN MILLS COUNTY THIS YEAR

We wish to compliment the farmers of Mills county for their patriotism and foresight in deciding to plant less cotton acreage this year than usual. It is not generally understood that our last cotton crop was larger by more than a half million bales, 639,896 bales, than the previous crop. The price of cotton has also gone down from thirty five cents a pound to twenty five cents a pound. In recommending that the cotton acreage be reduced as much as reasonable according to the condition of each farmer, we do so with an earnest desire to help our former friends get a large price for their cotton with less trouble and expense.

Respectfully submitted,
W. F. MILLER,
County Chairman.
J. C. DARROCH,
Chr. Council Defense.
GUY E. CASEY,
County Agricultural Agent.

BRITISH COINAGE SYSTEM OLD

Movement Started for Change in Currency That Had Its Origin Seven Hundred Years Ago

Great Britain's present system of coinage, which is threatened to be changed, goes back something like 700 years. In the early days, the barleycorn was a standard for measure. Three barleycorns laid end to end made an inch. The wheatcorn, at the same time, became the measure of weight. It was laid down that a British penny should weigh 32 wheatcorns, each taken from the middle of the ear and thoroughly dried.

These, of course, were silver pennies. Later, when the silver pennies were standardized, an act was passed decreeing that 20 silver pennies should make an ounce, and 12 ounces one pound. Twelve twentys equal 240, and there are still 240 pennies to the sovereign, while Troy weight, which jewelers and goldsmiths use, preserves the old nomenclature to the present day.

The reason why Troy weight is so called is that the French town of Troyes was in the middle ages the site of a great annual fair in precious metals. Troyes had its own system of weights, and these, or some of them, were introduced into England.

JOSS-PAPER INDUSTRY LARGE

The Swatow district is probably the largest producing center of joss paper in China. Its average annual export amounts to half the total export from all China. In addition to supplying the local demand, the following amounts were exported: 7,111,333 pounds, valued at $1,249,680, in 1916, and 7,923,200 pounds, valued at $1,071,332, in 1917. About one-half of the export was sent to Hongkong, Siam, Straits Settlements and Dutch Indies.

Southwestern Fukien supplies this district with the paper for joss-paper making. Only the lowest grade, third quality, paper is used. Chao-an district is the chief center of the industry.

The manufacture of joss paper is a simple process. Tin foil and the paper are cut in the desired sizes and shapes—usually square—and a sheet of tin foil is pasted on one side of the paper. In this sheet it is sold to the retailer, and it is he who makes it into the common form of "shoes of sycee" or other forms, the yellow representing gold and the gray silver. It is burned by the Chinese at funerals, at services for the dead, etc.—Consular Reports.

HAS HAD STOMACH TROUBLE FOR SEVEN YEARS

Theodore Sanford of Fenmore, Mich., has had stomach trouble for seven years and could not eat vegetables or fruit without pain in the stomach and restless nights. By taking Chamberlain's Tablets he is now able to eat vegetable or fruit without causing pain or sleeplessness. If troubled with indigestion or constipation give these tablets a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. (adv)

SALVATION ARMY EFFICIENCY SHOWN

(St. Louis, Mo. Republic)

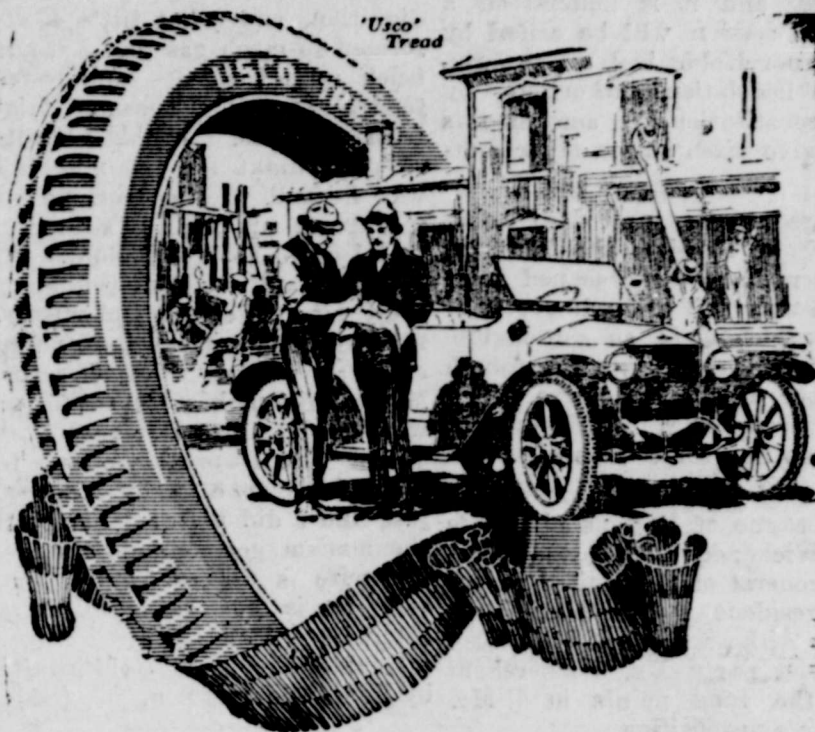

How to support a charitable institution that shelters more than a hundred refugees during the course of a year on an income not larger than is deemed necessary for the care of many ordinary families is set out in the recently issued annual report of the Salvation Army Rescue Home and Maternity Hospital.

The Hospital, which is situated at 3740 Marine Avenue, is occupied particularly with taking care of unfortunate and erring girls, who flee to the great city for refuge from the wagging tongues of their native villages. It has been maintained here before almost entirely through the efforts of the Army cohorts, aided by small sums obtained through the sale of articles made in its own work rooms.

The report shows that $5,238.21 was expended during the last fiscal year; that 108 ready and friendless girls were taken care of, and 61 infants sheltered without at the same time any debts being contracted. Of the expenditures but $1,174.57 was paid out for wages of employes or officers of the Home.

The record price for a steer was paid in Dallas this week by Swift & Co. when a Hereford steer owned by Beeville parties was sold at 41 1/2 cents per pound, netting the owners, $576.85. The beef was donated for a barbecue for the Cattle Raisers association in session in Dallas.

The attorney general rules that drilling oil wells in the public roads can not be legally permitted. This ruling was called forth by the commissioners court of Wichita county contracting with a drilling company to sink wells in the roads and give the county a portion of the proceeds from the wells.

President Wilson appointed Congressman James C. Wilson of the Fort Worth district to be federal judge in the district of which Mills county is a part, to assist Judge Meeks, whose health has been declining for some years. Governor Hobby has ordered an election in the Fort Worth district to fill the position vacated by the resignation of Congressman Wilson.

A total of thirteen constitutional amendments were provided for by the recent session of the legislature to be submitted to the voters of the entire state. Four will be submitted on May 24. On Nov. 4 six other amendments are to be submitted, at which time the proposition to hold a constitutional convention will also be voted on by the citizens. Three remaining amendments will not be submitted until the general election in November, 1920.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than some one's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home man a firm price for his wares rather than send our money away, knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.—Exchange.

$2000 GONE SAYS WILEY VESPERMAN.

"I spent at least two thousand dollars on medicines and treatments before I finally got relief by taking Tanlac," said Wiley Vesperman, of 4418 Bowser avenue, Dallas, Tex.

"I suffered with rheumatism in my left arm and shoulder for seven years," he continued, "and at times I was so badly crippled up that I would just have to give up and go to bed. I also suffered terribly with indigestion, and what little I ate formed so much gas that I would belch up my sour, undigested food and would become faint from dizziness. I could hardly sleep at night for the misery I was in and in the morning I would get up feeling so awful that I could not get around."

"But Tanlac has driven away every bit of the pain and misery, I never suffer from indigestion and can eat anything I want. My condition has improved so wonderfully since I started on Tanlac that I am able now to give all my time to my business, just like I did before that awful rheumatism got its hold on me. My wife is taking Tanlac, too, and she is just as enthusiastic about it as I am."

Tanlac is sold in Goldthwaite by L. E. Miller & Son. (ad)

THE RIGHT WAY.

A News subscriber wrote in a couple of weeks ago to say that he subscribed for the News in order to get the oil news and keep up with the oil development in this county. He complains that he does not see much about the oil development. It may as well be understood that these columns are not going to be used to misrepresent this town or county. Nor is it going to be used for the purpose of boosting any man or any set of men's financial operations. It will boost the resources of this county, but it will not knowingly say there is something when we know it is not here. There has been nothing said about the oil developments for the very good reason that during January and February there were no developments. The News has told the exact conditions at each and every proposed development.—San Saba News.

Yours is but the common heritage of us all, Neighbor. Many speculators and perhaps land owners who want to get quick returns and large profits are anxious for the newspapers to "boost the county," meaning to give just any sort of an exaggerated report in order to secure large financial benefits for the speculator. No self respecting newspaper man will do this and no right-thinking citizen wants him to do it—but there are others. Every paper should be a "booster" for its county, but when it comes to hard-down lying to advance the interests of any individual or all the people the newspaper man who is guilty of it is not worthy of the name, even tho he only goes to the extent of lying about the location of an expected well or its distance from the town. If he would lie about the oil situation he would lie about anything else.

ENDORSED AT HOME.

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Goldthwaite Citizen.

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Goldthwaite adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

"Mr. W. Taylor, Goldthwaite, says: 'My kidneys were inactive and annoyed me greatly and I suffered from spells of backache. I used Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Clements' Drug Store, and they regulated my kidneys and relieved the pain in my back. I have every reason to believe Doan's act just as represented.'

POMPEY CREEK

Editor Eagle:

Only five more weeks of school according to contract, but we've been having an exceptionally good school and we greatly hope that the school directors will prevail with the teachers to teach at least one more month of school, as we have two of Mills county's best teachers. Why should we allow the school to stop while there is money in the treasury? Why should we rob our children of the advantages the state gives them?

The Sunday school at this place is a decided success. As it was not organized until the first Sunday in March, it is too late for literature until the beginning of the next quarter, yet the interest seems great. Sunday, March 9, we had 38 present, 11 absent 10 new pupils, 91 chapters of the Bible had been read, offering $2c.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jenkins and infant daughter and Mrs. W. E. Jenkins were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jenkins, near Zephyr a few days ago.

Will Garner and Dan Calaway of Trigger Mountain were in our community a few days ago.

Donald McDonald has returned from Camp Travis.

Jesse Jones has returned from Ft. Worth. The shooting contest in which he thought to participate was postponed until August.

Little Miss Jewel Hancock has been somewhat sick the past few days.

Messrs. Will Boulter and Melton Carlisle made a trip to Brownwood last week.

Misses Esther Boulter and Myrtle Gunter, and Messrs. Will Garner and Donald McDonald visited the Weston well.

Miss Winnie Aldredge of Prairie and Mr. Quidle of Blanket Springs were married a few days ago.

Willie Black came in from Ranger. Mr. Pittman went to Brownwood the first of the week.

LATER POMPEY CREEK

Editor Eagle:

School and Sunday school are still progressing. The attendance at Sunday school last Sunday was not quite so good as the Sunday before, but was good and all other class reports were better than formerly, also the home department was revived. Mrs. John L. Gunter was made superintendent of the home department and Miss Lela Mosier secretary. Misses Lola Nichols, Mae Perkins, Pearley Brezzel, Zetha Boulter, Pearl Pittman and Mattie Mosier are the visitors. We are expecting our home department to be even better than heretofore, which was excellent.

We think the school directors have about decided to extend the school another month. We most earnestly hope so at any rate.

Donald McDonald and Miss Esther Boulter were married in Mullin Sunday. We wish for them much happiness.

The program Friday evening was well attended and was quite a success.

Messrs. Will Garner and Jim Hays of Trigger Mountain attend the pie supper here Friday evening and Will Garner was in our community again Sunday. He is apparently very fond of his uncle, Mr. Will Boulter, who resides here.

Mrs. John L. Gunter and daughter, Miss Myrtle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Gunter of Democrat, Monday.

Misses Kate and Addie Hays visited home folks at Trigger Mountain Friday, returning Sunday.

Mr. Will Boulter lost a yearling Sunday and Mr. Wilkins lost one some time last week. The cause was that to be feeding on too much weeds.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosier Thursday a nine pound boy.

Mr. McDonald sold his farm recently to a gentleman from Brownwood, but he retains possession the remainder of this year. Cyril McDonald will make a crop there this year.

There was singing at Mr. Mosier's Sunday evening.

Mrs. Morgan Black and Jewel were guests of the W. S. Black home Sunday.

The school at Duren closed last week.

Pyorrhea.

Seventy-five per cent of the people have Pyorrhea Alveolaris (an oozing of pus from the tooth socket.) Specialists tell us that it is often the cause of heart, kidney and stomach troubles, also responsible for many cases of tuberculosis and arthritic rheumatism. Many other diseases are attributed to it, but the foregoing are enough to show the danger of mouth infection.

I am giving, and have been for five years, special attention to the treatment of mouth infection. If you have it you should call on your dentist at once and have it attended to.

STAR ITEMS.

Editor Eagle:

H. E. Buckner of Arlington made us a business call Friday and visited in the home of E. J. Shave.

Mrs. J. E. Peck of Houston is visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bowman and Mrs. M. J. Peck. She is delighted to be with her young son Ward, who has spent the winter here with the above named grand parents. However, Ward will return home with his mother.

Mrs. D. I. Hawkins and pretty children, late of Ochiltree but now of McGirk, motored over recently and made a short visit to our burg. Her sister, Miss Hudson, also accompanied them.

Parent-Teachers club met last Friday afternoon, their regular day of meeting. Mesdames McGilvrey and O. N. Hamilton united with the club at that time. The club will meet again second Friday in April and the subject is a broad one, "Texas." We invite one and all to be present.

The eighth and ninth grades had quite an interesting ancient history contest on Friday, Autry Gent and Vernon Perkins choosing the class and each pupil propounding one or more questions to the opposite side. They all seemed wide awake and enthused, Vernon Perkins side winning as the final result. Our compliments are tendered to the entire class of faithful workers.

Mr. J. N. Erdley is now at his daughter's, Mrs. F. M. Soules, after spending several months in the west. We are all glad to see Mr. Bradley and give him a welcome in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Soules returned Saturday from Fort Worth, where they had a gala time at the fat stock show.

Dr. J. E. Brooking's home was opened to the Baptist Sunday school entertainment last Friday night. A few short hours sped by all too quickly for the guests. Miss Franc's had several interesting games and beautiful piano selections. Refreshments consisted of chocolate, fruits and delicious cakes. Guests bade Dr. and Mrs. Brooking adieu at a late hour with sweet memories of a pleasant evening and many thanks for their hospitality.

Mrs. J. T. Hamilton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Childre, in San Antonio and incidentally Mrs. Hamilton expects to attend the Billy Sunday meeting while there. She also plans to return via Houston and Sour Lake, visiting Mrs. Livingston and P. H. Hamilton.

The Cottonwood school had quite an interesting program the night school closed and a large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. Jas. Sargent of Aleman is here on a visit to his daughters, Mesdames Hamilton and Goodnight, also under treatment of Dr. Brooking. Mr. Sargent is improving and we hope he will soon be entirely well.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell of McGirk spent Monday in our midst. They were accompanied by little Miss Weathers of Goldthwaite.

MRS. STARK DEAD

Mrs. J. T. Stark, lovingly called "Grandma Stark" by the younger people who knew her, died at her family home in Rock Springs community Monday morning about 8 o'clock and her remains were laid to rest in Rock Springs cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Stark had been an invalid for a number of years, having met with an accident in which her hip was dislocated. She was a patient sufferer and bore her long affliction with Christian fortitude. Her condition appeared to be as well as customary until Monday morning at 1 o'clock, when she was stricken with apoplexy, which resulted in her death a few hours afterwards.

Mrs. Stark leaves a husband, one daughter and four sons, besides a number of grand children and other relatives. All of her children were in attendance upon her funeral except her son Walter, who was in Oklahoma and was unable to reach here in time to attend the funeral.

The bereaved family can be sure of the sincere sympathy of all of their friends.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take. (adv)

Louis McFarland, who was in the navy during the war, spent a few days at home after securing his discharge and left first of the week for DeLeon, to engage in the oil business.

Virgil Jackson, who was with the heavy artillery and was located in Virginia during the war, has secured his discharge and returned home, to the delight of his parents and many friends.

Mrs. Elizabeth McDermott was called to Abilene Sunday by a message announcing the serious illness of her son-in-law, Mr. J. Shipman. A later message announced the death of Mr. Shipman and Messrs. John and Frank McDermott left for Abilene to attend the funeral.

Herbert Street, who was a member of the marines and had several months active service in France, is at home on a furlough. He was seriously wounded in the hip during the progress of a battle in which he was engaged and was in the hospital for several weeks, but is recovering nicely now, altho the wound has not entirely healed. He is one of Mills county's most highly esteemed young men, and we all feel that his service was a credit to the county and are glad to have him at home again and hope the time is not far distant when he will secure a discharge from the service.

A LITTLE ROUNDING UP

To the young ladies who may chance to read Uncle Henry's rambling remarks, who feels moved by a good spirit to say a few words concerning your duties to your mothers, now please don't get huffed and say, "it's none of his business" and not read his whole letter; then if you don't agree with him you can go off somewhere and pout and while you are doing a good job of pouting go to the mirror and see what a fine specimen of feminine humanity you are, and then while looking at such a picture just imagine some one announces your best fellow is at the door and is calling for thee. Then view the picture two minutes later. Oh, my! what a change!

It may be you have noticed a care worn expression on your mother's face lately. It may and it may not have been brought there by any act of yours; yet it is there and it is your duty to chase it away. Would it not be a happy surprise to her if you were to approach her and bid her sit down and rest while you performed the arduous duty in hand? And how a tender kiss on her mouth would cause her dear face to brighten! Anyway, you owe her a kiss or two. Away back when you were a little bit of a girl she kissed you when perhaps no one else was tempted to put their lips to your feverish and often dirty little face. You were not so attractive then as you are now. And through all these years of childish sunshine and shadows by the magic of mother's kiss she was always ready to cure your little dirty, chubby hands when they were injured in the first skirmishes with the rough old world. And then the midnight kiss with which she routed so many bad dreams, as she leaned above your restless pillow, have all been on interest these long, long years.

Of course she is not so pretty and kissable as you are; but perhaps the center would not, if you had done your part of the work for the last ten years be so marked. Her face has more wrinkles than yours, and if you were sick or in distress that face would appear far more than an angel's bending over you watching every opportunity to minister to your comfort and every one of the wrinkles seem to be bright wavelets of sunshine chasing each other over that dear face. Aren't you ashamed to wait for sickness and suffering on your part to drive you to see the beauty and mother love in that dear wrinkled face? She will leave you one of these days. These burdens if not lighted from her shoulders will break her down and these rough, hard hands that have done so many necessary things for you will be crossed up on her lifeless breast, and those neglected lips that gave you your first baby kiss will be forever closed and these sad, tired eyes will have opened on eternity and then you will appreciate your mother; but it will be too late. Ah! how little thought by husbands, sons and daughters is given to wives and mother's long days—days of ceaseless labor, planning; and sleepless nights all given not for her's but for their comfort and happiness. Shame on a husband who would link on to this almost overburdened wife the sharp cutting aggravated criticisms and objection that can be so easily avoided. If you want meet her with a smile and the kindest of words have you the manhood to protect her against the criticisms of others? After you have thus crushed an already aching, disappointed, broken heart without a word of apology can you expect a kind word now and then when everything is going well to re-establish you in her love and estimation? Sometimes it looks like she just throws the big mantle of love over all and forgets all she does. Our answer if answer we shall give, would be there must be in her a heart and love akin to God.

Sam Jones said "go home, you old rascal, kiss your wife and tell her you love her." He said it might be a bitter pill, but you made her believe you loved her before you married her and promised to still love and protect her through life. You love to harp on your patriotism and big things you have done. Change the program, begin treating your wife like she is your equal and you will speak of her more frequently when you are blowing yourself about other things not half so important and deserving.

If any of you old snappish unappreciative, rough house makers want to resent this and get up a row I want to inform you I am not at home, but awful glad I've stirred up something.

THE MASTERS IN ECONOMY

(From Philadelphia, Pa., Press)

An organization deserving of more credit than is usually allotted to it is the Salvation Army, which for years has upheld the standard of philanthropic as well as religious work. The soldiers in this quelling Army come in contact with the people of all classes; they move among the people in the slums, mingle with them and study them, but always their hands are outstretched to give any aid where the need for assistance is apparent. It is seldom their work causes an unusual flurry; we become accustomed to seeing the Salvation Army "seasies" at Thanksgiving and Christmas time, standing on street-corners for hours at a time beating tambourines and attracting attention to the wire-meshed basket that provides the means of many a holiday dinner. We would feel that something was acutely wrong with the order of things if the Salvation Army wagon didn't stop at the house every two or three weeks to collect the stacked-up newspapers, magazines and articles of clothing that are put to the best possible use.

They are masters in economy and use a wizard's art in utilizing waste material. Nothing is deemed valueless until after it undergoes a rigid inspection. People cooperate with the Salvation Army because they recognize in the institution a reliable body of workers who understand the need, the time and the place for action.

When the war note sounded in this country and all eyes were turned toward Europe, the Salvationists lost no time in marshaling their forces for work overseas. The women were the first in the field long before America's entry in the war. They were with the British Army in France one week after Britain declared war, and they were with the American Expeditionary Forces from the start. Returned American soldiers from the battle-field cite many instances of the valor and tireless energy of the workers.

Salvation Army hutsments are operated by a married officer, his wife and two or three lassies, who provide hot drinks, home-made pies, doughnuts, cakes, candies, game-tables, magazines, libraries, home-town papers and afford social intercourse and entertainment to the men. These home touches awaiting the men returning from the trenches mean more to them than they would ever be able to express. Thousands of miles from home, friends, relatives and the home influences, they feel like straws drifting on a gigantic tide of circumstance; home becomes a part of a misty dream; the only realities that come pounding down upon them with deadly insistence are the battle scenes, the drive forward, the tense hours and the broken slumber behind the lines. Some spirit of home life invades the nightmare of war when the women in plain blue frocks and red-banded bonnets mend their clothes for them, visit the hospitals where they lie wounded and write letters for them when their hand refuses to obey the impulse of the mind.

The great majority of the Salvation Army workers in France are women officers. Where they labor—in camp and in dugouts—the influence of a good American woman is of untold value. Their influence upon camp morale is tremendous. The workers are busy in villages and cities back of the line where the reaction from the strain and unyielding discipline of the trenches is most dangerous. The improved morale of the troops wherever the lassies are working in France has been remarked upon by military authorities.

THE VALUE OF POETRY.

According to Alfred Noyes, the war has caused a dreadful slump in poetry. Everything else has gone up 300 to 400 per cent, but a sonnet that before the war would easily bring £5 ($24.80) commands a guinea ($5.10) today. Mr. Noyes laughed dolefully.
"We ought," he said, "to revise the old proverb so as to make it read, 'Poets are born, not paid.'"—London Opinion.

A DEFINITION.

"Say, pa," called little Willie, "what is a flight of fancy?"

IN MEMORY

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Emily:
We, the Seniors and Faculty of Goldthwaite High School, 1917-18, wish in this way further to express our profound sympathy for you in this sad hour of your lives. As a classmate Eloise could always be depended on; as a pupil she was faithful and diligent, and as a friend and companion she could not be excelled. She was a model of our class motto: "Impossible Is Un-American," and her character will leave its imprint on our lives, and we shall remember her as our friend and classmate, even though her spirit is at rest in the great beyond. If it were possible, the Seniors of her year of graduation and her Teachers would be happy to lift this sorrow clear of your lives. We, too, are saddened and grieved and can not understand why she had to go so soon, but as we bow to the inevitable we can have the pleasure of remembering her as our true friend, classmate and companion. With deepest sympathy from the Seniors and Teachers of the Goldthwaite High School 1917-1918.

FINE OIL PROSPECTS

Reports say there is a fine showing of oil in the Tyson well. Drilling is in progress in a number of wells and a new rig is being placed in Long Cove, while locations have been selected for several new wells. The Weston well, seven miles west of town, is further advanced than the others and is likely to "come in" at any time. They are drilling in oil-bearing lime at about 1900 feet and expect to bring the well in at from 2000 to 2500 feet. A large per cent of the slush drawn from the well now is a good grade of oil.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

DELIGHTFUL LECTURES

Mrs. Onion Talks On The Victory Loan.

Mrs. John F. Onion of Dallas traveling in the interest of the forth-coming Victory War Loan spent Monday in this city. She arrived on the morning train from Brownwood and was met at the depot by a delegation of ladies and conveyed first to the Hotel Saylor, and later to the ladies club room in the courthouse, for a meeting with Mr. Walter Fairman and her committee of the ladies organization for the county in the war loan campaign. Here a conference was held on the plans for the campaign.

In the afternoon Mrs. Onion addressed the Ladies Aid Society in the Baptist church at 3 o'clock and the Woman's Home Mission society in the Methodist church at 4 o'clock and was given close attention by the ladies at both meetings.

Mrs. Onion's pleasing manner of speaking and her earnestness and enthusiasm, together with her charming personality and magnetism would make conversion of her hearers in a much more meritorious cause than the sale and purchase of Victory Bonds hence her lectures were inspiring to the ladies here, who were already enthusiastic in the work of the campaign.

It is possible that Mrs. Onion may visit some of the large towns in the state a second time during the progress of the campaign, but there is small hope of her making a second visit to this city, for under the able management of Mrs. Walter Fairman and her splendid corps of assistants the ladies are sure to carry their quota over the top.
