PREPARING FOR REUNION

Many Details Are Being Given Attention By Committees

The fact that sufficient time has been allowed those in charge of arrangements for the reunion of the old and young soldiers accounts in a measure for the perfection of arrangements. Several times in the past the work of arranging for a big celebration has been undertaken on too short notice and not enough time was allowed to bring to fruition the plans outlined. This trouble does not confront the committees at this time, for there has been plenty of time and they have done plenty of work and have ample time to discharge all duties incumbent upon them before dawning of July 16, on which date the people will begin to assemble for the three days celebration.

The first day will be given over to general entertainment, the program beginning at 2 o'clock and ending late that night.

The second day will be devoted largely to the old soldiers' program, carrying with it a number of speeches and other modes of entertainment. That night, under the management of Miss Nora Hooks, the young folks will give an entertainment in honor of the old soldiers and it will be worth seeing, you can depend.

The third day will be given over to the young soldiers' program and at noon a big free barbecue dinner will be provided. The arrangement for this barbecue is in charge of Mr. J. C. Street, therefore, there need be no uneasiness as to the success of the undertaking.

A BLUE MARK

If there is a blue mark beneath the subscription date on your Eagle it is a sure sign that the subscription has expired and the mark is a solicitation to renew.

Otto Gumalt of Star was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday.

Mrs. Will H. Trent returned Sunday afternoon from a visit to relatives in Temple.

Gus Kirby was one of the good men who dropped a dollar in the Old Bird's crew this week.

Dr. M. L. Brown of Brownwood was a business visitor to this city the early part of the week.

Lester Berry was called to Lampasas Saturday night by a message announcing the serious illness of a friend.

Miss Laura Street returned Sunday from Greenville, where she was a member of a house party for several days.

L. B. Ashley is having a neat residence built on his lot on Fisher street and will occupy it as a home as soon as it is completed.

W. B. Wilcox of Ratler was a business visitor to the big town last Saturday and called to have the Eagle come to his address another year.

E. M. Page of Live Oak community was a pleasant caller at this office Monday and ordered the Eagle sent to Mrs. Odell in Los Angeles, Cal.

The old soldiers are to meet in regular monthly session today and it is expected that there will be a full attendance, as this will be the last meeting before the reunion.

Our good friend Mr. W. W. Johnson of North Brown community presented the Eagle with a fine cabbage and a large beet last Saturday. These vegetables were from his home garden and were extremely fine. Of course we appreciate the nice present, but we appreciate far more the continued friendship of this good man, for we esteem him one of the best men we know.

Thrift is a shield against money worries. Buy War Savings Stamps. Save until it becomes a habit. Buy War Savings Stamps is the answer. Buying War Savings Stamps is the beginning of wealth. SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL

Large Number of Converts—Baptizing Sunday.

The revival conducted at the Baptist tabernacle closed Tuesday night after continuing ten days, during which time splendid sermons were preached to large congregations and much good and lasting good was accomplished. Rev. W. R. White, pastor of the church, certainly made no mistake when he secured Rev. L. D. White of Humble to assist in the meeting, for never was there a series of sermons more thoroughly enjoyed and the results were certainly all that could have been expected. There were twenty-one additions to the Baptist church as a result of this meeting—seven by letters and fourteen by profession.

Rev. White announced he will baptize the converts on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Lake Merrett. There will be sixteen converts baptized at this time, as two were already awaiting baptism when the meeting began and the sacred rites were delayed until the close of the meeting.

A GOOD MAN GONE

Mr. H. E. Dalton died at his home in this city Wednesday morning at 5:40 and his remains were laid to rest in Mullin cemetery Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, a large congregation of his friends from this city joining with his host of friends of the Mullin country in paying their respects to his memory and offering condolence and sympathy to his bereaved family.

Ed Dalton was one of the biggest hearted and most lovable men Mills county ever knew. He was generous to a fault and was a friend to anybody who needed a friend. Of him it can truly be said that he had no enemies and no man can claim that Ed Dalton ever wronged him in any way. He was reared in this county and spent his life here honored and esteemed by everybody.

On February 10 of this year he was stricken with apoplexy and for a time it was feared he could not survive the stroke, but he rallied and had been able to get about town and look after his business. Tuesday he made an automobile trip to Mullin and while there a second stroke of apoplexy came upon him and he never regained consciousness. He was brought to his home here, where loving hands and skilled physicians administered to him in every possible way, but to no avail.

Mr. Dalton was 36 years and four months old at the time of his death. He leaves a wife and three sons and one step-daughter besides his parents and other relatives and to all of them the hearts of the people go out in sympathy.

MR. JETTON DEAD

Mr. Robert Jetton died at his home in this city Sunday and his remains were interred in the Big Valley cemetery Monday afternoon. He lived here only a few months, having moved to this city from the Plains country last September. His circle of acquaintances here was not large, owing to the fact that he had been in ill health and confined to his home most of the time of his residence here. He is survived by a wife and several children, only one of whom lives in Mills county—Mrs. J. T. Robertson of Rock Springs—but his sons and other relatives from elsewhere were with him in his last hours.

The bereaved wife and daughter and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of all who know of their bereavement.

MEETING IN PROGRESS

The meeting commenced at the Christian church last night to continue ten days and maybe longer. A tabernacle has been placed immediately in front of the church building and has been well lighted and seated, making everything comfortable for the congregations. The pastor, Elder Speck, will do the preaching and Mr. Cate from Bend is conducting the song service.

R. M. THOMPSON - Editor.

It was planned to have Wm. J. Bryan ride at the head of an immense procession in Columbus, Ohio, Tuesday celebrating nationwide prohibition becoming effective, but the erstwhile statesman refused to take so prominent a part and viewed the parade from the grandstand.

Governor Hobby has submitted a proposition to the legislature to provide for civil service rules to govern all state employees. This plan would do away with the old party pie-counter without necessarily improving the public service. Like the nepotism law, it sounds all right, but there is no benefit in it.

The first bale of 1919 cotton was marketed in Houston Monday. It was grown in Hidalgo county, near Edenburg, by a Mexican and was sold in Houston exchange for $1000, which was within $15 of the highest price ever paid in that city for the first bale. The price was $2.12 per pound and the bale weighed 471 pounds.

Nation-wide prohibition went into effect Monday night at midnight, as a result of the wartime prohibition law enacted by congress. This law is to remain in force until demobilization of the military forces and will then be annulled by order of the president. The raising of the "dry" siege will only be effective a short time, at most, for national prohibition is to go into effect next January.

In a riot in Brest, France, Sunday a large number of American soldiers and sailors were wounded, some of them seriously, by French sailors who resented the act of an American in tearing down a French flag and trampling upon it. There is no disputing the fact that Americans, especially the soldiers and sailors, thought far better of the French people before the war than they now think of them and this is due to no fault of the Americans, but to the ingratitude of the French and their disgusting insolence. Talk to any of the Americans who saw service in France and they will tell you their opinion of the French in forceful language.

The President is coming home determined to make a stern fight for a full acceptance of the work he and his associates did in Paris. So much is made manifest by his "address to the American people," issued on the occasion of the signing of the treaty. No one can read that address without feeling that trivial indeed must be the changes proposed if they are to be made with the assent of the President. His purpose is, obviously, to reduce the issue to the simple question of ratifying or rejecting the treaty in the form into which it was crystallized by the ceremonies at Versailles. It is not to be inferred that in assuming this attitude the President means to affirm that every article of the treaty is what he thinks it ought to be. It would be more rational, on the contrary, to suppose that there is not a single article in it which has his unqualified approval. But it is not by the test of perfection that the President offers his work for judgment. It is by the at once truer and more indulgent test of practicality. It is evident that, himself judging it by that test, the President has a faith in its worthiness which will make him inhospitable, if not intolerant, to any material modification which may be proposed.—Dallas News.

SOUTH BENNETT

Editor Eagle:

We have Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. B. R. Casbear is superintendent and Miss Stella Wheat is secretary. Preaching every fifth Sunday by Rev. J. W. Kelley, Methodist pastor in charge.

Rev. W. J. Benningfield gave a fine talk last Sunday afternoon Isaiah 1:18. "Friend Joe" turned the service into a good old-time Methodist class meeting and experience talks.

There will be preaching here Saturday night, July 5, Sunday at 11 and Sunday night, according to announcement of Rev. J. W. Kelley last Sunday evening.

Rev. W. J. Benningfield will preach at Kelly the second Sunday at 11 a. m. and then come over to South Bennett we hope.

Mrs. Pink Brashear and her daughter have been here from Fort Worth, visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Courts.

Grady Tullos of north of town, also Jake Brown had "dates" at South Bennett Sunday.

Alvin Dennis of Live Oak, Walter Simpson, Travis Griffin, Ray Blackburn and some other returned soldiers added to the pleasure of the community by a visit.

AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

As all Bible students know this is the answer to the question when the Lord asked Cain, "Where is thy brother Abel?" He first lied to the Lord, saying, "I know not. Am I my brother's keeper?"

How often this day is the question answered by church members and professors of Christianity just as Cain answered it, "Am I my brother's keeper?" Cain was cursed from the earth by his deed and God is no respecter of persons. "Whatsoever ye do unto one of these little ones ye do it unto me." This was the language of Christ. Mark the expression, "whatsoever," whether good or bad, ye do it unto me. If a man steals your neighbor's cow or hog and you know it to be a fact and you conceal it or fail to make it known, you thereby become accessory to the crime and are legally guilty in the sight of the Lord.

How often a man mistreats or abuses your neighbor or his family, his child or his dumb animals and you reply as did Cain, "Am I my brother's keeper?" You tell and teach your children the same damnable doctrine that it is none of your business and you keep your mouth shut. You are not their keeper. Teaching them indirectly to cover up crime. Don't you investigate matters at all if he has not stolen or mistreated you in any way as you know if it matters not how he has treated your brother. You must hold him in the arms of your affection and not make any attempt to investigate and learn the facts as to how he is treating one of these little ones. You say, "Am I my brother's keeper?" God pity such Cain Christians. God help you to turn your influence from such false ideas of right and help to foster and build up the pure virtues of society and Christianity and punish evil doers.

Some years ago, before our state enacted laws against roping contests, a man saw some boys roping a neighbor's cow and they broke the cow's neck. The man who saw it did not wish to tell his neighbor who did it, for fear that he would get the ill will of the boys. He was not his neighbor's keeper. We happened to be the owner of the cow. Such a neighbor is not worth a last year bird's nest. Rather than go and tell his neighbor and help him to get damage for his dead cow, he preferred the friendship and good will of those outlaws. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

The Eagle editor and family last week received a picture of a good and honored friend M. M. Van Glahn of Los Angeles, Cal. It is an exceptionally likeable and makes her appear as natural as when she lived with her friends in Mills county. She announces on the card she is 83 years of age and it is sincere hope of the Eagle and her other friends here that her life will be spared to the world many more years.

COUNTRY SUNDAY SCHOOL
If the Sunday School has been allowed to die down, there should be no further delay in reorganizing it.

In our concern for the mental development of our children, we should not forget the need for moral training also. In the writer's neighborhood a boy who was to have graduated at the high school last month—a bright boy in his books—spent the commencement period in jail, having entered a store at night and killed its owner only a few weeks before. Proper moral training had not accompanied his mental training.

Every father or mother should ask himself or herself if the Sunday School is not needed to supplement the training given in home and public school. And even if the boy learned nothing useful in the Sunday School, it might still be worth while for him to go simply because the Sunday School offers an opportunity for him to meet other boys and girls in the right environment and under wholesome influences. The average boy who has nothing to do from sunup to sundown every Sunday is pretty likely to get into mischief.

The moral and spiritual benefits of the country Sunday School should alone insure efforts to utilize and strengthen it, while the social and intellectual advantages which it offers may also be not improperly considered. The Bible is one of the world's supreme pieces of literature, and to study it Sunday after Sunday will contribute not a little to anybody's mental growth and equipment.—Progressive Farmer.

The Houston city council has solved the difficulty of having weeds cut along the streets and alleys and on vacant lots by adopting an ordinance requiring the cutting of weeds by the owner of the property where the weeds are grown. Not only is a fine to be imposed where the ordinance is violated, but the city will have the weeds cut and charge it against the property as taxes.

PROTECTION OF GRAIN

Several farmers protected themselves against loss to their growing grain by hail with a hail policy and many others wish they had taken the protection offered them, but waited too late.

Corn, cotton, cane, maize, etc., can be protected the same as small grain by a hail policy.

I now offer you protection against fire on your grain while standing in the field uncut, cut, shocked, stacked, sacked or stored in your granary anywhere on your farm, one policy covering in all these conditions.

Also tornado protection after grain is in granary or barn. The rates are very reasonable on this class of insurance.

I am also prepared to take care of your insurance needs in all respects, whether in city or country.

I can get bonds for those who have to give bonds of any kind. Notary work is also done, and will appreciate your business.

JAPAN'S POLICIES

Japan is one of the politically backward nations, now that revolution has destroyed autocracy in central Europe, so that the report of prospective political disturbances in that country will probably excite more satisfaction than alarm in this country. The dispatches refer to the prospective disturbance as a "socialistic movement," but a socialistic movement can accomplish a good deal of political reform without establishing any of its economic vagaries and this, one may expect would be the net outcome in Japan. There is a good deal of the Prussian philosophy in the international policies of Japan, with the result that they cloud the future as much as any other present fact of circumstance. It would lessen that menace if the government should be brought more under the control of the masses of the people, for democracy everywhere is more bent than autocracy on keeping the peace.—Dallas News.

LETTER FROM FRANCE

Dun-sur-Meuse, France, May 31 Editor Eagle, Goldthwaite, Tex.

Dear Sir:—Herewith copy of speech delivered by General Pershing at the American cemetery at Romange, France, on Memorial Day, May 30, 1919. Thought possibly that it might prove of interest to you and your many readers of the old Mills county's standby—the Eagle.

As you know, the battle of the Argonne was one of the bitterest battles of the recent war, a battle where the American soldiers gallantly proved their metal. They had to advance in the face of seemingly insurmountable obstacles. The boche were entrenched in the strongest of positions and our soldiers steadily pressed forward under intense artillery and machine gun fire, but advance they did, and the Germans were slowly driven back from their strongly fortified positions, leaving the fields literally strewn with their dead as well as ours.

The cemetery at Romange at present contains over 12,000 bodies of our dead soldiers and when it is finally completed, it will contain approximately three times as many more. This cemetery is being systematically laid out under the supervision of the Graves Registration service and as you will perceive, the task is one that requires a great deal of time and labor inasmuch as the bodies are scattered over a large area in the Argonne Forest, but no pains are spared in an endeavor to accurately identify each and every body and re-enter same in cemetery; each grave being plainly marked so that the fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers of those who fell in battle may make a pilgrimage to the graves of their loved ones. As the "California Poet" expresses it, "God grant that they come in the springtime, when the fields are dotted with daisies." This work is being performed by several battalions of negroes and a more unpleasant work would be hard to imagine. All the bodies are in a badly decomposed condition and very difficult to handle. But someone has to do and the poor negroes have my sympathy. The stench in and around the cemetery, while the work is in progress, is something awful, but a person can get accustomed to almost anything over here.

We are at present stationed at Dun-sur-Meuse, a small shell town village about 35 kilometers northwest of Verdun. This country up here was occupied by the Germans for approximately four years and when they were finally driven out they left nothing standing, for what they could not take with them, they destroyed.

ed. On a hill overlooking the station, there is the debris of what was formerly a beautiful cathedral, by the side of which is a large French cemetery. The Germans, as usual, destroyed this cathedral and not being satisfied with this, they shelled the cemetery with large caliber shells, literally ploughing up the cemetery and scattering the bones of the dead over the surrounding territory. But there is no use in telling you about such instances of Huns' temperament for you, as well as the entire world, are pretty well "fed" up on it. I imagine.

The personnel of the A. E. F. is rapidly thinning out with the exception of several divisions of Regular Army troops, which compose the Army of Occupation in Germany. While Germany does not seem to have any great desire to sign the peace terms and will no doubt hedge the issue as long as possible, she will eventually have to agree to the allied terms and become a third rate power among the nations of the world. In event that she doesn't sign, the American Army of Occupation will, no doubt, immediately advance into German territory and occupy same. In my opinion, one of the most serious errors the Allies ever made was in allowing Germany too much time in which to consider the peace terms. She should have been compelled to sign it within ten days after the armistice, but of course the Allies were not expecting such a sudden collapse of the Germans and did not have the peace conditions definitely worked out themselves.

I won't worry you longer with this. Wishing you and dear old Mills county all the happiness and prosperity imaginable, I remain, Sincerely,

SGT. V. M. WATSON,
A. P. O. 952, France.
296th M. P. Co.

THE OIL FIELD

While no oil wells have been brought in the past week, indications are that many people have strong faith in the Mills county field and that developments here bid fair to make Mills county famous as an oil territory.

The Ware-Heywood well is going down rapidly. They are working three shifts of men and the work goes on every minute of the day and night. It is understood they are down about 200 feet and have encouraging indications.

The Clarion people are preparing to "spud in" across the bayou from the location of the Weston well. The new location is on the Locklear farm, near the Slack crossing.

Other wells are going down in various parts of the county and we are all hoping for developments at all of the locations that will prove the field.

NEW CREAM STATION IN TOWN!

WHERE?
On the West Side of Square in the Harrison building.

When did that happen?
Just recently.

What outfit is it?
It is Metzger Bros. of Dallas, one of the oldest and most reliable creamery companies in Texas.

Wonder if they are here just for today and gone tomorrow?
No! They have come to stay, provided they get a reasonable share of the trade.

What is their policy in dealing with customers?
A square deal to all alike.
To teach each customer just how cream is tested.

Well, who's running it, anyhow?
He is W. O. McCULLEY.

Where is he from?
Brownwood, they say.

What kind of a fellow is he?
Well, we will just ask the Merchants Retail Credit Association of Brownwood and see. And that is not enough. We will just ask J. C. Evans, J. N. Keese, Lewis Hudson, J. M. Arnold, Alton Gatlin and a few other old timers who knew him elsewhere. We might inquire at a bank. Anyway, we'll try him once.

CHURCH RESOLUTIONS

Be it resolved by the Baptist church of Goldthwaite in conference assembled:

1. That, whereas, Bro. W. R. White, who has been our pastor for more than two years, during which time he and his good wife have greatly endeared themselves to us; and, whereas, Bro. White has decided to attend the Seminary at Fort Worth the coming session, it is with deep regret we accept his resignation as pastor and co-worker.

2. That we commend him to any people among whom his lot may be cast, as an able preacher, an untiring worker and an exemplary Christian citizen. By his great zeal and Christian influence the church here has been built up in a great way and the entire citizenship of the town and surrounding country regret to see him leave.

3. That our prayers and best wishes shall follow Brother and Sister White in their efforts to be better prepared for the great work of the Master, and on out to them into whatever fields of labor they may be called.

4. That a copy of these resolutions be given Brother and Sister White and a copy sent to The Baptist Standard, Central Messenger and Goldthwaite Eagle for publication.

Adopted by church in conference, July 2, 1919.

CLOSE SPACING OF COTTON

On our average thin uplands, we are pretty certain that most of our cotton is spaced too wide to get the biggest yields. A few years ago it was quite commonly believed that wide spacing between rows and in the drill was an effective means of controlling the boll weevil, because of the sunlight and air admitted. As the weevil moved eastward, the Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi experiment stations began to make experiments to prove or disprove the wide spacing theory and as a result we now have ample evidence on which to base our conclusions as to the best space for cotton.

The experiments summed up, clearly show that on the average land rows three to three and one-half feet apart and plants a hoe's width in the drill will give better yields than any wider spacing. There is also evidence from the Louisiana and Mississippi stations that similar spacing is best, even on the rich bottom lands of those states. The reader will bear in mind that these statements refer particularly to cotton grown under boll weevil conditions. It so happens, however, that in nearly all tests outside boll weevil territory close spacing has also given the best yields. These experiment station results are corroborated by the experience of many successful cotton-growers.

Width of rows is a matter already fixed, of course, but cotton-chopping is now under way all over the belt and the matter of spacing in the drill should be given careful attention. On most lands a hoe's width in drill will usually be best.—The Progressive Farmer.

Matt Casbeer was here from Bisbee, Arizona, the first of the week meeting with his friends. He likes Arizona very much.

KINDERGARTEN DEPARTMENT

By the United States Bureau of Education, Washington National Kindergarten Association.

By MRS. LENORE R. RANUCCI

Most children have too many toys; consequently they are stirred to make toys for themselves and their powers of invention are retarded. There are two kinds of toys, useful and useless. Those are useful which answer the needs of child-life. A ball is a most useful toy because it is about the first that a child can play with. All mothers know how a babe, as soon as it is old enough to use its hands, loves a soft, bright-colored ball. From infancy practically through the whole of life the ball plays an active part. Tennis, golf, baseball, football—all sports of later life center around a ball.

Soon comes the building stage with blocks. A ten-cent box of dominoes is excellent material for building and for making tables, chairs, beds and soldiers in a row.

Then comes the initiative stage of toys. Every child, boy or girl, wants to do as father or mother does. A ten-cent sweeper and a ten-cent broom are always a joy to a child's heart and enables the little one to actually help mother.

The doll also plays an important part in children's lives, for it answers the instinct of nurture which is inborn in children. Good serviceable dolls, not too many at once, are most useful. Children also need sets of dishes with which to learn to set a table and to pretend to cook and which they can wash and dry, again imitating mother. Imitating father, children can play with toys of construction, such as sets of stone blocks and trains, automobiles and other tools of man's world.

Toys are useless which are easily broken, such as expensive mechanical toys. These are generally more interesting to grown-ups than to children. Huge hobby-horses, large dolls and too many toys are useless also. Every little girl longs for a big doll, which is right and good, but for babies of two years or younger such toys are not only useless but lead to the bored child, which of all things is the most pitiable—a child to whom nothing is new, nothing interesting!

Through play the child should be taught the care of toys. A child who is taught to pick up his toys and put them away in proper places becomes neat and orderly. Often children are careless with their toys and, unless carefulness is instilled in them, they become wantonly destructive and have no respect for the property of others. If a little boy has a stuffed dog that barks and he is found investigating the reason for the barking, he is not destructive so much as he is curious and it must be remembered that through investigation great discoveries are made. A child with a mechanical mind will often take his toys apart, "to see how they are made." But curiosity is strong in all children; therefore, before punishing a child for destroying a toy, be

Yesterday being the Glorious Fourth the postoffice and banks and several business places celebrated by remaining closed. The mail carriers did not make their rounds and the town presented somewhat of a holiday appearance.

Marion Stephens came in from Fort Worth to spend the Glorious Fourth with home folks. He is moving from Fort Worth to Wichita Falls, where he will still be employed by the Quarles Lumber Co.

"The Greatest of Them All"

Head and shoulders above the crowd stands Thomas A. Edison!

"Head and shoulders" above the crowd of ordinary phonographs and "talking machines" stands Edison's great contribution to the world's enjoyment—

THE NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

No product can be bigger than the brain that evolves it. No other brain in the world today has the inventive ability of Edison's. That fact alone is sufficient proof of the absolute superiority of the Amberola.

But the Amberola can quickly and easily prove its own superiority. Its tone—oh, what a revelation, compared to metallic "talking machines" and shrill-sounding phonographs! None but Edison could work that miracle of tone.

Then the Amberol Records made for the Amberola alone! They are practically unbreakable and everlasting—what a contrast to the costly fragility of other phonograph records.

And for range of music—the widest in the world—all the best,

FREE Trial Offer!

We will place an Amberola in your home for 3 Days' Trial, which will not put you under the slightest obligation or expense. Come here, select an Amberola and a number of records and we'll send them to your home. At the end of 3 days, if you don't want the Amberola, we'll call and take it away. If you do want it, we'll arrange terms of payment to suit you.

Prices: $41 and Up.

all the greatest, all the latest. An endless feast of fascinating melody.

Yet the biggest surprise of all is the price! This wonder phonograph costs less than inferior competitors! There is not a single draw-back to your owning an Amberola right now!

Don't listen to the claims of other manufacturers—listen to their machines. Then come in and compare the matchless tone of the Amberola. Edison's wizardry will win you every time.

We'll expect you in today—now don't forget.

HAPPY HEARTS

Will Potter and Miss Willie E. Hargrove were married at the bride's home in this city Sunday night, Rev. W. R. White officiating, and a few relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony.

The announcement of the marriage of the young couple was not a surprise to their friends here, for the truth of the maxim that "coming events cast their shadows before them" was fully verified in this case. All who know them join heartily in extending to them good wishes and congratulations.

The groom is a skilled carpenter and was engaged in government work until a few months ago when he secured his discharge from the service and returned home to continue his line of work. The bride has lived in Goldthwaite only a few months, but during that time she has made a great many friends who are pleased that she has given her heart and hand into the keeping of one of our esteemed young citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Potter are temporarily making their home in Brownwood, where he is engaged in carpenter work with one of the foremost contractors of that city.

NEW BUSINESS

W. A. Richards has leased the Trent building, next to D. H. Trent & Son's office, and will at once open an up-to-date cafe therein. He is experienced in that line of business and it is sure the new business place will be one that will be creditable alike to the proprietor and the town.

J. C. Street, who now occupies the building, will move to the place now occupied by the Palace of Sweets, in the bank building.

SUMMER COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell of Butler, Tenn., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose." (adv)

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel.

FROM MRS. VAN GLAHN

Los Angeles, Cal., June 27.

Editor Eagle:

Today eighty-three years ago I made my appearance upon "the world's stage," since which I have played many parts in life's drama, and now as I stand in the magic glow of the sunset hour of life, I am performing the final and I trust it is to the honor and glory of the merciful Father, who has granted to me a long life with a remarkable preservation of my faculties, seeing, hearing, etc. I am also able thus far, tho crippled, to perform my part in household duties and attend to my own wants, while I've not been able for two years to earn one dollar, I've been provided for. Bless the Lord.

I am now enjoying a month with my grand children, Paul W. and Mrs. Brown, at Ocean Park. I love the ocean. Its voice soothes me and the air is so invigorating. Mr. Brown was operated on for appendicitis, from which he has not entirely recovered and is here by the advice of his physician and I am glad to say that he is gaining strength and hopes to be able to resume his work in July.

I wish every day that some of my Goldthwaite friends would join me here. I'd like to see them take a chance in the puzzle, or as it was called "the jail."

With best wishes for each one of my friends on this, my eighty-third birthday. I thank you for the continued visits of the king of birds, the Eagle. It is one of the few pleasures of my life.

MRS. VAN GLAHN.

There are increasing signs that a vigorous policy in dealing with all factions in Mexico with respect to the protection of American lives and property is to be pursued from now on and that a showdown will be had in the near future if tranquil conditions are not restored. Secretary Baker's assurance that "it will be very unwholesome for Pancho Villa or Carranza to cut any capers along the border," following so quickly on the heels of the sortie into Mexico by American troops at El Paso and the strengthening of the border forces can mean nothing else. Whether the prompt manner in which Carranza announced that the El Paso episode was a "closed incident" means that there is a new understanding with the Mexican government we are not prepared to say.—Star Telegram.
