GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, SATURDAY, APRIL 28, 1923.

NUMBER THIRTY-FOUR

"ROOSTER" DAY MAY 1
PROMISES TO BE BIG EVENT IN GOLDTHWAITE

According to information received from County Agent W. P. Weaver and others who are working for the Rooster Day Tuesday, May 1, the event promises to be a big day in Goldthwaite. From almost every section of the county come reports that many citizens are signing the petition to do away with their roosters and produce infertile eggs.

The government estimates that over $100,000,000 worth of eggs each year are unfit for human consumption by the time they reach the consumer; in other words, this huge amount of money is lost by the producers each year, almost altogether on account of producing fertile eggs and not taking proper care of them.

By circles throughout the county are being organized, the members stamping their guarantee on the eggs that they are infertile and that they were gathered and cared for according to the requirements of the Circle. In this manner several thousands of dollars will be saved to the producers of Mills County each year by the higher price paid for infertile eggs and the elimination of 95% of the loss from rotting.

Prizes are being offered by some of the merchants of Goldthwaite on Rooster Day to the person bringing in the greatest number of roosters, the largest in different breeds, etc. A list of prizes will be found in a page advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

Programs, parades, etc., will be conducted throughout the day to entertain the people while here and special prizes will be offered by the produce merchants for roosters.

Gather them up and bring them in on Rooster Day, Tuesday, May 1.

AN INVITATION

To You Who Are Not Subscribers to the Eagle:

THIS ISSUE OF THE EAGLE WILL GO INTO PRACTICALLY EVERY HOME IN MILLS COUNTY, AS WELL AS TO MANY IN THE EDGES OF SURROUNDING COUNTIES. WE TAKE THIS METHOD OF REACHING YOU FOR YOUR OWN BENEFIT. READ THIS PAPER OVER CAREFULLY, ESPECIALLY THE ADVERTISEMENTS, AND YOU WILL FIND SUBSTANTIATED THE FOLLOWING CLAIMS:

1. There is no other method, no matter how costly, that will acquaint you with the happenings of Mills County, and a short digest of the State and National news—all the worth-while news which you have to separate from the fiction in daily papers, after wading through column after column of reading—than the Eagle.

2. If your trading point is Goldthwaite—and it should be—there is not an issue of the fifty-two each year, which will not place several dollars in pocket if you will carefully read the advertisements and buy from those offering the reductions. Five dollars each week, or a total of $260, would be a very conservative estimate; in fact, it will be many times this amount.

3. The best citizen and the most successful one, from both a financial and civic standpoint, is the man who is intimately acquainted with the happenings, joys and sorrows of his neighbors. Though you spent seven days each week riding from point to point in Mills County gathering the news, it is very likely that the Eagle would then acquaint you with facts which you had not learned.

THIS SAMPLE COPY IS AN INVITATION TO YOU TO JOIN THE HAPPY BAND OF EAGLE READERS. MOST OF YOUR NEIGHBORS ARE. A WORD TO US GIVING YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AND WE SHALL ENTER YOU FOR A YEAR'S SUBSCRIPTION FREE OF CHARGE EACH YEAR.

Yours truly,

EAGLE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

BIG TRADES DAY PREPARATIONS BEING MADE FOR MONDAY, MAY 7.

Preparations for the best day Goldthwaite has witnessed in several years are being made by the merchants for the first Monday in next month, May 7. Having been extensively advertised both by circulars and through the columns of the Eagle, it is thought that every man, woman and child in the county will be aware of the special features of the day and a record crowd of spectators is expected.

Merchants belonging to the Chamber of Commerce began last Saturday giving tickets with each one dollar purchase entitling the holders to chances at the several valuable prizes to be given away on Trades Day. The prizes will be awarded with absolute fairness every merchant and his employes being barred from participating in the drawing in any manner. That the people are saving their tickets is proven by the way they have demanded them.

Almost every store in town is offering special inducements to the trade on that day. These special prices, coupled with the notorious fact that their regular prices are cheaper than any in this section of Texas, will sell lots of goods to those people who are far-sighted enough to watch the ads and buy where the prices and quality suit.

A careful perusal of the advertisements in this issue of the paper and the one of next week will save the average family several dollars on their purchases Trades Day.

AMERICAN LEGION HELD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Last Saturday night an enthusiastic meeting of the Mills County members of the American Legion was held in their club rooms in this city.

Several matters of importance were discussed by those present.

The following committees were appointed by Post Commander Virgil C. Jackson, on motion of members:

Committee to meet with the directors of the Mills County Chamber of Commerce to formulate plans for holding a three-day United Confederate Veterans Reunion, Mills County Fair and World War Veterans Picnic: Dow Hudson, chairman; and S. Allen, Earl Fairman, C. T. Wilson.

Committee to meet with old Confederate soldiers at their called meeting next Saturday, May 5, to set the date and make other arrangements and plans for the 1923 Reunion: Elvis Morris, Virgil Jackson, Coley Sevier, E. E. Wilson.

Committee to arrange refreshments for Legion meetings: E. E. Wilson, chairman; Arthur Parker, Frank Taylor.

Refreshments will be served at the Legion meetings on every second Saturday night in each month, beginning with the next meeting night, Saturday, May 12.

Publicity Committee: C. T. Wilson, Frank Taylor, William Cobb.

Important business will come before the meeting on May 12, and every member of the Mills county post is urged to be in attendance.

Philathea S. S. Class.

The Philathea Class of the Methodist Sunday School held their regular business meeting Monday evening of this week in the Methodist parsonage with Mesdames Josephus Lee, J. S. Mullan and Claude Dickerson as hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the class president; opening prayer was offered by Bro. Lee. Some very pleasing reports were made, especially the report on visiting strangers, sick and shut-ins, and the work for the next month was planned.

It was with regret that the resignation of Mrs. A. E. Sherman, one of our most faithful and most loved members who leaves soon for her new home in Gary, Indiana, as treasurer of the class was accepted; Mrs. Hammond G. Bodkin was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by Mrs. Sherman's resignation.

Delicious ice cream and wafers were served upon the arrival of the guests.
The meeting was closed by prayer by Mrs. J. C. Evans, the teacher of the class.
The next regular meeting will be held with Mrs. Duke Clements on the 28th day of May.—Reporter.

Everybody invited to attend these services. D. K. SMITH, Pastor.

NEGRO KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR HERE LAST SAT.

Saturday of last week, a negro who was seen walking through Goldthwaite in the morning, was found by the section gang about 2:30 that afternoon, dead about 4 miles down the Santa Fe track from Goldthwaite. An inquest was held, and it was clearly established that he had been killed by a train. One leg was completely severed, one arm almost so, and one side of his face crushed. It is thought that he had attempted to catch the southbound local when it had topped a grade and that the train was going so fast that it jerked him under it. There were no papers on him to establish his identity.

The young man states, according to reports, that on the night in question he went to Brown's Creek and from there to Center Point for the purpose of buying cattle, and that after he left Center Point for home he does not remember what happened, whether he entered the building or not.

Mr. Clark reports that he does not miss anything other than 35 or 40c which he had left in the cash drawer that night.

YOUNG MAN ARRESTED AT MULLIN, CHARGED WITH BURGLARY THERE

Sheriff A. D. Karnes was called to Mullin the early part of this week, where Constable Hancock of that place held a young man, whom witnesses thought was the one seen entering J. R. Clark's drug store there.

He was brought to Goldthwaite and the district attorney arrived here Thursday for an examining trial. Preliminary trial was waived, and he was bound over to the grand jury, which convenes next month.

The young man states, according to reports, that on the night in question he went to Brown's Creek and from there to Center Point for the purpose of buying cattle, and that after he left Center Point for home he does not remember what happened, whether he entered the building or not.

The Nation's Debt of Honor.

(Extract from Senator Capper's speech on the Bonus Bill, delivered in the Senate August 29, last year.)

Mr. President, I am for the Soldiers' Adjustment Compensation bill because I believe it was nothing more than a square deal for the boys who did the fighting. We all cheered madly when they went to the depot in 1917, but now we seem to be singing a different song. All other nations in the World War gave their soldiers a bonus and did it promptly. The United States is better prepared to do this than any other nation. I favor the bonus as a matter of right and not as charity. It is a debt of honor justly due these men. Our government is carrying a heavy load but the total cost of the bonus will be less than 4 billion dollars spread over a period of 40 years.

This country, with all its unstinted force and power, during 1917 and 1918 unselfishly gave to the world thousands of lives, billions of dollars, and because certain groups always profit by war, thousands were made wealthy. Thousands that were made wealthy are now the chief opponents of equalizing the opportunity and pay of thousands of men who sacrificed all ambitions and worldly goods in a spirit of patriotism.

It is being proved daily that the government has failed even to provide properly for its disabled and the dependents of thousands who gave their lives. If this be true, it is equally true that the government has failed to express the gratitude of the people to the men and women who served in the Army and Navy during the war, who did their part 100 per cent.

The bonus we are proposing is simply a part of the "five-way" plan by which we offer to ex-service men the choice of farm land, an education, aid in buying a home, or a paid-up insurance policy.

There is no better guaranty against militarism than to require the men who profit out of war to pay for it. Those who remained at home made enough here in the United States to enable us to pay many times over the debt we owe to them who fought our battles. Wall Street wishes to pay it with a sales tax, which would be collected largely from farmers, laboring people and others, in the form of a tax on necessities. I will never cast my vote for a sales tax or any other device which shifts tax burdens to the poor in increased cost of living. Taxes to pay the bonus or taxes for any other purpose should be laid upon wealth in proportion to ability to pay.

Profiteering during the war produced one American millionaire for every three American soldiers killed in France. I should like to see the government recover the hundreds of millions of dollars stolen from the treasury by the crooks and grafters and then use that money to pay the soldiers' bonus.

Then there's another way we can raise the money. Let's go after the billions the foreign governments owe us, collect the interest promptly and pay it to our soldiers. Our international bankers wish us to wipe out this foreign debt. That would make their foreign securities that much stronger. If we decline to cancel this debt these governments probably will try to borrow more money from us to pay us what they owe. I shall never vote to cancel one dollar of that debt, nor to lend another dollar of government funds to any foreign nation.

Mr. President, the Congress has authorized the settlement of claims of all other groups suffering losses during the war. It is but justice that we now propose to equalize the compensation of the men who actually fought and won the war.

We have paid a total of $225,241,000 to date as a bonus to federal employees.

The Navy has received 70 million dollars as an adjustment of compensation.

The regular Army was paid an additional 25 or 30 million.

The pay of the Coast Survey, the Coast Guard and the Public Health Service was war-adjusted.

The war contractors have received in excess of 3 billion dollars as an adjustment on their contracts in addition to the countless millions they made.

The railroads also have received an adjustment of compensation. Under the Transportation Act, $764,271,000 has been paid to the railroads up to August 1, 1922.

MEMBERS TAKE NOTICE

Owsley Pays Tribute to Confederate Veterans.

New Orleans.—A tribute to the men of the South, who after four hard years of war took up the problem of reconstruction and peace, was paid by Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion, who spoke at the recent annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in New Orleans.

"We who are seeking a solution of our post-war problems pause with wonder and admiration," Commander Owsley stated, "when we recall with what matchless fortitude you men of the Confederate Army, weary of war and its trying duties, turned from them to the solution of tasks more irksome than war, itself, had provided."

IN REMEMBRANCE OF MRS. W. D. REYNOLDS.

On Feb. 9, 1923, the Death Angel of God came and claimed for its own our dear and beloved grandmother, Mrs. W. D. Reynolds.

She was 73 years old, and was born at Terrell, N. C., July 15, 1849. She was married to W. D. Reynolds May 5, 1867. (It will be remembered that three years ago the same day and hour the funeral of our grandfather and her husband, Mr. W. D. Reynolds, was held at the same place.)

They traveled this life's road together a little more than 50 years. Grandfather and Grandmother both became members of the Church of our Living God when children and they lived consistent and faithful members till death. Nine children brightened their home, four boys and five girls, of which all are living.

It seemed to me it would break my heart to give grandmother up. While true we know our loss is Heaven's gain. I can truly say not in all my life did I ever hear her speak an unkind or hurtful word or do an unkind deed to any one. To really know her was to love her. Her sweet unselfish examples will live on and on, tho' her sweet smiling face we can never meet in this world again. Thou art gone, our darling Mother.

Ne'er in this world can we meet thee;

But in Heaven we will meet thee, Where there will be no parting heart-aches nor pain.

Yes, we will meet you, and Father, we know you are happy as you sleep side by side. So sweetly did you walk the path of this life bearing each other's burdens. Together in heaven we know you are happy now. We will meet you, yes, in heaven by and by.—One Who Loved Her.

Congenial Club.

A pleasant event of Thursday evening was a 42 party arranged in the pretty George Gartman home by Mesdames W. E. Cantrell, Roy Conro and George Gartman, honoring the members of the Congenial Club, their husbands and a number of other guests. The approach of real springtime was heralded in the decorations of the home, blooming begonias, ferns and pink and white roses being neatly arranged in the four rooms given over to the hospitality, and in all appointments of the 42 tables.

During the 15 games such happy conversation and laughter could be heard at each of the eleven tables that one could easily decide that each one felt themselves indeed lucky for having been permitted to be present. The tables were supplied with cut glass bon bon dishes filled with divinity and chocolate fudge. Refreshment plates, passed after beautifully embroidered table covers and napkins had been arranged, contained delicious strawberry brick ice cream and white cake with very pretty corsages of pink sweet peas and fern for the ladies and buttonholes of the same flower for the men for plate favors.

The occasion had proven such a delightful one that it was with reluctance that the guests bade the hostesses good-night. Those enjoying the affair were: Messrs. and Mesdames Dr. J. M. Campbell, T. F. Toland, Mark Leverett, R. E. Clements, E. T. Fairman, Walter Fairman, Hudson Hamilton, Edward Geeslin, B. F. Geeslin, J. V. Cockrum, Frank Taylor, E. A. Walker, F. P. THE BRIGHT SIDE.

The School Boy's Composition on the Goose.—The goose is a low, heavy-set bird composed of meat and feathers. His head sets on one end and he sets on the other. He cannot sing much on account of the dampness in the moisture in which he lives. There ain't no between to his toes and he carries a toy balloon in his stomach to keep from sinking. A goose has two legs and they are set so far back on his running gear that they came pretty near missing his body. Some geese when they get big are called Ganders. Ganders don't have to set or hatch, but just loaf, eat and go swimming. If I was a goose I'd rather be a gander.

DON'T let a low price lead you into a low service shirt. Good shirts do cost a little more than the so called "special" shirts, but they last a good deal longer. It's like buying a cord tire. The first investment may be a bit larger, but the "wearage" you get out of the shirt more than squares you on the additional outlay. It's worth your while to look into our Arrow showing.
