Editor Eagle:

We are all trying to get back to natural living again after having spent all our money at the reunion and having such a "dandy" time, too.

The cotton is doing fine, but it is needing rain badly now. We are hoping it will rain soon so we will make a good cotton crop this year.

Nearly every one is up with their work now and all we have to do is to stay in the shade, eat watermelons and try to keep cool.

Bro. Fuller filled his appointment here Sunday. We enjoyed his sermon Sunday morning. He was unable to stay Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Reed and son are visiting in the Valley this week.

Mr. Robert Robertson and family returned last week from south Texas, where they had been visiting relatives. They reported having a splendid time.

Mrs. Nancy Shoelce is visiting her brother, J. J. Cockrell, this week.

Misses Zora and Alma Sykes are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sykes.

The people of Big Valley can go to town now without breaking 2 or 3 springs, for we have such excellent roads after Mr. John Berry and his two helpers have graded them so good. We are all very, very, proud of our roads and will do our best to keep them in good condition.

We have had several ball games since our last report, but as Big Valley won about half of them and the other side the rest, will not report them.—Whimpy.

TO TEACH SWIMMING AT LAKE MERRITT

Misses Aubra Jones and Edith Martin of Mullin, two graduate swimming instructors, will teach the art of swimming to children whose parents are members of the Mills County Hunting and Fishing Club at the Lake Merritt two days each week. Just which two days have not yet been ascertained.

THE DUTY OF THE COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION.

By Porter A. Whaley, Manager West Texas Chamber Commerce.

Why should a city have a commercial organization? Because if it lives up to its duties, it will be the most potent force in the community for progress. Its duties are to do anything and everything necessary for and incident to the upbuilding and the better building of the city and its environs. Its duty is not only to make a city grow but also to make it a better, a more sanitary, a prettier and more enjoyable place in which to live.

Its province or field of work reaches out into every branch and takes cognizance of every phase of the city's life. The commercial interests, wholesale, retail, and manufacturing; the professional interests; the government of city, county and state, the social side of the city's life where it touches the question of public morals and health; all of these and in truth every channel of activity comes under its practical eye.

The commercial organization has a first duty in that it must bring all of the elements of the entire community, county as well as city, together into one compact body working for the uplift of the community. It must teach the individuals composing these elements the lesson of achievement thru co-operation. It must arouse the citizenry from the old time lethargy to a quickened interest, and always and everywhere preach the gospel of sane, safe and sound development, unselfishness, public-spiritedness and civic pride. Its motto must be, "If it's good for the community, then let us have it." What helps the city as a whole, has a like beneficial effect upon every one within its boundaries.

Not only the business and professional men make good "boosters," but also the young men, the clerks in the stores, the women both in the house and in the office or store and the children in the schools. It is the duty of the commercial organization to so spread its propaganda of development as to obtain the efficient aid of all these forces. Many organizations secure much of their force and power from their women's auxiliaries. In campaigns for sanitation and beauty, their help is incalculable.

The commercial organization has a duty toward the city government which it cannot afford to overlook in spite of the howls of the politician who knows his power is on the decline when the business interests cast their microscopic eyes of investigation upon his maneuvers. Every effort should be made to work with the administration in an amicable way, but if this is not possible, it is the duty of the commercial organization to continue to interest

AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Miss Hilton, of Amarillo, will render several violin selections at the Baptist Church at the eleven o'clock service Sunday.

MEETING AT MIDWAY.

A protracted meeting will begin at Midway tonight to last through the second Sunday in August. Elder I. A. Dyches will conduct the meeting. Everybody has an invitation to attend all the services.

MEETING AT SOUTH BENNETT STILL GOING ON

The revival meeting being conducted at South Bennett by Rev. Hugh Moreland, pastor of Goldthwaite Circuit, and Rev. H. H. Bain of Liberty Hill, former pastor of the Goldthwaite Methodist Church, is drawing large crowds and creating much interest. There have been a number of conversions during the meeting, ten being concerted Thursday night.

Tomorrow (Sunday) there will be dinner on the ground, and everybody is invited to attend all the services.

Itself in the affairs of the city government.

The civic body has this right because its members, the heavy taxpayers, its business men make the city habitable. No city could run without them. They are vital and so, being vital, they have the first moral right to speak in the control and management of the city affairs.

It is the civic body's duty to interest itself in all legislative matters which may have an effect upon the city. The astute ability and acumen of the business mind is necessary for the successful handling of such questions as taxation. It needs a business head to work out the intricacies of financing great public improvements. The unselfish democracy of the commercial organization is needed to keep its fingers on the pulse of the whole body politic.

It is the duty of the commercial organization to conduct its affairs upon a business basis. Whether in the location of industries or in an effort to secure new and larger parks, there should be a business-like method adopted.

It is the duty of the civic body to interest itself in educational matters. Upon the schools depend the future ability and activity of the city's people. The civic body can and should exert its most wholesome influence for the continual development of the school system.

It is the duty of the commercial organization to give sound publicity to the city's advantages and to do everything in its power to eliminate all forms of detrimental publicity. It is its duty to endeavor in all right ways to attract residents and new business and to assist in their location in all legitimate ways.

Eagle Issued Bulletin.

The Eagle, following its customary procedure, issued a bulletin early Sunday morning to its Mills County subscribers, showing the results of the election. While complete returns from all the boxes were not available, the complete returns did not change the results appreciably. We extend our thanks to Hon. John W. Roberts, Chairman of the Mills County Democratic Executive Committee, for allowing us the use of his office and co-operating with us in getting the returns.

The crowd which thronged the streets of Goldthwaite Saturday night numbered into the thousands, but there were no disturbances to mar the occasion.

Hon. Walter C. Woodward of Coleman won over his opponent, Hon. J. A. Thomas of San Angelo, for State Senator for this district by a slight majority, probably between 300 and 500 votes.

Judge Lewis H. Jones, present district judge of this district, won over his opponent, Hon. Martin M. White, by a considerable majority according to reports from Lampasas and Bell counties.

A. D. Karnes, present sheriff and tax collector of Mills County, won over H. C. Ezzell, for sheriff and tax collector by 227 votes.

John S. Gasser of Mullin won over Mrs. J. Keel, the present district clerk, for the office of district clerk by 135 votes.

I wish to express to my friends who so loyally supported me and secured my nomination for the office of sheriff of Mills County, my deep appreciation of your votes and influence. You shall have no cause to regret the work you did for me, if it is in my power to prevent it.

To those who did not see fit to vote for me, I assure you I bear no ill-will. You had a perfect right to vote as you desired. But now that I am nominated, I want to ask you for your co-operation and support, as I shall try to co-operate with you in every way to secure the enforcement of the law.

I may have made some mistakes in the past, but there are few of us who do not. I have always tried to do the law, and be just and fair to all my public dealing. I have tried to treat every one, old and young, rich and poor, all stand equal before the law. I have tried to enforce the law against all crime in Mills County, and most particularly against whiskey traffic and other offenses that serve as a menace to our boys and girls.

During the next two years, or as long as I may serve in any public capacity, I humbly ask the co-operation of every patriotic citizen of Mills County, to the end that we rid it of bootlegging and other crimes, and make it the most law-abiding county in the State of Texas.

Yours for service,
A. D. KARNES.

TO THE VOTERS OF MILLS COUNTY.

Words cannot express my gratitude to you for the splendid support you gave me at the polls last Saturday. It was indeed a great honor for me to receive from you a large majority over all my opponents combined. If I am successful in the second primary the least I can do is to serve my state to the fullest extent of my ability.

Always remembering the confidence you have in me, I will do my very best to not disappoint you.

Again thanking you for your support, I am,

Sincerely yours,
THOMAS J. RENFRO.

THOMAS CONCEDES ELECTION OF WOODWARD

San Angelo, July 29. — J. A. Thomas of San Angelo, candidate for the State Senate from 25th Senatorial District today conceded the election of his opponent, Walter C. Woodward, in the following statement:

Returns from the recent primary are not sufficiently complete to indicate the election of my opponent, Hon. Walter C. Woodward by a majority of from 300 to 500 out of some 30,000 votes. I have today wired him my congratulations and wish to express my appreciation to my friends and supporters over the district and my perfect good will to all who opposed me. I realized when I entered the race covering sixteen counties, in many of which I was unknown, that I was going against heavy odds, but by the help of loyal friends and without sacrificing my convictions in any particular I made a splendid showing. The campaign of six weeks has been a most enjoyable vacation from my law practice and I regard with the greatest appreciation the many friendships established.

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache; headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly or are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Goldthwaite residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of Goldthwaite citizen who has used them and willingly testifies to their worth?

Sleeveless Knicker Suit
Is Ideal for Sportswoman

We were all in favor of knicker suits a few years ago. However, that is history, today the knicker is the ideal garb of the sportswoman. The detail is planned for comfort and the style element accentuated. For summer the sleeveless kind is talked best of all. Of course in this age when necessary counts so much in costuming one exercises a discriminating taste in matter of blouse, tie, hosiery and other details. The strictly tailored and mannish effects are preferred. The picture illustrates the point. The knitted four-in-hand tie is considered very smart. The narrow patent leather belt is the finishing touch.

STEPHENS' ROOM

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

THERE was a note from Stephens in the morning mail asking me to come to his room for a few minutes; he was ill, and he wanted to see me. I was not intimately acquainted with Stephens. He had worked in my office for a year or so. I had known that he lived in a rather remote place, that he went out little, that he got no help from home, but I had given him little serious consideration. He was always immaculately clean, his clothes were carefully kept, though he never had anything new. He had never seemed to me particularly remarkable or especially interesting.

I got a new idea of him when I entered his room. He was seated by a table a little pale from his illness, and he rose as I came in.

"I'm ashamed to have taken so much of your time," he said, "but I've always wanted you to see my room."

It was a cheap little room in the commonest house; it was heated by a soft coal stove, and lighted by a kerosene lamp; it was in every way old-fashioned and unmodern, but it had distinction and it told me more in a moment of Stephens' tastes and character than I had previously learned during all the months that I had known him.

Everywhere there was order and everywhere from the books on the table and the cheap prints on the walls to the woven coverlet on the bed—it was one his mother had made as a girl Stephens told me—and the braided rugs on the floor, there was refinement and simple good taste. I had not thought before that a room could reveal so much of a man.

He paid but four dollars a month for this room and he had no money to waste on decorations, but he had put himself into it, he had glorified it, he had surrounded himself with the most beautiful things he had or could afford and these things gave him pleasure, they added to his self-respect, and they gave pleasure and satisfaction to all who came to visit him.

As I sat looking around at the simple, cheap, but satisfying appointments of Stephens' room, my mind reverted instinctively to Mrs. Clayton. She is an impressive showy woman who dresses elegantly and almost tastefully and who lives in a pretentious house. When one talks to her she reveals the external signs of education and cultivation. She has traveled, she talks easily, she goes with the best people in town. It is only when one enters her house that one sees how vulgar and commonplace her tastes are. Everywhere the fact is shrieked in one's ear from the ornate ugly furniture to the silly tawdry pictures on the wall; from the expensive glaring rugs on the floor to the clutter of bizarre bric-a-brac huddled together on every available table and mantel-piece. Everything in the little room in which Stephens lived cost less than one-half as much as the smallest of Mrs. Clayton's ugly rugs; he had no money, but he had taste.

Perhaps we should hesitate, many of us, to have our characters read or our tastes determined by a look into our closets or our bureau drawers, or a visit to the houses or the rooms in which we live, but all of these things like Stephens' room tell a vivid gripping tale of our ideals, our tastes, and our real characters.

Editor Eagle:

As I have not seen anything from this burg, will drop a few lines.

I have been gone on a trip out west. The country is about like this. Some places they have good crops, others are eaten up by grasshoppers.

We are needing rain bad; things are burning up fast. Most every one has their feed stuff put away.

It is with sad heart we write of the death of Mr. Shuler in the Long Cove community. He was 89 years old. He had been to Antelope Gap precinct to vote—he hadn't missed a time since he was old enough to vote—so his daughter Bessie was with him and on their way home she got out to open a gate and the old family horse got scared and ran away, turning the buggy over. His daughter carried him to a shade and went for Mr. Fred Conradt. He carried him home. Mr. Shuler died Sunday evening at 5:30 p. m., and was buried Monday evening at the Long Cove cemetery by the Masons. His children were at his bedside when the end came. The bereaved ones have our sympathy in their sad hour.

Mrs. Joe Morgan is home from a Tempie sanitarium. She is doing fairly well.

Mrs. T. F. Elliott, who accompanied her granddaughter home, returned after 12 days visit with her children. Her youngest son, Mr. Wilcox, accompanied her home for a month's visit.

Lenard and Fred Whittenburg of Belton is visiting their aunt, Mrs. Joe Morgan.

Mrs. Will Fox and son of Lampasas spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Evans.

Mr. Jake Crawford, wife and two sons of Lamesa are visiting homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Center City spent Saturday and Sunday in the home of Mrs. Jones' sister, Mrs. Elliott.

VICK REUNION, JULY 28, 29, 30, AT LAKE MERRITT

This reunion has been planned for the past year, talked about in the homes around the fireside and enjoyed by anticipation for many days.

The P. T. Vick descendants met at Belton Park last July and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Randolph invited them to Lake Merritt's cool breezes, beautiful club house and healing waters for the 1924 reunion. Judging from the merry peals of laughter, beaming faces thrilled with pleasure over the happy meeting of brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, it's a success.

At the late hours of midnight a few low voices are still deeply interested in conversation; perhaps it's childhood reminiscences or boyhood love affairs, then a bit of politics and two days have flown by on eagle wings.

A large tent had been previously procured and a well equipped kitchen temporarily fitted for the occasion; hence a feast is enjoyed three times per day by the following guests:

S. J. Vick, E. D. Vick of Troy, Texas; A. G. Vick, Mrs. A. G. Vick and children, Miss Burney Lois, Eula and A. G. Jr. of Belton; R. L. Vick, Mrs. R. L. Vick, Misses Jessie and Eloise Vick and R. L. Vick of Rule; Mr. Haskell Smith, Trenton Smith and Miss Janice Smith of Austin; Morris Vick, Mr and Mrs. J. H. Randolph of Goldthwaite; Miss Miller of Holly Springs, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ferguson and daughter of Fort Worth, also Mrs. Harris of Fort Worth.

See W. T. Keese for all kinds of feed and grain.—Adv.

Dry weather is still the order of the day in our community. But looks as if it will rain soon.

FROM P. C. JACKSON.
Lometa, July 25, 1924.
Goldthwaite Eagle:

I have in years passed attended many Confederate reunions, but no where are we old boys that wore the gray so provided for and entertained as at Goldthwaite, and I want to as a token of appreciation of our welcome and welfare to thank one and all in your city. Especially the ladies who got in the cots, pillows and quilts and waited on the tables, etc.

I have traveled much. Four years ago I lived on Alexander Ave., Los Angeles, Calif. Saw all the stars of the Pacific slope in their work and art, but in all my rounds I never saw such superb work and acts as was put on by "Nora" and the children of Goldthwaite. It was the very acme of art, and in class with Mrs. Graham of Houston work. I tell you every one of those children is a star. Mary Pickford is said to be "Everybody's sweetheart," and we old Confederates say all the ladies of Goldthwaite are our sweethearts and the children are our "pals," like they were to our Savior. Intellectually, morally, etc., your people are on a higher plane than many cities, hence you enjoy the joke on old Confederates, about all of them in a hurry with Parson Har-

WORKING ON NEW RURAL ROUTE FROM THIS CITY

To the Eagle:
The communication below will be of interest to all of those patrons of the Goldthwaite post-office who have a personal interest in the starting of service on Rural Route No. 5, recommended for this office considerably more than a year ago.

The communication follows:
The Postmaster,
Goldthwaite, Texas.

My Dear Sir: In answer to your letter of July 16, 1924, you are informed that the plan for the establishment of a rural route from your office is still under consideration. The delay which has been necessary is regretted but in view of the large number of similar cases pending we cannot state definitely just when final action will be taken.

The representations made by you have been carefully noted and it is hoped that we may be in a position within a short time to advise you definitely.

Respectfully yours,
H. R. NICHOL.

adison working in lead, went out the back door of a show when they heard a man was at the front door with a shotgun waiting to shoot an old man on inside of show talking to his wife. There were 18 old Confederates in that show, which were all that registered that year. "Yank" King the only Federal soldier (when all of us old boys love) was in that show with us. In the stampede King was caught, and his plea was when court martined that he was like old dog "Tray" and was the only white sheep in the bunch.
