STATE SENATOR WALTER C. WOODWARD ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

To the voters of Mills County: In this issue of the paper appears my formal announcement as candidate for re-election to the State Senate from this the 25th Senatorial District.

Two years ago I was elected to fill a short term; now I am asking to be re-elected for the regular term of four years. Under the Constitution State Senators every ten years are required to draw for the long and short term and I was one of fifteen who drew a short term.

The last Legislature, of which I was a member, passed the appropriation Bill at the regular session, this being the first time in fifty years that it was not necessary for a special session for that purpose and we saved the people of Texas approximately two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. We did not increase your taxes and if I am re-elected, I pledge my best efforts to cut the expenses of the State Government wherever it is advisable and proper.

The present automobile license fee or tax is too high, it ought to be reduced; a larger percentage of the tax should be retained by the County where it is paid and be used by the County Commissioners either toward maintaining local roads or to retire outstanding bonds or both, and a tax on gasoline should be levied to take care of the difference.

The present search and seizure law ought to be either amended or repealed. It is now too favorable to law-breakers, especially the boot-legger. No person should object to a law which protects their person and property against "unreasonable searches and seizures." This is all the Constitution guarantees; but under the present law, a "reasonable search and seizure" is prohibited. I was against the passage of the present law and I will undertake to have it amended if I am re-elected. Law and order should prevail in Texas; no undue advantage should be given to the law-breaker such as is given by the search and seizure law; at the same time the people should be protected, as under the Constitution they were intended to be protected.

The state highway must be changed and no doubt radical changes will be made. The State Highway Commissioners now have under their control the spending of approximately twenty million dollars each year. This is a lot of money for three men to spend and every safe guard should be thrown around the fund in order to insure the legitimate, economical and honest expenditure of the fund. It is my present idea that no contract should be let by the State Highway Commission for the building or maintenance of any state highway, except in connection with the commissioners in each county in which the contract is to be performed. I believe the county commissioners in each county should be consulted and advised with in reference to the letting of all contracts relating to the building and maintenance of the State highways in their respective counties.

Approximately one hundred million dollars in outstanding road bonds have recently been held void by the Supreme Court of the United States. Texas must do something to protect its credit. The next legislature will be called upon to provide a method by which these outstanding bonds will be protected and the credit of Texas upheld. I pledge my best efforts to thus protect the credit of our State.

With no idea in view except to faithfully and impartially serve the people whom I seek to represent, I submit my candidacy to you. If I am elected, I will appreciate your advice in reference to all matters concerning your county, district and state.

Yours very truly,

WALTER C. WOODWARD.

WESTON NO. 4 HEADED FOR THE FLOWING GOLD

The Weston No. 4 well was spudded in the first of this week and drilling is in progress for the tests which many citizens confidently expect to bring in oil. According to the logs of the other wells, three sands, at about 700 feet, 1300 feet, and 1900 feet will be encountered. Each one of these sands will be tested. Neither of the shallow sands have been tested before and it is the opinion of oil men that either sand may make a pretty good well.

The rainy weather this week has hindered progress considerably, but with fair weather 30 days should tell the tale of whether there is oil in that particular section of Mills county or not.

INTENSIVE FARMING---

Intensive farming puts new life into the business of agriculture. It not only opens new roads to profit for the individual farmer, but it enriches every industry in the state.

Farmers who are profiting by a system of intensive farming, will never go back to a one-crop method, with its waste, inefficiency, unhappiness, poverty and loss.

"More Cotton on Fewer Acres"—"More Feed on More Acres"—"More and Better Livestock" is the real meaning of Intensive farming.

The Handwriting on the Wall in the future prosperity of Texas is DIVERSIFICATION.

As It Goes Some nations were fighting fiercely.

"Why are you fighting so?" inquired the bystanders, moved at length to curiosity.

"To save civilization," replied the nations severally.

Here a dragged figure rose from the mire under the feet of the combatants and limped lamely away.

"And who are you?" asked the bystanders with a disposition to get to the bottom of the matter.

"Don't speak to me—I'm civilization!" the figure replied, somewhat pettishly. Heard in the Stable He was trying hard to sell his horse. The animal looked sleek, but he was broken winded. After trotting him around, the owner stopped him and spoke.

"Hasn't he a lovely coat?" "Yep, coats all right, but I don't like his pants."

Danger In Coughs That Hang-On

Neglected coughs often lead to worse trouble. Yet there is a simple method based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery, which usually breaks the worst cough entirely in 24 hours.

Here is the method: You take just one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. It has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. So the most stubborn cough soon disappears completely.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

COMMUNITY SPIRIT

Mix a little co-operation with unselfishness, sweeten it with civic pride, throw in a dash of common sense, stir it with leadership, roll it in persistency, flavor it with optimism, bake it with enthusiasm, and the result is Community Spirit. Community spirit can make anything happen within the realm of community possibility. It is its own force. Once you get a fellow inculcated with it, you have transformed a passive or potential liability into a civic asset. It is what the citizens of a community for mas a composite entity in terms of love and sacrifice to the community in which they live, that we call community spirit. Its right application will bring marvelous results.—Bangs Gazette.

A FLY

By Mrs. C. R. Fields,
Sec. Public Health Education

The house fly as a guest
From early morn till night
Is the worst all-round pest
That any one could cite.
As the sun comes peeping up
His busy day begins
And in your coffee cup
He takes a bath and swims.
Not discouraged in the least
He flops upon the floor
And to some other beckoning feast
He sallies forth once more.
Just yesterday he reveled in
The horse dung in the street—
His taste has changed a bit since then
But not his dirty feet.
It matters not to Mr. Fly
He gives us germs to eat—
He leaves his footprints on the pie
And dances o'er the meat.
When the day is over
And his spread of filth is through
At dinner, lift the dish's cover
And you'll find him in the stew.

A PARABLE

By J. E. Claxton

Then shall the kingdom of Satan be likened to a grain of tobacco seed, which, though exceeding small, being cast into the ground, grew and became a great plant; and spread its leaves rank and broad, so that huge, virile worms formed a habitation thereon.

And it came to pass, in the course of time, that the sons of men looked upon it, and thought it beautiful to look upon, and much to be desired to make lads look big and manly. So they put forth their hands and did chew thereof. And some it made sick, and others to vomit most filthily.

And it further came to pass that those who chewed it became weak, and the mouths of all that were enslaved became foul and they were seized with a violent spitting; and they did spit, even in ladies' parlors, and in the house of the Lord of Hosts. And the saints of the Most High were greatly plagued thereby.

And in the course of time it came also to pass that others, even ladies, did cut red willow sticks and cut stripes around them, and chewed the end thereof till it became a brush, and there arose a mighty dipping throughout the land, insomuch that their mouths and their breath were defiled, and they were no longer so fair to look upon.

And yet others cunningly wrought the leaves into rolls, and did set fire to one end thereof and suck vehemently at the other end thereof, and did look very grave and calf-like, and the smoke thereof tormented the saints of the Most High with a very sickening torment.

And the cultivation thereof became a great and mighty business on earth, and the merchants waxed rich by the sale thereof. And it came to pass that the saints of the Most High defiled themselves therewith, even the poor, who could not buy shoes nor bread nor books for their little ones, gave their money for it. And the Lord was greatly displeased therewith, for He had said in His Word, "Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight in fatness." Isa. 55:2

LESSIE HEAD AND HENRY CRIBER PLAY IN CHAPEL

Monday's chapel was enjoyed more than most chapel exercises are. Lessie Head and Henry Crier, two of Tarleton's most accomplished musicians, entertained us with two violin duets. I think it is safe to say that everyone enjoyed both thoroughly. The only regret was that there were not more selections. But perhaps they will play for us again soon.

Tarleton is very proud of such students as these, and well she should be, for if they continue their musical studies they are likely to find a high place for themselves in the musical world.—J. T. ac.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express to the many friends of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. D. D. McBride, our words of appreciation and thanks for the many kindnesses shown to us at the time of her death, and for the beautiful floral offerings. But most of all we appreciate the many friends who ministered to her during the last three years of her life, while she was confined to her room, and especially do we appreciate her two neighbors, Mesdames P. G. Palmer and J. N. Keese, who were ever faithful during all of her illness. We ask God's richest blessings on every one who has been so faithful and kind to her and to us.—D. D. McBride, J. S. BAPTISTS READY; GREAT ADVANCE

April Ingathering For Co-operative Program is Feature of Forward Move.

PLAN FOR BIG CONVENTION

Special Emphasis is Laid On Spiritual Preparation for Gathering of Forces at Houston May 16-19

Conditions favor a distinct advance on the part of Southern Baptists in their fight many have according to the plan proposed by the leadership of the Co-operative Program Commission of Southern Baptists.

This body, charged by the Southern Baptist Convention and various state conventions with providing effective support for foreign missions, Sunday schools, ministerial relief and Baptist schools, hospitals and orphanages, is seeking to so increase and stabilize the income of the denomination as to provide adequately for all these enterprises through a regular budget. In this connection the Commission is seeking to enlist as nearly as possible every member of every church in making regular weekly and monthly offerings to this general budget which is distributed among these seven causes on percentages proportionate to their various needs.

Approximately $9,200,000 for these objects was received during 1925, it is announced, but inasmuch as only $4,698,000 of this amount was in distributable funds some of the objects suffered for lack of sufficient cash. Under the leadership of the Commission a definite effort is being made to secure as much or more money as was contributed in 1925, but in undesignated amounts so that each cause will get its proportionate share.

Receipts By States

The receipts for 1925 through the various state offices were as follows: Alabama, $352,303.67; Arkansas, $239,333.66; District of Columbia, $48,000; Florida, $223,695.85; Georgia, $480,898.54; Illinois, $1,051,117; Kentucky, $514,300.01; Louisiana, $312,499.70; Maryland, $91,200.00; Mississippi, $580,786.76; Missouri, $230,344.13; New Mexico, $38,981.64; North Carolina, $691,713.44; Oklahoma, $137,369.01; South Carolina, $434,584.70; Tennessee, $390,287.44; Texas, $873,407.96; and Virginia, $946,066.05. The remainder of the $9,200,000 received in 1925 consisted largely of special gifts to foreign missions and the building fund of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

An outstanding feature of this effort of the Commission is a special cash ingathering for the month of April, when every one of the nearly 4,000,000 white Baptists of the South will be asked to make as generous an offering as possible to the whole Co-operative Program, this money to be distributed proportionately among the seven general causes embraced therein.

Convention Prospects Good

In the event this April ingathering attains the goal set for it, it will make it possible for the various Southwide Baptist enterprises to report great relief in their financial situation to the Southern Baptist Convention at its session in Houston, Texas, May 12-16.

The committee on program for this year's convention, in the hope of giving that session the largest possible spiritual emphasis, has arranged for a special season of prayer and worship in the Convention auditorium at Houston for Tuesday evening, May 11th, preceding the opening of the Convention on Wednesday morning. At this preliminary service J. Fred Schofield of Birmingham, Ala., will lead the song service; Dr. W. A. McComb of Gulfport, Miss., will lead the prayer meeting and Dr. H. R. Holcomb of Mansfield, La., will preach a brief sermon. Another innovation in this year's Convention program calls for the closing of each morning and evening session with a brief sermon by a representative pastor. Dr. Fred F. Brown, Knoxville, Tenn., will deliver the main Convention sermon on Wednesday morning.

SUCCESS IN AMERICA AN OPEN HIGHWAY

How Four Boys of Humble Origin Have Become Chiefs of the Greatest Financial Organization in the World.

Broad highways of achievement are wide open to all in America no matter how humble their beginning. It is brought out by a writer in Forbes Magazine, telling of the successive elevation of poor boys to the chieftainship of the most powerful association of financial power in the world.

"Nowhere is opportunity so democratic as in caste-free America, nowhere is recognition for faithful service so little conditioned by inherited position and wealth," the article says. "The bounty of America in bestowing her rewards of great success upon those of modest origin is again notably manifest in the rise of Oscar Wells to the presidency of the American Bankers Association. "The son of a tanner, John H. Puelicher, was elected to this eminence in 1922. Circumstances ended his public schooling in the seventh year and he went to work in a carpet store in Milwaukee. At sixteen he entered a bank as a clerk, rising step by step until he became president. Recognition of his abilities as a banker and civic service through public education in sound economic understanding brought him the highest reward from his profession.

"A former country school teacher, Walter W. Head, born in a farm hamlet in Western Illinois, was elected president of the association in 1923. He gave up teaching and a salary of $75 to enter banking at $40 a month in a small Missouri town. He subsequently became president of a bank in Omaha, the largest in Nebraska and a dozen neighboring states. The position he occupied in advancing agricultural welfare during the period of depression led to his being called the 'Granger President of the American Bankers Association.'

"From Irish immigrant lad to supreme head of banking in America epitomizes the career of William E. Knox, president of one of the largest savings banks of the country in New York. His business career began as an office boy in a publishing house, and he later entered the bank as a clerk. Experience with humble people in their problems of personal finance and his inculcation of economy in all matters attracted country-wide attention.

"Oscar Wells, who rises in 1925 as successor of these men, was born in an old weather-boarded log cabin house in the Missouri River bottoms of Platte County, Missouri. He became an orphan when three years of age, losing his parents in an epidemic that ravaged the countryside. He passed under the care of an uncle, head of a small country bank in Platte City, a town of a few hundred inhabitants, growing up on a farm and receiving his early education in a rural school. He later entered Bethany College, West Virginia, but at the end of his junior year he had to quit college and go to work in the bank." His subsequent career was one of steady progress, first to higher positions among small country banks, then to larger city banks in Texas, where he rose to the top. In 1914 he was chosen first governor of the Dallas Federal Reserve Bank and served through the opening period of the establishment of that institution. He resigned to become president of a bank in Birmingham, Alabama, which has grown under his administration to be one of the largest and most successful institutions in the South.

HUGE GROWTH IN SCHOOL SAVINGS

New York.—School savings in the United States for the year 1924-1925 increased in aggregate bank balances by $5,500,000, and a growth of 630,000 in the total number of pupils participating. It is shown in reports made to the American Bankers Association, which declares that the returns encourage belief in the permanence of school savings as a part of the educational program in the public schools. During the year the number of reporting school savings systems increased from 683 in 743 districts to 760 in 1,557 districts, the number of schools from 5,050 to 10,163, the number of pupils participating from 2,236,326 to 2,869,497, the deposits from $14,991,535.40 to $16,961,560.72 and the bank balances from $20,435,144.64 to $25,913,431.15, says W. E. Albright, in charge of the Association's savings activities.

Since 1920, the first year for which comprehensive statistics are available, the number of schools having school savings banking has increased 271.4 per cent, the enrollment in school savings districts 278.9 per cent, participants 520.2 per cent, deposits 596.1 per cent and bank balances 516.8 per cent.

BANKERS SURVEY STATE BANK LAWS

Find That Movement for State Guaranty of Bank Has Gone Into Eclipse.

New York.—A survey of state banking laws conducted by the State Bank Division of the American Bankers Association shows marked progress toward greater uniformity and more efficient bank supervision, it is declared by Frank W. Simmonds, in charge of the division, in a statement giving the results of the investigation. He says that the movement for state guaranty of bank deposits appears to have gone into eclipse.

"The division has urged that the office of bank commissioner be freed from politics and all other functions of state government and tenure be made more secure with sufficient compensation and discretion to attract men of outstanding ability," Mr. Simmonds says. "Gratifying progress has been made during the past year in important bank legislation in many states. Idaho, Wyoming and Oregon led the list by adopting entirely new modern banking codes, while Texas and Montana have new codes in preparation.

Uniformity Among State Laws

"The survey shows that it is generally agreed there should be a high degree of uniformity among the states in laws dealing with certain fundamental principles of bank organization, regulation and supervision, and that there is a strong tendency in this direction. We find a very definite trend toward increasing the minimum capital requirements of banks to $25,000; creation of banking boards to act in an advisory capacity with the state bank commissioner, and legislation empowering bank commissioners to take complete charge of insolvent banks and to liquidate them as distinguished from liquidation through the courts.

"We find also a trend toward legislation providing for closer supervision and regulation of building and loan associations; more equitable taxation of bank stock; legislation providing for merger, conversion or consolidation of banking institutions; the legalizing and regulating of what is known as 'departmental banking'; broadening the field for investment of funds of saving banks and trust companies, and increasing the power of the bank commissioner as to granting or denying charters for new banks, and authorizing his making reasonable rules and regulations governing bank management and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof.

"Additional general characteristics of state bank legislation are for increasing the compensation of the bank commissioner and lengthening his term of office of four, five or six years, with power to appoint necessary deputies and examiners; legislation providing for the reduction of mandatory bank calls to three and reducing the number of examinations required by law annually to one; making issuance of worthless checks a misdemeanor; limiting or prohibiting an officer or director of a bank borrowing from his bank unless his collateral is approved by a majority of the board of directors, and limiting or prohibiting the opening of branch banks.

Eclipse of Guaranty Movement

"The question of state guaranty of bank deposits appears this year to have passed into an eclipse, so far as the extension of the idea is concerned, notwithstanding the fact that state guaranty laws were recommended by the governors of two states, and bills were introduced in several of the states, all of which were defeated. The general tendency, so far as state guaranty of deposits laws are concerned, is distinctly the other way, the indications being that several states now having guaranty laws are trying to free themselves from this legislation. Oklahoma has abandoned the plan of state guaranty of deposits, and this year the South Dakota legislature has repealed the state guaranty law and has referred the repeal to the people at the next general election for ratification."

MRS. ADA HOOKS

Mrs. Ada Denison Hooks was a descendant of a long line of prominent and influential ancestors in the affairs of church and state. The Denison family was originally from Stratford, Herefordshire, England. The first to immigrate was Major General Daniel Denison who, after graduating from Cambridge, came to New England in 1631. Dr. George Henry Denison, grandfather of Mrs. Ada, graduated at Yale in Medicine and surgery and in 1831 was commissioned as a surgeon in army services. He came to Texas in 1839 and while serving as an ordained Methodist preacher was drowned in the Brazos river in an attempt to make his way to a camp meeting. At the outbreak of the civil war, George Henry, Jr., enlisted in the first company that was organized. In 1872 he was married to Miss Susan E. Leeper and to this union was born November 2, 1872, their only child Ada. She was converted and joined the Methodist church very early in life. On November 16, 1890 she was married to Charles Baker Hooks who died a little over a year later, leaving one child, Nora Armenta, who was married January 1, 1923 to Mr. John Berry. At the time of her death, which occurred on the night of March 6, 1926, Mrs. Ada was making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Berry in Goldthwaite, Texas.

Despite the fact that she was fully blind and her life, for many years, had been one of almost constant suffering, she was considered by all those who knew her to be an unusually wonderful character. After losing her eyesight she learned to read her Bible written in raised letters. Like Doreas of Joppa, "This woman was a stull of good works and alms-deeds which she did." No more beautiful and artistic needle work is to be found than that which came from her skillful hands and today serves to beautify many homes and remind those left behind of her useful life. Possibly the greatest contribution which she has left to the world and to her church is found in the person of her daughter. Mrs. Nora is a talented musician and in addition to splendid training in a boarding school, she has had all the advantages in musical training offered by the New York Chautauqua. She declares that all her talent and usefulness is due to the influence and leadership of her Mother and she is giving her life to the service of God and the church which she has been taught to love.

RESULTS THAT LAST!

Proven by Goldthwaite People

Thousands of kidney sufferers have tried remedy after remedy with only temporary relief. That is mighty discouraging! But one kidney remedy has earned a reputation for lasting results and there's plenty of proof right here in Goldthwaite.

Read the experience of one who used Doan's Pills years ago and now makes his endorsement even stronger.

J. C. Carlock, farmer, Goldthwaite, says: "I was doing heavy work in lifting. I strained my back and kidneys. I commenced having pains in my back; finally the pains extended into my hips and limbs. My kidneys became weak and I had to pass the secretions far too often. I used Doan's Pills and the pains in my back left and my kidneys were regulated."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER. Mr. Carlock said: "Doan's permanently cured me and I always recommend them."

SAY MOODY WILL BE ELECTED IN 1ST PRIMARY

Austin, Texas, April 25.—Elimination of the need of a second primary in the Governor's race is now confidentially being predicted at Dan Moody headquarters.

As early as March 15, Cato Sells, who was Commissioner of Indian affairs under the Wilson administration, predicted a "land slide for Moody," with only one primary needed.

Approximately a month later, former Governor O. B. Colquitt, makes the same prediction. Colquitt is a former weekly newspaper editor. He is familiar with the pulse of farms and ranches as well as that of the cities.

L. C. Stewart, of Kirbyville, represented his district three terms in the State Legislature. He gives the result of three polls taken on T. & N. O. railway trains. Of 103 votes, 79 were for Moody. Lynch Davidson had 13, and Mrs. Ferguson 11. The tallies were 38-7-3; and 18-2-4.

The Herald of Palestine, where Davidson opened his campaign, says: "From conversation and observation one is forced to the conclusion that right at this time (April 12), Attorney General Dan Moody is the most popular of the candidates in the race for the Governorship of Texas. Things may change before primary day, but the better chance is that Moody is going to continue to gain strength."

The Sherman Daily Democrat says it is against Ferguson but hasn't committed itself to Moody or Davidson. It is sport enough, however, to give top position to one of its readers, E. J. Roberts, who in a letter to the editor urges him to "Get on the Moody wagon before it is too late," meaning that there may not be room if that editor delays. Roberts points out that Davidson got only one vote in five in July 1924, and was beaten by both a Klan candidate and a woman.

LYNCH DAVIDSON SAYS:

Galled by the yoke of excessive mismanagement—goaded by evident maladministration of public funds, and the patience of the people of Texas has been strained to the breaking point. The shameful expose of conditions in our state highway department and the ensuing bombastic controversy between high government officials has served to hold us up to ridicule in the eyes of the nation. It has disgusted sober citizens all over this state.

The time to call a halt is now. The political prize fight should not be countenanced. Road building is suspended and lack of proper maintenance is costing us millions. Let the recrimination and abuse between factions go on if it must, but let it be out of office.

The time has come when the voters of Texas must elect a business executive to be Governor. We need a man at the helm of the ship of state who has a record of achievement behind him and who couples ability with honesty and integrity.

We are fortunate in that such a man is available. Lynch Davidson has presented himself as a candidate for Governor. Not only has he been successful in his private business enterprises but he has demonstrated these same principles in state affairs. His rehabilitation of the state railroad is a shining example of what can be done if business principles are applied to government administration.

THE BRIGHT SIDE

Dashing Off Verse

He stepped upon the high power gas,
An down the road did whistle,
The coroner called a minister
To read the last epistle.

Not For Her

Salesman—"Madam, you will sink nearly out of sight in the luxurious cushions in this new car."
Lady (decisively)—"No thanks when I ride in a new car I want to be plainly visible."

The Latest

We are told that the small-print rear motor sign: "If you can read this you are too darn close," is now engraved on gold pins and worn by flappers.

Not in the Concrete

A contractor who professed to be very fond of children became very angry because some little fellow stepped on a new pavement before it was dry.

His wife rebuked him. "I thought you loved children," she said.

"I do in the abstract, but not in the concrete," he replied.

Henry's Alibi

Teacher (to boy sitting idly in school during writing time)—"Henry why aren't you writing?"
Henry—"I ain't got no pen."
Teacher—"Where's your grammar?"
Henry—"She's dead."

Blaming Mustenberg

Dad (from the hall)—"Why, Marjorie, how dim the light is in there."
Freddy (the fiance, not a college graduate in vain)—"Yes, sir, Professor Mustenberg has a theory that brilliant light benumbs the intellect. We are experimenting to find the degree of illumination by which the attention is kept vivid and the mental functions active."

Our Swift Age

By this time, last spring's sweet girl graduate has been the debutante, fiance, June bride, honeymooner, young housewife, pretty complainant sojourning at Reno, attractive divorcee and "that dangerous woman."

Only Fair

Hospital Nurse: "You wish to see the young man injured in the motor accident. You are the lady he was with?"
Gwendolin: "Yes, I thought it would be only fair to give him the kiss he was trying for."

Brought Home

A party of tourists were going through a small town, having the time of their lives, laughing and joking. One of them thought she would have some fun, and called to a little girl standing near. "Are there any shows in town?" To which the little girl answered, "Only the one which you people are making."
"Doctor, I wish you would give me something to help my memory. I forget so easily."
"All right. I'll send you a bill every month."

Irate Wife (discovering scowling husband on front steps fiddling with doorknob): "What are you doing there Webster?"
Husband (continuing to turn knob): "Pshh! I'm trying to get Pittsburgh!"
An American in dear old London was bragging about his automobile. He ended his eulogy by declaring: "It runs so smooth that you can't feel it, so quiet you can't hear it, has such perfect ignition you can't smell it, and as far as for speed—boy, you can't see it."
"But, my word, old dear," interrupted the Briton, anxiously, "how do you know the bally thing is there?"
A bootlegger suggests that Americans should boost home trade by buying moonshine liquor instead of imported liquor. Here is a good chance to die for your country.

A couple of Pitmen up in London for a holiday halted in front of a brass plate fixed on the front of a house, whereon was inscribed in bold characters the word "Chiroprapist."

"Chiroprapodists," remarked one of them perplexedly, "what's that?"
"Why," replied his companion, a chiroprapist is a chap that teaches canaries to whistle."

A joke was played on Sir Arthur Doyle by a French taxicab driver recently. The man had driven the noted creator of Sherlock Holmes from the station to the hotel, and when he received his fare, he said, "Merci, M. Conan Doyle."

"Why, how do you know my name?" asked Sir Arthur.
"Well, sir, I have seen in the papers that you were coming from the south of France to Paris; your general appearance told me that you were English; your hair had last been cut by a barber of the south of France, and—I saw your name on your luggage!"

Surgeon—"I'll sew that scalp wound for you for $10."
Patient—"Gee, Doc! I want plain sewing, not hemstitching and embroidery."

Tommy is fond of squeezing tooth-paste out of his shiny new tube.

"Don't take too much this time, dear," his mother said to him one morning when he was cleaning his teeth.

"How much may I have?" asked Tommy.

"Well, I should think a little bit, perhaps as big as a bean."

Tommy gave a great pinch and out shot the paste.

"Oh, oh!" exclaimed his mother, "not all that Tommy. Didn't I say as big as a bean?"

"Yes," replied Tommy, "this is a string bean."

The Disappointed Audience
Al: "What started the riot last night?"
Bert: "A misprint."
Al: "A misprint?"
Bert: "Yes, the Lyric advertised a show with three hundred and fifty people and one hundred costumes."

Steamboat Captain (who had just fallen overboard): "Don't stand there like a dumbbell! Give a yell, can't you?"

New Deckhan: "Certainly, sir. Captain, Captain, Rarr! Rarr!"

She: "Don't you love driving?"
Leading Tragic Man: "Did you see how I paralyzed the audience in the death scene? They were crying all over the house."

Stage Manager: "Yes, they knew you weren't really dead."
O'Toole: "Somebody you know said some foine things about you the other day."
O'Day: "Flattery, was it?"
"No; Hogan."

Diner: "I want some raw oysters. They must not be too large or too small; not too salty nor too soft. They must be cold and I'm in a hurry for them."

Waiter: "Yes, sir. Will you have them with or without pears, sir?"
Doctor: "Say, you're going to ruin your stoam drinking that stuff!"
Old Soak: "'Sall right, Doc, 'sall right; it won't show with my coat buttoned."
Hih: "Yes, but we're in town yet."

He: "I see in the paper where a widower with nine children out in Nebraska has married a widow with seven children."
She: "That as no marriage. That was a merger."
Lawson: "What has become of the fine old names of Prudence and Patience?"
Watson: "They're inappropriate these days. If I had a couple of daughters I'd name them Extravagance and Hysteria."

Suffered weak, nervous

"I WAS in a very weakened, run-down condition, surely in need of a tonic and builder," says Mrs. J. R. Wrenn, of Anna, Texas. "I was so weak I had to go to bed, and kept getting weaker."

"I suffered with my back so much. I was very nervous, couldn't rest good at night. I couldn't eat anything—I just wasn't hungry."

"I had read so much of Cardui, I thought best to use it. I took seven or eight bottles, and by the time I had taken them I was stronger than I had been in several years. I can highly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women have found that the tonic effects of the purely vegetable ingredients of Cardui were just what they needed to help restore their appetites, to help bring them easily and naturally back to normal health and strength. Its action has been found to be of great benefit in many common female ailments.

Things that are done by the service of the telephone would have to be done by manual labor if this service were not here.

Our grandparents remember when these things were done without the aid of modern methods.

The difference between those days and now is in the standard of living. The wealthiest people of fifty years ago had nothing like the convenience and comforts that we all have today. And these advantages have come through the perfection of the public services of which the telephone is one.

The service of West Texas Telephone Company and the development of better living conditions in this community go hand in hand.
