TWO LEGISLATORS ARRESTED AT AUSTIN THURSDAY

$1000 in Marked Bills Alleged to Have Been Taken

Rangers Frank Hamer and Tom Hickman Claim to Have Seen the Transaction

Representative F. A. Dale of Bonham and H. H. Moore of Cooper Wednesday night here were charged in Justice of the Peace Frank R. Tannehill's court with accepting a bribe of $1000 to influence pending legislation. They were taken to the sheriff's office.

Captain Hammer took the money from the men and turned it over to Sheriff Horace Bursell. There was no explanation yet as to how the money became "marked."

The representatives sat in the sheriff's office and laughed and chatted with officers who arrested them.

MRS. JOHNSON DEAD

On the morning of January 10, Mrs. Margaret Johnson was found in a semi-conscious condition in which condition she remained until January 20, when her spirit took its flight.

Miss Margaret Mills was born April 15, 1861, was married to B. H. Johnson January 17, 1877 and died January 20, 1927.

To this union was born eight children, three girls and five boys.

One girl and two boys and her husband preceded her to the better world.

Mrs. Johnson was converted while young and lived a quiet, Christian life. Many were the words of commendation as she lay on her bed, unable to speak.

She delighted, as long as she was able, to minister to others. She was modest and reserved; kind, gentle and tender of disposition. Those who knew her best, loved her most.

She leaves to mourn her going, two girls, Mrs. Bob Muse of Center City, and Mrs. Hugh Livingston of Sour Lake, Texas and three boys, George Johnston of Uvalde, Texas, Lester Johnson, Wortham, Texas and Ben Johnson of Center City. There was also one sister, Mrs. Solomon, Shive, Texas.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Miles, assisted by Rev. E. P. Neal at the Baptist Church at Center City, and a large congregation of relatives and friends was present to pay the last tribute of love and respect to her remains and we laid her to rest in the Center City cemetery.

To those lingering yet awhile we would say "Let not your heart be troubled", rather rejoice for "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Thus Making "Suit"

Rhyme With "Cute"

Around the groups of well-dressed men a tendency is felt to wear suspenders once again, and to discard the belt. A suit to meet this new demand at parties has been made with trousers made of velvet and a blouse of crepe de Chine. A linen suit of blue or tan and trousers, say, of brown, is smart for sports and for the city. We go to sleep in town. For the country, a long slip shorts of poplin or, for the city, a pair of slippers.

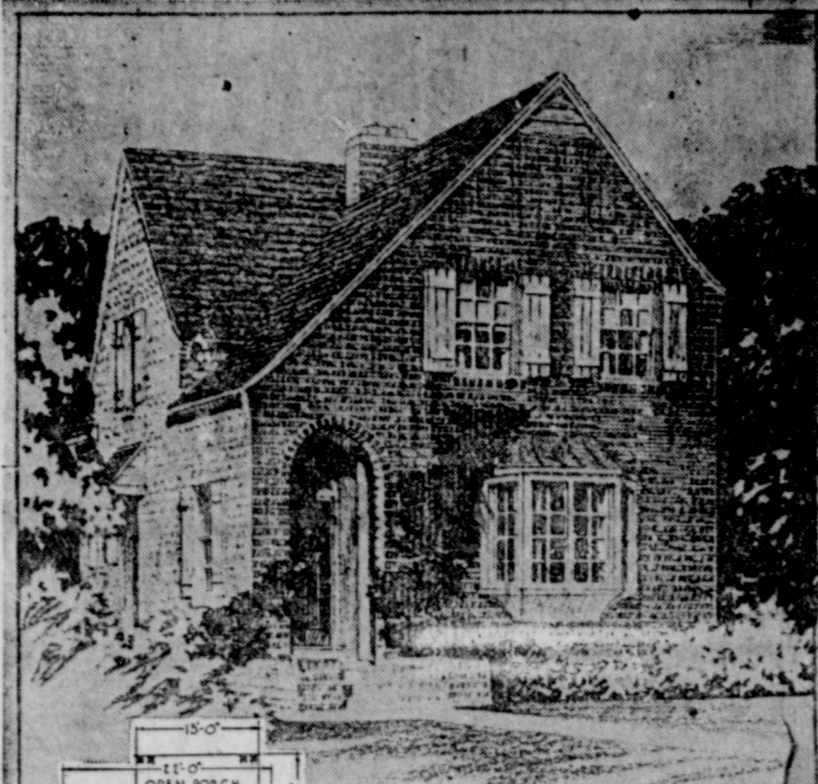

The First Robin

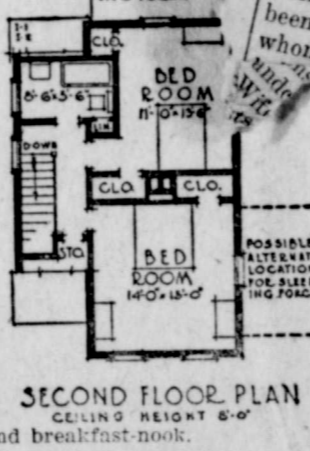

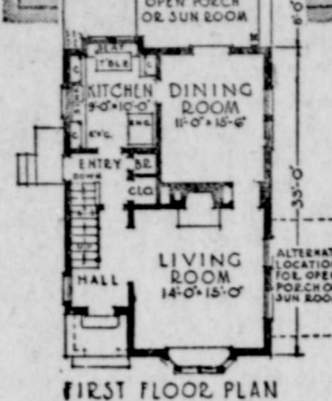

Students of psychology might tell us that a woman adopts tunics and blouses because subconsciously she still clings to the domesticity of aprons. But students of style just know she wears them because she likes to be in fashion. For smartness is securely tied to the new-fashioned apron strings which girdle this frock and come gaily to the front in a breezy bow. Informal little tucks at the shoulder and at the back of the neck lend fairness, while pivoting finishes tunic and girdle. This makes the simple daytime type of frock, in crepe de Chine, voile, or gingham, which every woman includes in her wardrobe, Winter or Summer.

Home-Builder Gets Good Investment Plus Comfort

ECONOMY of space in this five-room English town house has not meant a sacrifice of an artistic exterior. Built with variegated or common brick, whitewashed with a roof of stained shingles or slate, it presents an unusually attractive and compact appearance. The porch is finished and roofed, and has a red brick floor. The shutters of solid, weathered boards are an interesting departure from the New England type. A number of features provide exceptional comfort and convenience. The living room has an oriel bay window which gives light from three directions and affords a window seat or fernery within. Every room has windows on two sides, giving cross-ventilation. The house is insulated, walls and roof, with celotex as protection against cold and waste of fuel in the winter, and the hot rays of the sun in summer. The floors are hardwood throughout, and have a layer of celotex placed between them to deaden noises within the house, a feature that is especially appreciated where there are small children and noisy boys in the house. The living room has an open fireplace and built-in book case. The porch or sun room may open off the living room or dining room, and can well have a sleeping porch above if extra sleeping quarters are needed. The service entry is conveniently placed at the side, to save the housewife steps. The kitchen has built-in cupboards, ironing-board and breakfast-nook.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

We desire to drop a few lines to the Eagle to let its readers know what a pleasant day we spent. We were invited out to J. D. Ryan's Golden Wedding Anniversary dinner and of course, we went. We will not take time to tell of the numerous good things to eat that had been carefully and artistically prepared for this occasion, but will suffice to say the dinner was excellent and could hardly be duplicated. The children who were present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Grover Price and children, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Geeslin and children, Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Stevens and children, Mrs. Ethel Featherston and children, Olive Ryan, Mr. R. D. Ryan and son. The children living and not present on account of the weather and roads being bad are as follows: Mrs. W. A. Johnson R. D. Ryan of Indian Gap, Mrs. J. D. Prater of Dennison, Mr. Charley Brown, who is a half brother to Mr. Ryan, he and his wife and two daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Robinson and children, Mr. Peter Bue, Weston and baby. The guests who were invited and responded were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rudd, Mr. and Mrs. Stuck, Mr. and Mrs. F. Denman, Mrs. Ida Templin, Mrs. Baker. Many other old friends were invited but were unable to attend on account of the weather. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have many things to be thankful for. They married fifty years ago in unity. To their union have come eight children, all of whom are living except one little boy who died when only eight months old. They have nineteen children living and one dead and I with the other guests felt really honored in receiving an invitation to this home on this occasion and certainly are proud that we went. Will close by saying, Uncle John, what about giving another dinner like this before long? — A GUEST

Thousand Eat Golden Rule Meal At Gathering of New Yorkers

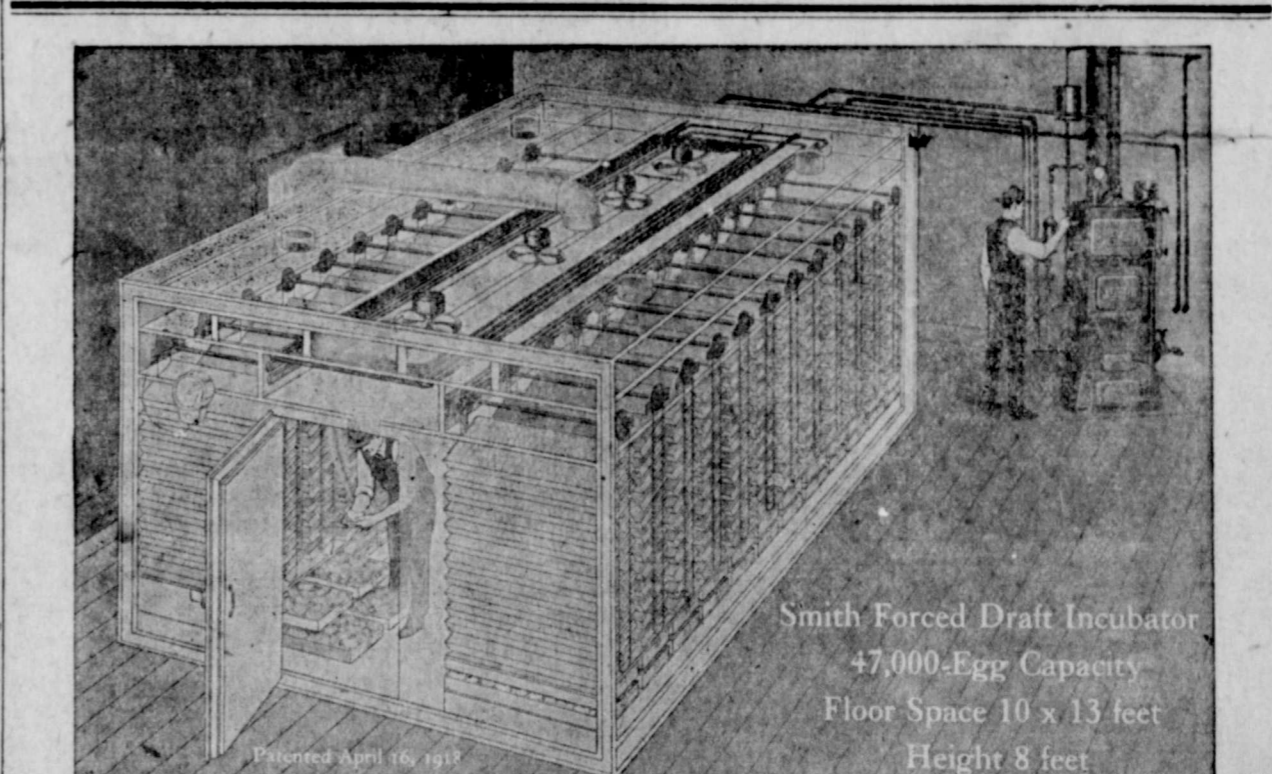

MORE than a thousand leaders in religious, social, civic and political circles in New York sat down to the "Golden Rule Dinner" at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York which recently opened the campaign for the fourth annual observance of International Golden Rule Sunday in the United States. Clergymen of all faiths and some of the leading philanthropists of the nation participated in the program. Girls from various New York and Brooklyn colleges served as waitresses and not a dish was broken—most of them were made from old condensed milk cans especially for the dinner by boys in the Near East Relief training school on the island of Syra, Greece. They were similar to the tableware of the orphanages. The menu served was meat stew, macaroni and cheese, stewed apricots, with syrup, bread and cocoa. This is the fare served daily in the Near East Relief orphanages abroad at a cost of approximately four cents a meal. Golden Rule Sunday this year will have added significance since about $1 million dollars will be raised for the victims of the recent earthquake in Armenia and to provide funds for the maintenance of children in the Near East Relief orphanages until June. You are cordially invited to see the new Springs hats—Miss Adie Smith.

The Goldthwaite Hatchery extends you greetings and best wishes of the season. In this connection we also point with pride to the fact that we have installed for the use of the public, the largest and most perfect incubator made. We want you to come and see it. We could write a lot about it, but to see a incubator of the capacity of 47,000 eggs, walk inside and see the chicks popping out of the shells, inspect the turning arrangements, and the steam moisture apparatus, is worth going many miles to see. The present conditions financially are mainly the result of the one crop idea. It is evident to all that we must shift to a more varied one. If each of us would consider 200 hens, five cows and a brood sow, our eats would at least be assured. I am aware that it takes a little time to get these, but by cooperating with us you may within one season reach the point of the two hundred hens. The day of letting hens do the hatching is past. She is needed to lay more eggs. It is much easier to raise 200 pullets from 500 baby chicks from our Incubator than to care for half the number following hens. We are also in the market for eggs for hatching purposes. If you have a flock of Pure Bred hens of the heavier breeds we want to arrange with you to sell the unto us. We are going to need a great deal more pure bred eggs of the larger breeds than we will be able to buy, so come and see us. We are arranging to have eggs shipped to us, and expect to keep a supply of chicks on hand to sell to those who desire to produce eggs for us in the years to come. We will be ready to set around Feb. 12. Set three times a week, Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. Have plenty of trays at 3c an egg. the Smartest Thought

If you are thinking of two-piece frocks, as every smartly dressed woman is doing this season, you will find the design sketched above adaptable to almost any need. For it admits of many variations in cut, color and material according to individual preference. The skirt may have inverted plaits, as illustrated, or else knife plaiting. Likewise one may choose between having blouse and skirt all in one color and material, or in harmonizing shades and fabrics. The soft finish of the neckline is gratefully received by the woman past flapper age.

TOO MANY LUXURIES

Statistics show that the people of America spend twenty-two millions annually for luxuries, or things over and above the necessities of life. No wonder we hear of hard times everywhere. Christ said: "I am the bread of life," "I am the water of life," "I am the light of the world." But He never did say "I am the chewing gum of life," "I am the soda water of life," or "the cigarettes of life." If you are a hard times growler suppose you cut down your expenses one year to the necessities of life. You will be surprised at the end of the year at the great saving.—The Texas Advocate.

Nervous hot flashes

"SOME time ago when in a very nervous, run-down condition," says Mrs. Martha F. Marlow, of Broken Bow, Okla., "I tried numerous remedies to try at least to keep going, but I could not. I was weak and tired—just no good at all. My back ached and I had hot flashes until I was so very nervous I smothered. I couldn't sleep and I was never hungry, and I kept getting weaker. I couldn't stand on my feet. This was an unusual condition for me as I had been pretty strong all along. I knew that I would have to do something, and that pretty soon. Some friend suggested that I take Cardui, and it certainly was a good suggestion, for after taking one bottle I could tell I was stronger and better. I didn't quit. I kept it up all through the change and did fine. I felt like a different person after I began taking Cardui."

BIG VALLEY

To the Eagle:
Will say that food for an Eagle is very very scarce. People are too busy to visit except to minister to the sick.

By the way we did have a phone meeting last Friday night and talked over our phone service every angle of it we resolved this and that and nothing in particular. May go back to the Big Valley central, will know in the near future.

Our school is doing well. We have one of the best rural schools in the county, and have a fine crew of teachers and we people in the valley are proud of our school and we are very much disappointed in the amount of state aid we were given. Something radically wrong somewhere. From the writers point of view it seems that the more nearly we comply with the state requirements and the more effort we make to have a one school the less aid we get.

Mrs. Hartman is still very sick we are hoping she will soon be better.

Clell Reed is still sick with the flu.

Big Valley has been playing ball of late. Played Prairie last Friday, the score stood 38 to 26 in favor of Big Valley boys. The girls game stood 16 to 8 in favor of Prairie. The next game with Goldthwaite score stood 12 to 6 in favor of Big Valley boys. 4 to 32 in favor of Goldthwaite girls. I might mention the score at the homes, these players fell in favor of the parents doing the chores.

Misses Wilma Miller and Oneta Traylor spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks.

Miss Parker spent one night at the home of J. J. Cockrells this week.

Good Health Depends Upon Good Elimination.

RETENTION of bodily waste in the blood is called a "toxic condition." This often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. GOODYEAR'S NEW BALLOON TIRE
for FORDS AND CHEVROLETS

Goodyear has developed a tread which matches the Goodyear Balloon Carcass—made of SUPERTWIST CORD.

It is the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread scientifically redesigned for Balloon Tire use.

The sharp-edged diamond-shaped blocks are placed in a semi-flat design. They grip the road, they retain their usefulness longer than any non-skid tread offered heretofore.

Long, slow, even tread wear is assured as opposed to the "cupping" and uneven wear so noticeable in many other Balloon Tires.

And with these advantages of traction, non-skid and long wear, this new tread is perfectly quiet and does not produce vibration.

Let us show you this new tire, 29x4.40 for Fords and Chevrolets. A wonderful tire for winter driving!

GOLDTHWAITE GIRLS WIN TWO GAMES OUT OF THREE PLAYED

Last week the basketball girls played three games, and they won two of them by a great majority. The loss of the third game was due largely to the lack of practice.

Last Thursday afternoon the girls played the Big Valley Team at Goldthwaite. The score was Goldthwaite 16, Big Valley 4.

At the end of the first half the score was Goldthwaite 10, Big Valley 0. At the end of the third quarter the score was Goldthwaite 14, Big Valley 2.

Goldthwaite's lineup: Adiel Wilson—12—Goal. Mandia Wilson—4—Goal. Frances Page—Jump Center. Eunice Berry—Run Center. Mary Alice Weathers—Guard. Opal Chesser—Guard.

Big Valley lineup: Jesse Cockran—Goal. Waldine Traylor—Goal. Ethel Bohannon—Jump Center. Pauline Long—Run Center. Joy Doak—Guard. Zora Lee Moreland—Guard. Miss Linkenhoger, Goldthwaite, refereed the game.

Friday afternoon the team played Pompey Creek at Goldthwaite. The score was Goldthwaite 18, Pompey Creek 9.

From the very beginning it was evident that Goldthwaite would

GOLDTHWAITE BEATS BIG VALLEY 24 TO 4.

Monday afternoon the Goldthwaite Basketball Girls played the Big Valley Team at Big Valley. The score was Goldthwaite 24, Big Valley 4. This was the fifth game our team has played this season. We have won three out of the five.

win. Goldthwaite stayed ahead with a rapidly increasing score throughout the game.

Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, a game was called between Mullin and Goldthwaite at the High School Court at Goldthwaite. Since both coaches were absent, Mr. Scott, superintendent of Mullin schools, refereed the game. The game was a very interesting one, for the teams were well matched. Mullin managed to stay even or two points ahead of Goldthwaite until the very last. Just before the game was over she had made three goals in succession. The score was Mullin 16, Goldthwaite 10.

We are expecting several teams to meet with us next Saturday: Mullin, Big Valley, Star, Pompey Creek, Prairie, and others.

BIG VALLEY TAKES GAME FROM EAGLES

Monday afternoon the Eagles made a trip to Big Valley and took a defeat at the hands of those eagles. The game was played in 15 minute halves, the final score being Big Valley 12, Goldthwaite 6.

Big Valley drew first blood with a beautiful shot in the first five seconds of play. The ball exchanged hands often, and shots were not plentiful on either side, made by long shots, and none of them touched either the board or the rim.

Goldthwaite's three goals were

EAGLE CAGERS WIN FROM BIG VALLEY

The Eagles defeated Big Valley last Thursday, January 27, in the fastest game of the season. The game was played on the Goldthwaite High School court, and a large crowd attended. The final score was Goldthwaite 15, Big Valley 8.

For once Hester met his match in height in Miller, Big Valley Center, who had a reach almost three inches longer than that of Hester. This made the Eagles put forth a real effort to get the tip-off. Short, quick, smooth passes gave the Eagles the advantage. With this offensive, they broke through the enemy defensive for short shots which are rarely missed.

The Big Valley cagers displayed a fast dribble which the Eagles

MR. NEWTON TALKS ON "ATTITUDES"

Monday morning Mr. Newton gave us a very interesting talk on "attitudes." He said that an attitude was a person's reaction to a certain institution. Our attitudes toward our fellow students are important. We should be kind, courageous, happy and considerate of our friends and classmates.

Our attitude toward our work is also significant. It should be an attitude of interest. It was told of "Stonewall" Jackson that he never proceeded to a new lesson until he had first mastered the one before. Jackson was a great man and it is not doubted that he will take his place in history among the great men of the nation. We boys and girls can afford to be careful about the preparation of our lessons.

We should do our work well and at the same time do it happily. Mr. Newton said, "Let's make this old school hum with happiness and joyfulness and a great influence will go out from the effects of it. Even though we haven't a great auditorium like some schools, or a great orchestra like other schools, we have hearts that are responsive, and a happy bunch of boys and girls."

O'Leta Daniel, who has been ill with the flu for the past week, came back to school Monday.

SENIOR CLASS DECIDED LAST TUESDAY TO HAVE A PLAY

WORK OF PARENTS-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

The Parents-Teachers Association of Goldthwaite met on January 11 to carry out its regular work. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, the treasurer made her report, and old business was settled. Then new business was considered. Mrs. Palmer, principal of Grammar school, made a motion that the organization make and give a sum of money to the Athletic Association of our high school. The motion was seconded, and the body began to form plans for making the money required.

The results of planning were evident last Wednesday. The P. T. A. served sandwiches, pie, hot chocolate, and soda water during the noon hour to the student body. The feast was enjoyed by everyone, and the Athletic Association received a gift of thirteen dollars.

The students of Goldthwaite High School appreciate this help and wish to express their gratitude for it.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Miss Inman had charge of the Chapel program last Friday morning. The following was rendered:

Reading, "Little Meanning Kid."—Mary Margaret Bigham.

Reading, "The Sunday School Teacher's Version of Old King Pharoah's Daughter."—Norma Frizzelle.

Norma was encored and gave as her second reading, a poem dedicated to the Latin students.

The seniors met with Mr. Newton Tuesday morning and discussed further preparations for the senior play. Miss Gattin, who has consented to coach the play, has asked Miss Whatley to assist her in her work. Although it is impossible for every member of the class to have an active part in the play, the ones that are chosen for the cast will have the co-operation and encouragement of the entire class. We will strive diligently to make such a success of this play that it will go down in the history of G. H. S. as the greatest production attempted by any senior class here-to-fore.

Mr. Newton assured the seniors that they would have the co-operation of the entire faculty as well as his personal backing and influence. Mr. Newton is greatly appreciated by the seniors. He serves as an inspiration when they are most down-hearted.

Monday morning, Mr. Newton made a splendid talk to the student body concerning moral and mental attitudes. Following this talk each senior made a resolution to pattern his life as nearly as possible on the high moral standards and teachings of our beloved superintendent, and we are sure the result will be a better and kinder senior class.

PINEAPPLE A PIQUANT TEA-TIME RELISH

SINCE the days when the American colonies declined tea at Boston harbor, the English have looked askance at the American's negligence in the matter of making tea at the proper time. On this side of the ocean we have a bad habit of being too busy for four o'clock tea.

Yet we have to admit that the English have solved the problem of the zero hour—that time when the busy part of the afternoon is far behind and dinner and the pleasures of the evening are off—by making it a time for a tete-a-tete and tea.

Many Americans have adopted the custom, but others maintain they have no time for it. If the housewife knew how simple it is to have at hand the dainty muffins and decorative tarts that, with tea, make up the tea hour, perhaps they rest of the family would find that after all they aren't so busy as they thought, and that a cup of tea and a bit to eat afford relaxation as well as an opportunity for companionship.

Pineapple has found its way into tea dishes more and more of late, since it has been discovered that the tart taste of Hawaiian pineapple is particularly delicious with tea. Pineapple enhances tea to the extent that in many homes, slices of Hawaiian pineapple are served in the tea instead of the hitherto popular lemon. And with dainty pastry the pineapple presents a pleasing combination.

As for marmalade—second cousin to muffins and tea—pineapple marmalade is one of the simplest to make and so delicious in flavor that it should be well represented on the shelf of every home where tea is a happy function.

Many of the cakes and tarts that make up the tea refreshments, may be made in advance. If there is a baking day in the home—a survival of the old established custom of Saturday baking for the week's needs—then that is an excellent time to bake a host of attractive cookies and tarts and pastry which will last for the week. They can be put away in a tightly closed tin box, and tea for the family and intimate circle of friends who "just drop in" will mean only putting the kettle on.

However, if the tea is to be a large affair, one of those delightfully "informal formal" teas, when a larger circle of friends are invited in, but the atmosphere is kept just as informal and casual as possible, then there may be along with the sandwiches and cakes more elaborate pastries such as cream puffs or fruit tarts.

Pineapple Tea Muffins are made by creaming one-fourth cup shortening with one-fourth cup sugar. Beat one egg and add one cup milk. Sift two and one-half cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt and add alternately with the egg and one buffet size can drained crushed Hawaiian pineapple. Bake in well-greased muffin tins in hot oven (400 degrees F) twenty to twenty-five minutes.

Paradise Marmalade is made in this way: Wash three oranges and one lemon and slice very thin; add one medium size can crushed Hawaiian pineapple and five cups water. Cover and allow to stand overnight. Cook for two hours. Add two cups sugar and cook very slowly one hour longer. The slow cooking will give the marmalade a rich amber color. Pour into sterilized glasses and seal with paraffin.

Waikiki Fruit Tarts are a combination of crispy pastry and creamy filling. Line a deep pie dish with either puff or short pastry and bake a delicate yellow. A half hour before serving, fill with contents of large can of sliced Hawaiian pineapple. Pour over a thick boiled custard seasoned delicately with vanilla and place where it will chill. A meringue can be placed on top, or pastry stars. These make a decorative and dainty finish.

Pineapple Cream Puffs have just enough of the tart taste of pineapple to make cream puffs admissible for tea. Melt one-fourth cup butter or other fat and add one half cup boiling water. As soon as the boiling point is reached, add one-half cup flour all at once and stir vigorously until well mixed. Remove from the fire and add two unbeaten eggs, one at a time, beating until thoroughly mixed between each addition. Drop by spoonful on a greased pan at least one and one-half inches apart. Bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven. With a sharp knife make a cut in the side through which to fill puff. Heat the contents of a buffet size can of crushed Hawaiian pineapple. Mix one-half cup of sugar, three tablespoons flour and one-fourth cup cold water and add hot pineapple, stirring constantly. Cook ten minutes in a double boiler, add one tablespoon lemon juice, cool and put in cakes.

MEMBERS SHOULD ORDER PLANTING SEED NOW

Realizing the condition of the Farmers of Texas and their desire to get better planting seed, the Executive Committee, in session January 28th, reduced the price of our seed to $1.50 per bushel DELIVERED.

There are many farmers among our members who want good planting seed, and we have made this reduction in order that they may obtain the seed they want at a price they can pay for them. There may be cheaper seed on the market, but not the quality.

The following varieties may be had through our Field Representative in each county: Lone Star, Mebane, Rowden, Belton, Sunshine and Cash. All these seeds come in three bushel sacks prepaid to your station at $1.50 per bushel. Six bushels the least order accepted. When you have written the last thank-you note and have made up a little of the sleep you lost at holiday parties, you will once again have time to look over your wardrobe. And if you are like most of us you will feel the need of a fresh frock, one that will enliven Winter days and be smart all Spring. Such is the gown seen above, which is modish and gay in a light shade trimmed in harmonizing color, or more sedately stylish in black, dark blue or green with dashing bands of gold, bright blue, rust color or beige. The plaited cuffs and semiplaited skirt are very new, and becoming to the tallish woman.

This Thrifty Home Brings Joy to the Rent-Weary

FOR THE family of four or five there is this attractive two-story, six-room house of beveled siding and slate or shingle roof.

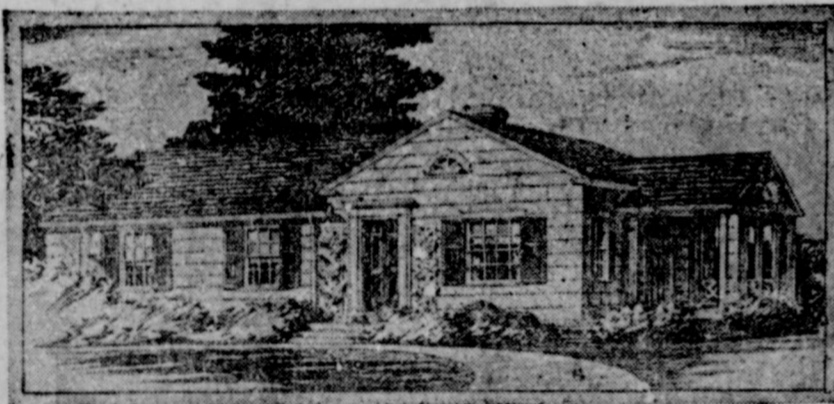

One of the interesting features of this house is that every room has a double exposure, while the living room has three sides exposed. Extra windows not shown in the plan may at slight expense be added at either end of the living room. While this type of house affords the utmost in light and cross-ventilation, it would be well to protect it against the extremes of cold and heat by insulation with celotex for the walls and roof. Such insulation will also cut down outside noises to a marked degree, as in addition to its insulating property, celotex is an efficient sound deadener. The living room has the much desired open fireplace and cleverly arranged bookshelves flanking the entrance to the dining room. The sun porch may be put either to the side or the back of the house, according to the builders' wishes or to conform to the demands of the lot.

© Celotex Institute, Chicago, 1926.

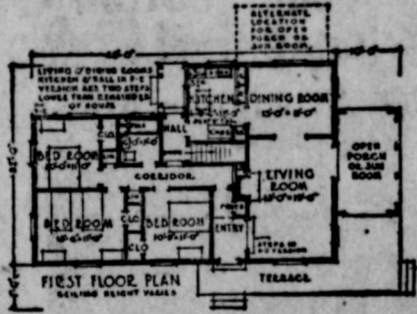

This Six-Room Bungalow Adapts Self to Any Lot

THERE is much to be said in favor of the one-story dwelling, and when the floor plan is as expertly arranged as in this Colonial bungalow the usual objections of lack of privacy and long distances to walk, are avoided. This house may run either lengthwise or across the width of the lot. The exterior is of stained grey shingles with either a green shingled or tiled roof. The trimmings should be white and the shutters green to harmonize with the roof.

The three bedrooms are well shut off from the rest of the house. The large open porch or sunroom can be made to open off either the living or dining room. The kitchen has the desired built-in features, including the useful breakfast nook.

The cost of this house can be materially reduced by omitting the basement and allowing space on the main floor for a small boiler room. The walls and roof also are sheathed with celotex to keep the temperature at comfort point the year round.

THE EPICURE EATS PINEAPPLE

EPICURUS, the Greek philosopher, maintained that pleasure is the chief good.

No one seems to have recorded whether Epicurus found his food pleasure in ham or eggs, or quail on toast, but we have all known epicures. They tell us not of castles they saw in Spain but of Spanish sauces they ate there; not of the Alps they scaled in Italy, but of Italian spaghetti. To the epicure, Georgia is a place to eat corn bread, Boston a place to eat beans.

If it is a cold blustery day in a northern clime, the epicure who delights in physical comfort wants to be suddenly transported to the tropics. His food must have tropical flavor. The crisp cold air has bestowed on him a hearty appetite; he is hungry, but his food must have the flavor he craves.

Out of the magic of the epicure's kitchen, the chef produces a baked ham. Not an ordinary baked ham, but a savory entrée baked with delicious Hawaiian pineapple. Slices of the golden fruit garnish the platter; sweet potatoes lay alongside of it, baked with brown sugar and butter syrup which en-crusts the ham; and the native fragrance of pineapple, combined with the sweet odor of real Virginia ham, makes this a dish which Epicurus himself would have found a pleasure and therefore a great good.

The epicure will take his pineapple in canned form, as he knows that all the golden, sun-ripened fruit of the Hawaiian plantations are packed into cans and shipped across the ocean to us as fresh as the day they were gathered from the fields. His palate demands this perfection of flavor rather than the taste of a fruit which has been picked green and allowed to ripen in the dark holds of ships.

The instinct of the epicure does not lead him far wrong in the choice of foods, for a food which flavors and makes a meal more palatable, usually helps digest it. Aside from being palatable with meat, pineapple makes most more easily digested.

Pineapple contains an enzyme, bromelain, which is part of the digestive juice and which not only makes it a very digestible food in itself but helps digest other foods. Besides this, the natural sugar of the fruit is converted into energy twenty minutes after it enters the stomach. Pineapple also contains mineral salts which tone one's system and vitamins which make for growth.

This delight in tropical flavor has made pineapple a favorite not only with the epicure but with all types of people. With vegetables, in fruit cups, in salads and desserts, as well as with meats, has pineapple become popular, since it has been discovered that not only is the flavor of pineapple itself very pleasing, but it brings out the pleasing flavor of foods with which it is served.

OBITUARY OF MRS. MELBA FERN SWINDLE TAYLOR

"The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." (Isaiah 35: 10).

Mrs. Melba Taylor was born Jan. 10, 1910 in Mills County Texas and in August 1922 she professed faith in Christ and united with the Indian Gap Baptist Church. After moving into Brown County with her parents in November, 1925, she married Mr. H. P. Taylor of Bangs, May 26, 1926. She fell asleep in Christ January 23, 1927 at the age of 17 years and 13 days. Her remains were committed to the last resting place in Indian Gap Cemetery January 25, the Rev. Mr. Gibbons and L. A. Bayley conducting the funeral services.

A few minutes before Melba's young and promising life was still in death, she asked her nurse "Is this death?" and after the nurse nodded assent she called for her husband and her parents to bid them good-bye and admonished them not to grieve, saying that she had prayed to get well, but it was God's will for her to go and that she was going to heaven. "If this is death," said she, "it is not hard."

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swindle, lived quite a period of years in the north-east part of Mills County. Mr. Swindle might be termed an early settler in the Washboard community and one who served faithfully as a citizen neighbor, and father. We who so well knew them in those years, think of them now as parents bowed down in unspeakable grief. We think of a large family and a young husband with hearts hungering for a fellowship and companionship broken in the morning of life so dear to them. Yet they sorrow not surely without a joyous hope. Melba explained in her last moments. Her final words about the most serious ordeal known to the human race is sufficient to settle our disturbed spirits and being anxious about her to rest evermore.

Now that the Grace of God has and does bring such a victory in an hour like that, is most marvelous, it is indeed most wonderful. No one with tongue or pen can add to such testimony. No human language can describe such a victory. "Now we see through a glass darkly, then face to face now we know in part, then shall we know as we are also known." Let us all stay close to the feet of Him who does so well in His serious and sorrowing things, and in heart searching things He crowns with joy.

May the comforting and conquering Grace of God keep the sorrowing ones until the eternal day.—L. L. HAYS.

FIRST STATE BANK REOPENED TUESDAY

(The Mullin Enterprise)
The First State Bank of Mullin and at the close of business the first day the deposits showed an increase of over $4,000.00, which expresses the confidence the people of Mullin and vicinity have in the institution.

Below we show a list of officers and stockholders of the new organization:

- W. H. G. Chambers, president.
- C. R. Dudley, vice president.
- L. L. Wilson, vice president.
- A. H. Daniel, vice president.
- A. J. McDonald, director.
- J. H. Randolph, director.
- R. S. Burgess, director.

Other stockholders: E. A. Kemp, Mrs. S. F. Williams, E. A. Duren, M. M. Black, B. J. White, R. Whitley, Mrs. R. Whitley, C. Waserman, W. S. Kemp, Eaton Bros, O. H. Pafford, C. R. Massey, W. D. Haile, W. C. Townsley, S. J. Eaton, R. H. Patterson, J. A. Holland, A. Little, C. P. Alberty, J. W. Spinks and D. Y. Childress.

The cooperation in the work of reorganizing has been complete, both by the depositors, shareholders and all the citizenship.

While some have been forced to suffer loss, yet they have preferred to lose alone than to see their friends suffer with them. The way the new shareholders rallied to the rescue was commendable beyond expression and every good citizen should feel that they have helped relieve the situation at a very critical time, when both business and property values were on the point of a collapse.

We feel that Mullin now has a good bank, backed by shareholders whose individual worth is over $500,000.00 and by a capable board of directors who are successful business men. Every citizen should feel that he should try and give as much business as possible to his home bank, thereby holding up one of the necessary institutions of his home town, and creating better property values, both in town and country.

J. R. Clark will continue to run the bank for a limited time, until the board of directors shall find a successor. He has declined to accept the position permanently.

MORTUARY

(The Mullin Enterprise)
Little Jeraldine Forehand, the seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nol Forehand, was buried here Monday afternoon. She died at her home in Brownwood Sunday night. The many friends and relatives here grieve with the bereaved parents over the going of this little rosebud that cast her fragrance and influence for a short time in this beloved home, then her mission was complete on earth and she was called to the Heavenly Home.

NEAR FATAL ACCIDENT

(The Mullin Enterprise)
One night during the past week Arch Simpson of the Democrat community came near having a fatal accident while returning to his home from Comanche in his truck. After climbing a steep hill in the gap between here and Comanche he got out to fix something about his car while the engine was running and was overcome with gas. Wilfred Curb and James Carlisle coming along saw that the car was on fire, jumped out and dragged Mr. Simpson away and extinguished the fire. They then carried him to the home of Joe Ellis and summoned a physician. Mr. Simpson is now all o. k. and able to be about his work. But had the two boys failed to appear when they did, he would probably have lost his life in the flames from the burning car.

TRIGGER MOUNTAIN

As there isn't much to do this rainy, bad weather except to argue about the way friend husband makes the fire, I'll write and put Trigger Mountain on the map again as I noticed they got left off last week.

There is not much to write about. Every one feels very well except Arthur Bryant and family, who are on the grunt list with colds.

Hicks Bledsoe spent a few days last week with John Cunningham. Mr. and Mrs. Willie Garner and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Emory Rains.

Frank Lively and family of Lampasas spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lively.

Miss Smith, who is principal of our school, spent the week-end with home folks. Miss Smith and Miss Egley are good teachers and our children are learning fast.

John Cunningham and sister, Alice spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis and attended Church at Duren in the afternoon.

Say, by-the-way, do you brothers down at Goldthwaite put your trousers out every night with the cat? It would be more convenient for the burglars if you did.

Mr. Editor, we are always real pleased to get The Eagle as we don't have much out here to break the monotony. About the only thrill we get is in the evening when we take the pail and go to gather up the cackle berries and find a new nest.

Times are rather hard, but it doesn't make them any better to complain. As for me, personally, I buy things that go a long ways like dried apples and beans. I almost hate to use eggs as I have to waste the shells.—THE FARMER'S WIFE.

ENTRE NOUS CLUB

Mrs. Haynes Harrison was hostess to regular meeting of the Entre Nous Club Wednesday January 26. During business session Mrs. John Ross was unanimously elected to membership. After several games of 42 it was found that Mrs. Frank Taylor scored high for club and Mrs. Walter Weatherby for guest. The hostess assisted by Miss Myrtle Harrison served delicious refreshments.

Frocks in Mind

When blizzards are blizzarding around the windows and when snows are slushing and thawing all over the streets, a gay new frock seems to bring Spring a little nearer to us. But not wishing to encourage Winter by adding more heavy clothes to our wardrobes, we chose a frock such as the one pictured above, which can be worn both now and next Summer. The blousing back, softly shirred skirt and the deep V front are smart this year; they are also slenderizing. This frock is pretty in a gaily printed crepe de Chine with the collar, cuffs and vest in a solid harmonizing color.
