RETIRED ARMY COLONEL TELLS HOW TO COMBAT DEADLY REPTILES

Scores of persons have been bitten by rattlesnakes in Texas this year and steps are being taken to combat the deadly reptiles. In order that people may know how to distinguish the poisonous snakes, how to combat them and how to care for themselves after they are bitten we are carrying the following story from The Abilene Morning News.

How to know them: The common poisonous snakes in the south west are pit-vipers, including the rattlesnake, copperhead and cottonmouth moccasin. They have stout bodies, triangular flat heads and thin necks. They all have a pit between the nostril and eye.

The coral or Harlequin snake is said to be poisonous and it has a black nose and a black tip to its tail, with broad red and black bands divided by yellow bands completely encircling its body. We have no other poisonous snakes in the United States.

What to do when you see one: Kill it with the first stick or stone available. If you are a child or woman and are afraid to kill it, keep it in sight and yell until someone not afraid to kill it hears you. Rattlesnakes usually remain coiled while you are in sight or hearing. They only strike about a third of their length, so can be killed with a stick as long as they are.

What to do when you are bitten: Make a cross cut over the bite, so the blood will wash out some of the poison. 2. Tie a handkerchief or a rubber band above the bite to keep the poison from the system. 3. Suck the poison out. 4. Go to the nearest doctor or hospital where you can get rattle-snake serum. A rubber tube or garter makes a good thing to tie around the limb to keep the poison out of the system. Loosen it every twenty minutes for five seconds. A rubber breast pump is a good thing to suck the poison out. Punctures should be made in the skin around the limb, as the swelling increases and the poison drawn out. If the swelling increases further up the limb a second or even third band of punctures or small cross cuts about a quarter of an inch deep and a quarter of an inch across.

We have snake serum for the treatment of bites of poisonous snakes at all the army posts in Texas, at the Wichita Falls clinic hospital, the Sealy hospital at Galveston and the county health office at Belton and Waco.

How to get rid of Poisonous Snakes: When you see one hunt it until it is killed. Hogs will kill poisonous snakes and could be turned loose to do so when they would not do damage to crops. Dogs can be trained to kill poisonous snakes and having once been bitten are not usually killed by a second bite. Hawks, chaparral cocks, king, Indago and bull snakes kill and eat them. Remove from around your house all places where poisonous snakes can hide. Wood piles near the house should be raised on a frame, with inverted tin pans covering the posts, to keep the snakes from climbing up.

Brush, rubbish and old cans should not be allowed around the house, but should be burned or buried. Have fine mesh wire around the house to keep the snakes out after you have cleaned up under the house. Wooden walks should be raised up on one side in dry weather, as snakes sometimes hide under them.

LEARN A LESSON OF LOVE FROM MOVIES MONDAY AND TUESDAY AT DIXIE

No man should assume a woman loves him until he has definitely asked about her regard.

Neither should he take it for granted that she does not care—without giving the lady a chance to express the state of her heart. Clive Brook, who was very much smitten with Florence Vidor, said nothing about his affections, thinking she had been won by Lowell Sherman.

And he would have lost her had it not been for a bit of magic that always seems to set things right for lovers.

In "You Never Know Women" which comes to the Dixie Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday, readers will find the danger of "speechless love,"—a lesson in frankness, that shows how a miracle of the heart worked out at a moment when two lives might have been blasted.

Along with this picture come Pathe pictures of the disastrous cyclone which destroyed the little city of Rocksprings, Texas.

WAGNER-NIEMANN

Miss Minnie Wagner was married Sunday at three o'clock to Mr. August Niemann at the Zions Lutheran Church at Priddy, Rev. I. M. Mansur officiating. Mrs. Niemann is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wagner. Mr. August Niemann is the son of Adolph Niemann, formerly of this place, but for the last five years has lived in Miles, Texas.

Both are out of the best families in our community and stand high among the young people's society of this neighborhood.

They took great interest in church affairs, both being members of the Priddy Luther League etc.

The bride wore a beautiful white, crepe back satin dress with trimmings to harmonize.

After the ceremony the guests were all asked to the bride's home, where the young couple was showered with gifts such as furniture etc., and at about 6 o'clock there was a nice dinner served and after everyone present had eaten a hardy meal the tables were then arranged for all kinds of games including 42, dominoes, checkers etc. to entertain the guests. Refreshments were also served until eleven o'clock, and as Mr. and Mrs. Wagner leave nothing undone, there was a mid-night lunch served with plenty of nice cooked pies, cakes, and coffee. Everyone present, both young and old, had a most enjoyable time.

The young couple will reside in a new bungalow on the Niemann farm about 2 miles South of Priddy.—A GUEST.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS OFFICERS TUESDAY

Last Tuesday night the members of the board of trustees of the Goldthwaite Independent School District met and organized the new board. The following officers were elected: Em. Wilson, President. Edw. Geeslin, Secretary.

The following committees were appointed: Finance: A. E. Evans and Mark Leverett; purchasing: J. B. Greathouse, A. M. Hunt and E. A. Obenhaus.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rahl and Mrs. Rahl's mother, Mrs. Tise, of Los Angeles, California and F. J. Vandersypt and Mr. Upton, also of California, are here visiting Mr. Rahl's relatives and looking into the possibilities of drilling a well on the block of land which they hold under lease in the southern part of the county.

DIXIE WILL GIVE MID-NIGHT MATINEE BENEFIT FLOOD SUFFERERS

E. B. Buffington, manager of the Dixie Theatre, announces that he will give a midnight matinee tonight following the recital for the benefit of the Mississippi Valley Fund of the Red Cross. Mr. Buffington will show the exceptionally good picture "The Understanding Heart", written by Peter B. Kyne, America's foremost novelist. In addition to the picture, the audience will be treated with several snappy vaudeville numbers, courtesy Mrs. Nora Berry's piano class.

Every item of expense connected with the showing of the picture has been donated by the interested parties, thus allowing every cent of the money taken in to go to the Red Cross.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

Mother

"Search the long annals of Rome and Greece, The truths of war, the chronicles of peace.

Ramsack the old and modern rolls of fame, To fit the brightest splendor on a name, The name above all names is—MOTHER."

The greatest word is God, The deepest word is Soul, the longest word is Eternity, the sweetest word is Time, the nearest word is Now, the darkest word is Sin, the meanest word is Hypocrisy, the broadest word is Truth, the strongest word is Right, the tenderest word is Love, the sweetest word is Home, but the dearest word is MOTHER.

Abraham Lincoln said, "All that I am I owe to my Mother." When you think of Mother you think of home, think of home and you think of the Bible, think of the Bible and you think of Christ and Heaven. To many youths and maidens a thousand miles from home, the name of Mother has the value of religion, pure and undecified and enshrined in a living personality.

Mother and Home are the tenderest notes on the keyboard of

SPECIAL TRAIN OF DALLAS BOOSTERS TO STOP HERE NEXT THURSDAY

Information was furnished the Eagle by Y. E. Hoover, Santa Fe Agent for Goldthwaite that a special train of boosters from Dallas enroute to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at Wichita Falls, will stop in Goldthwaite next Thursday afternoon from 2:06 to 2:31.

The Dallas boosters will very likely carry a band and give us a band concert as well as other entertainment during the thirty minutes they will be here. It behooves Goldthwaite citizens to be ready to "do the honors" at that time.

R. F. McDermott, secretary of the Mills County Chamber of Commerce, has also received word that the boosters are coming and he has made arrangements to accompany the train on to the convention at Wichita Falls.

EX-STUDENTS TO MEET AT 10:00 THIS MORNING

Mrs. Fred Martin, president of the Ex-Students Association of the Goldthwaite High School, has called a meeting for 10:00 this morning for the purpose of electing officers and conducting other business that may come up.

The meeting will be at the study hall of the high school building. All members, as well as other interested parties, are urged to be present.

The Ex-Students Association has been organized for a couple of years and during that time has steadily grown in membership and interest.

The improvement plans of the association—to build a first-class auditorium for Goldthwaite—should have the hearty support of every person interested in its civic welfare.

FAIR DIRECTORS MEET

A meeting of the Mills County Fair Directors was held last Saturday to complete plans for the fair to be held August 17, 18, 19. After discussing and agreeing on a premium list, W. P. Weaver, the Secretary, was asked to prepare rules, regulations and premium lists for a catalog. Ernest Wilson was present and closed a deal for the printing of the catalog. John Burnett was named Concession Committee.

Some discussion was had concerning enlargement of the exhibit hall to accommodate community and farm exhibits.

The copy of the catalog is nearly completed and the booklet will be out in a short time.

The first day will be Ex-Confederate Day. The old soldiers, their wives, and widows of soldiers will be guests of the fair for the three days and will be in camp at their tabernacle.

The second day will be Pioneer's Day. The Pioneer Club will hold their annual reunion and arrange for speakers and entertainment. Many former citizens are expected to attend this meeting.

It has been suggested that the Fortieth Anniversary of the organization of Mills County be celebrated on the third day which it no doubt will. Other anniversaries will be appropriately celebrated.

All are optimistic over the prospects for a big fair.

SERVICES AT LIVE OAK

H. E. Moreland will preach at Live Oak Saturday night, May 7. Your presence and prayers are earnestly requested.

H. J. R. No. 25

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas amending Article VIII by the insertion of Section 1-a therein, authorizing the Legislature to provide for the separation of the objects of taxation for State purposes and for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the State and Counties, and authorizing the Legislature to provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax or other form of tax for State purposes, only; authorizing the Legislature to provide for the classification of objects of taxation and providing that rates shall be equal on the same class of property, and fixing limitations upon taxation.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

SECTION 1. That Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by inserting therein Section 1-a, as follows:

Section 1-a. The Legislature may separate the objects of taxation for State purposes from the objects of taxation for the support of the counties, districts and political subdivisions of the State and counties; and may provide for the levy of an ad valorem tax, or other form of tax, on certain classes of taxable property, or other objects, for State purposes only (including school purposes); or upon certain classes of property, or other objects, for county or local purposes only (including school purposes). In no event shall the rate of such taxes exceed the sum of the limits of such taxes fixed by this Constitution for State, county and other local purposes. The Legislature may provide for the classification of objects of taxation. Taxation shall be equal and uniform.

SEC 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State, at an election to be held the first Monday in August, A. D. 1927, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"For the amendment to Article 8, inserting Section 1-A, providing for changing the taxation system so that the State may derive its income, in whole or in part, from other sources than the ad valorem tax."

"Against the amendment to Article 8, inserting Section 1-A, providing for changing the taxation system so that the State may derive its income, in whole or in part, from other sources than the ad valorem tax."

SEC. 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election to determine whether or not the proposed constitutional amendment set forth herein shall be adopted, and to have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. And the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated from any funds in the State Treasury, not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of printing said proclamation and of holding said election.

Approved March 11, 1927.

Run-Down gave out easily

"MY health wasn't any account at all," says Mrs. H. L. Clayton, of Washington, N. C. "I would start to do my housework and I would give out before I had done anything at all. I did not have any strength, and if I did the least thing it seemed to tax me so I could not finish. I was run-down sure enough. Several of my friends had taken Cardui and they said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' I knew I needed something to build up my general health and to increase my strength. 'Finally one day when I was recovering from a spell of sickness, I decided to try Cardui. I got a bottle and began to take it. I could notice that I was improving as my appetite got better and I did not give out nearly so quick. I took several bottles and I felt lots better. 'Two years ago I decided to take it again. It built me up and made me feel like a different person. It is the grandest medicine for women that I know anything about.'"

HON. J. HERSCHEL BOGGS

The Hon. J. Herschel Boggs, representative in the House from the Tom Green district, is proving himself a useful member of that body and a champion of causes that stand for right and fair dealing.

As a member of the 39th Legislature, he secured the submission of an amend to the Constitution authorizing the counties to levy taxes for county and local purposes, do not choose to other counties and which the poses on school lands belonging to sell. This was clearly in the interest of just dealings and people saw it and approved the amendment. So in the future if counties desire to hold leagues of land until settlers in the western counties, choose to hold leagues of land until settlers develop the country and enhance values, they must contribute something to the counties which protect their lands and make them valuable.

He is now making an effort to have legislators recognize the claims of other western counties which are asking for relief.

In these counties lie University lands grown valuable by reason of oil discoveries and by further fact that the people of those counties have built court house, school houses, roads, bridges etc.

If the State wants to hold on to these lands indefinitely, then the State should help to support the courts, the schools etc.

Mr. Boggs is right in his contentions and it is hoped that he may make a winning.

The above covers only a small part of his activities, and we predict that he will rank high in the counsels of the State.

May Tom Green continue to recognize his merits and keep him in the harness.

NASH
Leads the World in Motor Car Value

There is a DIRECT forced-feed oil line to each and all of the 7 bearings and to the cylinder walls to guarantee positive lubrication.

Nash 7-bearing crankshaft takes longer to build—costs more

It takes longer to build a 7-bearing motor than it does to build one with only 3 or 4 main bearings.

There are at least 3 more bearings to hone and polish. (Nash has considerably more bearing surface than other six-cylinder motors in the Nash price field with 4-bearing crankshafts)

There are at least 3 more bearings to align. And there are at least 3 more bearings to check for proper clearances.

But the Nash 7-bearing crankshaft eliminates the "whip" which loosens bearings and piles up expensive shopwork on motors with fewer crankshaft bearings.

{ The Nash Price Range on 26 Different Models Extends from $865 to $2090 f. o. b. factory }

Obviously, it costs more in time and money to build the Nash 7-bearing crankshaft.

Why then does Nash build it, when other manufacturers still use engines with fewer bearings?

The answer is that Nash owners have come to expect Nash to be definitely better than any other car they could buy at the Nash price.

And 7 bearings alone produce superlative power-smoothness and power-quietness.

Before you select your new motor car, drive a Nash and see how smooth it is at high speeds, how powerful and effortless its pick-up at every speed.

BIG VALLEY

The old Farmer is hoeing down the weeds and trying to attend to a dozen other things at the same time. Weeds and grass seem to be growing faster than his hoe can cut them.

Miss Wilma Miller came in Friday evening to spend the week end with home folks.

Ab. Sykes and family from Breckenridge were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sykes this week-end. J. T. and Alvis Sykes also came with them. The boys seem to enjoy being with their old friends and we were glad to have them with us.

Harlin Millentine and wife left Saturday evening for Comanche to visit her parents. They returned Sunday evening.

Mr. Hemdon, who is attending the University at Georgetown, spent the week-end with home folks.

Miss Zora Lee Moreland spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Esther Buckhammon. She reports plenty of plumberris.

Melvin Deak, who is attending school at Arlington, was visiting home folks this week-end.

J. E. Fitzgerald and family of Stevensville visited J. J. Cockrell this week. Mr. Fitzgerald is a noted nurseryman and we are glad to have him among us.

Carl Perry and family of Center Point were visiting in the home Sunday.

Grandmother Long is here visit the Center Point School Thursday attended the closing exercises of a few of our Big Valley folks ing relatives and friends.

They report a good Sunday is Mothers' and Father's Day and everyone is invited to attend. It is also our regular preaching day, so let's everybody come.

Miss Mary Cockrell, who has been teaching at Center Point, is now at home.

Frank Doggett and family were Sunday afternoon visitors in the J. Cockrell home.

Jr. Featherston and family of Oak community visited W. T. Sunday.

Bob Robertson is on the sick list. We hope he will soon be well.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Reid visited in the Ben Long home Sunday.

Mr. Weeks, who has been very sick, is able to be up again.

ROCK SPRINGS CLUB

Rock Springs Community Club met Friday night, April 22, 1927. The boys and girls' Club rendered an interesting program. The president appointed the following Committee Chairmen of the different divisions of the Club work: Poultry, Mrs. Marion Robertson; Dairying, Mrs. Eula Nickols; Hogs, A. E. Davis; Beef Cattle, W. A. Daniels; Community Fair, Mrs. J. W. Roberts; Better Seed, S. L. T. Sell; Canning, Mrs. Frank Doggett.

The next meeting will be Friday night, May 6.

REPORTER.

Run-Down gave out easily

"My health wasn't any account at all," says Mrs. H. L. Cayton, of Washington, N. C. "I would start to do my housework and I would give out before I had done anything at all. I did not have any strength, and if I did the least thing it seemed to tax me so I could not finish. I was run-down sure enough. Several of my friends had taken Cardui and they said to me, 'Why don't you try it?' I knew I needed something to build up my general health and to increase my strength. Finally one day when I was recovering from a spell of sickness, I decided to try Cardui. I got a bottle and began to take it. I could notice that I was improving as my appetite got better and I did not give out nearly so quick. I took several bottles and I felt lots better. Two years ago I decided to take it again. It built me up and made me feel like a different person. It is the grandest medicine for women that I know anything about."

HON. J. HERSCHEL BOGGS

The Hon. J. Herschel Boggs, representative in the House from the Tom Green district, is proving himself a useful member of that body and a champion of causes that stand for right and fair dealing.

As a member of the 39th Legislature, he secured the submission of an amend to the Constitution authorizing the counties to levy taxes for county and local purposes other counties do not choose to other counties and which the poses on school lands belonging to sell. This was clearly in the interest of just dealings and people saw it and approved the amendment. So in the future if counties desire to hold leagues of land until settlers in the western counties choose to hold leagues of land until settlers develop the country and enhance values, they must contribute something to the counties which protect their lands and make them valuable.

He is now making an effort to have legislators recognize the claims of other western counties which are asking for relief.

In these counties lie University lands grown valuable by reason of oil discoveries and by further fact that the people of those counties have built court house, school houses, roads, bridges etc.

If the State wants to hold on to these lands indefinitely, then the State should help to support the courts, the schools etc.

Mr. Boggs is right in his contentions and it is hoped that he may make a winning.

The above covers only a small part of his activities, and we predict that he will rank high in the counsels of the State.

May Tom Green continue to recognize his merits and keep him in the harness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thompson of Austin visited relatives and friends here a part of this week.

Mrs. Chas. Rudd visited in San Saba last week-end.

NASH
Leads the World in Motor Car Value

Nash 7-bearing crankshaft takes longer to build—costs more

It takes longer to build a 7-bearing motor than it does to build one with only 3 or 4 main bearings.

Obviously, it costs more in time and money to build the Nash 7-bearing crankshaft.

Why then does Nash build it, when other manufacturers still use engines with fewer bearings?

The answer is that Nash owners have come to expect Nash to be definitely better than any other car they could buy at the Nash price.

And 7 bearings alone produce superlative power-smoothness and power-quietness.

Before you select your new motor car, drive a Nash and see how smooth it is at high speeds, how powerful and effortless its pick-up at every speed.

There are at least 3 more bearings to hone and polish. (Nash has considerably more bearing surface than other six-cylinder motors in the Nash price field with 4-bearing crankshafts)

There are at least 3 more bearings to align. And there are at least 3 more bearings to check for proper clearances.

But the Nash 7-bearing crankshaft eliminates the "whip" which loosens bearings and piles up expensive shopwork on motors with fewer crankshaft bearings.

[The Nash Price Range on 26 Different Models Extends from $865 to $2090 f. o. b. factory]

SENIORS PRESENT SCHOOL WITH RUG FOR OFFICE

Last Friday morning at the Chapel period, the senior class, through its president, Walters Hester, presented the school with a wool rug.

For several years it has been the custom for each senior class to present the school with some gift. These gifts have always been something that improved the appearance or equipment of the school. Some classes have given sets of books, and some have given pictures.

Mr. Newton will have the privilege of using this rug first. Heretofore the office floor has had no covering of any kind on it. The rug has greatly improved the looks of the room.

Mr. Newton expressed his appreciation to the seniors in the following words:

"I want to say to the senior class that has given this contribution that I appreciate it very much, and I can say for all the pupils of G. H. S. that they appreciate it very much also. The rug will greatly add to the appearance of my office, which is the only place we have of receiving visitors. The senior class this year has been an inspiration to me, and to every teacher and pupil in this school."

The Goldthwaite Grammar School will present "The Adventures of Grandpa" at The Dixie Theatre, Monday night, at 8:00 o'clock.

EAGLES SHUTOUT LOMETA

Launching a terrific batting attack throughout the game, the Eagles defeated the Lometa nine in a hot seven inning encounter, ringing up their first shut-out of the season. The score was 8 to 0.

Earl Linkenhoger went the entire route on the mound for the Eagles. He pitched easily and steadily, and seemed to be playing "now you see 'em, and now you don't" with the opposing batters. Never has Earl looked more impressive on the mound than he did in this game, letting the Lometa team down with only two hits during the game. Only one man reached third and he was tagged out by Page.

In the sixth Evans drove the ball into deep left field for what appeared to be a home run, but was called back to bat, since the ball was declared to be a foul. He popped out on his return to bat.

PUPILS TO BE IN RECITAL TONIGHT

Mrs. John Berry, music teacher, will give her recital at the Dixie Theatre at 8 o'clock tonight. Mrs. Berry needs no introduction to the people of Mills County, as her recitals are all worth while; this one will be extraordinarily good since great care has been taken to prevent it from being monotonous. All lovers of music, and all who care to see something worthwhile, be at The Dixie Theatre tonight.

Pictures of the pupils who have averaged practically five hours per week practicing will be flashed on the screen, and it will give you a chance to see our future Paderewskis.

The prices of admission are 25, 35, and 50 cents. Reserved tickets are on sale at Clements' Drug Store.

SPORT BRIEFS

The Eagles have a new "find" for short stop, who promises to be worth the money. Evans has been playing in that position for the past week and looks like a million dollars. He judges them well, fields them easily, and has an underhand throw to first that will cheat many batters out of base hits. With Evans to start them and Johnson to pivot them on second, many double plays may be expected to go Evans to Johnson to Hester during the baseball season.

Baseball seems to be the only sport that doesn't change. The fathers of all other sports seem to think that if they don't alter the game every year it will become stale. Next year the football goals will be 20 yards farther apart. The dribble has been eliminated from basketball, thus making it a tall man's game. Baseball, however, has been just the same for past twenty years and will probably continue to be the same for the next fifty generations. The only alteration the game has had is the change to the lively ball, which served to change the style of playing, making the fielding faster and long hits more numerous. That, however, does not in any way interfere with the rules of the game.

Kloompp "spills der beans" at The Dixie Theatre Monday night.

Bill Page left early Thursday morning for Austin where he is to represent this district in the javelin throw at the State Interscholastic League Meet.

DATE FOR GRADUATION EXERCISES CHANGED TO WEDNESDAY, MAY 18.

Because of the fact that the seniors were fortunate enough to secure Senator Earl B. Mayfield to conduct the commencement exercises on May 18, the date of the program has been changed from May 20.

Senator Mayfield is one of the best orators in the South, and it will surely be worth while to any one to hear him.

The exercises will start promptly at the hour set for their beginning and will be held at the Methodist Tabernacle. All are invited to come.

INSIDE INFORMATION

Miss Gatlin reports the following information from the exam papers of the Early European History Class:

Marcus Polo discovered both the north and south poles.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fairman left the first of this week for Dallas.

RALPH FISHER WINS RECOGNITION

(The Mullin Enterprise)

Ralph Fisher, who is attending Howard Payne College, is one of the most popular students on the Howard Payne campus. He has made an enviable record in Howard Payne, especially for a freshman student.

Ralph is an honor student in Howard Payne. He is a member of the Blue Devil Band. And is a faithful member of the track squad, going out for the mile race.

Mr. Fisher is also a worker on the Yellow Jacket, the college paper, and is an honor member of the Press Club. Ralph has recently been elected president of the Freshman Class for the Spring Term. He is one of the most capable students in Howard Payne College, and is well fitted for the place.

Along with all of Ralph's other qualities can be found an earnest desire on his part for the religious interests of the college. He is an active member of the B. Y. P. U., Sunday School, and B. S. U.

Some idea of Mr. Fisher's activity around Howard Payne may be ascertained by the fact that he recently won a ten dollar gold piece for writing the best essay in college, competing against all the upper classmen of the college. The young people of Mullin have a just right to be proud of Ralph.

Tom Clark Graves is in Austin during the State Interscholastic League Meet where he is representing this district in Extemporaneous Speaking.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL OBSERVE BETTER HOMES WEEK

The English classes made project books of their ideal homes. The Art and Civic Club offered a prize to the child who would draw the best plan for remodeling a vacant house in Goldthwaite. Letha Ola Burks won first prize and Woody Saylor second prize.

The Grammar School rendered the following program:

Song—America
Reading—The House With Nobody In It—Letha Ola Burks.
Music—Glee Club.
Talk, Music and Art in the Home.—Mrs. S. P. Sullivan.
Reading, Just Like Me.—Lucille Bledsoe.

MRS. CLARA QUALLS

Mrs. Clara Qualls died at the home of J. M. Harrison at Center City about sundown, Friday, April 22, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Mt. Olive the Sunday following, Rev. H. T. Cunningham, pastor of the Methodist church at Center City, assisted by Rev. Joe Benningfield, conducting the funeral services.

Mrs. Qualls had been in failing health for several months and had been brought from her home at Mt. Olive to Center City to be near relatives.

Mrs. Qualls, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harrison, grew to young womanhood in Mills county and had a host of friends in her community, as well as elsewhere. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Qualls leaves a husband, two little sons—one only two weeks old, a father and mother, and five brothers and sisters, T. E. Harrison of Fort Worth, Miss Mattie Harrison of Fort Worth, J. M. Harrison, Mrs. Ira Hutchings and Mrs. J. M. Oglesby, of Mills county, besides other relatives to mourn her loss.

The Eagle joins the friends of the bereaved ones in offering them the greatest measure of sympathy in this sad hour.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Hight C. Moore
SUNDAY, MAY 8, 1927.

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD
John 20: 10-21: 1-23.

GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who, according to his great mercy, begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3.

Lesson Setting and Survey

Early on the resurrection morning (which is thought to have been Sunday, May 9, A. D. 30) Peter and John found the sepulcher of Jesus empty as the woman had reported to them. Thus they began to learn the lesson of faith. The third appearance of the risen Lord to the disciples as a body was by the lakeside in Galilee where he taught Peter the lesson of love.

Lesson Text and Outline
John 20: 1-10; 21: 15-17

I. AT THE EMPTY TOMB IN JERUSALEM (John 20).

Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 She runneth, therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid him. 3 Peter, therefore, went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. 4 And they ran both together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying yet entered he not in. 6 Simon Peter, therefore, also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying. 7 And the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then entered in therefore, the other disciple also, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. 9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. 10 So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

II. WITH THE RISEN LORD IN GALILEE (John 21).

15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith unto Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs. 16 He saith unto him a second time; Simon, son of John, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest I love thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. 17 He saith unto him a third time Simon son of John, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

Notes Analytical and Expository

1. THE LESSON OF FAITH in the resurrection was first taught by the empty sepulcher. On Sunday morning as the dawn-streaks Magdalene was horrified to find the sepulcher of Jesus empty. She suspected grave-robbery and so reported to the apostles at once. The other woman also reported the angel's word that Jesus had risen from the dead. Peter and John, perhaps as a committee of investigation from the disciples, ran out of the city to the sepulcher. The younger and swifter, John arrived first at the tomb and stood without; but when Peter came up, he rushed within the vault for a closer and conclusive search. The story of the woman was clearly verified; the body of Jesus was not in the tomb where loving hands had laid it, and the grave-clothes were arranged as no grave-robber would leave them. There was ground for the report of the resurrection. With John it became a matter of faith at once, but with Peter there was the hesitation of doubt and a paralyzing wonder as they returned to the city. Later every trace of doubt was displaced by absolute certainty.

2. THE LESSON OF LOVE to the risen Lord was taught on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee. Seven of the Apostles were together—Peter, Thomas, Nathaniel, James, John, and two others not named. As a means of support or for mere diversion Peter suggested a few hour return to their former occupation as fishermen. So the seven immediately entered a boat and went to work. But during the whole night they were singularly unsuccessful: "they caught nothing." Early next morning Jesus, standing unrecognized on the shore, inquired of their success and then bade them cast their net on the right side of the ship. They obeyed and found themselves unable to draw the net with the multitude of fishes. At once John, with his usual spiritual perceptiveness, declared, "It is the Lord." And Peter with his well-known impetuosity, sprang into the sea and approached the Master. In a little while the other disciples came dragging the net ashore, where they found a fire of coals and on it fish and bread. With Peters help they "drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three." Then, at the word of Jesus, and in response to their own feelings, they breakfasted, their hearts full of awe as they received from the hands of the Lord this early morning meal.

(1) When the seven had thus broken their fast overnight Jesus taught them the lesson of love. His remarks were addressed to Peter, but the truth conveyed was for all. Slower than John to recognize the Lord, Peter was yet foremost of all the disciples in expressing his appreciation of the Lord's presence. Was he really more devoted than the others, and could he ever afterwards have cause to boast of his forwardness? To Simon the man, rather than to Peter the Apostle Jesus addressed the question: "Simon, son of John, lovest thou me more than these?" Was his affection more a matter of high moral choice than a natural personal esteem, and in this did he surpass his fellows? In answer, Peter dared not speak of himself comparatively as he had so presumptuously done before his denials; he could merely assert his love, yet in a word which did not reach so high as that used by his Master. "Yea, Lord thou knowest I love thee." On the basis of this love the Lord could provide for the sustenance of his flock, especially of those young in natural or spiritual life. Therefore the command, "Feed my lambs."

(2) If love be sincere, it will not be ashamed of frequent expression. And the more often it is repeated, the stronger the tie that binds. The centrality of love in religion entitles it to the greatest possible emphasis. So a second time, and now not comparing him with the others, but bringing out the supreme relation to himself, Jesus said, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou me?" And in the second inquiry he used the same word for love he had used before—expressing a regard unlogged with earthly elements, pure and spiritual. But again, unable to use that word or unwilling to expose himself to presumption, Peter reiterated the natural love he felt: "Yea, Lord thou knowest that I love thee." The sincerity of his soul was manifest and he could be entrusted with the watchcare of the flock of Christ. Hence now the command, "Tend my sheep."

(3) But shall there be set a limit to love? Will a single expression of the lips be sufficient where a whole life of devotion is demanded? More for Simon's sake than his own, and strikingly suggestive of those three fearful denials, a third time Jesus said, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou me?" This time he uses the word for love which Peter had twice used; that love shall be explored to its depths, its genuineness discovered, and its needless externals brushed away. It seems little wonder that Peter felt somewhat keenly the persistent probe into his very heart. In a tone of intense earnestness he now replied, "Lord thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee." In his inmost being he loved his Master with an earnest, faithful love. And with this threefold declaration of love, rising each time in intensity, Peter is assigned the important duty of not only feeding the lambs and tending the sheep, but also now of feeding the sheep. So love is the highest qualification for effective Christian work, as it is the chief link binding us to God.

The Lesson of the Lesson

Trust and Love the Lord

(1) Remember the Lord's Resurrection.—Jesus rose from the dead. No other fact has been better proven. He lives today. Accept him; obey him; glorify him!

(2) Remember the Lord's Day.—He rose on the first day of the week, thenceforth our sacred day. Associate the Lord's day with the Lord's resurrection. They are inseparable.

(3) Remember the Lord's Servants.—Dead in disgrace and buried in a borrowed grave, Jesus was not without his disciples. Some were true to him still. And was he not worthy of their faith?

(4) Remember the Lord's Testimony.—Even the silent sepulcher bore witness to the resurrection. The angels and the women also testified. John was convinced and Peter started on the road to belief.

(5) Remember the Lord's Word.—The scripture had declared that the Holy One should not see corruption. Jesus had repeatedly foretold his resurrection. The disciples' ignorance ministered to their sorrow.

(6) Remember the Lord's Love.—The disciples must not hold in awe and at a distance their risen Lord, but twine around him anew the tendrils of their love. Love is the mightiest motive power in the world.

(7) Remember the Lord's Knowledge.—"Thou knowest," was Peter's refuge under the searching inquiry of the Lord. Does he not know us altogether?

(8) Remember the Lord's Flock.—He loves them all and yearns for their love. And he wishes to entrust them to none but shepherd's of love who will feed and lead them in love.

(9) Remember the Lord's Forecast.—Jesus foresaw and foretold the manner of Peter's death. The Impetuous Apostle, therefore, was like his Lord in anticipating as well as enduring the cross.

(10) Remember the Lord's Command.—"Follow me," said Jesus to Peter. And the Apostle obeyed in life and death. The same word comes to us. Shall we be faithful?

PAYNE GAP

Eagle and Readers:

The Payne news did not seem to reach the waste basket last week, so I'll send in some of the latest happenings this week.

Everybody is planting cotton. The negro play was a great laugh for all who attended at Payne Friday night. The Motion school will be out on the 6th and everybody prepare yourself for another big laugh on Monday night. The following will graduate: Ernest and Mayme O'Neal, Leona Patterson, Delma Poe, Alma Blackwell, Laura Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunt and family and Mrs. Orbic Duncan went fishing Saturday afternoon and had great success.

Mr. and Mrs. Hap Arrowood and family spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Slick Wilkey of Live Oak community. Miss Edith Wilkey returned home.

Miss Irene McMurray and Mrs. Wilburn Arrowood went dewberry hunting Saturday afternoon and found lots of berries and had lots of fun.

Robert Lee was in our community Monday afternoon.

J. G. McMurray and Hap Arrowood went to Lampasas Wednesday on business.

All who attended the party at Clark Miller's at Pleasant Grove from here enjoyed themselves.

Miss Renchell Hughes spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Thelma Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Duncan and son, Troy Elvis, and daughter, Opal, spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunt.

The Red Bug and Tick season seems to be in bloom from the way everybody is scratching.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

S. J. R. No. 33.
Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas removing from the Constitution all limitations as to the amount of compensation of officers, the compensation and expenses of said officers to be as provided by law, and fixing the compensation of the Governor, and providing that said amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 1929, and not sooner.
Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
SECTION 1. That Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by inserting therein a new section to be numbered Section 30a which shall read as follows:
Section 30a. All provisions of the present Constitution of Texas fixing or limiting the amount of salary or compensation of officers and members of Legislature are hereby repealed and hereafter said officers and members of Legislature shall receive such salary or compensation and expenses as now provided until otherwise provided by law. The salary of the Governor shall be Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per year, and no more, payable monthly, and he shall have the occupancy and use of the Governor's mansion, fixtures and furniture.

The salary or compensation of any member of the Legislature shall not exceed fifteen hundred dollars per year, and actual traveling expenses from the place of residence to the capitol and returning for each session of the Legislature, as shall hereafter be provided by law; and provided that no change of salary or compensation from that now provided by the Constitution shall become effective until the first day of January following the first general election held after the adoption of this amendment.
SEC. 2. Said proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Monday in August, A. D. 1927, at which each voter opposing said amendment shall scratch off the ballot with a pen or pencil the following words printed thereon:

"For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas removing from the Constitution all limitations as to the amount of compensation of officers, the compensation and expenses of said officers as to be provided by law, and fixing the compensation of the Governor, and providing that said amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 1929, and not sooner;" and each voter favoring said amendment shall scratch off the ballot in the same manner, the following words printed thereon:
"Against the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas removing from the Constitution all limitations as to the amount of compensation of officers, the compensation and expenses of said officers to be as provided by law, and fixing the compensation of the Governor, and providing that said amendment shall be effective on and after January 1, 1929, and not sooner."

If it shall appear from a return of said election that a majority of the votes cast have been cast in favor of said amendment, it shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.
SEC. 3. The Governor shall issue his proclamation calling said election and have the same published and said election held in accordance with this resolution and the Constitution and laws of this State; and return shall be made and the votes canvassed and counted as provided by law; and if said amendment is adopted by the required vote of the qualified electors of this State, the Governor shall issue his proclamation as required by law.

SEC 4. The sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for publication of the proclamation calling said election and any expense of the State in submitting said amendment and holding said election.
Approved March 29, 1927.
