Mules Win Bi-District ; Childress Next

Shaw, Gleason Given High 4-H Gold Star

Outstanding youths from 20 South Plains counties were saluted and challenged to continue to achieve and accept leadership at the annual District Two 4-H Gold Star Banquet in Lubbock Monday night.

Forty boys and girls received the highest county award offered in the 4-H Club program--the Gold Star Award--at the banquet at Coronado High School. With it, each youth received the acclaim of parents, fellow 4-H'ers, government officials, Extension leaders and other community leaders.

Honored from Bailey County were Delia Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shaw of Muleshoe and Jimmy Gleason, son of Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Gleason, also of Muleshoe.

John T. Montford, Lubbock criminal district attorney, challenged the award recipients to continue to accept roles of responsibility as they become adults.

Montford gave the 4-H'ers "four R's" to remember to help them continue to be good leaders. The key words, he said, are retain, resist, respect and responsibility.

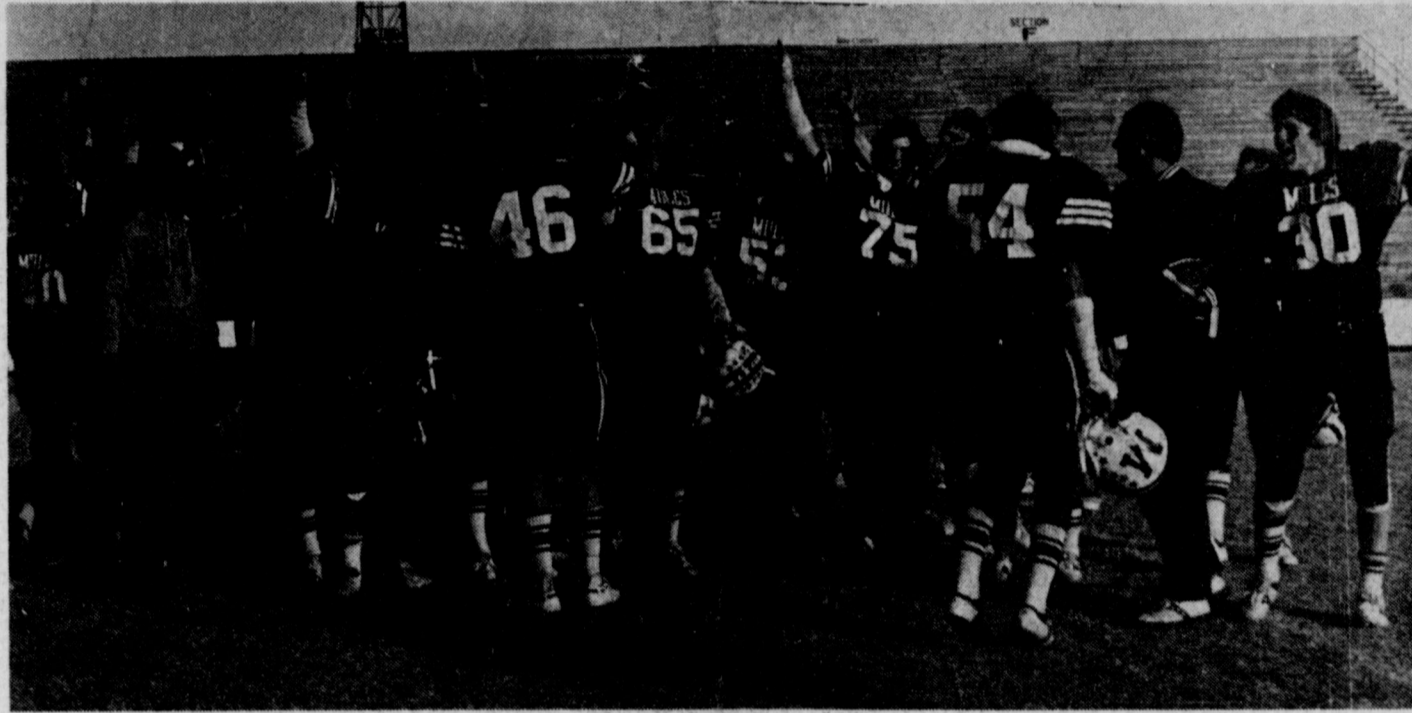

He urged them to retain the fundamental values they already have formed. "Your heritage," he said, "stems from what has been the backbone of our nation, the family unit." And he said 4-H is based on the values of the productive, cooperative family.

Resisting peer pressure brings to the forefront the strongest aspect of leadership ability, the district attorney said. "Saying 'no' is not always the popular thing, but it may be the right thing," he noted.

Respect for the law, "the very foundation of our society," is also needed, Montford said. "The place to change the laws is in the legislative process," he stressed.

"Accept the responsibility the future holds for you," he urged. "Through your leadership, we'll regain our self-sufficiency"

Second Half Rally Saves Playoff Hope

An early Christmas present was acquired by the Muleshoe Mules, the Muleshoe High School coaching staff and the entire community Friday afternoon, after the Mules settled down to serious business and won their second consecutive Bi-District title at Plainview.

It was beautiful football weather when Mule fans traveled to Plainview for the 2 p.m. game, accompanied by periodic signs taped to highway signs noting that "Mule Mania is Passing By;" "Mule Mania is the Most" and other similar signs all the way to Plainview.

During the first half of the 27-13 game, it was questionable as to the outcome, but the 'Kardiac Kids' settled down in the second half, and following the third quarter of the game, there could be no question as to the outcome.

Idalou went on the scoreboard first when Idalou quarterback Brad DeBusk sneaked through from the one after nine plays and 36 yards to put six points up with 6:01 showing on the scoreboard clock. Alan Emery made it a 7-0 ballgame.

Miscues by the Mules, who had a little trouble getting going handed the ball to the Wildcats for most of the first half, but the Mule defense started toughening up and held the 'Cats on their five yard line preventing an additional score at 7:45 of the second. Although the Mules took over on downs, they missed a crucial third and long, turning the ball back over to the Wildcats who managed a 12 yard pass play on third and long.

'Cat quarterback DeBusk had been sacked for a loss then DeBusk found Dennis Green for the 12 yards and a Wildcat touchdown at 3:17 of the second quarter. Emery's extra point attempt had failed and the Mules watched a hope for a halftime lead fail when Idalou intercepted a Mule quarterback Mike Northcutt pass on their own seven with just 40 seconds to halftime.

But, the Mules didn't go into the lockerroom at halftime scoreless as Zeke Pecina had scored on a four yard scamper at 11:09 of the second on a fourth down play. Sam Whalin's kick for the extra point was good.

At halftime, the score was 7-13, and although Mule fans were just a little uneasy, they certainly still had high hopes, as the Mules had come through too many times from behind.

Then came the third quarter, which was picture-perfect for the Mules. Dismayed Wildcats and their fans across the field watched the Mules move the ball almost at will, and it was a Zeke Pecina Show as he gained yardage before he racked up an astounding 194 yards in his 24 carries.

An amazed Charles Walker found just a large enough hole to get through from the 10, and slammed into the end zone for a score at 7:55 of the third and Whalin made it a 14-13 game.

As the Wildcats watched their lead fade, the dispirited 'Cats' failed to come up with the big plays, and a desperation fourth down gamble failed in a surge of black clad Mules, who carried the ball player backward giving the Mules the ball on their own 40.

On the first play from scrimmage following the failed fourth down play, Zeke Pecina hugged the right side line all the way downfield as he raced to a 40 yard touchdown virtually untouched. He had good blocking from the Mule defense and went in standing up with 5:51 on the clock. Whalin's kick failed, but the Mules were leading at this point 20-13.

Parade And Bazaar Highlight Weekend

Next Saturday, December 1, plan to make it a day in Muleshoe for the activities planned to kick off the Christmas season here.

At 2 p.m. Saturday, a parade is scheduled for downtown Muleshoe. It is sponsored by the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, and will be coordinated by Llano Estacado Civic Club.

Also, all day, at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum, the Moonlight Home Extension Club will be sponsoring a handcrafted bazaar. They suggest this will be a good time to shop around for Christmas items during the day.

There will be no admission charge for the bazaar, where over 50 booths will be open during the day. Also, a concession stand will be open at the coliseum.

For the parade, this year, three school bands will be featured. Both the Muleshoe High School and Muleshoe Junior High School band will be in the parade, as will the Lazbuddie High School band.

Also included in the parade this year will be several floats, antique cars, marching groups, and at least one riding club. And, of course, Santa Claus will make his official visit to Muleshoe and will be riding in the parade.

The parade will get underway at the Boy Scout Grounds on South Main Street and will travel north to Avenue B where it will

Farmers Invited To Meet

Farmers and ranchers in Bailey County are invited to take part in a meeting with Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland on the "structure of agriculture."

The meeting will be Dec. 6 in Wichita Falls and is one of 10 regional meetings designed to obtain comments and suggestions on the economic and social issues affecting the structure of American agriculture and rural life. Major purpose will be to determine the overall impact of all the different problems, policies and conditions that interact to influence farm structure, points out Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

More details on how to submit the request are available at the local county Extension and ASCS offices. Written comments may also be submitted to be included in a final document to be published following the series of meetings.

According to Tanksley, the meeting will provide for a re-examination of the structure of American agriculture so that a comprehensive package of factual information and recommendations can be developed for use in proposing future policies, especially new farm legislation for 1981.

This meeting provides an opportunity for everyone interested in the future of agriculture to make his voice heard, points out the county agent.

turn west for one block then back to the south to the Boy Scout grounds.

The annual parade is termed this year "An Old Fashioned Christmas" and will officially kick off the holiday season in this area. Several merchants will probably be featuring special Christmas buys, along with the bazaar.

Featured in the bazaar, which is the first annual bazaar to be conducted by the Moonlight Home Extension Club will be booths from Muleshoe, Hereford, Dimmitt, Lubbock, Plainview, Clovis, Sudan, Tucumcari, N.M. and Amarillo, along with other locations. Mark Lam of Plainview cont on page 6 col 1

Minor Injury From Accident North Of Town

Shortly after 6:30 p.m. Thursday, officers and an ambulance were notified that an accident had occurred north of Muleshoe on Highway 214.

Taken to West Plains Medical Center for emergency treatment was Jo Wood, who was the driver of a late model car that struck the back of two cotton trailers being towed on the highway by Conspicion Rejino of Muleshoe.

Mrs. Wood received no broken bones, but was hospitalized overnight for observation. She received chin lacerations and contusions to her chest and right hand.

Traffic was routed through ditches until the cotton and trailer debris could be removed from the highway. One cotton trailer was completely destroyed, as was Mrs. Wood's vehicle.

Investigating the accident was Department of Public Safety Trooper Jim Dulin. Assisting with rerouting traffic until the highway could be cleared were Deputy Sheriff Monte Phipps and City Patrolman Ray Lynk, who had been asked to help re-route the heavy traffic.

Cotton Prospect Brighter Now On South Plains

Sixteen counties on the southern high plains will harvest around 2.6 million bales of cotton this year, nearly half of the state's projected 5.7 million bales and a regional increase of more than one million over last year's harvest.

Bailey, Lamb, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Dawson, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Midland and Glasscock counties are expected to produce 1,125,000 more bales of cotton than they did last year, giving the state its biggest harvest in 30 years.

County yields should average 404 pounds per acre, up from 259 last year. More than 3 million acres are anticipated for harvest.

According to Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service sees this year's crop as 50 percent higher than last year's and four percent above 1977's. If figures are realized, the 1979 crop will be the largest since the 1949 production of 6.04 million bales.

The Nov. 1 forecast is up 100,000 bales or 2 percent from the previous month. Harvested acreage, estimated at 6.9 million, is unchanged. Yield is expected to average 397 pounds of lint per harvested acre, compared with 294 for 1978 and 407 for 1977.

Cotton quality has been good except for early ginnings on the High Plains which have reflected low micronaire readings. Statewide harvest was 36 percent complete by early November.

American-Pima cotton production is estimated at 32,000 bales, up 20 percent from last year but down 1,000 bales or three percent from last month.

Around Muleshoe

Muleshoe Area Youth Activities Committee, Inc. will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, November 26 at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum.

All members and other interested individuals are encouraged to attend the meeting.

The Muleshoe ISD Board of Trustees will meet in special session at 8 p.m. Monday at the school administration office.

They will review credentials of the applicants for the position of Superintendent of Schools in Muleshoe and will discuss on site visits made by five school board members.

THERE IS NO FERTILIZER SHORTAGE!

While the principal business of our feedlot is the production of beef for a hungry world, there are certain byproducts of our operations which are available to help in the operations of other segments of agriculture. One such product is nutrient-rich manure, offering unique fertilization potential.

Through tests conducted at the U.S.D.A. Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland, Texas, we have learned specific facts relating to the use of our solid wastes as fertilizer. For example, application of only ten tons of solid waste material to an acre of moderately irrigated crop lands has been sufficient to obtain maximum yields. There is a residual effect available through manure fertilization: the process of decomposition continues to provide nutrients, at a reduced level, through the second and even third years after application!

There are definite economic advantages to the crop producer using the manure fertilization system. Initial cost, of course, and also the economies of the methods of application. No special equipment is required: the material is deep plowed into the field and application can be made at the time of working fields prior to planting (the farther in advance of planting the better). Thus, fertilization occurs as a course of normal operation, with standard plowing equipment, resulting in fewer man hours required and, particularly important in light of the energy crisis, less fuel consumption.

The table below lists the nutrient content of manure sampled from 23 feedlots on the Texas High Plains, giving the range, average percentages and average pounds of nutrients present in ten tons:

Recently, with an announcement that Christmas lights may not be installed on the city streets in Muleshoe, members of a fifth grade class started their own collection to help repair and furnish light bulbs for the existing Christmas decorations. Dear Mr. Gully, Decorations are part of Christmas. They show happiness on Christmas and get people in the spirit of Christmas.

I believe we deserve to have Christmas lights, for all the work people do for Christmas.
Another reason why is because Christ our Lord was born on Christmas day. I think he deserves much more than we can give him, but I think it would make him happy to see us celebrate his birthday with such spirit.

Fine arts courses open to non-majors

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Is that an engineering student taking a course in watercolor painting? It could be if it's at The University of Texas, for the College of Fine Arts is opening more of its art, drama and music courses to non-majors. The intent of the new effort, according to Associate Dean Bill Francis, "is not to mold professionals—but to develop tastes, increase understanding through participation and build a base for leisure-time activities." Dean Oscar Brockett, who has encouraged the move, feels "something is missing" from the lives of college-educated persons who have no familiarity with the arts.

MEMORIES...Mr. and Mrs. L.F. McCormick, long time residents of Muleshoe, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, December 2, 1979 in the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum, from 2 to 4 p.m. The reception will be hosted by their children and families. They were married December 6, 1929, in Eden, Texas.

American Heart Association

WIFE, Women Involved in Farm Economics, held their third annual National Convention November 16-18 at the Civic Center in Lubbock. "WIFE has been spectacularly successful," said Dr. Frances Hill, professor at the University of Texas. WIFE is the only national farm organization with an energy program. You have done something great. You are up as a general farm organization and are going after the big issues. She advised the agricultural association not to lose sight of their two main issues--saving the family farm and the farm-focused energy program.

Mrs. Sarah Weddington, Assistant to the President on Women's Issues and National Political Issues, brought greetings from the President. "They are listening to you in Washington" Mrs. Weddington said. She told members, what the administration was doing to improve the status of women. WIFE, will be involved in White House briefings in the future, Mrs. Weddington said.

Speaking to over 500 people at the banquet was Mrs. Sarah McClendon.

White House Correspondent and internationally famous journalist.

Besides giving a first hand look at the White House and Congress she discussed WIFE. "WIFE is a great inspiration" said Mrs. McClendon.

"You do your homework and get to the bottom of problems." She also gave WIFE much of the credit for alerting Washington, D.C. to the farm problems.

Mr. Soleta refutes the argument that gasohol will take food away from people. "Alcohol plants will extract excess carbohydrates out of cereal crops and then concentrate the nutrition. This will eliminate 2/3 of the shipping cost and still provide nutrition at better quality and quantity."

Dr. Lance Crombie, a pioneer in the field of alcohol fuels, gave members and their husbands plans of various alcohol stills and discussed different distillation processes. He also encouraged everyone to apply for a permit to operate an alcohol still.

Soft chiffon late day dresses are being shown for holiday wear. An attractive all over pleated dress featured a V-necked bodice with long, graceful sleeves cuffed at the wrist.

CAR-SENSE

Linda Nowell

Something to remember when you buy a new car which is many times not given much thought - and that is, the type interior you should have. One of the major things to remember - is how you will use the car. If you have children, it might be the most practical would be vinyl which is easy to keep clean. You may want velour which is the most comfortable, however, the hardest to keep clean. Another item is the color-get a color inside which pleases you and is both warm and cool. The companies have gone all out these last few years to please the customer with the interior-I think we will have an interior which will please you.

COMING THROUGH...Muleshoe Mules' quarterback Mike Northcutt rambles through with the ball and is shown just before he was hit in the bi-district playoff game against Idalou Friday afternoon. The Mules will be the home team at Canyon next Friday night when they go up against the Childress Bobcats.

With still another chance to tie up the game, the Wildcats again failed to come through giving the Mules another shot at the endzone.

This time, it was Jim (Bones) Norman, who scampered off to his left and swept into the endzone on a nine yard run at 1:09 of the third. The elated Mules and Mule fans watched as Whalin's kick was true and the Mules gained a 27-13 lead.

During the fourth quarter, the Mules held the frustrated 'Cats' without a first down and Coach Mike Wartes put in Monti Vandiver, backup quarterback.

"Attend the bazaar and see what handcrafted items would fit the names on your Christmas list," suggested a member of the Moonlight Home Extension Club.

He also freely substituted during the final quarter of the game, as the scoring ended on the 27-13 score.

The Mules dominated the yardage statistics with 249 on the ground and 47 yards in the air for 296 yards to 130 on the ground and 44 yards in the air for Idalou.

Also, the Mules had 15 first downs to 12 for Idalou. Mike Northcutt completed three of four passes attempted and was intercepted one time and Brad DeBusk completed four of 12 passes and was not intercepted. There were no fumbles in the game by either team.

Muleshoe had five penalties for 40 yards and Idalou had one penalty for five yards.

Hance Cosponsor Deportation Bill

WASHINGTON -- U.S. Rep. Kent Hance announced that he has cosponsored a bill which calls for deportation of Iranian students who participate in activities which abuse American hospitality.

The bill, H.R. 5813 by U.S. Rep. Jack Hightower (D. Texas), calls for the immediate deportation of foreign students who participate in activities "which are inconsistent" with their primary purpose of being in the United States. "We allow foreign students to come to the United States for a formal education," said Hance. "But when they become involved in any activities such as we have seen lately, then our hospitality should end and they should be sent home."

"Our first concern regarding the Iranian incident is for the safety and welfare of the American hostages," he added. "We must make the negotiation for their return as our first priority. However, should the life of any of those hostages be seriously endangered, then I feel immediate military action is warranted."

"We are dealing with an extremely sensitive international situation," said the Texas congressman. "It requires delicate handling and wise decisions. The Iranian authorities have made a joke of traditional international law and human decency."

"Our actions must be sure, and they must be right. I'm firmly convinced we need to make a strong stand because the eyes of the world are on this incident. What we do will set a precedent upon which other countries will base their relations with the United States. It is time for the United States to stand up and be counted."

The Speaker Reports
by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN—With the recent passage of Proposition 3, the Family Farm and Ranch Security Program, many persons interested in entering agriculture may now have a chance to do so with the assistance of the State of Texas.

The Family Farm and Ranch Security Program establishes a guaranteed loan program for the purchase of farm and ranch land by persons at the entry-level of agriculture. It will aid persons who otherwise would be unable to meet the high price of agricultural land. Those persons interested in the program should remember, however, that it is a program in which the state guarantees the loans but is not actually the lending institution. The actual loans will come from a normal lending institution, such as a bank, Farmers Home Administration, etc.

The loan guarantees will be issued to qualified borrowers through the sale of $10 million in general obligation bonds of the State of Texas. A nine-member advisory council appointed by the Governor will review all applications and make recommendations to the Agriculture Commissioner. According to a staff member of the Agriculture Department, the Governor could make his appointments and have the council functioning within the next year.

Until the council is appointed, all interested persons should put their names on a waiting list that the Texas Department of Agriculture has begun for information concerning the program. As soon as the application forms are prepared they will be sent to those people whose names appear on the list.

To be eligible for a loan guarantee, the applicant must be a U. S. citizen and a Texas resident for five years; have a net worth of less than $100,000, excluding the value of residential homestead; intend to use the land for farming or ranching purposes; and have the necessary education and training in the type of farming and ranching they wish to pursue.

PRICES INCREASES

The worst rate of inflation in 33 years continued its assault on Americans' pocketbooks in 33 years continued its assault on Americans' pocketbooks in September as consumer prices increased another 1.1 percent, the government said.

ONE INJURY RECORDED...Jo Wood was driver of the vehicle above when she ran into the back of a cotton trailer being towed by Concepcion Rejino Thursday night, north of Muleshoe. Rejino, who was also towing another trailer of cotton behind a pickup, was not injured. Mrs. Wood was treated and hospitalized at West Plains Medical Center.

Stand-By Generators Important

COLLEGE STATION-- Emergency stand-by electric generators proved their worth to Texas farms and ranches this year when flooding and tornadoes caused power failures.

"A stand-by generator is a good investment on any farm with mechanically ventilated production facilities, bulk milk handling equipment, mechanical feeding equipment, or facilities requiring continuous heat, such as brooders," points out Dr. Gary Nelson. Nelson is an agricultural engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Nelson points out that stand-by generators are either engine driven or tractor driven; stationary or portable; manual or automatic start; and powered by gasoline, bottled gas or diesel fuel.

"Generators must provide the same type of power at the same voltage and frequency as that supplied by power lines," he explains. "This is usually 120 or 240 volt single phase, 60 cycle alternating current."

For generators up to 15 kilowatts, an air-cooled engine is often used. A liquid-cooled engine is necessary for larger generators. The engine must have about a two and one quarter hp capacity with the proper drive system for each 1,000 watts of generator output.

"A full load system will handle the entire farmstead load," says Nelson. "Automatic engine-powered full-load systems will begin to furnish power immediately, or up to 30 seconds after power goes off."

The engineer points out that small, less expensive part-load systems may be enough to handle essential equipment during an emergency.

Power-take-off generators are about half as costly as engine-operated units. Under a part-load system, only the most essential equipment is operated at one time. This would be adequate for most farms. However, the generator must be sized to keep certain necessary equipment, such as a milk cooler or ventilation fan, running continuously while providing enough extra power to start large noncontinuous equipment, such as a mechanical feeder. "Check with your electrician or power supply representative for installation instructions since wiring and equipment must be installed according to applicable national codes, local ordinances and requirements of the power supplier," says Nelson. "Locate large engine generators in a heated, well-ventilated building, away from combustibles."

An automatic stand-by unit should start automatically when power fails and stop when power is restored. When using an engine-driven generator with a manual start, or when using a tractor-driven unit, first bring the generator up to speed. Then start the largest motor first and add other loads when each is up to operating speed, explains the engineer.

Outgoing O'Leary say oil problems to get worse.

Mulching mowers recycle nutrients

COLLEGE STATION — Mulching lawnmowers that cut up grass clippings and deposit them back in the lawn are an excellent way to recycle plant nutrients, says lawn care expert Dr. J. B. Beard, a professor in Texas A&M University's Department of Soil and Crop Sciences.

Although the mulching mowers eliminate the raking and bagging of cut grass, there is some concern that returned clippings will form thatch, a layer of dense brown organic debris that can cause great problems for homeowners.

Beard contends there is no truth to the theory that grass clippings contribute to thatch build-up.

"On the contrary," he says, "the disposal of clippings is wasteful. There are nutrients in grass that are beneficial to a lawn and if they are not returned in some manner, fertilizer must be added instead."

Collins Urges Welfare Cuts

WASHINGTON--The House passed an Administration backed, liberal welfare "reform" plan that will cost American taxpayers an additional $3 billion for the first year it is in Operation, Congressman Jim Collins of Texas said.

"I would not call this welfare bill a 'reform' bill. What has been created is the beginning of a socialistic, guaranteed national income," Collins warned.

The bill, H.R. 4904, requires all states to support eligible families at 65 percent of the poverty level. This means a guaranteed income for these welfare families of about $4700 a year.

Collins supported an alternative Republican plan that would have allowed for expanded work requirements for welfare applicants and that would have given block grants to certain states to set up a program that best suited their needs. This alternative plan was narrowly defeated 205-200.

"There is little work incentive in this welfare plan. All that is going to happen is that the welfare rolls will be expanded by over 100,000 families and that low-to-middle income taxpayers will have to foot the bill for this give-away program," Collins said.

The bill passed the House by a 222-184 vote and now must go to the Senate for approval.

"Welfare is the one area the folks back home in Texas tell me we should start cutting. Texas has one of the lowest welfare levels in the country. Our average monthly AFDC (Aid to Families with Dependent Children) payment is $108.44 per family, $34.91 per recipient. In New York, the average monthly AFDC payment per family is $372.05 and $121.52 per recipient. "Government deficit spending causes our increasing inflation rate and increased taxes. Welfare needs to be cut not increased and it is time the liberals in the House realized this," Collins said.

Big Summer Potato Harvest Assures Supply for Spud Lovers

AUSTIN--With September marking the completion of the summer potato harvest, lovers of the spud can now rest assured of large home-grown supplies in Texas this winter.

Current estimates for the Texas summer potato crop, at 262,500,000 pounds, are 14 percent above last year's harvest. Yields are expected to average 25,000 pounds per acre compared with 21,000 a year ago, explained Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

Harvest of summer potatoes was nearing completion by the beginning of September, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service report, with only a few fields remaining to be harvested in the following weeks.

"And for the most part," Commissioner Brown said, "size and yield this year are very good."

★ THANKSGIVING FOR ...

- PROSPEROUS NATION
- FOOD
- A STRONG NATION
- FREEDOM OF WORSHIP

Pages could be filled with ways that God has blessed us, and we should be continually thankful for God's goodness. At this time, however, we should pause from our daily workday habits and in unison, give special thanks to God, that we still have freedom of worship.

Attend church this Thanksgiving weekend

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhill Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm adds his two-bits to a current controversy this week.

Dear editor: As I understand it, Chrysler corporation needs financial help because it's been losing money making long cars when short ones are now in style, and Washington is coming to the rescue.

If it works out the government will arrange about a billion and a half loan. Private banks would put up the money and the government would guarantee re-payment.

I guess this is all right but isn't it backwards? I mean, considering the financial shape of the government, wouldn't it be a better loan if it put up the money and the banks guaranteed re-payment?

Now as to what Chrysler will do with the money, that requires some thought. In addition to cars it needs a flexible product easily adapted to a changing market, like for example women's dresses. If the style changes from long ones to short ones, you don't see dress manufacturers caught with rows and rows of long dresses parked on their back lot. They just whack 'em off and stay in business. But have you ever tried to shorten a long car? Incidentally I wouldn't recommend Chrysler's making swim suits. Shorten them any more and you're out of the swim suit business altogether.

Let's change the subject. I don't know how smart all the candidates for President are, but it must be something less than the owners of professional football teams. They figured out long ago fans can take just so many games before they get bored, so the season runs from September to January and the money rolls in. But the Presidential candidates are trying to make their game a year-long one, from November of this year to November of next year. I don't see how they're going to keep the fans from getting bored. And all but one of the bunch will lose money. Yours faithfully, J.A.

ter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noblett of Lubbock.

Farm Structure Issues Need Factual Analyses

WASHINGTON -- Higher food costs and less efficient production could result from national policy alternatives now under discussion to change the structure of agriculture, an economist from Texas A & M University warned here.

Dr. Ronald D. Knutson, professor and economist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and Texas Agricultural Extension Service, challenged national leaders and economists at the National Outlook Conference in Washington, D.C. to base their analyses on "facts instead of emotions of the issue."

Knutson noted that not all large farms are corporate farms. "Many, in fact, have the farm family as a base for management even though they may hire significant labor and thus not fall within the USDA family farm definition.

Knutson also questioned some conventional economic viewpoints which portray smaller farms as the most efficient.

He cited studies which show substantial efficiency gains beyond the normal $100,000 in sales that is used to divide large farm agriculture from smaller and medium size farms.

Knutson was critical of studies which conclude that farms in the $20,000 to $100,000 sales range are most efficient, since the studies allow no cost for farm family labor, management or capital. "Policy decisions based on this technique would imply that the U.S. is willing to continue to exploit middle size farms," Knutson said.

Knutson also questioned the current belief that food prices will increase if trends toward large scale agriculture continue. He noted that during the past 30 years, when integration of the broiler industry was taking place, broiler prices remained constant despite inflation. "Yet the real price declined 45 percent and consumption more than doubled," Knutson said.

While the fed beef industry... Consumer prices rise dims hope of downing inflation.

stry is not as highly concentrated and integrated as the broiler industry, there is no evidence that large scale coordinated feedlots result in higher meat prices, the economist added.

"Warnings of economists about adverse long term consequences of large scale intergrated agriculture have not materialized," he observed.

The outlook for the structure of agriculture is a continuation of the trend toward large scale agriculture, Knutson said.

He warned that trends toward large scale coordinated animal agriculture may have progressed to the point that they are not reversible on either political or economic grounds. Implications of such structural changes in animal agriculture for crop production are not as sharply defined, he said.

"An important factor trending toward more contracting in crop production could be a combination of integration in livestock with a relatively tight world supply-demand balance for grains," he said.

Knutson expressed concern in assessing policy options, he explained, include taxing large scale farm equipment, progressive property taxes, restricting public research and extension activities to help small farmers, and depriving large farmers of lower interest supported government credit.

"The U.S. position as a world efficient food production leader resulted from a decision to invest in research, make it publicly available and allow the competitive system to operate. Reversing this policy would be counter to such national public concerns as controlling inflation, increasing productivity and exports," Knutson declared.

As a more suitable policy alternative, he suggested more emphasis on providing farmers the coordination and investment required to build a cooperative system that can compete in tomorrow's agriculture. It is important, however, that farmers be given the opportunity to make that choice," Knutson said.

The members of the Longhorn Band made a third division on their UIL marching show Tuesday, Nov. 6 in Jones Stadium, Lubbock. It was the first time the band had performed in UIL competition and director Carl Wilke said he was "pleased with the performance of the band." Some of the judges comments were "nice looking band", and "keep working it takes a while to build a band program". There were II Class B and A bands that received a third division.

The eighth grade English Class and the third graders were both treated to a change in curriculum on Wednesday, Nov. 14, when Mrs. Carolyn Blackburn, Library supervisor from region 16 Educational Service Center taught the classes about Library Skills. The eighth grade class learned the skills in conjunction with their English text, but the third graders were hosted to a taste of Library science because they were interested in it. Mrs. Blackburn has consented to come again and go over some of the Library procedures with some of the other classes at a later date.

RECIPE

By Sarah Anne Sheridan

Because of their large amounts of starches and sugar, sweet potatoes yield about one-third more energy value than white potatoes. One medium-sized deep yellow sweet potato will supply the normal person's daily need of vitamin A.

Baked Sweet Potatoes

Select potatoes of uniform size for baking. Wash and trim off ends. Grease skins slightly. Put potatoes in a pan and bake slowly. Turn once during baking. Butter generously when eating.

Sweet Potato Secrets

- 1 c cold mashed sweet potatoes
- 1 T milk
- Salt and pepper
- 1 t baking powder
- 12 marshmallows
- Fine dry bread crumbs
- 2 eggs beaten

Beat potatoes with a little hot milk until they are fluffy but not too soft. Mix in baking powder and seasoning. Form 2 tablespoons of potato mixture around each marshmallow. Roll in bread crumbs, then in egg which has been diluted with milk, then in bread crumbs.

Cook 3 minutes in hot fat. Drain on paper and serve at once with baked apple rings.

PIONEER Harvest Hotline
Lionel Lane reports
Bailey Co. Results # 2
Again this year Pioneer® brand seeds are delivering outstanding yields in field after field. But we know it takes more than one year's performance to tell the whole story. Look at these results, then ask your Pioneer dealer to show you records from several years. You'll see for yourself why Pioneer brand seeds have become famous for their consistency.

This outstanding corn hybrid produced top yields throughout Bailey County this year. Gene McGuire recorded a yield of 10,511 lbs./A. in the Muleshoe area. Gene Paul Jarmon also reported excellent performance from 3311 with exceptional yield of 13,438 lbs./A. In 37 tests in this area, 3311 averaged 10,810 lbs./A. with 611 lbs./A. yield advantage over the nearest competitor. 3311 has shown excellent drought tolerance and will adjust kernel depth to match growing conditions. Because it silks earlier than 3195, this hybrid can help you spread weather risks when planted as field companion to 3195.

Thirty two hybrid comparison tests in this area proved again that 3195 is a truly outstanding corn hybrid. 3195 averaged 10,836 lbs./A. in these on-farm tests. R.J. Garner, who farms near Lariat recorded a yield of 12,043 lbs./A. And even with late-season hail, J.R. Johnson of Muleshoe reported 11,078 lbs./A. with 3195. One of the most popular hybrids ever introduced in this area, 3195 proved its consistency, outstanding disease tolerance and good standability again this year. And it's sure to be a favorite again in '80.
