Mother's Day To Be Observed Throughout the Land Sunday

Several Interesting Programs

Mothers Day services are being held all over the land and country. In every place where people are congregated the name of mother is venerated and words of praise are offered in her honor and her memory. Goldthwaite and Mills county will join in this universal program to honor the name of mother.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Remember that Sunday is Mother's Day and that you are cordially invited to worship with us. Services begin promptly at 11 o'clock. We are expecting the best service of the year, and the largest crowd.

Revival meeting starts Sunday night. Dr. M. E. Hudson will arrive Monday and will have charge of preaching. Mr. Gary and wife will arrive Saturday and will have charge of the music. Services will begin at 10 o'clock and 8 o'clock respectively.

We urge the co-operation of all the people and especially invite the people of the rural districts to worship with us.

Everybody has a pressing invitation to attend these services.

ORGANIZING LION CLUB

Mr. Alva Willgus, organizer of Lion Clubs, spent Wednesday in this city making preparation for the organization of a club here. He secured sixteen applications for membership and feels sure the club will be completed Monday, when he returns from attending a convention of clubs at San Angelo. The citizens with whom he discussed the organization here were enthusiastic and great benefit is expected from the work of the club, which is entirely for civic advancement and community betterment. Mr. Willgus wants to make the charter membership list twenty or more and his success Wednesday indicates there will be no trouble in securing four more applications.

DELEGATION TO AUSTIN

Dr. Em. Wilson, president of the Goldthwaite school board, and F. F. Henderson, secretary, went to Austin yesterday afternoon to appear before the state board to arrange some school matters. They are expected home some time today.

Rains of Vast Benefit Fall All Over This Section of Texas

FINE RAINS

A splendid rain fell here Wednesday night and continued to fall at intervals thru Thursday. There rains were general over this section and over a good portion of the State. This gives almost absolute assurance of a grain crop and puts the ground in fine condition for both corn and cotton. The high winds and the hail of a few weeks ago did some damage to growing crops, but this damage was far more than offset by the rains of this week.

CLOSING EXERCISES

The Goldthwaite Public School term closes this year somewhat earlier than usual, because of the fact that the sessions have continued thru Saturday for several months, in order to gain time, that the contractor for the Grammar school building might be able to complete the new house for the opening of the fall term of school, which is to begin the second Monday in September. The plan calls for the wrecking of the old Grammar school building and the use of some of the material in the new house, hence it was necessary to have it vacated.

The commencement exercises were begun with the baccalaureate sermon at the Methodist tabernacle last Sunday morning. Rev. Gordon Barrett, pastor of the Baptist church of Comanche delivering the sermon. Special music for the occasion and the program for the service was interesting, being participated in by a number of persons who discharged their duties well. The sermon was a good one and appropriate for the occasion, while the music and other parts of the service held the interest of the immense audience.

Examinations have been in progress at the school buildings this week and the Grammar school commencement program was rendered at the Methodist tabernacle last night, altho the Eagle was put to press before the completion of the program, hence no report of the proceedings can be made.

The final program for the closing, which will be the delivery of orations, reading of essays and the presentation of diplomas, will take place at the tabernacle and the general public has a cordial invitation to attend this program.

Commencement Program for Friday night, May 10

1. Prelude—Orchestra.
2. Song—Senior Class.
3. Invocation—Rev. J. W. Kelley.
4. Salutatory—Beatrice Hendry.
5. Duet—Laura Horton and Bernadine Rudd.
6. Valedictory—Leota Simpson.
7. Commencement Address—First Assistant State Superintendent L. W. Rodgers.
8. Delivery of Diplomas—Dr. Em. Wilson.
9. Delivery of Scholarships—E. D. Stringer.

JUNIOR ART AND CIVIC CLUB

The Junior Art and Civic Club met in two call meetings last week. Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mrs. Lester Berry and Mrs. Floyd Henderson were hostesses. Very interesting plans were made for the year's work. The club was well represented at the Federated club meet in Brownwood last week.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN IN BAPTIST TABERNACLE

REVIVAL TO BEGIN

A revival is to begin at the Baptist tabernaacle Sunday morning, to continue two weeks. All preliminary arrangements have been made and Rev. G. C. Ivins, pastor of the church, and other officials and members of the church, will leave nothing undone that could be desired to aid in a successful and helpful revival.

REV. M. E. HUDSON

The preaching is to be done by Rev. M. E. Hudson, pastor-evangelist, who is said to be one of the best preachers of the Baptist denomination in Texas.

JOHN M. GARY

The song service will be directed by Mr. John M. Gary, a singer and music director of experience and high recommendation.

Rev. Ivins counts himself indeed fortunate in having been able to secure the services of Rev. Hudson and Mr. Gary for the revival and great results are expected. Rev. Ivins is emphatic and enthusiastic in his solicitation for the co-operation of the Christian people of every faith and order and the entire citizenship of the town and county.

ORGANIZE SCHOOL BOARD

The Goldthwaite school board has organized for the work for the ensuing year by electing officers, or rather re-electing officers and appointing committees. The officers are: Dr. Em. Wilson, president; O. H. Yarborough, vice-president; F. F. Henderson, secretary; Grover Dalton, treasurer.

Finance Committee—J. A. Hester and O. H. Yarborough. Buildings and grounds—D. O. Simpson, Jas. Faulkner, A. M. Hunt. Building committee—Dr. Em. Wilson, J. A. Hester, D. O. Simpson.

DISTRICT COURT

District court convened in this city Monday morning. Judge Few Brewster on the bench and District Attorney Henry Taylor representing the State, assisted by County Attorney Pribble.

The grand jury was empaneled and was composed of the following named citizens: J. V. Cockrum, foreman; Neal Dickerson, J. D. Fallon, S. P. Sullivan, W. H. McFarland, J. H. Hallford, A. F. Shelton, M. L. Jernigan, E. A. Obenhaus, E. A. Wieker, J. W. Tippen, Tom Priddy.

Door Bailiff—Walter Jones. Riding Bailiffs—J. C. Mason, O. E. Rice and J. R. Massey.

The grand jury adjourned Wednesday afternoon, having completed the business of the term and reporting nine indictments, six charging felonies and three misdemeanors.

No cases have been tried this week, but the docket was sounded and a number of cases set for next week. The Calvin Dorsett case was set for Monday and the Bradley Weathers case set for Wednesday and in each case a special venire of fifty-four men, including the regular panel, was ordered.

Judge Brewster and District Attorney Taylor left for Belton Wednesday night to remain until Monday morning.

TEACHERS ELECTED

The Goldthwaite School Board, in session Monday night completed the selection of teachers for the next term of school. Supt. Newton and the teachers of the High school had already been selected, as were Mrs. J. A. Palmer, principal of the Grammar school, and Miss Irma Harrison, primary. Those elected Monday night completed the list for all departments and grades: Mrs. Sparks Bigham, Mrs. Claude Saylor, Mrs. Robt. Steen, Jr., Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Miss Vera Berry and Frazier Henry.

The next term of school will open in September, if the new grammar school building is completed by that time and the contractor feels sure of completing it by that time.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

On Tuesday night as Barney Carter was hurrying to this city, in response to a message telling him of the serious illness of his father-in-law, Mr. P. G. Palmer, his car ran into a ditch near the residence of Irk Black, on the Center City road. The car did not turn over, but the impact threw Mr. Carter out and some part of the car or some object cut his jaw quite seriously.

The noise made by the car as it crashed into the ditch was heard by several people in the neighborhood, who hurried to the scene and found Mr. Carter bleeding from the wound in his jaw and in a dazed condition. He was soon able to take control of the car, after it was rescued from the ditch, and drove it to town unaided.

A physician was called and several stitches were taken in his jaw, which is still quite sore and painful. He was able to leave for his home at Ranger Wednesday night and a phone message yesterday stated that he had reached home all right and had the wound dressed. It was causing him considerable pain, but no serious results were expected.

Enthusiasm is contagious. Come to this working class and get the spirit. 'Are you a wing or a weight, a power or a problem?'

Our hostess served a delightful refreshment plate.

STATE INCOME TAX

By United Press. Austin, Texas, May 7.—Although favorably reported by the house committee on revenue and taxation, the Mauritz bill levying a state income tax has little chance to pass, observers here believed today.

The bill was reported out of the committee by a vote of 7 to 5. It developed in the executive session in which the vote was taken that one member admitted frankly that he would vote against the bill although he voted a favorable report. Another committee member, after opposing the bill at its hearing, left before the vote was taken.

The member who is against the bill but who voted to report it favorably represents the feeling of the average legislator.

An income tax is a fair tax and it is coming in time, but I am not going to vote for any 60-page bill on such an important topic in the short time that remains for the special session," said Representative Phil L. Sanders of Nacogdoches.

Similar expressions were made by others. Lack of time to study the bill and find out how it will work practically was urged against it at the hearing.

How slight a chance for the bill to pass at this session was illustrated by the frantic way in which the house reversed itself last Friday to pass out a prison bill.

It had been agreed and voted that the bill would not be taken up until Wednesday of this week. In urging the house to stop that action, Speaker Barron took the floor and announced that if the bill were not acted upon last week, it had no chances.

Other contested measures hanging in the house are: Reduced motor car registration fees, gasoline tax, creation of a public utility commission, a new water power law, tax on natural gas, increased tax on sulphur, tax on insurance, tax on intangible values, and creation of a state board of education including power to select free school texts.

That the governor will immediately reconvene the session after its first 30-day period expires is possible. If he does and again fails to submit appropriations as he did in the first call for a special session, there is likelihood of a general revolt.

The lack of accord between the governor and the legislature is the chief topic at the capitol. With the large number of legislators here and their friends, capitol talk is on the side of the legislators.

MIDWAY

Since I have not seen any news from this place, I will drop the old Bird a few nice crumbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds of Caradan had quite a crowd all day Sunday. Fred Ford of Cleburne was among the visitors.

Mr. Walter Reynolds and his son went fishing Saturday night and caught twenty pounds of fish.

The singing at Mrs. Anderson's was enjoyed by every one in attendance. We hope she will be ready to give another one soon.

Listen folks: I want to remind you of Sunday being Mother's Day. The County Missionary will preach at the Midway school house. Everybody come. You are always welcome to religious services at Midway, and especially welcome to this service.

"SHE HATH DONE THE BEST SHE COULD"

Mother! Why is she loved venerated? Because of her love, her office and her work. Here seems to be the infinite love in the infinite being.

She is most willing to sacrifice for those she loves—to lay down her life as did her Lord for her dear ones if need be. The true mother is the most God-like human being because of her virtues. Her great love gives her the patience, gentleness, kindness and thoughtfulness for her sacred mission. Mother love is from the very Fount of Love—for "God is Love."

We cannot understand how any one can gaze upon the love of a mother and doubt God.

Because of her position as a mother she has more to do with the making of character of men and nations than all of the statesmen in the world. America honored God and itself when it set aside a day called "Mothers' Day." But what a great change for good in this old world if we could and would but remember that every day is God's day, Mother's day, Children's day and Humanity's day.

A true mother with her child in arms reflects more of the love and goodness of God than any other picture. In her is the love of God in action, for she cares of the poor, helpless and innocent babe.

In ages that have passed the love of mother has been respected. David in his distress on one occasion said, "I bowed down heavily as one that mourneth for his mother." Could there be a better interpretation of the feeling of the human heart? This wonderful love is expressed by Isaiah as he wrote, "As one whom his mother comforteth so will I comfort you." What a wonderful tribute paid the name of mother.

When God decided to wrap up in one individual all that is true, good and beautiful, He created a mother. Mother is so patient. Men have never undergone the trials, endured the hardships and made the sacrifice mothers have made. How great a mother's sacrifice, how small her gain, but she does it all for love.

One of the most impressive tributes ever paid to a mother, one which proved her faithfulness to her God as well as to her children, is that recorded by John in these words, "Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother." She stood by the cross; she is standing by it now. And as the Master was suffering on the cross He said: "Woman behold thy son." Then sayeth He to his disciples "Behold thy mother."

Men and women make laws, but mothers, by their training, make men and women. Limitless are their opportunities, God-given are their duties and mighty are their responsibilities.

There is no home complete without her, no child content and happy in her absence. But we should not forget fathers. How he has worked and prayed and sought the necessary things of home and its welfare. As we pluck the choicest flowers for mother, let us hand one to father also. He has fought the battles along side of his companion. Let us stop today and hand them a flower. May we stop to say a kind word to father and mother, for sacred their calling, wonderful their love and glorious should be their reward.

The cement sidewalks being laid along the west side of Fisher street, in the residence portion, add greatly to the appearance of that section and at the same time will be decidedly pleasant for pedestrians. If all residents would have these walks laid along the street lines of their property there would certainly be a wonderful improvement in the town.

SUMMER SCHOOL

For the past several years the Goldthwaite school management has conducted a summer school. This school has been a great success in benefitting many pupils in the town and surrounding communities. Summer school will run again this summer. We want, at least, one hundred pupils. This is a very reasonable enrollment for our community.

Let's have all the pupils from the surrounding districts who should profit by attending school and employing their time in study. Our school is closing earlier, this year than usual which makes it all the more convenient to attend our school this summer.

The following classes of pupils may profit by attending the summer session of school: first for those ambitious boys and girls who wish to get ahead, who wish to finish school earlier; second, those pupils who for some reason or another lack one or more courses of being regular in their classes and wish to make the courses up; third, those pupils who are entering the high school for the first time and wish to get a start in the more difficult subjects of algebra and Latin.

Special classes will be provided for those who wish to attend school from the grammar school.

Let's have a good crowd for summer school. It begins May 13, 1929.

For further information see or write to D. A. Newton or E. D. Stringer, Goldthwaite, Texas.

JUNIOR CIRCLE

Mrs. Janie B. Garner of Snyder spent two weeks in Goldthwaite organizing the Junior Woodmen Circle and drilling the children. We were glad to have Mrs. Garner with us in our work. She is district manager of Mills county and has just returned from the State Convention held at Mineral Wells this year. She reports a great convention.

Mrs. Garner has been a great deal of help in organizing our auxiliary. Mrs. Sam Henry Rahl is adviser and Mrs. Coley Sevier, supervisor.

The Junior W. O. W.'s. have been postponed 'till May 15 at 4 o'clock on account of the close of school. These juniors are doing a wonderful work and will do better after they have more time under the supervision of Mrs. Sam Henry Rahl.

An orphans home and home for aged members of the Woodmen Circle has been built at Sherman, Texas. It is under headway now. We are very proud of this home.

ANNUAL ADDRESS

Mr. Weaver, the county agent, came to school Monday morning and delivered his annual address to the seniors. Mr. Weaver made an excellent talk on citizenship. He said that each boy and girl should be grateful for the interest taken by the State and by the parents in our school work.

DAIRY STATES TO FIGHT COMPETITION

The growing dairy industry of the South and the Southwest must be prepared to meet the stiffest kind of competition from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and other states where dairying has long been established as a major project. The dairymen of these States are preparing to undersell Southern producers in the big markets of the country, and it will not be surprising if they fight strenuously for the Dixie market, which they have so long controlled.

Farm and Ranch makes this statement, not for the purpose of discouraging the development of the industry, but to stimulate farmers and others interested to lay the right kind of a foundation on which to build it profitably.

Lowest of production and quality products are the weapons to be used in this fight to maintain leadership, and the Southern dairymen must arm themselves in a similar manner if they expect to win recognition.

Wisconsin is testing its cows. Only high producers will be retained. The others will be sold, not in Wisconsin, but in other States. Probably some of them will be sent to Texas at a fancy price. Others will be distributed throughout the South and West in States where dairying is new. The annual sale of cows in Wisconsin averages about 80,000, and you can bank on the fact that the most of this vast number are not the best in the herd.

The culling of herds along with better feeding is greatly increasing the average cow production in that State and increasing total production of creameries, cheese factories, and milk plants without increasing the number of cows. In Burnett county, Wisconsin, where there are 20,000 cows, the production of butter and cheese has doubled in ten years without adding to the number of cows milked. Burnett farmers are endeavoring to produce a ton of alfalfa for every cow in the county.

The average milk production per cow, culls included, in Wisconsin is now above 4,600 pounds. They have set the mark at 5,000 pounds, and when they reach that they will strive for another goal. Are we going to profitably compete with this kind of production backed by thorough organization and efficient marketing by milking average Texas cows which produce below the 3,000-pound mark?

Knowing conditions in the Northern dairy section as well as those in Texas, we are thoroughly convinced that with good cows properly fed and protected we can meet any competition that comes from any other section of the country, but our farmers and dairymen must forever keep in mind that good pastures and home-grown feedstuffs are the most important factors in cost of production after inherently good producing cows are secured. We have a long road to travel before we become sufficiently dairy-minded to pay close attention to the details necessary to profitable production.—Farm and Ranch.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

On Tuesday afternoon, April 23, 1929, the quiet and peaceful life of Mrs. H. G. Forehand passed from this earthly tabernacle to the more glorious building, a home not made with hands, a mansion in heaven.

No warning of the approaching departure was given, as death came suddenly, she having been stricken with acute indigestion in the morning and dying at 3:20 the same day. Only two of her nine children were near enough to reach her bedside and comfort her in her last moments. She was unable to leave farewell messages, as many do, which are so dearly cherished; yet her calm and beautiful life was a message of love, patience, abiding peace and joy, a guiding star pointing to gentler, higher and nobler things of this life, and a testimony of the saving power of Christ, which will last throughout eternity.

Her impartial management of her family was wonderful. The law of kindness was in her mouth. In this she excelled all others we have known. She was charitable toward everyone. Her virtues were many; her faults few. By her influence we were drawn to more Godly ideals. When we think of her, we think of goodness personified; and fell as did Ruth of old that her God shall be our God. Her Daughters-in-Law.

Badly Run-Down

"Six years ago, I was very much run-down," says Mrs. Olympia Knight of Lovett, Ga. "I did not sleep well, and was weak and restless. I dragged around the house with not enough strength to do my daily tasks. I worried a lot, and this disturbed state of mind reacted on my health. I had often read of Cardui, so I thought I would try it. I soon began to improve after I had taken Cardui for a while. "It was astonishing how much I picked up. I slept better, my appetite improved, and that awful dragging-down feeling left me. I was so much better that I continued taking Cardui until I felt perfectly well." Cardui has been used by women for over 50 years. For sale by all druggists.

PIONEER CITIZEN PASSED AWAY

Mr. P. G. Palmer died at his residence in this city Tuesday night at 11 o'clock, after a long illness. Several months ago he suffered a severe attack of flu and while he was able to be up at intervals, he was never well again and it has been known to his family and their close friends that his condition was very serious and there was little hope for his recovery.

Mr. Palmer was 87 years of age and had lived in this section more than 40 years, having moved here from Marshall county, Miss., the place of his birth, and located first in the Antelope Gap community and later moved to Goldthwaite.

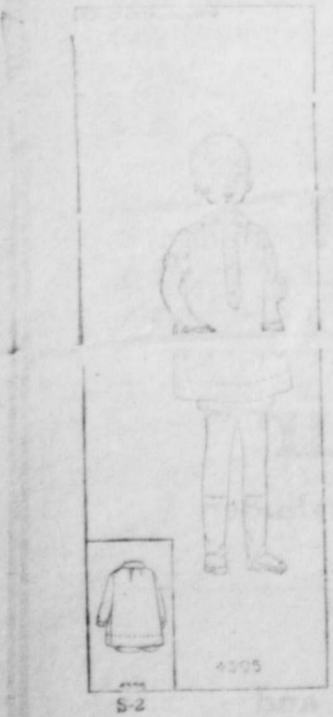

He was married Feb. 19, 1873, to Miss Carrie McAlexander, who with ten children survives him. He united with the Methodist church in 1878 and lived an upright, Christian life, being known and recognized as a man of the highest principles. He was indeed a gentleman of the old Southern type and everybody liked him and honored him. He was a veteran of the Confederacy and for several years was commander of the Jeff Davis camp of Confederate veterans, with which organization he was identified from its beginning.

His children are all grown and are useful and honored citizens, reflecting credit upon their parentage and their training. They are: Mrs. J. M. Bateman, Mrs. D. T. Hunt, Ben, Talmage, Joe A. Harry, Will and Ed F. Palmer, Mrs. Barney Carter and Mrs. V. L. Parker. All of the children were present with their mother at his bedside when the end came.

Funeral services were held in the family home Wednesday afternoon and were attended by a large company of sorrowing friends and relatives. Interment was made in the cemetery at this place Wednesday at the conclusion of the funeral services and there was a large attendance at this service.

The bereaved family can be sure of the united sympathy of the people of this community and all who know of the passing of Mr. Palmer.

Daily Fashion Hint

FOR A WEE MISS

A few bits of colored embroidery gives an attractive touch to this smart Bloomer. Look for the very young miss. If preferred, the sleeves may be worn long with white cuffs. Extra little work for the mother. For hot summer days, and this made simple to make and easy to slip on for play hours. It is graceful in its design. It is in pinked hem. For the most gorgeous little miss, silk or rayon will be found suitable, while for a baby frock, it is dainty in design. Figure it in modish for baby and small girls this season, and will be found neat for this little model. Checked pleatum without the embroidery is just the thing for romping.

Your MODEL T FORD

is still a good car

THE Model T Ford led the motor industry for twenty years because of its sturdy worth, reliability and economy. Those same reasons continue to make it a good car.

As a matter of fact, nearly one-fourth of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords. Millions of them can be driven two, three and even five more years with reasonable care and proper replacement. Figures show that the average life is seven years.

Don't sacrifice your Model T, therefore, but take it to the Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of putting it in A1 shape. A very small expenditure may be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

For a labor charge of $20 to $25 you can have your motor and transmission completely overhauled. This price includes new bearings, reboring cylinders and any other work necessary. Parts are extra.

Valves can be ground and carbon removed for $3 to $4. The cost of tightening all main bearings is only $6. The labor charge for overhauling the front axle is $4.50 to $5—rear axle assembly, $5.75 to $7.

New universal joint will be installed for a labor charge of $3. Brake shoes relined for $1.50. Rear spring and perches rebushed for $1.75. The cost of overhauling the starting motor is $3. A labor charge of approximately $2.50 covers the overhauling of the generator.

It will pay you, therefore, to see your Ford dealer and have him put your Model T in good running order. By doing so you will protect and maintain the investment you have in your car and get months and years of reliable transportation at a very low cost per mile.

DEAL FAIRLY WITH THE PRODUCER

There is a movement on in the Southwest to bring about more satisfactory conditions in the agricultural industry. Many men and many agencies are earnestly and sincerely working in the interest of those who produce our food and fiber. Sometimes their efforts are misdirected, but on the whole a little progress is being made all along the line. Those men realize that after all is said and done, the basis of all prosperity lies in a more complete development of rural resources.

It has not been customary in Texas or elsewhere, for that matter, to take the producer into consideration in dealing with him. In earlier days the producer was on more even terms and could hold his own in trading with his fellow citizen in town. That's not true now nor has it been for many years. The buyer today has the advantage over the farmer no matter how well educated and intelligent he may be. As a general rule, the producer must take what is offered or nothing, and his circumstances are such that he is forced to sell at the other man's price.

This custom of burning the candle at both ends, in times past, and in some towns and communities of today, was not considered economically unsound or dishonest. The old adage of "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," was applied to all transactions. Buy from the farmer as cheap as possible and sell the same product to the consumer at as high a price as possible. In some sections, under the old credit system, it was thought good business to keep the farmer in debt, charging high interest rates for financing the crop, high prices for the necessities furnished, and then to take the entire crop at a low price in the fall.

But, was that good business? To our sorrow we are beginning to learn that it was the poorest kind of business, for through such methods we not only developed an indifferent tenant class, but we lowered the standard of the industry.

Cotton growers have become accustomed to taking what they can get for their crop, keeping right on producing

PIGS THAT NEVER BECOME HOGS

Pigs that never become hogs are largely responsible for loss of profit in the swine industry. Lack of proper farrowing pens; lack of sanitation and various other reasons are assigned for the pig mortality which, some years, mounts up to 50 per cent of the crop. When we lose 50 per cent, or even 25 per cent of the pig crop, we have made a deep cut in the profits of the swine industry. If a farmer has a sow which farrows eight healthy pigs, and through lack of sanitary measures, improper shelter, or through any condition within his control, he loses two of them, he has cut his possible profits 25 per cent. A loss of 25 per cent in any industry comes near being a disaster.

If the farmer succeeds in saving the lives of his pigs only to have them die with hog cholera, or from other disease, his loss is even greater than if they had died earlier in the season.

It is often said that only the man who is willing to pay close attention to details ever makes any money out of hogs except by accident. Little things often count heavily in final results. Readers probably remember that old song or fable which begins, "For the want of a nail the shoe was lost, for the want of a shoe the horse was lost, and for the want of a horse a kingdom was lost." Apply this lesson to farm operations, especially when you are engaged in any branch of the livestock industry either as a major or a minor project. —Exchange.

more the next year. There is one industry, however, that is not being developed in the Southwest that will require recognition and consideration of the producer, or else those who have invested their money in the manufacturing and distribution end of the business will suffer. Special reference is made to the dairy industry. Farmers may grow cotton at a loss from year to year, but they will not milk and feed cows without a profit. Promoters of creameries and milk plants in the Southwest will save money and worry by keeping these suggestions in mind. —Exchange.

BOY SCOUT PREPARATIONS

The Boy Scouts in the Pecan Valley Council are looking forward eagerly to the second annual summer camp. This camp will be held in a Pecan grove, 12 miles west of San Saba on the San Saba river. The camp this year will be unique in that only a limited number of Scouts will be permitted to attend camp any one period. Camp will be run in four periods of 7 days each. It is required that a Scout attend camp with his own troop and the troop must furnish adult leadership. The adult leadership shall be preferably a Scoutmaster, or maybe the Assistant Scoutmaster or any member of the Troop Committee.

The camp program this year is built around Camp Craft. The objective being to give the boys intensive training in the fundamentals of good camping. Special attention will be paid to Nature Study and Handicraft.

The Scouts will camp in Troop units and every encouragement will be given toward the development of the individual traits of the boy. Food will be served in a large Mess Hall at tables seating 8 boys each. The kitchen is screened and especially equipped to provide the best of food under the direction of a man who has had 15 years experience in this line. Fully 100 reservations have already been spoken for.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meador of Mexia came in last week-end for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephens, and other relatives. They were accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Martin of Mexia, who remained until Sunday, when they returned home, but Mrs. Meador remained here for a longer visit.

K. A. Childress and family of Stephenville came over Saturday afternoon and remained until Monday afternoon visiting Henry Morris and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Childress were popular teachers in this county for a number of years, but for the past several years he has been engaged in newspaper work and is well pleased with the progress he has made.

FIDELIS NEWS

The most outstanding event in the class at present, it is the fact that one of our beautiful and talented members is preparing to embark on the good ship matrimony. We extend felicitations and all good wishes for her future happiness.

We never know who will be next, but we are certain it won't be us, because we asked the lady of mystic wisdom last week. She didn't give us anything to lose sleep over!

The writer spent the week-end in the Capital City last week. We are still dizzy from climbing the spiral stairs in the dome of the Capitol. We saw how our state laws are manufactured. If you have not seen the capitol, we advise a visit there. It will give you a thrill you will never forget!

The class plans an entertainment for Miss Sappington, who leaves for her home this week. We regret to see her go. It has been a pleasure and inspiration to be associated with her.

Remember Mothers' Day next Sunday.

An Oklahoma Mother Says:

"BLACK-DRAUGHT is a fine medicine to give to children. I use it for mine whenever I need to give them a laxative. They don't mind taking it when I make it into a tea, and it quickly relieves constipation and the bad symptoms which come from it. I can recommend it to other mothers, for I have found it useful in my home. "When I was a child my mother gave it to me whenever I complained of not feeling well. I have always taken it for upset stomach and constipation. It is about the only medicine I have to take. A few doses of Black-Draught, now and then, keep my system in order. My husband takes it, too. I hardly see how I could keep house without Black-Draught. It has become a standby with us, in keeping the children and ourselves well."—Mrs. Luther Brassfield, Claremore, Okla.

WHICH ARE YOU?

The bones in the body
Are two hundred or more;
But for sorting our people
We need only four.

Wish-bone people:
They hope for, they long for,
They wish for and sigh;
They want things to come, but
Aren't willing to try.

Funny-bone people:
They laugh, grin and giggle,
Smile, twinkle the eye;
If work is a joke, sure
They'll give it a try.

Jaw-bone people:
They scold, jaw and sputter,
They froth, rave and cry;
They're long on the talk, but They're short on the try.

Back-bone people:
They strike from the shoulder,
They never say die;
They're winners in life, for
They know how to try.

THE TEXAN

From the Mullin Enterprise
The senior play at the school auditorium last Thursday night attracted a large crowd. The house was full to overflowing. The play was a thrilling Western one with Indians and guns. The young people are to be complimented and their sponsor, Mrs. J. W. Scott, for the time and talent she spent in preparing them for presenting this truly wonderful drama of Western life.

The play was carried to Blanket on the night of the fourth and a great concourse of people attended the attraction at that place.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

From the Mullin Enterprise
The following clipping is a distinguished honor to an uncle of the Burkett brothers of this place. J. H. Burkett has visited here a number of times.

Cisco entertained the Brazos Valley Pecan Growers association on April 27th. J. H. Burkett owner of the famous Burkett pecan tree, from which more trees in West Texas are cultivated than any other, was present. Burkett was presented with a bronze plaque in recognition of his influence on the growth of the industry.

Middle Life Troubles

"About twenty years ago, my health was very bad," says Mrs. Mat Howard, of Terrell, Texas. "I was passing through a critical time in my life, and I suffered a great deal. I was not at all strong, and my nerves got all upset. I had hot flashes, and sometimes would get suddenly so faint I could not stand up. My head would whirl, and I could not see a thing. I would have to lie down for hours at a time. I improved so much after I had taken Cardui for a while. I continued the medicine for some months, until I had passed the critical period. Since then, I have given Cardui to my five daughters. All of them have continued the use of Cardui in their homes. We have all been better for having taken it."

PAUL McCULLOUGH, Editor

The sweet girl graduate will soon be the center of attraction.

We don't sell sweet boy or girl graduate gifts, but we do sell wire, Du Pont paints, and Barnes & McCullough lumber.

Politicians used to brag about the "full dinner pail," now days they don't make a bit unless they promise "a full gasoline tank."

We will have in a complete stock of wall paper next week. Come in and see us if you are contemplating buying wall paper.

He (looking at her golf sticks)—"I see you have a new brassie."
She: "Where does it show?"

Is your kitchen convenient? Wouldn't some built-in feature lighten the daily household task? We can help you plan them.

Bride (to salesman): "Please sir, I'd like a little oven."
Salesman: "Er—pardon me, not while your husband is around."

Now is the time to commence to keep that fly and mosquito out of your house. Those animals are not nice, and are annoying.

Great weather, isn't it?

The little grain is surely ruined since the big rain last Wednesday. They are going to make big ones.

Don't be afraid to use good advice for fear of spoiling it.

Otto Nauer is painting his home. Yes, he is using DuPont paint. Looks good, doesn't it?
