Lions Club Banquet and Program Well Pleasing to Guests

CHARTER NIGHT PROCEEDINGS

I do not doubt the ability of the members of the Lions club of Goldthwaite to properly and completely cover the story of their Charter Night celebration and its attendant festivities, but having enjoyed the hospitality of the club on that occasion makes me want to add my endorsement and tell what I think of the entertainment so generously and elaborately provided.

From the time we reached the Fair Auditorium until the close of the program there was not a dull moment, and we who were privileged to take part in the festivities feel that there was nothing lacking to make the occasion one of genuine pleasure for everybody.

The wives of the members of the Lions club served as a reception committee and certainly their selection for this duty was most happy thought, for their cordiality and spirit of genuine hospitality made us all feel glad to be among the favored guests.

The program was appropriately opened with the singing of "America," in which all joined, after which Rev. G. C. Ivins, pastor of the Baptist church, offered the invocation, which was followed by another appropriate song in which the audience joined heartily.

The address of welcome by the President of the club was enthusiastic and sincere and the visitors took it to be so, judging by the expressions of many of them during the evening. Rev. C. A. Johnson, pastor of the First Christian Church of Brownwood, and President of the Brownwood Lions club, responded to the welcome address in a wholehearted manner, making it plain that the Club of which he was a member was in hearty accord with the objects for which the Goldthwaite club stands and its individual members appreciated the good fellowship demonstrated by our local organization and looked forward to a campaign of hearty co-operation for the benefit of west Texas, and the bringing together of the people of the two communities for mutual pleasure and helpfulness.

The Treble Clef Club, composed of Mesdames S. P. Sullivan, Al Dickerson, L. J. Garton, Claude Eacott, Duke Clements, R. V. Littlepage, Fred Martin and Miss Mildred Stephens rendered a most delightful selection and in response to an encore gave another, but the audience would not let them go until a third song was sung. Next came the male quartet, composed of D. D. Tate, Lester Berry, Chester Frazier and F. P. Bowman. They, too, received the hearty applause of the audience and were forced by the hearty encore to return to the platform and render another of their best selections.

Dinner was then announced and the immense audience of visitors, home guests and club members gathered around the table which ran the entire length of the auditorium and then across the north end of the pavilion. This table was literally loaded with good things to eat and while I enjoyed my part of the bountiful spread I am not able to recall the entire menu, but I know there was barbecue of the finest kind, bread, pickles, cheese, celery, olives and pies, and I must not forget the "stew." While personally I did not risk any of it, or maybe I had better say did not have the opportunity of enjoying it, I am sure it must have been fine, judging from the many expressions I heard all about me as Joe Palmer and Robert Littlepage passed the container again and again, filling plates, cups and bowls with

A BASE BALL CLUB ORGANIZED FOR GOLDTHWAITE

A STRONG TEAM PLANNED

A number of baseball enthusiasts met one day this week and decided to organize a genuine ball club and to put none but real players on the team. A number of young men offered for the tryout and in a few days the names of the members of the first nine will be given. Those who held the meeting elected Duke Clements manager; Raymond Little, secretary-treasurer. The following named are among those who offer for the first tryout: R. L. Steen, Jr., Hurley Wilcox, Hud. Hamilton, E. E. Stringer, Will Lane, August Kaulas, Will Page, Horace Gray, Lamar McLean, Ernest Linkenhoger, Carl Keese, Elmo Littlepage, W. C. Barnett, Clarence Heath, John Edwards, Paul Johnson, C. H. Black, Faris Jones, Otis Allen.

A subscription list was circulated among the business men Wednesday to secure funds to equip the team and a liberal response was made to the call.

The combination prepared under the skillful manipulation of Harry Palmer and Walter Jones.

I must tell of the ice cold bottle drinks supplied by our own home bottling works and the excellent coffee served to all who would accept. There was an abundant supply of everything and notwithstanding there was an assembly of possibly 150, or thereabouts, everybody had plenty to eat and there was so much left over that one was reminded of the case of the leaves and fishes, where there was more to eat at the close than at the beginning. Anyway, the Lions club did not fail to provide for satisfying the appetite of the audience for food as well as music and speaking.

After supper (or dinner I should have said) the audience was again called to order and J. C. Darroch told what he thought of Lionism and told it in his interesting and enthusiastic style. Then Julian Evans, one of the talented young men of our city, gave a reading that for humor and wit could not be surpassed by a finished actor and his "stunt" was heartily enjoyed, if one can judge by the enthusiastic applause he received.

We were next favored with a duet by Mrs. Lester Berry and Miss Myrna Miller and this was as delightful as the renditions earlier in the evening and the ladies are indeed to be congratulated.

The real object of the meeting was the delivery of the charter and this part of the program was of as much interest to the audience as any other part. Mr. J. J. Timmons, of Brownwood represented the District Governor, who could not be here, and made a talk that certainly should have been appreciated by every member of the club.

Messrs. D. D. McInroe and Wil Talbert of Brownwood were then called to the stand and led in several songs of pep and humor, which kept the audience in an uproar and made everybody forget the lateness of the hour.

Judge J. H. Baker of San Saba, a former district attorney of this district, was called on and made one of his best speeches, which very fittingly brought the program to a close and after Rev. S. D. Lambert pronounced the benediction those present spent some time in conversation and expressing good wishes for the Lions club (Continued on Page 5)

MAN DROWNED IN PECAN BAYOU

Heart Attack Fatal

Amos Green, aged 25, was drowned in the bayou in the neighborhood of the Trent farm Wednesday at noon. He had gone to the bayou with his father, Mr. C. H. Green, and several friends to spend the day fishing and picnicking. He was swimming in deep water with a small boy on his back when he suddenly sank. Those nearby rescued the child and endeavored to rescue him, but he had gone to the bottom, evidently having suffered a heart attack.

Mr. Green was reared in the Duren community, where he made his home at the time of his death. His wife died about three months ago, leaving him with two small children and they are now made orphans indeed. He was a good and upright citizen and had the respect of all who knew him. He belonged to one of the best families in the county and all who know of the deplorable accident sympathize with the bereaved relatives and especially the two little children.

Funeral services were conducted in Duren church yesterday afternoon and burial was made in the Duren cemetery, beside the grave of his wife.

W. D. COWAN DEAD

W. D. Cowan, who for twenty-five years edited the San Saba Star, died of acute indigestion or heart trouble Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock at his home in San Saba. Mr. Cowan's loss will be keenly felt by his home community and the members of the state press will also miss him sadly. He was a writer of ability and always expressed his policies and principles in clear and forceful language and his editorial columns were watched with interest and read with care. He was a scholarly and high minded man, yet genial and likable and his friends were legion. The Eagle editor feels a personal loss in his passing, for he was one of the most appreciated friends this editor claimed in the fraternity. He leaves a wife and son at San Saba and a married daughter whose home is in Austin and they have the sympathy of all the newspaper workers in Texas.

APPRECIATION FOR HELP

The Eagle sincerely appreciates the kind assistance of its correspondents who so loyally support it by sending in community letters and items of interest, but we urge them to send in their letters earlier in the week, if possible. This week it was mechanically impossible to get all of the letters prepared for this issue in time to put the paper to press, because of the fact that a large number came in on publication day—a day that is the busiest of the entire week. On this day advertisements must be prepared and much of the necessary matter for the paper must be compiled. If the correspondents will send in their letters early in the week they will have our undying gratitude.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

County Clerk Porter issued marriage license this week to Fred Webb and Miss Orin Rhodes and he received and file an application for license for Clyde Eaton and Mrs. Gladys Sharp.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Everybody seems to have more or less "vacationism" in their system, but this is the time of year when that disease breaks out all over the country. The pastor's wife has caught it and a trip to east Texas seems to be inevitable. Going to see your wife's kinfolks is a pleasant past time, and if our plans materialize such a trip will begin with us next Monday morning and will extend over the two following Sundays. The pulpit will be supplied at the regular morning hour during the absence of the pastor. The name of the supply will be announced later. On Sunday evening there will be no services at the Baptist church, and all our people are urged by the pastor to worship with the other churches of the town.

One hundred and eighty in Sunday School last Sunday. Why not make it two hundred next Sunday? Many visitors have been attending our services during this month. We are always happy to have them, so if you have a visitor next Sunday bring them to church. We have a place for them. New people are moving to our town. Let's make them feel like they are not among strangers. One of our young men stole a march on our citizenship, slipped over into another county and married him a wife. We extend to them a cordial invitation to worship with us, and this pastor will promise this young man now that if our pastors treat him as they did one time in the past that a church conference will be called immediately. We extend to all the folk that have recently moved to our town a most cordial welcome to our Sunday School, for we have a class that needs you. We also invite you to our regular church services.

Just as soon as you read these notes, if you have not helped to pay the deficit on painting of church, please go immediately to the bank and leave offering. There are two things that must be done, that is that a Baptist preacher must take care of his financial obligations promptly, and also a Baptist church. Let's eliminate this at once.

The pastor will preach at both hours next Sunday. The morning subject will be "Is Heaven a place for a man like me." The evening subject will be "Home, Sweet Home." The pastor will also preach at Liberty at 3 p. m.

Notes from this writer will appear from east Texas the next two weeks.

G. C. IVINS, Pastor.

CLEMENTS BUYS DRUG STORE

R. E. Clements and his son Rex have purchased the Hughes-Upshaw drug store in Belton and Rex is in charge of the business. He has been engaged in the drug business for a long time and for the last several years has been located in Santa Anna. He is a qualified pharmacist and a most likable young man. He and his wife have moved to Belton and he will have the benefit of his father's advice and business experience in the conduct of the new store. R. E. Clements has been engaged in the drug business here for a good many years and has prospered. His many friends are glad to see him branching out in a business way, for it is a sign of progress.

He is an employe of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in the construction department, but has frequently visited his parents here. The bride is a stranger to Goldthwaite folk, but all the friends of her popular young husband are glad to extend good wishes to them both.

The choir of 25 voices under the direction of Mr. Cameron Marshall, was wonderful in the ensemble, displaying much ability and superb supervision. The solo part by Mr. Marshall was much appreciated. Many regret that he did not have a special solo on the program.

Miss McDaniels' rendition of "Light" was very effective. She is a graduate of Mr. Marshall's class and is gifted with a lovely voice, consecrated to Christian service.

The men's chorus was a beautiful number. Singing men are one of the greatest assets a church can have. This church has a chorus of 20 men, who get joy out of singing praises to God. The male quartet with the boy tenor was a worthy tribute to the Man of Galilee. What greater work can a boy do than to use his talent in the furtherance of the Kingdom. O, that we had more boys willing to be used in this way.

May we express our grateful appreciation to Mr. Marshall and his choir for making this service so enjoyable.

Many members of the choir were former friends of ours and we hope all will be henceforth. Mr. Marshall has a host of friends and many pupils in our city. He has taught voice here at intervals for the past four years. Those who know him best are his best friends. He has directed the ladies and men of our church in chorus work. Whatever we have achieved in the vocal realm has been due to Mr. Marshall's untiring effort and direction. May we look forward to a return visit from this splendid choir and Mr. Marshall.

The message by Rev. Lewis was a very fitting one and delivered with much enthusiasm, love and devotion to the cause. Bro. Lewis is one of our young pastors, also a teacher in our training class. His message and his presence in our town has been a blessing to all who know him. We extend to him a hearty welcome at all times. A MEMBER.

MRS. LACY THOMPSON PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Lacy Thompson died at Brownwood last Sunday evening. The family had lived in Brownwood for several years, but had recently moved to this city and had started to build a residence when she became ill and desired to return to Brownwood to the doctors and nurses with whom she was well acquainted. She was confined to her bed there about two and a half months. Besides her husband she leaves her little son, Warren, nine years old to mourn her loss, also a sister, Mrs. J. W. Kimbrough of Dallas, and a brother, Charles Curtis, of Mineral Wells.

The remains were returned to her home town, Mesquite, Tex., where she was reared to womanhood, and laid to rest Tuesday afternoon.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

The wife of the negro representative from Illinois was entertained at tea a few days ago at the White House by Mrs. Hoover. The act has brought forth a storm of protest throughout the South.

Appointments to his official staff, which will cover all States of the Confederacy, will be made in a few weeks, it was said by Gen. R. A. Sneed, new commander of the United Confederate Veterans, Gen. Sneed, more than 84 years old, said the reunion at Charlotte, N. C., was one of the most successful in his long experience. He is also secretary of State of Oklahoma.

A messenger for the First State Bank of San Antonio was held up and robbed of $18,000 by two unmasked armed bandits in a daylight holdup Friday. The robbery occurred on board a street bus. One bandit boarded the bus, held the driver at bay with a gun and robbed the messenger. With the money under his arm, the bandit escaped in an auto that pulled up alongside the bus. Another unmasked man sat at the wheel waiting for his confederate.

Gen. Bramwell Booth, 73, former head of the Salvation Army, died at his home in Hadleywood, England, Sunday night. After a service of fifty-four years in the Salvation Army, sixteen of which he was commander in chief, Gen. William Bramwell Booth was removed from office in February 1929, by the high council of the army, on the ground that he was physically unfit to continue his work. It was the first time the high council had been called in session during its existence of twenty-four years and its action was contested by the aged leader from every angle.

Fire which followed a blast on the board walk swept the Lake Worth Casino Park, Fort Worth, early Monday, leaving the $1,000,000 playground in ruins. The blaze was discovered at 6:30 a. m. Fanned by a high wind blowing off the lake, it quickly got out of control of park employees, who attempted to stem destruction with four chemical carts. "Big Boy," 300 pound, $30,000 gorilla, was burned to death. Workmen described as almost human the weird cries of the giant beast as the flames licked into his cage. Actual loss on the park, largest in Texas was $500,000. Insurance totaled $75,000.

Approximately 36,000 Mexican residents of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, or about 60 per cent of the estimated Mexican population have expressed willingness or intention to return to their mother country, Mexican Consul L. Lopez Montero said following completion of a survey by the engineer of the Mexican Department of Agriculture. The survey has been made as a result of enforcement of more stringent immigration regulations along the border. Meetings with Mexicans have been held in all parts of the valley and the new immigration laws explained. De Silva at the time explained plans of his government for colonization of the national lands. He urged that they return and take up these lands.

The Senate subcommittee investigating the Texas patronage situation, including the activities of R. B. Creager, national Republican committeeman of Texas, will probably begin hearings in Texas about July 1, holding sessions in both Dallas and San Antonio. Senator Smith Brookhart, Iowa, chairman, stated recently. Recent communications from various sources in Texas have convinced the Iowa Progressive that it will be to his advantage to conduct a part of the hearings in San Antonio, but as yet he is undecided to which city he will go first, he said.

An emphatic protest was issued by the National Grange in Washington Friday against the tariff bill as adopted by the House and calling upon 800,000 members of the Grange in all parts of the United States to send their protests to the members of the Senate "in order that they may understand that the measure as it came from the House discriminates against the agricultural interests." Complaint is made that while there has been few substantial increases in rates on agricultural products, there has been a general upward revision of rates on other commodities handled and as a result the relative disadvantage of agriculture will be as great as it is now.

A special from Austin says: "Two Senators who voted in November for Republican electors went down to defeat in the Senate Friday when that body adopted a resolution declaring its 'condemnation' of Mrs. Herbert Hoover for being hostess at tea Thursday to the wife of a negro Congressman and warning Southern Democrats that continuance of such an alliance as was formed last fall 'probably will bring further shame and humiliation to Southern men and women.' The two senators who had voted for the Republican candidate for President, Thomas B. Love of Dallas and Julien C. Hyer of Fort Worth, had been willing to vote for a resolution 'deploring and condemning' the acceptance by Mrs. Hoover of a negro woman in the White House on terms of social equality, but they fought back with some show of temper when amendments were offered to chide Democrats who had departed from the party ties to further the election of Hoover.

SOVIET FINANCE

The Soviets are aching for capital but do not wish to admit it openly. They think they are proving their consistency by doing without industries which they might easily have. Their war on capital was so successful they found themselves without any, and have been trying to borrow a few hundred millions anywhere it might be had. But they demand that those who supply the capital leave its management in the hands of the Soviet politicians. That would be reasonable in a country where responsibility has marched for long with practicality, but in Russia the political theory is that a man capable of increasing capital by expanding industry is an enemy of the State. The result is that industry in that country has paid wages out of principal. If Mr. Ford comes to terms with the Soviets he will build automobiles there like he builds them here, which is by making each one pay for its successor. The Bolshevik idea is to make up one batch, sell it and divide the money, then borrow from the treasury, or somewhere else, enough capital to complete another batch. The result of such methods is excessively high cost, excessively poor quality and excessively idle workers. Combining correct business methods with State Socialism is so nearly impossible it can be defended only by Socialists, which means hardly any defense at all. Russia some time will arrive at maturity. But its period of juvenility is long and painful. —State Press in Dallas News.

PAINFUL INDIGESTION

"I suffered a good while before I found something that would help me," writes Mr. E. W. Berry, of Neosho, Mo. "My trouble was a indigestion, pains in my chest and a tight, bloated feeling that would make me feel smothered."

"Speaking of this to a friend of mine, he told me that Black-Draught was good for this trouble. I bought a package. It certainly did help me, so I continued to use it. I am in the transfer business, and sometimes when I would be hungry and ready to eat, I would have a call and would have to eat later. Then I would eat too much or too hurriedly. This would cause indigestion. After I started using Black-Draught, I found it did me a world of good."

OF BURNED OUT BEARINGS YOUR MOTOR CAN ESCAPE IT

If you've ever listened to the anvil chorus under the hood when a bearing burns out, you realize the damage that poor oil can do to a motor. Replaced bearings cost real money—a great deal more, in fact, than the cost of a year's supply of good oil.

Isn't that reason enough why you should always insist upon a brand of oil which has stood the test—a brand backed up by an organization which has spent years specializing in the lubrication needs of every type of motor?

Such are the brands offered you by the Continental Oil Company. You may be sure that an oil sponsored and sold by this organization is the right oil for your car.
You protect the bearings—and your pocket-book, too—when you ask for these brands at service stations and garages.

MORE ABOUT LIONS CLUB BANQUET

All during the evening, at frequent intervals, delightful music was rendered by our young men's orchestra, composed of Julian Evans, Tom Cryer, Herman Rudd and Wm. Glenn Yarborough, with Mrs. Fred Martin at the piano, and this music added greatly to the pleasure of the evening.

We were all delighted with the entire program from start to finish, not forgetting to mention the beautifully prepared programs printed in the Eagle office, carrying the club colors of purple and gold through the entire detail and many of the programs were eagerly seized by the audience to be kept as souvenirs or sent away to friends, to show what a lovely entertainment we had and what artistic printing could be had in Goldthwaite.

Speaking personally, yet I believe I represent the feeling of the entire audience, whether home folk or visitors, when I say the Lions club not only reflected credit on its organization, but the entire town and county was given a very creditable showing and I hope and believe that the entire citizenship appreciates this laudible and loyal organization and will give it enthusiastic support and commendation.

CHIROPRACTIC IS SUCCESSFUL WITH HAY FEVER

Hay Fever is a condition wherein the membranes of the nose and eyes are in a state of congestion and are constantly producing a profuse exudate. The eyes water, the nose runs; the patient sneezes; the discomfort continues day after day, week after week, usually until cool weather sets in in the Fall.

We have been told that Hay Fever is produced by dust as an irritant, but the cause of the hay fever lies within the individual. If this were not true, everyone would suffer from the disease. This we know is not the case. The Hay Fever victim sees many around him perfectly well yet living under the same conditions that he is. Just a moment of reasoning will show him that there is something wrong with him. Most Hay Fever victims have tried so many so-called cures that they are disgusted. Many of them have just about made up their minds that they are destined to suffer as long as they live. If they could only know that Chiropractic has been successful in many, many cases of this kind.

Our services are available. Now is the time, get the cause removed and enjoy greater health comfort this coming winter. The Hay Fever sufferers can't afford to go on year after year when relief is available now.

Take Chiropractic first. There'll be no regrets.

Published in the interest of the people of Mills County by Barnes and McCullough.

PAUL McCULLOUGH, Editor

The June bugs are coming, tra-la, la, la, and although the buzz of the fly is still round the corner, it won't be long before you see them parked on the fresh chocolate cake wifey just baked.

C. D. Bledsoe has made an addition to his home. The new addition is lined with Sheet Rock.

When Noah sailed the well-known blue, He had troubles as well as you. For days and days he drove the Ark, Before he found a place to park.

John Burnett believes in having plenty of storage for his feed crops.

A Goldthwaite lady wants to know why a man will walk all over a golf course for exercise these hot afternoons, and then objects to pushing a lawn mower around a small front yard for a half hour in the cool of the evening.

For the same reason, lady, that a fishing pole is lighter than a hoe.

Why not build a granery and save up this year's grain crop. You may need it next year.

Lady: "How much money has my husband got in the bank." Hulon Fletcher: We are not permitted to tell, madam.

Lady: But, aren't you the teller?

Love makes the world go round when the darn thing ought to be asleep.

STONE MOUNTAIN

What Mt. Vernon is to Washington, Stone Mountain is to Atlanta. Sixteen miles east of the city a solid body of exposed granite rises a mile above the valley. It is 8000 feet long and seven miles around the base. On its northern side Stone Mountain has a 1000 foot drop.

Across this mammoth granite background is being carved a panorama of at least 700 figures, counting artillery guns and gun carriages. The figures of the central group, now completed, include General Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson, President Jefferson Davis, and four other outstanding Confederate generals, all on horseback. To give one an idea of the stupendousness of this colossal sculpture, the statue of Gen. Lee is nearly 165 feet high and about the height of a fifteen-story office building. A dozen men could be seated comfortably on the brim of the hat. When completed the central group alone will immeasurably surpass every other monument of history. In addition, the plans include a Memorial Hall, chiseled from the mountain, for the safekeeping of records and relics of the Confederacy and a great open amphitheater, a granite structure rivaling the Coliseum of ancient Rome.—Texas Outlook.

A LACK OF NERVE

Notwithstanding the Eagle publishes in each issue a statement declaring that anonymous communications will not be published, never a week comes that some such communications do not arrive at the office.

Some of them contain items of public interest and some are written on subjects worthy of discussion, but the lack of moral courage on the part of the writers prevents the publication. Just why these writers continue to expend energy and more or less expense on their writings is somewhat of a mystery, for they can be assured that they will never see their effusions in print if the editor is not advised of their identity. More than this, the articles are quickly consigned to the waste basket. This week some one wrote a letter discussing a subject that might have been of interest in Goldthwaite and throughout Mills county, but he, she or it "forgot" to sign the communication.

SHORT-SIGHTED POLICY

Business men who take advantage of the disadvantages farmers must contend with in marketing their crops are not building for the future nor are they exercising the same business foresight they display in other matters. Manufacturers will spend hundreds of dollars in enlarging their facilities to take care of future business; merchants will contribute liberally to new railroads or for other commercial enterprises with the hope that it will increase the number of wage earners in their territory. At the same time they neglect a much more profitable field for investment. The same money spent in developing the agricultural resources of their own territory, and the same effort to create a profitable market for the products of the farm would pay larger dividends over a longer period of time. In many instances a prosperous agriculture has been the magnet that has drawn industry to the city, thus creating new customers from another source.

Too many other of our business men fail to realize the advantages of increasing the buying power of the farmers in their territory. Their plan of operation is to get as much out of the farmer as possible for the smallest possible outlay, and by doing this they whittle down the future possibilities of their trade territory. The farmer who receives a 7-8 in price for a 1-inch staple and the lowest possible price for other products is going to have a corn meal and molasses income. He is going to have a decreasing buying power every year. His lands will deteriorate in fertility and become poorer physically. His yields will be less from year to year, and he will buy absolute necessities. He will have no money for fence material; farm machinery, tractor, lumber, hardware; radios, pianos, good clothes and the things handled by the merchants, and the mercantile loss will be reflected in bank deposits. On the other hand, a sincere effort to give the producer all that he is rightfully entitled to will pay a constantly increasing profit to those engaged in other lines.—Farm and Ranch.

Your clothes will last longer and look better if you have them Cleaned and Pressed. Burch knows how.

For prompt service, call us for your ice.—Texas-Louisiana left Monday for Austin and other points in that section to visit relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. A. Richards displayed at the Eagle office one day this week two monster figs one measuring 8 1-2 inches in circumference and the other 7 1-2. These figs were grown in Mrs. Richards' yard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doggett Burch makes a specialty of dry cleaning and pressing all wearing apparel. Phone him and he will call for garments.

Abolish the unsanitary open privy, with its flies and contaminating seepage water, by installing a Diekey Septic Tank. The cost is small—Fairman Co.

PAINS
in Side and Back

"I HAD BEEN miserable for a long time. My health was poor, and I suffered a lot from weakness. At times, my strength was so little that I could not stand on my feet. I would have to give up and go to bed. My sides and back hurt dreadfully. I grew discouraged, for I could do so little. I worried about myself, and almost gave up hope of ever being strong and well. I could scarcely lift a bucket of water. My household work went undone, for I was not strong enough to do it. After I had taken Cardui for a little while, I began to feel better. I grew stronger, soon found that I could do my work with less effort, and the pains in my back and sides left me. I think Cardui is a wonderful medicine. My health has been excellent since then."—Mrs. D. L. Beckner, W. Main St., Salem, Va.
