Last Saturday in Ballinger, Mrs. Zella Daniels, waitress, about 30, slumped down on a business street with a fatal pistol wound.

Texans who marry under licenses mailed from Oklahoma have the marital status only in common law.

Directors of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce have gone on record as opposing the extension of the Abilene and Southern Railroad from Ballinger to San Angelo.

Until the District Court meets again in New Braunfels on Feb. 14, 1930, District Attorney Fred Blundell plans to take no action regarding the case against Rebecca Bradley Rogers.

The Prison Centralization Committee will hold its next meeting in Houston on October 1, Bob Baker, executive secretary, announced Sunday.

A new industry, that of raising lady bird beetles which have a commercial value as destroyers of the cotton cushion scale, is to soon be started in Hidalgo County.

Instead of the $910.00 he sought, John Acker was awarded damages of one cent for allegedly false arrest in Mart in 1927, by a Waco district court verdict.

This report about the possibility of doing the State's printing in the penitentiary gave considerable uneasiness to State Press.

UTILIZATION OF LAND

One of the most important elements of the farm problem is the proper utilization of land.

On nearly every farm there are fields that should be in grass. Side hills should be terraced and made into permanent pastures.

ARABS ASK HELP

A request that the American Government employ its good offices to secure fulfillment of Arab aspirations in Palestine was placed before Secretary Stimson a few days ago by a delegation representing various Arab and Moslem organizations in the United States.

The request was contained in a statement setting forth the Arab viewpoint in the recent Jewish-Arab troubles in Palestine.

IN THE FUTURE

In thirty years time the United States will rule the waves and Europe will have dropped to second or third rank.

It will be impossible in a quarter of a century for a pedestrian to walk the streets. Several cities will have to build elevated platforms to accommodate the streams of traffic going in opposite directions.

POULTRY WORMS

As cooler weather approaches the fight against worms in turkeys and chickens should be kept up.

Growers that used tobacco dust in feed during the growing period are not experiencing losses. However, if flocks show to be infested a dependable expellant must be used.

A number for widely advertised and generally used "so called remedies" have been forced off the market because found by official test to be worthless.

Furthermore, officially tested remedies are not being "peddled" but are on sale by reliable dealers.

We have a general infestation of worms in sheep and poultry. Flocks should be examined to see about worms at once.

INTOLERANT OF NOISES

Generally speaking, women are more susceptible to noise than men. Nowhere is this better illustrated than in the automobile. In the days when the motor car was largely a mechanism for masculine operation and enjoyment, very little attention was paid to the elimination of squeaks, rattles, grinding noises, vibration and the crashing, clanking sounds that emanate from the chassis and bodies of our early gasoline vehicles.

ENDING STUPIDITY

Nobody can tell just how trustworthy the new "brain extract" medicine of Dr. Eugene Steinach of Vienna is going to be.

Doctor Steinach believes that it will work a revolution in medical practice, asserting that it will cure stupidity just as quinine relieves malaria. If a dumbbell is fed the proper doses, says Doctor Steinach, he can be transformed into a wide awake and intelligent citizen.

It is quite possible that some committee of surgeons will examine Doctor Steinach's discovery and pronounce it worthless before the year ends; but for the moment, it provides something interesting to think about.

It could be a noteworthy thing to end all of the stupidity in this country; noteworthy, and a little appalling, considering the way it might affect the patronage of such institutions as moving pictures, prize fights, tabloid newspapers and flag-pole-sitting contests.

Yet, strange as life would be in a land where everybody had the proper allowance of brains, it is just possible that there are other things that we need more.

A good many of the world's troubles are due to stupidity, but not all of them.

Selfishness, jealousy, envy, hatred and fear are worse enemies. And, unfortunately, no one yet has found any new medicine that will cure them.

—Houston Press.

TIME DRAWS NEAR

On October 1st, the Eagle management expects to drop from the subscription list the names of all who are not paid up to the current year. This rule will be strictly observed in the future, as protection to the subscribers as well as the paper. No subscription will be carried beyond a year in arrears. No statements will be sent out, as experience has taught us that we do not get enough in response to pay the postage. The date of expiration is clearly printed on each paper and those who wish to know their standing need only refer to the date opposite their address on the paper. Where a name is dropped because of non-payment the amount due must be paid before the same name or the name of any member of the immediate family will be restored to the list, which means that where one or more years subscription is shown to be due and the subscription discontinued, another member of the same family can not have the paper sent to them without payment of the amount due. The management hopes that no names will have to be dropped, for the subscribers are sincerely appreciated and earnestly solicited to continue. It is simply a matter of business.

BALLENGER FARMER NOTED BIG CHANGE—

Eats Better, Sleeps Better and Works Better Since Taking Orgatone—Gains Daily

"It has been years since I enjoyed such good health or felt so well generally as I do, since taking Orgatone," said D. E. Caudle, a well known farmer residing on rural route B, Ballinger, Texas, and a well known resident of this section for the past twenty six years. Before taking Orgatone, he added, "my appetite was all right, in fact, it was ravishing and I would over eat which put my stomach in such condition that I couldn't eat anything but what would ferment and cause me trouble. I was constantly belching up my food, sour, and undigested. I was and often had sick headaches. Of course I was not what you would call a sick man, that is, sick enough to be in bed, but had gotten in such a condition, that I did not feel like working at times I was so restless that I could never get any sound sleep.

"One of my friends over at Abilene, who had used Orgatone, recommended it to me and I had hardly finished my first bottle until I noticed a big change in my condition. I commenced to eat and enjoy my meals. Before I got Orgatone my food seemed to do me very little good, but now, everything I eat agrees with me perfectly and it is giving me strength, which is pretty good evidence that my food digests properly. My nerves are in fine shape and I sleep so sound, that it takes a good, strong alarm clock to wake me up in the mornings, and has put me in shape to where my work is no longer a burden to me. I don't believe anyone suffering from stomach trouble and indigestion could take Orgatone without being benefitted, and I only wish I had known it long ago."

Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Goldthwaite, at Hudson Bros. Drug Store.

Possibility of the staging of an S. M. U. Navy football game in Dallas during the '31 season loomed Monday as the result of an announcement by State Fair of Texas officials that a $600,000 stadium with a seating capacity of 80,000 is to be constructed at Fair Park.

Flocks of wild ducks and geese have already begun their annual trek south and veteran hunters declare that from present indications marshes will be loaded with wild game this year. For the past few years there have been fewer ducks coming south than formerly.

WILL FIX STATUS

Status in the democratic party in Texas of those who voted for Hoover will not be decided until the state democratic executive committee meets in 1930, State Democratic Chairman W. D. Wilcox said in reply to an inquiry.

His personal view is that those who participated in democratic primaries and then bolted should be permitted to vote in the next democratic primary, but that they should not be accepted as democratic candidates.

A proposal to bar those who voted for Hoover from democratic primaries was made during the regular session of the 41st legislature, but Moody intervened.

GOVERNOR INDICTED

Governor Flem D. Sampson and seven members of the State Textbook Commission of Kentucky were indicted Thursday by the Franklin County grand jury on a charge of receiving gifts from publishers of textbooks. The indictments followed an investigation covering a period of almost three weeks, in the course of which representatives of several textbook companies and members of the commission were before the grand jurors. The indictments charge that the eight persons accused "unlawfully," knowingly and willfully received gifts from publishers of textbooks while serving as members of the commission.

BOYD-VIRDEN

Mr. Charles Boyd of Abilene and Miss Mae Virden were married Saturday evening in the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. J. Virden, in the southern part of this city, Rev. S. D. Lambert, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating and a number of relatives and friends witnessing the ceremony.

The groom is a business man of Abilene and while he has no extensive acquaintances here, those who met him were favorably impressed and speak highly of him, but the fact that Miss Mae accepted him as her life partner is sufficient recommendation to everybody. The bride grew to womanhood in this county and spent several years in this city, where she has the admiration and friendship of all who know her and the good wishes of everybody. The happy couple left Monday for their home in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thompson of Brownwood drove over Saturday afternoon and remained until Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Trent and Miss Rosellen Thompson, who returned home with them, as did also Miss Garetta Little, who is attending Howard-Payne college.

Jazz is Industry
In Terms of Music

RAY NICHOLS

Some one told me dreams don't come true... I got an eye-full of you — dear heart!

So Says Former Coal Mine Worker, Now Jazz King

New York City.—"Jazz is American industry translated into music." So says Ray Nichols, former coal-mine worker and railroad fireman, now one of America's leading musical directors.

"I think one must understand the rhythm of the American workman to understand jazz," he explains. "My training in my father's coal-mine was probably my greatest aid in getting the tempo and rhythm of our American jazz music. There is a certain alertness in the American workman's movements that you find nowhere else. The tempo at which he literally hurls himself into his job is just the tempo of our dance music."

"My first musical opportunity came to me through a shop band in the coal mines. It was a good band because unconsciously we translated into tone our movements in the mines.

"Just how much industry owes to music and music owes to industry will probably never be realized, as the rhythm of one is the rhythm of the other."

"The number I am requested to play most often is a foxtrot called 'An Eye-full of You,' which has the very zest and buoyancy that is so purely American. Its rhythm makes one dance, yet it is the same rhythm that speeds up the earning capacity of the workman."

"I have watched foreigners at work in the mines and I have watched foreigners on the dance floor. Neither place can they get our rhythm or tempo. Jazz tempo is purely American."

Mr. Nichols is the musical director at the Palais Royal in Newark, New Jersey, one of the largest restaurants in the United States, and therefore has ample scope for observation of dancers, Mrs. J. W. Smith of Locker, accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Ligon and children of Brady, visited in this city the first of the week.

Lacy Thompson's little son Warren was painfully, although not seriously hurt, Saturday night while crossing Fisher street, near the Baptist church, when he was struck by a passing car. The fender struck him on the hip, making a painful bruise, but no serious results will follow.

R. E. Franklin and wife of Abilene came over Saturday evening to attend the Boyd-Virden wedding and remained over Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. J. D. Brown of Fort Worth has been in the city this week visiting friends.

MISS BRISTER OF MASON
DIES HERE OF INJUR-IES RECEIVED SUNDAY

Miss Lela Brister of Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Briste of Lometa, died in a Brownwood hospital early Sunday morning less than six hours after she was injured in an automobile accident, which occurred near Llano, shortly after two o'clock the same day.

According to information received at the hospital Monday morn, Miss Brister was a visitor to the opening new hotel in Llano in which a formal dance had been given.

After the dance, she was going toward Mason in company with two men when the new Ford car in which they were riding overturned at a sharp curve about two miles out of Llano on the Mason road. The car was turned completely over, twice throwing Miss Brister about thirty feet. Her companions whose names weren't learned Monday morning escaped with minor bruises.

Immediately after the accident, one of the men called an ambulance of Llano, bringing a Dr. Grey of that city. Miss Brister was conscious for at least an hour following the accident, but later lapsed into an unconsciousness from which she never recovered.

The body was taken to Lo-meta where funeral arrangements were made Monday.
Miss Brister had operated a beauty parlor at Mason for some time.—Brownwood Bulletin.

Miss Brister was a graduate of Goldthwaite high school and had a great many friends in the city and other parts of the county, who deeply regretted the accident that cost her life.

A large number of Mills county citizens attended the funeral at old Senterfitt cemetery
Monday afternoon.

Miss Stella Cobb left last week end for Austin, to continue her studies in the State University.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barr of Norman spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. M. McErick, and family.

The pecan crop is said to be pretty good in this section, especially along the Colorado river and Pecan bayou.

Miss Mary Leigh Lane left Saturday for Everett, Liberty county, where she will teach a school this fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bournd of Brownwood visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McErick, the first of the week.

Miller's Jewelry Store, the use of quality.

Mrs. John Bowden, after visiting relatives here, went to Brownwood Sunday to spend a few weeks with relatives, before returning to her home in Fort Worth.

After have your winter clothes renovated. Search does it right.

Relatives here have been advised that Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hicks have moved from Stanton to San Angelo. They formerly lived in Goldthwaite.

Mrs. Walter Nelson of Big Lake called at the Eagle office Saturday and ordered the paper sent to her daughter, Evelyn, who is attending Northwestern University at Detroit.

At this season of the year, when we are trying to make cash go as far as it will, it is a good thing to think the Rawleigh man. Get his prices and see for yourself—S. S. HALL.

Chas. Hicks, who taught in public school of Stanton for several terms and attended the university summer school at Austin, passed through the city day en route to Astin, to enter the University for the regular term.

Congressman R. Q. Lee was Saturday renewing acquaintances and meeting many who had not known him before. C. Coekrum, one of his personal friends, conducted him to the city, and assisted him in meeting many of the folks.

Madie Swiss wrist watches of all makes, repaired by L. E. Miller the jeweler. Satisfaction guaranteed.

L. C. Carothers of Belton passed through the city Friday with a truck load of honey and a gallon jar at the Eagle office. He had more than a ton weight of the honey and was going west to dispose of it. He formerly lived here and we all wish him to be a real rustic.

W. Stewart, one of the time ranchers of the Seal section, transacted business in the big town Saturday called at the Eagle office.

Beautiful sparkling diamonds just the thing for that engagement ring. You will surely see her with one of Miller's diamonds. Best quality and at prices to suit any purse. See us at Miller's jewelry store.

Ev. C. H. Milas of North Nett was transacting business in the city Saturday. His health has not been good for some time, but he is now improving and it is hoped he will be entirely well.

Walter Brown and family left Sunday morning for Houston, where he will likely engage in business with his wife who has been there years. Mr. Brown located in this section 884 and recalls having seen deer on the range hereabouts. He sold his farm north of town to Carl Percy and also disposed of his stock before leaving.

Mrs. John S. Chesser and son dall returned last week end from a months stay in Oklahoma where they visited Mrs. Chesser's daughter, Mrs. Dan and family and also other relatives. While away Mr. Chesser managed so well for himself and his neighbors fed so well that he gained 17 pounds. Finding him doing so well, Mrs. Chesser went to Brownwood Saturday to remain Sunday with relatives.

DEMOCRATIC FASHIONS

News from Paris where the annual Fall fashion show which is supposed to set the mode for the world for the next few months is in progress, is that the "boyish figure" is passé, the latest models revealing a complete departure and the opening of a new era in women's fashions with curves and fuller lines the general tendency. And what is more, the day of the knee skirts is gone. The slim silhouette will vanish with short skirts except for sports wear. Skirts will be much longer, well below the knee, and it is generally predicted that before the Winter is over they will reach the ankle.

Well, stranger things have happened to the modes. It is the way of fashions that run to extremes, and spend little time on the way. The recent shortening of skirts and skimming of clothing materials are examples of one extreme. Not every person is endowed by Nature with a figure to bear such extremes in the fashion of clothes. The reported new styles are undoubtedly more suitable to the ordinary, average or majority, and so may be said to be more democratic, as the late modes were aristocratic, suited only to a select few figures. It is easier to adapt fashions to human contours than adapt the latter to passing fashions, and when all is said, it is more sanitary.

Recent styles in dress have been extolled as permitting more freedom of movement, which is certainly of merit, but the sanitary virtues of little clothing probably have been exaggerated a good deal. It can not be healthy for people naturally stout to bring themselves rigorously down to underweight. The style shav has much to do with dietary fads that have caused anemia and other physical ailments, and have, moreover produced economic changes of wide import.

People not intended to have "boyish silhouettes," farmers who want to sell bread, meat, potatoes and other fattening foods, and the textile industries will welcome news from Paris or anywhere else that recent extreme styles are giving way to more conservative models.—Star Telegram.

CENTER CITY AND STAR CHURCH WORK

The big meetings on Star and Center City circuit for the Methodist folks have passed for 1929.

We had fine weather and good services last Sunday at Center City and Bethel. The Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues at both places were run in good order. The pastor has no criticism to make, except for some teachers who are habitually absent from their classes at Sunday school. Come on Ma and Pa.

The pastor will preach next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. at South Bennett, then at Star that night at 7:30.

We hope to have Bro. Bart, our presiding elder on the Llano district, with us the first week in October. He will begin his lectures at the Center City church Wednesday night, Oct. 2, about 8 o'clock. We are hoping for a good number to take this course. Then in the day time he is due to lecture at Star. We hope folks from Moline, Atherton and other places will see fit to come to Star.

On Saturday, Oct. 5, at 3 p. m., the fourth quarterly conference for the Star and Center City circuit will be held at Center City. It is hoped that all officials will attend.

Would You Know One If You Saw It?

If you ever came face to face with a germ, would you recognize it? Of course it is not likely that you ever will see a germ, unless you own a tremendously powerful microscope, for you would have to magnify one over a thousand times to make it as big as a pin head. But you should recognize the fact that these tiny germs can get into your blood stream through the smallest cut, and give you typhoid fever, tuberculosis, lockjaw, blood poisoning, and many more dangerous and perhaps fatal diseases. There is one sure safeguard against these dangers—washing every cut, no matter how small, thoroughly with Liquid Borosone, the safe antiseptic. You can get Liquid Borosone at

BURNING OF STUBBLE

Oklahoma wheat farmers and some in the Texas Panhandle are having quite a controversy over the question of burning the stubble after the grain has been combined. Quite a number of farmers have testified that they produce a better crop after burning the stubble and straw than they do if it is turned under. It is claimed that the straw does not rot readily with a limited rainfall, and that when plowed under it causes the land to dry out quickly. On the other hand, it is claimed that where the stubble is burned the soil blows badly, and as some farmers have testified, it only takes a few years before yields are reduced. Some college men by their statements, indicate that they have their doubts about the advisability of plying under the stubble of grain or corn and cotton stalks.

It would seem that the costly experience of land-owners in the red lands of Oklahoma would be sufficient to convince any reasonable person that the constant removal of vegetation from the soil without returning any of it eventually results in destructive erosion, lifeless packed soil, and low yields. It has been the history of agriculture throughout all time that the lack of organic matter in soil is the chief cause for abandoned farms. That no matter how much commercial fertilizer is applied, if the humus is missing the yields are low in both quantity and quality.

One may take comparatively virgin soil and get away with the burning of stubble and stalks for a number of years, but eventually that land becomes less and less profitable in its production. Farm and Ranch is at a loss to understand how any specialist, with a knowledge of agricultural history, can express even a doubt regarding the benefits to be derived by returning organic matter to the soil. Easy work and maybe an increase in yield for a season or two proves a temptation to many one-crop farmers, but in the end physically poor soils and low yields follow.—Farm and Ranch.

CONSERVING OLD ROADS

The value of conserving old gravel, macadam and paved roads as foundations for new, stronger and more permanent highways, is being realized to a greater extent every year. In many instances the difference in cost of constructing an entirely new base and of utilizing the old one is as much as 50 per cent, while time saved runs as high as 70 per cent. The type of wearing surface to be selected for resurfacing depends upon several factors, among them first cost, adaptability and nature of the traffic. Unless traffic requires such paving as granite blocks, it has been found that an asphaltic mixture meets requirements for resurfacing exceptionally well. It is being used more extensively every year not only as a road salvaging material but for new road construction.

PAINS Went Away

"I WAS very much run down in health. I had a dreadful ache across the middle of my back. I had a dull, tired feeling, and I dreaded the thought of having to do my household tasks. I was tired when I got up in the morning. I got no rest from my sleep, and I was sleepy all day long.

"My husband got a bottle of Cardui for me. It was not long before I began to show a decided improvement. My strength began to return and I felt much more like myself. The sleepy spells gradually quit and the pains in my back and sides disappeared.

"Cardui is a splendid tonic for women. I proved it for myself."—Mrs. J. E. Shelley, Box 22, R. F. D. 1, Electra, Texas.

LUNCH OR DINNER

The fellow who began calling dinner a lunch should have been shot. He is responsible for some people calling supper dinner. Think of eating lunch at 12 o'clock. A lunch is not a meal at all; it's a biscuit and a piece of meat wrapped in a paper to eat when you are away from home and hotels. No greater insult can be given than to ask one to take lunch at noontime. At that hour one doesn't want a handout; he wants beans and peas, greens, hog jowl, onions, and such things. Think of a good old dinner horn calling you to "lunch." Dinner is the noon meal; supper the meal when you eat what's left over from dinner.—The Frontier Times.

If you have any of the following symptoms, we have the remedy, no matter what your trouble has been diagnosed: Nervousness, stomach trouble, loss of weight, loss of sleep, sore mouth, pains in the back and shoulders, peculiar swimming in the head, frothy-like phlegm in throat, passing mucus from the bowels, especially after taking purgative, burning feet, brown, rough, or yellow skin, burning or itching skin, rash on the hands, face and arms resembling sunburn, habitual constipation, (sometimes alternating with diarrhoea), copper or metallic taste, skin sensitive to sun heat, forgetfulness, despondency, and thoughts that you might lose your mind, gums a fiery red and falling away from the teeth, general weakness with loss of energy. If you have these symptoms and have taken all kinds of medicine, and still sick, we especially want you to write for booklet.

MR. W. L. MILLER

Mr. W. L. Miller, 103 W. 38th St., Austin, Texas, whose picture appears here, writes: My health had been on the decline for four years; I had not been able to work for nearly two years. I tried five of the best doctors, but continued to get worse. Through the kindness of a lady friend, I was induced to try Dr. Rountree's treatment. I commenced taking the treatment Oct. 2nd, 1928, and felt an improvement in one week after I began. I gained 35 pounds in weight in four months. Now Jazz Is Called Gaelic In Its Origin

TOM TIMOTHY

Keening of Bagpipe Supplies Theme of American Music

New York City.—Jazz has had its origin traced to Africa, India, and to most countries of the world, and now comes Tom Timothy, the one Irish orchestra leader on Broadway to declare that our jazz is really Gaelic.

"From our early bagpipe music," explains Timothy, "comes much of the modern American music. The keening motifs of the bagpipe were taught to the Irish by the singing of the little people in a night mist—or what the superstitious Irish thought were eerie people. Perhaps it was the wind. Anyway the sound was handed on and there is a great similarity between our modern saxophone music and bagpipe music. It won't be long before we have bagpipes in all the dance orchestras.

"Gotta Big Date With A Little Girl," is just full of Irish suggestions. It fairly aches to be played on the bagpipes. It sounds like one of the tunes founded on one of the merry pranks of the little people whose pagan music the bagpipers love to play.

Mr. Timothy leaves soon for Ireland to awaken the Irish bagpipe players to interest in our
