LIONS CLUB BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT

Entertain Members and Guests

The Lions Club banquet at the Goldthwaite Inn Tuesday night was one of the best attended and most enjoyable affairs of that character ever planned by the club. Almost the entire membership was present, including some new members, and the club guests were the members of the cast in the recent play presented at the school auditorium under the auspices of the Lions Club.

The program was interesting, the menu fine and the good fellowship was delightful and while business was eschewed, because of the presence of the guests, there was enough discussion of civic affairs to prove that the influence of the club and its work is being felt throughout the community.

Following is the program presented at this time:

Our new members and our guests—T. F. Toland.

The pleasure of organizing and drilling an amateur theatrical—Mrs. Roy Rowntree.

What the Lions club could do, should do and will do—D. H. Harrison.

Humorous reading, "A visit to the city"—Julian Evans.

How the city administration will co-operate with the Lions club—Joe A. Palmer.

MRS. L. E. MILLER ENTERTAINS

Tuesday, March 26, was a blustery spring day, but a gracious hostess, a charming home decorated with red buds and and lilies and a perfectly appointed party caused Mrs. Miller's guests to bask in her hospitality and forget the disagreeable wind.

Three tables of progressive bridge played several games. Mrs. Will Trent held high score and said the prize would be considered a birthday gift. Mrs. Randolph assisted Mrs. Miller receive and since it was her wedding anniversary, she also received a gift.

A dainty refreshment plate of molded salad, cheese niblets, potato chips, olives, fruit cake and tea with cakes of sugar molded in the form of spades, hearts, diamonds and clubs proved a substantial lunch.

Mrs. Jno. G. Schooler of San Angelo was an out of town guest.

HOME COMING

Among those who attended a home coming of the family of G. W. Jackson Sunday were: Miss Bettie Lee Jackson of Austin, Miss Theo, who is teaching at Rock Springs, and Miss Fannie, who is head of the chemistry department of Baylor College. Two of the Baylor girls, Miss Nellie Ruth Munford and Miss Grace Allen, accompanied Miss Fannie home.

Norman Jackson who is in the aviation service at Kelly Field and met with a serious accident by coming in contact with an electric wire and was severely burned, was also able to be present.

BOY SCOUT LECTURE

There will be an illustrated lecture at the Methodist church tonight, under the auspices of the Boy Scouts. All members of that organization and their parents are especially invited to attend and all others will be welcome. No admission charge.

Mullin High School Pupils Entertain Guests

A Pleasing Program and Nice Menu

The annual Junior-Senior banquet of the Mullin school was held last Saturday evening and was one of the most delightful of the many enjoyable affairs held in the auditorium at that place. The table extending across three sides of the large room, and was seated on both sides and laden with a delightful menu, planned and prepared by the Junior class and their helpers in honor of the Seniors, the Faculty, School Board and a number of invited guests. The room was beautifully decorated in the class colors of pink and white, which colors were extended to the table decorations as well as the lights.

A very interesting program had been formulated and its rendition was most creditable to all taking part, as well as these who arranged it. From the time Superintendent Scott made the opening announcements until the school song was sung by the pupils, joined by others of the gathering, there was not a dull moment and a happy spirit pervaded the hall throughout the entire time and everybody expressed delight over being in attendance.

Mullin school holds a high place in the educational system of Mills county and its student body reflects careful training and efficient instruction. For many years the school has been constantly building, it has never been on a higher plane than now, with full affiliation and a curriculum that would do credit to a school in one of the larger cities. Superintendent Scott and his faculty, backed and supported by the School Board, should have full credit for the accomplishments and they are given that credit by all who are acquainted with the situation and condition. The graduating class of twenty-eight is an indication of the splendid work being accomplished, while the high qualifications required of the teachers proves that the Superintendent and the Board expect to continue to make advancement in their educational system.

The program as rendered, a printed copy of which was placed at each plate, is here given:

RELATIVE OF FORMER CITIZEN DEAD

The friends here of the Gillespie family deeply sympathize with them in the death of Mrs. Gillespie's uncle at Ladonia Tuesday. An account of his death in a special to the Dallas News from Ladonia says: "Frank P. Moring, 55, a well-known jeweler of this city, died suddenly Sunday afternoon. He was auto riding with his daughter and had just finished fixing a flat tire when he dropped dead. He has been a resident of Ladonia for thirty-five years and was one of the principal property owners here. He is survived by his wife and one son and one daughter."

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The services were well attended and encouraging last Sunday. A very large number attended the Bible study from 10 to 10:40 a. m. and one of the largest numbers we have had attended the eleven o'clock service. Thirty-eight young people were present at the Young People's Class Sunday evening. The evening service was well attended and Brother S. C. Bailey, who is traveling in the interest of Boles Orphan Home at Greenville, Texas, made a short talk at the close of the service and asked for a freewill offering for the orphans and a hearty response was made. The Goldthwaite congregation also sent the fifth Sunday's contribution to the home, both offerings was about $40 and several of the merchants contributed merchandise and money to the amount of thirty-eight dollars. All told about $78 in money and merchandise was donated. Goldthwaite people always extend a helping hand to the needy. May the Lord bless each of you.

We had the largest crowd at prayer meeting last Wednesday night we have ever had. There were 88 present. This is very gratifying indeed. It is a real pleasure to labor with people who respond to the work as they do here. I am asking for a supreme effort next week and let's have one hundred at prayer meeting next Wednesday evening. We are expecting a record attendance next Lord's Day. Be sure to be with us. You are welcome at all services.

Picnic Supper

The Fidelis Class met at the fair park Tuesday afternoon for a real feast.

The teacher and assistants made special preparation in advance and every thing was ready when we arrived. After we finished the meal some one suggested that we take a walk. In reality I think Miss Grace considered this her invitation. We always enjoy these occasions and we are hoping they will occur frequently during the summer.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The workers conference at Long Cove last Monday was one of the best that we have had. Those people of that community know how to entertain a crowd of visitors. Fellowship was never better and a real old fashioned dinner was served at the noon hour. In the afternoon service, we had one to surrender for special work and two converted. If we have done nothing else in these workers conferences, the fact that two souls were saved has more than paid for all the time and money, as well as worry for all of them.

It is impossible for all our people to attend these conferences, but it is not impossible for all to lend their influence as well as their prayers for its success. There is nothing that will keep the spiritual life of an association up or what it ought to be like that of our workers conference. It is a pity that more of our people, and more of our churches, would take part. The next meeting will be held with the Rock Springs Baptist church, and the next with the Midway church.

Splendid congregations at all services at the Baptist Church last Sunday. A number of out of town visitors were present. Too many to give their names. We are always glad to have them. They are an inspiration to our services.

Some one who would not give their name called this pastor on the phone and asked when were we Baptists going to put on another campaign for Sunday School? We inaugurated a campaign the first Sunday that I began my present pastorate to get folk to Sunday school and to the preaching services. This campaign will continue as long as this preacher is pastor of this church, and if he ever goes to another field of labor just such another campaign will be inaugurated on the first Sunday of his pastorate.

The reason that we have succeeded in this long campaign and the reason that we will continue to succeed, is because the majority of our membership are loyal to their church and a person can not be loyal to his church without being loyal to God. And when people are loyal to their church, God will bless them and make them a blessing. There is one thing that I crave for the membership of my church above every thing else, and that is, every member will give God His rightful place in their lives. Brother, if we will do this there will be no question as to the results. When men live for God they will live for each other. When men love God they will love each other.

Remember that the Methodists will be in a revival next week, and let's all get in on this campaign. Let's have a good meeting. Some people think unless you send for a preacher and a singer of national reputation you cannot have a meeting. Preachers do not carry revivals in their pockets. Singers do not carry choirs in their pockets. On the other hand, some think that you have to pay a thousand dollars to have a meeting, and think that this money must go away from home. Now listen! If you don't want a real meeting at the Methodist church next week, you had better not support it like you would if there was a nationally known preacher and singer coming to town. Now, Mr. Baptist, I want you to give that Methodist pastor your prayers and your presence. Let's fill that church every night. We will have our regular services Sunday and Sunday night, but on next Sunday night there will be no services at the Baptist church. We will attend the closing services of the Methodist meeting.

THE TELEPHONE GIRL

The telephone girl sits in her chair And listens to voices from everywhere She hears all the gossip, she hears all the news. She knows who is happy and who has the blues. She knows all the sorrows, she knows all the joys She knows every girl who is chasing the boys She knows all the trouble, she knows all the strife, She knows every man who quarrels with his wife; She knows every time one is out with boys, She knows the excuses each fellow employs. She knows every woman who has a dark past, She knows every fellow who's inclined to be fast. In fact there's a secret beneath each cute little curl Of that quiet, demure looking telephone girl. If the telephone girl told all that she knows, She'd turn many friends into bitterest foes. She'd sow a small wind that'd soon be a gale. She'd engulf some in trouble and others in jail. She'd let go a story that, gaining in force, Would cause half the wives to sue for divorce. She'd get all the churches mixed up in a fight, And turn many days into sorrowing night. In fact, she would keep the Submission of the case of T. B. Love of Dallas, seeking a mandamus to compel the state democratic executive committee to place his name on the primary ballot, was postponed from April 9 to April 16, by the Supreme Court.

In District Court at Austin, Judge George Calhoun Friday granted temporary injunction restraining the Department of Agriculture from enforcing a quarantine against the importance of citrus nursery stock from Florida by the Black Nursery Company of Donna. The injunction was granted on allegations that the proclamation, in error technically is void. It was attacked on the principle that a Legislature has no authority to confer legislative powers on an executive.

Texas will benefit in the enlarged Federal aid highway program during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, to the amount of $7,576,384. Approximately this sum will be allotted to the State for the fiscal years ending June, 1932 and 1933, so that the full enlarged Federal program means that Texas will receive of Federal Funds for the period the total of $22,729,152. When it is considered that the State will be required to match the Federal Government dollar for dollar in order to receive the indicated aid, the full Texas program for the three-year period would be $45,458,304.

MR. COBB'S LETTER

When the Eagle shook the sleet and snow from his wings and lit on our desk this, (of course) usual cold morning in Corpus; we had just been to a roaring fire and was warm enough to begin reading column 1 page one, telling about that good rain all over Mills county which we had longed for all the dry months to hear had come, that we might rejoice with you for that which you had been looking for so long. We were just getting in a good way with our wishes when our eyes dropped to article two, column one, where the Editor was pulling off that heavy snow and sleet fall which reminded us that our distance from the fire lent enchantment to the fact that it is not easy to keep warm in this southern clime with the Old Bird shaking all that snow and sleet down almost in your face. Bro. Bob has always had a tact for mixing the bad with the good to keep from shocking the nerves of those who are looking for the best, so he gave the report of the good rain first then on top of the good wet sleet and snow right on top of the rain, making it all good and that made the scribe think of sauce on cake or pie and a look at his watch showed the minute hand had slipped by the hour hand at 12, which said "dinner." I am gone until something else happens. It sure happened. Since I stopped to go to dinner I had such varied experiences I can't begin to tell all, but one very important occurrence came along which attracted not only my attention but others. It was a birthday on 3-31-30 where the old scribe of the 8 had disappeared and saw where the 0 to the right the 8 had found a 1 for a companion for the next twelve months. Do you catch on: If you don't I will just hint a little starter for you. The people here heard something drop and I was facing five invitations to eat dinner with 5 different people at 5 different places and call every dinner a birthday affair. That caused my thinker to think, and to show how nicely I started off I said, "I will eat with you at 5:30 p. m. on the 30th and with you 12:30 on the 31st and without any further suggestions as to how and when I thought it would be wise to try two and wait for results. Now ladies and gentlemen, I am here to tell you when I swallowed the last bite of that strawberry short cake with whipped cream at No. 2; it occurred to me I had best call off any further invitations to any further birthday dinners just to accommodate that old 81.

This Tuesday noon, and as strange as Bro. Bob may think of my decision, I am motioning No. 3 not to come my way for fear of breaking the warning "not to do evil to anyone" might be laid up against it. Isn't it great to be permitted to live among such good people? Would it not be fine to have nerve enough to ask those who think so much of you to let the birthday remain as it is and have the good will or good eats, come in every two months until all are exhausted? I mean the dinners and not the future invitations. Ha! ha! I can almost hear Woodrow Wilson at Mullin saying "Say, old boy, can't you be persuaded to hush!" Yes Sir! I am done.

Tomorrow meeting at Church, allow me to invite as many as you can Sunday guests and see how glad I told them. Stop right here sell enough to have my ready to please women and crossed. More anon. We have roof coating referring at a next thirty day. R. E. and

Modern Music Makes Us A Healthier Nation

GUS ARNHEIM

Gus Arnheim Finds Effects of Dance Tunes Beneficial to Youth of Today

Los Angeles—Is dancing and our modern dance music making a healthy nation of us? Gus Arnheim, famous orchestra director, thinks they are. "With the growth of large cities, and the exchange on the part of millions of an urban for a rural life, dancing and golfing has completely taken the place of haying and hoeing," contends Arnheim. That this is a change for the better Arnheim believes, is shown in the more equal muscular development of young men and women of today. To the past generation, exercise was work, today we make our pleasures, exercise. Modern household improvements have freed women from long hours of dreary work and given them the time and energy to find exhilarating exercise in dancing and outdoor sports.

dent. The two were rushed to a Temple hospital in a Lampasas ambulance, after being given first aid treatment. Mrs. Terry suffered a severe scalp wound but was resting very well late Monday night. The little boy was critically injured but stood the pains manfully, it was said.
He had lacerations on the head, a deep cut into the side of the right eye, and serious cuts and bruises on the body and legs.
He was reported doing fairly

LAMPASAS

The spring term of district court will open in Lampasas Monday, April 14.
After a lingering illness of several months, John Oliver died at his home in Lampasas, Tuesday evening, April 1, at 8:45 o'clock. He had been in poor health for the past three years, being treated here and at Temple during that time.
The home of Mr. and Mrs.
Silas Shedburn at Lake Victor was burned Wednesday morning. The house and practically all the contents were a complete loss, according to information coming to this office. The origin of the fire is unknown, the roof being on fire when discovered.
Mrs. Vivian Hodges was arrested in Gatesville Monday and brought here, where she was placed in jail charged with the murder of Mrs. Smith near Evant. Her bond was placed at $5,000, which was furnished and she was released to await the action of the grand jury, which will be convened at the regular term of court beginning April 14. About a month ago, according to Sheriff Faubion, Mrs.
Hodges struck Mrs. Smith with a stick of wood when they had a disagreement at their homes near Evant. At that time Mrs.
Hodges was charged with murder and released on a bond of $1,000.00, but when Mrs. Smith killed from the injury, according to the informant, the charge was placed at murder and the bond increased accordingly.—Record.

The Highway Department's

tacks and other metals has been gathered. It is interesting to watch the machine work and to see the metal objects gathered from the roadways. Much of this would have done damage to automobile casings or caused autoists trouble with punctured tires. This is a fine service

GOLDTHWAITE FIRM LEADS WAY

A special from Goldthwaite to the Uvalde Leader says in Part:
"G. H. Frizzell and Company of this city have led the way for the growing wool and mohair production in the county, since the first carlot of mohair went out fifteen years ago. Now after twenty years of business the firm handled 280,000 pounds of wool and 100,000 pounds of mohair in 1929.
Mr. Frizzell, once a cowman, bought cattle in the San Angeles section, paying Tol Cowley at one time $11 a head for 1-200 head of cows. Now he handles wool and mohair and buys peccans and other products in his business.
He says the ranchmen are much more prosperous since they began the grazing of sheep and goats and that the business community is also more prosperous."

KONJOLA ONLY MEDICINE THAT DID ANY GOOD

New Medicine Banished Kidney and Stomach Ailments After Others Failed

MR. M. D. ABBOTT

"I suffered for two years with kidney trouble," said Mr.
M. D. Abbott, 600 East Hattie street, Fort Worth. "I have scarcely been able to do any work. Lifting, or turning my body was the signal for severe back pains. Night risings were frequent. My stomach, too, added to my misery. Anything I ate caused gas and a severe pain in the pit of my stomach.
"Konjola is the only medicine that did me any good. I now feel better than I have for many a day. I can eat what I wish without suffering and the pains in my back are gone. My kidneys now are functioning normally. Konjola has gone right to the spot in my case and I praise this wonderful medicine for all that it has done for me. A medicine that did all Konjola did for me can help others and I am recommending it to a lot of my friends who are suffering as I did." Konjola is not a "cure-all." There is no such thing. But when taken for from six to eight weeks, Konjola will produce amazing results. The countless thousands of endorsements of Konjola have proven that it makes good, even in the most stubborn cases.
Konjola is sold in Goldthwaite, Texas, at Hudson Bros. drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

PICKING UP NAILS

The Highway Department's

magnets for use in picking up nails and other metallic substances from the highways, has been run over most of the highways in this county and as a

AGGRESSIVE LEADERSHIP

United action by municipal and civic bodies, in cooperation with State and national authorities, provides the logical approach to a solution of the growing problem of traffic congestion, resulting in a vast annual toll of deaths and injuries, according to a committee of the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety.
The automobile accident problem, in opinion of Lewis A. De Blois of National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, has reached a stage where it cannot and will not solve itself. "There must be aggressive leadership among citizens and civic organizations, adequately supporting and cooperating with public and police authorities, and campaigning for careful driving, reduction of accidents, protection of children and aged persons and cutting down the volume of traffic law violations," he says.
Millions of motorists break traffic laws which are unenforcible because out of date. This causes disregard of more important traffic regulations. As a result, thousands upon thousands of people die annually in accidents that are largely preventable. We need modernized traffic laws for both pedestrians and auto mobiles, sanely and fairly enforced.

MANUFACTURING CRIMINALS

During 1929, 43 states passed 16,921 new laws out of a total of over 50,000 which were proposed. This is at the rate of 46 laws per day, including Sundays and holidays. It is no wonder that practically every American city has a "crime wave" of some magnitude. As a nation we are burdened with the greatest weight of laws in world history—many of them obsolete, conflicting and unenforcible.
Patrick Henry once said that one of the things necessary to the maintenance of free government was a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles. During the past quarter-century we have strayed about as far from the fundamental principles established by the founders as possible. As a fact we have more crime than any other nation in the world. Let us stop passing laws that react against good citizens and get after the real criminals.
Make justice swift and sure.
Do away with legal technicalities. Weed out the vast amount of waste matter in the statute books.

REDUCING AUTO ACCIDENTS

Certain Eastern States have reduced automobile accidents through license laws requiring examination of all new drivers, and enforced by a centralized state motor vehicle bureau, according to Sidney J. Williams, Director of the Public Safety Division of the National Safety Council. So far only 17 of the 48 states have passed such, and all but five of these are in the East. There is certainly something amiss when any person, irrespective of his mental and physical qualifications, is al-

SIGNS ON HIGHWAYS

This being campaign year we will be very soon faced with the problem of candidates' posters and other advertising information of that nature on State highways. We have, for the past three years, barred advertising from the rights-of-way and this has prevented merchants and others from using said rights-of-way for informing the traveling public of their wares.

Two years ago we did not interfere with candidates' posters for the reason that many thousands of them were already on the rights-of-way before we were aware of the extent of the problem, but we wish this year to consider such signs of the same nature as merchants' or business men's advertising and prohibit their erection on the rights-of-way.

We consider that with such notice given in advance it will not be detrimental to anyone and will be fair to all, and the commission does not believe that any discrimination should be made between candidates for public office and merchants or others advertising.

Yours very truly,
GIBB GILCHRIST,
State Highway Engineer.

A CARD SYSTEM

The Eagle management has adopted the plan of notifying subscribers by a card system at time their subscriptions will or have expired. This plan was made necessary by some of our friends objecting to having their names dropped from the Eagle subscription list without notice. Under the new plan, two weeks will be given between the mailing of the card and dropping the name. The card asks if the paper is wanted and it would seem reasonable that a subscriber ignoring the notice does not want the paper. It is sincerely hoped that every one receiving a card notice will at once renew their subscription. Incidentally, there is only a few more days of the special offer of the Eagle and Semi-Weekly News for $1.75.

New York City—The stage is Ruth Etting, singer, dancer, knowledge of a four figure a week contract at hand.

"A painter may paint master-great that the masterpieces may not be discovered until after the painter is buried, and the musician may never have enough money to hire a hall," declares Miss Etting. "This is especially true when the artist happens to be a woman. A career on the stage, if the woman is truly talented, brings its reward, both monetary and artistic, while the woman is still young enough to enjoy that reward. The world of the theatre is a rapid moving world, and more or less faithful once it has placed the laurel wreath on a favorite. To a woman who makes good on the stage there are many profitable years

My head hurt me until sometimes I would be al-

You may ruin pistons and cylinders when you fail to drain winter-worn oil!

Scratching engine surfaces that should be kept as smooth as glass—that's the action of "winter-worn" motor oil! Gritty, weak, diluted! Every hot day it stays in your engine, speed and power dwindle. Get rid of it today!

Refill with Texaco. This clean, golden oil is as easy on pistons as Persian rugs are to your feet. It makes every piston stroke smoother, safer, surer.

On all moving parts it forms a sturdy film that acts as armor against injurious friction. That's why with Texaco, engines forget to grow old though the speedometer says that they are!

Because your car needs it—stop today for a fresh supply of Texaco—the golden oil that has made the Texaco Red Star with the Green T a symbol of security to the motorists of the world!

*There is another equally important reason for draining your old oil. Not only is it diluted and dirty, but very likely it is Winter grade. And for hot weather driving your engine demands Summer grade oil. The makers of your car—the dealer who sold it to you—the manufacturer's service agent—all make this an important point. **

A NEW CANDIDATE

Elder I. A. Dyches is announced in this issue of the Eagle as a candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector. It has been known for some time that a number of his friends and supporters were urging him to offer for the position, therefore, his announcement is not a surprise. Mr. Dyches is an elder in the Christian church and has held many meetings, served many charges and conducted marriage ceremonies and funerals in all parts of the county, hence has a wide acquaintance and is universally liked and trusted. He served the county for six years as Tax Assessor a few years ago and is familiar with the tax rolls and other matters in connection with the county's business. He has friends all over the county and well wishers everywhere.
He is so well known that an introduction is not necessary, but the Eagle desires to tell of some of his good qualities anyway.

THE GOLDTHWAITE EAGLE

The attorney general has been requested by the governor to investigate the charge that oil companies have entered into an agreement to refrain from bidding on University oil land, because of the regents requiring one sixth royalty, instead of one-eighth as heretofore.

There was a monster celebration in Salt Lak City Sunday, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the church by Joseph Smith. Communicants were present from all parts of the world. A pageant was presented with 1000 people taking part.

Treasury agents will visit 40 Texas cities during the summer to survey their needs for federal buildings. Senator Tom Connally was informed by the post-office department. Each city showing postal receipts of $20,000 or more during 1929, but which does not now have a federal building, is eligible for a new structure.

President Straton D. Brooks of the University of Missouri school board of curators Saturday, climaxing what was termed a reign of "mental terror and faculty unrest" by his critics. He will be succeeded as president by Dean Walter Williams, for more than a score of years head of the Missouri school of journalism, which he founded as the first of its kind in the world.

Five bombs were discovered at a corner of the Garden of Eden, last Sunday it is reported. The discovery gave rise to alarm reports in the city, the Arabs in particular trying to connect it with the fact that the Nebi Musa procession, one of the biggest feasts of the year, which takes place soon, passes along the route skirting the garden and intimating that the bombs were placed there by Jews.

Work began last week on a unique engineering project in the valley below Lake Abilene—the source of Abilene water supply, by which it is hoped to retrieve water which seeps from the lake and escapes in deep strata of sand. An experimental test has been recovering about 500,000 gallons daily, it is estimated that with the completion of the water-collecting gallery across the valley about 2,000,000 gallons will be recovered daily. A similar project is under way below a municipal lake at Sweetwater.

The constitutionality of that of the Nebraska sterilization of feeble-minded persons, under certain conditions, was held Saturday. At the same time the court held unconstitutional its application to insane patients and habitual criminals. The court ruled that insanity differs from feeble-mindedness in that insane persons sometimes are cured, and that the law is too broad to be constitutional where habitual criminals are concerned. Attorneys for a feeble minded youth the state sought to sterilize announced they would appeal to the state supreme court.

Called for questioning in regard to his stand against prohibition, John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Friday testified before the Senate Lobby Committee that he had "no right to commit the Democratic party on either side of the question." After testifying he had contributed between $65,000 and $66,000 to the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, of which he is a director, Raskob asserted that he was careful not to mix his personal beliefs on prohibition with the affairs of the Democratic National Committee.

COTTONSEED OIL BECOMING BY-PRODUCT

Not many years ago cottonseed were bought and crushed for the purpose of extracting the oil. The cottonseed cake and meal was a valuable by-product of the mills. That may be true today, but the distance between the value of the meal and oil is narrowing. Today the mills find no trouble in disposing of their cottonseed cake and meal at a fair price, but the oil, once the main product, is moving slowly and at a low price. That this has influence on the price mills are able to pay farmers for their seed cannot be questioned. If the manufactured product becomes a drug on the market, then the producer of the raw material can expect nothing else than a decrease in the price offered him.

The reason for the depressed market for cottonseed oil is found in the rapid expansion of the coconut industry in the Philippines. The American farmer is protected against importations from other sections of the world, but not from the Philippines. Great areas have been planted to coconuts in the Philippines of recent years. Large concessions have been made to foreign interests and today they are shipping thousands of tons of copra (dried coconut meats) to this country and millions of pounds of oil. Coconut oil is produced at small cost once the great groves are in bearing. Labor is obtained for a few cents per day, and the only extra cost is transportation to this country, because Philippine products come in free of duty. Thus we have a form of competition with American farm products which extends into every State where vegetable and animal oil is produced.—Farm and Ranch.

Stars of Musical Shows Tell Women How to Win In Photographic Contest

Too much rouge, lipstick or powder may mean the difference between winning or losing the title of America's Loveliest Mother in the prize contest conducted by photographers in the United States and Canada," said Miss Mitzi Hilyer, famous Hungarian musical comedy star of "Sardi," in an interview with officials of the Photographers' Association of America at the Cleveland offices.

From Harpo Marx of the Four Marx brothers, known for their musical comedies, "The Four Coconuts" and "Animal Crackers," comes this advice: "In posing, follow the manner of the professionals. They make a study of posing and do it skillfully and yet in the photographs they look so much at ease that the pose is not apparent. By posing in this easy, informal way, I am sure mothers will have a better chance of winning awards in the photographers' prize contest."

Awards Are Large Awards running from $1500 to $25 will be paid to the 232 loveliest mothers and 232 most attractive children selected by the judges, Mary Roberts Rinehart and Fannie Hurst, famous authors, and Charles Aylett, president of the Photographers' Association of America, after the close of the contest at midnight, May 10, the day before Mother's Day.

Thousands of photographs of lovely mothers and attractive children are being mailed to association headquarters in Cleveland and photographers expect an unusually large influx of pictures at Easter time. The new Easter things will then be worn and mothers and children who have photographs taken may mail them to the headquarters of the association in Cleveland for submitting to the judges.

The association is making suggestions for the obtaining of satisfactory results in photographs and the experience of theatrical people bears out the suggestions.

Photographic Rules to Follow To find out how color in dress will photograph, consult the local photographer. Some colors come light, others dark. For children select dainty frocks which photograph light. Men and boys photograph well in either light or dark suits. Rouge gives a dark, hard appearance to a picture and powder sometimes affects the tone. Use them only on advice of the photographer. Furs are softening in a picture and are good, but the style of hair is so brief that they had better not be worn. Babies and small children should also be caught in the graceful, unconscious positions and should not be taught to pose. The expression will be best if a person faces the camera when rested. The best time to photograph babies and young children is after restful sleep.

Color of World's Music Now Modern American

ELLA SHIELDS

Jazz Rhythm Has Had Far-Reaching Effect

New York City.—Modern American music has had a far-reaching influence. Wherever new music is being created, whether it be in England, France, Italy or new Russia, the color is supplied by American rhythm. This is the belief of Ella Shields, an American girl who has just returned to our shores after becoming the idol of the English music halls. "I must say that a foreigner sometimes goes the American one better as he did in an English fox trot song, done the American way, that I am singing—'Mama's Grown Young, Papa's Grown Old.' This piece is full of American wisecracks, but still retains the English ballad quality. It is really a most attractive number." Miss Shields was acclaimed abroad as few Americans have been, her success in England, Africa and Australia being almost unprecedented. She has returned home after an absence of some years, and already it looks as though America were going to outdo all other countries in welcoming her.

CHEVROLET

It's wise to choose a SIX!

It is wise to choose a six-cylinder motor—the only way to get six-cylinder smoothness. Six-cylinder smoothness takes out vibration and roughness. This saves motor, chassis, body, passengers, and driver. The Chevrolet is a six. Yet it sells at a price that anyone can afford to pay. And it lasts longer, because of fine materials, oversize parts and a big, smooth, 50-horsepower six-cylinder engine that always "takes it easy." With all its six-cylinder smoothness and power the New Chevrolet Six saves gasoline and oil, through modern efficiency—overhead valves—high compression power—latest carburetor—long-wearing pistons—crankcase ventilation—air cleaner. Thus Chevrolet brings truly modern transportation within reach of all who can afford any car. Chevrolet economy also means sincerity in manufacture. To illustrate: Chevrolet valves are adjustable—to save replacing. Chevrolet molded brake lining greatly reduces brake upkeep. The rear axle inspection plate on the Chevrolet means accessibility. The whole car is full of such evidence that true economy comes from advancement and refinement. There are four extra-long, chrome-vanadium springs controlled by hydraulic shock absorbers. They are mounted lengthwise, in the direction of car travel, with self-adjusting spring shackles to maintain quiet. Modern low suspension and extra wheelbase give the Chevrolet Six good proportions. The front view is distinguished by the honeycomb radiator. The gasoline tank is at the rear for safety and finer appearance. Chevrolet beauty instantly says "Body by Fisher"—style, quiet, safety—Fisher composite steel-and-wood construction—non-glare windshield—adjustable driver's seat—deeper cushions—greater leg room—clearer vision—finer fabrics and fittings. There is just as much extra value throughout. BY ANY STANDARD the Chevrolet Six is the wisest choice in the low-price field... with its six-cylinder valve-in-head motor... with full scientific equipment... with Body by Fisher... with four long semi-elliptic springs, long wheelbase, low suspension, rear-mounted gasoline tank, honeycomb radiator and all the other features of this day and age.

MRS. BRIDGEFORTH DEAD

Mrs. M. A. Bridgeforth died at her home in Forest City, Ark., last Saturday and the sad news was received here in a telegram to Mr. W. E. Miller from his wife, who was at the bedside of her sister when the end came. Mrs. Bridgeforth had been in declining health for some time, but pneumonia was the immediate cause of her death. She made her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Miller for a number of years and was assistant cashier of the Goldthwaite National Bank.
