GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1931

NUMBER FORTY-THREE

County Poll Tax Payment Far Below Last Year

Auto License Tags Slow Sale

The payment of state and county taxes has been much slower this year than formerly. Last year at this time the collector's office was a mighty busy place, for they have time to spare now. The law requires taxes to be paid before Feb. 1, under a penalty of 10 cents on the dollar, when the payment is made one week after that date. The collector is required to commence proceedings to collect the taxes right away and the cost of levy and sale is also added to the taxes.

In case of automobile license, there is a penalty of 20 per cent added after January, no matter how soon the license tag is secured and there is also a penalty for operating a car without a tag after January. The collector is forced to collect the penalty or pay it himself, as there is no provision for waiving the payment. Up to this date last year 1,400 tags had been issued by the collector's office, whereas, only 580 have been issued up to this time.

Lindsay has not given the holder of the receipt the right to vote, although they must pay the tax just the same.

Poll Tax Paid

Up to Feb. 1 last year 2,365 poll tax receipts had been issued in the county, but up to this time only 877 have been issued and they are distributed over the county, to the various boxes as mentioned below:

SOME LOCAL AND SOCIAL EVENTS WELL WRITTEN

Group B Tournament Scheduled

Saturday, Jan. 31, there will be held the basketball tournament for the schools of Group B. The time of starting is not known, but will be decided upon receipt of entries and will be given in next week's paper. All schools participating must be members of the Interscholastic League.

The tournament will be held on the court to be erected at the local fair grounds and there will be a gate fee of 10 cents and 25 cents. This fee is to pay for officials, balls, etc.

The final game of the day will be a conference tilt between Goldthwaite and Mullin. There will be plenty of basket ball for the most rabid of fans.

All schools participating must have paid their Interscholastic League fee, but rural schools do not have to pay the basket ball fee.

LOCAL SCOUT NEWS

Saturday, Feb. 7, the Scouts of this Area meet in Lampasas for a Court of Honor and an Archery contest with the Waco Area. Our troop will be well represented and we are going to try to have each Scout make some advancement in rank at that time.

The boys are trying to locate a meeting place for the local troop, which will be used by the Scouts alone and will be regarded as home. If you have any ideas along this line, we would be glad to get them.

Tuesday afternoon the Scouts were collecting old clothes. If you have any, please send in your name, so the boys can come get your clothes. There are many calls for help now that the cold weather is here.

Anniversary week will soon be here. What shall we have to show how thankful we are for the Boy Scout movement?

DELIGHTFUL FRUIT

Through the kindness of Mr. W. M. Johnston, secretary of the Retail Merchants association, the Eagle editor received some beautiful grapefruit and other fruit, as a present from Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sewall of the Rio Grande valley. They own a fruit farm in that section and grow a great and delicious variety of fruit, but surely they have none nicer than that sent the Eagle.

Mrs. Sewall, nee Miss Mattie Johnston, is well remembered by many friends here, who are glad to know she and her husband are so pleasantly situated and the Eagle is mighty proud to be remembered as their friend.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

On last Monday afternoon twenty-four ladies gathered at the hospitable home of Mrs. Holland Frizzell to take part in the regular monthly Bible study program of the Society. Mrs. H. H. Dare was leader for the afternoon and a most interesting study of the life of Moses was used.

After the program, a short business session was held. At the close Mrs. Frizzell, assisted by Miss Georgie, served delicious sandwiches, hot coffee and fruit cake.

Next Monday will be visiting day. The members are to visit all shut-ins, sick and strangers.

Mr. Logan, together with his sons and dogs, caught a real wild cat on the Bayley mountain Sunday morning.

Misses Margie and Ollie Mae Featherston visited Velma Denman Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Denman also visited in the George Denman home Sunday.

Singing at Bethel Sunday night was well attended. The second installment of the crowd almost missed the singing for various and sundry reasons.

The people of our community were made sad, because of the death of Mr. Kerby of Midway last week. The people of Live Oak extend their deepest sympathy to his family in this time of sadness.

SPORT TIPS

The Tigers are rounding into shape for the opening cage tilt of the Class A group.

The Goldthwaite Mullin game scheduled next Tuesday, Jan. 27, will open the round-robin series of Mills county.

The Tiger-Evant game was postponed on account of rain.

The schedule for the Class A teams of Mills county is as follows:

Star	Gold	Mul.
Star	Feb. 5	Feb. 7
Gold	Jan. 29	Jan. 31
Mul.	Feb. 3	Jan. 31

We see in the Waco Times-Herald that Waco has sold its Texas League franchise to Galveston.

It looks like a toss-up between S. M. U. and T. C. U. for the Southwest cage tilt, as neither team has been defeated.

The Fort Worth Cats are being picked by many sport scribes to repeat again in the Texas League. However, it is early to make baseball predictions.

Primo Carnera and Jim Maloney, both strong contenders for the heavyweight crown will meet on Feb. 27, in this bout battle of the palms. The third should draw quite a gate, as it will be the first appearance of Carnera, the Italian giant, in a southern ring.

A PRETTY COMPLIMENT

One of the most delightful occasions of the past week, was when Messrs. and Mesdames Duke Clements and Jacob Saylor were at home to a few special friends in the pretty Hill Crest Clements home.

Although the rain came down without ceasing, the guests arrived promptly at the appointed hour. We were met at the door by our hostesses and given a glad welcome.

Then we were ushered into the cozy living room, where a cheerful fire glowed from the big, open fire place.

After all the guests had arrived, quotations were passed and matched for partners and we were ushered into the beautiful dining room. The table was laid with snowy damask, and for a center piece, a bowl of white narcissus, while at each end of the table, red tapers burned in tall candelabras. Each one served themselves to a delicious turkey dinner with all the good things that go with turkey. We then repaired to the living room, where daintily laid tables had been placed and enjoyed a feast. The children were served at specially appointed tables, and judging from the peals of laughter resounding throughout the spacious halls, they must have enjoyed the evening equally as much as their elders.

Those enjoying this hospitality were Rev. and Mrs. Dare and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bowman and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clements, Miss Floyce Alyeen Dickerson, Eugene Dickerson of Clifton, Ariz., and Roy Wilkins.

After dinner, a social hour was enjoyed, interspersed with music and several vocal numbers by different guests, proved to be a real treat.

DID YOU KNOW?

That Grantland Rice estimates that more than 15,000,000 persons play basket ball in the United States each year?

That such popularity must have a good reason?

That a sign of old age is a lack of interest in young boys and girls and sympathy with their activities?

That the greatest pleasures in life comes from the pleasure we help others to have?

That our children follow closely the example which we set before them in habits, speech, action and disposition?

That basket ball requires a fast man, both physically and mentally?

That a player must be accurate in judgment and execution before he can play basket ball?

That a round-robin schedule is fine, in which the teams play each other on a home and home basis until each team has met every other team twice? A team rating is obtained by a percentage of games won to the games played?

That a tournament is a gathering of all contestants, drawing for opponents; after each round of play, the winner of one round plays the winner of another group, until the winner is decided by a game between the two undefeated teams?

That every part of basket ball equipment from the size of hoops, height of hoops from ground, size and weight of ball to the length and width of the court are specifically given in the rules?

That the high school team goes to play in the Daniel Baker invitation tournament today and tomorrow?

That Tuesday night, Jan. 27 the boys go to Mullin for their first conference game?

That we are having trouble making a court with rocks?

CAKES AND PIES

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Workers Conference at Big Valley was well attended and a good fellowship prevailed throughout the service. Several of the speakers on account of the weather and roads, did not put in their appearance, but other speakers took their places and rendered a splendid service. Our next meeting will be with the Mullin Baptist church the third Sunday in February.

In spite of the unfavorable weather we had over two hundred in Sunday school and a splendid congregation Sunday. The girls' Glee Club of the High school rendered special music at the morning service, which was well received and very much appreciated. Come again.

A gentleman, whose name I dare not mention, gave us a definition to "psychology." "That which makes a yearling stand amazingly and look at a new-made gate and vow he will not pass thru it." We do not agree with that gentleman. However, we will agree that a man must know psychology if he gets that yearling thru the gate.

The official weather forecast for Goldthwaite says we will have rain the last of the week. Here is hoping that we do, but we don't want it on the first day of the next week. We would like to see one pretty Sunday in the month of January, and we have only one more chance.

It looks to this writer that conditions in Mills county are gradually improving. Through the providence of God we have had rains, sunshine and not very much cold weather so far, and as a result of that, thousands of dollars have been saved for the stockmen, and that has been of great help to all, whether we own stock or not. One more thing has been in our favor in this county thus far, and that is good health. From all accounts we have not had much serious illness, for which we ought to be grateful, and we are, let's hope for a continuance of the rain, sunshine and good health and maintain an optimistic spirit and the best thing we know normal conditions will be restored, and in ninety days most of us will not know that we have just passed through a crisis. Man's mental condition has lots to do with his physical and financial condition. So let's become mentally well and that will go a long way in helping us to get well physically and financially. If we will only get well mentally the doctor will help to cure our physical ailments, and the banker our financial ailments. So here is looking into the future with a greater optimism for a better day.

Come on down to the Baptist church Sunday morning and our people will help you forget all your troubles and worries by helping you to share them all. If you don't believe that the Baptist church is a good place to go to help you start a new week right, try it out Sunday. The pastor went to town Monday morning and the first man he met was one of the members of our church. He had a frown on his face that would make a cucumber pickle turn over. The next man he met was one of his members that was at both services on Sunday. He had a smile on his face and a good word for his pastor. We have plenty of sunshine from the heavens, but we need more from the souls of men.

G. C. IVINS, Pastor.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father. Also for the beautiful floral offerings. We sincerely appreciate everything that was done in our behalf. May God's blessings rest on each and every one.

SCHOOL BRIEFS

The primary room missed Anna Bell Teifferteller, Doris Newman and Amy Lavon Hallford, as they were absent most all week.

The Never-Miss-A-Day race keeps the primary folks' enthusiasm high. We had a tight race between the Chevrolets and Fords, but the Fords won—as usual.

Vergie Mae Taylor spent Sunday with Julia Dee Fallon. Ellen Perry and Gus Henry Meyers were absent from school Monday.

Ray Davis deserves special mention in our paper. He donated the school a load of kindling last week.

Johnnie Fallon visited Gorman Perry Sunday afternoon.

Gus Meyer, the president of the school board, made the school a visit last Thursday afternoon. Mr. Brown, Movine and Marline visited school Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis were present for the program Friday afternoon. Several others came, too late for the program, but just in time to keep the children from walking home in the rain.

WHAT IF—

What if J. C.'s name was K. C.? What if Arlie Taylor's hair was straight. What if Alvin Spinks could say, "May I speak," instead of "May I speak." What if Mildred did not wear her quilt coat.—Contributed by Miss Mills.

Johnnie Fallon thinks that cosmetic is just another name for "peach" preserves.

In the intermediate room the following made 100 per cent in arithmetic: Curtis Taylor, Doris Davis, Grover T. Davis, Eammon Perry, Merlene Stark, Gladys Perry, Anna Beth Davis. In spelling: Grover T. Davis, Ellen Perry, Curtis Taylor, Viva Delbeck, Garland Spinks, Merlene Stark, Gladys Perry, Eammon Perry.

In the Primary room the following made 100 per cent in reading last week: Mary Shipman, Arlie Taylor, J. C. Wesson, Ouelia Wesson, Lucille Taylor, Oran Perry Stark, Sherman Perry, Alvin Spinks, Gerald Davis and Dorothea Marie Davis.

Lucille—"I don't believe that Miss Mills knows anything about arithmetic."

Her mother—"Why, child, what makes you say that?"

Lucille—"Well, the other day she said that four and one were five and today she said that two and three were five."

Lyndon Davis says, "A girl chewing her gum makes me think of a cow chewing her cud, except that the cow looks thoughtful."

BASKET BALL

For the second time this season our girls met defeat from the Mullin team on their court last Friday evening. Mullin scored almost all of their points during the first quarter. We have no complaints to make, nor excuses to offer. We only hope that we can do better the next time.

No Hayseeds Anymore Since Dawn of Radio

JOHNNY JOHNSON means that the country chap can pull off his overalls and when he comes to the big town he knows what it's all about. He can dance as well as his city brother, and not only that, but radio programs of all kinds have told him what to wear, what shoes to wear, and who won the last big fight.

Orchestra Leader Finds Boys From Sticks Up On Everything New York City.—The "hayseed" is obsolete. Dashing Johnny Johnson, orchestra director of the Pennsylvania Hotel, says so, and Johnny who plays on any given day to an audience made up of the folks from Hicksville, the boys from Broadway and silk labelled gentlemen from at least ten different European capitals, should know.

"There is a reason—and radio is it," he declared. "Before radio spread over the land, it took six months for a song popular in New York to reach the wheat fields. Today, the lad out in Prairieville is whistling 'What Are You Waiting For, Mary?', the latest hit, less than a week after Broadway has gone mad for it.

"What does this mean? It means that the country chap can pull off his overalls and when he comes to the big town he knows what it's all about. He can dance as well as his city brother, and not only that, but radio programs of all kinds have told him what to wear, what shoes to wear, and who won the last big fight. "Radio has done as much or more for the ladies. It's next to impossible to tell whether a girl comes from a small town or from Park Avenue these days. The New York girls may wear their skirts a little shorter—but not much. It is said that twenty-five hundred people pass through the Pennsylvania daily. During one week forty states of the Union were represented, and ten different countries. Johnson is kept busy between dance numbers shaking hands with radio fans who have heard him in their homes from Maine to California.

FARM NOTES

About 50 farmers and business men were present at the meeting last Thursday, called by the county agent to outline a program of extension work for the year.

The county agent outlined the Texas Farm Policy with particular reference to preservation of land as capital stock. He emphasized following up the terracing of fields by a rotation of crops to rebuild the depleted soil. Sweet white clover was suggested as a legume soil builder and hay crop adapted to semi-arid climates.

W. C. Dew made a practical talk on the feeder-breeder program and other problems now facing the farmers. Mr. Dew gave the results of his own feeding operations and urged those present to consider diversification with special reference to living at home.

R. H. Patterson, J. J. Cockrell and J. D. Fallon made suggestions with reference to special features of the farm policy. Mr. Cockrell told of his success in growing pasture crops of bermuda grass and white clover. J. D. Fallon gave his experience in buying cull cows for dairying. He asserted that individuals highly recommended and bought at a high figure often did not give enough milk to raise a calf. Mr. Fallon says that pretty good men will misrepresent a milk cow and suggested tested before buying.

The county agent announced that he will test a few herds this spring. Testing will be done for those who weigh milk and keep records.

J. D. Caloway stated that 7 years ago he applied a heavy application of barn yard manure to a plot of ground for watermelons and that it was still producing much more than unfertilized land.

J. D. Fallon stated he had observed that well rotted straw gives better results the first year than barnyard manure.

At the close of the meeting fertilizer projects were agreed on by J. D. Caloway, O. N. Shields, A. J. Anderson and J. D. Fallon.

Pasture crops, principally white sweet clover: E. Godwin, L. W. Hill, A. J. Anderson, J. J. Cockrell, Ercher McCasland, D. G. Barnett, M. E. Archer, T. B. Graves, H. T. Peck, W. P. McCullough, C. C. Wesson.

Dairy demonstrations will be carried on by Mrs. A. N. Lee and Jo Fox.

Poultry demonstrations are listed by W. B. Black, D. D. Kemper, Mrs. A. N. Lee, L. F. Arnold, Weward Reynolds, Jo Fox, Ercher McCasland and Mrs. Lillian Godwin.

SEE YOUR FIREMAN

A news item from a western city states that during a recent day, the fire department was very active, because of a strong east wind. The item then brings out the fact that such a wind always results in an abnormal number of fires, and that the department does its fighting togs at once when that wind appears.

It would be a good plan for all property owners to find out from their fire departments the local conditions which are conducive to fire loss and how to offset them. Fire departments would rather tell you why your fire might start than why it did start.

Most of us allow our flues and chimneys to go unattended until they become extremely hazardous. And corrective steps are seldom taken until we have had a fire. Preparedness against seasonal fire risks would require but little time and money and would pay high dividends in protection to life and property.

In the United States most of us take five for granted, not realizing the gigantic economic waste it entails. During 1930 the total waste was higher than in several preceding years. And it will continue to grow until individuals understand the common hazards that exist in every home and guard against them.

CARE BRINGS PROFITS

A tester with one of the South Dakota Herd Improvement Associations, maintains that in many cases care alone brings about such marked differences as is often shown between different herds, and refers to two herds of the same breed and grown practically from the same feed stock. One of these herds had an average production of 372.9 pounds of fat, with an income above feed cost of $100.11 per cow, as contrasted with an average production of 179.5 pounds of fat and an income over feed cost of $26.75 for animals in the other herd. Although there was less than $8.00 difference in feed cost for each cow between the two herds, there was nearly $74.00 difference in the income above feed cost. He claimed that this was due to carelessness in time of feeding and watering, amount fed, exposure and poor hand milking on the part of the owner of the low producing herd. Good cows are necessary to profitable production, but the time available for their care on the average farm can be used most efficiently and profitably.

"WHEN I was a child, if I did not feel well, or if I had a cold, my mother gave me Black-Draught," says Mrs. Orpha Hill, of Wofford, Ky. "When I was married, it became a family medicine in my own home, as it was in my mother's."
 "I take it for headaches and especially for constipation. When I get bilious, my skin gets yellow and I have a very bad taste in my mouth, and a drowsy feeling all during the day. My eyes burn and I get dizzy, or my head is 'swimming.' When I take Black-Draught, it seems to drive the impurities out of my system and I feel fine. I am seldom without this reliable remedy."

THE PASTORAL WORK

I can take one more pastoral work in Mills county, and would be glad to discuss the matter with any Baptist church that enjoys its sovereignty rights. I think each Baptist church should be the judge as to the man God wants to serve them, and that God's wants should be the only prayerful consideration of each member. God has most miraculously directed my present pastorates, as evidenced by the splendid spirit of fellowship, confidence and co-operation. I have the largest band of young people in Mills county, who are lined up with every phase of our great Baptist program. You will hear from the young folks at Star when spring opens up, for they are winners in everything that they undertake to put over. Star is going to furnish some great leaders for the world from among our young folks. They are not faint hearted. The homes and the school here are each co-operating most beautifully in bringing about these results. It certainly takes good parents to make good children, and we have them in this section. Again I wish to say that I am open for more pastoral work, and if any church that has no pastor will discuss the matter personally with me, you will find me most conservative and approachable. I can face the world with a clear conscience that I have been a fair dealer. As to my Christian character, no lady or gentleman has ever questioned it, I defy anyone to bring ought against it. I stand one hundred per cent for truth and honesty.

As to my pastoral ability, I will leave that for you to judge. I have given all my Christian life specializing in the study of God's book and it has become my only guide. I am open for your consideration in an above-board, heart to heart talk.

HOW TO DEVELOP RURAL ROADS

Road-building, in the past, has almost always been attended by a certain amount of waste, because of lack of information, "political" allocation of funds and — in a few instances—plain ordinary graft. Now the good roads movement—with especial attention being paid to farm-to-market roads—is making unprecedented progress. It has been stimulated by the drought and unemployment situations, as well as by the crying need for year-round, surfaced arteries of transportation for agriculture. Many states and hundreds of counties, in all sections of the country, are seeking ways and means of providing the farm with necessary roads as quickly and as economically as possible.

Norman M. Blaney, of the American Farm Bureau Federation, says that county road plans "should be designed so that the outlying territories will have access to the main highways." To achieve this, he points out, road committees should be formed, made up of fair-minded, unbiased citizens. It would be their duty to assemble facts and to decide just what roads are necessary for carrying on the business, social and economic life of their communities. Those roads which will serve the greater number of people should naturally be improved first.

Modern science has given us asphaltic materials with which to construct good roads, passable in all weather, at a very low cost. Communities which take the lead in rural road construction will be leaders in progress and future prosperity.

Fruit Tonics For Spring

A GENERATION ago spring was the time to dig sassafras root for tea and gather herbs with medicinal properties. Today we add fruits with medicinal properties to our diet.
 Pineapple recipes for spring tonics have come into prominence with the somewhat recent discovery that canned pineapple—which is the only ripe pineapple in our markets—is a potent aid to digestion, so much so, that it is employed as a component part of certain pre-digested foods, and that the juice is a curative in cases of throat troubles. Its valuable vitamin content and energizing natural sugar make it a particularly important food for the spring season when body tissues need renewing.
 Pineapple Ginger Cup is an invigorating spring drink. Extract juice from sour oranges after one dozen cloves have been stuck into them for one hour. Use twenty-four lumps sugar or their equivalent in granulated sugar; squeeze juice from three lemons and add to sugar. Add one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one-third tea-spoon grated nutmeg and let stand two hours. At the time of serving, add one quart ginger ale, one cup Hawaiian pineapple juice and enough water to make strength desired. Pour over cracked ice.
 An apple a day discourages doctor visits, and Baked Apples with Pineapple minimize druggist bills as well. Pare and core apples. Fill centers with crushed Hawaiian pineapple to which has been added a little butter melted and some sultana raisins. Put apples in a pan with a little water flavored with a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Bake until tender. Baste frequently, remove from oven, sprinkle with granulated sugar mixed with a little cinnamon.
 Hawaiian Pineapple Salad furnishes the needed fruits and leafy vegetable in the most delightful form. Use one medium sliced Hawaiian pineapple, one-half grapefruit sliced, one tart apple cut in a m a 1/2 cubes. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves with a sweet dressing made from one cup juice from maraschino cherries. Garnish with some of the cherries.

WEDDINGS—GARDNER

The marriage of Miss Emma Gardner, daughter of Mrs. Tom Gardner, to Mr. Lester C. Weatherly, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Weatherly, took place Saturday evening, at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the groom's parents in Lometa. The Rev. David M. Phillips, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. Only the immediate family were present.

The home was attractively decorated, a color scheme of pastel pink and white being carried out with sweet peas and carnations. These with potter ferns and almas formed an arched altar where the wedding party was grouped for the ceremony. Large red baskets filled with pink and white carnations connected with streamers of white silk ribbon formed the aisle to the altar. In the center of the altar stood tall fern baskets, and on either side of the altar stood tall fern baskets with silver holders set with pink roses, burned during the ceremony.

Miss Priscilla Morris of Bead, Texas, a friend of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Roy Weatherly, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride approached the altar on the arm of the groom. She wore a becoming look of crystal blue tulle and lace, and accompanying accessories, and carried a bouquet of sweet-pea roses and maiden hair fern.

Before the ceremony, Miss Priscilla Morris of Goldthwaite, maid of the groom, sang "Blessed Assurance" accompanied by Mrs. John Berry, sister of Goldthwaite. Mrs. Berry played the organ music from Lubegren for the occasion.

An informal reception was held after the ceremony and a refreshment was served. The dining room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and garlands. The table was covered with a hand-made lace spread, upon which rested the large silver pedestal.

The bride and groom left immediately after the reception for a short wedding trip and will return in Lometa to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Lometa high school and is loved by all who know her, and comes from a well known family and has a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Weatherly graduated from the Perm high school in 1926 and then attended Simmons University at Dallas, Texas, where he received his B. S. degree last year. While at Simmons he had many leading parts in the activities of the school. While there he served as vice-president of the student assembly, vice-president of the senior class of '29 and '30, president of the Board of Texas club, member of the athletic "F" club, member of the Mock Dramatic and Debating council, editor member of the Progress club council, captain of the track team of 1928. He was elected to the office of permanent president of the senior class of 1928, one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon one of its members.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Weatherly wish for them most happy and successful throughout their career. A GUEST.

L. O. O. F. CHARTERS

Goldthwaite, Texas. It has come to my knowledge that there has been some criticism of the Ladies Cemetery association of Goldthwaite for the manner in which the cemetery is kept, and I feel that justice to this association is a lot right that the public should know the facts, so they can place the blame where they believe it belongs.

Some forty years ago, a plot of ground was donated by W. F. Beaman for cemetery purposes. Later, the ladies of Goldthwaite organized, and, to the best of their means, cared for this cemetery with such donations as the public would give. This proved quite unsatisfactory, so some thirty years ago the members of the Good Fellows lodge of Goldthwaite, realizing the deplorable condition in which the cemetery was in, undertook to incorporate as L. O. O. F. Cemetery association, and prepared a charter from the state of Texas for that purpose and took over the property with a view of properly caring for the same, buying additional land, and widening it into lots and selling the same, and so forth.

In the course of time, the cemetery again became in a very unattractive condition; the graves neglected and unweeded, and weeds and grass growing everywhere. So again the ladies of Goldthwaite, about twenty-five years ago, organized the Ladies Cemetery association, and undertook to do and assist the Good Fellows in caring for the property. This they have done ever since, with such donations as have been given them by charitable and public spirited people, but with scarcely any assistance from the L. O. O. F. Cemetery association. In fact, when they have called on it for aid and assistance, they have received but little encouragement, and in only two or three instances, any financial aid.

I am sorry to say that the Ladies Cemetery association should have to bear the criticism, as the ladies and citizens of the town, and those who have loved ones buried there, are acting only from altruistic purposes, without any compensation for their services and labor in caring for the grounds.

As to the report that the Good Fellows Cemetery association is having money on hand and is using it to care for the cemetery, I do not know. They alone can answer that rumor, and correct it, if they see proper to do so. If they do not, then the rumor may be true. It is true that there are a number of people, who would like to contribute to an endowment fund to care for the Cemetery association, but they are not willing to contribute to the L. O. O. F. Cemetery association, because they believe that they have not in the past, and will not in the future, discharge the trust, again, they are not willing to contribute to the Ladies Cemetery association, because this association is not chartered and permanent.

It seems to me that the L. O. O. F. association should take the matter in hand in earnest, and make some provision for the care of the Cemetery, as was the original purpose. If they do not care to do this, and wish to get out of that trust, I believe an association can be organized, chartered and supported by the public, that will gladly take over the properties of the old association, and care for the cemetery. ONE INTERESTED.

Announcing the Opening of a New HUMBLE BULK and SERVICE STATION in GOLDTHWAITE

The Humble Oil & Refining Company invites you to visit their new bulk and service station which has just been established in this city. You will find this station an important addition to the city's automotive facilities. Here are combined modern equipment for the wholesale distribution of Humble products to dealers in this territory, and also the latest and most advanced types of equipment for the prompt, efficient servicing of your automobile. Note how carefully everything has been planned to afford you up-to-the-minute service. As at other Humble Stations, this new unit will carry a full line of Humble products—Flashlike Gasoline, Flashlike Ethyl Gasoline, Velvet Motor Oils, and Velvet Greases.

In The Lead—Like a Flash Your very first tankful of Flashlike Gasoline will probably be a revelation to you of what your motor can do with a better fuel. You will experience pick-up, power, and speed such as you never thought possible with ordinary gasoline!

There are definite reasons why Flashlike Gasoline affords this quality of performance. Its low initial boiling point—110°F.—and correct proportioning up to an end point of 400°F. assure easy starting and fast get-away without sputtering, and a smooth, velvety flow of power in any motor—old or new. Yet it costs no more than ordinary fuels.

Safe Lubrication For Your Motor For best motor performance, with Flashlike Gasoline, use Velvet Motor Oil. This tough enduring oil has the body, stamina, and endurance to seal compression and afford safe lubrication at all speeds and temperatures. At five miles an hour or at eighty, Velvet Motor Oil will help to lighten your motor's load and protect its moving parts. Resists cutting of the lubrication film by the motor fuel and so reduces crank-case dilution. Assures full mileage, both of gasoline and motor oil.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY

TO ALL MY FRIENDS

It is with the greatest pleasure that I write this to let you know that I am operating the new Humble Service Station. I will appreciate your business and will give the very best service I have learned to give in my long experience in the service station business. Whether you want gasoline or oil or just air in your tire or your windshield washed off. I will be glad of any opportunity to serve you.

I will also be connected with the bulk station and will appreciate you calling me any time for any quantity in the oil line in wholesale quantities.

GRADE CROSSINGS

Every day of the year, on an average, eight Americans lose their lives in railway crossing accidents, and more than 20 others are seriously hurt. The railroads suffer, too. Last year crossing accidents resulted in 53 derailments of steam trains and in the death of 22 railroad employes and with the injury of 106. Grade-crossing accidents are increasing rapidly with the spread of hard roads and the resultant speeding up of automobiles. This situation, together with the urgent need for finding work for men now jobless, gives merit to the elimination of grade crossings and other traffic hazards as a means of unemployment relief. New York state is preparing to do just this. After ordering the elimination of 20 grade crossings last September. At an estimated cost of $1,457,000, the public service commission of that state has just approved a list of 93 grade crossings to be eliminated next year, with a total estimated cost of $33,887,700. Half this cost will be borne by the railroads affected, 49 per cent by the state and 1 per cent by the counties in which the crossings are located. — Des Moines Register.

PARTIAL PAYMENT OF TAXES

We note that several of the larger cities are discussing the advisability of quitting the annual payment plan of paying taxes, and going to the semi-annual or quarterly plan.

The commissioner of taxation in one of our largest cities recently wrote us for our opinion and advice in this matter. It is a move in the right direction. The partial payment

Sections 2440 to 2453 inclusive of the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1911, provide that at the February term of the Commissioners' Court next following each general election, proposals shall be received from any banking corporation, association, or individual banker in the county that may desire to be selected as county depository for the ensuing two years, and that notice that bids will be received, shall be published by and over the name of the county judge once each week for at least twenty days before the commencement of such term.

In compliance therewith all banks and banking institutions in Mills county are invited to bid to become said depository and are hereby notified that all bids must be sealed and deposited with the county judge on or before the first day of said term of court, which this year is Feb. 9, and that all bids so received will be opened in public at 10 o'clock a. m., on Feb. 9.

plan is so fundamentally correct that argument and reasons for it are unnecessary to repeat. However, we will state in passing, that borrowing money and issuing bonds, buying a home partly on time, making several payments on a debt, etc., are all on the partial payment plan, which is practical in business and works well, if not abused.

Facilitate the payment of taxes and you will not have such "fat" delinquent tax records. — Texas Tax Journal.

MAKE TAX REFORM INCLUSIVE

Reform in taxes on farm lands is urged by the Rawleigh Foundation in a letter to the governors of all states. It is asserted that the present tax burdens on farmers is more than two and one-half times what it was in 1914, while the value of farm land and the income from farm activities have decreased by millions of dollars.

The public generally will favor or any practical program for reducing taxes on farm lands and every encouragement should be given the farmer. But should tax relief stop with the farmer? Taxes on all kinds of industries and on individual taxpayers have in countless instances, doubled and trebled since 1914.

Shifting taxes and devising new methods of taxation for business other than farming, will not remedy the excessive taxation evil for farms or other business.

WISDOM AT A PREMIUM

If America ever had a need for wisdom and understanding on the part of public officials and business men, it needs those qualities now.

The social and economic problems that came to a head in the past year have produced a multitude of proposals for half-baked and unsound legislation. Men in the highest positions are seeking to commit the nation to programs which would result in a tremendous increase in taxes without permanently solving any problem.

The cure for our present-day difficulties lies with industry and the people. Wise and well-considered governmental aid can help. But the public which will, in the long run, reap the benefit from or pay for whatever action is taken now—should do its part in helping to maintain sound government and business free from fake panaceas.

Listener-In Advocates - Radio Music Criticisms

GEORGE OLSEN

In a Little Spanish Town (Two on a night like this... Stars were part of being a singer) (Two on a night like this...)

Fan Thinks Broadcaster Should Express Opinion of Songs

New York City.—George Olsen, famous leader of the Pennsylvania Hotel orchestra, beams when he finds "In a Little Spanish Town" among the list of best selling popular songs. He picked that hit and almost lost a radio friend thereby.

It all happened when he announced over the radio that the number would be a great success. By the first mail he received a letter from an upstate radio man complaining about his obvious effort to form people's opinions.

"I was perfectly innocent of any intention to offend," says Olsen, "and it hurt my feeling so that I refrained thereafter from expressing any opinions on music."

proved sound. And he added, "I don't think it is a bad idea after all for a broadcaster to call people's attention to what he thinks is especially interesting in music or anything else."

"As a matter of fact, I am sure he is quite right. Why do people buy certain newspapers and not others? Isn't it because they want to read their favorite critic, book reviewer or editorial writer? They're willing to have these people express opinions and of course they reject or accept exactly as they please."

"With the radio, it's even easier to do that for you've only to twist a knob if you don't like what I'm saying and I'm reduced to oblivion. Well, my business is music and we all have to know something about the thing by which we make a living. Therefore, if I say a song is due to make a hit, why not regard that as a legitimate criticism? Of course I may be as wrong as the dramatic critics were about 'Able's Irish Rose' but I was right about 'In a Little Spanish Town,' anyway."

JACK KERBY PASSED AWAY

Mr. H. M. Kerby, known to his friends as "Jack" Kerby, aged about 54 years, died at his home in Canadian community last Friday night, after a short illness with flu. Mr. Kerby was one of the most valued and valuable citizens of Mills county and his passing has caused universal sorrow among those who knew him.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kerby and came to this county a good many years ago from Coeyell county, in which county he taught school in early life. After moving to this county he engaged in farming, although he held a first grade school teacher's certificate. He was a man of intelligence and refinement and his worth was recognized by all with whom he was associated. He was a member of the county school board, representing precinct No. 1 on that board.

While the extreme illness that caused his death was not of long duration, he had been in ill health for a number of years.

Mr. West had made his home in this county for more than 40 years, having lived in the Trigger Mountain community in former years, but recently made his home with his daughter and family on the Rudd ranch, in the neighborhood of San Saba Peak. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist church and was universally respected as a man of honor and integrity.

He is survived by his wife, who has been in ill health for several years and is blind, also by his daughter, Mrs. Randles, and one son, Egbert West. His
