VOLUME FIFTY-THREE GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS—FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1947 NUMBER THIRTY-SEVEN

ALL - KNOWS ALL - NEXT TO NOTHING

OLD MAN 100

BOSS IS NOT RESPONSIBLE
 THAT OLD MAN 100 SAYS IN COLUMN - NEITHER IS THE OLD MAN YOU GET MAD, COUNT AT A THOUSAND BEFORE YOU OR BEAT HIM UP - THE BOSS!

APPEVAL—

are like to of been a big ex-like the one at Texas right here in the Eagle of last Friday, but wasn't.
 the Old Man knows—be-the 7th is always telling that 11 dullers is not salary, and has been on the Big Boss for a ever since the first week.
 Old Man got one duller on when he wrote his sum piece, but the Boss none of them big nations pay any attention to what the Old Man writes anyway.
 just last week he read in the dailies where Winston Churchill had sold his war bonds for a duller a word—one million words, one million dullers. This gives the Old Man a bright idea and he showed the piece to the Boss and demanded a duller a word for writing the Old Man 100 column. Old Man remembers that the Boss said,
 "right, but the Boss wouldn't let the Old Man print it in his paper—it all added up to NO, anyway. Now, the Old Man's readers needn't be surprised next week if this column has only eleven words in it—which will make the Old Man equal to the highest paid writer in the world—if he can get by with it.

BEATS FARMING—

Jesse Moreland told this un-Back several years ago when farming wasn't so profitable as it is now, a Mills County farmer who had three crop failures in row, sold out and moved to town and went in the grocery business. Another farmer came in with some eggs and the grocer paid him 15 cents a doze. A bystander asked the grocer what he sold eggs for and he told 13 cents a dozen.
 "How can you make money that way?" the grocer was asked.
 "Can't," he said, "but it beats farming."

IT'S AT IT AGAIN—

now where County AT. AT. is again. The Commissioners Court appointed him last week to fill an unexpired term—and they did the same thing last week in years ago. AT. has been county AT. for more than 32 years already, as far as he can remember—and he's made a good one, too. If anybody wants to file a complaint, they all know where County AT. AT. it AT.

DOING SOMETHING—

Everybody talks about the weather but nobody does anything about it, is a wise saying.
 Old Man Hunnert is working on an invention to try to make the weather come to suit his convenience. Like the cold spells the last two weeks—he'd have them come the middle of August instead of right during the Rodeo. Also, something should be done about that high wind one day last week that would blow the money right out of a man's pants pocket (not a lady's)—but that didn't bother the Old Man, the 7th beat the wind to it. If the Old Man's invention works, watch out for a cold day in August, about the 24th.

SCANDAL SECTION—

Now, the Old Man allus goes along for the ride if it don't cost anything much, so he went with them four Goldthwaite Lions to the San Antonio Convention. At the Fiesta at the Olim Club Monday night them purty Sinnerites entertained.
 Now there should be a picture of one of the Goldthwaite Lions and a Sinnerite in this column, but it hasn't come yet, and the Old Man is looking for hush money to keep it out. Anyway, the said Gold. Lion has been sitting up at four o'clock every morning since he come home to get the mail before his wife does. Watch this space for a picture next week—or else the Old Man's palm will be crossed with plenty silver.

There is always something to spoil the fun—while we are worrying about how to pay for the last war there is also a lot of worrying being done over the next one. Which also reminds of we never did finish paying for the one before the last one.
 Maybe so if they would pay these wars on a spot-cash pay-as-you-go basis they wouldn't come quite so often.
 Also, it is a head easier to pay the doctor who says: "Well, Boy, you just called me in time."

LAST EDITION OF EAGLES' TALE NEWS

The time of the year has come for all members of the Eagles' Tale Staff to say farewell, and give a few thanks to all those who made our paper the grand success that it was.
 First of all, in behalf of the entire staff, I want to thank Mrs. Bigham for a swell job as sponsor of the Eagles' Tale.
 Had it not been for her untiring efforts, the Eagles' Tale would not have had half as many feathers. When Mondays rolled around, Mrs. Bigham never forgot to remind the staff members that it was Monday.
 Next, we want to thank John Oglesby and Elizabeth Stockton—our editor and assistant editor—for all they've done.
 Their fine interpretations of G.H.S. students' feelings and thoughts were enjoyed by all.
 All those editorials John wrote showed real talent and were all original. Elizabeth kept people informed through Mirandy's Party Line, and we are sure the parents enjoyed that most of all.
 To Carol Ward, our Senior Class Reporter—and a good one, I might add—we give a big bow. Her reports never failed to come in and with it, it brought all the Senior doings and happenings for the week.
 (Only this week she forgot, she is graduating, you know.)
 Nancy Collier and Rena Lou Smith deserve a big hand! Every week all year you have been reading two biographies of Seniors, and you can thank them for this. They worked hard and did a swell job.
 To Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman reporters—we say thank you. You've done an excellent job. Also, to all our other reporters, the paper would have not been complete without your reports.
 Last of all, but certainly not least, we wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Wilson for making all this possible. You've been swell, cooperative, understanding, and all the other nice adjectives I can't think of to express our thanks.
 To the Juniors—pardon us, Seniors of 1948, we want to wish all the luck in the world for a better "Eagles' Tale" next year!

A SAY TO MY OLD FRIEND SAM SAY

—J. S. BOWLES

Anyone may read to his profit the writing of my old friend, Sam Say. His last letter in the Eagle is suggestive for what he says, and possibly for what he does not say.

I like his suggestion about our reading matter; none of us read enough, nor the great variety that we should read, and I might add also, the class of matter that we should read.

During my long years of retirement, I have reformed my reading habits. I am reading almost constantly the books of my old library that made no appeal to me in my younger days.

As a result I have been perusing some works in Theology that I once thought too dry and hard to be of any value, to find them as attractive as a modern book of fiction, and with far less to offend. In my old library I found such theological works as "The Christian View of God", by that eminent scholar, James Orr; "The Apostolic Age," McGiffert; the "Theology of the Old Testament", Davidson;

"Social Evolution", "Benjamin Kidd" and others.

In all these, and in others which I have not named, I have found great comfort, and I trust great benefit in my thinking.

I am firmly convinced that if we would read these great books, into which scholars have put their best thinking, we would be better prepared to meet the many problems that confront us in this day of loose thinking, and worse than loose living.

I can in no wise think of myself as a judge of the things that constitute correct thinking, but I can not bring myself to believe that any permanent good can come from the trash that has been almost forced upon us in this so called modern literature.

I have attempted to read some of this putrid matter just to see what it is like, to find that the man in the moon would do well to hold his nose when passing over it.

Yes, we need to read, especially those of us who have reached the time of the "sallow leaf" no longer young in other words; books that cause us to think, and then learn to think with them, or even against them; formulate opinions of our own, after careful deliberation. In this way we might be led to some thoughts that would stand us in good stead.

Nor would I suggest that we confine ourselves to the profound thinking of some of those who are considered "master minds." Profound thinking is not always sound thinking. We must learn to draw the line where it belongs, but still discount those who advance a new thought at times. We have all seen persons who had studiously confined themselves to a groove, until they had grown a shell over what little brain they had, 'till a new idea could not be driven into their iron cranium with a piledriver. Yes, I think we should read light and the solid matter. I like to read this dry matter, such as I have mentioned, then for a change I regale myself with the profound philosophy of the distinguished Columnist of the Eagle. Of course you will all understand that I am referring to Old Man 100. If the old gentleman does not create much of the profound within us, he does create a laugh, a very necessary quality in all of us.

CANCER FUND DRIVE
EXTENDED TO MAY 31

HOUSTON, May 12—(Special)

—With 13 Texas counties already "over the top" with their quotas, the campaign of the American Cancer Society to raise funds to fight the menace of cancer has been extended through the month of May, Frank C. Smith, Houston, president of the Texas Division, American Cancer Society, announced today.

Mr. Smith sent congratulations to the counties which have exceeded their quotas—Angelina, Oldham, Reeves, San Augustine, Ward, Bee, Fort Bend, Wharton (both East and West divisions), Uvalde, Bowie, El Paso, Gonzales and Brooks—and urged the other counties to continue their campaign until their goal is reached.

"I salute the workers," said Mr. Smith, "for their outstanding and unselfish work. We are far ahead of last year's record and I am sure we can meet our objectives with the combined help of all our workers.

The national campaign also has been extended until all divisions have achieved their initial objectives. The national goal is $12,000,000, of which $3,114,995.79 has been raised. The Texas goal is $432,240.

The funds are badly needed to help fight cancer which is on the increase in Texas, 6,343 deaths having been reported

'TRAIL STREET' IS OUTDOOR SPECTACLE

The graphic story of how U. S. Marshall "Bat" Masterson brought law and order to Kansas in 1880 is revealed in "Trail Street," RKO Radio's thrilling saga of the early West. Randolph Scott, Robert Ryan, Anne Jeffreys and George "Gabby" Hayes are starred in the turbulent drama of the bitter feud between cowmen and farmers. The trail drivers of those days, moving their cattle to the railroad, drove the herds over farmlands, destroying the new crops and creating a reign of terror.

Scott has the best role of his career as Masterson. Ryan is a land agent who believes in the future of Kansas as a grain-producing state. Miss Jeffreys is a cabaret singer who dies heroically in the final battle, and "Gabby" Hayes is an old livery stable keeper who becomes a reluctant deputy-marshal when sworn in by "Bat."

Produced by Nat Holt, the show was directed by Ray Enright from a screenplay by Norman Houston and Gene Lewis, based on the novel by William Corcoran.

NEW COMEDY-DRAMA PACKED WITH LAUGHS AND HUMAN INTEREST

Utterly engaging in its infectious comedy and its warm human interest, Republic's "Rendezvous With Annie," which will open Tuesday at the Melba Theatre for a two-day engagement simply cannot fail to please the movie fan who enjoys a wholesome and sincere bit of Americana.

Returning from the U. S. Navy after four years of service in the Pacific, Eddie Albert plays the leading role, that of a G. I. in London overcome with nostalgia for his home and his wife. He has just been handed a three-day pass, but what are three days when the only thing you want in the world is to see your bride, who is 3,000 miles away in Woodville, New Jersey?

Gail Patrick appears most decoratively in her sequences as a glamorous night club hostess. Sir C. Aubrey Smith turns in his customary sterling performance as Sir Archibald Clyde, a distinguished Briton, and Phillip Reed and James Millican portray the two ATC pilots with genuineness.

Raymond Walburn, Will Wright, William Frawley and Wallace Ford also figure in the plot.

Allan Dawn produced and directed.

Doctor saved the horse so it all worked out fine.

Marion Perkins was in our community fox hunting.

The friends and loved ones in several communities and different counties were called to the Regency Cemetery last Tuesday for the funeral services of J. G. Egger, Brownwood, Tex. Bro. Dyckes officiated. Mr. Egger was a well known man, good friend and neighbor. He was also our commissioner for several years. He was a good one and we had good roads. Our sympathy goes out to this bereaved family. Our loss is heaven's gain.

The cemetery working last Thursday was a great success. Lots of people came and worked and we had a real good dinner. We got lots of graves worked that hadn't been worked in some time.

School is out and I miss seeing the school bus and children.

The Eagle received a letter this week from the A. Ware family, former residents of Goldthwaite, now making their home in Santa Monica, Calif., stating they were leaving Saturday morning for a week's fishing trip in Oregon. They stated they would see the folks in Goldthwaite in August.

FIELD TRIP
 Friday, May 16, the biology class and teacher, Mrs. Bigham, went on a field trip to observe the different characteristics in plants, trees and flowers.

Some of the things we had to classify were whether they were gymnosperms or angiosperms, which is made up of two great divisions; dicotyledons and the monocotyledons. We had to decide whether they were deciduous or ever greens, and in the dicot leaves if they were simple, which may be labeled and in one piece, or if they were compound, where the blade is cut into. Compound leaves are of two kinds, pinnately compound and palmately compound. We also had to classify if they were exerophyte, desert plant, mesophytes, middle or medium, or hydrophyte, a water plant.

Now that we know what to look for—lets take special notice to our trip.

First, we examined the cedar in front of the school building. We found it to be a gymnosperm, because it had little cones. It definitely had dicot leaves, which were compound, and it was classified as a mesophyte tree.

Second, we took special notice in a walnut tree. We found that it was deciduous, because it drops its leaves. It was an angiosperm, since its seed did not lie upon face to the corpel, and its leaves were compound, being pinnately almost like a feather. It was a mesophyte, also.

The honeysuckle was quiet interesting since it was an ever green, and its leaves pinnate, being compound. It blooms, but it has no seeds.

Next, we observed the water lilies and it is classified as a hydrophyte. It gets its oxygen through water, which goes up a hollow stem. It has a dicot leaf that is simple. However the water fern plant is in a rosette form. It also has a dicot leaf and they are compound and pinnately arranged.

We then took special notice in an amaryllis and found that it was an evergreen and monocot. Its leaves are simple, also, it is classified as a hydrophyte. It is definitely an angiosperm, land flower of today, and it more than likely started by a rosette arrangement.

The cactus, a exerophyte (desert plant) is very thornless. Its leaves are needle-like, with the stems fatty to hold the water, and it is arranged in a tier. It is a monocot and an angiosperm.

Next, we came to an apricot tree, which was classified as a mesophyte. It was a deciduous tree and its leaves are simple.

We came across an odd little flower-looking thing called a yucca, which had a prouba in it. Classified as a xerophyte and monocot, its leaves were formed in a rosette arrangement. The prouba, a white moth was in it, it had protective coloration and was well adapted. The yucca also an evergreen and well adapted to the desert.

We took special notice in the bluebonnet and found it to be deciduous. Its leaves were compound, which were palmately compound.

The last and oddest thing we came across was the love vine, a parasite living off a plant. It was a silly-looking orange vine, which looked like a straw.

Always remember all flowers are angiosperms. They rule the world today

FRESHMEN PARTY
 Last Thursday evening at six o'clock until 9:30 the Freshmen class gathered at the lunchroom for a party. We played several exciting games and were then called in for refreshments. We were served a delicious picnic lunch with cold drinks. We played a few more games and then chose the Hall of Fame. We wish to thank the home room mothers for a wonderful time and a delicious lunch.

SEVENTH GRADE PARTY
 The Home Room Mothers and Mrs. Palmer, our home room teacher, entertained the seventh grade with a garden party at Mrs. Palmer's home Friday, May 16, 1947, from eight until ten o'clock.

We enjoyed playing: "Do you Like your Neighbor," "Jimmy Crack Corn," "Three Deep," "The Prince of Paris Has Lost His Hat," "Knocking for Love," and "Squirrels in the Nest."

Delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, cakes and punch were served to: Vernon Whiteney, Tommy Earles, Merion Reynolds, Vernel Byrd, Irene Ball, Rosa Etta Blackman, Thomas Murphy, Frances Webster, Nettie Marie Boyd, Billie Faye Hasty, Althea Eckert, Billy McNutt, Billy Ray Wicker, Noble Humphris, Willadene Meyer, Hazel McCloud, Tom Boyd, John Weaver, Norma Jean Johnson, Wayne Long, Laverne Calder, Alice Sparkman, Hubert Burkes, Jimmy McKee, Feral Waddell, Charles Thomas, Rhond Ferris, Dennis Auldridge, Sandra Bain, Franklin Dew Weathers, and a visitor who came with Jimmy, Barbara Harrell.

We want to thank Mrs. Weatherby, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Bain, Mrs. Ferris and Mrs. Palmer for one of the most pleasant evenings we have spent this year. We hope they will have us again some time.

SENIOR WILL
 Dearly beloved, It was the deceased's dying wish that his last will and testament be produced and read at this time, and at this place.

Therefore it is my solemn duty to produce the last will and testament.

We the Seniors of 1947, in sound mind and healthy physique, do make this our last will and testament. Each article here described is bequeathed severally to the below mentioned individuals according to the terms of this will and testament.

We hereby declare all previous promises to pay, wills or testaments made by this class as null and void.

We hereby appoint as sole administrator of this will, Mrs. Sparks Bigham, to administer this will and testament as she sees best.

I, Leroy Bleaker, bequeath my ability to hang on to one special girl friend, and flirt with all the rest at the same time to Jackie Gerald. Good luck, kid!

I, Barbara Porter, bequeath my collection of this seasons' slightly used corsages to Wayne Wilcox and Olan Reese. They can give them to their girl-friends in the coming year.

I, Norma Upham, would like to leave a personal bank account for Jerry Jackson, but I can't because it takes almost all I've got to buy food for Annette to experiment on; then I use the rest of it buying bicarbonate of soda.

I, Robbie Gene Simpson, bequeath my title of "Treasurer of the Senior Class" to Geraldine Laughlin. Sorry I can't contribute some of the money.

I, Marjorie Thomas, do bequeath my ability to get straight "A" averages to Georgia Mae Simpson, who needs it.

I, Virgielene Wicker, bequeath my ability to ride a bicycle to Dollie Montgomery. Here's hoping she comes out with fewer bumps and bruises.

I, Rita Bell Horton, bequeath my secret passion for Van Johnson to Betty Jean Featherstone. I, Rhonda Robinson, do bequeath my ability to get along with the male population of this institution to Vera Mae Bell.

I, Aline Bird, will my Iski Bible hair-do to Edna Roberts. Hope you can see out from under it.

I, Billy Collier, do solemnly bequeath my ability to sit up all night and think up a wise-crack for the next day to Carlos Welch.

I, John Mohler Oglesby Jr. bequeath of sound mind and body, do bequeath to Sealy Reid my will power to keep from dating women, if he's sucker enough to take it!

I, Elizabeth Stockton, do bequeath all the slightly used gum under seat number one on middle row of room 100 to Sue Ross. May she enjoy it as much in English 4 as I did.

I, Jim Bob Steen, bequeath my lenient curfew of 9:30 to Billy Miller. Here's hoping he can carry it out more easily than I did.

I, Christine Ince, bequeath my ability to get to school within three hours after the bell has rung to La Verne Sykes. Here's hoping she has as many handy excuses as I did!

I, Lloyd White, do sorrowfully bequeath a few of my tall wild wood's tales to Fay Page. I hope you have as much success in making people believe you as I did.

I, Herbert Horton, do leave a slightly used bookkeeping notebook to Harry Palmer. I doubt if it'll do you any good, but never look a gift horse in the mouth you know.

I, Lee Roy Stacy, even though I may not be of sound mind and body, willfully bequeath my ability of holding 2 forts at once to Willie Sparkman. I am referring, of course, to the one at Priddy and the one at Goldthwaite.

I, Truman Ferguson, do leave my version of "Kilroy was Here" to Olan Reese. Maybe the eggs they throw at you won't be rotten.

I, George Wesley Jackson, would like to leave my collection of books on "How to Win Fair Lady" to Bobby Burkes, but under the circumstances I feel I'd better keep it!

I, Bobby Massey, bequeath my permanent wave set to George L. Horton. Be sure and follow the directions or the results would be disastrous.

I, Melvin Reynolds, bequeath my track shoes to Gerald Ed Bryan and Donald Humphries. There's plenty room for both.

I, Melba Robertson, do bequeath my false eyelashes to Edna Roberts. As an extra gift I also leave her a large bottle of "Stick All" glue.

I, Madeline Johnson, would like to leave a lot of things but I can't; it took all I had to graduate.

I, Jack Hightower, bequeath my ability to talk myself into and out of citizenship checks to Ed Gilliam and Willie Sparkman. Hope you have time to further develop the technique.

I, Helen Hodges, bequeath my charms for attracting ministers and ministers' sons to Rita Henry. Luck to you, kid!

We, Virginia Howard and George Wayne Featherston, bequeath our rumblesat tactics to Joyce Harrell and Jimmy Laughlin.

I, Winston Faith, do bequeath my ambition to be a second Tom Nix to Charlie Frank Davis.

I, Shirley Kline, do bequeath my ability to portray the part of Mae West to Earlene Nix. Come up and see me sometime!

I, Okey Flores, leave all my unpaid debts to Doris Smith. I know she'll pay them all.

I, Syble Woods, bequeath my special "eye-winking ability" which is guaranteed to bring recruits to Patsy Ruth Johnson. Luck to you!

I, Lucy Whitley, leave my small short stature to Lola Jean Platt, because she is so tall.

I, Flossie Webb, leave my tooth paste smile to Melva Nowell. P.S. I use Ipana!

I, Rena Lou Smith, leave two slightly used lunch tickets to Ruby Nugent.

I, Margaret Lockridge, bequeath my ability to attend to everyone's business besides my own to Jesse Patsick.

large size bottle of vitamin pills to Ida Mae Smith. Here's hoping she has better results than I did.

I, Eliza Flores, leave my book of original jokes to Gene Smith. Let's hope she gets more laughs than I did.

I, Werth Long, leave my collection of paper wads to Douglas Humphries. See me later and I will inform you as to where they are stored.

I, Billy Jo House, bequeath my ability to throw a curved ball to Nelda Hiller. Here's hoping it curves at the right time and place.

I, Louvell Sides, leave my ability to get an encore by playing the guitar to Jerry Jackson. I'm sure it will do him worlds of good.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Potter of Brownwood visited his mother, Mrs. W. B. Potter Sunday.

Senate Joint Resolution No. 4

PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE VII OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS BY THE ADDITION OF TWO NEW SECTIONS TO BE KNOWN AS SECTIONS 17 AND 18 PROVIDING A SPECIAL FUND FOR THE PAYMENT OF CONFEDERATE PENSIONS AND PROVIDING A METHOD OF PAYMENT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION AND EQUIPMENT OF BUILDINGS AND OTHER PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS AT STATE INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER LEARNING; PROVIDING FOR A FIVE-CENT REDUCTION IN THE MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE STATE TAX ON PROPERTY; PROVIDING FOR AN ELECTION AND THE ISSUANCE OF A PROCLAMATION THEREOF.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
 SECTION 1. That Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto Sections 17 and 18 which shall read as follows:
 "SECTION 17. In lieu of the State ad valorem tax on property of Seven (7c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article 3, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the payment of pensions for services in the Confederate army and navy, frontier organizations, and the militia of the State of Texas, and for the widows of such soldiers serving in said armies, navies, organizations or militia; provided that the Legislature may reduce the tax rate hereinabove levied.
 "ALSO, THERE IS HEREBY levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Five (5c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings, or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning; and the governing board of each of such institutions of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. bear interest not to exceed three (3%) per cent per annum and shall mature serially or otherwise not to exceed ten (10) years from the first (1st) day of January of each year in which such funds are allocated or re-allocated to said respective institutions; provided, the power to issue bonds or notes hereunder is expressly limited to a period of thirty (30) years from the date of the adoption of this amendment; and provided further, that the Five (5c) Cent tax hereby levied shall expire finally upon payment of all bonds hereby authorized; provided further, that the state tax on property as heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 9 of Article VIII as amended, exclusive of the tax necessary to pay the public debt and of the taxes provided for the benefit of the public free schools, shall never exceed Thirty (30c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation. All bonds shall be examined and approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, and when so approved shall be incontestable; and all approved bonds shall be registered in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. Said bonds shall be sold only through competitive bids and shall never be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest.

The "granpappy" of the vetch industry around Rising Star is the original drill which was used to plant the first vetch there in 1942. It has drilled over 6000 acres of vetch.

Local folks, in their enthusiasm for this legume soil building crop, have invented a "drill trailer", for carrying this kind of farm machinery from one farm to another. Made of cast iron pipe, it will pick up the farm machine and hold it aloft while being towed.

Around 2000 persons attended the field day there last Thursday.

For the first time in Texas, insects have badly damaged many fields of vetch this year. However, with the arrival of moisture for renewed growth, and ladybugs to destroy the aphids, losses weren't as heavy as predicted.

June is the ideal time to mow sagebrush to keep it under control and to get maximum improvement of grass, reports the experiment station at Woodward, Okla.

Commerce is a handy man with a well-turned phrase. He says farmers in that county who have turned to dairying are graduates of "C.C. and M. College". The initials stand for Cotton, Corn and Mules.

With the advent of the boneless turkey steak, it is practical to serve turkey any time during the year, any day of the week, any meal. The war-inspired increased turkey production left a surplus of 140,000,000 pounds of turkey in cold storage last winter, but this stored supply has all but been consumed now.

On May 28, 29, and 30 in Fort Worth comes the second annual Chicken of Tomorrow contest. The modern, streamlined chickens will be judged as live birds one day, processed the next day, and judged as dressed the next. Personally, we'd like some fried chicken today, as well as tomorrow.

Boll weevils are slow in coming out in south and central Texas this year. Neither are the flea hoppers as abundant in the Lower Rio Grande Valley this year as last. But these reports are early.

News that more accidents happen in the home than anywhere else, and more in the kitchen than any other room, is no reflection on brides' cooking, as far as we know.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS—

CARNATION TROOP II

Carnation Troop II met in the home of our leader, Mrs. J. H. Saylor, May 19, 1947. We met there to work on our outdoor furnace.

Mrs. Saylor served us punch and cakes. We had our business. Then went to the barn to work on the furnace. Mr. Saylor supervised the making of it. We are going to put it in our Little House yard.

Mrs. McLean could not be with us.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

How to cure a ham and how to stop a runaway horse were some of the things the Girl Scouts learned back in the early teens, when Girl Scouting was in its infancy. The first Girl Scout handbook, published in 1916, also contained directions for earning a badge in aviation.

JOBS FOR ALL

There are more than 40 different kinds of jobs in Girl Scouting for which thousands of volunteers are needed, according to the national Girl Scout organization: They range all the way from sharing a hobby with a single troop, to working with the world-wide Girl Guiding and Girl Scouting movements on international friendship projects.

Newest Girl Scout activity is dog obedience training. Under accredited trainers, girls teach their pets to heel, come when called and obey simple commands.

The Childs Future...

The following figures are taken from a survey made by Dean Everett W. Lord of Boston University:

The four years a child spends in high school will add $24,000 to his life's earnings. The high school graduate from age 16 to 60 will earn about $88,000. The untrained man from age 14 to 60 will earn about $64,000. If after graduating from high school the child can have four years in college, his life income will be increased at least $72,000. The college graduate from age 22 to 60 will have total earnings from $160,000 to $200,000.

On the basis of the foregoing it might be said that each year the child spends in high school will add $6,000 to his life's earnings.

Each year the child spends in college adds at least $18,000 to his life's earnings.

A child's endowment insurance is one sure means of guaranteeing an education for your child.

NEW SAVINGS BOND CAMPAIGN

Treasury Department, Washington, May, 1947—
To America's Newspaper Publishers:—
The United States Savings Bonds Division enjoys its relationship with Both Kinds of Newspaper Publishers!

Those who never question the need for newspaper Savings Bond support have been our most valuable friends.
But we also consider our valuable friends those publishers who question: "Why do you still ask for tremendous support to sell U. S. Savings Bonds?"

As you know our war costs left us with an enormous national debt. Upon the wise management of this debt depends the security of our entire economy. When we get millions of Americans to invest billions of dollars in Savings Bonds, we transfer part of our debt, without increasing it, from the banks into the hands of individuals—That's important! It's important because those millions of thrifty Americans will get the billions of dollars of interest paid on the debt. They build security for themselves, for the communities in which they live, and for the Nation as a whole. That's why, during the month of June and July, we will reinforce the Payroll Savings Plan and introduce the new Bond-a-Month Plan. That's why we need your help as never before.

Cordially yours,
VERNON L. CLARK
Assistant to the Secretary

FIRE ACTION PROGRAM

The Action Program adopted in Washington May 2 by The President's Conference on Fire Prevention, bringing acceptance on the part of public officials of greater responsibility for fire safety, and wider public support for all measures dealing with fire prevention, is being studied throughout the nation.

Governors of the 48 States will consider proposals that they appoint state-wide fire safety committees and that a state-wide fire prevention conference be summoned in each State to set up practical fire prevention programs tailored to the needs of each area.

The conference report stated that fire which took more than 10,000 lives and destroyed more than $561,000,000 worth of property last year, was a "staggering national problem," and warned that losses would be even greater in 1947 unless prompt action is taken.

"Fire prevention is a year-round public responsibility," President Truman said in opening the Conference. "I believe the highest State and municipal officials must assume greater responsibility for leadership in this field."

The Action Program urged that Major General Philip B. Fleming, Administrator of the Federal Works Agency and General Chairman of the Conference, appoint a continuing committee to implement the conference recommendations and to provide a gauge on progress made throughout the nation.

GIVE ARMY CORRECT ADDRESSES, NEXT-OF-KIN OF DEAD ARE ASKED

The War Department today asked all survivors of men and women who died while serving in the Army to make certain that two Army agencies have their present addresses.

Many instances have been found where addresses of next-of-kin in the files of the Casualty Section, Adjutant General's Office, and Memorial Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, are incorrect. Letters sent to these next-of-kin by the two offices have been returned, marked, "Moved; Left no Forwarding Address."

Next-of-kin who have moved since last notifying these offices of their addresses were asked to mail a postcard or letter to each office, stating in effect:

"I am next-of-kin to (name) (grade) (serial number). My former address was (street, city, state). My present address is (street, city, state)."

The communications should be mailed to:
The War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Attention: Personnel Actions Branch, Casualty Section, The Pentagon, Washington 25, D. C.
Memorial Division, Office of The Quartermaster General, Washington 25, D. C.

The Golden Text is: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42:11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (1 Corinthians 3:16).

WHY NATIONS PERISH

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 17:5-12, 22, 23; Isaiah 28:1-4.

MEMORY SELECTION—For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.—Psalm 1:4.

Nations as well as people come to crossroads in their history, and taking the wrong road then means future disaster. Solomon had built up great national prosperity, but at the expense of heavy taxes. He had forgotten God, and was succeeded by a son who followed in his footsteps.

Offered an opportunity to ease the burden of the people (I Kings 12:14), Rehoboam in his folly made it greater, and the nation was divided. The ten northern tribes, which were henceforth to be known as Israel, followed Jeroboam, and the two southern tribes under Rehoboam became the kingdom of Judah.

Jeroboam started with God's favor, and might have led his people right, but instead he became the king whose name stood for wickedness (see II Kings 15:18). The story of that downfall is a sad picture of unbelief and failure.

Through varied experiences and under different kings, Israel had gone down, down, down in its history of sin and departure from God.

I. Doomed by Sin (II Kings 17:5-12, 22, 23).

The hour had struck when God's heavy hand of judgment had to fall on them. Verse 6 relates their carrying away into captivity to Assyria, and verses 7-9 tell us the reason for that judgment.

Gratitude for God's blessing (v. 7) led to the worship of other gods (v. 8). They knew God's hatred for the sin of idolatry, and his judgment upon those who walked in that way, but they went right on.

Note in verse 9 that these things were done "secretly." "The same thing is true today of many who profess to be the people of God. The line of demarcation between the church and the world is not clearly drawn. We do well to note carefully the outcome of this course of procedure on Israel's part (vv. 6, 18).

The fact that Israel did these things secretly did not hide them from the eyes of Jehovah (Ps. 139:1, 2; Heb. 4:13)" (John W. Bradbury).

The statement in verse 23 is a striking one. The prophets had repeatedly spoken of the impending destruction of the nation. Now the time had come that the Lord could no longer stand to look upon their sin, and in a sense put them "out of his sight." That does not mean that they had been forgotten or that God was not watching over them in mercy and love, but that he had to judge them for their sins, and for a time bring them into judgment leading to repentance.

There is always a reason for a nation's deterioration, and with Israel there were many reasons. Outstanding among them is the one for which they were rebuked by Isaiah in the verses of our lesson, namely, drunkenness.

II. Deceived by Drink (Isa. 28:1-4).

The picture here is a graphic one. The leaders of Israel (here called Ephraim) lingered long over their bowls of wine, and in their drunken stupor gloried in the fact that Samaria, their capital city, was so situated at the head of a valley that it was not only beautiful but practically safe from attack by the enemy.

The drunkards spoke with pride of their nation and of Samaria its "crown." The description was apt, for it was beautifully situated on a hill surrounded by a fertile terraced hillside. But their boasting was vain, for after a bitter three years' siege, the city eventually fell to Sargon II of Assyria.

All this has a familiar sound. We think of the nations that have gone down to oblivion even while the people engaged in foolish levity, and in the awful stupefying and degrading use of alcohol.

Remember the fall of France in the recent World War when its own leaders said that the defeat could be largely attributed to the tremendous increase in the use of alcoholic liquor.

What about our own United States? With an annual liquor bill of about eight billion dollars, saloons on almost every corner, liquor flowing freely in hotels and restaurants, bottles and cases of it being brought into the home, booze the common medium of not only social but business relations, our insane asylums so crowded with alcoholics that the poor inmates have no real care—but why go on? It is a picture so appalling and so utterly distressing that every sensible person is shocked by it.

Do we think that God can long withhold his judgment upon a people blessed by all his many bounties, and yet using them for destruction of body and soul? Can a people continue to be strong which is determined to undermine itself by the use of alcohol?

Prepare Now for MEMORIAL DAY MAY 30
Memorial Day is the American Holiday for Remembrance. On that day, in the cemeteries throughout the land, the living pay special honor to the departed, and give special attention to their last resting places.
Each spring many new monuments are erected so that they are in place for the ceremonies of Memorial Day. If you or your family are contemplating purchase of a memorial, may we urge you to act now so that we can complete it before Memorial Day arrives.
Visit our office and display rooms; a consultation will place you under no obligation.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

Johnson grass into the United States from the Mediterranean and there's hardly any now that hasn't been killed by frost and cussed it back into the fields. It cuts and means a lot of Holcomb, County agent, says he doesn't know of any other method of permanent control of Johnson grass. The grass is that the grass not only from seed, but from underground roots.

There are about three methods used to eradicate Johnson grass. One is pasturing the fields. Close grazing, with sheep, can get it out. Another is to pull the roots, and then

Some chemical treatments are effective, but cost makes them impractical except on small areas, along fences and ditches. Sodium chlorate is probably the best chemical, used as a spray—one pound to a gallon of water—applied when the grass is heading. Always before the seed has matured, at least. Sometimes two sprayings are necessary to do a good job. And livestock have to be kept off the treated areas.

HILLSIDE MISSION

—By LIDA BYRNE Our Lord said in St. Matthew, chapter 7, verses 24, 25, 26, 27. "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock;

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

And every one that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand;

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell; and great was the fall of it."

In St. Matthew, chapter 7, verses 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, our Lord said: Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

To worry about tomorrow is to fall of devotion to the tasks of today, and so to spoil both days—William Dewitt Hyde.

Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

—By USDA Some easiness cropped up at most southwest farm markets last week, but few products suffered much net loss, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Light offerings of wheat and sorghums pushed prices up several cents early last week, and corn and barley followed, but later losses erased all gains, except on barley and sorghums. Wheat closed Friday at $2.78 per bushel for No 1 hard; and corn $1.96 for white.

Egg prices dropped a cent or two in some areas last week, and mature poultry showed a slightly weaker undertone. Eggs averaged 36 cents per dozen at Fort Smith.

Trading in spot cotton increased last week in some markets. Higher grades sold freely, but lower classes met slow demand. After rather wide fluctuations, Friday's prices stood at $2.75 to $4.75 lower for the period.

Butcher hogs closed last Friday about the same as a week earlier at most southwest markets, but some sows and feeder pigs weakened. Closing bulk price on good and choice medium weights stood at $24 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City.

Sheep and lambs saw little price change last week, but San Antonio netted 50 cents advance on spring lambs, while Oklahoma City and Denver weakened some. Closing bulk of good and choice spring lambs brought $21 to $23.50 at Fort Worth.

Early advances at southwest cattle markets were largely lost last week, and some spots advanced a little lower, but many classes ended up with some net gains. Bulk of common and medium steers and yearlings brought $14 to $18 at Houston.

Girl Scout Luncheon

Sunday, May 18, the Senior Girl Scouts were honored by a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Weatherby. The guests began arriving around 12:30. The dining room was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses. At 1:00 we found our places at the table, which were designated by place cards with our year star on them. We said our Girl Scout Promise and then we were seated to a delicious meal that consisted of fried chicken, gravy, peas, corn salad, celery, olives, potatoes, rolls, iced tea, and chocolate pie. After enjoying this delicious food, Mrs. Weatherby presented each of us with a beautiful graduation gift. The guests were Shirley Kline, Christine Ince, Carol Ward, Elizabeth Stockton, Nancy Collier, Helen Hodges and our guest of honor, Melba Conner. We want to thank our wonderful hostess, Mrs. Weatherby, for a beautiful day that will never be forgotten. This is really an elegant way to end four unforgettable years of Scouting.
