

The Goldthwaite Eagle

VOLUME FIFTY-THREE

GOLDTHWAITE, MILLS COUNTY, TEXAS—FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1947

NUMBER FIFTY-TWO

By OLD MAN 100

(THE BOSS IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR WHAT OLD MAN 100 SAYS IN THIS COLUMN. NEITHER IS THE OLD MAN. IF YOU GET MAD, GO OUT AT LEAST A THOUSAND BEFORE YOU SHOOT OR BEAT HIM UP. THE BOSS)

BUY AT HOME (5)—

Now last week somebody wanted to change the Old Man's BAH Club to the HA Club—and the Old Man couldn't figure out what the HA meant. Another man made him sore when he said HA, HA, I know what HA means—and you're IT. The Old Man wanted the BAA job, but guess he'll have to be the HA, as nobody else'll want it. It may mean Have Another—if it does the Old Man'll take it. Anyway we ain't elected a Big BAH yet, but several names have been turned in by friends (?) for that honor. One young squirt yesterday got his Secret Sign mixed up when he passed the Old Man on the street. You do not put your thumb to your nose and wiggle your fingers—but to your ears. If the BAH club ever gets a Big BAH, Middle BAH, and Last BAH elected, it won't take long to decide on the BAA's and the HA's. The Boss says the Old Man has got his club named all wrong—it ought to be the Buy Out of Town club—the BOOT Club—then the big shots maybe could be Big Boots, Tight Boot, and Too Boot. The Boss wants to be the Too Boot, but the Old Man'd like to see him going south between the other two. Also, the Boss is mad at the Old Man for not telling them Goldthwaite merchants to carry big ads in the Eagle every week to ask them BAAs and HAs to BAH with them and to disjoin the Old Man's secret BAH Club. The next time one of them lady BAAs (Buy at Brownwood) starts to tell you what a purty dress she had just BOOT, look at it close and see if you can't recognize it as one you donated to the used clothing drive here a year or two ago, and has been worked over some so's to sell as a new one to us Mills County suckers who BOOT when they should have BAH'd here in Mills County where they can get things better and cheaper, too, and the merchants will be here to back up their sales should anything go wrong. Every time you BOOT anything that could be BAH here, you jest deposit the profits in some city bank in somebody else's name, of course, and you jest help that much to make the big towns bigger and the little towns littler. Should Goldthwaite gradually dry up and blow away, the man who owns a nice stock farm in this country will find out its value will later be about half what it would be if Goldthwaite was a bustling burg with everything for sale better and cheaper than in any city—like it is now. Them good roads and autos are going to ruin many a dandy little town in Texas in the next ten years—unless everybody BAH every time he can. The motto is "Spend your money where you make it—this is your country, don't forsake it." Send in your nominations this week for the office of B-BAH, M-BAH, and L-BAH. The Old Man'll print them in big show names in this column in big type, and then ask the Boss for a couple pages space in the Eagle to print all the names of the little BAAs and HAs (in little type, of course.)

PHUWEY, PHUWEY!—The Old Man has been after the Boss so much lately for a quiller raise that the Boss jest "accidently" left this letter laying around so's the Old Man could read it. The letter is to the Boss from Prof. C. G. Rankin, superintendent of the Priddy Schools, and reads: "I am enclosing check for my prescription to your paper. I hope the check is better than the Old Man 100 column. . . I have only 49 years to go, and I can stand it that long, and financial conditions permit. $2 a year for 50 years is $100. Then it takes 10c worth of aspirin after reading each edition. That is $5.20 a year, or $260 for 50 years. You see it will cost me $360 to read your paper for the first 50 years unless I borrow it from the neighbors. I don't know whether it is worth it or not, but I will try it for another year. I hope Old Man 100 will come up with a dime column instead of a nickel column once in a while. I trust that you will treat this strictly confidential and not let Old Man 100 know that I have complained. Yours truly, C. G. Rankin." Right there went the Old Man's duller raise.

GLORY BE!—The man may not like the Old Man 100 column any too (Continued on last page.)

SIMULTANEOUS REVIVAL CAMPAIGN COVERS ALL MILLS CO.

The pastors singers and evangelists from the seven Baptist churches in the county in simultaneous revival services met at the First Baptist Church, Goldthwaite, for breakfast Tuesday morning. The ladies of the church prepared a gracious meal which the men greatly enjoyed.

Each pastor will baptize his own members.

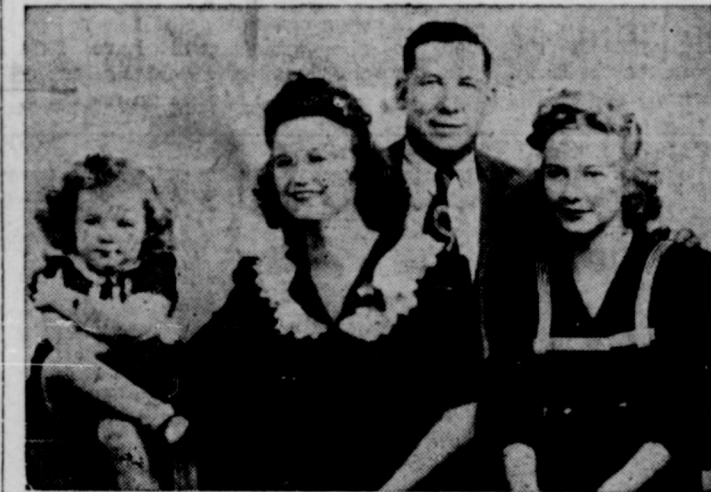

Revival services continue at the First Baptist Church through Sunday night. Interest is growing, the crowds are increasing and numbers of folks are professing their faith in Christ.

The following subjects are announced for the closing days of the meeting: Friday night, Heaven; Saturday night, The Ultimate Question; Sunday morning, Life's Supreme Choice; and Sunday night, What Think Ye Of The Christ?

The Evangelist wishes to express his thanks to the editor of the Eagle and to his many friends of the years for their interest and kindness shown during these days. This is the fourth meeting the people have given me the privilege of assisting in since he entered the ministry. I covet the prayers of all the people who believe that God answers prayer.

The final fellowship meeting of the pastors, evangelists and singers will be held Friday morning at a 7:30 breakfast which is being provided by the Goldthwaite church.

The need of this hour, throughout civilization, is a revival of the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. Not to convert the world, nor to bring all men into a brotherhood, nor to bring universal peace, but to SAVE the individual SOUL. This nation, the whole world, is coming to the hour of His judgement. The forces of evil, greed, war, and sin in the purifying stage are arrayed against the race of mankind; and where is the crying prophet, the righteous king, the soul winner? Where is the preacher and the church with a message, a broken heart with tears going forth winning souls? We have preaching, but where is the unction, the anointing, the "with power and demonstration of the Holy Ghost?" We have much effort, much energy is spent, but where is the harvest, the fruit, the regenerated souls to speak for our labors. The test of our ministry is sold saved, not how many sermons preached, meetings held, rededications, rededications, "much good done."

The North Bennett Baptist Church invites all who will to hear Rev. Leslie Bell preach, as few can preach, in our revival beginning Friday night, Aug. 15. Brother Bell is a mighty preacher of the blessed Word, and a soul winner of great ability. We are expecting this revival to be the greatest in the history of the church, and that is saying a lot, for we, and many, remember the gracious times of refreshing of the past. North Bennett has a glorious history and we want to re-aven and sustain that history. "Come hear a man".

Development Of Proper Driver Attitude Necessary If Annual Traffic Accident Toll Is Reduced

A careless pedestrian was to blame for the wrecking of this truck and the death of its driver. As the pedestrian suddenly crossed the road, directly in front of the truck, the driver swerved off the road, and his machine overturned in the ditch where it immediately caught fire. Driver was pinned in the front seat and burned to death before he could be extricated.

By OTTO F. MESSNER

President, American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, and Deputy Secretary of Department of Revenue, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Most of safety experts will agree that the ultimate solution of the safe driver problem rests in the development of the proper driver attitude. Those of us who are charged with responsibility of keeping an official eye upon the traffic situation in our respective states know that bad driving has been at the bottom of nearly every accident we have recorded. Chance-taking speedsters, poor judgment at a curve, failure to outguess the other fellow in the desire to beat him to it, along with a hundred and one other little faults in the driver's attitude, have been piling up a national casualty record, which has made that of the terrible war just ended seem almost insignificant.

All of these faults just mentioned could have been corrected by proper training when the operator first began to learn how to drive a car. However, the success of that training, like the success of all training, would depend entirely upon the attitude of the person receiving it. All the training in the world will not overcome the erratic actions of a born fool. Only by the most severe punitive measures can he be handled and restrained.

The development of proper driver attitude is divided into two separate phases: Correcting the faults of present drivers and training future drivers.

The first phase is that of endeavoring to correct the driver attitude of present-day drivers who have had little or no training and who may have bad driving habits of long standing. Only by utilizing every channel and vehicle of propaganda; through the medium of the press, the radio, the motion picture, the spoken word; by organized local campaigns and intensive cooperation by all civic organizations and civic-minded individuals can the individual at the wheel of the car today be made safety conscious. The same kind of patriotic appeal must be made to them as is made in behalf of the Red Cross, Community Chest, the Salvation Army and other worthy causes. In other words, civic consciousness must be aroused before the individual driver can fully appreciate and carry out, not only his responsibility to himself and his family, but to the other fellow and the community at large.

That phase of the driver problem is by far the most difficult because it must deal with a great number of people who today are driving motor vehicles with reckless disregard for their own lives and those of their fellowmen. It will require tremendous effort and a heavy expenditure of funds if it is to be far-reaching enough to get the desired results. That results can be obtained has been definitely proved.

Where there have been intensive civic safety movements and intensive publicity, the traffic casualty list has gone down. We have had that experience in Pennsylvania since last August, when the Governor's Safety Campaign was inaugurated. There has been constant activity and organized effort in every section of our commonwealth. Fatalities have decreased along with injuries and accidents. In Pennsylvania, we have been so encouraged by the results, that we propose to add still greater impetus to the campaign in the days ahead. We believe we are giving it the leadership that any such campaign must have.

The other phase of the driver attitude problem is safety education in the schools. There has been steadily increasing interest and considerable action in this field in recent months. Education is the real solution of the driver attitude problem.

To develop the proper driver and pedestrian attitude there must be an intensive educational program in all of the schools of the country, starting at the very foundation with the kindergarten where the child gains its first real impressions of life and begins forming those habits which very often cling throughout a lifetime. These little ones are the potential drivers. If they learn to drive right, they will conserve human life rather than destroy it. Teach the young generation the meaning of traffic laws, the killing potentialities of the automobile, the rules of the road, the obligation of courtesy to others and the vital necessity of making sure at all times that the cars they are driving are mechanically perfect. If you teach them all that, then you will have come as close to having developed the proper driver attitude as it is humanly possible to do.

We have a grave and dangerous problem in the millions of bad drivers we must cope with today. Only by the most stringent measures of enforcement and education can we solve it. The problem of tomorrow—that of the potential driver—can and will be solved by education.

O. H. YARBOROUGH RETIRES FROM DRY GOODS BUSINESS

After twenty-eight years in the dry goods business and a total of fifty years in public life, O. H. Yarbrough, well known Goldthwaite business man, this week sold his interest in the firm of O. H. Yarbrough and Sons to Harold Yarbrough and Ray Duren. The establishment will continue to operate under the firm name of Yarbrough and Duren.

The store was established in 1919 in its present location, and in 1923, it became known as Yarbrough and Hester. Then in 1927 it again became O. H. Yarbrough and remained under this name until 1945 when the business changed to O. H. Yarbrough and Sons. Mr. Yarbrough started out some fifty years ago. He was connected with the Trent State Bank for twenty years before operating a furniture store. During this time he has been active in civic affairs and is now a member of the Goldthwaite Lions Club.

Ray Duren, who recently sold the Durenville service station and cafe to Norman Duren will be actively associated with the concern. Duren taught school for ten years, eight years of that time in Mills County. Prior to operating the Durenville station for three years, he was in the grocery business. His colleague, Harold Yarbrough, has been with the company since 1945. He served with the army during the war and at the present time, serves as adjutant of the local American Legion. He was wounded twice and was recently discharged as a Lieutenant.

SLOGAN REMAINS

A slogan which was adapted and carried through the years will remain with the business. "The Friendly Store Where Your Money Buys More" is used consistently for newspaper and motion picture advertising.

In recent statements both parties have announced their thanks to the public and business practices in the future.

SAFETY TIP OF THE WEEK

PASSWORDS TO DEATH

If you've ever played poker, maybe you know chances of drawing a full house are one in 694; a royal straight flush, one in 649,740. All chances of making a fortune at gambling are slim.

Chance-taking on highways is risky, too—especially passing on hills and blind curves. Take the driver who's stuck in a long line of cars, behind a 1930 jalopy that's belching exhaust fumes in his face. Does he fume, too, and step on the gas? Not if he's smart, he doesn't. He knows there's a very good possibility that on the other side of that hill, another driver is also toying with the idea of pulling out of line.

No one has figured out the mathematical odds involved in highway gambling. But everybody knows that the dealer is Death—who never lends the loser a shirt to wear home. And that the stakes are human lives, and broken, crippled bodies.

Swing Of Southwest Farm Markets

Many farm products gained ground on southwest markets last week, and others held their own fairly well, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

New crop corn started moving from South Texas farms last week, and white corn prices declined several cents per bushel. Yellow corn advanced, however, as dry weather in the corn belt threatened damage to the crop. Oats, barley, and grain sorghums strengthened some, too. Decreased marketings of winter wheat sold firm and midwest and Great Plains growers had about completed the record harvest.

Newly ginned cotton from South Texas found good demand, and most offerings graded strict middling or better. However, spot prices netted losses of $1 to $2.

Southwest peaches sold lower last week as demand slowed, especially for the smaller sizes.

With hotter weather, top quality eggs became even more scarce, and markets held firm.

Prices stayed up fairly well on liberal offerings of medium to lower grade eggs. Demand for poultry slowed some, but prices remained generally firm on moderate receipts. Heavy hens brought mostly 22 to 26 cents, and fryers 32 to 37.

Hog markets generally overcame early-week losses to close mostly 25 to 50 cents higher. Closing bulk of good and choice medium weight butchers sold at $27.50 at Fort Worth.

Sheep prices remained largely steady for the week and most spring lambs went a little higher. Medium to good spring lambs brought mostly $18 to $22 at San Antonio, and closed at $19 to $22 at Fort Worth.

Many cattle classes brought lower prices last week. Most stocker and feeder types, as well as slaughter cows, calves, vealers, and bulls dropped from 50 cents to $1.50. Steers and yearlings weakened at some markets. Common and medium cows brought $11.50 to $14.50 at Houston and Fort Worth.

LETTER FROM JAPAN

July 15, 1947
Kitagata, Japan

The Goldthwaite Eagle
Goldthwaite, Texas

Dear Sir:

I have received four copies of the Goldthwaite Eagle and I sure do enjoy them very much. Goldthwaite is doing a lot of work on the streets from the news I gether from the paper. The prices in the paper for groceries are a lot cheaper there than our Sales Commissary over here. We can get almost anything over here except fresh vegetables. One of the things we miss most of all. And fresh milk is one other thing that we miss most of all. It is very beautiful over here in the spring when the cherry trees, orange trees, peach trees and several other kinds of trees are in bloom. Everything is green now and the gardens are beautiful but Americans can't eat anything the Japanese grow, because the Japanese use human waste for fertilizer. We aren't allowed to have a garden in our own back yard.

The Japanese grow some of the most beautiful flowers I have ever seen. They have all of the same kind of flowers that we have in America. We have had three very hard rains the past three days. When it rains, it pours. It sure is hot here now, but August is suppose to be the hottest month in Kokura, Japan. But so far July has really had a few awful hot days. It rained all the month of June and half of July. I have been here 10 months the 9th of July. But time seems to pass awful fast now. We came over on the S.S. Monterey, a Matson Lines. The enclosed picture is a Sister ship to the Monterey, and we had everything anyone could want. It was a very beautiful ship and the children and I enjoyed our trip very much. Kay Sandra was the only one of the four that was sea sick. We had a wonderful trip. The trip was a lot nicer than I had figured it would be. The way everybody talked I was dreading the trip very much, but now I don't mind my trip back to the State side at all.

My mother, Mrs. Rosa Teague is staying with her sister, Mrs. Carrie Burris there in Goldthwaite while the children and I are living in Japan for two years. My husband is in the Occupation Forces. The American Red Cross has a very beautiful club for the soldiers and civilian workers and also W. D. C. personnel and for the dependants.

I will sign off for now and hope to receive a letter from you.

Sincerely,

MRS. O. R. KENNEDY.

P. S.—The name of the Red Cross club is "Club Skylark" and they have a beautiful roof garden. The Red Cross gives parties for the American children here in Kokura and the children enjoy them very much. They always have these parties in the Blue room which is a very beautiful room with glass floors and funny paintings all over the walls.

(A series of questions and answers in regards to veterans benefits from the Revised GI Bill of Rights is being furnished the Eagle by Veterans Administration Contact unit, 200 East Baker Street, Brownwood, and will appear weekly for several weeks. John H. Quick, Contact Representative in charge of the Brownwood office, will be in the County Judge's Office morning of each week to assist veterans.)

Q. I am an honorably discharged World War II veteran and would like to know where I can secure specific information concerning readjustment allowances while I am unemployed?

A. You should inquire at the public employment office or at the office of the unemployment compensation agency in the state or territory in which you reside.

Q. Are there any penalties in case the veteran accepts readjustment allowance to which he is not entitled?

A. Any veteran who knowingly accepts an allowance to which he is not entitled shall be ineligible to receive further readjustment allowances. Furthermore, anyone who receives money, check or allowance under the readjustment allowance provisions of the law, to which he is not entitled and with intent to defraud the U. S. shall be punished by fine of not more than $1,000 or one year in prison or both.

Q. What interest rates are lenders permitted to charge on G. I. business loans?

A. In most cases, 4 percent is the maximum. However, the interest rate may be slightly higher for certain types of insured business loans.

Q. In order to get a business loan under the G. I. Bill, will I have to operate the business myself?

A. Yes, the veteran must devote his personal labor or supervision to the enterprise, or to the practice of a profession, on a full or part time basis.

Further information regarding the veterans' sale of 480 automobiles at 17 Texas installations was announced this week by the WAA at Grand Prairie. All of the actual selling will take place at the Grand Prairie sales warehouse immediately following a drawing to be participated in by all veterans present at 1 p. m. Monday, August 25. Honorable discharge copies or other proof of World War II service will qualify the veterans as buyers. Veterans will continue to make their selection from the shiny sedans, station wagons and other vehicles by inspection daily through August 22, and the buying will continue until August 27, with certified veteran dealers scheduled to buy on August 28.

There has always been a rather steady demand for army used and new clothing. Wool overcoats, coats and gloves in sizeable quantities will be offered through the Grand Prairie office of War Assets Administration until August 27, it has been announced. This clothing, which has been used, is stored at Camp Hood, at Killeen, and at Fort Worth Quartermaster Depot. The bidding is open to everyone and the clothing will be sold in lots.

Big Springs Army Air Field is the newest war-built installation slated for clearance of camp buildings. Two hundred seventy eight barracks, administration and recreation halls, post exchange, storehouses and supply rooms will be offered by the WAA office of real property on a competitive bid basis. Priority groups will have first choice of the buildings after inspection is opened on August 5, and remaining buildings will be sold to the public, with closing date for submission of bids set at August 20. Purchasers are required to make their own removal of the structures from the present Big Springs site.

WHO, WHAT AND WHEN

This is the story of the atom bomb—the hectic, suspense-laden days of its development, and the exciting, dramatic days of its final use over the islands of Japan.

In the words of President Harry S. Truman, the releasing of atomic energy may well mean 'the beginning or the end' for all humanity. Taking its title from the Chief Executive's solemn warning, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer now brings to the Melba screen Saturday night prevue, Sunday and Monday the most important story of our time.

Even more than that, however, "The Beginning Or the End" is the thrillingly human story of gallant Americans in history's greatest gamble. Half a million of them, each doing a job that, small as it may have been, played an important part in a great allied victory. This is the atom bomb's story and theirs and they fill it to overflowing with adventure, heart-break, romance and even comedy.

To bring this imposing subject to the screen in its proper magnitude, Hollywood gathered one of its most imposing arrays of stellar players. Brian Donlevy! Robert Walker! Tom Drake! Beverly Tyler! Audrey Totter! Hume Cronyn! Hurd Hatfield! Joseph Calleia! Godfrey Tearle! Victor Francen! Richard Haydn! And many more outstanding performers in a record 212 speaking roles.

"THE MAN I LOVE"

Warner Bros. "The Man I Love," a modern screen drama with a pace pitched to the restless post-war years, opens at the Melba Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday matinee. Starring Ida Lupino, Robert Alda, Andrea King and Bruce Bennett, the film's absorbing story revolves about a nightclub singer, Patey Brown (Ida Lupino) who returns to her family on the West Coast after being separated from them for several years.

Her sister Sally, (Andrea King) is married to Roy Otis (John Ridgely) who is in an Army hospital with battle fatigue. Sally is the annoyed recipient of the unwelcome advances of Nicky Torsca (Robert Alda), a smalltime racketeer and night club owner, who employs her brother, Joe (Warren Douglas), as his legman. When Nicky meets Patey, he is intrigued. When he hears her sing, he offers her a job and she soon becomes the club's main attraction.

Others in an excellent supporting cast are Martha Vickers, Alan Hale, Dolores Moran and Don McGuire.

"WILD BILL HICKOK RIDES"
Constance Bennett, Bruce Cabot and Warren Williams head the cast of Warner Bros. rousing Western drama, "Wild Bill Hickok," which shows at the Melba Theatre Saturday night only for a special return show. The film also features, in other important roles, Betty Brewer, Walter Catlett and many others.

Graphically depicting the thrills and action which were so much a part of the early development of our western frontier, the film presents Bruce Cabot in the title role of hard-hitting, hard-riding Bill Hickok, the two-fisted marshal whose efforts to bring law and order to the lawless frontier towns have carved his name indelibly in the annals of western history, while Belle Andrews, beautiful gambling-house owner whose better instincts prompt her eventually to champion the forces of justice, despite her previous business commitments and still unpaid debt of gratitude to Harry Farrel, (Warren Williams), a pioneering antecedent of our present day racketeers.

(Written for last week)

Our summer revival with Bro. J. B. Tidmore from Lometa doing the preaching, is scheduled to begin Friday night, August 15. There will be dinner on the ground both Sundays, and all from far and near are invited to attend.

Mrs. Irene Reeves of Oakland visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reeves Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whittenburg and children, Clint and Jack, attended the Reid reunion at Brady over the weekend.

Misses Ynell Egger and Edna Beth Cawyer attended the Style Review at Brownwood Monday.

Little Miss Norma Faye Duren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Duren of Goldthwaite, spent last week at the Thompson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams of Indian Creek attended church and visited relatives here Sunday.

Miss Lila Jo Thompson spent the weekend with Miss Betty Sawyer at Brownwood.

Mrs. Cecil Crowder and children of Fort Worth arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griffin, last week. Mrs. Crowder said their house and all its contents were destroyed by fire last week. She left her children with her parents and returned to Fort Worth.

Herman Glen Egger is helping Andy Rowlett at Regency build an addition to his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Blue Thompson visited Mrs. Nellie Malone Sunday afternoon. They said she was not feeling at all well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Belch and Billy went to Brownwood Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilmett and their daughter, Mrs. Paul McClung, and children of Plainview who are visiting there now. They got there a little too late to see Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Taylor and Pat who arrived at the Wilmett home Sunday afternoon and stayed until 10 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have bought a large food market in Lawton Okla., and do not have much time for visiting.

Charm Whittenburg, Cecil Egger, Austin Cawyer and John Briley went to Goldthwaite Monday on business.

On a trip to Goldthwaite via Mullin last week we saw a new coat of paint being put on the Ridge schoolhouse. Near Mullin we saw the old Pafford house all torn down and everything ready to begin to build a new one. At Mullin we saw the nice new teacherage the trustees have built for Superintendent Williams. On the way home we saw the Ashton house all torn down and everything in readiness for a new house.

We also observed that the high line reaches the Ashton place. That gives us hope that it may some day reach us. Mrs. Austin Cawyer who has been attending school at Nacogdoches this summer, says it makes her ashamed to think we do not have electricity when every little rural shack in East Texas has electricity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley, Miss Ynell Egger, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Belch and Billy were the guests of Mrs. Edna Dwyer and the Cawyers Sunday after church. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger also called in the afternoon.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Soul" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 17.

The Golden Text is: "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation" (Isaiah 25:9). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee: the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee" (Isaiah 26:8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Science of being reveals man as perfect, even as the Father is perfect, because the Soul, or Mind, of the spiritual man is God, the divine Principle of all sense, by the law of Spirit (not by the so-called laws of matter)" (page 302).

CARD OF THANKS

In appreciation of the many words of condolence, the beautiful floral offering and the many kind deeds rendered during the illness and at the death of our dear mother and grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Rudd, we wish to extend our thanks and gratitude.

NEW CUSTOM SCALES IN OPERATION BY GERALD-WORLEY CO.

The new 40-foot bonded truck scales recently installed by Gerald-Worley Company just behind their produce house on a Sana Fe lot are now in operation. The scales which will weigh up to 40,000 pounds have been badly needed here.

The scales are bonded and R. E. Worley, manager for Gerald-Worley Company, is also bonded for the public's benefit. The scales are conveniently located and there is plenty of room for the largest truck to drive on or off the scales.

House Bill 525, passed by the recent session of the Legislature and signed by the Governor, is believed by most livestock circles in Texas to be a step in the right direction, but some concern has been voiced over possible ways to make it effective.

It is the law which requires veterinarians to brand the letter "B" on the left jaw of all cattle found to react positively to a Bang's disease (brucellosis) test.

There is no Texas statute which requires that cattle be given the Bang's test at all. Private veterinarians do not relish the responsibility called for in the new law.

The Fred Mannings of near Hutto, in Williamson County, are tenant farmers who take pride in their house and yard. The yard is nearly covered with flowers. They also have about a hundred colonies of bees which make an obvious difference in the yield of their clover and ruit crops.

With modern medicine turning to preventive as well as curative methods, the Tarrant County Medical Society will conservationist, Temple, speak on soil nutrients at its August 19th meeting. Mr. Walser has made many studies of human health in relation to soil quality. Perfect-looking vegetables, for instance, may be lacking in some chemical important to human health, if it is lacking in the soil which grows the vegetables.

Comes the first World Horse Show, in Fort Worth September 17-21. Palomino is a color, not a breed, but Palomino lovers are everywhere and they will flock to Fort Worth for this show, sponsored by the Palomino Horse Breeders Association of America, which has headquarters at Mineral Wells.

Texas growing cotton is at the turning point now. It can make a bumper crop or a skimpy one. Insects have been fairly mild in their attacks this year, but it is many weeks yet before the last field is picked or pulled.

Health Notes

If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take, to prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers, and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fag. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Heat cramps is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating.

It is a wise precaution to keep the body supplied with salt, and thus avoid much possible suffering and loss of time from heat cramps.

BOYS 4-H CLUB COCA COLA BOX

Some of you may be wondering who is getting the profit from the coke machine in the Court House. Well, it is neither Judge Patterson, Sheriff Mahan or any of the County officials. When they drink a coke from the box, they pay their nickle just like you do.

The proceeds from the Coca Colas sold through this box go to the Mills County Boys 4-H Club fund.

We plan to have a sign placed above the machine so that all may know where the profit goes.

The only man who will do to watch is the County Agent, because he has the keys.

TEACH FIRE SAFETY IN SCHOOLS

The Active Program developed at the President's Conference on Fire Prevention recommends that basic instruction in fire safety be expanded and intensified at all levels of education and in all types of schools—public, private and parochial.

It is certainly true that we owe the 30,000,000 young people now in school the best possible instruction in the causes and prevention of fire. Both students and teachers should participate in community and home fire prevention activities. Instruction can be made dramatic and interesting. And, on the college level, fire safety can be integrated with such courses as chemistry and physics, where it will be of definite usable value to the student in his future life.

Fire instruction in schools would produce a nation of adults in whom safety habits had become natural and ingrained. Millions of people would automatically do the proper thing—and take the simple safeguards that would prevent the majority of fires. The fundamental attitudes of all are established in the formative years. Most schools now devote considerable time to such subjects as traffic safety. Fire safety deserves equal attention.

This is a matter for state departments of education and for the trustees of private schools. Instruction in fire prevention would cost nothing, would fit perfectly into school curricula, and would save untold numbers of lives and gigantic sums of money over the years.

A RIDER WITH SPURS

When socialism gets into the saddle, it is almost impossible to unseat it.

That is the gist of an editorial in the Portland Oregonian, which said: "In a democratic country such as the United States, private ownership is always on the uneasy seat. Election after election can be ordered on the same issue—say, on government ownership of power. Private ownership may win overwhelmingly today, yet tomorrow it faces the effort all over again. But public ownership if it wins just once is for practical purposes secure. The victory of capitalism in any election is tentative; the victory of socialism is virtually final."

The essence of this lies in the fact that the abuses of private enterprise can always be corrected, and capitalism can be controlled. The people, through their government, wield the ultimate power. But socialism is in a very different category. Once it captures the government, it becomes in itself the ultimate power. It can conceal its mistakes. It has charge of the public purse-strings, and it can use them as it wishes. It can dominate elections through patronage and bureaucracy. It becomes a mass employer—and the livelihood of millions of people are dependent on its perpetuation. And once that happens, little short of revolution can change it.

This has been demonstrated too many times to need argument. It is taking place now in England, precisely as it has taken place throughout most of Europe. If the American people learn only one fact from history, it should be this: the preservation of all liberties can only be insured in a social and political system in which the government regulates but never competes, and in which the state is never permitted to become a mass employer.

HABITUAL CARELESSNESS CAN BE CURED

Old saws and sayings to the contrary, you CAN teach an old dog new tricks. We admit it is more difficult than teaching him the right things when he is young. Altering the ingrained habits of a lifetime often takes little short of dynamite.

That is why we have a difficult and serious problem before us in the nation's present efforts to cut down the annual slaughter on our streets and highways. Too many drivers have become habitually poor—even dangerous—drivers. Long accustomed to ignoring the simple rules of safety and to daily taking unnecessary chances, the ordinary driver unconsciously contributes to the death and injury in traffic.

If we are to save our lives and the lives of our neighbors, we must now change those habits and teach the man behind the wheel—and the unhappy pedestrian who is often under it—a new and sane regard for safety.

Though it will be hard for some individuals to break with habit, we are fortunate that older drivers are blessed with the reasoning power that comes with maturity, for this will enable them to grasp the importance of safety and their individual responsibilities in securing it.

Straight Thinking About Drinking

LESSON TEXT FOR AUGUST 17—Proverbs 20:1; 23:19-21, 29-35; Ecclesiastes 10:17.

MEMORY SELECTION—Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit.—Ephesians 5:18.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

By WILLIAM CULBERTSON, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.

THE increase in the drinking habits of our nation is a source of concern, not only to the forces of morality, but to the liquor interests themselves. How strange it is to have the purveyors of a commodity urge moderation in its use!

Undoubtedly the Bible's answer to this whole problem is the only right one. The Word of God has many strong things to say concerning alcoholic beverages. Wise is the man who heeds the injunctions of Scripture.

I. Liquor—a Description (Prov. 20:1).

WHAT a striking text this is! Think of its implications. "Wine is a mocker." It grasps its victim in a vicelike grip, and then taunts him in his inability to release himself. The drunkard is a victim of his own appetite, helpless to resist the temptation which ensnares him.

The young person who takes his first drink for sociability is indeed deceived, in that alcoholic liquor never reveals the possible cost which it exacts from the one who takes that first drink. The better part of valor is to leave the stuff alone.

The Word of God says further that "strong drink is a brawler" (A.S.V.). All of us have probably seen how the drunkard enters into conflict entirely without reason. Liquor seems to make a man senseless to danger and quick to express anger.

II. Liquor—a Warning (Prov. 23:19-21).

THE admonition of this passage is that we should not be found among drunkards and gluttonous men.

Solomon here tells us of one of the results of drunkenness and gluttony—poverty. The drowsiness which is the result of both of these sins does indeed clothe a man with rags.

If, therefore, we have no higher motive than that of self-respect, than that of having enough of this world's goods to make a presentable appearance, we should avoid company with those who will lead us into the same excess that characterizes them. How important it is that we guide our hearts in God's way.

Let us understand, of course, that there are far higher motives for right living than those involved here. However, if we can come to the conclusion to avoid drinking on the basis of a lower motive, how much more important it is to come to the same conclusion on the basis of a higher one. As Christians, that higher motive concerns our testimony before men, our living a life that will cause others to want to know Christ; in short, our living for the glory of God.

III. Liquor—a History (Prov. 23:29-35; Eccles. 10:17).

IN THE first of these Scripture passages we have what may be called a history of drunkenness. This sin leads to woe, to sorrow, to contentions, to wounds without a cause.

But that is not the end. Look carefully at Proverbs 23:32 and stress the first three words, "At the last." At the last, it does indeed bite like a serpent and sting like an adder.

Such poison is injected into one's body and soul that it seems as though there is no remedy. Thank God, there is a remedy; there is power in the blood of Christ to make the foulest clean.

In verses 33 to 35 we read some of the results of drunkenness: Beholding of strange things (v. 33), utterance of perverse things (v. 33), insensibility which is the result of drinking (v. 33), and inability to avoid succumbing to the same temptation all over again (v. 35).

Is it any wonder that the admonition is "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it sparketh in the cup, when it goeth down smoothly." Although man still has a semblance of right thinking, the temptation is great enough to deceive him as to the consequences.

In view of such results, is it any wonder this same Preacher says in Ecclesiastes 10:17 that the land is blessed when its rulers eat and drink for strength and not for drunkenness.

It still is true that righteousness exalteth a nation, but that sin is a reproach to any people. And since the princes of the land as the leaders will frequently personally the people of the land as the followers, happy is that nation which has godly governors.

Dairy cows need their vitamins. Good legume hay put up in the barn now will help prevent a vitamin-lack this winter.

This is the time of year when animals often get prussic acid poisoning when turned on grasses whose growth have been stopped or retarded by drought, trampling or overgrazing. Smart stockmen are feeding hay before turning cows on pasture.

HILLSIDE MISSION

By LIDA BYRNE

"Woe unto them that join house to house that lay field to field till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth! Isaiah 5:8.

The cities now have row after row of apartment houses, and some of us can remember when vast expanses of land were open country ready to be pre-empted; now travel over any road anywhere and see how much unenceded acreage you can find. Probably you will agree that the above scripture does not merely mean woe to landlords or land owners but woe in the time when such conditions exist.

God has not let a catastrophe of great magnitude come upon the earth without considerable warning. People were warned of the flood and in St. Matthew, chapter 24 verse 37, 38 and 39
we are told: "But as the days of yoe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that woe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be."

Each individual who has reached the age of accountability is responsible for their own soul.

Our bible says in plain understandable words that THE CITIES WILL BE DESTROYED.

IF OVER 65 HERE'S HOW TO GET MONEY

"If you want to get as much money as possible from your social security retirement payment, gets in touch immediately with the nearest social security field office if you're 65 or older."

David S. Pruitt, manager of the Austin social security office said today.

"Older men and women can draw social security retirement payments even though they have worked less than 10 years in jobs that come under social security," Pruitt said. "The exact length of time required depends upon the worker's age.
It may be as little as 1 1-2 years,
if the worker was 65 before July 1, 1940. About 10 years is required for persons who will not be 65 until 1957 or later. An individual's work and wages after age 65 also count toward social security.

"Some workers over 65 years of age in this area," Pruitt said,
"have not claimed their retirement payments because they do not know they are eligible for them. Delay in claiming their payments may mean some loss of money, since payments can be made retroactive for only three months before the date a claim is filed."

If you're 65 or older, and have worked or are working on jobs under social security, write, phone, or call in person at the Austin social security field office, located in Room 105, Brown Building, Austin, Texas.

HERE'S HOW- it happens!

Yes, here's how more than 5,500 people died and thousands more were injured last year—because someone took one or two drinks, and then drove.

If you think you can drink and then drive safely you're simply courting suicide—or murder. You're drinking a toast to Death!

Statistics show that one out of every six drivers involved in fatal automobile accidents had been drinking. Drinking drivers are three or four times more likely to be involved in accidents. Tests have proved time and again that a couple of drinks are sufficient to lower a driver's reactions to the danger point. When quick action and alert judgment are demanded, the driver who has been drinking fails.

If it were only the drinking driver himself who paid the penalty, that would be bad enough. But when he cuts short the lives of other innocent people—riders in his car, occupants of other cars, or pedestrians caught by his erratic driving—that's manslaughter!

Don't smile when you read this, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen. The law operates with a heavy hand on drinking drivers. It is going to be even tougher in the future. It's serious business!

When you drink, don't drive. When you drive, don't drink!

OLD MAN 100

well, but the Old Man has got the women on his side (well, one, anyway.) Here's a card the Old Man just got from Mrs. Daphne Kirby: "Dear Ole Man 100: I've figured out a way for you to get a raise. I'm sending this year's dues and my next year's dues — and if I don't make it till next year then you can keep this and tell your Boss your friends are sorry for you even if he isn't. Enclosed $4.00 and one of them miniature flying saucers! and a plastic dish rag for the 7th." The Boss didn't say nothin' when he read this card, but he shore smiled when he soloed the $4 up on his C-registered.

SAY THIS SLOWLY—

Mary had a little lamb,
Its foot was black as soot.
And right on Mary's bread and jam
His sooty foot he put.

ANOTHER 100 CLUBBER—

Old Man 100's famous 100 Club composed of people who have paid for and read this paper for 50 years and after that get it for the next 50 years free—but have to start paying for the third 50—got a much-appreciated new member last week-end. Benjamin Franklin Geeslin was up here from Edinburg last Friday and come by the Eagle Office looking for the Old Man. Ben says he once knew every man in Mills County, and wanted to see who the Old Man Hunnert was, but the Old Man was out at his shack setting up with his puny pet turtle, Old 100, who was all swelled up with a loaf of stale bread in him that some saby-tour had fed him. Everybody in Mills County also knew Ben Geeslin. He came here in 1875, before it was a Mills, and was in business here until about 1929, when he moved away and has been living at Edinburg. Ben says he still considers Goldthwaite his home, and has been making a trip over here once a year ever since he left so's to meet his many old friends again. He may write to the Eagle about some of the few settlers that lived here when he first came in 1875. Welcome to the Hundred Club, Ben!

Onct in Dallas when the landlady told the Old Man to be careful of a live wire when he was in the bath tub, the Old Man said: "Oh, I am. I always lock the door." The old man read this notice in a weekly: "Anyone found near be found there in the morning"

MILLS COUNTY BOY MAKES GOOD AS BAPTIST EVANGELIST

Charlie Jackson was born three miles east of Goldthwaite, but at the age of 8 his parents moved to their present home on the San Saba Road. From this old home he attended the high school of Goldthwaite where he graduated in 1911. That fall he attended San Marcos State Normal School and for two years taught school before entering the ministry in 1914. That fall he entered Baylor University where he graduated in 1919 after having spent eight months in the service of the army.

In the summer of 1915 Charlie went with Rev. L. L. Hays who was associational missionary of Mills County. This gave him some practical experience so that when he entered Baylor that fall he secured the pastorates of some small churches. When he finished Baylor the Spirit led him to Oklahoma to hold some meetings and he remained in that state for a year as pastor at Mounds, Oklahoma, before entering the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, in 1920. He held student pastorates all the time he was in the seminary and graduated from that institution with the Th. D. degree in 1925.

After completing the work at the seminary he was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, Russellville, Kentucky, where he remained for nine years before accepting the call of the First Baptist Church of Greenville, Texas, where he served for twelve years. Last November Dr. C. E. Matthews, head of the Department of Evangelist of Texas Baptists, invited him to become a member of his staff of evangelists. He resigned his pastorate and has been in the field of evangelism since that time. Since January 15 of this year he has held meetings at Del Rio, Mercedes, El Paso, Stockdale, Bay City, Sherman, Brownwood, Kerrville, Beaumont, Rockdale and Atlanta, Georgia. His time is completely filled until December 1 and several meetings are scheduled for 1948.

While attending the Seminary Rev. Jackson met and married an attractive Kentucky girl. They have two girls who have graduated from Baylor University with honors. The older girl is married to a young doctor who has just been called into the service of Uncle Sam. The younger daughter has a teaching fellowship in Pennsylvania University where she expects to enter this fall and continue her studies toward a Masters Degree.

Charlie gives the Lord and his good friends of Mills County credit for any success which he may have attained in the work to which he has been called.

H. D. COUNCIL REPORT

The Mills County Home Demonstration Council met in the Agent's office at 3:00 Saturday, August 9, 1947, with eleven members and six clubs represented. The Chairman presided.

For recreation, the group sang "Three Blind Mice," a round which was enjoyed a lot by the group. Center City will have charge of recreation for September.

The roll call was read; minutes were omitted because of the secretary's absence.

Mrs. Haenisch read a letter received from the Red Cross thanking the clubs for the 26 lbs. of cookies received at the Waco Veterans Hospital. She also expressed appreciation from the local chapter for the cooperation received at all times from the clubs.

The Finance Chairman, Mrs. Field Hines, reported only four clubs had turned in birthday money. This should be in right away.

The picnic which is to be held at Hancock Park in Lampasas was discussed. This will be August 19th and all members were urged to attend.

The Marketing Committee reported 92 yards of Doyle Satin had been received completing the first two orders.

Reports were given by the Presidents with Jones Valley Club reporting a Tacky Party for their community night. About fifty attended. The club also sponsored a style show and pie and cake auction at their community building. One half of the proceeds went to the completion of the building and one half to the club. Thirty-two dollars was cleared. The club chose "The Egg And I" as their book to buy through pooled orders.

Scallorn reported plans for annual picnic to be held in the form of an ice cream supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Smith. They also announced their Club Style Show on September 24, 1947.

Midway, Nabors Creek, Goldthwaite, and Big Valley also reported.

BONEZ WASSERMAN WINS DRESS REVIEW

Bonez Wasserman, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Wasserman of Mullin, won first place with her dress in the 4-H Dress Review which was held in the District Court Room on Monday, August 4, 1947. Bonez is an outstanding 4-H girl having been in the work for five years. Clothing has been her outstanding demonstration, having received the Dress Review award for her dress last year. However, since she was not 14 she could not enter for state participation. Besides this award, she has won awards twice with her garden and served as County Gold Star Girl for 1946.

Bonez will model her dress at the 4-H Round-Up on September 3, 4, 5th along with other Texas Girls. The winner at the State contest will be awarded a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress held in Chicago each year.

The Council voted to buy 3 dozen Nu-way Ironing Aids to start the sale for council treasury.

The Council voted to send 2 delegates to the T. H. D. A. State Convention which is to be held at Galveston on September 23, 24, 25th.

Meeting adjourned.
