NATIONAL RED CROSS 1949 FUND GOAL SET AT $60,000,000

The Mills County Chapter was represented by Brian Smith at a meeting in Fort Worth Wednesday. Basil O'Connor, National Red Cross president, conferred with Red Cross personnel from 27 counties in this section of Texas.

Red Cross is asking the American people for $60 million of the $81 million needed to run the organization through 1949. The extra $21 million will be drawn from the surplus oversubscribed during the war.

But that $21 million will end the surplus and next year people will have to dig deeper in their pockets to finance the full Red Cross program, he said.

The Red Cross blood program, initiated last year, already is established in 19 centers serving 400 communities and Red Cross chapters. Texans got $50,000 worth of blood products in 1948, a part of the $17 million distributed nationally, he pointed out.

Benefits of blood derivation and fractionation are just beginning to be known in medicine. Twenty-two institutions are doing research under the Red Cross to turn blood into medicine.

to fight disease, Mr. O'Connor stated.

E. T. Fairman, chairman of the Mills County Red Cross Chapter, has appointed Warren Duren Red Cross Fund Chairman. Next week's Eagle will carry Mills County's quota by communities and also a record of what your chapter did in Mills County in 1948.

THANKS TO VOTERS OF MILLS COUNTY

To the voters and citizens of Mills County. Thanks for the splendid support given me in the recent election. I appreciate your confidence, which I will endeavor to justify in my service to you.

WEEK'S PICTURE—
Every week, in this here space, the Boss says he wants to see a picture, even though he don't read it any. O. H. knows these pics don't satisfy the readers (note the s) of this column—but them 11 dullers go a long way these days since O. H. has read the cost of living has come down 1/2 of 1/4 per cent lately. Enyway, as already reported, O. H. used to be a mighty fast travelling drummer in his primler days, and here's something he jest thought of:

BACK IN 1889—
Back in 1889, when a dime was a dime, most everybody had a dime but a hull duller was a small fortune. Holland Frizzell remembers that year when he sold dressed hogs to Frank Taylor, who had a grocery store right next to where The Eagle Office is now, for 3 cents a pound delivered to the store. He also brought him eggs at 5 cents a dozen. There were no turkeys here then except wild ones. Cows sold for $7 to $8 per head, with calves $4 to $5; horses $25 to $50; Cotton 8 to 10 cents; cotton seed, $6 to $7 a ton; Cotton seed meal, $8 to $9; and corn 15 to 20 cents per bushel.

Boss—"Do you believe in life after death?" Old Hunnert—"Yes, sir." Boss—"Then everything is in order. After you had gone for the afternoon yesterday to bury your grandfather, he came in to see you."

Some people had better slow down some—the tongue, being in a wet place, is likely to slip when going fast.
And when the Goldthwaite grammar school teacher asked Willie where is the capital of the United States, Willie said: "On loan all over Europe."

Old Hunnert don't pay so much attention to his manners now as he uster—he's found out that those who matter don't mind and those who mind don't matter.
Yesterday is a cancelled check. Tomorrow is a promissory note. Today is ready cash spend it wisely.

O. H. was in a store when he heard a young mother order three dozen diapers, please. Clerk—"That will be three dollars plus tax." Young M. never mind the tacks. We use safety pins.

Teacher—"How many kinds of wood are used in making a match?" Student—"Two kinds. We would and she would."
O. H. and the 7th has a system: What she don't need and ever expects to use again we put in the closet, then we put it in the attic, and finally we put it in the garage. And O. H. does the putting.

First Drunk—"Say, you don't open a door with that. It's a sugar butt." Second Drunk—"Mi-osh. I musta smoked the key." And if you want to make a face in the sun, you'd better expect to get a lot of blisters. Also, today, the young fellers like their girls "out" of this world." In Old Hunnert's day we allus liked them a little loser.

And another thing, adolescent means in his early nicotens.
A fresh-wed youth around here told his bride one morning that these pancakes are rather heavy. Bride—"Then I'm afraid you're a poor judge, dear, for the cookbook says they are light and feathery."
This here must've happened est before Xmas. Old Hunnert: "Say, Doc, do you remember last year when you cured my rheumatism? You told me to avoid dampness." M. D. "That's right. What's wrong?" O. H.—"Well, can I take my Xmas bath now?"
"The time will come," thundered the lady orator, "when women will get men's wages." Old Hunnert, on back row—"Yeah, next Saturday night."

Construction Of Third Generating Plant At Buchanan Dam Begun

Austin—Construction of a third generating unit at the Buchanan Dam power plant of the Lower Colorado River Authority is underway, General Manager Max Starcke has announced.

This additional hydro-electric generator will add 18,767 horsepower to the LCRA's production of electricity when it is completed early in 1950. This is part of the LCRA's program of expansion of generating facilities to provide adequate supply of electricity for its expanding system needs.

The award of the contract for the enlargement of the power plant building, and for construction of foundations for the equipment, has been made by the LCRA Board of Directors to the firm of Cage, Anglin and Field of Austin in the amount of $157,201.33. Previously, contracts had been awarded to manufacturers for the equipment to go into the enlarged building.

The expansion of these generating facilities are being paid for out of the $3,050,000 worth of revenue bonds sold by the Authority in December. The issuance of this amount of bonds has used up the total amount of bonds ($25,000,000) which the LCRA is allowed to issue under the restrictions of the legislative acts creating it. Mr. Starcke pointed out.

"The requirements of the rural electrification cooperatives and the more than 250 municipalities served by LCRA have grown by leaps and bounds during the last 10 years," he pointed out. "The use of LCRA electricity by these customers has increased approximately 200 per cent since 1939. In order for the LCRA to continue to provide these customers with the electric service they require and must have, the LCRA is asking the Legislature to remove the restrictions it has placed upon it against the issuance of revenue bonds, or to raise the limit from the present $25,000,000 to $50,000,000. "This does not, nor will not, involve the expenditure of any state funds, or the levying of any taxes, or the remission of any taxes," he emphasized.

"The LCRA is merely asking that it be given the right to go into the open money market, and, if it can, sell its revenue bonds and use the proceeds from the bonds for the purpose of further developing the Central Texas area served by LCRA," he said.

In addition to providing electricity for approximately 350,000 people within a 31,000-mile area in Central Texas, the LCRA provides the only substantial conservation of water in Texas today with its four present dams. The water conservation, soil conservation and flood control programs of LCRA are paid out of revenues, it was pointed out.

By trapping and storing flood waters of the Colorado River, the LCRA has made a major contribution to the rice irrigator section in Colorado, Wharton and Matagorda counties. The controlled release of water during the summer months, guaranteeing not only a substantial increase in rice planted, but also a full harvest, has meant an increase of more than $41,000,000 for the rice growers during the last eight years, Mr. Starcke declared. During 1948, it is estimated that $10,000,000 worth of rice was made that would not have been made had it not been for releases of water from LCRA dams.

The third generator and pump installation at Buchanan and the additional dams contemplated will increase the utilization of waters of the Colorado, it was pointed out.

The addition of a third generating unit at Buchanan is part of the over-all expansion program of the LCRA which envisions the construction of two additional dams in the near future and other generating facilities later.

A FEW BILLS PASS

Last week the House took bold and decisive steps to bring about the long-overdue reorganization of Government agencies, passed a three-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade program, and moved to exclude 1949 planting from consideration in making up cotton acreage allotments for 1950, when that time comes.

The reorganization measure permits the President to make use of the Hoover Report in proposed streamlining of the Executive agencies. A year ago Congress passed a resolution setting up a joint commission to make the study of needed changes designed to eliminate overlapping functions and remove unnecessary boards and bureaus. The President appointed former President Hoover to head that commission. The bill passed last week gives the President the authority to take initial steps to put the Hoover report into effect.

The Buchanan installation is a unique one in that in addition to the generator, a pumping unit is being installed to return water from Lake Inks to Lake Buchanan in order that sufficient water will be available at all times to operate the additional generator.

The pump, operating on electricity from a steam generating plant during night time and holiday periods when there is an excess supply of electricity, will place sufficient water into Buchanan to generate 18,767 additional horsepower for use during periods of the day when there is a hard-to-meet demand for electricity.

The present power house will be extended 64 feet to provide space for the new generator and the pumping unit.

This reform is badly needed. In the last 20 years, our Government has grown from about 350 agencies to over 1800 bureaus and agencies. Under this cumbersome hodge-podge, vast, expensive overlapping of functions has grown up. Some one illustrated it with the salmon on the Columbia River. When the salmon swim up the Columbia out of the State of Washington, they are, at different stages, under the jurisdiction of 12 different federal agencies, and have to be looked after accordingly. The Department of Agriculture looks after them. The Department of Interior looks after them! The Department of Commerce looks after them. The Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army looks after them. And the various Columbia River development authorities look after them. Poor fish, some one added. Poor taxpayer.

RECIPROCAL TRADE BILL

By a vote of 319 to 69, the House approved a three-year extension of the reciprocal trade program. An attempt to retain one feature of the 1948 extension act was defeated. This has required the Tariff Commission to furnish the President reports setting forth the lowest import rates that could be set on a product in a reciprocal agreement without imperiling an American industry engaged in making that or a competitive item. I voted to retain that provision, but it was struck out by a vote of 167 to 119. The reciprocal program is a very good thing, as I see it, when it is prudently administered. But it can be harmful when the well-being of our own industries is ignored.

Take Argentine coarse wool, for example, which since the war has been dumped into this country in large quantities, largely because a reciprocal agreement lets it in almost duty-free. As a result, Argentine wool growers have prospered while our competitive mohair growers have been virtually crowded out of their own domestic market which they have taken half a century to build up. Perhaps if the law at the time had required the Tariff Commission to investigate such effect in advance, the concession to Argentina would not have been so liberal and the resulting effect so disastrous.

REC BROADCAST FRIDAY NIGHT

At the invitation of the National Broadcasting Company, I will be interviewed on an NBC network program on Friday night, February 18 from 9:45 to 10 o'clock Texas time. You are invited to listen in. The subject will be the Taft-Hartley labor law and the possible effect on the public if it should be repealed.

This matter is of the highest importance to the American people at this time. We need fair labor laws, with some restraint over the abuse of power by both management and labor where the public interest is directly involved. There is serious danger that, unless checked, the pressure groups now at work will get our laws so repealed or crippled that again men like John L. Lewis will have more power over our economy than does the President of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Palmer were week-end guests of their son, Edward Eugene Palmer at Austin.

Winston Faith of John Tarleton College was home over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Faith.

Caradan Community Club

The Community Club met February 4, with Mrs. Mary Koen.

Due to sickness and bad roads there were only three members and two visitors present. But a quilt was quilted on, almost finished.

Those present were Mrs. Dora Kline, Oleta Kerby, Ima Wirtz, Etta Mae Lawson, Mrs. Edna Koen.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Irene Parker, February 18.—Reporter.

'RETURN OF THE BAD MEN' BRINGS DYNAMIC ALL-STAR CAST

Few sections of the Old West were wilder or woolier than Oklahoma Territory of some fifty years ago, around the time of the Land Rush. And this setting and its atmosphere have been recreated in RKO Radio's "Return of the Bad Men," which opened at the Melba Theatre Thursday with Randolph Scott, Robert Ryan, Anne Jeffreys, George "Gabby" Hayes and Jacqueline White in the stellar roles.

Telling an exciting tale of banditry and law enforcement, the film presents Scott as a former Texas Ranger who is induced to take a U. S. Marshalship to combat the outlaw bands terrorizing the district. Ryan as the "Sundance Kid," is discovered as one of the toughest gunmen of that era. Miss Jeffreys portrays a bandit queen who reforms when she falls in love with Scott, and Hayes is seen as a frontier banker.

The interplay of plot between the four principals, and the lawless activities of such noted desperadoes as Bill Doolin, the Youngers, the Daltons, Billy the Kid and Wild Bill Yeager, all make the picture unusually thrilling. A bandit raid on the town of Braxton, and a second raid which is broken up largely by Scott's efforts, form two of the actionful highlights of the story.

'DEEP WATERS'

"Deep Waters," the widely-heralded Twentieth Century-Fox hit starring Dana Andrews in the most rugged of his portrayals, and beautiful Jean Peters in another role to match her "Captain From Castile" triumph, opens Sunday and Monday at the Melba Theatre. A drama-packed story of the sea and a man it possessed, and of the spell it cast on a romance that was ruled by the turbulent tides, this filmization of Ruth Moore's best-selling novel, "Spoonhand- le," is being acclaimed as one of the most unusual love stories ever to reach the screen.

Andrews, currently at the peak of his career, is seen as Hod Stillwell, the young, Maine lobster fisherman who couldn't be torn from the sea even for the love of a beautiful girl. For the busy star who recently scored in "The Iron Curtain," the current role is altogether unlike any he has ever before assayed, and is said to reveal a new facet of his brilliant and versatile acting ability.

'THE ROOSEVELT STORY'

The heart-warming, intensely human, true-to-life film story of our late president, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, is scheduled for a gala opening next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Melba Theatre under the simple but eloquent title, "The Roosevelt Story."

The film, international prize winner of the 1947 World Film Festival, was made with the editorial help of the late president's son, Elliott Roosevelt. It is now being translated into 14 languages for exhibition in practically every country on the globe, and young Roosevelt plans personally to carry a print of the unusual film to every important European capital this year.

Produced by Martin Levine and Oliver A. Unger, in association with Harry Brandt, "The Roosevelt Story" was eighteen months in the making. It covers the whole panorama of FDR's exciting, adventurous life, brimming with his famous grin, touched throughout with the shock and grief experienced everywhere by those who mourn his loss.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bayley last week were her daughter, Mrs. D. J. McCarty, Danny and Kay, and Mrs. M. S. Sellers of Rising Star, and Mrs. Jess Helms of Glen Rose.

LIT B. BURNHAM

L. B. (Lit) Burnham, Sr., 84, died at his home in this county last Sunday, Feb. 13, 1949.

Funeral services were conducted from the Church of Christ here Monday afternoon at two o'clock by the minister, Vernon L. Simpson, and Minister C. W. Hoover of Cherokee. Interment followed in Shaw Ben Cemetery.

Mr. Burnham, a retired rancher, had served Mills County as Commissioner from Prec. No. 1 for 16 years. The court house was closed for his funeral and the present Commissioners, Court, in regular meeting at the time, adjourned and attended the services in a body. The Masonic Lodge had charge at the graveside.

Lit Burnham was a member of one of the earliest families to settle in this section, and he lived on his Shaw Bend ranch for 64 years. He was born in Hopkins County, Texas, Dec. 9, 1864, and his parents moved to Burnet when he was a child.

Mr. Burnham was married to Mrs. Annie Bickham, who did a fine job of rearing the four boys as if they were her own.

Mr. Burnham was a member of the Church of Christ, and started the Church of Christ new building fund about four years ago.

He is survived by the widow; one brother, T. J. Burnham of San Saba County; four sons, Coleman Burnham, San Saba, Marion T. Burnham, Leslie D. Burnham, and L. B. Burnham, Jr., all of Mills County; six grandchildren, and a number of nephews and nieces.

OBITUARY

J. R. Slack, an old-time resident of Mills County, passed away February 9, after an illness of 4 months at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brent Davee.

Mr. Slack was born March 12, 1862, and died at the age of 86 years, 10 months, and 28 days. He was born at Spring Hill, Louisiana, and came to Brown County at the age of 17. He worked for the famous Hash Knife Cattle Company a number of years, then went to California. While in California, at the age of 25, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Brown who was a native of Brown County.

After a short time, they came back to Texas and settled on the place on the Bayou known as the Slack place. They farmed and ranched here until his retirement a few years ago.

Five children were born to this union, 3 of which survive. They are Mrs. Brenton Davee and Mrs. Earnest Ince of Goldthwaite and Richard Slack of Abilene. He is also survived by four grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Della Campbell and Mrs. Ed Stovall of Brownwood.

We were preceded in death by his wife in 1936, and two children.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, February 11, at the Goldthwaite Church of Christ, with Vernon Simpson in charge. He was assisted by Rev. J. L. Emery, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Goldthwaite. Interment followed in the Rock Springs Cemetery.

Brownie Scouts

Troop 5 of the Brownie Scouts met Tuesday afternoon at the "Little House." We discussed our troop camp which we plan to have this spring and then we made paper bag puppets.

Delicious home made candy was served by Esther Thorn to 17 Brownies, 3 troop committee members, 2 leaders and to Clara Fay Jernigan who will become a Brownie in two more weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller spent Tuesday in Austin visiting their children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. Hudson and son, Tommy.

Art And Civic Club

The Art and Civic Club met on Feb. 3 in the home of Mrs. Jim Weatherby with Mrs. George Gilbert as co-hostess.

As members and guests arrived, they were served tea dainties from a beautifully appointed tea table with Mrs. Gilbert presiding.

The club was privileged to present Mrs. Roy Weatherby of Mullin as guest speaker for the afternoon. The program was entitled "Educational Trends" and was led by Mrs. H. E. Patton.

Mrs. Weatherby spoke of the newly aroused interest in the state and the country as a whole in taking in the education of handicapped children. It has been her privilege to visit a number of such educational institutions, and it is most interesting and gratifying to hear of the work that is being accomplished toward the education and rehabilitation of these children. Better knowledge and understanding of the handicapped child gives us inspiration to do all possible in the promotion of assistance to such children.

After the conclusion of the program, a brief business session was held, during which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Mrs. Oran Carothers; Vice Pres., Miss Elna Fouse; Rec. Sec., Mrs. George Gilbert; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Ben Day; Treas., Mrs. Albert Grumbles; Rep. Mrs. Jacob Saylor; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Jim Weatherby.

TWO ACRES SCHOOL LAND PAYS OFF TO STATE

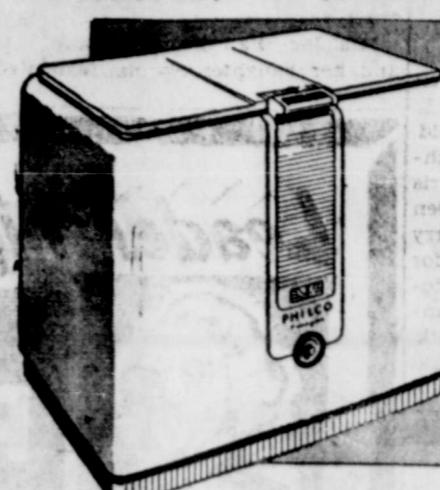

Austin, Feb. 10—Land Commissioner, Bascom Giles, has found a "steady customer" for a small tract of school land in Pecos County.

The Commissioner has received payment from an oil company covering rental on the tract for the next one hundred years, making the present lease effective until the year 2049.

The tract, less than two acres in size, is one of the smallest in the School Land Board's records. However, it has paid off in man-sized hunks—$20,000.00 to the Permanent School Fund in cash bonuses and $217,398.00 in royalties.

IN WASHINGTON STUDYING MOHAIR

According to news reports in Washington Monday of this week, Con. O. C. Fisher of this district reported that the commodity Credit Corporation's board of directors may set up a request in the near future to place a price support for mohair.

Both Cong. Fisher and Sen. Lyndon Johnson have asked the OCC and Secretary of Agriculture to place support price for mohair to bolster a "seriously distressed market." Mr. Fisher listed as most likely for a non-recourse loan for fiber or an outright purchase program.

The Texan said he had discussed the problem Monday with Frank Woolley, an official of the OCC wool division and at the latter had told him the agency is gathering all pertinent data.

"They all appear to be sympathetic," said Fisher, "but healthy won't pay grocery

P.-T.A. NEWS

Every parent and teacher was inspired by the special feature of our program which was presented by the Cub Scouts, their Den Mothers, Den Chiefs and Scoutmaster, Mr. Day. Rev. Lowry, Assistant Scout Master, could not be present.

Congratulations to the Den Mothers, Mmes. Barnett, A. L. Cole, Beckman, Benningfield, Mohler, Simpson, James Nichols, Ben R. Day, Mrs. Farris Jones, Mrs. Ward and Den Chiefs, Tom Boyd and Larry Piper and the Scout Master for such splendid work you are doing. No more worthwhile organization excelled the Scouts work. It is next to church work. As they continue to celebrate their 39th anniversary, we wish them much happiness and many more.

Mrs. Delton Barnett in her charming way, spoke of Democracy in the home which is most vital to each parent, also teacher, for if a child learns to take and give in the home, little trouble awaits the teacher. She brought to our attention the importance of the child honoring its parent, also of the parent honoring the child. She concluded her talk by stating that much valuable information on that subject was discussed in the National Parents and Teachers Magazine for February.

Several members and the Executive Board presented the little playlet, "Burn, Candles, Burn," which showed how efficiently many things could be done if there were joy, courage, faith, co-operation, hope and comradeship.

This little playlet brought to our attention Founders' Day of National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Our local organization sent two cents per member to the Founders Day Fund.

The past presidents' names were read. This local organization has been a member of National Congress four years.

Mrs. W. C. Barnett, our new president, called the organization to order and Mrs. Bigham opened the business session by praying our P.-T. A. prayer. Minutes were approved and reports were heard from the treasurer and special and standing committees. The report that the front door had been fixed thrilled us all, for it had needed repairing for some time. The 6th grade won the attendance award.

President Barnett closed the business session with these words: "I am not so concerned if I am on God's side but concerned if God is on my side for God is always right."

The P.-T.A. met in a called session January 21, at which time Mrs. Barnett was elected to fill Mrs. Blake's unexpired term. It voted to send Mrs. Blake a letter of appreciation for her splendid work in the local P.-T.A. during her stay with us.

Miss Elna Fouse gave a very inspiring and enlightening discussion on "The Home, A practical Laboratory to Train for Home Making and Economic Independence." This reporter and many other parents were unable to attend the called session.

Miss Geraldine Poe of Abilene spent the week-end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Poe, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Clifton and his mother, Mrs. John Clifton, spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. James Wright and son, Russel, of Hamilton. Granny Hamilton is doing fine.

Mrs. Avery Poe spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Neal Soules.

Mr. Thedo Soules of Roscoe spent the week end in the home of Mrs. Neal Soules and Mrs. John Clifton and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Clifton.

Mrs. Alice Rickel of Brownwood visited in the home of her father, Mr. Will Rickel, and family over the week end.

The Glee Club girls came over to see Mrs. Neal Soules Sunday evening and sang some lovely songs to Aunt Maggie.

Milk production takes a licking during bad weather because many herds do not have adequate shelter protection. A simple two- or three sided shed will do the job in most cases, and your cows will pay for them in a year or two.

SALVATION ARMY NEEDS FUNDS

W. D. Pedigo, veteran field worker for The Salvation Army in Texas for the past 27 years, will be making his annual visit to Goldthwaite in the very near future for the purpose of soliciting funds for the state-wide program of The Salvation Army. Citizens of this community are urged to contribute when called upon, for their support is greatly needed by the organization in order to continue its necessary services.

In Texas the program of The Salvation Army is being strengthened daily with a growing emphasis on its youth work. There are 31 operating Salvation Army Corps in the principal cities and towns of this state, and 53 Community Service Units in smaller towns and hamlets.

There is a constant demand from other cities and towns for new Corps Groups, for new Community Service Units. These are being met as fast as the financial and personnel strength of The Salvation Army will permit.

In peace times and during two World Wars, thousands of people have seen The Salvation Army in action, taken its good work for granted, supported it, trusted it implicitly. Yet many do not know that it is an international organization operating places of worship and social rehabilitation centers in 97 countries and colonies of the globe! Many do not realize that it is an army with more than 32,000 men and women officers trained for religious evangelism and social service.

The Salvation Army now is strengthening its forces for even greater service in Texas, working militantly and untiringly to preserve and project those spiritual values which enable men to live together in peace.

Should Mr. Pedigo fail to contact any person who is interested in this important work, contributions may be sent direct to The Salvation Army State Headquarters, 500 North Ervay Street, Dallas, Texas. Gifts to The Salvation Army are deductible from federal income tax.

Eleven Immortals

Lesson for February 20, 1949

JESUS believed in prayer, but he did not usually spend all night at it. When he did, we may be sure he had something of the greatest importance on his mind. One of these occasions was the night before he selected the twelve men he called Apostles. He had thousands of disciples, crowds followed him wherever he went. But it was important to have Dr. Foreman a few with whom he could live as an intimate friend. So from the immense number of followers, Jesus selected twelve closest friends. Before that fateful morning no one outside their villages had ever heard of them. But now their names are known—and eleven of them are honored—around the world.

Jesus Multiplies Himself

A GOOD executive, Jesus multiplied his own personality. A recent book has shown how Harry Hopkins during World War II lived in the White House as Roosevelt's personal companion, having given up his own ambitions and living only to carry out the ideas of his chief. Without Roosevelt, Hopkins would have been little more than an inferior politician; and without Hopkins, many of Roosevelt's plans could not have been carried out. He enabled the president to be in two places at once. So it was with Jesus, as Mark tells us. Jesus wanted those twelve to be with him, and then to send them out.

He wanted these friends to know him as the crowds, and his enemies, never could know him. He wanted these men to absorb his ideas and ideals.

The word Jesus used for them was not his own invention; "apostle" was the word used all over the civilized world in those days for an ambassador, a personal representative of royalty. All Christians are in the "apostolic succession." If a Christian can truly say, "I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me," then he is, as these men were, Christ's personal representative.

Raw Material

THE ASTONISHING thing about Jesus' choice of these twelve is his faith in them. Of course they had faith in him—who would not? But who would have faith in them? There was not a single "outstanding" man in the lot. Not one had what we would call a college education, not a man of them had held public office or was rich or famous for anything at all. There was Peter, an ordinary fisherman, much given to profanity; there was Matthew, a crooked business man if ever there was one, for no publican could be honest and keep from starving; there was Philip, as stupid a man as ever asked a foolish question; there were James and John, loud-mouthed (Jesus nicknamed them the Thunder Boys — "Sons of Thunder"), greedy fellows who could not be satisfied till they had elbowed their way ahead of everybody else; there was Thomas the born pessimist, the defeatist . . . What could have got into Jesus' mind to select such men?

—and Judas Iscariot

THE SECRET of Jesus' choice was this: He selected his men not for what they were or had been, but for what they could become, filled with his spirit, transformed by his friendship. It is so today, as always. The Kingdom of God needs men and women, but the raw human material found in or out of the churches is too shabby and weak to build anything like the kingdom of God.

Yet after all, it was never human weakness that has built the Kingdom. It is men re-born, re-made by contact and companionship with Jesus the Lord of men . . . Now as then, Judas is among the Twelve. Jesus must have seen good in Judas, otherwise it would have been mockery to choose him. But though that man was with Christ for just as long as the others, heard what they heard and saw what they saw, he ended by being a traitor. "Twelve immortals"—? Nay, but one is the immortal betrayer and suicide. Why? The reason was in Judas, not in Jesus.

But he wants volunteers, never forced labor. The Christ of Glory can be served by the humble; but the free Christ can be served only by free men with open hearts. Judas may keep his heart shut if he will; Christ never forces his way in.

FOR MINIMUM STANDARDS BILL

Where the health—possibly even the life—of our loved ones is concerned, we cannot afford to take chances with ignorance, incompetence or quackery in the sick room.

Today in Texas, a patient has no guarantee that the practitioner who treats him possesses even the most fundamental knowledge of the sciences common to all forms of healing.

In the face of this fact, how can the objection, "We're getting along fine under our current laws" be raised? It is not only untrue. It reflects a dangerous attitude of complacency.

The proposed Minimum Standards Law would establish certain standards as the minimum our people will accept. It would require that every person who seeks to practice a healing art, must first prove by passing a fair and impartial Minimum Standards examination, that he has at least rudimentary knowledge of the basic sciences.

It would treat all branches of the healing art alike. Doctor, osteopath, chiropractor, naturopath—all would be required to pass this minimum standards examination.

The proposed Minimum Standards law is similar to laws now existing in eighteen other states. These states have found such legislation imperative in safeguarding their people from ignorance in the sick room.

It does not affect any one who is now legally practicing a healing art.

A certificate of proficiency from the Minimum Standards examining board does not constitute a license to practice. It merely qualifies the applicant to appear before the licensing board of the particular branch of the healing art into which he proposes to enter.

One who expects to practice law in Texas must have two years of college work or its equivalent before beginning the study of law. The laws of Texas regarding veterinary practice permit the issuance of licenses to practice veterinary medicine only to degree graduates of veterinary medical schools recognized by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture or the American Veterinary Association. Plumbers and electricians in Texas must prove their proficiency before State Boards before being granted license. It is a serious indictment against all of us that we do not now require that all those who assume the responsibility of safeguarding human life in Texas prove first that they meet at least minimum standards in knowledge of the healing art.

Mrs. W. J. Weathers accompanied Mrs. Joe Johnson home. She and her mother left for Ft. Worth Friday. She will also visit in Corpus Christi with relatives before returning to Goldthwaite.

Mr. and Mrs. Wardell Thompson and Glenda of Fort Worth were here Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Long.

Beautiful Candlelight Service for Florence Blagg, Coke Long

Florence Roberta Blagg, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Blagg of Gainesville became the bride of James Coke Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Long, Sr., of Goldthwaite, Sunday evening, January 30, in a candlelight ceremony at the home of the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. A. E. Koon, 214 Davis Street, Gainesville.

Mrs. Cecil E. Tinsley played a group of selections as the guests arrived, and accompanied Homer E. Koon, uncle of the bride, who sang as the pre-nuptial solos, "Because," and "I Love You Truly."

Homer E. Koon, Jr., was usher, seating the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother. Mrs. Blagg was attired in a black crepe dress with sequin trim, and her flowers were white gardenias. Mrs. Long's costume was grey and her flowers were white gardenias.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding dress of white brocaded satin fashioned with off-the-shoulder effect and tight fitting bodice. The full skirt extended into a train, and the long sleeves came to points over her wrists. The bride's two-tiered veil of illusion of fingertip length, fell from a coronet of tiny seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and showered with dainty white ribbons. Her jewelry was a wrist-watch belonging to her mother.

Miss Debbie Etta Blagg, only sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a formal dress of yellow faille designed with bustle effect and gardenias in her hair. David Petherbridge of Ft. Worth, was best man.

A reception was held in the home after the ceremony. The dining room, lovely with candlelight, was presided over by Mrs. Leon Blagg, Miss Dorothy Jo Koon, Waco, cousins of the bride, Mrs. Austina Roberts and Mrs. Homer Koon, aunts of the bride.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Pink carnations entwined with smilax added to the beauty of the table where the wedding cake and punch were served.

Miss Virginia Long, Dallas, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Long left after the reception for a honeymoon trip to points in West Texas, and plan to be at home in Big Springs after February 7. For traveling she wore a winter white gabardine suit and hat, with matching gloves and bag. She pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet to her coat.

The bride is a graduate of the Gainesville high school with the class of 1943 and attended Gainesville Junior College. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Texas State College for Women, Denton, in 1948 and during the first semester of the present school year was a teacher in the elementary schools at Buckeye, Arizona, resigning her position at mid-term.

Mr. Long will be employed by Texas Electric Service Company at Big Springs. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering at Texas Tech, Lubbock, on January 27, 1949. He is a graduate of Goldthwaite high school and is a

BERT HALING TEACHING RADIO IN DALLAS SCHOOL

Radio's "Home Town Editor"—reader of many items from this newspaper over major Dallas-Fort Worth stations—is now teaching a new crop of fledgling broadcasters how to do it. Elbert (Bert) Haling, originator of Station WBAP's "Suburban Editor" show in 1938, but best known in this section for his post-war activity as "Home Town Editor," is now teaching script and continuity writing at The Institute of Radio Broadcasting, 2900 North Fitzhugh, Dallas.

Although Bert's cherry "Good afternoon, friends of the wind-ing road!" will be missed from the ether lanes, he'll be readying a fresh group of radio aspirants for their mike debut. IRB, according to Bert, is the largest school of its kind in the South-west fully accredited to prepare men and women for immediate jobs in the broadcast field.

FASHION ACADEMY OF NEW YORK SELECTS

The '49 Ford

AS THE "FASHION CAR OF THE YEAR"

Citation "The 1949 Ford embodies all the essential qualities of good taste, modern design and subtle harmony in line and color. It is indeed a compliment to the style-conscious woman who will recognize and appreciate the flattering background it provides for her best dressed appearance."

Paul Moss Hartman
President, The Fashion Academy of New York

And "looks" are only half the story!

Take the wheel... try the new Ford "FEEL!"

The Fashion Academy of New York has been noted for the past 20 years for its annual selection of "America's best dressed women." The '49 Ford was chosen to receive the Fashion Academy Gold Medal after 1949 automobile models of all makes and in all price classes had been carefully studied from the standpoint of excellence in design, simplicity and feminine style appeal. This recognition of Ford leadership in the modern trend of automobile design stands as a unique tribute to the work of Ford's Styling Department and of Design Consultant George Walker of Detroit.
