Hospital Board Of Managers Names Burnham President

COLEMAN BURNHAM ... heads hospital board

(San Saba News.) Coleman Burnham, 53-year-old stock farmer and bank official, was elected by acclamation as president of the board of managers of the San Saba County Memorial Hospital when members of the six-man board held an organizational meeting in the county court room Saturday. Burnham is widely known throughout the county, having served 10 years as county tax assessor-collector, retiring last year.

Other officers of the board elected Saturday are J. B. Harrell of Chappel, vice-president; Alvin Woods of Richland Springs, secretary; and Clay Kuykendall of San Saba, treasurer.

The board made plans to visit other county hospitals and observe their systems of management before selecting a superintendent for the hospital under construction here. The next meeting of the board is expected to be for the purpose of making such a tour.

Applications for the position of hospital superintendent here are to be filed with the county judge until the board of managers is ready to take action on the matter. Members of the board said they hoped to hire a superintendent as soon as practical. Applications should state qualifications, salary expected and experience in work relating to hospital management.

After the superintendent is elected, all other employee applications will be filed with the hospital superintendent.

Federal County Hospital Plan Is Outlined—16 Beds For Mills County

Under the new Federal County Hospital plan, the Federal Government furnishes 1/3 of the expense of building and equipping the Hospital, the County furnishes 2/3 of the expenses of Building and equipment.

The voters of the county determine whether or not they want a hospital, and how they want to finance it.

Counties that have priority as Mills County does can either exercise it, or go in co-operation with other counties. This is also left to the voters of the Counties.

The hospital is for the people of the counties to decide. These hospitals are under the supervision of a registered nurse, who is responsible to the Hospital Board who elects her, the said Board is responsible to the Commissioner's Court who appoints them, and the Commissioner's Court is responsible to the voters of the county who elect them.

These hospitals are supposed to be run for the benefit of the people, who pay a reasonable charge when being hospitalized, and not run for excess profits.

This explanation is in connection with the letter being printed at the request of Dr. George W. Cox, State Health officer, Austin, Texas, and is for the information of the people of Mills County.

August 1, 1949
 County Judge, Mills County
 Goldthwaite, Texas
 Dear Sir:

The Revised State Plan for implementing the Hospital Construction Act, Public Law 725, 76th Congress, has been approved by the Surgeon General, U. S. Public Health Service. The distribution of future Federal grants-in-aid will continue to be made upon an area priority basis. An attempt has been made to designate hospital service areas on a rational basis and, at the same time, to continue to base these determinations on county boundaries as far as appeared reasonable. Some sparsely settled counties with relatively limited financial and professional personnel resources, many of which have indicated that construction of hospital facilities is neither desired nor contemplated, have been combined with another county to form one logical service area. Special provisions have been made in the State construction program to cover such situations. In the designation of service areas, such factors as common economic interests, communication facilities, trading customs, proximity to existing hospitals, and the like, also have been taken into consideration.

The construction of additional beds in many communities during the past two years has naturally brought about some changes in area priorities. Sponsors of projects which are eligible as to non-profit status are encouraged to submit applications for Federal aid. Inquiries regarding more detailed information will receive prompt attention.

The following specific information is furnished concerning your hospital service area:

Service Area R-153
 Mills County
 Percentage of general hospital bed need presently met: 0%.
 Additional bed construction recommended:
 Goldthwaite—16 beds.
 It will be appreciated if you can arrange to have these facts published in the local press.
 Very truly yours,
 GEO. W. COX, M. D.
 State Health Officer.

LIONS CLUB HAVE REGULAR MEETING TUESDAY AT HANGAR

Thirteen members and three guests met at the regular third Tuesday night meeting of the Goldthwaite Lions Club at the Hangar. Guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cantrell and T. A. Frank of Lometa. Lion Cantrell made a most interesting talk on his recent visit to Lions International at New York City, which was very much appreciated by all present. Lion Cantrell also attended the International held in San Francisco last year. Lion President Warren F. Duren appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Lions' "Ladies" team to take on the Jaycee Ladies in a softball game to be played here at Municipal Ball Park on the night of Tuesday, August 30. This "ladies" game last year proved to be one of the best and funniest events of the year. The committee is composed of J. B. Karnes, Harold Yarborough, Bally Rudd, and Brian Smith.

A prevue of 4-H and F. F. A. fine livestock, a county-wide barbecue and an auction sale will be held in Goldthwaite at the Agricultural Building west of town on Saturday, Sept. 10th.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the Mills County Livestock Raisers' Association held at the Agricultural Building last Monday night, at which time officers were elected and date set for the 1950 Mills County Livestock Show.

At the prevue, all Mills County 4-H and F. F. A. projects will be exhibited at the Agricultural Building along with a Hog Show of all Sears-Roebuck sponsored hogs.

Those meeting Monday night decided to have a county-wide barbecue and auction sale at the same time as the show, all proceeds from which will go to pay off the indebtedness of the Agricultural Building. Plates for the barbecue will be $1 each. All food is to be donated.

Anyone wishing to donate livestock or other items for the auction sale can notify any of the officers of the association, or Charles Conradt, chairman of the Barbecue Committee. It is hoped to raise enough money on this day to finish paying off the indebtedness of the new Agricultural Building.

At the meeting Monday night, officers were elected, date for the 1950 Mills County Livestock Show set, judges and alternates selected and committees appointed to make arrangements. Officers for the next year are: R. L. Steen, President; W. V. Horton, Vice-President; Glynn Collier, Secretary-Treasurer.

Amidst increasing signs of weariness and restlessness, the House devoted most of last week to debating and passing a new wage and hour bill. The one finally written was the result of a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats. It was probably about as good a product as could be obtained under the circumstances.

The new version lifts the present minimum from 40 cents per hour to 75 cents, but clarifies and limits the coverage. The latter change is particularly desirable because of the chaotic conditions resulting from tortuous interpretations of the present law which has placed many people under the Act who are in no wise engaged in interstate commerce.

The Federal Government has no constitutional authority to regulate wages and hours in industries that are purely local and intra-state in character. Yet, by interpretation of what is included in and connected with interstate commerce, hundreds of small businesses and service establishments have been drawn under Federal control, contrary to the intent of Congress when the wage and hour law was passed back in 1938.

For example, by interpretation, window cleaners working on independent contracts for factories which make goods shipped in interstate commerce have been held to come under the Act. So have elevator operators in office buildings, who serve passengers who engage in interstate commerce business.

Not long ago, workers on a local irrigation canal were held to be covered because the water was applied to sugar cane, which in turn was refined and shipped in interstate commerce. Another example is the holding that employees of a purely local fertilizer concern are covered because the fertilizer is put on soil that raises produce which is ultimately shipped in interstate commerce.

Agriculture workers are exempted, and the House bill will go a long way—if finally enacted—toward clarifying the law and limiting coverage to businesses and services that are actually engaged in or very closely connected with interstate commerce.

The Senate Agriculture Committee approved a provision which will include mohair in the farm program, beginning next year. The House has already included mohair in its version of the new farm bill. Until a final bill is passed and the Secretary of Agriculture begins a program there will be no way of knowing at what price mohair will be supported. It could be anywhere between 40 and 60 cents, average.

Among our visitors from the district last week were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hillyer, of San Angelo; Mayor Earl Rudder of Brady; and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kinkel and daughter, Constance, of Water Valley. Mayor Rudder was enroute to Cleveland to attend an annual convention of the famous Rangers who preceded the main invasion of Normandy in 1945. Rudder commanded a group which scaled the cliffs along the Normandy coast a few hours before other landings took place. Their job was to surprise the enemy and to knock out guns and other defenses and thereby make the subsequent landings possible.

Fertilizer can be stored on the farm without loss from deterioration. Keep it dry and off the floor. When storing, place boards under the bags. This will permit the air to circulate around the bags and will help take care of the necessary ventilation.

About the only thing we can be sure of at this point concerning farm price supports is that they'll continue as they are right now until December 31, except that hogs stay that way through March.

The American Farm Bureau Federation is given credit for being the most powerful element in farm legislation right now. The Brannan plan probably wouldn't have gotten anywhere anyway, but the Pace bill, containing some of the Brannan plan elements, might have been passed except for the farm bureau, which ramrodded the Gore bill through the House calling for a one year extension of present price supports.

In all this, the Farm Bureau split southern Democrats but patched up its own internal differences. President Allen Kline counts 1,350,000 members in 45 states.

More large cities are re-discovering that agriculture is their best friend after all. Witness the large expositions, shows, and farm departments of chambers of commerce that have come into being in late years. Indianapolis, Indiana, long best known for the speedway classic, now launches something the Hoosiers call the first annual International Dairy Exposition. It overlaps the well established Dairy Cattle Congress at Waterloo, Iowa, in October.

Even at our age, we learn something new nearly every day. Some things we will never learn, but one fact we had impressed upon us at an early age is that for deep thought, rocking a baby to sleep, or general front porch resting, the rocking should be done "with the grain" in the floor planks.

If you plan to curtail your cotton acreage next year, consider putting the retired acres into a legume or pasture crop for a while. If you intend to grow corn or maize on them a soil building crop as a rotation after cotton sounds like a good investment.

Two big soil building field events are upcoming. At Princeton, in Collin County, a big farm face lifting operation will take place on September 5—Labor Day.

San Antonio implement dealers and the chamber of commerce plan a "Soil Security Day" 10 miles east of town on U. S. 90 on September 15. Just soil handling practices will be shown there.

If you have a storm cellar at your place, you'll agree that while it isn't needed very often, it's a handy household fixture when a cyclone comes through.

It's the same way with farm storage facilities. When there comes a year of crowded public storage, it's comforting to have a place at home to put your grain and hold it from spoiling until it can be moved. Even if you never use it at all, it might be a good investment.

By JOE BELDEN, Director, The Texas Poll
 Austin, Aug. 13—During one of those over-a-hundred days this summer, haven't you said to yourself, "Now, why don't I just wear my shorts down to the grocery store?"

If you are like the majority of us conservative Texans, however, you answered yourself with, "But what will people think?"

What people think about scanty clothing, what the professors call social pressure, is actually what keeps you covered up, even in the middle of a scorching summer. Large majorities oppose either men or women wearing shorts for grocery shopping. That is what a Texas Poll conducted over the entire state indicates.

Now, in the semi-privacy of your own yard you can wear shorts and expect criticism from only a minority of the neighbors.

Men, the survey shows, are more in favor of women wearing shorts than the women themselves are. But ask the men about males wearing shorts, and large numbers of those who approved for women tell you they disapprove for themselves. As a farmer near Garrison told the Texas Poll interviewer, "Only in the house with the shades pulled down."

As you will notice, from the figures below, nearly everyone expressed an opinion, which indicates definite public feeling on the matter. Listen to some of the overtones of public opinion, as reported by the interviewers: "Anything for comfort at home, but spare the public."—Nacogdoches school teacher.

"It's all right for other women, but not my wife."—Rancher near Aspermont.

"If my wife wants to get rid of me, just let her put them things on."—Bryan truck driver.

"For women, it's all right; but men have such ugly legs they should keep covered at all times."—Corsicana housewife.

"The majority of women are not endowed by nature to wear shorts in public."—Laredo housewife.

"Only if they are young and have good figures."—Dallas business man.

The questions asked in the poll, with the answers given by men and women tabulated separately, are as follows:

1. "Do you personally think it is all right, or not, for Women to wear shorts while working in the yard?"

	Men	Women
All right	71%	62%
Not all right	28	35

4. Would you say it is all right, or not, for men to wear shorts while shopping in the grocery store?"

 A preacher said: "God has lost many battles."
 Some of those battles have been lost because some of us have been ashamed of our Lord and His words, for fear of what other people might say. Other battles were lost because of pride. There are many reasons why some of God's battles have been lost.

MELBA THEATRE POLIO FUND $75

Theatre audiences last week contributed $75.00 to the Texas Polio Fund, Manager Nickols of the Melba Theatre announced.

The fund is an emergency fund designed to cope now with the polio epidemic which has been spreading throughout the state for the past month.

The state has one-fourth of the polio cases in the United States. From January 1 through July 28, Texans stricken totaled 10,249.

The 1949 outbreak is reported as the most severe national health authority has known since the 1948 outbreak. The approximately 25,000 cases last year had equalled the number of the all-time previous high—in the year 1916.

The Texas Polio Fund is the slogan of the Texas Polio Fund. The statewide committee plan and directing the campaign is headed by L. M. Rice, attorney.

'CANADIAN PACIFIC' BLAZES WITH THRILLS OF ADVENTURE

One of the greatest and most stirring feats of modern times—the forging of a railroad over the rugged mountains and treacherous valleys of Canada's Rocky Mountains and against the bitter opposition of hostile frontiersmen, serves as the background for one of the most thrilling motion pictures of the year. The picture, "Canadian Pacific," starring Randolph Scott and photographed in stunning color by Cinecolor, is currently being shown at the Melba Theatre. Out of man's battle against the forces of nature and against other men who for their own selfish reasons bitterly fought against progress, Producer Nat Holt and Director Edwin L. Marin have brought a human drama of forceful impact and excitement.

"Canadian Pacific" bristles with hard-hitting action as it unfolds the story of a young surveyor who is forced into the adventure of a lifetime when his dream of a railroad that would span the wild Rockies is threatened. Opposition to the railroad sprang from a group of greedy fur trappers and traders who feared their monopoly would be broken by the advent of the railroad and who did not hesitate to incite the Indians to massacre the invaders. The final showdown between the two opposing forces is filled with suspense and blazing excitement you'll remember for a long time to come.

'SO DEAR TO MY HEART'

Heartwarming indeed is Walt Disney's new cartoon and live action dramatic feature production "So Dear To My Heart," in color by Technicolor, a show for all the family.

Performed wholly in an atmosphere typically American, "So Dear to My Heart" is the simple, homely, close-to-earth story of Indiana rural life, a generation ago, seen through the eyes and recollections of an adolescent boy, Jeremiah Kincaid, his playmates and his adult friends.

The boy, of the same sturdy breed as Mark Twain's Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn, and Booth Tarkington's Penrod, is being reared by his grandma, and a clash occurs when the boy insists upon grooming a little black ram to be entered at the County Fair. Soon the entire village of Fulton Corners is involved in the situation. The partisans include the songmaker, the blacksmith, the storekeeper, the dressmaker's lovely little daughter, a shrewd judge of livestock and of human nature at the County Fair, the train crew and depotmaster, and other folk of the sleepy Indiana locale.

Our club met in July with Mrs. Skipping and enjoyed it very much. They have a beautiful country home. A quilt was quilted. Nine members were present. Each one received a gift, and delicious cake and punch were served to the crowd. This was enjoyed by all. Then we adjourned to meet with Mrs. Clyde Featherston August 25, with an all-day meeting. Every one bring a covered dish and enjoy the day. Two quilts will be in the frames for all to enjoy along with our visiting. So every one try to be present. Bring some one with you and don't forget that covered dish.

WATER MELON FEAST

The Faithful Workers Sunday School Class (better known as the Athens Class) was invited to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver's lodge in Big Valley last Thursday night to eat water melon. The melons were raised on Mr. Weaver's farm. They were delicious in flavor, and they were nice and cold. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver have one of the nicest farm homes in the county. Their house is built of logs. They have an up stairs that is their sleeping room and it is always cool. Down stairs their living room has a nice fire place and some old time furniture such as an old time organ which was very stylish fifty years ago. It has a nice tone yet. Their kitchen is real up-to-date, only they cook on a wood stove which cooks better food than our stylish stoves now days.

There were several tables of forty-two, then is when the fun began just after filling up on those delicious melons. Some of you read the nice piece in our paper last week where Mr. Murphy gave the Eagle some melons. They were raised on Mr. Weaver's farm. Some of the older people in the county should remember Mr. Weaver when he was our County Judge here. That has been a few years back. He was reared here also. His wife was Miss Rosa Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Johnson. She was also reared here. They both teach school in Waco.

They spend the summer in Mills County in Big Valley in their nice house, which is snady most all day as they have nice trees all around the place. They also have visitors who go down and play Croquet right in their yard under the nice shade trees. They used to have their Weaver reunion in this nice grove of shade trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver attend the Baptist Sunday School and church. Mr. Weaver has taught the men's Bible class some this summer, and Mrs. Weaver has taught the Faithful Workers Class.

They are both fine teachers. They are in Waco at the hospital this week. Mr. Weaver has gone for treatments. Their school opens the eighth of September, so our church will miss them both. We will all be looking forward for vacation and water melon time next year. We also hope Mr. Weaver's trip to the hospital will not be bad and they can soon be home again and back in their school room.

This Sunday School Class will be ready for another water melon feast next year. We thank Mr. and Mrs. Weaver for their hospitality. We will miss you very much. Sorry all the class couldn't be with us.—A friend.

BONY NEWS—

By Clementine W. Bailey
The dry weather and the heat terrific. Ernest Malone says thermometer went to 105.

Gene Egger went to San Antonio the latter part of the week to be with her brother, Ketchum, who is very ill following a stomach ulcer operation.

Gene Egger spent a few days with her cousin, Mrs. Billy Cummings, at Lampasas.

Lila Jo Thompson, who is working at Comanche, spent the week end at home.

Hattie Whittenburg is spending awhile with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams at Indian Wells.

Gene Egger combined maize and oatmeal Monday.

R. Reid of Goldthwaite and his daughter, Mrs. M. Whittenburg, one day week.

Gene Egger went to see Mrs. Effie and Clayton a few minutes after church. We had Mr. and Mrs. Barney Tippen and their son, Jimmie, from Goldthwaite spending the week.

Jimmie, a slender hand, is taller than his Dad. He was such a little while ago.

His mother brought him, now 18 months old babe, to the house to have him immunized for diphtheria.

Tippen Jr. of Austin, Tex., came from Taylor County and just left the Tippen home since Friday. He had just passed his exams from the county law school.

Gene showed us some ears of fine corn and maize he has raised this year.

Wylie White and his wife, Mrs. Brownie Reeves, of Los Angeles left after a few days visit with relatives and friends.

Jernigan renewed old friendships and old memories he visited at the Reeves home Sunday.

Gene and Stanley are keeping their hands busy picking up this week while they are in San Antonio.

Edna Dwyer's house is like a brand new home with a new green roof and a coat of white paint.

Workman finished shortly after afternoon Wednesday.

Wilmeth came out from Wood early Wednesday to tell his sisters, Mrs. Briley and Mrs. Edna, that their aunt, Mrs. Abdill, of Fort Worth, had died.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmeth, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Briley, Mrs. Dwyer, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Belich and Billy left after afternoon in the Wilmetts for Fort Worth. They were with Mrs. J. F. Bateman, Mrs. Gene Prewitt, the Mrs. L. G. Wilmeth, and the funeral at eleven.

Abdill had visited at several times. She was the wife of the late Mrs. J. R. Briley. She is the last member of her family. Had she lived she would have been 92. For five years she had been in a hospital, having fallen broken her hip. She was from Rio de Janeiro, South America. She went with her mother to Germany when she was small. And she was there with an old maid when her mother and sisters and brothers came to her. She never saw her again as she died in 1875.

Abdill later came to Texas. She taught German in Addicks College Springs. She married

Dr. D. L. Abdill, a dentist of Fort Worth, and came to Fort Worth to live in 1888. She saw Fort Worth grow from a town of 5,000 to its present size. She was the frailest of her family, yet she outlived them all. She was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery in Fort Worth beside her husband who died in 1915.

COMMENDATION FOR JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ACTIVITIES

Austin, Aug. 13.—Commendation has been earned by the Junior Chamber of Commerce chapters of Texas for their praiseworthy campaign in assisting the Army Organized Reserve program which will in turn aid the Armed Forces.

Gen. Thomas T. Handy, Commanding General of the Fourth Army with Headquarters in Fort Sam Houston, Texas, wrote to the Chairman of the Armed Forces and Security Committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, "The patriotic desire of your organization to assist the Armed Forces through your local chapters is very much appreciated. I am confident that, if the ability and enthusiasm for which the Jaycees are noted are applied to the subjects in your program, there will be much of a constructive nature accomplished."

A letter has also been received by Mr. E. M. Kirkpatrick, Jr., Abilene, President of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce, from Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, which was also addressed to various Texas chapters of the Jaycees. The Senator stated in part, "I have learned with a great deal of satisfaction of the fine work you and the members of Texas Junior Chambers of Commerce are doing now to assist the Army Reserve Program. Good and useful service has long been a tradition with Texas Jaycees and certainly, in view of the greatly underestimated importance of our reserve programs, this work you are doing is in keeping with that tradition. If I may ever be of any assistance to you here in this work, please let me know."

Representatives John Lyle, Jr., from Corpus Christi and Homer Thornberry of Austin have also written letters congratulating and encouraging the Jaycees in this most worthy program. The Junior Chamber of Commerce announced on August 1st that they have undertaken a program of assisting the Organized Reserve Corp and National Guard in aiding the recruiting campaign for both Civilian Components. The Jaycees, 130 chapters and over 15,000 strong, are appealing to each and every community in Texas to support and help the Army Civilian Components and thence directly aid in America's National Security.

Armed Forces committees have been established in each and every chapter of the Jaycees and conferences have been conducted between the committees and the Organized Reserve Corps Instructors as to the direction of the campaign.

LOOPHOLES
in the Law

By WILL WILSON

Past President, Texas District and County Attorneys Association

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson is chairman of a special steering committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

John and Mary had been drinking heavily and were, in fact, drunk. In this condition they got into an automobile, with John driving, and rode out into the country. Out of town a few miles, John turned off of the public highway and drove onto a farmer's private property.

As the car was weaving and skidding along the farmer's road, John saw a pick-up truck coming along the road toward him. The pick-up was driven by the farmer, and he had his three small children in the back.

John was too drunk to avoid the pickup. He smashed into it. The farmer's three children were badly injured and the truck itself was demolished. In an argument with the farmer following the accident, John admitted that he was drunk. He was charged with driving while intoxicated and brought to trial.

He was acquitted and went scot-free because he was driving on a private road—the farmer's own road—and not on a public highway.

The State Bar of Texas is working to get rid of the legal loopholes that made such an outcome possible.

WILLIAM HEUERMANN—A GREAT TEXAN

Although many men can influence the destinies of their fellows, during life, few indeed there are whose influence and beneficence extend beyond the confines of the grave. The late Mr. William Heuermann of Sinton is in that small and favored group of men whose generosity will be felt long after his generation and our generation have passed.

At his death, July 1st, Mr. Heuermann willed an estate valued at over $250,000, to be used for research in the cause and treatment of cancer, the research to be prosecuted at The University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research, at Houston. This hospital is The University of Texas Cancer Hospital, established by legislative action, for the purpose of studying the causes and treatment of cancer, and disseminating to Texas physicians and Texas citizens knowledge of the prevention and management of this disease. Mr. Heuermann's gift, therefore, is a gift directly to the people of Texas. It is not a gift made just to the residents of Mr. Heuermann's home community, nor to the citizenry of Houston, where the hospital is located, but to ALL the citizens of the State. We ALL benefit. It will help us when we most need help—when we are down—when we are in the grip of a deadly malady which right this minute has its brand on 40,000 of our unfortunate brethren, of whom 7,000 are doomed to die this year.

There is another aspect of Mr. Heuermann's gift which is particularly indicative of the donor's understanding of the needs and requirements of institutions devoted to medical research. Rather than describing in many pages of fine print exactly how the money should be spent, Mr. Heuermann permitted the Director of the Hospital to use it for research, as his cancer research program dictates. In other words, it must be spent on cancer research, and it must be spent in Texas, but the exact problems are not restricted in any way. Although in the course of years many other thoughtful citizens of Texas will undoubtedly make the M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research the object of their beneficence, few will demonstrate more solid horse-sense than did Mr. Heuermann. For the needs of cancer research change daily and constantly, and no living man, today, can predict what developments may occur this year or next year which will alter our whole concept of cancer treatment. This fact is well illustrated by the relatively recent finding that radioactive iodine, practically unknown before the atom bomb was developed, can be used in the treatment of cancer of the thyroid gland. Officials of the M. D. Anderson Hospital, which was planned in 1941, have had to develop a whole new program of research, treatment, and building construction in terms of this and other new treatments in which radioactive substances are used.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Fairman, who are attending the British Exposition in England, intend

Mr. Heuermann's gift, then, is particularly well received, for not only has it been made to an institution which can guarantee that every penny will be spent in fighting cancer RIGHT HERE IN TEXAS, but it allows The University of Texas Cancer Hospital authorities to spend the funds as the changing order of scientific development requires. This is important to Texans, for it operates toward providing them the most modern and effective treatment facilities for this insidious and deadly disease.

Wednesday afternoon during a light shower a flash of lightning struck a barn on W. N. Bowden's farm, at Mr. W. D. Holland's residence, known as the Bud Cryer place, four miles north of town, and killed two of Mr. Holland's sons, aged 11 and 13 years, and shocked another one 15 years of age so badly that it was thought at first that he was dead.

W. J. McCormick was in town the first of the week to secure a residence and will move in from his farm in a few days, in order that he may be able to send his two daughters to school. He secured J. L. Lewis' residence on Fisher Street.

Singing, Shining

Lesson for August 21, 1949

EVERY ATOM of the universe, said Calvin, sparkles with the glory of God. That is our thought for this week: In the created universe we can see the God who is more wonderful than all his works. The selected Psalms express four different aspects of God's creative power. Psalm 8 brings out the dignity and the glory of man, made to be master of the earth; Psalm 19:1-6 listens to the majestic music of sun and stars; Psalm 65:9-13 sees nature as a farmer sees it, in terms of sun, rain and crops; Psalm 104, one of the noblest poems in existence, celebrates God's glory in all things great and small.

Mystery

THESE inspired Psalmists saw a high truth: Nature is for man's use, in part, but it has also a value, a beauty and a splendor all its own; and it is one of the ways by which we can know God. What is true of nature is true, far more, of the God who created all things. One of the thoughts suggested to their minds was the mystery of nature.

Even today, with all that science has discovered, there is mystery in the most elemental facts of existence. What is light? What is life? What is energy? Where did it come from and what is the destiny of it all?

A common grass blade performs miracles that chemistry has not yet initiated. The mystery of nature suggests the deeper mystery of nature's God.

Power

WE ARE beginning now to realize, even better than the Psalmists could, how much energy there is in nature. We have seen tragic evidence of the atom's power. Now we have also found that while energy cannot be destroyed, it cannot be created by us, though it constantly changes form.

As the water in a power station which has run through a turbine will not climb back up to turn the turbine again, so the whole universe (they tell us) is in the process of running down.

But how was the universe born, how was energy born, in the first place? How was the universe, so to speak, wound up? Science does not profess to know; but religious answers by faith: In the beginning, God . . .

Beauty

THE writer of Psalm 104 was well aware that some parts of nature are useless to man; but he rejoiced in them none the less. Few of his neighbors had any use for whales, for example, but he takes delight in the whale (he calls him Leviathan) just playing in the ocean. St. Augustine, in the same mood, says somewhere about things like wasps and spiders that if we could forget that they bite, we would be greatly awed by their beauty and the perfection of their mechanism. Indeed, St. Augustine, in one of his prayers, calls God "Pulchritudo," Beauty. Just as God is The Truth and The Good, so he is The Beautiful.

Law

THESE writers of these nature-Psalms (especially 19 and 65) were impressed by another fact about nature: its regularity. You can count on the sunrise, you always know which order the seasons will follow. Even things like earthquakes and tornadoes, which seem pretty unpredictable, follow laws of their own. Science has now shown this to be true on a cosmic scale. The stuff of which the farthest stars are made is just the same (only a lot hotter!) as the stuff in the rocks under your feet at this minute.

The laws that govern the fall of a leaf or the shape of a rain-drop are the same laws that can be seen in the whirling of star-dust fifty million light years away.

The Creator of all is not erratic, eccentric or capricious. He is the God of Law, for from his infinite Mind come all the patterns, known to us or yet unknown, by which the vast fabric of the universe is woven. Mystery, Power, Beauty, Law: All nature, not only the stars, shine with all these—and as Addison says,

"Forever singing as they shine,
The hand that made us is divine."

 Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:
 "Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mo.
 "I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

How To Get Help From The National Foundation When Polio Strikes

1. At the first sign of illness, call your own doctor. If he suspects polio he will report the case to the local Health Department and arrange for hospitalization or home care, as indicated. The National Foundation does not select physicians or hospitals. This is a family matter. If you have no family physician, call your City or County Medical Society, your Board of Health or the nearest hospital.

2. If your doctor says it is polio and requires hospitalization, the local Chapter of the National Foundation will help arrange for transportation to a treatment center. As soon as the patient goes to the hospital—or if your doctor advises the patient can be treated at home—get in touch with your Chapter of the National Foundation to arrange for any needed assistance.

a.) Most Chapters are listed in the telephone book under N for National Foundation, I for Infantile Paralysis and the letter starting the name of the county you live in, i. e., Washington County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. If you can't find it—check with your doctor, hospital or Health Department.

b.) Your Chapter will get in touch with you as soon as it learns of the case through your physician, the hospital or the Health Department. However, late reporting or a heavy hospital load may delay this Chapter contact. If you do not hear promptly, telephone or visit your Chapter representative. You can ease your own worries sooner by making the approach yourself.

3. The Chapter representative will notify the hospital that it is arranging with you for full or partial payment of expenses for medical care. Adults are as eligible for help as are children. Discuss with your Chapter how much of the full bill the Chapter will pay.

a.) March of Dimes funds are used to help the medically indigent—but this is NOT the same as "indigent;" it includes families of moderate income, who cannot meet the high costs of modern care of this expensive disease. The help is a gift—not a loan. While families that CAN pay are expected to do so, NO family is expected to impoverish itself to meet medical expenses for polio.

b.) Even if you can assume full costs for initial hospitalization, it is a good idea to see your Chapter. If yours should be a patient who is severely affected—and this cannot be determined in the first few days—you may need help later on. Bills incurred in the weeks BEFORE your Chapter assumes financial responsibility cannot be paid months afterward, but the Chapter will step in at whatever time you really need help. Have a frank, friendly talk with your Chapter representative at the beginning.

4. Chapters pay for hospitalization, professional services including nursing and physical therapy, transportation to and from hospitals, convalescent centers and clinics, treatment after hospitalization and appliances, such as wheelchairs, braces, etc., as needed. There are no hard and fast rules. Each case is decided upon individual medical and financial needs. Assistance is given regardless of age, race, creed or color. More than 110,000 polio patients were directly assisted in full or in part up to the end of 1948.

5. In addition, your Chapter can put you in touch with proper sources for nursing and physical therapy at home, can refer you to rehabilitation and vocational training agencies, will provide literature designed to foster better understanding of infantile paralysis—so you will know what to expect and how to help your polio patient back to a useful life.

FARM PRODUCTS DISPLAY AT FAIR

The dirt farmer of Texas will achieve a large measure of glamour in the fresh, living Agriculture Show now being readied for the 1949 State Fair of Texas, October, 8-23.

Gone will be the old-fashioned museum-like jars of seeds and prize ears of corn so long a fixture of state fairs. Instead, at the 1949 State Fair of Texas majestic stalks of corn and billowing sheaves of wheat will be shown growing with their roots in actual soil, under typical farm conditions brought indoors.

"There will be more actual growing plants exhibited at the Fair this year than at any fair anywhere before," declared E. C. English, chairman of the Fair's Agriculture Committee. "Visitors who've never seen rice or peanuts, for example, except in a bowl of cereal or a candy bar, will get a chance to see them as they grow in the field.

"There will be living exhibits of flax, grain sorghum, grass, corn, cotton, wheat, roses, legumes, oats, barley, and vegetables."

A fabulous exhibit of more than 40 varieties of Texas grass alone is worth a trip to the Fair. Mr. English said, The Texas Forest Service will set up a tall living pine tree; and a dazzling exhibit of roses by Tyler growers will probably be the Fair's most colorful single display.

A huge and impressive exhibit will show how the vast Texas A. & M. College System reacts into every county in the state to help farmers and ranchers to better crop quality and yields and improve livestock.

The cotton industry will tell the full story of Texas' leading crop in an interesting exhibit pin-pointing the advantages of mechanization and modern marketing methods which have enabled Texas to hold its position as the nation's leading cotton-growing state.

Displays by West Texas groups will portray the importance of this vast agricultural empire in the economy of the state. The miracle of irrigation in the "shallow water" section of the area will be demonstrated.

"We have tried to give the new Texas agriculture every bit of emphasis which the importance of this $2,000,000,000 industry deserves," Mr. English said.

"There will be a harvest of ideas for the farmer and a new perspective for the city-dweller in the new approach to this year's Fair."

The interior of the huge Agriculture Building has been newly "showsapped" by the nationally-famous Lambert Landscape Co. of Dallas, August 12, 1949.

OLD MAN 100

Here's a law Old Hunnert has failed to report to his readers to date: A great many years ago the legislature of an Eastern State is alleged to have passed the following resolution: "When Good Friday falls on Sunday, it shall be observed on Monday!" O. H. guesses this law may have been violated some since, just like all other laws.

Husband (in bed with golf clubs)—"Well, you said I had to choose, didn't you?"
Also, if the person who has saved for a rainy day isn't careful, someone will come along and soak him.

Here's something O. H. heard in a store this week: Customer—"Do you keep fountain pens here?" Bright New Clerk (sarcastically)—"No, we sell them." Customer—"O. K., but keep the one you might have soic me if you hadn't been so smart."
Suitor—"Sir, I would like to marry your daughter." Goldthwaite Business Man—"Well, you can leave your name and address, and if nothing better turns up we can notify you."
Old Hunnert now thinks his next big invention will be a Silent Soup.

VETS TOLD HOW TO GET DIVIDENDS

Austin, Aug. 16—Six pointers on what World War II veterans should do to secure their national life insurance dividends from the Veterans Administration were outlined Tuesday by the State Veterans Affairs Commission.

1. Wait until Aug. 29 before doing anything.
2. Secure a dividend application form from one of the following sources: Office of the local county service officer, a United States Post Office, a Veterans Administration office, Office of Veterans Affairs Commission service officer or veterans organization service officer.
3. Read the instructions and decide whether the procedure is understood. If not, get a service officer to help fill out the form correctly.
4. Be as neat as possible in spelling your name and listing your address. Give an address at which mail can be received for the six months following date of application.
5. If you don't remember your policy number, which is requested on the blank, don't worry. It will help speed service, but is not essential.
6. Once the application is in the mail, don't worry about how soon payment will be made, and don't use the anticipated amount as a promissory note for personal debts. Some 17,000,000 veterans' records will have to be checked by the VA.

FERTILIZER AND VETCH PRODUCTION

College Station—L. R. Boyd, who farms near Teague, recently told Freestone county agent J. H. Pritchard that he had learned something about growing vetch for seed, especially, on the production per acre.

Boyd, this year, harvested 400 pounds of vetch seed per acre from the seven acres he grew for seed. The county average, reports Pritchard, ran from 100 to 400 pounds per acre with the late harvestings showing the lowest yields. This was largely due to shattering.

Boyd applied 250 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate and 200 pounds of 5-10-5 commercial fertilizer per acre to seven acres, and on another plot he used only the phosphate. From the latter he harvested only 200 pounds of seed per acre, so he says he got a pound of vetch for every pound of 5-10-5 that he applied. He believes the additional application of a balanced fertilizer is a good practice.

Robert Gregory, Streetman community, harvested about 300 pounds of vetch seed per acre from his 20 acre block. He reported to Pritchard that he applied 200 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate per acre, and where no phosphate was used the vetch did not produce enough seed to harvest.

Pritchard says the farmers who have surplus vetch seed will sell them to other farmers in Freestone county and the acreage planted to vetch in the county should be materially larger than last year.
