County Clerk Earl Summy points out new rules that go in effect on October 5 in obtaining marriage licenses in Texas.

House Bill 538 of the 51st Legislature provides that no marriage license should be issued unless each applicant files with the county clerk a certificate from a physician, and that the physician shall not issue such certificate until he has made an examination and has received a report from an approved laboratory. The physician's certificate and laboratory report shall be on forms prepared and provided by the State Board of Health. ## WANT A GREEN LAWN THIS WINTER? PLANT GRASS

BY THE EDITOR
If you would like to have a green lawn all winter, Italian Ryegrass can be used. It is an annual grass that comes up from seed during the first rain in the fall and will stay green until early summer.

Mrs. M. F. Horton has overseeded her Bermuda grass lawn each year with Italian Ryegrass with satisfactory results. Last year, she seeded a four-acre field to Ryegrass and Madrid Sweetclover. After 138 bales of good quality hay was bailed from this field, it furnished good grazing on into the summer. The Ryegrass is volunteering after the recent rains and another crop can be expected.

Walter Henry seeded his new lawn to Italian Ryegrass last fall which stayed green until June. He sodded Bermuda grass for a summer lawn and plans to overseed with Ryegrass this fall.

Howard Campbell had good luck sodding Bermuda grass and seeding Italian Ryegrass at the same time in the fall. In a trial planting with other grasses in a small field, the ryegrass was outstanding.

The park west of the Methodist Church was seeded to Ryegrass and fertilized. It made a good growth and stayed green a month longer than the rescue grass.

Many others in Goldthwaite have used the Ryegrass to an advantage on lawns and in vacant lots. It will come up with little or no land preparation and seems to survive and grow on the fall and winter rains. It will respond well to nitrogen fertilizer. If allowed to make a seed crop, it will volunteer year after year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Quinn and children spent last week end with relatives in Lampasas.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Obenhaus of Killeen spent last week end with his parents.

Mrs. John N. Keese Has Birthday; Tells Some Mills County History

By BRIAN SMITH

Wednesday September 21 was the 78th birthday of our neighbor, Mrs. Keese, who was so busy doing for friends and neighbors, she did not celebrate the day. In the morning she did the finishing touches to a beautiful quilt that will go to a granddaughter, and in the afternoon she attended a meeting of the Garden Club and took time out to enjoy the many cards, letters and gifts, and was very happy. She said that the Lord and neighbors had been so good to her that she did not know how she would ever be able to repay them.

When Mrs. Keese was born, Ulyse Simpson Grant was president of the United States, the nation was just recovering from a Civil War, and the South was still under Reconstruction governments. During the next several years many national and state historical events took place.

Big news in the nation was the great Chicago fire, October, 1871; Pres. Grant reelected 1872; Great Britain paid $1,550,000 damages in gold to the United States for permitting the Confederate ships to be built in England, Sept., 1872; Financial Panic 1873; The disputed Presidential election 1876; Gen. Custer's Last Stand, 1876; The United States celebrated the 100th year of its independence by a World Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia 1876; Assassination Pres. Garfield 1881; and Statue of Liberty unveiled in New York harbor 1886; Big news in Texas was Texas had been re-admitted to the union 1870; the disputed state election in 1873 by Gov. Davis who had a company of negro soldiers stationed on the ground-floor of the capital; Gov. Davis lost the dispute and Coke was installed as Governor of Texas; A. & M. College was opened October 4, 1876 at College Station; Gov. Coke elected to U. S. Senate and resigned Governorship December 1876, and Gov. Hubbard takes office.

The State penitentiary at Huntsville had been leased to a private company. Gov. Hubbard had received many complaints about the operation of the penitentiary, so he investigated and ordered the state to assume control; Gov. Hubbard addressed the Centennial Exposition visitors at Philadelphia; setting forth the advantages Texas offered the immigrant, and during the next few years Texas received a vast number of immigrants; Texas State Capital burned Nov. 9, 1881; Corner stone of University of Texas laid Nov. 17, 1882; and as these

Goldthwaite Eagles Show Much Improvement Against Coleman On 16th

Goldthwaite Eagle fans were thrilled last Friday night as the Eagles played out of their class and held Coleman to a 15 to 0 score. Coleman Bluecats the week before defeated Eastland 1 to 0.

Much improvement was noted in the Eagle play over a week before when Hamilton brought 15 lettermen here and overran the Eagles 36 to 0.

The Eagles have an open date this week-end, and Coach Wilson Lucas expects them to be hitting on all four when they go to Burnet next week-end, Sept. 30, for their first District 22-A Conference game. On Friday night, Oct. 7, Mason comes here for the next home game.

Goldthwaite is fortunate in securing a man of Lucas' calibre to coach here. He is saying nothing, but he expects to have a district winner next year. He is at present spending an hour a day with the Juniors and some four new men from Star who will be eligible to play next year. A whole team of lettermen will show up for practice next September.

The 1949 Eagle squad is expected to upset Coach E. C. Carraway's Burnet Bulldogs ambitions to be district winner this year. Burnet and Llano Yellowjackets have been picked by some dopsters to win district this year. San Saba's Armadillos came out on top last year. Burnet has 11 lettermen on its 1949 squad.

Last Friday night Burnet lost in non-conference to Taylor, 13 Bulldogs are also idle this week end.

Weldon Owens Of Fort Worth Press Guest Speaker At Lions Club Meet

Weldon Owens of Fort Worth, regional editor of the Fort Worth Press, and who conducts the "Range Riders Program" over a Fort Worth radio station every Sunday morning, was guest speaker before about 55 Lions and guests at Ladies' Night meeting at The Hanger Tuesday night.

After members had introduced their guests, Lion President, Warren P. Duren called on Program Chairman Leonard Archer to introduce the guest speaker. Mr. Owens made one of the most humorous talks ever heard here, at the same time seriously bringing before his listeners his subject, Soil Conservation. He complimented the local unit of the Soil Conservation Service for their work being done here. He called attention to the $13,000 cash to be given this year by the Fort Worth Press for Soil Conservation work done and for students' essays in the "Save the Soil and Save Texas" contest. Last year 20,000 students entered this contest. This year in the contestants a "Queen" is to be selected, who must be the wife of a soil conservationist.

Mr. Owens said if we save our soil we save ourselves, and emphasized that the man who is saving the soil today, is doing twice the job for the man coming after him.

The speaker told numerous jokes, and his witticism kept the listeners in laughter most of the time. One (which he said he didn't want to be quoted on) was that: "I usually take my wife along when I go off on trips. If you could see her you'd know the reason why—she's so ugly I'd rather take her along than kiss her good-bye."

Lion Harold Yarborough called attention to the Eagles Club Barbecue and get-together scheduled to be held last night at Eagle Field, and asked that everyone come out. Lion H. E. Patton explained that besides getting acquainted with the team, Coach Wilson Lucas would put two teams in the field and rules of football and signals would be explained.

Guests introduced besides the speaker included: Coach and Mrs. Wilson Lucas; Randy Miller of Miami, Fla., son-in-law of Sheriff W. L. Mahan and president of a Miami Lions Club; Mrs. Leonard Archer, Mrs. Ben Day, Mrs. Ray Duren, Mrs. Warren Duren, Mrs. T. C. Graves, Mrs. J. L. Gwin, Mrs. G. C. Head, Mrs. John Hester, Mrs. Paul Koshi, Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. Loy Long, Mrs. Ed. Lovelace, Mrs. Jesse Moreland, Mrs. H. E. Patton, Mrs. Jack Reid, Mrs. Jesse Saegert, Mrs. C. C. Sadler, Mrs. Hope (Continued on Back Page.)

Boy Scout 'Round-Up' Meeting To Be Held Next Monday Night

The local Boy Scout Troop, sponsored by the Goldthwaite Lions Club, will be hosts at a special "Round Up" meeting next Monday night (Sept. 26th.) at 7:30 P. M. in the Education building of the Baptist Church. Charles Conrad, Scoutmaster of the troop, announced that the meeting is being held to welcome new members to the Troop. Under the new age requirements for Boy Scouts any boy who has passed his eleventh birthday is eligible to join the Scouts. Mr. Conrad would like to personally invite all the young men of Goldthwaite who are eleven or over to attend the meeting and bring their parents if possible.

There will be a special program designed to give both the boys and their parents an idea of some of the activities of the Troop and to make plans for future activities. Every one who attends the meeting will have a chance to see the new color movie "Camp Billy Gibbons." This movie was made during the summer camp at Camp Billy Gibbons this past summer. It shows the various features of the Camp; such as, swimming, boating, archery, Indian dancing, handicrafts, and marksmanship classes. This will be the first time the movie has been shown to the general public. After the showing of the movie refreshments will be served.

The Goldthwaite Cub Pack has been invited to attend the meeting and Mr. Day has assured us that they will be present. Mr. Conrad wants to especially invite those boys who were Cubs last year to come to the meeting and join the troop, if they wish, that night.

The Troop is looking forward to a year of fun-filled activity and wants new members to get in on the fun. If you're not sure whether or not you would like to join the Troop come along to the meeting anyway and get an idea of what the Troop will be doing. All parents are cordially invited to come with their boys.

Regardless of what is being learned through research...

Regardless of the tremendous advances being made in medical science and in the care of the patient...

Regardless of the newest developments in atomic energy and radiation therapy...

Early suspicion, prompt investigation, and treatment are still the most important weapons against cancer.

Cancer is like a forest fire—spread by 'sparks' which are carried off through the blood stream to distant parts of the body. No one can predict when this will take place.

But if a person is able to recognize the early symptoms of cancer, and will see his doctor at the earliest sign, and if he makes regular physical check-ups a habit for life, he has in his possession the surest insurance against this disease.

"The person who delays in going to a qualified doctor is only reducing his chances of cure," says J. Louis Neff, executive director of the American Cancer society, Texas Division. "There is seldom a second chance in cancer treatment. The right treatment must be used the first time."

KNOW YOUR FEDERAL INSURANCE

"All wage earners under social security should tell their families of the insurance policy that they have with the Federal Government," said James B. Marley, Manager of the Austin office of the Social Security Administration. "Many persons continue to think of social security as providing only retirement benefits and fail to take into consideration their insurance coverage in case of death. Many wage earners prior to the passage of the Social Security Act, realized that they could not save enough to provide for their dependents in case of death and that they could not afford to carry enough insurance to give adequate protection for their loved ones.

"Old-age and survivors insurance has largely overcome this economic fact by providing a basic insurance plan whereby the worker, at a minimum cost, assures himself of a monthly retirement benefit and also provides monthly checks in case of his death for his minor children, his widow, and in some cases, for his dependent parents. This basic income assurance actually serves to greatly increase the real value of whatever life insurance a person may purchase. The wage earner pays for Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance through deductions from his pay check, and benefits are payable as a matter of right. It is truly an insurance program.

"The local office of the Social Security Administration at 105 Brown Building, Austin will be glad to discuss with each individual his rights under his Federal insurance policy."

The Psalms We Sing

Lesson for September 25, 1949

IT WOULD be a most unusual person who on his dying bed would turn to the 23rd chapter of I Chronicles and not to the 23rd Psalm. If the reader will think of his own favorite passage of Scripture, and then look them up in some edition which prints the Bible in a modern format, he will discover that his favorite passages are probably all poetry.

Dr. Foreman

Poetry's Power
 WHY the appeal of poetry? For one thing, it is vivid. It is in colors, not severe black and white. It lives and breathes, at times it shouts, and it always sings.

It is true to say "The providential oversight of the Creator is continuous and unremitting;" but it is more effective to say, "The Lord is my shepherd." It would be true to say, "The evidences of creative and beneficent purpose can be seen throughout all the orders of nature;" but how much more vivid is the 148th Psalm, calling on hail and fire, sun and moon and stars of light, to praise the Lord!

Another secret of poetry's power is that it is the language of emotion. Professors and theologians may be saying the same things as the poet, and maybe even saying them more completely and accurately; but what they say is less easy to remember.

So these emotional Psalms will always appeal, even to the professor when off duty, because they make us feel religion and not merely think it.

Pictures of God

SO IT IS no wonder the Psalms have been loved and sung all over the world. We are perhaps the only religion that has made so much use of another religion's hymn book. Different though our faiths may be, Jews and Christians can sing from the Psalter with one voice and heart.

For centuries it was the hymnal of the Christian church. Indeed, up to recent years some large denominations would allow in public worship the singing of no other songs than the Psalms.

Many of our best hymns and popular gospel songs, as we have already seen, are based on Psalms. "Rock of Ages, cleft for me," "A Shelter in the Time of Storm," "Hiding in Thee," — they all go back to the Psalmist's picture of God as a Rock (Ps. 42:9). The Psalmist was not thinking of a little rock in a cornfield. He was thinking of some tall crag in the fierce hot landscape of his country.

A rock there is a landmark, it is a shelter against the blazing sun, people could live under its overhanging height.

So God is the landmark of life, he gives direction to our ways; he is the shelter on life's weary journey, he is our safe dwelling.

So with the many other pictures of God in the Psalms—he is light, he is shade, he is the guard on duty at night watching over the sleeping city (Ps. 121); he is a shepherd, he is water for the thirsting soul (Ps. 42.)

A Model Hymnal

IT IS true that few Christians today can use in worship all of the Psalms, without omissions or changes. It is also true that practically all Christian churches find that the Psalms, by themselves, are inadequate to express all there is in Christian experience, faith and ideals.

The Christian hymn, entirely independent of the Psalms, has long since come into its own. And yet the Psalms remain the model hymnal. For in them beauty and truth are blended.

This should be the ideal of all Christian hymn and song books. Some of our modern "hymns" as well as some older ones, are bad because they are no better than jingles, —doggerel, not poetry, and often sung to tunes better suited to a juke box; and some are bad because they convey either nonsense or downright falsehood.

But the great hymns, and the best hymnals, are those which like the Psalms of old, combine profound truths about God and man, duty and destiny, with stately, stirring and singable music, aglow with the beauty and power of words.

THE GREAT STARS DRAMATIC SAGA THE DESERT

Ford and Merian C. the producing team the screen such as "Fort Apache," "The Fugitive," have through with another offering in "3 Godfathers" great attraction at the theatre.

A western drama done from a perspective. The spectacle and suspense of the conflict of desert fights and pursuit, panoramic Tech backgrounds of Death and the strange tale of men who find themselves a founding on their far-fetched melodrama exaggerated his usual horse absent. Instead, we see action, intelligent and a lift of emotion story's dramatic high-gives this colorful drama vitality and dis-

'RED CANYON'

Thrills ride high, wide and handsome in the special screen attraction, "Red Canyon," which opens for the Saturday night Prevue, Sunday and Monday at the Melba Theatre. The Technicolor drama is high in high-handed adventure, the breaking of wild horses and fighting desperadoes. Wide are the colorful open spaces of Southern Utah where the picture was filmed. And handsome are its stars, Ann Blyth, Howard Duff and George Brent.

Universal - International has adapted Zane Grey's novel "Wildfire" to the screen in the same tempo of excitement and on the very locations described by the author. The film shows popular Mr. Duff in a romantic role for the first time. But he is still the he-man of action which brought him screen attention in "The Naked City" and "Brute Force." His capture of the wild horse as well as his gun battles with a murderous gang of horse thieves, keep him in the kind of portrayal his fans admire.

NORTH BROWN—

By MRS. CLEMMIE IVY
The norther that blew in on the thirteenth brought a lot of relief from the heat, and some light showers of rain. It seems like the good showers of rain have been very partial, but are becoming more plentiful.
On Monday morning it seems like the rain was getting to be more general. We all are still hoping to get plenty of stock water before the rain quits us. Most all the farmers have their turnip patches sowed. The grasshoppers seem to have died or are gone some place and we surely won't welcome them back to help harvest the greens.

Robert Goode left Friday of last week for Austin to enter the University.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulric Knowles have moved into their new house.

We've had rain, folks, honestly. Yes, and fall greens are showing little green spots in the gardens.

Mr. Lant Adams and crew are now busy spinning out the fleecy staple.

EBONY—

By Clementine Wilmet Briley (Written For Last Week.)

It seems that most of the state had rain this past week, but it certainly missed us and left us pitifully dry. But perhaps it was good for the cotton picking.

We see plenty of pickers in the Russell field. It is looking quite white now.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Reynolds have come to help Luke Russell pick his cotton. Luke has the old Horace Reynolds place.

Miss Pat Egger from Brownwood spent from Sunday to Wednesday with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Egger.

We called on Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilmet in Brownwood Friday to find that Mrs. Wilmet had been quite sick in bed since Tuesday. The doctor thought she was some better Friday.

Ira Egger of Brownwood spent most of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Egger.

Hubert Reeves has been hauling corn to Brownwood. He and Stanley have raised a fine crop this year.

Ernest Malone is helping John Briley gather his corn this week.

Clayton and Glen Egger gathered their corn last week. Jay Wilkins from Ridge helped them. The women also lent a helping hand.

Taylor Duncan and Cecil Egger are mowing and preparing to bale John Briley's negari this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Reid and daughters were out from Goldthwaite Friday looking over their cotton field which is getting white. We also hear that Mr. and Mrs. Reid were looking out for a building site where they might build this winter. It gives us a thrill just to have the slightest prospect of the addition of another family to our community. Especially one who will attend church and help build up the community.

Mrs. Edna Dwyer had a pleasant surprise Saturday evening when her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nettie Robertson, of Richmond, California and Mrs. Robertson's daughter, Mrs. Viola Long, of Austin drove up to her gate. They stayed till after dinner Sunday, then went on to Austin. Mrs. Dwyer was elated with happiness all the while they were here. The Brileys were invited for Sunday dinner and got to enjoy the guests, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Blue Thompson and Ezelle left for Grant, N. M. Friday morning to take home Mr. Thompson's sister, Mrs. Payne, who had been here for about two months helping wait on their brother who died a few weeks ago at the Thompson home. Since his death, Mrs. Payne had visited relatives and friends at Morgan.

The Thompsons returned Monday, the distance was almost 800 miles. They spent Sunday night with their daughter, Mrs. Edith Russell, at Big Spring. They said they were in lots of rain, and the country they saw was green and flourishing with good grass everywhere. It was quite a blow to them to come back here and find things so dry and pitiful. Mr. Thompson and John Briley decided that if they were young men they would move out there where the country is greener and more promising.

1906 Cadillac, In Storage For 39 Years Here. Revisits City Thursday

A 1906 Cadillac, which had been stored here in Jake Saylor's two-story barn for 39 years, revisited Goldthwaite last Sunday, shining like a new silver dollar.

Its owner, Harold B. Carroll, in the automobile repair business in Abilene and who has a hobby of collecting old cars, was driving it on the streets here Sunday. He brought it back home to show the Saylor's what their old car looks like now. Mr. Carroll bought the car from Jake Saylor last spring, took it to his Abilene shop and worked it over. Mr. Saylor bought the car in 1908, drove it two years, and parked it in his barn at his residence here. Carroll, in some way heard about it, and came here and made the deal. Price is a secret. Carroll says the people who first saw the car in his shop were very skeptical that he could make it run again—but he just told them that making a Car-roll was his name. He took the car apart, worked it over, found some new tires that had been on hand a long time, and the car now looks like new and hits on all cylinders (one). It cranks from the side, and boasts a 10-horse-power engine. Top speed is 30 miles per hour. The car has carbide headlights and lots of brass trimmings. The serial number is 1065, and the original floor mat stamped "Cadillac" is still in excellent shape.

Carroll said Sunday he bought the 1906 car from Saylor on March 25, but had a heck of a time getting him to sell it.

The first automobile to be owned by a Goldthwaite resident was brought to town by J. B. Ferguson, then a grain dealer here, about 1905 or 1906. It was a one-cylinder Buick, cranked from the side. It first stopped just about where Carroll stopped his Cadillac here Sunday morning—in front of the Saylor hotel. It created lots of excitement. Both Ferguson and Carroll wore the 1906 drivers' headgear, goggles, and duster coat. Some old-timers' eyes bugged out last Sunday morning when they saw Carroll's Cadillac—thinking history of 44 years ago was repeating itself.

SAN SABA PEAK—

By MRS. DUTCH SMITH

Fate Eckert returned home after a visit in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Williams of Stephenville spent last Thursday night in the Dutch Smith home.

Mrs. Fred Laughlin and Mrs. Freddie Mashall visited awhile Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Dutch Smith and Mrs. Jess Ball and Jimmie.

Good rains, ranging from showers up to three inches, fell over Mills County during the last week-end. Most places in the county received from a half inch to two inches. This, added to the fall on Sept. 7, will help to put the ground in shape for fall plowing.

Harry Allen's government gauge here in town totaled one inch for three falls: Sept. 14, .05; Sept. 15, .50, and Monday morning of this week, .45. This added to the 1.32 inches recorded here on Sept. 8, brings September precipitation here to date to 2.32 inches. It brings the year's total to date to 19.43 inches.

A strip from Priddy through Mullin to Regency reported the heaviest rainfall during the week-end. Mullin recorded 1.99 total, 25 last Sunday night and 1.74 Monday morning early. Hearn Harris ranch got from three-quarters to an inch, with 2 inches reported north. Ridge reported up to three inches.

In the eastern part of the county the fall was lighter, ranging from showers up to an inch.

J. H. Priddy, west of Priddy, reported .18 rainfall on Wednesday of last week with .05 on Thursday afternoon. Last Sunday, the Priddy section recorded .48 of an inch and Monday .17, for a total rainfall of 1.53 inches. East of town, John L. Leonard reported .61 at his place five miles from Goldthwaite. Dr. C. T. Graves stock farm at Mt. Olive reported about an inch of rainfall. Mrs. Dutch Wilkie at Shady Oak Ranch 7 miles southwest recorded .46 of an inch last Thursday, with sprinkles only Sunday and Monday.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION LETS CARADAN ROAD CONTRACT

According to newspaper dispatches from Austin this week, contract for extending Farm Highway 575 from present end on to Caradan, a distance of 4.43 miles, was let Tuesday of this week to the Killian Keller Company of San Antonio for $34,733—which means $7,840 per mile.

Contract calls for grading, drainage structures, flexible base and single asphalt surface treatment from 4.76 miles northeast of U. S. Highway 84 to Caradan—an extension of the Caradan Highway.

San Saba County beat Mills in tax-payers' expense. Farm Highway 500 in San Saba County, 4.88 miles, contract went to A. L. Lucy of Brownwood for only $23,754—a little less than $5,000 per mile.

Under this new set up, all the schools of Mills County will have two vocational teachers, there will be two nurses for the County, and one School Counsellor. The addition of all these extra teachers should mean a great advancement to the school system. The School nurses whose names have been previously announced are Miss Geeslin for the Goldthwaite Independent School and Mrs. Gwin for the other three schools. While Judge John L. Patterson was appointed by the County School Board for the Counsellor position.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reed and children of Brownwood visited her sister, Mrs. Newbury, Sunday.

have made more on this field than I have on any acre on my place," said Marwitz on the Becker Soil Conservation Group, pointed to a 4 1/2 acre field that was seeded to oats and Madris Sweetclover in the fall of 1947.

12 lbs. of Madris Sweetclover seed per acre were sown in October 1947. The clover was lost due to a good stand of alfalfa but a good stand of alfalfa survived. This crop was cut and baled into hay and 30 bales of high quality alfalfa were produced during the summer and 25 lambs were raised on the Fort Worth farm. In the fall of 1948, the Marwitz and the Madris Sweetclover started its year growth from the alfalfa that were already established. Marwitz grazed this crop all the stock he had until the last of May of this year when the stock were removed and the alfalfa was cut and baled into hay from the clover continued to grow through this summer and about 500 lbs. of clean Madris Sweetclover seed was obtained from this 4 1/2 acre field.

Will realized from this field he can expect an increase in production from this alfalfa several years to come. He expects to sow oats this fall and expect a volunteer alfalfa clover. He has 10 acres of alfalfa that was planted which he will sow in the fall. The Carlsberg Conservation Group wheat following 2 years of Madris Sweetclover and alfalfa per acre. On an un-tilled land across the fence, alfalfa produced an average of 500 lbs. per acre.

operators with the Brown-

HOMEMAKING GIRLS COMPLETE WORK

Seventeen students of Goldthwaite High School completed summer experiences in homemaking for which each girl received 1/2 credit. These girls practiced in their homes various phases of homemaking which they had studied during the past school year, doing at least 90 or more hours of work. Each student completed the task set up, many times doing far more than the required 90 hours, one student spending 231.

The following results were accomplished:

- 9 rooms improved
- 7 floors refinished
- 9 pieces of furniture refinished
- 63 pieces household linens made
- 76 meals prepared
- 72 garments made
- 10 garments remodeled
- 338 pints of food canned
- 70 pints preserves and jellies made
- 48 pints pickles made
- 91 pounds food frozen
- 5 practiced child care
- 10 worked in Vacation Bible School

For the recreation phase of homemaking, some social activity was provided each month. In June, six girls went to Lampasas for a District III Summer Camp of two days. In July, a local picnic was held. In August, a slumber party was given in the homemaking building. The incoming freshman girls were guests for this occasion.

Each girl participated in at least 15 hours of group work in the homemaking department. Silk parachute scraps were tied and made into a patchwork bedspread for the department; 33 belts were made from parachute cords; 6 pounds of soap were made from waste fats; a footstool was made for the bedroom; and the flower beds were cared for.

For these girls, homemaking is training for home and family living, today as well as in the future. They realize that home and family problems take no vacations, and that they are better solved through the cooperation of family members.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referee.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole arbiters of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... it is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organization in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act..."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The unions have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Missouri Pacific Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

By MRS. CLEMMIE IVY (Written For Last Week.)
Rain is a very scarce item in this part of the county; only a few light showers have fallen.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hardgrave celebrated the nice cool norther with a 42 party last Friday night. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hancock of the Kelly community, Mr. and Mrs. Glynn Louis of Democrat and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ivy. Delicious cake, ice cream and fruit punch were served. All enjoyed the hours very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Creek visited their daughter, Mrs. Ted Vance, one day last week.

We are sorry Mr. and Mrs. Jim Evans are not feeling so well. Last week visitors to see them were Mr. and Mrs. McGothin and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bramblet.

Sorry to report Miss Pearl Crawford as being sick. Here's hoping she will soon be well again.

We also visited two of the florist and ever green houses and on to visit in Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harrison's home and other relatives and friends.

Mr. Margie Burks received word last Saturday his brother had passed away. Mr. Berks left immediately for New Mexico.

It seems like well trouble is the order of the day. Mr. Creek is having trouble with his well pipes. Also Mr. R. T. Roberts has had very serious trouble as he lost about half the pipes that dropped back in his well and doesn't have his well in shape yet for getting water.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Griffin and son, Joe, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Reid, Mrs. Reid's father, Wood Roberts, all visited and played dominoes last Saturday night in the Jess Ivy home. Ice cream and coffee was served and all declared they would have their games again some time soon.

Miss Bura Letbetter, Mrs. Cozak of Killeen were Sunday visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Letbetter, also Mr. Letbetter's sister, Mrs. Alice McCoy of Fort Worth was last week's visitor.

There has been quite a bit of fire setting lately in this neighborhood. This is a very, very serious thing for stock as well as people as there are so many elderly people who cannot fight fire. That causes a very, nervous attack. Now, will you please be cooperative, keep your matches in your pockets, please.

Mr. Creek was a Monday morning visitor in the Evans' home. Mr. Creek and Mr. Jim Evans went over to Priddy together.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Koen of Mount Olive visited in the Evans' home Sunday. Also Mr. Adams, Mr. George Crawford, Bob, Ruth, Ruby, Rea Rendals, Mr. Tom and son, Edwin Stevens, visited Thursday night.

Mr. Orvil Evans made a pop call to Mr. Albert Evans in Priddy and found Mr. Evans gone to Killeen, Texas with a load of broom corn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Ivy had their son, David, wife and son, Jerry, for Sunday night supper, also their daughter, Mrs. Jewel Adams from Comanche.

We are proud Mr. W. W. Williams is getting the varments caught and killed as they are desperate on our turkeys and chickens.

Mr. Henry and Miss Hilda Naurt attended church at Priddy Sunday, but we are sorry to say their mother, Mrs. Otto Naurt, was feeling so badly she was unable to go to church.

I'll close these few news items hoping old Mr. waste basket doesn't get the biggest majority of my letter this time.

MRS. KEESE

Mrs. Keese to tell about pioneer life in Texas during this period.

THE VIRDEN'S MOVE TO PLEASANT GROVE

In the Middle 70's Ben Virden and family moved from Robertson County near Hearne to Hamilton County and located on the old Pitts place in the Pleasant Grove Community. The family consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Virden and six sons, William, Jack, Ben, Henry, Julius and Jim and little daughter, Mattie Virden, who today is Mrs. John N. Keese. Two married daughters remained in Robertson County. The trip required much preparation and was a great adventure for little Mattie and her brothers.

The family brought all their belongings in three wagons, two of the wagons were ox wagons and the other had a team of horses which were much faster than the oxen and the Virden boys would take turn about driving the ox wagons and a herd of livestock. Mr. and Mrs. Virden and the small children would ride in the horse drawn wagon; but Mattie Virden liked to slip out of the lead wagon and go back and ride with the boys in the ox wagons.

After a tiresome journey of about three weeks they arrived at the old Pitts place in the Pleasant Grove Community.

Their new home consisted of a double log house with a hall between the rooms. One room had a fire place and a wooden floor. The other room had a rock floor and the Pitts had used it for a stable. Ben Virden and the boys went to work and cleaned out the room that had been used as a stable and closed in the hall and now the house had three rooms.

The fire place room was used by Mr. and Mrs. Virden and the small children and the boys occupied the room that was once the hall and the room with the rock floor was the kitchen.

Cooking was done on an open fire built on the rock floor and the smoke would escape out of the room through the cracks between the logs. The cooking utensils were pots, kettles, skillets and a large iron oven. The bread baked in the oven was pone bread made of corn meal; flour was used to make biscuits for Sunday breakfast and for pie crust.

The usual week day meal consisted of pone bread, meat, molasses, baked sweet potatoes and plenty of milk and butter and eggs. The cooking was done by Mr. Virden and the boys as Mrs. Virden was an invalid and of course little Mattie did her share of the chores as soon as the men folks had finished repairing the house and the cattle and horses got settled in their new location as there were no fences then except some garden plots were fenced with staves.

Mr Virden and the boys went to plowing the land, preparing for the next year's crop; the boys used a large yoke of oxen of the longhorn breed named Tunny and Rolley. With three plows going they soon had the land ready to plant in the spring.

There were not many settlers in Pleasant Grove Community then but they were all good neighbors. There are only four of the Virdens' first neighbors now living and they are Will Berry, Mrs. Mollie Horton, Mandy Patridge and Betty.

Two of their neighbors, Uncle Jimmie Dow and Mr. John Nesbit were immigrants from Scotland and both were very devout Christians so they organized a Methodist Church and Sunday School in Mr. John Nesbit's home. This made Mrs. Virden very happy. Although she was not able to attend, she wanted her children to attend church. Mrs. Keese said she could remember how happy her mother would be on Sunday morning when the children were ready to go to Sunday School. This was the first church that Mattie Virden remembers.

The first literature was a small pamphlet in question and answer form. Some of the questions were: "Who was the oldest man mentioned in the Bible?" and "Who was Moses?"

The literature was given out one Sunday and the pupils were to memorize them by the next Sunday.

Mrs. Keese said that Mr. Dow and Mr. Nesbit preached and prayed like they were talking direct to God. It was in this church that Mattie Virden learned that long ago Job asked the question: "If a man die, shall he live again?" She also learned that a young carpenter of Nazareth answered Job's question when he proved that putting off the body wasn't the end, and Mattie Virden had faith in what he proved.

In February, after the church was organized in the fall, Mrs. Virden passed away and was laid to rest in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery which was a very new cemetery as Mrs. Virden was the third person buried in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery. What the young Carpenter of Nazareth had proved helped Mattie Virden to understand the shock of parting. Mr. Virden was now both father and mother and a wise teacher to the children.

THE MOB

Before the Virdens got settled in their new home a member of the mob rode over to investigate the new settler and called Mr. Virden out of the house. The older boys kept close enough to hear what was going on. Both Mr. Virden and the stranger were Masons and they had found a common ground. This toned the stranger down some. After the stranger had questioned Mr. Virden as to why he had moved to this county, Mr. Virden was heard to have said that he brought his family here for their health as his wife was sick and the children all had chills in East Texas and he did not intend to molest any one or join any mob.

After the stranger had told Mr. Virden how to conduct himself to keep out of trouble by keeping quiet and by not letting the children talk, Mr. Virden said he did not come here to be molested; that he had a father and several brothers and his six sons, all of whom were good shots and if the mob came after him they would need a good many men. Ben Virden was not molested, but several years later one of his brothers was ordered out of the country by the mob and left.

About this time there was a young man by the name of Tom Snipes living near the blue hole on Sims Creek, who was a fiddler and played for the square dances. One day he was missing and was found hanging in a thicket in Lampasas County and the law enforcement officer from Lampasas got two factions of the mob working against each other and finally broke it up.

Mrs. Keese said that the mob was the greatest fear the people had. She said they had a large flock of guineas and when they would start chattering the children would think that the mob was coming.

THEIR FIRST CROP

The first year they raised cotton, corn and grain. The cotton was hauled by ox wagon to Round Rock, Texas and sold. The corn and wheat that was used for bread was hauled to old Chadwick's Mill and ground and as a trip to the mill took several days, Mr. Virden would take the small children with him. The children enjoyed going to the mill.

Mrs. Keese said the thing about the mill that fascinated her most was the Mill's water system. The system was a windlass inside the mill with a cable running out through an opening to the water in the Colorado river. There was a large bucket attached to the cable. They would run the bucket down to the river and wind it back into the mill, full of water. The mill owner charged toll out of all grain ground; from wheat you would get flour, seconds, shorts and bran. All were used for bread except the bran. The corn was ground into meal.

EARLY SOCIAL LIFE

They would have square dances and Tom Snipes was the fiddler and they would have play parties and play Snap, Shoot the Buffalo and other games. When the school house was built they would have fruit suppers and later it was box suppers and when a traveling preacher would come by they would have church at the school house and every body for miles around would come in ox wagons and on horse back.

HER FIRST SCHOOL

It was several years after the school house was built at Pleasant Grove before Mattie Virden entered school. Her first teacher was Prof. Rector. There was only one desk in the school room. It was made of one by twelve boards and was fastened to the side of the room with hinges so it could be raised or lowered to fit the pupil. When any one had any writing to do they would move to the desk. The other pupils sat on benches made by splitting a large log, putting pegs for legs and the flat side up for the seat. The windows were sliding windows made of the same material as the walls. The school term was only three months a year.

MILLS COUNTY CREATED

In 1887 when Mills County was created Pleasant Grove was now in Mills County and the Virdens were citizens of the new county. The first time that Mattie Virden came to Goldthwaite the road came off the mountain below the old Patterson place up through the flat to the place where Wyatt Berry now lives, and turned west.

The merchants were doing business under arbors on the east side of what is now the court house square. There were several homes grouped around the Wyatt Berry place. Mrs. Keese has a tin type picture of the merchants doing business under the arbors. There were saloons here then.

Mrs. Keese brothers, Jack and Ben, helped build the railroad from Lometa to Goldthwaite. People enjoyed seeing the train unless they had too much trouble trying to hold their horses.

Mattie Virden was now a grown young lady and on Dec. 2, 1891, was married to John N. Keese by Rev. D. I. Haralson. After a time John Keese and wife moved to East Texas and stayed about five years and moved back to Mills County. Mr. Keese established a monument works which he operated until a few years ago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Keese helped to make Goldthwaite a better place in which to live.

Mr. John N. Keese died May 1st, 1948.

THE KEESE HOME

Mrs. Keese lives in the same home that she reared her family and it is located in a cove in the mountain in the east part of town. As you walk through the yard you will find beautiful flowers every where and hear the sweet song of the red bird.

When you ring the door bell you will hear a voice say, "Come in;" then you will hear Mrs. Keese say, "come in." The first voice was Mutt, the Mexican parrot, that has been in the Keese home 28 years, and Mutt thinks he is head of the house. When he hears a car door slam he will yell, "come in!" Mutt has to have his oats, toast and coffee for breakfast, and when grace is said he will bow his head and when Amen is said he will raise up and repeat it. He knows all the grandchildren and calls them by name and he is always dropping a word now and then, and when you Always pass the car before curves. Don't use the bar may unnerve other drivers.

Always drive with your dow closed. Then you have to signal.

Mrs. Keese taught Sunday School for a number of years and is a member of the choir and W. S. C. S. She is also a member of the Garden Club and Eastern Star and today would help with any movement that would make Goldthwaite a better place in which to live.

Her children are Mrs. R. O. Brandenburg and Mrs. B. B. McBride, both of Arlington, Texas; Mrs. Stanley Lasarsky, Ada, Okla.; Barton J. Keese Biloxie, Mississippi; Carl Keese, Magnolia, Ark; and Mrs. Ruyel K. DeWolfe, Austin, Texas; and she has a sister, Mrs. L. Covington, living at Pleasant Grove, and a brother, Henry H. Virden, Alamogorda, N. M.

Mrs. Keese does not want the good old days brought back, as she thinks the present time is better than the good old days.

So we say to our good neighbor—"Happy Birthday."
