Don't Toss Trash; It Will Cost $200

If you get caught throwing rubbish, glass, wire, nails and other material likely to injure animals or puncture automobile tires on any public highway in Mills County, it will cost you $200.00, according to action taken by the Commissioners' Court last Monday. The Commissioners want it to be known that there will be enforcement of the Texas penal law forbidding the scattering of materials that puncture or cut on the public highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simpson received a message Wednesday morning that their daughter, Mrs. Albert Rowland of Alamogordo, New Mexico, underwent an emergency appendectomy and is doing as well as can be expected.

Court House Paint Job Is In Prospect

The Mills County Court House is to have a much needed paint job done on doors and window frames, in accordance with an order issued by the Commissioners' Court at a meeting last Monday. County Judge L. B. Porter was authorized to advertise for bids for the painting and repairing of all Court House doors and windows, which have weathered until they now are on the shabby side.

Eugene L. Dyas Elected Jaycee 50-51 President

The Goldthwaite Junior Chamber of Commerce, meeting at the Hangar Wednesday night, elected Eugene L. Dyas as President for the coming year, succeeding Jesse Saegert.

Other Jaycee officers who were elected Wednesday night were Dr. M. A. Childress, First Vice President; Larry Dalton, Second Vice President; and Wallace Johnson, Secretary-Treasurer.

GHS Senior Class Present Lively Comedy Tonight

Tonight, Friday, the Senior Class of the Goldthwaite High School will present the comedy, "Just Ducky," under the direction of Mrs. Oran W. Carothers. The play will start at eight o'clock at the School Auditorium.

"Just Ducky" is a comedy in three acts. Members of the cast are Mack Robertson, Jane Ann Steen, Nell Carman Wilkins, Sybil Ann Reid, Larry Simmons, "Red" Miller, Ann Sebott, Billy Mack Stark, Cecil Williams, John Cook, Gail McNeil and Joann Partridge.

Ruth Groth is the prompter, and Annette Lindsay has been attending rehearsals as understudy.

The theme of the play is "What makes teen age girls do the things they do?" That, says Mrs. Carothers, should intrigue any audience.

Commissioners Okay Stock Law Election

Meeting last Monday, the Commissioners' Court of Mills County certified the results of the special stock law election that was held in Precinct 4 on April 29. The results were certified as 51 votes for the law, which forbids sheep, hogs and goats to run at large, and 18 votes against it.

A typographical error in last week's Eagle made the results of the election in Jones Valley (Rattler) obscure. The official tally in Jones Valley showed that in the special stock election, nine votes were cast, and all were against the law.

Mrs. Paul Bohel and daughter, Anita, of Galveston spent Saturday afternoon and night with her sisters, Mrs. Emma Oltroge and Mrs. W. C. Fox and other relatives.

Jennie Trent Dew Library Will Serve County As Public Facility

Action that will enable the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library in Goldthwaite to qualify as a free public library with facilities for service to all of Mills County was taken by the Commissioners' Court last Monday.

By order of the Commissioners, and at a tax rate of one cent on each $100.00 valuation of all taxable property in the County, financial support will be given to the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library from the County's general fund.

It was emphasized, however, that there will be no additional tax levy to make public support of the library possible. The specification in the paragraph above was made purely for the purpose of making an allocation from the general fund and to enable the County Treasurer to set up a "Library Fund" on the books.

The action of last Monday's meeting authorizes the Commissioners' Court to enter into a contract with the municipal administration of the City of Goldthwaite under which the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library will provide service to all of Mills County. The sum to be provided will be stipulated in the agreement.

Under the terms of the will of the late Jennie Trent Dew, money was provided for the construction of a library and for at least partial support of it. The City of Goldthwaite and a library advisory committee have been responsible for bringing the new library into being. However, public financial support by the County, as was voted by the Commissioners' Court last Monday, was necessary to enable the library to qualify as a free public library.

Such qualification will make it possible for the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library to obtain and circulate books from the Texas State Library at Austin. Plans for librarian service and for the circulation of books through such outlets as the schools at Mullin, Priddy and Star, as well as Goldthwaite, will be announced later.

In addition to the County Commissioners, the arrangements to make the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library a County-wide facility have concerned the municipality of Goldthwaite, the Board of County School Trustees, County Judge L. B. Porter, the Library Advisory Committee, representatives of clubs and civic organizations, and the County School Superintendents. Earlier, the assets of the former Goldthwaite Public Library had been transferred to the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library.

Local Farmers, Ranchers Study Luling Methods Of Conservation

Thirty-six farmers and ranchers attended the regular meeting of the Goldthwaite Farm and Ranch Group, Thursday night, May 4, to hear the teachers of the Mills County Vocational School discuss their observations of the Luling Foundation Farm near Luling, Texas.

Eric D. Roberson, coordinator of the school, gave the history of the Luling Foundation Farm. He outlined the goals set up by the managers of the farm as follows: 1—Soil and Water Conservation; 2—Soil Fertility Improvement; 3—Sound Land Use; 4—Conversion of Field Crops and Grass to Products Nearest to Consumer Use.

M. B. Harrison, teacher of the Fourth Year Class, told of the soil and water conservation program on the Luling Farm. He showed a slide of a pond built at the bottom of a field that had been terraced. The runoff water from the terraces was supposed to have filled the pond, but due to a good cover of clover and small grain on the terraces field, a 6.8 inch rain failed to fill the pond. It has been found that a growing crop on the land protects the soil from erosion and the crop utilizes the available moisture for plant growth.

T. F. White, Instructor of the Goldthwaite School, described the dairy project on the Luling Farm as the major source of income. A slide showing registered Jersey Cows grazing in an improved pasture was used to illustrate how the green cover crops were converted into milk which went directly to the consumer.

Hollis P. Ford, instructor of the Mullin School, told of adjustments in the use of the land. A bottom-land field that was formerly in cotton is now planted in Bermuda Grass and pecan trees. Mr. Ford stressed the value of organic matter and how the Luling Farm utilized the crop residues and green manure crops to build up the organic content of the soil.

Norman Duren, teacher of the Priddy School, showed slides of the beef breeding herd and the fat steers. He said that one group of steers grazing on an improved pasture netted 35 dollars per acre in 90 days.

Oran Carothers, teacher of the Star Vocational School, summarized the various practices and gave his opinion on the adaptability of these principles to Mills county. Mr. Carothers said that the value of sweet clovers had been proven in this area. King Ranch bluestem is adaptable here, Mr. Carothers said, and he showed slides of Dr. T. C. Grave's ranch to prove it. Several farm management practices which had local application were described by Mr. Carothers.

The Farm and Ranch Group meets the first Thursday of each month and Dr. T. C. Graves invites all farmers and ranchers to attend.

Buckelew, Riley Get Prison Terms From Judge Dice

District Judge Wesley Dice, sitting at the Mills County Court House last Tuesday, sentenced Herman Buckelew and William S. Riley to long penitentiary terms following their convictions on charges of burglary and robbery with firearms.

In each case, Buckelew and Riley were sentenced to ten years imprisonment. The terms will be served concurrently in each case for the Mills County convictions, but they are cumulative to previous ten year prison sentences imposed on Buckelew and Riley in Tarrant County. In other words, Buckelew and Riley were sentenced by Judge Dice to penitentiary terms of ten years each in addition to the terms of similar duration to which they were sentenced in Tarrant County.

On May 1, the Mills County Grand Jury indicted Buckelew and Riley on charges of 12 counts each of burglary with intent to commit theft. Each man also was indicted on one count of robbery with firearms. The convicted men were returned to Mills County on May 3 by Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan, who brought them in for trial from Darrington Farm and Sugarland Farm No. 2 of the Huntsville Penitentiary.

The Eagle has been trying to photograph the Seniors named in the above report but so far they have not lit long enough to pose. Maybe some day there will be a photograph.

Fuller Indicted By Grand Jury As Victims Recover

Last Thursday, the recalled Mills County Grand Jury indicted Tom Fuller on two counts of assault with intent to murder. The indictments were returned in the May 3 shotgun shootings of R. L. "Bob" Cockrum of Rt. 1, and of Luther Booker of Goldthwaite. Bond was set by District Judge Wesley Dice at $2,500 on each count.

After Judge Dice had set Fuller's bond at a total of $5,000.00 for both counts of the indictment, he was lodged in the Mills County jail. As this week's Eagle went to press, Fuller had not been able to post the required bond.

Both Mr. Cockrum and Mr. Booker, who were wounded by Fuller when he fired his shotgun a week ago last Wednesday from a position that he held in the west entrance of the Fairman Co., Inc., showroom, have been released from hospital.

Fuller's shooting spree of May 3 followed his appearance at the Fairman Company's headquarters to complain to School Board Chairman C. C. Collier about a school tax delinquency notice. The amount involved was only $22.27 for Fuller's 1948-1949 tax for the Goldthwaite Independent School District, but by the time he had been put out of action by the timely and accurate intervention of Deputy Sheriff Clyde Cockrum, he had wounded Mr. Bob Cockrum and Mr. Booker, and E. T. Fairman, President of the Trent State Bank, and the Rev. Ed H. Lovelace, Pastor of the First Methodist Church in Goldthwaite, had been struck by stray pellets.

Fuller was returned from a Brownwood hospital to Goldthwaite on Tuesday, the day he was indicted, by Sheriff Wiley L. Mahan. It was expected that Fuller would stand trial late in May or perhaps early in June.

Oil Activity Is To Be Increased In Mills County

An extension of drilling operations in hope of striking oil in Mills County was announced this week.

Following the recent spudding in of a well on the P. R. Reid property, about a mile north-west of Goldthwaite, A. Gutowsky, Inc., received a permit to drill another Mills County wildcat about one and a half miles east of Priddy.

This well, which has not yet been spudded in, will be known as the Ben Kirsch No. 1. Mr. Gutowsky's permit calls for drilling to a depth of 3,500 feet, 990 from the north and 330 from the west lines of 3-Becker.

It was understood that still another drilling operation by A. Gutowsky, Inc., is in prospect in Mills County.

Drilling also continues in the Indian Creek area in the extreme western portion of Mills County.

GOOD LIBRARY NEWS FOR MILLS COUNTY

The Eagle congratulates the Commissioners' Court for its wise decision of last Monday to grant public financial support to the Jennie Trent Dew Memorial Library, thereby qualifying it to enjoy the benefits of a free public library.

MILLS COUNTY AND FREEDOM

The Texas Panhandle, specifically the 28 Counties of it that make up the 18th Congressional District, is receiving nationwide attention for having elected a Republican, Ben Guill, to the House of Representatives in Washington.

A considerable number of citizens in various parts of Texas, mindful that this is a Congressional election year, have been writing to their newspapers to ask their fellow-citizens to make it a point of noting whether members of Congress from our own State talk and act in Washington the same as they do back home in Texas.

Despite both tradition and public apathy, the people are being called upon to stand up and be counted as free Americans—to take sides for or against the Socialistic legislative program of the Truman Administration and the National Democratic Party, regardless of past political affiliations.

Up the Hudson River some 30 miles from New York City is West Point, the home of the United States Military Academy.

Formerly a fortified point where the river jogs abruptly, the academy looms high over the rugged rock formations that overlook the deep, blue waters of the historic Hudson. So vital was this spot to our defenses that a huge chain was once extended across the river to stop British warships from moving up stream during the revolutionary war.

In 1802 the academy was created. It was George Washington's idea. In fact, in the last letter that he ever wrote, two days before his death, Washington urged a permanent officer training school be established at West Point. It was strongly supported by Knox and Hamilton and was formally established by Jefferson.

Under the law, for 150 years a Board of Visitors have gone to West Point each year, spent a few days inspecting the buildings, visiting classes, conferring with instructors and viewing the cadets in their routine operations. A formal report is then made, with recommendations.

I recently joined other board members in the annual inspection. Others who attended included Rep. Porter Hardy, of Virginia, Dr. Irvin Stewart, President of the University of West Virginia; Dr. Samuel N. Stevens, President of Grinnell College, Iowa; Dr. Frederick Ribble, Dean of the University of Virginia Law School.

There are now 2380 cadets at West Point. Contrary to the general belief, the academy, like the Naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, is not just an officers' training institution. It provides a broad, general undergraduate education, comparable to other colleges, and lays the foundation upon which a career in growth of military knowledge can be based, along with the inculcation of a set of virtues considered indispensable in a soldier.

Each cadet takes an oath to serve his country for at least eight years. Most of them continue to follow a military career, however. Each cadet is commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant upon graduation. More than 10% of the class of 1943 were killed in battle.

The Library of Congress, headed by Dr. Luther Evans of Texas, observed its sesquicentennial anniversary the other day. It's the biggest library in the world. Dr. Evans in his annual report said that exclusive of two million unbound newspapers and parts of serials and periodicals awaiting binding, the institution contains "an estimated 27,560,873 pieces." Nearly a million readers used the library during the past year.

Communists and Smart Alecks have seen some tough treatment in the courts and before Congressional Committees the past year, and the gloomy reaction of their few sympathizers around Capitol Hill has been quite noticeable. There are times when they get cocky and defiant, but recently it's been a bit different. Reading the list of convictions were the 12 Communist leaders who were branded as co-conspirators to overthrow our government. Then there was the Coplan case, the Hiss trial, the Christoffel conviction, and more recently the five years given Harry Bridges. Not to be overlooked was the recent decision of the Supreme Court in upholding the conviction of ten Hollywood writers for refusing to answer a congressional committee when asked if they were Communists.

The Eagle's Aery

By The Editor

The editor has been receiving some grand and encouraging letters from readers of the Eagle. He would like to express his gratitude for them to Mrs. J. E. Williams of Rt. 3, Hamilton; to Mrs. G. W. Hill of Rt. 2, Goldthwaite; to Mrs. Cecil Parker of Rt. 1, Goldthwaite; and, again, to Miss Annie Laurie Petsick of Goldthwaite, who is teaching in Alvin. The editor also says "thank you" to W. B. Wooster, the teacher of the Men's Downtown Bible Class in Goldthwaite, for having taken the time to stop by the Eagle's Aery to tell what he has been hearing about the Eagle.

Another bow goes to Mrs. Florence Frizzell, wife of "Uncle Holland," who reported one night that "Fesser" had gone to bed without cleaning a lot of fish that had been presented to him. Thanks for the generous and thoughtful offer of the fish, Florence, but as the editor explained, the editor at the time was in no mood to clean fish. He was, as a matter of fact, thinking hard about following "Fesser's" example so as to get some much-needed shut-eye himself. At the moment, the only really enthusiastic fish-cleaner in the editor's household is his young son, and, at that, Harvey will play mortician only to fish that he catches himself. Our resistance to the fish that "Fesser" left on your hands did not indicate any lack of gratitude, Florence. Also, what intrigued the editor most is that, for once, you called that fine husband of yours "Fesser" instead of the very formal "Mr. Frizzell."

At home, the editor has been catching the dickens from his wife for writing about his family. Since it is possible for him to get a word or so in edgeways here in this column, he explains that at the very start of The Eagle's Aery, it was made known that this space would be devoted to the editor's personal ruminations. It is just about impossible, Mrs. E., not to write about the family because so many people hereabouts are so kind to us, and the editor likes to write about neighborliness in Mills County.

The editor's family has been blessed with demonstrations of neighborliness since establishing residence on Fisher Street. The Ira O. Harveys, right next door on the north, have been helpful and have done everything they could to make us feel at home. Even some confusion has not cut into the friendly atmosphere. There has been confusion because the editor's son is named Harvey, and when his mother pages Harvey, it is just as likely as not that Ira O. will come running, too. Further, the editor's wife is named "Ted." That is her name; she was christened "Ted." The confusion on Fisher Street is due to the fact that a very nice hound dog owned by the Ira O. Harveys also is named "Ted." Almost anything can happen on Fisher Street if somebody stands in the right spot and starts screaming "Ted."

So much has happened in a week that the editor is a bit overwhelmed. Our Miss Earlene Nix carried through on her threat and presented young Harve with a duck, a dignified drake about a year old. The duck had been named C. J. Stafford after a neighbor who lived next door to us up in Marcelus, in Central New York. The human C. J. Stafford may read this and so the editor refrains from going into the naming of the duck in general terms. The lords it over the much the lordly name C. J. Stafford. Kellar D. Clendenning Writes

 Tribute For Mother's Day

(Editor's Note: Next Sunday is Mother's Day.
 Last March 9, Mrs. Sarah Pauline Clendenning died at the age of 80 in Goldthwaite. In tribute to Mrs.
 Clendenning, who was the widow of the late T. B.
 Clendenning, her son, Kellar D., of Goldthwaite, has written the following poem, which The Eagle is privileged to publish.)

MY MOTHER

By Kellar D. Clendenning
 (WRITTEN ON MARCH 3, 1950)

If I were a competent Sculptor,
 I'm sure it would be my delight
 To erect, in memory of mother,
 A marble — high and white;
 Marble, to denote character,
 High, to denote heaven
 And white, to denote purity
 In the love she has given.

If I were indeed a Sculptor,
 The purest of marble I'd choose—
 Thereon I'd carve a few short lines
 Of a love I cannot lose;
 I'd inscribe on the faultless marble,
 With instruments of steel,
 In words that would not fade away—
 Affections that I feel.

If I were an inspired Sculptor,
 I'd carve a master-piece—
 A monument to mother,
 Where now, she "rests in peace";
 I'd carve an index finger
 Atop the marble white,
 Pointing to her home above—
 Where there shall be no night.

If I were the able Sculptor
 That I would like to be,
 I'd raise a matchless marble,
 That all the world might see;
 Thereon I'd carve an Angel's name—
 An Angel's name—no other!
 And there, beneath a "dove of peace",
 Would be the name—My Mother.

 ond round, they were forced to

How to make friends with a clock!

Every time you look at a clock does it reproach you for not laying aside something for the future?

Does its scowling face warn you that it's later than you think?

If that's the way a clock looks to you, it's high time you signed up for some United States Savings Bonds—under your firm's Payroll Savings Plan or your bank's Bond-A-Month Plan.

Soon as you do that, your clock will start to grin at you every time you give it a look. And each cheery tick will be a bright reminder that you're getting nearer your goal of financial independence.

And in the decade of progress that most economists say is just ahead, financial independence is going to be more important than ever before.

With a nice nest egg of U. S. Savings Bonds, you'll have freedom of action. You'll be able to take advantage of opportunities as they come along—to make the most of every situation.

Remember, every $3 you put into U. S. Savings Bonds becomes $4 in ten years. Better start growing money now—before that clock scowls at you again.

Mayor Loy Long Calls For Local Cooperation In U. S. Bond Effort

Mayor Loy Long of Goldthwaite this week urged full local participation in the national campaign to sell United States Savings bonds to citizens generally.

The campaign, known throughout the nation as the Independence Drive, opens next Monday and will continue through July 4. The Liberty Bell is its symbol.

In calling for local support of one of the greatest efforts ever

Mrs. Charlie Partin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Partin and son and Roger Smith, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. Earl Ehrhridge, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Bass of Muleshoe, visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stevens, Mildred and Edwin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crawford and William G. visited Mrs. R. A. Stevens and Miss Lola Wednesday. We are glad to report that Granny Stevens is feeling better after a few days illness.

made by the United States Treasury Department, Mayor Long said:

"The year-round Savings Bonds program, of which this annual campaign is an important part, fosters the spirit of self-reliance and the urge for self-betterment that, along with individual enterprise, inventiveness, productivity and thrift have carried us steadily forward since the first settlers braved the wilderness to build a free America.

"Through regular savings we build up reserves against misfortune and provide income for our later years, thus lessening the burden upon others. We accumulate funds for worthwhile purchases and investments. The buying power we store up helps to stabilize business and employment through the years.

"As your mayor, I urge all who are able to help to reach every possible Bond buyer during the campaign. The more we exceed our Independence Drive quota and the more we spread the habit of regular saving, through the Payroll Savings Plan or purchase of Bonds at banks and post offices, the more we shall have done for ourelves, our communities and our nation. "In honor of the hallowed symbol of our can principles by and grow and upon our citizens opening of this Drive by the throughout the and the displaying tion's flag on Monday

Mr. and Mrs. spent Sunday in her sister, Mrs. and Mr. Adams.

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes on Feb. 20, 1948:

"Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Mo.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for the benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

Attendance Marks Last By Rev. J. L. Emery

of the Rev. J. L. Emery, Pastor of the Church in the largest attendance since the church was organized, and it was necessary to provide chairs for the overflow throng of worshippers. There were numerous persons present from Brownwood and Lometa.

The Rev. Carey Miller of the Big Valley Baptist Church led his flock in attending to pay tribute to Brother and Mrs. Emery. Also in attendance were the Congregations from the Jones Valley, Trigger Mountain, Pompey and Scallorn Baptist Churches.

Both of last Sunday's services at the First Baptist Church were attended by delegations from the Downtown Men's Bible Class of Goldthwaite. Before the morning service, which was broadcast by Radio Station KCLW of Hamilton, the Downtown Men's Bible Class, meeting at the Melba Theater, presented Brother Emery with a desk lamp and a fountain pen.

On his last Sunday as Pastor here, Brother Emery received eight new members into the Fellowship of the First Baptist Church. There were five Baptisms at last Sunday night's service.

Next Sunday, Brother Emery will occupy his new pulpit as Pastor of the Riverside Baptist Church in Houston. In Houston, the Emerys will reside at 3225 Arbor Street. They left Goldthwaite on Tuesday for their new home and Parish.

Last Monday night, Brother and Mrs. Emery were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Bradford at a chicken barbecue at Lake Merritt, and the Emerys spent their last night in Mills County at the Ed Gilliam cottage, also at Lake Merritt.

During their last weekend here, the Emerys had with them Mr. and Mrs. Earl O. Snider of Beckley, West Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. Snider are the parents of Mrs. Emery. Visiting with them was Mrs. Emery's brother, Jimmy McDaniel Snider, who is 3. Prior to coming to Goldthwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Snider last Friday attended graduation exercises at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, where degrees were conferred upon both Brother and Mrs. Emery.

Before leaving Goldthwaite, Brother Emery said that the kindnesses showered on the Emerys during their last weeks here had been of an order "that never had happened before."

"We are so appreciative and so deeply humbled by the many, many expressions of esteem that have been made to us that all we can say is that our experiences make us even firmer in our belief that the people of Goldthwaite are the dearest in the world," Brother Emery said.

Brother Emery told of a cash gift and a chair that was given to the Emerys at a reception at the First Baptist Church last Saturday night. He told of numerous manifestations of affection, including a gift of cuff links from young Don and Del Barnett, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Delton Barnett. Young Don and Del included their photographs with their gift and they will always be cherished, Brother Emery said.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Chandler of Texas City were recent guests in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Chandler.

Three Weddings, Same Night, At C. M. Head Home

Whatever happens on the "Society Page" of this week's Eagle is in the hands of our Miss Earlene Nix, so far as weddings are concerned, but this space is devoted to an attempt to have our readers understand the great excitement last Friday night in the Center City home of the Rev. C. M. Head and Mrs. Head.

This may cause envy to rise in the breast of Justice of the Peace E. A. Obenhaus, but all the same, it is a fact that last Friday night, along about six o'clock, three, repeat three, couples appeared at the Center City home of the Heads to ask that marriage rites be solemnized for them.

In succession Brother Head united in matrimony Johnny Max Head, formerly of Goldthwaite and now of Temple, and Joyce Florence Warren of Mullin; G. Hamil Lynch of Goldthwaite and Charlene Beryl Warren of Mullin; and Jerry D. Covington of Pleasant Grove and Anna Merle Epperson of Goldthwaite.

Johnny Max Head is a grandson of Brother Head, who told the Eagle that in all his long experience he had never had such a rush of marrying business all at one time before. Brother Head gave assurance that despite the excitement of last Friday night he was sure he had married the right brides to the right bridegrooms. He had had a tip that there was to be a wedding. It came from Chief Arranger Johnny Max Head. But there had been no prior indication that there

Mrs. Ray C. Davis Has Several Guests

Mrs. Ray C. Davis of Goldthwaite last Sunday entertained Ray W. Stark and family of Lawn. With the Starks was Mr. Stark's mother, Mrs. Maria Stark, who has been visiting for the past two months in Ranger, Lawn and Munday.

Other visitors at the home of Mrs. Ray Davis last Sunday were Mrs. Audry Stark and G. D. Ethridge and family and Howard Ethridge and family of Grand Prairie. Mrs. Howard Ethridge and her sons remained to spend a week with Mrs. Davis.

would be THREE weddings. All the licenses were in proper order, Brother Head said, and peace and calm finally descended on Center City when all six of the newlyweds rushed off to Temple for honeymoons. There may have been peace and calm in Center City, but Brother Head still was bubbling over with excitement this week when he came in to tell the Eagle all about what happened in Center City last Friday night.

Mr. Head brought back a lot of memories to the Eagle's editor, whose Dad was a Clergyman. Whenever there were events in the editor's boyhood home such as the events that caused such a commotion in the C. M. Head home in Center City last Friday, the meals were a bit better for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Broils of Dallas were weekend guests at the Owen Yarborough cabin at Lake Merritt.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Y. Sims of Gatesville spent Saturday with his mother, Mrs. J. D. Sims, who is ill but is some improved.

R. W. Hester of Fort Worth spent a few hours Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hester. Mr. Hester was on his way to west Texas on business.

George R. Willis and son Robert of Comanche and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hamilton spent Saturday with the latter's son, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hamilton at Mountain Home.

sented here out of context. I give it to you straight, just as it came from Washington, and without any change in the order of its presentation. It went on to say this: "These preliminary figures have been derived from a census report on Mills County, Texas. Final figures, superseding the preliminary data for Mills County, will be included in a bulletin for the State of Texas to be issued in several months. Similar data will be made available this year in preliminary and final form for each of the Counties and States."

I can hardly wait! I am trying to picture the businessmen in Goldthwaite and elsewhere in Mills County who answered a lot of Government questions back in 1948—I am trying to picture them as they sit with baited breath, waiting for the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, to come up with its final report. Now that we have a preliminary report, perhaps it will make more of us ask ourselves how long we intend to allow Unlimited Government to make monkeys of itself and us.

As a final little tid-bit, it may be of interest to you to know that originally, the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, had intended to release its preliminary report on May 8, 1950. It appears that the handout was all set for release on May 8, 1950, but along came a bureaucrat to decide that the release date should be May 11, 1950. That gave another Government employee something to do. He or she had to sit down, cross out the May 8, and make it May 11 instead. That made practically no difference at all to this weekly newspaper, but it did give a job to somebody who, in return for crossing out May 8 and making it May 11, could keep on voting for an Administration that follows the "Papa Knows Best" philosophy of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and his still-surviving successor.

The Government handout on which this column is based is available at the Eagle office for inspection. It will cost you nothing to look at it. Remember, however, that you did pay for it, and that you will continue to pay for such gems so long as you surrendered your freedoms piecemeal to Unlimited Government.

News Of The Brown-Mills Soil Conservation District

W. A. Hill and Son bought 200 acres of the Camp Bowie Conservation land on the Pecan Bayou to supplement the grazing on their home place. But after a year's hard work, the Pecan Bayou Ranch is beginning to look different.

Where shell holes, broomweeds and needlegrass once predominated, the land now is covered with small grain, vetch, sweetclover and native grass seedlings. Mr. Hill and Charles Wilbur used ingenious methods in leveling the land and preparing the seed bed for the growing crops. Eighty-two acres of land was seeded to small grain, vetch, biennial sweetclover and phosphate fertilizer. Forty-three acres were seeded to bluestem mixture, Sideoats grama and Canada wildrye last fall. This spring, Mr. Hill seeded 13 acres to Sudan grass and Hubam sweetclover with fertilizer.

Of course, the bottomland pasture has an excellent cover of winter grasses, such as Texas wintergrass and Canada wildrye. This pasture has furnished winter grazing for the cattle with very little feed this winter.

Mr. Hill plans now to harvest the small grain and vetch. With favorable rains, the biennial sweetclover will furnish summer grazing for the cattle. The grass seedlings are protected from grazing now, but when they are well established, the grasses will also furnish summer grazing.

While the cattle are on the Pecan Bayou Ranch, Mr. Hill is resting two pastures on his home place. His sheep are running on one pasture and grazing on the cultivated fields which are seeded to small grain and Madrid sweetclover.

Mr. Hill and Son are working on a program of soil improvement on their cultivated land and their pastures. They have found that the land is easier to prepare after a year's growth of vetch or clover.

Cockrums Visit Shooting Victim

R. L. "Bob" Cockrum, who was wounded by a blast from Tom Fuller's shotgun on the afternoon of May 3, had a number of out-of-town visitors before he was released from hospital.

In addition to visits from numerous friends and relatives in Mills County, Mr. Cockrum was visited by his nephew, Dan Cockrum of Post, who was born and reared in Mills County and who worked at the Eagle about 1922. After having been with the Post Dispatch for 21 years, Dan now is in hearings before the Federal Communications Commission in Washington for the purpose of establishing a radio station in Post.
